DESCRIPTION OF GREAT BRITAIN; AND FIRST Of the Southern Part of it, CAL'D ENGLAND.

CHAP. I.

Of the Name, Climate, Dimensions, and Divisions of ENGLAND.

Name.]  HE whole Island of Great Britain was called anciently Albion; which Appellation is still retained in Scotland by the Descendants of the ancient Celts, who still call Scotland, Alban, and the Scots, Albanach. Afterwards, as appears in the Time of Lucretius and Julius Caesar, this Island was called BRITANNIA, from Brith, which in the old British Tongue signifies Painted (for the same Reason that the Extra-Provincial Britains were afterwards called Picts, from their retaining the ancient Custom of painting their Skins); but about 800 Years after the Incarnation of Christ (by a special Edict of King Egbert, who was descended from the Angles, a People of the Lower Saxony, in whose Possession the greatest Part of this Country then was) the South Part was called Angle, or Englelond, or, as we now pronounce it, England.

Climate.] It is situated between the Degrees 17 and 22 of Longitude, [i. e. supposing the first Meridian to be fixed at the Book I.

Azores;

Azores ; but London, in all our late Maps, is made the first Meridian] as are Britany and Normandy in France, and between 50 and 56 of Northern Latitude, as are Flanders, Zealand, Holland, Lower Saxony, and Denmark, advantageously for Traffick to all Parts of the World.

The longest Day in the most Northern Parts is 17 Hours 30 Minutes, and the shortest Day in the most Southern Parts is almost 8 Hours.

Dimensions.] It is in Shape Triangular, the longest Side from Berwick North, to the Land's End South-West, 386 Miles ; from Berwick to Sandwich, S. S. E. about 280 Miles ; from Sandwich E. to the Land's-End W. by S. 279 Miles. And the Perpendicular from Berwick to Portsmouth, N. and S. 320 Miles : Contains, by Computation, 39,038,500 Acres, 1,175,951 Houses, is almost ten times as big as the United Netherlands, five times as big as the Spanish Netherlands ; less than Italy by almost one Half, and, in Comparison with France, is as 30 to 82. The Yearly Rent of all the Lands in England and Wales is computed at 7,500,000 Pounds, besides the Rent of Houses. [The Rents of England, if all the Lands were taxed to the height, would be Ten Millions, because the Land-Tax at 4 s. in the Pound (which is a fifth Part of the Whole) makes Two Millions : But as four Tenths of the Lands are supposed to be taxed at half the Value, we therefore add Four Millions more, and then the Rents of all the Lands of England must amount to Fourteen Millions, which is almost Double what Mr. Chamberlayn supposed them to be.]

Division.] The whole Provincial Britain, which took in England and the Low-Lands of Scotland as far as Graham's Dike, was, in the Time of the Romans, divided into Britannia Prima, Britannia Secunda, and Maxima Caesariensis. The first of these contained the South Part of England ; the second all that Western Part now called Wales ; and the third, the Northern Part beyond Trent ; and, by a late Division, into Britannia Prima, Britannia Secunda, Flavia Caesariensis, Maxima Caesariensis, and Valentia.

As to its Political Division, England (including Wales) is first divided into 52 Counties, and they are sub-divided into Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes, and Hundreds, and they again into Tythings.

According to its Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, it is divided first into 2 Provinces, or Archbishopricks, Canterbury and York ; these 2 Provinces into 26 Dioceses, which are again divided into 60 Archdeaconries, and those into Rural Deaneries, and those again into Parishes ; of which there are in both Provinces 9284, hereof 3845 are Churches Improprate, i. e. in Lay-hands, where Lay-men receive the Tythes ; or Appropriate, i. e. annexed to Colleges, or Church-Dignities.

Of Parishes (Camden says) there are but 9284, from a Catalogue exhibited to King James I.

 South Court Arthur Olden & J. J. Jacobs

Chaplain, School-Master, and Usher. At Nonfuch is a Vein of Earth fit to make Crucibles.

Suffex.

Is in the Diocese of Chichester, 158 Miles in Circumference; contains about 1,140,000 Acres, and 21,537 Houses. The South Downs, which lie parallel to the Sea, are dry, bear good Grass, and are pleasant; the Low Lands, or Wild of Suffex, bear Oats incredibly; the Soil rich and deep; the Forests barren, and towards the East, full of Iron Ore. Its Manufactures are Cast-Iron of all sorts, for which there are many great Forges in the Eastern Wild towards Kent. It has diverse Rivers, but the most considerable is Arun. Its Commodities Corn, Cattle, Malt, Wool, Wood, Iron, Chalk, Glass, Fish and Fowl; among which the delicate Wheat-Ear Bird is said to be peculiar to this County. A Suffex Carp, and Arundel Mullet, a Chichester Lobster, an Amerley Trout, are famous. Here are 312 Parishes, and 16 Towns; the chief is Chichester, a Bishop's See, 50 Miles from London; hath a fine Cathedral Church; Lewes is a large Town, where the Assizes are generally held. Yorkshire.

Is in York Diocese, 360 Miles in Circumference; contains about 3,770,000 Acres, and 106,151 Houses. The Air diverse, the Soil generally rich. 'Tis divided into three Divisions, anciently called Tithings (i. e. Third Parts) now corruptly Ridings, East, North, and West which is the largest. Its Rivers, Humber (the Conflux of the following, Aire, Culder, Dun, Derwent, Nile, Ouse, Swall-Youre Warf) and Tees. Its Commodities Corn, Cattle, fine Horses, Allom, Jett, Lime, Fish, Herrings near Scarborough; Iron about Sheffield; Goats at Sureby. Its Manufactures, Cloth, Stockings, Knives, and Spurs. In the North-Riding is a Tract of Land, called Richmondshire, whose Hills afford Lead, Copper, and Pitcoal. Its chief Town Richmond. Here is in all 563 Parish-Churches, with many Chapels of Ease and 49 Towns. The Shire-Town, York, 150 Miles from London, is reputed to be the second City of England, large, the Buildings old, and the Streets narrow, though there's now built there one of the finest Rooms in England for an Assembly-Room, and by Subscription of the neighbouring Gentlemen, and is computed cost upwards of 10,000*l*. This City hath in the Middle of it a noble Stone-bridge over the River Ouse, consisting principally of one huge Arch: It is inclosed with a strong Wall, contains 32 Churches and Chapels, whereof 28 are still in Use. Has a magnificent Cathedral Church, and is an Archbishop's See. This City is governed by a Mayor, who has the Title of Lord, which no other Mayor has but he of London. Hull, otherwise called Kingston upon Hull, has been one of the strongest Fortresses of England, but now of little or no Strength, there being no Guns mounted at the Fort, which daily runs to Decay. Sheffield is noted for Smiths Trade, Rotheram for three Schools, first for Languages, second for Musick, third for Writing; Knaesborough for four medicinal Springs of different Operations; one of which, called the Dropping-Well, is the most famous of all the petrifying Springs in England; Doncaster for knit Waistcoats, Gloves and Stockings; Leeds for Clothiers; Sherborn for its Free-School; Pontefract, Knarborough, and Ripley for Liquorice; Rippon for Clothiers and Spur-makers. Borough-bridge has near it four huge Pyramidal-stones (called by the Vulgar, The Devil's Arrows) a Monument of Antiquity. Here are many excellent Harbours, as Scarborough, famous likewise for its medicinal Spaw-Waters, Burlington, &c. Chief Seats are, Mulgrave Castle, late Duke of Buck's; Sheffield Mannor, Duke of Norfolk's; Kiveton, Duke of Leed's; Castle Howard, the Earl of Carlisle's; Stainsborough and Wentworth Castle, the Earl of Strafford's; Londesburgh, the Earl of Burlington's; Hornby Castle, Earl of Holderness's; Wentworth House, Earl Malton's; Snaith-Hall, Lord Downs's; Temple-Newsam, Lord Irwyn's; Leadstone-Hall, Lady Betty Hastings's; Newby, Sir Edward Blacket's, Bart.; Constable-Burton, Sir Marm. Wyvil's, Bart.; Great Ribston, Sir Henry Goodrich's, Bart.; Swillington, Sir William Lowther's; Sprotborough, late Sir Godfrey Copely's, Bart.; Acklam, Sir William Husler's; Angleby Mannor, Sir William Foulis's, Bart.; Boynnton, Sir William Strickland's; Scampston, Sir William St. Quintin's; Wheatly, Sir G. Cooke's; Albrough, Sir Roger Beckwith's; Calverley, Sir Walter Calverley's; Nosfell, Sir Rowland Wynne's; Nun Appleton-Hall, Sir William Milner's; Kirkleatham, Mr. Turner's; Whixley, Mr. Tancred's; Gisborough, Mr. Chaloner's; Hemsley, Mr. Duncomb's; near Beverley, Mr. Bradshaw's.

WALES, is generally divided into Twelve Counties.

Anglesey,

IS in the Diocese of Bangor, 60 Miles in Circumference; contains about 200,000 Acres, and 1840 Houses; an Island encompassed by the Irish Sea on all Sides but the South-East, where it is parted from Cairnarvon by the River Menia. This Island was anciently called Insula Opaca, from the great Quantity of Wood with which it was overgrown; but it is now so bare, especially in the Northern and Western Parts, that very few Trees can be seen fit either for Timber or Shelter. Its principal Commodities are Corn, Cattle, Fish, and Fowl. It has 74 Parishes and 2 Towns; the chief Beaumaris, 184 Miles from London, well built, and a good Harbour for Ships. Chief Seat, Lord Bulkeley's, near Beaumaris.

Brecknockshire,

Is in Landaff Diocese, 106 Miles in Circumference; contains about 620,000 Acres, and 5,934 Houses. Its Mountains are barren, but its Valleys are very fruitful. Its principal Commodities are Corn, Cattle, Fish, and some Otter-Furr. It hath 61 Parishes, and 4 Towns; the chief Brecknock, 124 Miles from London at the Meeting of the Rivers Hodney and Usk. It is a well built Town, where the Assizes are kept, and hath a good good Trade for Cloathing. Its chief Seats are Grikkhowel-Castle, and Tretowre Castle, Duke of Beaufort's.

Cardiganhire,

Is in the Diocese of St. David's, 94 Miles in Circumference; contains about 520,000 Acres, and 3,163 Houses; a plentiful Country, and noted for its Lead and Silver Mines: It hath 77 Parishes, and 4 Towns. The Shire and Assize-Town, Cardigan, is pleasantly seated on the River Tywy, over which it has a fair Stone-bridge. It is a large populous Town, walled about, and fortified with a Castle; hath a fair Church, and is 148 Miles from London.

Caermarthenshire,

Is in the Diocese of St. David's, 102 Miles in Circumference; contains about 700,000 Acres, and 5,352 Houses; not so mountainous as other Counties in Wales; abounds with Corn, Grass, Cattle, Salmon, Wood, Pit-coal, and the best Lead. Here are 87 Parishes, and 8 Towns. The Shire and Assize-Town is Caermarthen, upon the River Towy, with a large Bridge. Here is a Mayor, two Sheriffs, and Aldermen, all in Scarlet Gowns, with other Ensigns of State; 178 Miles from London. At Castle-Kareg are vast Caverns, supposed to have been Copper-Mines of the Romans. Its chief Seats are Golden Grove and Emlyn, Duke of Bolton's; Edinsford, Sir Nich. Williams's; Newton, Sir John Price's; Aberglasney, Mr. Gwynn's.

Caernarvonshire,

Is in the Diocese of Bangor, 95 Miles in Circumference; contains about 370,000 Acres, and 2,765 Houses; is very strong by Nature, with spiry Hills, the highest in all Wales; plentiful in Cattle, Fowl, Fish, and Wood. It has 68 Parishes, and 6 Towns, all Havens. Caernarvon is the County-Town, 180 Miles from London.

Denbighshire,

Is mostly in the Diocese of St. Asaph; but the Vale of Clywd is all, or most of it, in Bangor Diocese, and Denbigh itself is in that of St. Asaph. And here it may not be improper to observe, that the Reason why the Jurisdictions of the Bishops of St. Asaph and Bangor are so intermix'd, is supposed to be, because the former was Bishop in the Dominions of the Princes of North-Wales, and the latter in those of the Princes of Powis-Land. This County is 116 Miles in Circumference, and contains about 410,000 Acres, and 6,398 Houses. The East Part is naturally fruitful, and the West improved with the Ashes of burnt Turf. The Inhabitants are cheerful and long liv'd. Here is plenty of Rye or Amel-Corn, Goats and Sheep, and good Quantity of Lead Oar in many Parts of this County. It hath 57 Parishes and 4 Towns, one of which is Denbigh, which hath a most impregnable Castle. This is a Town of good Trade for Tanners and Glovers. Wrexham, the biggest Town in North-Wales, has a neat Church and lofty Steeple. The Chief Seat is Chirk.

Chirk-Castle, Mr. Myddelton's; Llewenny, Sir Robert-Salusbury Cotton's; Wynslay, Mr. Williams's.

Flintshire,

Is mostly in the Diocese of St. Asaph, and the rest in Chester. It is 40 Miles in Circumference; contains about 160,000 Acres, and 3,150 Houses. Its Valleys are very fruitful, and its Inhabitants long liv'd. The chief Commodities are Cattle, Butter, Cheese, Pit-coal, Lead, Mill-stones and Honey, with which they make good Store of Metheglin. It has 28 Parishes and 3 Towns. Flint, the Shire-Town, is so small, that it hath not a Market. St. Asaph is an ancient Episcopal See, upon the River Elwy, 159 Miles from London. Caerwys is the chief Market-town in the County, every Village being well furnished of its self. Chief Seats, Mostyn, Sir Roger Mostyn's, near which are the famous Coal-pits of that Place, which go a great way to supply Dublin with Coal; and Llanerch, Mr. Davies's.

Glamorganshire,

Is in Landaff Diocese, 112 Miles in Circumference; contains about 540,000 Acres, and 9,644 Houses. The North Part is mountainous, the South a fruitful Valley, called The Garden of Wales. Its chief Commodities are Corn and Cattle. Here are 118 Parishes and 9 Towns. Landaff, 226 Miles from London, the Bishop's See, is a City, but so small, it hath not a Market. At Newton is a Well which swells up when the Sea ebbs, and sinks as the Flood encreases. The chief Seats are Swansey Castle, Duke of Beaufort's; Cardiff Castle, Lord Windsor's; Coytry Castle, late Earl of Leicester's; Keven Malby, Sir Charles Keymis's; Wenwoe, Sir ~~William~~ Thomas's; Llantrithid, Sir John Aubrey's; Margam, Lord Mansell's; Henjol, Mr. Talbot's; St. Donat's, Mr. Mansel's.

Merionethshire,

Is in the Diocese of Bangor, 108 Miles in Circumference; contains about 500,000 Acres, and 2,590 Houses; extremely mountainous, and the Mountains steepy. The Inhabitants are very comely. It abounds with Sheep, Fish, Fowl, and wrought Cottons. It has 37 Parishes and 3 Towns, the chief Harlech, 168 Miles from London, of Note heretofore for its stately Castle.

Montgomeryshire,

Is in three Dioceses; New Town, Pool, Llanvelling, and Machynlleth, are in St. Asaph; Llandylos in Bangor; but the Town of Montgomery is in Hereford. It is 94 Miles in Circumference; contains about 560,000 Acres, and 5,660 Houses, delightful with many Hills and fruitful Valleys; breeds very good Horses, and Plenty of Goats. It hath 47 Parishes and 6 Towns. Montgomery, the Shire-Town, 120 Miles from London, is pleasantly seated, and has a strong Castle. Its chief Seats are Powis Castle, and Buttington Hall, Marquis of Powis's; Vaynor, Lord Hereford's; Lloydierd, Mr. Wynne's; and Garth, Sir Charles

Pembroke

Pembroke-shire,

Is in the Diocese of St. David's, 93 Miles in Circumference ; contains about 420,000 Acres, and 4,329 Houses. The East Part is very pleasant, and the whole County plentiful in all Necessaries for Life. Part of it is inhabited by Flemings, placed here by Henry I. Their Country is called Little England beyond Wales. Here is Plenty of Fish, Fowl, Pit-coal, and Marl. It has 45 Parishes and 9 Towns ; Pembroke the Shire-Town, 195 Miles from London, is well inhabited by Gentlemen and Tradesmen, fortified with a Wall and strong Castle ; St. David's the Episcopal See : An ancient Seat in it, Piston Castle, belonging to Sir John Phillips, Bart. ; Orielton, Sir Arthur Owen's ; Pendergrafs, Sir Thomas Stepney's ; Slebetch and Colby, Mr. Barlow's. In this Shire is also contained the Town and County of Haverford-West, and Milford Haven, the largest and most capacious Harbour in the Kingdom.

Radnor-shire,

Is in the Diocese of Herefordshire, 90 Miles in Circumference ; contains about 310,000 Acres, and 3,158 Houses ; hath great Varieties of Air and Soil, stored with Woods, Rivers, and Meres. Its chief Commodities are Cheese and Horses. It hath 52 Parishes and 4 Towns. Radnor is the Shire-Town, 119 Miles from London, hath a Castle. Prestigne is a large well-built Town, where the Assizes are held, 116 Miles from London. Chief Seats, Harnage-Grange, Sir William Fowler's ; Maesfyllwich, Sir Humphry Howarth's ; Artlis, and Harpton, Mr. Thomas Lewis's.

There are in all, in England and Wales together, 25 Cities, 750 great Towns, called Market-Towns, 9,913 Parishes, some of 40 or 50 Miles Circuit, 61 Forests, and about 300 Parks.

It appears from the Observations and Calculations of the late George King, Esq; published by Dr. D'Avenant, that the Rents of the Lands, by the Produce of the late Taxes, seem to be near 10 Millions per Annum ; and that the Houses (not let with the Lands) amount to 2 Millions per Annum : And all other Hereditaments to about 2 Millions more ; in all 14 Millions : So that the People and Territories of the King of England alone, may be valued for Wealth and Strength at above one Half of those of France. And since the whole annual Expence of the King of England's Subjects is about 50 Millions [The annual Income I suppose is meant here instead of the annual Expence, and no body ever yet supposed our whole annual Income to amount to more than 32,000,000. I hope our Expences don't much exceed our Income at present] it will require but an 8th Part thereof to maintain 100,000 Foot, 30,000 Horse, 40,000 Seamen, and to defray all other Charges of the Government Ordinary and Extraordinary. [But if our annual Expences for the Support of the Government and paying the Interest of 50,000,000 l. in which the Nation is indebted, amounts to 5,000,000 per Annum in Time of Peace, and we should be obliged to enter into War, which would cost 6 or 7 Millions more annually, in all 11 or 12,000,000 per Annum, how long would the Nation be able to maintain such a War, when her whole Income amounts to no more than 32 Millions per Annum; 30 Millions whereof are supposed to be expended annually in maintaining the People; whether in this Case we should not run out 10 Millions every Year beyond our Income?

England, without Wales, is divided into 6 Circuits, allotted to the 12 Judges to hold Assizes twice a Year. It is also divided by the King's Justices in Eyre of the Forests, and by the Kings of Arms, into North and South; that is, all Counties upon the North and South-side of Trent.

CHAP. IV.

Of its AIR, SOIL and COMMODITIES.

Air.] THE Air is far more mild and temperate, if not more healthy, than any Part of the Continent under the same Climate.

By reason of the warm Vapours of the Sea on every side, and the very frequent Winds from the huge Western Ocean, the Cold in Winter is oftentimes less sharp than in some Parts of France and Italy, which yet are seated far more Southerly:

And the Heat in Summer is less scorching than in some Parts of the Continent, that lie much more Northward.

Soil.] It is blessed with a very fertile wholesome Soil, watered abundantly with Springs and Streams, and in diverse Parts with great Navigable Rivers; and several of late Years have been made so. It hath few barren Mountains and craggy Rocks, but generally pleasant Hills, rising with easy Ascents and fruitful Valleys, apt for Corn, Grass, or Wood.

Commodities.] As it is divided by the Sea from the rest of the World, so it may, without the Assistance of any other Part of the World, more easily subsist than any of its neighbouring Countries.

First, For wholesome substantial Food (as well as Delicates) there is Plenty of Fowl, Fish, and Flesh of all sorts.

England likewise abounds with Wheat, Barley, Rye, Pulse, Beans, and Oats, with excellent Butter and Cheese, Honey, Saffron, and may other choice Commodities for Food, Medicine and Pleasure.

The Fields are sufficiently full of every thing the Earth produces for the Use of Life.

For Drinks, we abound with Beer, Ale, Cyder, Perry, Metheglin and Mede, Brandy made either of Malt or Apples, &c.

Here is great Plenty of excellent Fruit of all sorts; but in Orchards and Gardens you have Apples, Pears, Plumbs, Cherries, Peaches, Apricots, Nectarines, Strawberries, &c. Variety of all sorts, and in as great Perfection as any of the said Fruits, especially Pears, are found in the Kingdom of France.

The

The Kitchen-garden affords us as great Plenty of all sorts of Herbs and Roots, and they come to as great Maturity as any of the same Species in our neighbouring Nations.

It is endless to reckon up the Varieties of the Flower-gardens: From all Quarters and Climates curious Plants have been brought, especially of late Years, into England: And in the Physick-garden at Chelsea, we may at once see Specimens of every known Sort of the whole Vegetable Kingdom, that at Oxford not being kept up in the Manner it ought.

Now of all these Things there is such a constant Continuance, by reason of the Clemency of the Climate, that scarce the least Famine, which frequenteth other Countries, hath been felt in England these 400 Years.

Then for Raiment, England produceth generally very fine Wool, which makes our Cloth more lasting than other Country Cloth, and better conditioned against Wind and Weather; and in such Abundance, that not only all sorts, from the highest to the lowest, are cloathed therewith; but so much hath been heretofore transported beyond the Seas, that in Honour of the English Wool, which then brought such Plenty of Gold into the Territories of Philip the Good, Duke of Burgundy (where the Staple for English Wool was in those Days kept) he instituted that famous Military Order of the Golden Fleece, after the English Garter, the noblest Order of Knighthood in Europe.

This Abundance and Cheapness of Wool in England proceeds not only from the Goodness of the Soil, but also from a Freedom from Wolves, and from excessive Heats and Colds, which in other Countries create Charge and constant guarding their Sheep, and housing them by Night, and sometimes by Day also; and if the Woollen Manufactory had proper Encouragement, and Running of Wool prevented, it would be of vast Service to the Nation: And for advancing the Manufactures of Cloth, that necessary Earth, called Fullers-Earth, is no where else produced in that Abundance and Excellency as in England.

It wants not Linnen for all Uses, at least not Ground to produce Flax and Hemp, and fine Paper made of Linnen, although there hath been much Linnen imported with much Paper, to the Shame and Damage of the Nation. But there are lately many Paper-mills erected, and tolerable fine Paper made in several Places of England.

Besides, there is in England great Plenty of excellent Leather, for all sorts of Uses; insomuch, that the poorest People in England wear good Shoes of Leather; whereas in our neighbouring Countries, the Poor generally wear either Shoes of Wood, or none at all.

For Building, it wants not Timber, nor Iron, Stone nor Slate, nor Ardoise, or blue Slate, Brick nor Tiles, Marble nor Alabaster, Mortar or Lime, Lead nor Glafs.

For Firing, either Wood, Sea-coal, or Pit-coal, is almost every where to be had at reasonable Rates; and also Turf.

For

For Shipping, no where better Oak, no where such Knee-Timber, as they call it, for which four Forests are eminent and convenient likewise for Portage, viz. New Forest in Hampshire, near the Sea, Sherwood on the Trent, Dean, on the Severn, and Wind-for-Forest near the Thames. We have likewise great Store of Iron. For War, for Coach and Waggon, for Travelling, Hunting and Racing, no where greater Plenty of Horses, though your New-England Pads are esteemed as the swiftest Pacers; also for Plough and Pack-Carriage; insomuch as Mules and Asses, so generally made use of in France, Italy and Spain, are utterly despised in England.

Here are Dogs of all Sorts, Sizes and Uses, as Mastiffs, Greyhounds, Spaniels for Land and Water, Hounds for Stag, Buck, Fox, Hare and Otter, Lurchers, Setting-dogs, &c. The Bear and Bull-dog Mastiffs seem to be the boldest and strongest Creatures of their Size in the World; one of them will encounter singly a Lion, Bear, Bull, or any Creature they are set upon, and not give over to the last Breath of Life. Our Game-Cocks likewise are so stout and hardy, that if two of them are well matched, they both become dying Conquerors by slaying one another; but it is well known both of English Cocks and Dogs, that if they are carried into another Country, after some considerable Time they degenerate.

Moreover, England produceth, besides a mighty Quantity of Tin, Lead and Iron, some Brass and Copperas, Copper, and Lapis Calaminaris to make Brass; much Allum, Salt, Hops, Liquorice, Wax, Tallow, Coney-furs, Salt-petre, Madder, and Woad for Dying; all Sorts of Glass, Flax, Hemp, &c. and diverse other beneficial Commodities. It wants not Mines of Silver in Wales, Cornwall, Lancashire, and the Bishoprick of Durham, which yield ordinarily six or eight Ounces per Cent. but most of these lying deep, are hard to come unto, and Workmen dear.

It wants not Hot Baths, as in Somersetshire, Derbyshire, and other Places, abound in Medicinal Springs, working either by Stool or Urine, as at Tunbridge, Epsom, Scarborough, Astrop, Acton, Barnet, North-Hall, Dullidge, Islington, Sellenge, Cobham, Shooter's-Hill, Richmond and Hampstead. [Of late Years the Holt Water has been much used: At Otters-Pool near Watford in Hertfordshire is an excellent Cold Bath, which has done great Good to Persons afflicted with the Rheumatism, Scorbutick, Leprosy, and other Humours.]

Tho' some Countries excel England in such Things, yet generally there is no one Country which hath greater Abundance of all Things necessary for Man's Life, and more especially for all kind of Food; insomuch that it hath been judged, that there is yearly as much Flesh and Beer consumed in England, by over-plentiful Tables, as would serve three times the Number of People. Add to all this, that being encompassed with the Sea, and well furnished with Ships, and abundance of commodious and excellent Havens and Ports, it excels for Safety and Security all the neighbouring Countries.

CHAP. V.

Of its INHABITANTS, their Number, Language, and Character.

Inhabitants. THE first Inhabitants in England were Britons, descended from the Gauls, whose Language was once almost the same; subdued after by the Romans, who, by reason of their Troubles nearer Home, were constrained to abandon this Country about 400 Years after Christ; whereupon the Extra-Provincial Britons, then called Picts (from retaining the Custom of painting their Bodies, once in common to the Inhabitants of the whole Island) invading the Britons, they called to their Aid the Saxons, who casting away the Picts, soon made themselves Masters of the Britons: But these not able to endure the heavy Yoke of the Saxons, after many Battles and Attempts to recover their lost Liberties and Country, retired, or were driven, some of them into Bretagne in France, but most of them into the two utmost western barren and mountainous Parts of this Country, called afterwards by the Saxons, Walishland, as the Germans still call Italy, Welshland, because inhabited by the Cisalpine Gauls, and the French call our Country of Britain, Le Pais de Galles.

The Saxons solely possessed of all the best Parts of this Isle, were for a long Time infested, and for some Time almost subdued by the Danes, and afterwards wholly by the Normans, who drove not out the Saxons, but mixed with them; so that the English Blood at this Day is a mixture chiefly of Norman and Saxon, not without a Tincture of Danish, Roman, and British Blood.

Number of Inhabitants.] To give the Reader an exact Account of the Number of People in England, will be very difficult; but a near Conjecture may be thus made.

England contains, according to the Calculation of Mr. Houghton, in his Account of the Acres and Houses, with the proportional Tax of each County of England and Wales, printed Anno 1693, 1,175,951 Houses. Now allowing to each House, one with another 6 Persons, there will be found in all 7,055,706 Souls, and amongst them 1,000,000 of Fighting men. All the Souls in France are computed at 13,500,0000, or at the most 15,000,000, of which 270,000 are Churchmen, besides Nuns; the Clergy of England are not 15,000.

Their Language.] The English Tongue is a Mixture, chiefly of the old Saxon (a Dialect of the Teutonic) and the old Norman (which was Part French, Part Danish) with a large Mixture of the British, Roman, and Danish Languages.

The Names of Shires, Cities, Towns and Villages, Places, and Men in England, are generally Saxon; and so are most Nouns Appellative, and a great Part of the Verbs.

In French, or rather Norman, are written some old Statutes and many old Books and Reports of the Common Laws, and learned by young Students thereof; the Reports and Law-Books of late Date are all in English, and, by a late Act of Parliament, the Proceedings and Pleadings are to be so: In Parliament the Assent or Dissent to Bills made by the King, Lords, or Commons, is in French: Almost all our Terms in Cookery, Dicing, Dancing, Singing, Heraldry, &c. are still French.

Character] The Natives of England are generally of a middle Stature: They are fair, especially the Women: The Men are strong, courageous, warlike, resolute, enterprising, liberal to Prodigality, open-hearted, easy to be provoked, yet, when exasperated, stomachful till Satisfaction be given, and then easy to be reconciled; sumptuous and splendid, great Lovers of Hospitality, magnanimous, beneficent, and learned: They are thought to be industrious (the Mechanics being of all Nations the greatest Improvers) but want Caution, Suspicion, Craft, Obsequiousness, and, which is most of all to be deplored, Content: Yet these Wants are supplied by many eminent Qualifications, as Dexterity, Sagacity, Eloquence, Fidelity, Friendship, Publick-spiritedness.

The Daringness of the Soldier, the Profoundness of the Scholar, the Magnificence of the Gentry, and the Robustness of the Labourer, are not surpassed, if equalled, by any People in the World.

The Women are not without Vanity, Pretensions to Saïre, Railery, and the like; which Vices they have borrowed from their Neighbours the French: But no Women out-do them in Modesty, Patience, Charity, providential Care, Temperance, Wit, good Humour, Cleanliness, and that which crowns all the rest, is the Sincerity and Zeal of religious Devotion.

Good Nature is a Qualification peculiar to the English, so peculiar, that, as a noole Writer observes, there is no Word for it in any other Language.

The Inhabitants are generally of solid Parts, apprehensive and sagacious; successful in finding out new Discoveries, but most of all in improving of old, especially Mechanicks; there being few Curiosities of Art brought over from beyond Sea, but are here improved to a greater Height.

Here are the best Clocks, Watches, Locks, Barometers, Thermometers, Air-pumps, &c. in the World. The late Queen Mary had a Clock made by Mr. Watson, late of Coventry, worth a thousand Pounds, in which are all the Motions of the Celestial Bodies; [and of late Years, Mr. Pinchbeck has made several Musical, and other fine Clocks, which he has sold at 1000 Guineas.] Locks are here made of Iron and Brasses, of fifty Pounds a Lock; Watches so curious, that one Part of the Movement of a Repeating-watch comes to ten Pounds, which makes them ordinarily fifty or sixty Pounds a Watch; and yet these prove profitable Merchandize when we send them into foreign foreign Countries; so valuable and so inimitable is the Work of Curious Telescopes, Microscopes, Perspectives, Mirrors, Spheres, Globes, Charts, Maps, and all sorts of Mathematical Instruments, Dials, Balances, Sea-Compasses, &c. The late great Improvement in making Glass; of polishing the Insides of great Iron-Guns; of weighing up Ships that are sunk to the Bottom of the Sea; in Filhing, as they call it, for Money, lost it may be 100 Years ago; and many other noble Inventions and Improvements, as weaving Silk-Stockings, Mills of Copper, Gun-powder, polishing Glass, &c. Mortlock Tapestry, Earthen-ware of Fulham, Speaking-Trumpets, making of Lustring, Engines for raising of Glass, spinning of Glass, cutting of Tobacco, printing Stuffs, Linnen, Paper, making Damask Linnen, watering Silks, the Way of separating Gold from Silver, Bolting-mills, Lanthorns of diverse Sorts, Cane-Chairs, making Horn-Ware, &c. All these Instances shew how excellently the English Nation is turned for all manner of mechanical Arts.

The common People will endure long and hard Labour; in-somuch that after 12 Hours hard Work, they will go in the Evening to Foot-ball, Cricket, Prison-bale, Wrestling, Cudgel-playing, or some such like vehement Exercise for their Recreation.

They are as long liv'd generally as the People of any Nation in the World. In the Reign of King James the First, 8 old Men danced a Morrice-dance, all living in one Manour in the West of England, whose Ages put together made 800 Years; and in the Year 1635, died old Par, aged 152: And in the Year 1671, died Henry Jenkins of Yorkshire, aged 168 Years. But on the other Side, by reason of Intemperance, there is no Part of the World wherein People are more subject to die suddenly.

CHAP. VI.

Of RELIGION.

Christianity was very early planted in England; but when or by whom, is very uncertain; probably in the latter End of the first, or the Beginning of the second Century. In Tertullian's Time, even that Part of Britain which did not own the Roman Yoke, submitted to the Name of Christ. Three British Bishops of Caerleon, as it is supposed, of London, and of York, subscribed the Canons of the Council of Arles, A. C. 314. Under them were, as is said, 25 other Bishops; which Number of Bishops (considering that the Province then reached as far as Grabme's Dike) was much the same as there are now.

The British Church, upon the Invasion of the Saxons, was, with its People, driven into the Western Parts, as Wales, Gloucestershire, Somersetshire, Devonshire, and Cornwal, where it continued. When Augustine the Monk converted Ethelbert, King of Kent, and his People to Christianity, A. C. 596. by Order of his Master, Pope Gregory the Great, he laboured to bring the British Bishops to acknowledge the Pope's Authority, and him as their Archbishop. This when they refused to do, the Saxons, at his Instigation, fell upon 1200 Monks and Priests of the British Nation, and killed them.

The Saxons, and after them the Normans, owned 5 Popes Authority; and after King John had basely subjected his Crown to the Pope, the better thereby to free himself from his too powerful Barons, England was, till the Reformation, one of the tamest Countries that any where submitted to the Roman Yoke. Our Parliaments indeed did many times exert themselves vigorously; but still the Papal Yoke lay heavy upon the Shoulders of the whole Nation: But in Henry the Eighth's Time, when Luther's Preaching had alarmed the greatest Part of the Kingdoms of the North, and inspired them with almost an universal Consent to set their Consciences free at once from the Romish Tyranny, England join'd in with the general Torrent. Henry VIII. himself being enraged at Pope Clement VII's. Usage of him in the Matter of his Divorce from Queen Catherine, abolished the Pope's Supremacy, and seized upon all the Monasteries and other religious Houses in England, and divided their Lands amongst the Nobility and Gentry of the Kingdom; but in other Articles of Religion he continued a Papist: So that the Reformation went on but lamely in his Time. Under his Son Edward VI. it gained more Ground; and the Superstitions of Popery were almost entirely abolished. Queen Mary, who reigned but five Years, brought Popery in again: But the bloody Executions of above 500 Protestants in her Time, who were burned for their Faith, did so alienate the People's Affection from her, that Queen Elizabeth, who succeeded her, found it no difficult Matter to settle the Reformation again upon that Foot on which it still continues.

Bishops were then consecrated by other Bishops, whose Succession was unquestionable from the first Planters of Christianity among us, and placed in every See where there had been Bishops formerly. Articles of Religion were appointed, which still are required to be subscribed and assented to by every Man that takes any Ecclesiastical Preferment in our Church: And a Liturgy was enacted to be observed in performing Divine Service in the English Tongue: Afterwards, in King James's Time, a Book of Canons was also set forth, by which the Discipline of the Church of England was settled. And from all these, any Man may frame an Idea of our Church.

And tho' there be several other Persuasions in this Nation, that differ from the Church of England, as established by Law, and who were liable to some Inconveniences because of their Persuasions, 'till of late, such as Presbyterians, Independants, and Anabaptists; nevertheless, since the Revolution, all his Majesty's Protestant Subjects, dissenting from the Church of England, are, by an Act in the First of King William and Queen Mary, exempted from the Penalties of certain Laws therein mentioned: So that no Man is to be molested upon account of his Religion, that takes the Oath of Allegiance to his present Majesty, [and the Oath of Abjuration, required by an Act of 13 Will. III. and confirmed by several subsequent Acts, with some small Alterations: Instead of which Oath and Declaration, the Quakers solemn Affirmation of the like Tenor is accepted; and by an Act of 8 Geo. I. Cap. 6. they were indulged so far, as to have the Name of God struck out of their Affirmation and Declaration. But in Case of Life and Death, they must swear, or can't be Witnesses] and subscribes the Declaration enjoined in an Act of 30 Car. II. entitled, An Act to prevent Papists from sitting in either House of Parliament, when tendered to them.
and

There is also a Toleration granted to the Quakers, who scruple the taking of an Oath; and the Declaration every such Person shall make and subscribe, is as follows:

I A. B. do sincerely promise and solemnly declare before God and the World, that I will be True and Faithful to King GEORGE: And I solemnly profess and declare, that I do from my Heart abhor, detest, and renounce, as Impious and Heretical, that damnable Doctrine and Position, That Princes Excommunicated or Deposed by the Pope, or any Authority from the See of Rome, may be Deposed, or Murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatsoever: And I do declare, that no foreign Prince, Person, Prelate, State, or Potentate, hath, or ought to have any Power, Jurisdiction, Superiority, Pre-eminence, or Authority, Ecclesiastical or Spiritual, within this Realm.

And they must subscribe a Profession of their Christian Belief in these Words:

I A. B. Profess Faith in God the Father, and in Jesus Christ his Eternal Son, the true God, and in the Holy Spirit, one God blessed for evermore: And do acknowledge the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be given by Divine Inspiration.

In Oliver Cromwell's Time, the Jews were in some measure tolerated in London, and they are since continued by the bare Permission of our Princes, and suffered to hire a private House, wherein to hold their Meetings: They were not at first considerable either for Number (not making above 80 or 100 Families milies) or for their Wealth or Abilities, being for the most part poor and ignorant, to what they are in other Countries; yet of late they are encreased, and have built a sumptuous Synagogue near Duke's Place, within the City of London. [The Jews are now very numerous and immensely rich; many of the Portuguese Jews having escaped hither of late Years from the Inquisition, which is very severe upon them in Portugal.]

C H A P. VII.

Of T R A D E.

AS our Religion is the purest, so is our Trade the most considerable of the whole World. Trade is either Inland or Maritime.

Bour Inland Trade, we appear in Time of Peace to have great Stocks of Money, well divided into many Purses.

But that which makes us so considerable in the Eye of the World, is the wonderful Greatness of our Maritime Trade; for upon the three Articles of Exportation, Transportation, or Re-exportation, and Importation, no Kingdom or State in the World can any ways match us. France pretends to little more than the First of these; Spain, Italy, and the two Northern Crowns, to the First and Third; Holland only vies with us in the Second.

First then for Exportation: Our Country produces many of the most substantial and necessary Commodities in the World, as Butter, Corn, Cattle, Cloths, Iron, Lead, Tin, Copper, Leather, Copperas, Pit-coal, Allom, Saffron, &c.

Our Corn sometimes preserves other Countries from starving; as it has lately done Holland, Flanders, and Portugal. Our Horses are the most serviceable in the World, and highly valued by all Nations for their Hardiness, Beauty, Strength, Courage, and Goings. With Beef, Mutton, Pork, Poultry, Bisket, we victual not only our own Fleets, but all Foreigners that come and go. Our Iron we export manufactured in Great-Guns, Carcasses, Bombs, &c. Our Cloth is sent to many Parts of the World, the Mediterranean, the East and West-Indies, &c.

The Manufactures of Wool in Broad-Cloth, long and short, Northern Dozens, Rashes, Kersies, Bays, Serges, Flannel, Perpetuano's, Stays, Stuffs, Frize, Pennistone, Stockings, Caps, Rugs, &c exported, may be computed to amount to two Millions per Annum. Dr. D'Avenant and Mr. King having calculated the yearly Produce of Wool in England to be two Millions Sterling, and that the same, when manufactured, will be eight Millions; they allow six Millions for Home Consumption, and two Millions for Exportation.

Prodigious, and almost incredible, is the Value likewise of other Goods from hence exported; viz. Hops, Flax, Hemp, Hats, Shoes, Ale, Beer, Red-Herrings, Pilchards, Salmon, Oysters, Saffron, Liquorice, Watches, Ribbands, Toys, &c.

The Vestments, Hats, Shoes, Household-stuff, carried from hence yearly to America, are computed at 200,000 l. I mention not Wool and Fullers Earth, because they are prohibited.

England produces yearly 5,000,000 Chaldrons of Seal-coal, 1,200,000 Pounds of Tin, 800 Fodders of Lead, 800 Furnaces of Iron, 800 Tuns of Allom; of all which, great Quantities are exported to foreign Parts, to the Value at least of 500,000 l. per Annum.

Secondly, Our Transportation, or Re exportation: For the Wool, Butter, Hides, Tallow, Beef, Herrings, Pilchards, and Salmon, which we transport from Ireland, being the Concerns of our Merchants, and paying Duties to his Majesty, have been reckoned at 300,000 l. per Annum.

We transport from our Plantations in America, besides what we consume our selves, of Sugar, [Our Exportations of Sugar are come to nothing; the French have almost work'd us out of that Trade] Indico, Tobacco, Cocoa-Nuts, &c. besides the Fish, Pipe-Staves, Masts, Bever, &c. from New-England, and the Northern Parts of America, to 400,000 l. per Annum.

'Twould be tedious to enumerate the Value of our Transportations from Denmark and Sweden, [We are great Losers by our Trade with Denmark, Sweden, and the rest of the Countries on the Baltick at present, the Balance being very much against us] Spain, Portugal, the Streights, Turkey, Guinea, &c. The most considerable of all is that from the East-Indies, from the first Beginning of that Trade till now: In its Infancy, viz. Anno 1613, of Pepper only, besides what we consumed at home, we transported in one Year to other Countries, after it had paid Duty here, to the Value of 200,000 l. and now of late Years, our Exportation, of which we bring from thence, after we have sufficiently supplied our selves, is computed at 300,000 l. per Annum, in Pepper, Salt-petre, Callicoes, Silks, Drugs, Diamonds, Pearls, &c.

The third Article of our Trade is Importation, the bringing hither such Goods from beyond Sea, which we consume among our selves. The ingenious Mr. Samuel Fortrey, in his excellent Discourse of Trade, hath made appear, that we yearly imported from France, almost 1,600,000 l. worth of Goods more than the Value of what we exported thither; viz. of Silk, Satins, Taffaties, Stuffs, Armoisins, Paduasoyes, Tabbies, Cloth of Gold and Silver, Velvets, Ribbands, Galloons, Laces, Silk Buttons, to the Value of 600,000 l. per Annum, Linnen 400,000 l. per Annum, Wines 600,000 l. per Annum, Serges and Calons 150,000 l. per Annum, Hats 120,000 l. per Annum, Hatbands, Feathers, Fans, Girdles, Girdles, Hoods, Masks, Looking-Glasses, Watches, Pictures, Medals, Cabinets, Cases, Bracelets, Tablets, and other Toys, 150,000 l. per Annum, Paper 100,000 l. per Annum, Household-stuff, as Beds, Matresses, Coverlets, Hangings, Fringes, &c. 100,000 l. per Annum, Brandy, Sider, Vinegar, Verjuice, &c. 100,000 l. per Annum, Castle-Soap, Honey, Almonds, Olives, Capers, Prunes, &c. 150,000 l. per Annum, Pins, Needles, Box and Tortoise-shell combs, &c. 20,000 l. per Annum, perfumed and trimmed Gloves, 10,000 l. per Annum, Fine Ironmongers Ware, 40,000 l. per Annum; all which, besides Salt, Cork, Rosin, and other Things to a great Value, amount to 2,540,000 l. per Annum.

Now, though it is possible Mr. Fortrey might reckon the Over-balance of the French Trade much greater than truly it was, since at the very same Time the French estimated the Over balance on the English Side; yet, doubtless, the Nation lost yearly by the French Trade a considerable Sum.

And at the same Time, all the Commodities exported out of England into France, as Woollen Cloth, Serges, Knit Stockings, Lead, Pewter, Allom, Coals, &c. did not amount to above 1,000,000 l. per Annum. So that the Nation was yearly impoverished by the French Trade, almost 600,000 l. per Annum. [It is computed, that at this Day we lose 500,000 l. annually by our Trade with France and French Flanders.] Thus our Gold and Silver was exported, to fetch from thence strong Drink and Vanity, to the debauching and emasculating our Bodies and Minds.

For the Toys of other Nations we likewise expend great Sums of Money, or lessen our Effects abroad by Bills of Exchange, and that (which is the greatest Shame of all to us) even for the bare Freight; suffering the Hollanders, Flemings, and Hamburghers, to be, in a manner, the common Carriers between us and all Parts of the World; a Grievance, which the Act of Navigation 12 Car. II. restrained, by forbidding all Foreigners to import any thing hither, but each one the Product of his own Country.

In ancient Times, the great Trade of this Nation consisted in unmanufactured Wool, which Foreigners coming from all Parts bought, of us; insomuch, that the Customs of English Wool exported in Edward the Third's Reign, amounted, at 50 s. a Pack, to 250,000 l. per Annum, an immense Sum of Money in those Days: And that excessive Custom upon unmanufactured Wool, soon gave Encouragement to the making of Cloth here, more effectually than the Laws against Exportation of Wool are now found to do: Yet most of this Wool being sent but just cross the Seas, to Flanders, France, or Holland, the Exportation for the most part was in very small Vessels to what are now in Use; and neither of the Indies being then discovered by our Merchants, Merchants, we had for almost two Centuries after, but few Ships of any considerable Bigness. In the Year 1540, there were but four Ships in the Thames so big as to be computed each at 120 Tuns, besides the Navy-Royal: And towards the latter End of Queen Elizabeth's Reign, it is said, there was not in all England above three Merchant Ships of 300 Tuns and upwards each. And how little our Maritime Trade in Queen Elizabeth's Time was, appears by the Customs in all England not amounting to above 30 or 40,000 l. per Annum. And how much the Stock of Money in the Nation hath since King James's Time encreased, may in Part be computed by the Price of Lands, which were Anno 1620, at 12 Years Purchase, and now at 21 or 23, even to 30 about London.

Our Fish Trade would be very considerable, if that of the Hollanders were not much more. The Red-Herrings at Yarmouth, Pilchards in the West, Cod-Fish in Newfoundland and New-England, are very advantageous Branches.

They that compute the Cash, as Sir William Petty did, at 6,000,000 l. come doubtless very short of the Whole: And when he computes the Shipping of England at 600,000 Tun, I am persuaded he doth not exceed. [A late Writer computed the Shipping of London alone amounts to 600,000 Tons.]

We have diverse very considerable Societies of Merchants who have great Stocks, and deep Knowledge in the Mysteries of Trade; the Merchant-Adventurers, the Turkey, the East-India, the Muscovy, the Eastland, the Greenland, the Spanish, the African, the Hudson's-Bay, and the South-Sea Companies. Some of these trade in Joint-Stock, as the East-India and African Companies, that Part of the Turkey called the Morea Company, and the Greenland. The others act upon separate Stocks, but in a publick Community as to the defraying of publick Expences, keeping out Interlopers, and the like.

In a word, Great-Britain may be justly counted the principal Nation for Trade in the whole World, except the Dutch, and indeed the most proper for Trade, being an Island which hath many commodious Ports and Havens, natural Products, considerable Manufactures, great Encouragement from the State for the sake of Customs and Duties paid, the Breeding of Seamen, and Encrease of Shipping, Freedom in Religion, the Pleasure and Healthfulness of our Clime, the Ease and Security of our Government; all conducing to the Encouragement of Maritime Trade.

And no less Advantages have we for Inland Trade. The Freedom of Cities and Boroughs is easily purchased. We have very few Holidays, besides Sundays, in which the Poor do not work. We have, in favour of Dissenters, a Relaxation of the Penal Laws. The Interest of Money is here but 5 per Cent. at the utmost, and upon some Securities less.

PART I. BOOK II.

Of the GOVERNMENT of that Part of Great-Britain call'd ENGLAND.

CHAP. I.

Of the GOVERNMENT of England in general.

HE Kingdom of England is an Hereditary Limited Monarchy, governed by the Supreme Head, according to the known Laws and Customs of the Kingdom.

It is a Monarchy free from all interregnum, and with it from any Mischiefs whereunto Elective Kingdoms are subject.

It is such a Monarchy, as that, by the necessary Concurrence of the Lords and Commons in the making and repealing all Statutes or Acts of Parliament, it hath the main Advantages of an Aristocracy, and of a Democracy, and yet free from the Disadvantages and Evils of either.

It

It is such a Monarchy as, by most admirable Temperament, affords very much to the Industry, Liberty and Happiness of the Subject, and reserves enough for the Majesty and Prerogative of any King that will own his People as Subjects, not as Slaves.

CH A P. II.

Of the KING of England, and therein of his Name, Title, Person, Office, Supremacy and Sovereignty, Power and Prerogative, Dominions, Strength, Patrimony, Arms and Respect.

Name.] THE King is so called from the Saxon Word Cyning.

The Title of the King of England is, By the Grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith.

Defender of the Faith was anciently used by the Kings of England, as appears by several Charters granted to the University of Oxford; but in the Year 1521, more particularly affixed by a Bull from Pope Leo X. for a Book written by Henry VIII. against Luther, in Defence of the Seven Sacraments, and since continued by Act of Parliament, for Defence of the Ancient, Catholick, and Apostolick Faith.

Christianissimus was by the Lateran Council, under Pope Julian II. conferred on the Kings of England in the fifth Year of Henry VIII. though before used by Henry VII. and since only by the French King.

The Title of Grace was first given to the King about the Time of Henry IV. To Henry VI. Excellent Grace; To Edward IV. High and Mighty Prince; to Henry VII. sometimes Grace, and sometimes Highness; To Henry VIII. first Highness, then Majesty; And now, Sacred Majesty, or Most Excellent Majesty.

The King of England, in his publick Instruments and Letters, styles himself Nos, We, in the Plural Number. Before King John's Time, Kings used the Singular Number; which Custom is still seen in the End of Writs, Teste meipso apud Westm.

In speaking to the King, is used often (besides Your Majesty) the Appellation Sir, which we have received immediately from France, where the King is always spoken to by the Title Sire, which comes to them from the old Gothic or Frantic Word Sih-r, signifying Lord. But Syr, or Sir, Domine, is now in England become the ordinary Word to all the better Rank, even from the King to the Gentleman. It was anciently ently in England given to Lords, afterwards to Knights, and to Clergymen, prefix'd before the Christian Names; now in that Manner only Baroneis, and Knights of the Bath, Knights Batchelors, and Batchelors of Arts, in both the Universities.

Person.] Rex Anglie est Persona mixta cum Sacerdote, say our Lawyers; He is, as it were, a Priest as well as a King. He is Crown'd, an Honour, saith Guillim, which the Kings of Spain, Portugal, Navarre, and diverse other Kings have not; at which Coronation he is anointed with Oil, as the Priests were at first, and afterwards the Kings of Israel, to intimate that his Person is Sacred and Spiritual.

Of this Sacred Person of the King, of the Life and Safety thereof, the Laws and Customs of England are so tender, that they have made it High-Treason only to imagine or intend the Death of the King: Although in all other Capital Cases, the Rule is, Voluntas non reputabitur pro facto; and an Englishman may not in other Cases be punished with Death, unless the Act follow the Intent.

The Law of England hath so high Esteem of the King's Person, that to offend against those Persons, and those Things that represent his Sacred Person, as to kill some of the Crown-Officers, or to kill any of the King's Judges executing their Office, or to counterfeit the King's Seals, or his Monies, is made High-Treason; because by all these the King's Person is represented.

And rather than Treason against the King's Person shall go unpunished, the Innocent in some Cases shall be punished: For if an Ideot, or Lunatick, shall kill, or go about to kill the King, he shall be punished as a Traitor; and yet being Non compos mentis, the Law holds that he cannot commit Felony or Petit-Treason, nor other sorts of High-Treason.

Moreover, for the precious Regard of the Person of the King, by an ancient Record it is declared, That no Physick ought to be administred to him without good Warrant; this Warrant to be signed by the Advice of his Council; no other Physicians but what are mentioned in the Warrant are to administer to him; the Physicians to prepare all Things with their own Hands, and not by the Hands of any Apothecary, and to use the Assistance only of such Surgeons as are prescribed in the Warrant.

Office.] The Office of the King of England, in the Laws of King Edward the Confessor, is thus described, Rex quia Vicarius summi Regis est, ad hoc constituitur ut Regnum Terram & Populum Domini, & super omnia sanctum Ecclesiam ejus veneretur, regat, & ab injurijs defendat. And, according to the Learned Fortescue, it is, Pugnare bella populi sui, & eos rectissime judicare, to fight the Battles of his People, and to see Right and Justice done unto them.

Or,

Or, more particular, as is promised at the Coronation, to preserve the Rights and Privileges of the Church and Clergy, the Royal Prerogatives belonging to the Crown, the Laws and Customs of the Realm, to do Justice, love Mercy, keep Peace and Unity, &c.

Supremacy and Sovereignty.] Whatsoever Things are proper to Supreme Magistrates, as Crowns, Scepters, Purple Robe, Golden Globe, and Holy Unction, have as long appertained to the King of England, as to any other Prince in Europe; and therefore the Crown of England hath been declared in Parliament long ago, to be an Imperial Crown.

He acknowledges only Precedence to the Emperor.

He owns no Superiority to the Bishop of Rome, whose long arrogated Authority in England was, 1535, in a full Parliament of the Lords Spiritual as well as Temporal, declared null, and the King of England declared to be by ancient Right, in all Causes, over all Persons, as well Ecclesiastical as Civil, Supreme Governour.

The King hath the Supreme Right of Patronage through all England, called Patronage Paramount, over all the Ecclesiastical Benefices of England; so that if the mean Patron present not in due Time, nor the Ordinary, nor Metropolitan, the Right of Presentation comes to the King, beyond whom it cannot go.

The King is Summus totius Regni Anglicani Justiciarius, Supreme Judge, or Lord Chief-Justice of England. He is the Fountain from whence all Justice is derived.

Power and Prerogative.] The King alone by his Royal Prerogative hath Power, without Act of Parliament, to declare War, make Peace, send and receive Ambassadors, make Leagues and Treaties with any Foreign States, give Commissions for levying Men and Arms by Sea and Land, or for pressing Men, if Need require, [Men cannot be pressed into the Land-Service at this Day, but must list voluntarily, 5th and 6th of Will. and Mary 15.] disposing of all Magazines, Ammunition, Castles, Fortresses, Ports, Havens, Ships of War, and Publick Monies, appoint the Metal, Weight, Purity, and Value thereof.

By his Royal Prerogative, he may of his meer Will and Pleasure Convoke, Adjourn, Prorogue, Remove, and Dissolve Parliaments: May to any Bill passed by both Houses of Parliament, refuse to give, without rendering any Reason, his Royal Assent, without which a Bill is as a Body without a Soul: May at his Pleasure encrease the Number of the Members of both Houses, by creating more Barons, and bestowing Privileges upon any other Towns to send Burgesses to Parliament. Yet this Branch of his Prerogative seems to be given up by our late Kings, and therefore it was thought necessary that the Legislative Power should intervene, to enable Durham to send its Representatives to Parliament, in the Time of King Charles II. He hath alone the Choice and Nomination of all Commanders, and other Officers at Land and Sea, Sea, the Choice and Nomination of all Magistrates, Counsellors and Officers of State; of all Bishops, and other high Dignities in the Church; the bestowing all Honours, both of higher and lower Nobility of England; the Power of determining Rewards and Punishments, either by pardoning the Offence, or remitting the Punishment.

By his Letters Patent may erect new Universities, Boroughs, Colleges, Hospitals, Schools, Fairs, Markets, Forests, Chases, Free-Warren, Beacons, &c.

The King, by his Prerogative, hath Power to grant Letters of Marque or Reprisal, to grant Safe-Conducts, &c.

Debts due to the King, are in the first place to be satisfy'd, in case of Executorship, and Administration; and until the King's Debt be satisfy'd, he may protect the Debtor from the Arrest of other Creditors.

May distrain for the whole Debt upon one Tenant that holdeth not the whole Land; may require the Ancestor's Debt of the Heir, though not especially bound; is not obliged to demand his Rent as others are; may sue in what Court he please, and distrain where he list.

No Proclamation can be made but by the King.

No Protection for a Defendant to be kept off from a Suir, but by him, and that because he is actually in his Service.

He only can give Patents, in Case of Losses by Fire, or otherwise, to receive the Charitable Benevolences of the People; without which no Man may ask it publickly.

The Sale of his Goods in an open Market, will not take away his Property therein, if he hath been defrauded of them.

Where the King hath granted a Fair, with Toll to be paid, yet his Goods there shall be exempted from all Toll.

No Occupancy shall be good against the King, nor shall Entry before him prejudice him.

His Servants in Ordinary are priviledged from serving in any Office that require their Attendance, as Sheriff, Constable, Church-warden, &c.

All Receivers of Money for the King, or Accomptants to him for any of his Revenues, their Persons, Lands, Goods, Heirs, Executors, Administrators, are chargeable for the same at all Times: For, Nullum tempus occurrit Regi.

His Debtor hath a kind of Prerogative Remedy, by a Quominus in the Exchequer, against all other Debtors, or against whom they have any Cause of Personal Action, supposing that he is thereby disabled to pay the King; and in this Suit the King's Debtor being Plaintiff, hath some Privileges above others.

In Doubtful Cases, Semper presumitur pro Rege.

No Statute restraineth the King, except he be especially named therein. The Quality of his Person alters the Descent of Gavel.

Gavel-kind, the Rules of Joint-Tenancy : No Esoppel can bind him, nor Judgment Final in a Writ of Right.

Judgments entered against the King's Title, are entered with a Salvo Jure Domini Regis; that if at any Time the King's Council at Law can make out his Title better, that Judgment shall not prejudice him; which is not permitted to the Subject.

In all Cases where the King is Party, his Officers with an Arrest by Force of a Process at Law, may enter; and if Entrance be denied, may break open the House of any Man, although every Man's House is said to be his Castle, and hath a Privilege to protect him against all other Arrests.

A Benefice, or Spiritual Living, is not full against the King by Institution only, without Induction, although it be so against a Subject.

None but the King can hold a good Plea of false Judgment in the Courts of his Tenants.

The King of England, by his Prerogative, is Summus Regni Custos, and hath the Custody of the Persons and Estates of such as for want of Understanding cannot govern themselves, or serve the King; so the Persons and Estates of Ideots and Lunatics are in the Custody of the King: That of Ideots to his own Use, and that of Lunatics to the Use of the next Heir.

The King, by his Prerogative, is Ultimus hæres regni, and is, as the great Ocean is of all Rivers, the Receptacle of all Estates, when no Heir appears: for this Cause, all Estates for want of Heirs, or by Forfeiture, Revert or Escheat to the King. All Treasure-Trove (that is, Money, Gold, Silver, Plate or Bullion found, and the Owners unknown) belongs to the King; so all Waifs, Strays, Wrecks, not granted away by him, or any former Kings; all waste Ground or Lands recovered from the Sea; all Lands of Aliens dying before Naturalization or Denization, and all Things whereof the Property is not known. All Gold and Silver Mines, in whose Ground soever they are found; Royal Fishes, as Whales, Sturgeons, Dolphins, &c. Royal Fowl, as Swans not marked, and swimming at Liberty on the River, belong to the King.

In the Church, the King's Prerogative and Power is extraordinary great: He only hath the Patronage of all Bishopricks, none can be chosen but those whom he hath first nominated by his Congé d'Eslire; none can be consecrated Bishop, or take Possession of the Revenues of the Bishoprick, without the King's especial Writ or Assent. The King hath Power to call a National, or Provincial Synod; and with the Advice and Consent thereof, to make Canons, Orders, Ordinances, and Constitutions; introduce into the Church what Ceremonies shall be thought fit; reform and correct all Heresies, Schisms, punish Contempts, &c. and to declare what Translation of the Bible is fit to be allowed, &c.

The

The King hath a Power not only to Unite, Consolidate, Separate, Enlarge, or Contract the Limits of any old Bishoprick, or other Ecclesiastical Benefice, but also by his Letters Patents may erect new Bishopricks, as Henry the Eighth did Six at one time; and the late King Charles the Martyr intended to do at St. Alban's, for the Honour of the first Martyr of England, and for contracting the too large Extent of the Bishoprick of Lincoln: May also erect new Archbishopricks, Patriarchates, &c.

The King hath Power to dispense with the Rigour of Ecclesiastical Laws, excepting such as have received the Sanction of an Act of Parliament, as has been declared by the Bill of Rights; and with any thing that is only Prohibitum & malum per accidens, & non malum in se: As for a Bastard to be a Priest; for a Priest to hold two Benefices; or to succeed his Father in a Benefice; or to be Non-resident, &c. for a Bishop to hold an Ecclesiastical Benefice in Commendam or Trust.

Hath Power to dispense with some Acts of Parliament, Penal Statutes, by non obstante, where himself is only concerned; to moderate the Rigour of the Laws according to Equity and Conscience; to grant special Privileges and Charters to any Subject; to pardon a Man by Law condemned, except in Appeals of Murder; to interpret, by his Judges, Statutes; and in Cases not defined by Law, to determine and pass Sentence; yet in Rebus Arduis, and in Matters of great Importance, the Judges have thought it safest to adjourn the same, ad Prox. Parl. propter Difficultatem, &c.

Every King of England, as he is Debitor Justicie to his People, so he is in Conscience obliged to defend and maintain all the Rights of the Crown in Possession; and when any King hath not religiously observed his Duty in this Point, it hath proved of very dreadful Consequence: As on the other Side, it much concerns every King of England to be very careful of the Subjects just Liberties, according to the Golden Rule of Charles the First, That the King's Prerogative, is to defend the People's Liberties; and the People's Liberties, to strengthen the King's Prerogatives.

The Laws of England looking upon the King as God's Viceregent upon Earth, do attribute unto him diverse Excellencies not belonging to other Men: So the Law will have no Imperfection found in the King; as, no Injustice, no Error, no Negligence or Laches, no Infamy, no Stain or Corruption of Blood; for by taking of the Crown, all former, tho' just Attainder (and such Attainder made by Act of Parliament) is ipso facto purged. No Nonage or Minority; for his Grant of Lands, though held in his Natural, not Political Capacity, cannot be avoided by Nonage. Higher than this, the Law attributeth a kind of Perpetuity, not to say Immortality, to the King, Rex Anglia non moritur; his Death is by the Law termed the Demise of the King, because thereby the Kingdom is demised to another. He is said not to be subject to Death, because he is a Corporation of himself, that liveth for ever, all Interregna being in England unknown; the same Moment that one King dies, the next Heir is King fully and absolutely, without any Coronation, Ceremony, or Act to be done, ex post facto.

Moreover, the Law seemeth to attribute to the King a certain Ubiquity; that the King is in a manner every where, in all his Courts of Justice; and therefore cannot be Non-suited, as Lawyers speak.

And yet there are some Things that the King cannot do, Rex Anglia nihil injuste potest.

There are also diverse Things which the King cannot do, Salvo Jure, Salvo Juramento, & Salva Conscientia sua; because by an Oath at his Coronation, and indeed without any Oath, by the Law of Nature, Nations, and of Christianity, he holds himself bound, as do all other Christian Kings, to protect and defend his People; to do Justice, and to shew Mercy; to preserve Peace and Quietness among them; to allow them their just Rights and Liberties; to consent to the Repealing of bad Laws, and to the Enacting of good. Two Things especially the King of England cannot do without the Consent of both Houses of Parliament, viz. make New Laws, and raise New Taxes, there being something of Odium in both of them, the one seeming to diminish the Subjects Liberty, and the other to infringe his Property: Therefore, that all Occasion of Disaffection towards the King (the Breath of our Nostrils, and the Light of our Eyes, as he is stiled in Holy Scriptures) might be avoided, it was wisely contrived by our Ancestors, that for both these should Petitions and Supplications be first made by the Subject.

If the King of England be in any foreign Nation, he may try any of his offending Domesticks by the Laws of England, saith Fleta; as in the Case of Engelram, of Nogent in France, and of Manning, whom King Charles II. caused to be try'd and executed in the Duke of Newburgh's Territories in Germany.

These, and diverse other Prerogatives, rightfully belong, and are enjoy'd by the King of England.

Dominions.] The ancient Dominions of the Kings of England were first England, and all the Seas round about Great-Britain and Ireland, and all the Isles adjacent, even to the Shore of all the Neighbouring Nations; and our Law saith, The Sea is of the Leigeance of the King, as well as the Land; and as a Mark thereof, all Ships of Foreigners have anciently demanded Leave to fish, and pass in these Seas, and do at this Day lower their Top-sails to all the King's Ships of War; and therefore Children born upon those Seas (as sometimes hath happened) are accounted natural born Subjects to the King of England, and needed not any Naturalization, as others born out of his Dominions.

To England, Henry II. annexed Ireland, being stiled only Lord of Ireland, till the 33d of Henry VIII. although they had all Kingly Jurisdiction before.

Edward I. annexed all Wales, and Edward III. the Right, tho' not the Possession, of all France; but Henry V. added both, and his Son Henry VI. was Crowned and Recognized by all the States of the Realm at Paris.

King James I. being King of Scotland before, upon his Accession to the Crown of England, the whole Island was united under one Head; and since that Time sundry considerable Plantations in America have been peopled by the Subjects of the Crown of England.

The Dominions of the King of England at this Day in Possession, are Great-Britain and Ireland, and all the Seas adjacent. Moreover, the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, which are a Parcel of the Dutchy of Normandy, the Port of Gibraltar, and the Island of Minorca in the Mediterranean Sea; besides those profitable Plantations of New-England, [Nova Scotia, or New-Scotland,] New-York, East and West Jersey, Pensylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Barbados, Jamaica, Florida, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Bermudos, with several other Isles and Places in those Quarters, and some in the East-Indies, and upon the Coast of Africa; also upon the North Parts of America, by Right of first Discovery; to Estoitland, Terra Cerialis, Newfoundland, and to Guiana in the South; to all which the King of England hath a Legal Right, tho' not Possession of the Whole.

Strength.] And let our Sovereign be considered abstractly as King only of England, which is like a huge Fortrefs, or a garrison'd Town, fenced not only with strong Works, and a wide and deep Ditch, the Sea, but guarded also with excellent Out-works, the strongest and best built Ships of War in the World: It is so abundantly furnished with Men and Horses, with Victuals and Ammunitions, with Cloaths and Money, that if all the Potentates of Europe should conspire (which God forbid!) they could hardly conquer it, provided it be at Unity in itself.

This for the Defensive Strength of the King of England; now for the offensive. How formidable must He be to the World, when they shall understand that a King of England is well able, whenever he is willing, to raise of English Foot two Hundred Thousand, and of English Horse fifty Thousand (for so many, during the Civil Wars, were computed to be in Arms on both Sides.) And when they shall consider the Valiant and Martial Spirit of the English, their natural Agility of Body, their Patience, Hardiness and Stedfastness is such, and their Fear of Death so little, that no Neighbour-Nation, upon equal Number and Terms, scarce ever beat them, either at Sea or Land.

Land; when they shall consider, that for Transporting of an Army, the King of England hath at Command two Hundred excellent Ships of War, and can hire two Hundred stout English Merchant-Ships, little inferior to Ships of War; that he can soon Man the same with the best Sea-Soldiers in the whole World; and that for maintaining such a mighty Fleet, sufficient Money, for a competent Time, may be raised only by a Land-Tax.

Patrimony.] All other Lands in England being held now of some Superior, depend mediately or immediately on the Crown; so that the King is Lord Paramount, Supreme Landlord of all the Lands of England; and all landed Men are mediately or immediately his Tenants by some Tenure or other; but the Lands possess'd by the Crown being held of none, can escheat to none, and are now made unalienable; though they have been (by Time, the Gift and Bounty of our Kings, and some Necessities for the Preservation of the Weal Publick) much alienated: However, there is yet left many Parks, Castles, or Palaces, and Forests, still belonging to the King, to receive and divert him, when he shall please in his Royal Progress to visit those Parts.

The certain Revenues of the King of England were anciently enough to discharge all the ordinary Expences of the Crown, without any Tax or Imposit upon the Subject.

Upon the happy Restoration of King Charles the Second, the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, finding the Crown-Revenues much alienated, and the Crown-Charges exceedingly encreased, by reason of the late vast Augmentation of the Revenues, and Strength by Sea and Land of our two next Neighbour Nations abroad, did unanimously conclude, That for the Peace and Security, for the Wealth and Honour of the King and Kingdom, it would be necessary to settle upon his Majesty a yearly Revenue of twelve Hundred Thousand Pounds; and, accordingly, with the King's Consent, at the humble Request of the Lords and Commons, there was established by Imposts upon imported and exported Goods, upon Liquors drank in England, and upon Fire-Hearths, so much as was judged would bring up the former impaired Crown-Revenues to the said Sum. But the Imposit upon Fire-Hearths, the late King William and Queen Mary, of ever blessed Memory, were graciously pleased by Act of Parliament to remit. At the Death of King Charles II. the Revenue amounted to about 1,800,000 l. per Annum; and in King James the Second's Reign, in the Time of Peace, it was raised to 2,000,000 l. yearly. [There has ever since the last Peace been raised three Millions annually and upwards for the Service of the Government, besides near three Millions more to discharge the Interest of a Debt of fifty Millions contracted by the late War, and the Revenues of all the Lands of England do not amount to fifteen Millions per Ann.] Notwithstanding which, the whole yearly Revenues of the King of England was not then above the tenth Part of the Revenues of his Kingdom; whereas the King of France hath yearly above one hundred and eighty Millions of Livres, which is above twelve Millions of Pounds Sterling, a fourth Part of the whole Revenue of France, and the publick Revenue of the United Netherlands, coming all out of the Subjects Purfes, is above six Millions of Pounds Sterling.

The ordinary Charge of the Government, or Civil List, as it is now called, was, upon her late Majesty's Accession to the Crown, settled by Parliament at 700,000*l. per Annum*, upon the best Funds in England: [The Civil List Revenue is now encreased to one Million per Annum at least.] And the Crown of England before the long, but necessary War, was as little in Debt as perhaps any State of so great a Consideration in the World.

Respect.] In Consideration of these, and other transcendent Excellencies, no King in Christendom, nor other Potentate, receives from his Subjects more Reverence, Honour, and Respect, than the King of England. All his People at their first Addresses kneel to him: He is at all Times served upon the Knee; all Persons (not the Prince, or other Heir apparent excepted) stand bare in the Presence of the King, and in the Presence-Chamber, though in the King's Absence.

Any Thing or Act done in the King's Presence, is presumed to be void of all Deceit and evil Meaning; and therefore a Fine levied in the King's Court, where the King is presumed to be present, doth bind a Feme Covert, a married Woman, and others, whom ordinarily the Law doth disable to transact.

The King's only Testimony of any thing done in his Presence, is of as high a Nature and Credit as any Record; and in all Writs sent forth for the Dispatch of Justice, he useth no other Witness but himself; viz. Teste meipso.

Arms.] It is the common Tradition, that after the Conquest the Kings of England bare Two Leopards; borne first by the Conqueror, as Duke of Normandy (and it is remarkable that they belong to his present Majesty, as he is Duke of Brunswick) 'till the Time of Henry II. who in Right of his Mother annexed her Paternal Coat, the Lion of Aquitain, which being of the same Field, Metal, and Form with the Leopards, from thence forward they were jointly marshalled in one Shield, and blazoned Three Lions, as at present.

King Edward III. in Right of his Mother claiming the Crown of France, with the Arms of England quartered the Arms of France, which then were Azure, Semée de Flower-de-Luces, Or; afterwards changed to Three Flower-de-Luces: whereupon Henry V. of England caused the English Arms to be changed likewise. King James, upon the Union of England and and Scotland, caused the Arms of France and England to be quarter'd with Scotland and Ireland, and thus blazoned:

In the first Place, Azure, Three Flower-de-luces, Or, the Regal Arms of France quartered with the Imperial Ensigns of England, which are Gules, Three Lions Passant Guardant in Pale, Or. In the second Place, Or, within a Double Tressure, Counter-flower'd Lys, Gules, a Lion Rampant of the Second, for the Royal Arms of Scotland. In the third Place, Azure, an Irish Harp, Or, stringed, Argent, for the Royal Ensigns of Ireland. In the fourth Place, as in the first: All within the Garter, the chief Ensign of that most Honourable Order: Above the same, an Helmet, answerable to his Majesty's Sovereign Jurisdiction; upon the same a rich Mantle of Cloth of Gold doubled, Ermin, adorn'd with an Imperial Crown, and surmount-ed for a Crest by a Lion Passant Guardant, crowned with the like; supported by a Lion Rampant Guardant, Or, Crowned as the former, and an Unicorn, Argent, Gorged with a Crown, thereto a Chain affix'd, passing between his Fore-legs, and re-flexed over his Back, Or; both standing upon a Compartment placed underneath, and in the Table of the Compartment His Majesty's Royal Motto, Dieu & Mon Droit.

The Arms of France were placed first, for that France is the greater Kingdom; and because from the first bearing, those Flowers have been always Ensigns of a Kingdom; whereas the Arms of England were originally of Dukedoms, as aforesaid.

The Blazon of the Arms of Great-Britain since the Union is as follows:

Quarterly of Four: In the first Quarter, Gules, Three Lions Passant Guardant, Or, Impaling, Or, a Lion Rampant within a double Tressure Flory, Counterflory, Gules, Great-Britain. 2. Azure, Three Flower-de-Lys, Or, France. 3. Azure, a Harp, Or, stringed Argent, Ireland. The Fourth as the First.

The Motto upon the Garter, Honi soit qui mal y pense; that is, Shame be to him, that evil thinketh of it, was first given by King Edward III. the Founder of that Order; and that none might believe his Design therein was any other than just and honourable, he caused those Words to be wrought in every Garter that he bestowed: Whereof more in the Chapter of the Knights of the Garter.

The Motto, Dieu & Mon Droit; that is, God and my Right, was first given by Richard I. to intimate, that the King of England holdeth his Empire not in Vassalage of any mortal Man, but of God only; and afterwards taken up by Edw. III. when he first claimed the Kingdom of France. The Device of a Portcullis of a Castle, yet to be seen in many Places, was the Badge, or Cognizance, of the House of Lancaster.

The Motto, Dieu & Mon Droit; that is, God and my Right, was first given by Richard I. to intimate, that the King of England holdeth his Empire not in Vassalage of any mortal Man, but of God only; and afterwards taken up by Edw. III. when he first claimed the Kingdom of France. The Device of a Portecullis of a Castle, yet to be seen in many Places, was the Badge, or Cognizance, of the House of Lancaster.

The White Rose was the ancient Bearing of the House of York, and the Red Rose that of Lancaster.

The Thistle belongs to Scotland.

C H A P. III.

Of SUCCESSION to the Crown of England, and of the King's Minority, Incapacity, and Absence.

THE King of England hath Right to the Crown by Inheritance, and the Laws and Customs of England.

Upon the Death of the King, the next of Kindred, born of Parents in lawful Wedlock, though born out of the Dominions of England, or born of Parents not Subjects of England (as by Law and many Examples in the English Histories it doth manifestly appear) is immediately King, before any Proclamation, Coronation, Publication, or Consent of Peers and People.

The Crown of England from the Father to the Son, and his Heirs for want of Sons, to the Eldest Daughter and her Heirs; and for want of a Daughter, to the Brother and his Heirs; and for want of a Brother, to the Sister and her Heirs. The Salique Law, or rather Custom of France, hath here no Force.

Formerly at the Death of every King, not only the Officers of the Court, but all Commissions Civil and Military expired; but now they are to continue in Force six Months longer.

Minority. If the King be likely to leave his Crown to an Infant, he doth usually by Testament appoint the Person or Persons that shall have the Tuition of him; sometimes, for want of such Appointment, a fit Person of the Nobility or Bishops is made choice of by the three States assembled in the Name of the Infant King, who, by Nature and Alliance, hath most Interest in the Preservation of the Life and Authority of the Infant, and to whom least Benefit can accrue by his Death or Diminution: as the Uncle by the Mother's Side, if the Crown come by the Father, and so vice versa, is made Protector: So during the Minority of Edward IV. his Uncle by the Mother's Side, the Duke of Somerſet, had the Tuition of him, and was call'd Protector: And when this Rule hath not been observ'd (as in the Minority of Edward V.) it hath prov'd of ill Consequence.

Absence.]

Absence.] If the King was absent upon any foreign Expedition, or otherwise, the Custom was to constitute a Vicegerent by Commission under the Great Seal, giving him several Titles and Powers, according as the Necessity of Affairs have required; sometimes he hath been call'd Lord Warden, or Lord-Keeper of the Kingdom, and therewith had the general Power of a King, as was practis'd during the Absence of Edward I, II, III, and of Henry V. Of later Times, the King has appointed Regents, or Lords Justices, who are commonly the Great Officers of State.

Incapacity.] If the King of England be Non compos mentis, or, by reason of an incurable Disease, Weakness, or old Age, becomes incapable of Governing, then is made a Regent, Protector, or Guardian, to govern.

CH A P. IV.

Of the present KING of Great-Britain, &c.

HIS Majesty now reigning, is GEORGE II. by the Grace of GOD of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, King, &c. Defender of the Faith; eldest Son of his late most Sacred Majesty King GEORGE I.

He was proclaimed King of Great-Britain, June 15, 1727. Born in the Palace of Harenhausen in Hanover, the 30th Day of October, 1683. On the 23d of August, 1705, He married the Princess Wilhelmina-Dorothea-Charlotte of Brandenburgh-Anspach, late Queen Consort of Great-Britain, by whom he has two Sons and five Daughters, viz. His Royal Highness Frederick-Lewis, Prince of Wales, &c. born at Hanover, January 20, 1706. Prince William-Augustus, born at London April 15, 1721. Her Royal Highness Princess Anne (married to his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange) born October 22, 1709. Princess Amelia-Sophia-Eleanora, born May 30, 1711. Princess Elizabeth-Carolina, born May 30, 1713. Princess Maria (married to his Serene Highness the Prince of Hesse-Cassel) born February 22, 1723. And the Princess Louisa, born December 7, 1724.

Of the QUEEN of England, when she is Consort only, not Regent.

THE Word Queen comes from the Saxon Cwen, signifying a Woman, as also a Wife, and seems to be applied, in Process of Time, by our Ancestors, to the King's Wife, as Hlafdig, or Lady, afterwards was, and as Madam, or Madamoiselle, is used now in France, to signify the Wife and Daughter of the Duke of Orleans, where the one is the first Lady, and the other the first Gentlewoman, because she was the chiefest Woman, or Wife, in the Kingdom; just as we now say, the Town, or the City, for London, &c. She hath as high Prerogatives, Dignity, and State, during the Life of the King, as any Queen in Europe.

Prerogative.] From the Saxon Time, the Queen-Consort of England, tho' she be an Alien born, and tho' during the Life of the King she be Feme Covert, as our Law speaks, yet without any Act of Parliament for Naturalization, or Letters Patents for Denization, she may purchase Lands in Fee-Simple, make Leases and Grants in her own Name, without the King; hath Power to Give, to Sue, to Contract, as a Feme-Sole; may receive by Gift from her Husband, which no other Feme-Covert may do.

She may Present by herself to a Spiritual Benefice; and in a Quare Impedit brought by her, Plenary, by the Presentation of another, is no more a Bar against her, than it is against the King.

She shall not be Amerced if she be Non-suited in any Action, &c.

Of latter Times she hath had as large Dower as any Queen in Christendom; hath her Royal Court apart, as Officers, &c.

The Queen may not be Impleaded till first Petitioned; if she be Plaintiff, the Summons in the Process need not to have the Solemnity of fifteen Days, &c.

She is reputed the Second Person in the Kingdom.

The Law setteth so high a Value upon Her, as to make it High Treason to conspire her Death, or to violate her Chastity.

Her Officers, as Attorney and Solicitor, have Respect above others, and Place within the Bar with the King's Council.

The like Honour, Reverence and Respect that is due to the King, is exhibited to the Queen, both by Subjects and Foreigners, and also to the Queen Dowager, or Widow-Queen; nor does she, like other Subjects, lose her Dignity, tho' she should marry a private Gentleman: Thus Queen Katharine, Widow to King Henry the Fifth, being married to Owen ap Theodoret, Esq; did maintain her Action as Queen of England: Much less doth a Queen by Inheritance, or a Queen Sovereign of England follow her Husband's Condition, or is subject, as other Queens, but is Sovereign to her own Husband, as Queen Mary was to King Philip, unless it be otherwise mutually agreed on in Parliament, as in the Case of the late King William and Queen Mary, of Glorious Memory.

C H A P. V.

Of the SONS and DAUGHTERS of England.

THE Children of the King of England are called the Sons and Daughters of England, because all the Subjects of England have a special Interest in them.

Eldest Son.] The Eldest Son of the King was sometimes stiled, in the Saxon Times, Clito, quasi Κλῆδος, illustris: And so likewise Ætheling, or Atheling, which is a Patronymic of the Saxon Word Aihel, Nobilis. As Eadgaring was the Son of Eadgar, so Etheling the Son of a Nobleman, was afterwards used only for the King's Eldest Son. He is born Duke of Cornwal; and as to that Dutchy, and all the Lands, Honours, Rents, and great Revenues belonging thereunto, he is upon his Birthday presumed, and by Law taken to be of full Age; so that he may that Day sue for the Livery of the said Dukedom, and ought of Right to obtain the same, as if he had been full 21 Years of Age. Afterwards he is created Prince of Wales; whose Investiture was formerly performed by Imposition of a Cap of State and Coronet on his Head, as a Token of Principality, and putting into his Hand a Verge of Gold, the Emblem of Government, and a Ring of Gold on his Finger, to intimate that he must be a Husband to his Country, and Father of her Children. Also to him is given and granted Letters Patent to hold the said Principality to him and his Heirs, Kings of England; by which Words the Separation of this Principality is for ever avoided: His Mantle which he wears in Parliament is once more doubled, or hath one Guard more than a Duke's; his Coronet is of Crosses and Flower-de-luces, and his Cap of State Indented.

Since the happy Restauration of King Charles the Second, it was solemnly ordered, that the Son and Heir Apparent of the Crown of England shall use and bear his Coronet of Crosses and Flower-de-luces with one Arch, and in the Midst a Ball and Cross, as hath the Royal Diadem. That the Duke of York, and all the immediate Sons and Brothers of the Kings of England, shall use and bear their Coronets, composed of Crosses and Flower-de-luces only; but all their Sons respectively, having the Title of Dukes, shall bear and use such Coronets as other Dukes who are not of the Royal Family.

From the Day of his Birth he is commonly stiled The Prince of Wales, a Title first given by King Edward the First to his eldest Son; for the Welsh Nation, till that Time, unwilling to submit to the Yoke of Strangers, that King so ordered, that his Queen was delivered of her first Child in Caernarvon Castle in Wales.

Queen

The Prince hath ever since been stiled Prince of Wales, Duke of Aquitain and Cornwal, and Earl of Chester and Flint; which Earldoms are always conferred upon him by Letters Patent. Since the Union of England and Scotland, his Title hath been Magna Britannia Princeps, but more ordinarily the Prince of Wales.

The King of England's eldest Son (so long as Normandy remained in their Hands) was always stiled Duke of Normandy.

Anciently the Arms of the Princes of Wales, whilst they were Sovereigns, bear quarterly, Gules and Or, four Lions passant guardant counterchanged.

The Arms of the Prince of Wales at this Day differ from those of the King only by Addition of a Label of three Points, charged with nine Torteaux; and the Devise of the Prince is a Coronet beautified with three Ostrich Feathers, inscribed with Ich Dien, which in the German Language signifies, I serve. This Device was born at the Battle of Cressy, by John King of Bohemia, serving there under the French King, and there slain by Edward the Black Prince; since worn by the Princes of Wales, and by the Vulgar called the Prince's Arms.

Dignities.] The Prince, in our Law, is reputed as the same Person with the King, and so declared by a Statute of Henry the Eighth.

Privileges.] He hath certain Privileges above other Persons.

To imagine the Death of the Prince, or to violate the Wife of the Prince, is made High Treason.

He can retain and qualify as many Chaplains as he shall please.

Yet, as the Prince in Nature is a distinct Person from the King, so in Law also, in some Cases, he is a Subject, holdeth his Principalities and Seignories of the King, giveth the same Respect to the King as other Subjects do.

Revenues.] The Revenues belonging to the Prince, since much of the Lands and Demesnes in Cornwal have been alienated, are especially out of the Tin Mines in that Dutchy, which with all other Profits thereof amount yearly to the Sum of 14,000 l. 2. The Revenue of the present Prince, as established by Act of Parliament, amounts to 100,000 l. per Annum, clear of all Deductions whatever.

The Revenues of the Principality of Wales, surveyed three hundred Years ago, was above 4,680 l. yearly; a rich Estate, according to the Value of Money in those Days.

Till the Prince came to be fourteen Years old, all Things belonging to the Principality of Wales were wont to be disposed of by Commissioners, consisting of some principal Persons of the Clergy and Nobility.

The CADETS, or Young Children, of the Royal Family.

Cadets.] The Cadets, or young Sons of England, are created (not born) Dukes or Earls of England, of what Places or Titles the King pleaseth.

They have no certain Appenages, as in France, but only what the good Pleasure of the King bestows upon them.

All the King's Sons are by their Birth Counsellors of State, that so they may grow up in the weighty Affairs of the Kingdom.

The Daughters of England are stiled Princesses, the Eldest of which to violate unmarried, is High-Treason at this Day.

To all the King's Children belong the Title of Royal-Highness; all Subjects are to be uncovered in their Presence; to kneel when they are admitted to kiss their Hands; and at Table, they are, out of the King's Presence, served on the Knee.

The Children, the Brothers, and Sisters of the King, being Plaintiffs, the Summons in the Process need not have the Solemnity of Fifteen Days, as in the Case of other Subjects.

All the Sons, Grandsons, Brothers, Uncles, and Nephews of the King are by Stat. 3 Hen. VIII. to precede others in England. It is true, the Word Grandson is not there in terminis, but it understood, as Sir Edward Coke holds by Nephew, which in Latin being Nepos, signifies also, and chiefly a Grandson.

The Natural or Illegitimate Sons and Daughters of the King, bear what Surname the King pleaseth to give them; and for Arms, the Arms of England, with a Basin, or a Bordure Gargonne, or some Mark of Illegitimation.

C H A P. VI.

Of the several Acts of SUCCESSION, by which the most Serene House of Hanover is called to the Succession of the Crown of Great-Britain, &c.

UPON the Death of his Highness the Duke of Gloucester, Anno 1700, his late Majesty King William having recommended in his Speech to both Houses of Parliament, the Succession to the Crown in the Protestant Line, in Case of the Death of his said Majesty, after the Decease of her Royal Highness the Princess Anne of Denmark, without Issue of their Bodies; the Parliament thereupon, in the same Session, pass'd an Act, Entituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject; whereby it is Enacted,

That the most Excellent Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutchess Dowager of Hanover, Daughter to the most Excellent Princess Elizabeth, Queen of Bohemia, Eldest Daughter of King James I. of happy Memory, be, and is hereby declared to be the next in Succession in the Protestant Line, to the Imperial Crown and Dignity of the Realms of England, France and Ireland, with the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, after his Majesty, and the Princess Anne of Denmark; and in Default of Issue of his Majesty and the said Princess Anne respectively, to the Crown and Regal Government of the said Kingdoms of England, France, and Ireland, &c. shall be and remain, and continue to the most Excellent Princess Sophia, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants, &c.

Soon after his late Majesty's Accession to the Throne, She was pleased to order the Princess Sophia to be prayed for in the Prayers of the Royal Family: And the more firmly to secure the Succession in the Protestant Line, did, in the Parliament holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of her Reign, give the Royal Assent to two farther Acts; viz. One, For Naturalizing the said Princess Sophia, and the Issue of her Body: And the other, An Act for the greater Security of her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession of the Crown of England in the Protestant Line.

And by the Treaty of Union between the two Kingdoms, the Protestant Succession in the most Serene House of Hanover, to the Imperial Crown of Great-Britain, &c. was made a Fundamental Part of our present most happy Constitution.

C H A P. VII.

Of ECCLESIASTICAL Government.

THE Government of England, under the King, is Ecclesiastical, Civil, and Military; of which three great Heads of Government in their Order.

The Christian Faith being preached in England, Bishops were consecrated, and the Number of them encreased by Degrees, in Proportion to the Growth of the Gospel. They had, like all other Bishops of the Christian Church, a Pre-eminence over the Clergy within certain Precincts, and in Process of Time their Seats were all placed in the most considerable Towns with in their Jurisdiction, pursuant to a Canon made for that Purpose.

Afterwards, the Bishops being necessitated to meet about publick Affairs of the Church, at Consecrations, Consultations for Remedy of general Disorders, for Audiences Judicial, when the Action of any Bishop should be called in Question, or Appeals from Bishops, our Ancestors (according to other Christian Churches, even before the first Nicene Council) had one to be the Chief in Authority over the rest, from thence named Archiepiscopus, Arch, or Chief Bishop; whereof we have two in England, called Primates, Metropolitans, or Archbishops, that is, Chief-bishops, the one of Canterbury, the other of York; each of which have, besides their peculiar Diocese, a Province consisting of several Dioceses; and by Grants of several Kings, they have each certain Privileges, Liberties, and Immunities in their own States.

Under these two Archbishops are 24 Bishopricks, whereof 21 are reckon'd in the Province of Canterbury, and three in the Province of York, besides the Bishoprick of Sodor and Man; all which have the Title of Lords, by reason of their Baronies annexed to the Bishopricks; and have Precedence immediately after Viscounts, both in Parliament, and in other Assemblies.

The Function of an English Bishop consists in what he may act, either by his Episcopal Order, or by his Episcopal Jurisdiction.

By his Episcopal Order he may Ordain Deacons and Priests; he may dedicate Churches and Burying-places; may administer the Rites and Ceremonies of Confirmation; and without a Bishop none of these may be done. Of which Offices the Power of Ordination has been ever since the Apostles Times understood to be inseparable from the Office of a Bishop.

The Jurisdiction of a Bishop is either Ordinary or Delegated; his Ordinary Jurisdiction is what by the Law of the Land belongs to each Bishop in his own Diocese; the Delegated, is what what the King is pleased to confer upon him, not as a Bishop, but as he is a Subject, and a considerable Member of the Kingdom.

In the Ordinary Jurisdiction of a Bishop, as a Bishop, may be considered either the Jurisdiction itself, or what is instated in him by the Law of the Land, for the better Execution of that Jurisdiction.

The Jurisdiction it self is established partly by Statute Law, as to License Physicians, Surgeons, and School-Masters, to unite and consolidate small Parishes, [N. B. That no Bishop in England has this last Power now but the Bishop of Norwich, and that only within a certain Distance; and he alone has such a Power, by Virtue of which an Incumbent can take a third Living by an Archiepiscopal, or Royal Dispensation; otherwise in any other Diocese, he that has two Livings, cum Curâ Animarum, is a Pluralist, by a Statute of 21 Hen. VII.] to assist the Civil Magistrates in Execution of some Statutes concerning Ecclesiastical Affairs; to compel the Payment of Tiths and Subsidies due from the Clergy formerly to the Crown, now given for the Augmentation of smaller Benefices:

Partly by Common Law, as upon the King's Writ, to certify the Judges touching Legitimate and Illegitimate Births and Marriages:

And partly by Common and Ecclesiastical Law together; as to cause Wills of the Deceased to be proved; to grant Administration of Goods to such as die intestate; to give Order for the gathering and preserving of perishable Goods, where none is willing to administer; to cause Account to be given of Administrations; to collate Benefices; to grant Institutions to Benefices upon Presentations of other Patrons; to command Induction to be given; to order the collecting and preserving the Profits of vacant Benefices for the Use of the Successors; to defend the Franchises and Liberties of the Church; to visit their particular Diocese once in three Years, and therein to enquire of the Manners, Carriage, Delinquencies of Ministers, of Church-Wardens, of the rest of the Parishioners, and amongst them, especially of those that profess themselves Physicians, Surgeons, School-Masters, Midwives; of Wardens of Hospitals, how they perform their several Duties and Trusts; also of all other professing Christianity, and offending either against Piety, as by Blasphemy, Idolatry, Superstition, Perjury, Heresy, Errors against the Thirty-nine Articles, Schism, Conventicles, Absence from Divine Service, unlawful Absence from the Sacraments, Dilapidations of Buildings or Goods belonging to the Church, Simony, &c. or by offending against Sobriety, as by Drunkenness, Incest, Adultery, Fornication, filthy Speech, tempting of any one's Chastity, Clandestine Marriages, as for want of thrice publishing the Banns, the Want of Parents Consent, the Want of Witnesses, which must be above two, or marrying in a private Place, in an undue Time, before Eight in the Morning, and after Twelve of the Clock in the Day.

Arch-Bishops.] There are two Archiepiscopal Sees in England, Canterbury and York, to which all the Bishopricks in England and Wales are subject. Both were founded in the Saxon Times in the Metropolis of the several Kingdoms; Canterbury in the Head City of Kent, and York in the Capital of the Kingdom of the Northumbrians. The Rights, Powers, and Privileges are now distinctly known, and the See of Canterbury has the undisputed Pre-eminence, which was long disputed by the Archbishops of York.

Canterbury.] Giraldus Cambrensis writes, That the Archbishop of Canterbury anciently had Primacy as well over all Ireland as England, and the Irish Bishops received their Consecrations from him; for Ireland had no other Archbishop until the Year 1152. He was therefore sometimes called Alterius orbis Papa, & orbis Britannici Pontifex: He was so highly respected Abroad, that in General Councils he was placed before all other Archbishops, at the Pope's Right-Foot. He was at Home so highly honoured by the King of England, that he was accounted the second Person in the Kingdom, and named and rankled even before the Princes of the Blood.

He is Primus Par Regni, the first Peer of England, and next to the Royal Family, to precede not only all Dukes, but all the Great Officers of the Crown.

He is stiled Primate of all England, and Metropolitan.

At the solemn Coronation of King Charles II. it was expressly ordered, in doing Homage to the King, that according to ancient Custom, the Archbishops and Bishops should precede even the Duke of York, and all the Lay-Lords.

He is stiled by the King, in his Writs directed to him, Dei Gratia Archiepiscopus Cantuariensis, and writes himself Divina Providentia; whereas other Bishops write Divina Permissione.

To Crown the King belongs to him; and it hath been resolved, that wheresoever the Court shall happen to be, the King and Queen are Speciales domestici Parochiani Domini Arch. Cant.

The Bishop of London is his Provincial Dean, the Bishop of Winchester his Sub-Dean, the Bishop of Lincoln, his Chancellor, and the Bishop of Rochester his Chaplain.

In writing and speaking to him is given the Title of Grace, as is to all Dukes, and Most Reverend Father in God.

He hath by Common Law within his own Province, the Power of Probate of all Testaments, and granting Letters of Administration, where the Party dying had Bona Notabilia, that is, five Pounds worth or above, out of the Diocese wherein he died; or ten Pounds worth within the Diocese of London; or if the Party dying be a Bishop, though he hath no Goods out of the Diocese where he died: Also to grant Administration of the Goods and Chattels of all such as die intestate without his Province.

By Stat. 25 Hen. VIII. he hath the Honour and Power to grant Licences and Dispensations in all Cases heretofore sued for in the Court of Rome, not repugnant to the Law of God, or the King's Prerogative; as to allow a Clerk to hold a Benefice in Commendam or Trust; to allow a Son, contrary to the Canons, to succeed his Father immediately in a Benefice; to allow a Clerk rightly qualified to hold two Benefices with Cure of Souls; to dispense with Irregularity contracted without a Man's own Default, as by Defect of Body or Birth, or by accidental killing of a Man, &c. to take off the Guilt of Simony; to allow a beneficed Clerk, for certain Causes, to be Non-resident for some Time; to constitute Publick Notaries, whose single Testimony is as good as the Testimonies of any two other Persons, All which aforementioned Licences, Dispensations, &c. the said Archbishop grants by himself, or by his Deputy, called the Master of Faculties, in all his Majesty's Dominions, except Scotland and Ireland. He hath also the Power to grant Literas tutorias, whereby any one that brings his Appeal, may prosecute the same without any Molestation; to bestow one Dignity, Prebend, or Living, in any Diocese within his Province, otherwise in the Gift of the Bishop thereof, which-soever he shall choose; which is therefore called the Archbishop's Option, upon every Creation there of a new Bishop.

He hath a Prerogative to consecrate a Bishop (though it must be done in the Presence, and with the Assistance of two other Bishops); to call Provincial Synods according to the King's Writ always directed to him; to be President of those Synods or Convocations; to visit the whole Province; to appoint a Guardian of the Spiritualities, during the Vacancy of any Bishoprick within his Province, whereby all the Episcopal Rights of that Diocese belong to him, and all Ecclesiastical Jurisdictions, as Visitations, Institutions, &c.

The Archbishop may retain and qualify eight Chaplains, which is two more than any Duke by Statute is allowed to do.

The Archbishop of Canterbury hath moreover the Power to hold diverse Courts of Judicature, for deciding of Differences in Ecclesiastical Affairs; as his Court of Arches, his Court of Audience, his Prerogative Court, and his Court of Peculiars; all which shall be handled particularly.

These and other Prerogatives and Privileges, the Wisdom of our first Reformers thought fit to be retained, and added to the chief Person (under the King) of the Church of England.

York.] The next Person in the Church of England, is the Archbishop of York, who was anciently also of very high Repute in this Nation, and has under his Province several Bishopricks in the North of England, and the Bishoprick of Sodor and Man.

He hath still the Place and Precedence of all Dukes not of the Royal Blood, and of all great Officers of State, except only the Lord Chancellor; hath the Title of Grace, and Most Reverend Father in God; hath the Honour to crown the Queen Consort, and to be her perpetual Chaplain.

He is also stiled Primate of England, and Metropolitan, and hath under him the Bishopricks of York, Durham, Carlisle, Chester, and that of Sodor and Man; only Durham hath a peculiar Jurisdiction, and in many Things is wholly exempted from the Jurisdiction of the Archbishop.

He had the Rights of a Count Palatine over Hexamshire in Northumberland; may qualify also eight Chaplains, and hath within his Province diverse others of the fore-mentioned Privileges and Priveleges, which the Archbishop of Canterbury hath within his own Province.

Bishops.] The next in Place among the Clergy of England, are the Bishops, so call'd from the Saxon Word Biscop, and that from the Greek, Ἐπίσκοπος, which properly signifies an Overseer.

All the Bishops of England are Barons and Peers of the Realm; they are Barons by a three-fold Manner (which cannot be said of the Lay-Lords) they are Feudal, in regard of Lands and Baronies annexed to their Bishopricks; they are Barons by Writ, being summoned by the King's Writ to Parliament; and they are created Barons by Patent, which by their Consecration is always exhibited to the Archbishop. They have the Precedence of all Temporal Barons under Viscounts: In Parliament have Place in the Upper House in a double Capacity, not only as Barons, but as Bishops; they have the Title of Lords, and Right Reverend Fathers in God.

All Bishops in England have one or two transcendent Privileges, which seem almost Regal; as in their own Court to judge and pass Sentence alone by themselves, without any Colleague or Assessor; which is not done in other of the King's Courts; for the Bishops Courts (though held by the King's Authority, Virtute Magistratus sui, and though all Jurisdiction in England is inseparably annexed to the Crown, yet) are not accounted to be properly the King's Courts, and therefore the Bishops sent out Writs in their own Names, Teste the Bishop, and not in the King's Name, as all the King's Courts, properly so called, do.

Moreover, Bishops have this other transcendent Privilege, to depute their Authority to another, as the King doth, either to their Bishops Suffragans, to their Chancellors, to their Commissaries, missaries, or other Officers, which none of the King's Judges may do.

All Bishops have one Privilege above and 'beyond all Lay Lords; viz. That in whatsoever Christian Prince's Dominions they come, their Episcopal Dignity and Degree is acknowledged; and they may, quatenus Bishops, confer Orders, &c. Whereas no Lay- Baron, Viscount, Marquis, nor Duke is in Law acknowledged such, out of the Dominions of the Prince who conferred those Honours.

Upon severe Penalty by our Laws, no Man may raise Reports, whereby Scandal may arise to the Person of any Bishop, or Debate and Discord between them and the Commons of England.

In Civil Trials, where any Bishop is Plaintiff or Defendant, the Bishop may, as well as any Lay-Lord, challenge the Array, if one Knight at least be not returned of the Jury, and it shall be allowed unto him as a Privilege due to his Peerage.

Since the Reformation, the English Protestant Bishops have been so constantly loyal and true to the Crown, and so free from all Capital Crimes, that there is yet no Precedent in England, unless we reckon Archbishop Laud's Case to be so, for their Manner of Trial for Life.

Primo Eliz. Chap. 2. It is expressly declared, That all Lords of Parliament (without any Exception of Lords Spiritual) should be tried in that Particular by their Peers.

The Bishops of England enjoy at this Day many other Privileges, as Freedom from Arrests, Outlawries, Distress per Equitaturam, or a Journey.

Every Bishop may, by Statute Law, qualify as many Chaplains as a Duke; viz. Six.

The Law of England attributeth so very much to a Bishop, that not only in the Trial of Bastardy, the Bishop's Certificate shall suffice, but also in the Trial of Heresy, which touches a Man's Life; and made the Offences of Parricide and Episcopicide equal; viz. Petit-Treason.

Next to the two Archbishops of England, the Bishop of London amongst all the Bishops hath the Pre-eminence. Episcopus Londinensis (saith an ancient Record) speciali quandam dignitate ceteris anteponeendus, quia ecclesia Cantuariensis Decanus est Provincialis. Being Bishop over the Imperial and Capital City of England, it is by a Statute of later Times expressly provided, that he should have the Preference and Precedence of all the Bishops of England.

Next amongst those of the Episcopal College, is the Bishop of Durham, within the Province of York, who hath been a Count Palatine six or seven hundred Years: Wherefore the Common Seal of the Bishoprick hath been a long Time an Armed Knight

Knight holding in one Hand a naked Sword, and in the other a Church.

He hath also at this Day the Earldom of Sadberg, annexed long ago to the Bishoprick by the King.

In the fifth Place, by Virtue of the forementioned Statute, is the Bishop of Winchester, reputed anciently Earl of Southampton, and so stiled in the Statutes of the Honourable Order of the Garter, by Henry VIII. though soon after that Earldom was otherwise disposed of. He is Sub-Dean of the Province of Canterbury, and in the Vacancy of the See of London, executes the Archbishop's Mandates for Convocation, &c. which Office belongs to the Bishop of Lincoln, as Chancellor of the Province, in the Vacancy of both those other Sees of London and Winchester.

After these five aforementioned, all the other Bishops take Place according to the Seniority of their Consecration.

Next follow Suffragan-Bishops, Deans, Arch-deacons, Prebendaries, Rectors, and Vicars; to whom belong diverse considerable Privileges.

For easing the Bishop of some Part of his Burden, as the Number of Christians waxed great, or the Diocese was large, there was ordained, in the Primitive Times, Chorepiscopi, Suffragans, or Subsidiary Bishops.

Suffragan-Bishops, by an Act of Parliament of Henry VIII. still in Force, are to be only of these Towns following:

The Suffragan-Bishop for the Diocese of Canterbury, must be at Dover only; for York, at Nottingham, and Hull; for London, at Colchester; for Durham, at Berwick; for Winchester, at Guilford, Southampton, and in the Isle of Wight; for Lincoln, at Bedford, Leicester, Grantham, and Huntingdon; for Norwich, at Thetford and Ipswich; for Salisbury, at Shaftsbury, Melton and Marlborough; for Bath and Wells, at Taunton; for Heresford, at Bridgenorth; for Coventry and Lichfield, at Shrewsbury; for Ely, at Cambridge; for Exeter, at St. Germans; for Carlisle, at Pennrith. These only to be the Sees of Bishops-Suffragans, and no more Suffragans allowed than so many to each Diocese as above-mentioned. In publick Assemblies they were to take Place next after the Temporal Peers of the Realm.

In every Cathedral-Church in England there are a certain Number of Prebendaries, as Canons, and over them a Dean, in Latin Decanus, from Δίκα; because anciently set over ten Canons at the least; who is sometimes stiled Alter Episcopi Oculus (the other being the Arch-deacon, who, tho' a Presbyter himself, is so named, for his Charge over the Deacons) who are to be guided and directed by him under the Bishop.

Dean and Chapter.] The Dean and some of the Prebends are, upon the Bishop's Summons, to assist him in Ordinations, in Deprivations ab Officio & Beneficio, in Condemnations of obstinate Hereticks, in the great Excommunications, and in such like weighty Affairs in the Church.

Deans of the old Foundations, founded before the Suppression of Monasteries, are brought to their Dignities much like Bishops; the King first sending forth his Letter Missive to the Chapter; they electing, and the King granting his Royal Assent, the Bishop confirms him, and gives his Mandate to instal him.

Deans of the new Foundations (upon Suppression of Abbies, or Priories, transformed by Henry VIII. into Dean and Chapter) are by a shorter Course installed by Virtue of the King's Letters-Patents, without either Election or Confirmation.

In most of the old Foundations the Prebendaries are of two Sorts; some are Canons, or Residentiaries, who, with their own Dean, make one Body, or College, or Corporation: These are what they call the lesser Chapter; and some are minor Prebendaries, who have each his own separate Estate, or Corpse: They are not obliged to Residence, only to preach upon certain Days; they have a Stall in the Choir, but no Vote in the lesser Chapter, the greater Chapter being made up of all the Prebendaries of all Sorts.

Note, That the Canons in these old Foundations cannot regularly be made so, unless they are first minor Prebendaries.

A Prebend is properly the Portion which every Prebendary of a Collegiate or Cathedral Church receiveth in the Right of his Place for his Maintenance, quasi pars vel portio prabenda.

Archdeacons.] Next in the Government of the English Church may be reckoned Archdeacons, whereof there are sixty in all England: Their Office is to visit two Years in three, and to enquire into Reparations and Moveables belonging to Churches, to reform Abuses in Ecclesiastical Matters, and to bring the more weighty Affairs before the Bishop of the Diocese: Moreover, the Office of an Archdeacon is, upon the Bishop's Mandate, to induct Clerks into their Benefices, and thereby to give them Possession of all the Profits belonging thereto.

Many Archdeacons, and some Prebendaries, in old Foundations, have by Prescriptions their Courts and Officials as Bishops have: Whereof more hereafter.

Rural-Deans.] After the Archdeacons, are the Archipresbyteri, or Rural Deans, so called perhaps at first for their Oversight of ten Parish-Priests, but now seldom created or used.

Parish-Priests, or Rectors.] Next are to be considered the Priests of every particular Parish, who are commonly called the Rectors, unless the Predial Tithes are impropriated, and then they are stiled Vicars, quasi vice fungentes Rectorum. Their Office is to take Care of all the Parishioners Souls; to chastise the Ignorant, reduce the Straying, confirm the Wavering, convince the Obstinate, reprehend the Wicked, confute Schismatics, reconcile Differences among Neighbours; to read duly Divine Service, to administer the Holy Sacraments, and to Preach, if the Bishop shall think fit, to Visit the Sick, to Marry, to Bury, to render publick Thanks after Child-bearing, to keep a Register of all the Marriages, Christenings, and Burials that shall happen within the Parish.

Lastly, Deacons, whose Office was to take Care of the Poor, is now to Baptize, read in the Church, assist the Priest at the Lord's Supper, by giving the Cup only, &c.

In England are two Archbishops, twenty-four Bishops, no Suffragan Bishops at present, twenty-six Deans of Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, sixty Archdeacons, 544 Prebendaries, many Rural-Deans, and about 9,700 Rectors and Vicars, besides Curates, who, for certain Stipends, assist such Rectors and Vicars that have the Care of more Churches than one.

Note, That although the Gift of the higher Dignities of the Church of England, as Bishopricks and most Deaneries are only in the King, in whom is also the Donation of most of the best Prebends and Canonicates, and of several great, and very many small Parsonages and Vicarages, which are under the Visitation of the Bishops and Archbishops; yet there are some Donatives and Free-Chapels, which are subject to the Visitation only of the Lord Chancellor, and wholly exempted from the Jurisdiction of any Bishop.

Next are the Churchwardens, whose Office is to see that the Church be in good Repair, fitly adorned, and nothing wanting for Divine Service, Sacrament and Sermons: That the Church-yard be sufficiently bounded or enclosed: That there be an exact Terrier of the Glebe-Land; to enquire after, to admonish and to present to the Bishop scandalous Livers; to collect the Charity of Parishioners; to declare and to execute the Orders of the Bishop: The Church-wardens are elected every Easter-Week, usually by the Parson and Parishioners, if they so agree; if not, then one by the Parson, and the other by the Parishioners.

There are also in greater Parishes joined with the Churchwardens, Testes Synodales, anciently called Synods-Men, now corruptly Sides-Men, who are to assist the Churchwardens in Enquiries into the Manner of inordinate Livers, and in presenting Offenders at Visitations.

Lastly, the Sacristan, corruptly called the Sexton, or Clerk, who is ordinarily to be chosen by the Parson only; he ought to be twenty Years old, or above, of good Life, that can read, write, and sing: His Office is to serve at Church the Priest, Curate, and Churchwardens.

Note, Where the Office of the Clerk and Sexton are distinct, the Minister chooses the former, the People the latter.

CHAP. VIII.

Of ECCLESIASTICAL Courts of England; and first of the CONVOCATION.

FOR the Church's Legislative Power, or the making of Ecclesiastical Laws, and consulting for the more weighty Affairs of the Church, the King, by the Advice of his Privy-Council, as often as he calls a Parliament, convokes a National Synod, commonly called the Convocation; which is summoned in Manner following:

The King directeth his Writ to the Archbishop of each Province, requiring him to summon all Bishops, Deans, Archdeacons, Cathedrals and Collegiate Churches, &c. according to their best Discretion and Judgment, assigning them the Time and Place in the said Writ; whereupon the Archbishop of Canterbury directs his Mandate to the Bishop of London, as his Dean-Provincial; first citing him peremptorily, and then willing him in like Manner to cite all the Bishops, Deans, Archdeacons, Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and all the Clergy of his Province, to such a Place and such a Day prefixed in the Writ; but directing withal, that one Proctor sent for each Cathedral and Collegiate Church, and two for the Body of the Inferior Clergy of each Diocese, may suffice. The Bishop of London accordingly directs his Letters to the Bishop of every Diocese of the Province, citing them in like Manner to appear, and to admonish the Deans and Archdeacons to appear personally, and the Cathedrals, Collegiate Churches, and Inferior Clergy of the Diocese, to send their Proctors to the Place, and at the Day appointed; to certify also to the Archbishop the Names of all so summoned by them.

The Place where the Convocation of the Clergy in the Province of Canterbury hath usually been held, is St. Paul's Church in London, from whence they are, by the Archbishop, prorogued or adjourned to Westminster, where the Bishops assembled in the Chapel of Henry VII. and the Lower House in the Jerusalem-Chamber. [They have of late been adjourned to the Chapter-House in St. Paul's Church-Yard; but I think they have not been allowed to sit and do Business above once since the Reign of Queen Anne; so that this Part of our Constitution is in a manner lost.]

The Higher House of Convocation, in the Province of Canterbury, consists of 22 Bishops, whereof the Archbishop is President, sitting in a Chair at the upper End of a great Table, and the Bishops on each Side of the same Table, all at the Opening

Opening of a Convocation, in their scarlet Robes and Hoods, the Archbishop's Hood furr'd with Ermin, the Bishops with Minever.

The Lower House consists of all the Deans, Archdeacons, one Proctor for every Chapter, and two Proctors for all the Clergy of each Diocese, in all 166 Persons, viz. 22 Deans, 24 Prebendaries, 54 Archdeacons, and 44 Clerks, representing the Diocesan Clergy.

The first Day, both Houses being assembled, the Archbishop presides at the Head of the Clergy of his Province; and the Lower Clergy being required by the most Reverend, choose them a Prolocutor, or Speaker; which done, they present him to the Upper House by one or two of the Members, whereof one makes a Speech in Latin, and then the elected Person makes another Speech in Latin. Lastly, the Archbishop answers it in the same Language, and with the Consent of the Bishops, approves of the Person.

The major Vote in each House prevails.

All the Members of both Houses of Convocation have the same Privileges for themselves and menial Servants as the Members of Parliament have, and that by Statute.

The Archbishop of York at the same Time may hold at York a Convocation of all his Province in like Manner; and by constant Correspondence, debate and conclude of the same Matters as are debated and concluded by the Provincial Synod of Canterbury: But the Northern Province is by no means ty'd down by what the Southern Province does; nor are they obliged to debate upon nothing but what the Southern Province has before determined.

All Suffragan-Bishops and Deans, Archdeacons, Prebendaries, Rectors, and Vicars, have Privileges, some by themselves, others by Proxy, or by Representatives, to sit and vote in the Lower House of Convocation.

Court of DELEGATES.

FOR Civil Affairs, that concern the Church, the highest Court is now the Court of Delegates; for the Jurisdiction whereof it was provided, 25 Henry VIII. That it shall be lawful for any Subject of England, in Case of Defect of Justice in the Courts of the Archbishop of Canterbury, to appeal to the King's Majesty in his Courts of Chancery; and that upon such Appeal, a Commission under the Great Seal shall be directed to certain Persons particularly design'd for that Business; so that from the highest Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury, there lies an Appeal to this Court of Delegates; and beyond this to none other, except to the House of Lords.

To this Court belongs a standing Register, and the Court is kept in the Common Hall, in the Afternoon, the next Day after the Prerogative.

The Citations and Decrees here run in the King's Name.

From this Court lies no Appeal in the common Course:

But the King, of his meer Prerogative Royal, may, and many times doth, grant a Commission of Review under the Broad-Seal.

In this College also usually resides the Vicar-General belonging to the Archbishop of Canterbury; who, as he is a Primate, hath the Guardianship of the Spiritualities of every Bishop within his Province, during the Vacancy, and executes all Episcopal Power and Jurisdiction by his Vicar-General.

The Archbishop of York hath the like Power in his Province.

Note, That either of the Archbishops, and every Bishop, Archdeacon, and Dean and Chapter throughout both Provinces of Canterbury and York, hath a particular Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, and an Ecclesiastical Court thereto belonging, whereof there is a Judge, which, for the most Part, is one of the Doctors of the Civil-Law, also a Register and Proctors exercent in the same; and that before the Vicar-General and Chancellors of the Bishops, are triable all Ecclesiastical Causes within their respective Dioceses, except Letters of Request be granted by the Diocesan-Bishop, or Ordinary of the Place, to the Party, to sue in the Court of Arches, which is ordinary.

Note also, That the Vicar-Generals and Chancellors are appointed by the respective Archbishops and Bishops, by Letters Patents under their Seal, and confirmed by the Dean and Chapter of the respective Cathedrals.

In like Manner, Note, That every Vice-Admiral hath the Power of keeping Courts within his Jurisdiction, touching such Affairs as belong to the same.

Note, That the Civil-Law Terms begin and end not much different from the Terms at Westminster, and in every Term there are several Court-Days in every of these Courts, which for the most part are fixed and known by the preceding Holy-days, Saints-days, and the rest are appointed ad arbitrium Judicis.

Next to the Court of Delegates are the Courts of the Archbishop of Canterbury, where any Ecclesiastical Suits between any Persons within his Province, may (waving all inferior Courts) be decided.

Court of ARCHES.

AMongst them, the highest Court is the Court of Arches, so called from the Arched Church and Tower of St. Mary-le-Bow in London, where this Court was wont to be held: the Judge

Judge whereof is called Dean of the Arches, having Jurisdiction over a Deanery consisting of 13 Parishes within London, exempt from the Jurisdiction of the Bishop of London. Hither are directed the Appeals in Ecclesiastical Matters within the Province of Canterbury. To this Court belongs diverse Advocates, all Doctors of the Civil-Law, 2 Registers, and 34 Proctors.

The Judge of this Court sitteth alone, without any Assessors, and heareth and determineth all Causes, without any Jury of 12 Men, as is necessary in Common-Law Courts.

To this Court belongeth an Actuary, a Register, and a Beadle.

The Office of the Actuary is to attend the Court, set down the Judges Decrees, register the Acts of the Court, and send them in Books to the Registry.

The Office of the Register of the Court is by himself, or Deputy, to attend the Court, receive all Libels, or Bills, Allegations and Exhibits of Witnesses, file all Sentences, and keep the Records of the Court.

The Beadle attends the Court, carrieth a Mace before the Judge, and calls the Persons cited to appear.

Those that are allowed to be Advocates, and plead in this Court, are all to be Doctors of the Civil-Law in one of the Universities of England; who, upon their Petition to the Archbishop of Canterbury, and his Fiat obtained, are admitted by the Judge of this Court, upon condition not to practise for one whole Year after such Admittance.

The Manner of their Admittance is thus: The two Senior Advocates in their Scarlet Robes, with the Mace before them, conduct him up to the Court, with three low Reverences, and present him with a short Latin Speech, and the Rescript of the Archbishop; then the Oaths of Allegiance, Supremacy, and some other prescribed in the Statute of the Arches, being taken, he is admitted by the Judges, and a Place and Seat in the Court assigned unto him, either à dextris, or sinistris, which he is always to keep when he pleads.

The Judge and all the Advocates in this Court always wear their Scarlet Robes, with Hoods lined with Taffety, if they be of Oxford, or white Miniver Fur, if of Cambridge, and all round black Velvet Caps; and the Proctors wear, or ought to wear, Hoods lined with Lamb-Skin, if not Graduates; but if Graduates, Hoods proper to the Degree.

According to the Statutes of this Court, all Arguments made by Advocates, and all Petitions made by the Proctors, are to be in the Latin Tongue.

All Process of this Court runs in the Name of the Judge, thus, L. L. D. Alma Curia Cant. de Arcubus Lond. Officialis, Principalis, and returnable before him, heretofore in Bow-Church, now in the Common-Hall at Doctors-Commons.

The

The Places and Offices belonging to this Court, are all in the Gift of the Archbishop of Canterbury, whose Court it is.

Court of AUDIENCE.

THE Court of Audience is wherever the Archbishop avocates a Cause to his own Hearing, and meddleth with any Difference between Parties concerning Elections and Consecrations of Bishops, Admission and Institution into Benefices, dispensing with Banns of Matrimony, &c.

PREROGATIVE Court.

THE next Court is called the Prerogative Court, which judgeth Estates fallen by Will, or by Intestates; so called, because the Archbishop, Jure Prerogativa sua, hath this Power throughout his whole Province, where the Party at the Time of Death had 5 l. or above in several Dioceses: And these Courts hath also the Archbishop of York.

The Judge of this Court's Title, is Curie Prerogativa Cant. Magister, Custos, five Commissarius.

All Citations and Decrees run in the Name of the Archbishop.

This Court is kept in the same Common-Hall in the Afternoon, next Day after the Arches, and was heretofore held in the Consistory of St. Paul's.

The Judge is attended by the Register and his Deputy, who sets down the Decrees and Acts of the Court, and keeps the Records: All original Wills and Testaments of Parties dying, having Bona Notabilia, &c. The Place is commonly called the Prerogative-Office, now kept in Doctors-Commons near St. Paul's Church-yard; where for a moderate Fee, one may search for, and have a Copy of any such Testament made since the Rebellion of Wat Tyler and Jack Straw, by whom many Records and Writings in several Places of London were then burnt and destroyed. Under the Register are 6 Clerks, severally appointed for such and such respective Counties.

The Places belonging to this Court are likewise in the Gift of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Court of PECULIARS,

LASTly, the Court of Peculiars, which dealeth in certain Parishes lying in several Dioceses, and exempt from the Jurisdiction of the Bishops of those Dioceses, and are peculiar-ly ly belonging to the Archbishop of Canterbury, in whose Province there are 57 such Peculiars.

BISHOP'S Court.

BESIDES these Courts, serving for the whole Province, every Bishop hath his Court held in the Cathedral of his Diocese, over which he hath a Chancellor, termed anciently Ecclesiasticus, & Episcopi Ecdicus, the Church-Lawyer, who being skilled in Civil and Canon-Law, sits there as a Judge; and if his Diocese be large, he hath in some more remote Place a Commissary, whose Authority is only in some certain Place of the Diocese, and some certain Causes limited to him, by the Bishop in his Commission; and these are called Consistory-Courts.

ARCHDEACON'S Court.

MOREOVER, the Archdeacon hath his Court and Jurisdiction, where smaller Differences arising within his Limits are pleaded. Also the Dean and Chapter have a Court, and take Cognizance of Causes happening in Places belonging to the Cathedral.

Lastly, There are certain Peculiar Jurisdictions belonging to some certain Parishes, especially in some Prebendal-Churches, where the Corpses of some Prebends in old Foundations are situated, the Inhabitants whereof are exempt sometimes from the Archdeacon's Jurisdiction, and sometimes from the Bishop's, are subjected to their respective Prebendaries.

CAUSES belonging to Ecclesiastical Courts.

CAUSES belonging to Ecclesiastical Courts, are Blasphemy, Apostacy from Christianity, Heresy, Schism, [As to Heresy and Schism, they have not been permitted to take Cognizance of these Matters for many Years.] Ordinations, Institution of Clerks to Benefices, Celebration of Divine Services, Rights of Matrimony, Divorces, General Bastardy, Tithes, Oblations, Obventions, Mortuaries, Dilapidations, Reparation of Churches, Probate of Wills, Administration, Simony, Incest, Fornication, Adulteries, Solicitations of Chastity, Pensions, Procurations, &c. The Cognizance whereof belongs not to the Common Law of England.

The Laws and Constitutions whereby the Ecclesiastical Government doth stand, and the Church of England is governed, are first General Canons made by General Councils; also the Arbitria Sanctorum Patrum, the Opinion of Fathers, the grave Decrees of several holy Bishops of Rome, in its purer Times, which which the Kings of England, from Time to Time, have admitted.

Next, our own Constitutions made anciently in several Provincial Synods, either by the Legates Otho and Othobon, sent from Rome, or by several Archbishops of Canterbury; all which are by 25 Hen. VIII. of Force in England, so far as they are not repugnant to the Laws and Customs of England, or the King's Prerogative: Then the Canons made in Convocation, of later Times, as primo Jacobi, and confirmed by his Royal Authority: Also in some Statutes enacted by Parliament, touching Ecclesiastical Affairs: And lastly, diverse Customs not written, but yet in Use beyond the Memory of Man: And where these fail, the Civil-Law takes Place.

The Manner of Trials by these Laws and Customs are different from the Trials at Common-Law, and are briefly thus: First goes forth a Citation, then a Libel and Answer; then by Proofs, Witnesses and Presumptions, the Matters are argued pro and con, and the Canon and Civil-Laws quoted; then, without any Jury, the definitive Sentence of the Judge passeth, and, upon that, Execution. And this is the Manner of trying Ecclesiastical Civil Causes; but Ecclesiastical Criminal Causes are tried by Way of Accusation or Denunciation: The first, when some one takes upon him to prove the Crime; the second, when the Church-wardens present, and are not bound to prove, because it is presumed they do it without any Malice, and that the Crime is notorious.

Of Punishments inflicted upon Offenders by these Spiritual or Ecclesiastical Courts, according to the aforesaid Laws and Authorities; see Book III. Tit. Punishments.

Before William the Conqueror, there were no Ecclesiastical Courts, properly so called in England; for anciently the Bishops sat in Judgment together with the Secular Judges on the same Tribunal.

C H A P. IX.

Of the CIVIL Government of England; and first, of the Great Officers of the Crown.

NEXT to the King and Princes of the Blood, are reckoned the Great Officers of the Crown, whereof there are Nine; the Lord High-Steward of England, the Lord High-Chancellor, the Lord High-Treasurer, the Lord President of the King's Council, the Lord Privy-Seal, the Lord Great Chamberlain, the Lord High-Constable, the Earl-Marshal, and the Lord High-Admiral.

High.

High-Steward.] The first Great Officer of the Crown, according to the Account of our Ancestors, was the Lord High-Steward of England, or Vice-Roy, for so the Word Steward imports in the Saxon Tongue, from Stede and Ward, locum tenens, in French, Lieutenant, and was the same Officer with the Reichi Drosset, that is, Regni Vice Rex, in Sweden, and the Stadtholder in Denmark, who is also called Vice-Roy, or Lieutenant du Roy. Our common Lawyers stile him Magnus Anglia Seneschallus.

He was anciently the highest Officer under the King, and his Power so exorbitant, that it was thought fit no longer to trust it in the Hands of any Subject; for his Office was supervidere & regulare sub Rege & immediatè post Regem (as an ancient Record speaks) totum Regnum, temporibus pacis & guer-rarum.

The last that had a State of Inheritance in this High Office, was Henry of Bolinbroke (Son and Heir to the Great Duke of Lancaster, John of Gaunt) afterwards King of England; since which Time they have been made only pro hac vice, to officiate at a Coronation; by Virtue of which Office he sitteth judicially, and keepeth his Court in the King's Palace at Westminster, and there receiveth the Bills and Petitions of all such Noblemen and others, who by reason of their Tenure, or otherwise, claim to do Services at the King's Coronation, and to receive the Fees and Allowances due and accustomed; or else for the Arraignment of some Peer of the Realm, their Wives or Widows, for Treason or Felony, or some other great Crime, to judge and give Sentence, as the ancient High-Stewards were wont to do; which ended, his Commission expireth. During his Stewardship he bears a White Staff in his Hand; and the Trial being over, openly breaks it, and so his Office ends.

Lord-Chancellor.] Next is the Lord High-Chancellor, Summus Cancellarius, so called, because all Patents, Commissions, Warrants, coming from the King, and perused by him, are sign'd, if well; or cancell'd, where amiss; that is, cross'd out with Lines a-cross like Cross-bars or Lettices, called in Latin Cancelli; or else because anciently he sat intra Cancellos; that is, such a Partition as usually now separates the Church from the Chancel.

Dignity.] He is, after the King and Princes of the Blood, in Civil Affairs (there being now no Lord High-Steward) the highest Person in the Kingdom, as the Archbishop of Canterbury is in Ecclesiastical Affairs.

Office.] His Office is to keep the King's Great-Seal, to judge not according to Common-Law, as other Civil Courts do, but to moderate the Rigour of the Law, and to judge according to Equity, Conscience, or Reason; to bestow all Ec-clesiastical ecclesiastical Benefices in the King's Gift under 20 l. yearly in the King's Books; and for this, and other Causes, he was formerly often a Clergyman.

Oath.] His Oath is to do Right to all manner of People, poor and rich, after the Laws and Customs of the Realm, and truly to counsel the King; to keep secret the King's Counsel, nor suffer, so far as he may, the Right of the Crown to be diminish'd, &c. This high Office is in France, durante vita; but here 'tis durante bene placito Regis.

Salary.] The Salary from the King was 848 l. per Annum, and when the Star-Chamber was up 200 l. per Annum more for his Attendance there; the Whole is now above 7000 l. [Of late Years few have accepted this Office without receiving a large Sum from the Crown on their Entrance upon it, and a Pension of four or five Thousand Pounds a Year for Life on their being dismissed from this high Station. They are usually continued in it about seven Years.]

Creation.] The Lord-Chancellor and the Lord-Keeper are the same in Authority, Power, and Precedence, yet they differ in Patent, in Height and Favour of the King; the Keepers are created per Traditionem magni Sigilli sibi per Dominum Regem, and by taking an Oath only; the Lord-Chancellor hath besides a Patent.

Lord-Treasurer.] The third great Officer of the Crown is the Lord High-Treasurer of England, who receives this high Office by a Delivery of a Staff to him by the the King, and holds in durate bene placito Regis.

Anciently he received this Dignity by the Delivery of the Golden Keys of the Treasury. [Since the Revolution, this Office hath generally been under the Management of several Commissioners, called Lords of the Treasury, as it is at present.]

Oath.] His Oath is little different from that of the Lord-Chancellor.

Office.] He is Prefectus Aerarii, a Lord by his Office, under whose Charge and Government is all the King's Revenue kept in the Exchequer. He hath also the Check of all the Officers any way employed in collecting Imposts, Customs, Tributes, or other Revenues belonging to the Crown. He hath the Gift of all the Officers of the Customs in all the Ports of England.

He hath the Nomination of the Escheators in every County; and in some Cases, by Statute, is to appoint a Measurer for the Length and Breadth of Cloths.

He, with others joined in Commission with him, or without, letteth Leases of all the Lands belonging to the Crown. He giveth Warrants to certain Persons of Quality, to have their Wine Custom-free.

The ancient annual Salary of the Lord High-Treasurer of England, was in all 383 l. 7 s. 8 d. but the late Salary was 8000 l. per Annum.

Lord

Lord-President.] The fourth great Officer named in the Statute 31 Hen. VIII. is the Lord-President of the King's Privy-Council; an Officer as ancient as King John's Time, and was usually called Consiliarius Capitalis. His Office is to attend upon the King, to propose Business at Council-Table, and then to report to the King several Transactions there. It hath been always granted by Letters under the Great-Seal, durante bene placito.

Lord-Privy-Seal.] The fifth great Officer is the Lord-Privy-Seal, who is a Lord by his Office, under whose Hands pass all Charters and Grants of the King, and Pardons signed by the King, before they come to the Great-Seal of England; also diverse other Matters, as for the Payment of Money, &c. which do not pass by the Great-Seal.

He is, by his Place, of the King's Privy-Council, and besides his Oath of Privy-Counsellor, takes a particular Oath as Lord-Privy-Seal.

His Salary is 1500 l. per Annum.

His Place, according to Statute, is next to the Lord-President of the King's Council.

Dignity.] This great Officer is mentioned in the Statute of 2 Richard II. and then ranked among the chief Persons of the Realm.

Chamberlain.] The sixth great Officer of the Crown is the Lord Great-Chamberlain of England, an Officer of great Antiquity, to whom belongs Livery and Lodging in the King's Court, and certain Fees due from each Archbishop, or Bishop, when they do their Homage, or Fealty to the King, and from all the Peers of the Realm at their Creation, or doing their Homage or Fealty; and at the Coronation of every King, he is to have 40 Ells of Crimson Velvet for his own Robes; and on the Coronation-Day, before the King riseth, to bring his Shirt, Coif, and Wearing-Cloths; and after the King is by him apparelled and gone forth, to have his Bed and all the Furniture of his Bed-Chamber for his Fees, and all the King's Night-Apparel, and to carry at the Coronation the Coif, Gloves and Linnen to be used by the King upon that Occasion, also the Sword and Scabbard, and the Gold to be offered by the King, and the Robe-Royal and Crown, and to undress and attire the King with the Robes Royal, and to serve the King that Day before and after Dinner with Water to wash his Hands, and to have the Basin and Towels for his Fees, &c.

Moreover, to this Great Officer belongs the Care of providing all Things in the House of Lords in the Time of Parliament; and to that End he hath an Appartment near the Lords House.

To him belongeth the Government of the whole Palace of Westminster. He also issueth out his Warrants for the preparing, fitting, and furnishing of Westminster-Hall against Coronations.

ecclesiastical Benefices in the King's Gift under 20 l. yearly in the King's Books; and for this, and other Causes, he was formerly often a Clergyman.

Oath.] His Oath is to do Right to all manner of People, poor and rich, after the Laws and Customs of the Realm, and truly to counsel the King; to keep secret the King's Counsel, nor suffer, so far as he may, the Right of the Crown to be diminish'd, &c. This high Office is in France, durante vita; but here 'tis durante bene placito Regis.

Salary.] The Salary from the King was 848 l. per Annum, and when the Star-Chamber was up 200 l. per Annum more for his Attendance there; the Whole is now above 7000 l. [Of late Years few have accepted this Office without receiving a large Sum from the Crown on their Entrance upon it, and a Pension of four or five Thousand Pounds a Year for Life on their being dismissed from this high Station. They are usually continued in it about seven Years.]

Creation.] The Lord-Chancellor and the Lord-Keeper are the same in Authority, Power, and Precedence, yet they differ in Patent, in Height and Favour of the King; the Keepers are created per Traditionem magni Sigilli sibi per Dominum Regem, and by taking an Oath only; the Lord-Chancellor hath besides a Patent.

Lord-Treasurer.] The third great Officer of the Crown is the Lord High-Treasurer of England, who receives this high Office by a Delivery of a Staff to him by the the King, and holds in durate bene placito Regis.

Anciently he received this Dignity by the Delivery of the Golden Keys of the Treasury. [Since the Revolution, this Office hath generally been under the Management of several Commissioners, called Lords of the Treasury, as it is at present.]

Oath.] His Oath is little different from that of the Lord-Chancellor.

Office.] He is Præfectus Aerarii, a Lord by his Office, under whose Charge and Government is all the King's Revenue kept in the Exchequer. He hath also the Check of all the Officers any way employed in collecting Imposts, Customs, Tributes, or other Revenues belonging to the Crown. He hath the Gift of all the Officers of the Customs in all the Ports of England.

He hath the Nomination of the Escheators in every County; and in some Cases, by Statute, is to appoint a Measurer for the Length and Breadth of Cloths.

He, with others joined in Commission with him, or without, letteth Leases of all the Lands belonging to the Crown. He giveth Warrants to certain Persons of Quality, to have their Wine Custom-free.

The ancient annual Salary of the Lord High-Treasurer of England, was in all 383 l. 7 s. 8 d. but the late Salary was 8000 l. per Annum.

Lord-President.] The fourth great Officer named in the Statute 31 Hen. VIII. is the Lord-President of the King's Privy-Council; an Officer as ancient as King John's Time, and was usually called Consiliarius Capitalis. His Office is to attend upon the King, to propose Business at Council-Table, and then to report to the King several Transactions there. It hath been always granted by Letters under the Great-Seal, durante bene placito.

Lord-Privy-Seal.] The fifth great Officer is the Lord Privy-Seal, who is a Lord by his Office, under whose Hands pass all Charters and Grants of the King, and Pardons signed by the King, before they come to the Great-Seal of England; also diverse other Matters, as for the Payment of Money, &c. which do not pass by the Great-Seal.

He is, by his Place, of the King's Privy-Council, and besides his Oath of Privy-Counsellor, takes a particular Oath as Lord Privy-Seal.

His Salary is 1500 l. per Annum.

His Place, according to Statute, is next to the Lord President of the King's Council.

Dignity.] This great Officer is mentioned in the Statute of 2 Richard II. and then ranked among the chief Persons of the Realm.

Chamberlain.] The sixth great Officer of the Crown is the Lord Great-Chamberlain of England, an Officer of great Antiquity, to whom belongs Livery and Lodging in the King's Court, and certain Fees due from each Archbishop, or Bishop, when they do their Homage, or Fealty to the King, and from all the Peers of the Realm at their Creation, or doing their Homage or Fealty; and at the Coronation of every King, he is to have 40 Ells of Crimson Velvet for his own Robes; and on the Coronation-Day, before the King riseth, to bring his Shirt, Coif, and Wearing-Cloths; and after the King is by him apparelled and gone forth, to have his Bed and all the Furniture of his Bed-Chamber for his Fees, and all the King's Night-Apparel, and to carry at the Coronation the Coif, Gloves and Linnen to be used by the King upon that Occasion, also the Sword and Scabbard, and the Gold to be offered by the King, and the Robe-Royal and Crown, and to undress and attire the King with the Robes Royal, and to serve the King that Day before and after Dinner with Water to wash his Hands, and to have the Basin and Towels for his Fees, &c.

Moreover, to this Great Officer belongs the Care of providing all Things in the House of Lords in the Time of Parliament; and to that End he hath an Appartment near the Lords House.

To him belongeth the Government of the whole Palace of Westminster. He also issueth out his Warrants for the preparing, fitting, and furnishing of Westminster-Hall against Coronations.

nations and Trials of Peers in Parliament-time. The Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, the Yeoman-Usher, and Doorkeepers are under his Command.

He disposeth of the Sword of State to what Lord he pleaseth, to be carried before the King when he comes to the Parliament, and goes on the Right-hand of the Sword next to the King's Person, and the Lord-Marshal on the Left.

Upon all solemn Occasions, the Keys of Westminster-Hall, and the Keys of the Court of Wards, and Court of Requests, are delivered to him.

This Honour was long enjoy'd by the Earls of Oxford, from the Time of Henry I. by an Estate Tail, or Inheritance; but in the two last Coronations, by the Earls of Lindsey, and that by an Estate or Inheritance, from a Daughter and Heir-General claimed and controverted: But by a late Act he is not to have Precedence of Dukes, but according to his Creation.

Constable.] The seventh Great Officer is the Lord High-Constable of England, so called from Comes Stabuli, whose Power and Jurisdiction was anciently so great, that after the Death of Edward Bagot, or Stafford Duke of Buckingham 1521, and the last High-Constable of England, it was thought too great for any Subject: But since, upon Occasion of Coronation, and at solemn Trials by Combat (as that which was intended between Rey and Ramsay, 1631, was made Robert Earl of Lindsey) there is created pro illâ vice, a Lord High-Constable. His Power and Jurisdiction is the same with the Earl-Marshal, with whom he sits Judge in the Marshal's Court, and takes Place of the Earl-Marshal.

Earl-Marshal.] The eighth Great Officer of the Crown is the Earl-Marshal of England: In French, Mareschal, and used by them to signify indifferently that great Military Office, as well as a Smith or Farrier; but their Etymologies, according to the several Senses, are different. Mareschal, when it signifies a General of an Army, is derived from Mare, a Frantic Word, denoting Great and Honourable, and Scale, a Servant. When it signifies a Farrier, it comes from Mare, a Horse, and Scale, as above. He is an Earl, some say, by his Office, whereby he taketh, as the Constable doth, Cognizance of all Matters of War and Arms, determineth Contracts touching Deeds of Arms out of the Realm upon Land, and Matters concerning Wars within the Realm, which cannot be determined by Common-Law; and in these Matters he is commonly guided by the Civil-Law.

Note, That anciently he had several Courts under him, but hath now only the Marshal's Court.

This Office is of great Antiquity in England, and anciently of greater Power than now [though of late he has held several Courts at Doctors-Commons, to enquire into the Right several People

Book II. of GREAT-BRITAIN.

People had assumed of bearing Arms.] and has been long hereditary in the House of Norfolk: For the first Duke of Somerset of the present Family, was Earl-Marshal in 1553.

Admiral.] The Ninth and last great Officer of the Crown, is the Lord High-Admiral of England.

The Learned du Fresne says, this Word was borrowed from the Saracens, first by the Sicilians, and afterwards by other Christian Nations.

The Patent of the Lord Admiral did anciently run thus: Anglia, Hibernia, & Aquitania Magnus Admirallus; but at present thus; Magna Britannia, & Hibernia, ac Dominiorum & Insularum earundem, Villa Caleſia & Marchiarum ejusdem, Normandia, Gasconia, & Aquitania, Magnus Admirallus & Prefectus Generalis Classis & Marium dictorum regnorum.

To the Lord High-Admiral of England is by the King entrusted the Management of all Maritime Affairs, as well in respect of Jurisdiction as Protection. [This Office also is usually in Commission at present. The Commissioners are stiled Lords of the Admiralty.] He is that High Officer, or Magistrate, to whom is committed the Government of the King's Navy, with Power of Decision in all Cases Maritime, as well Civil as Criminal; of all Things done upon or beyond the Sea in any Part of the World; all Things done upon the Sea-Coast, in all Ports and Havens, and upon all Rivers below the first Bridge next towards the Sea.

The Lord Admiral hath a Power to commissionate a Vice-Admiral, a Rear-Admiral, and all Sea-Captains; all Deputies for particular Coasts; Coroners to view dead Bodies found on the Sea-Coasts, or at Sea; Commissioners or Judges for exercising Justice in the Court of Admiralty, to imprison, release, &c.

He hath sometimes a Commission to bestow Knighthood on such as shall deserve it at Sea.

To the Lord High-Admiral belongs, by Law and Custom, all Penalties and Amerciaments of all Transgressors at Sea, on the Sea-shore; in Ports, and from the first Bridge on Rivers towards the Sea; also the Goods of Pirates, Felons, or Capital Faulsters, Condemn'd, Out-law'd, or Horned. Moreover, all Waifs, Stray-Goods, Wrecks of Sea, Deodands, a Share of all lawful Prizes, Lagon, Flotsen, and Jetson, as our Lawyers term it; that is, Goods lying in the Sea on Ground, Goods floating on the Sea, and Goods cast away by the Sea on the Shore, not granted to Lords of Manours adjoining to the Sea: All great Fishes, as Sea-Hogs, and other Fishes of extraordinary Bigness, call'd Royal-Fishes, except only Whales and Sturgeons.

CHAP. X.

Of the PRIVY-COUNCIL.

THE Primum Mobile of the Civil Government of England, from whence all the inferior Orbs derive their Motion, is that Noble, Honourable, and Reverend Assembly, called the Privy-Council, which is a Court of great Antiquity and Honour.

The primitive and ordinary Way of Government in England, was by the King and his Privy-Council; and all our Kings have acted much by it, determining Controversies of great Importance, sometimes touching Lands and Rights between Party and Party, whereof there are very many Precedents; and the Judges of England, in some difficult Cases, were not wont to give Judgment until they had first consulted the King, or his Privy-Council. Moreover, the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, have oftentimes left Matters of high Moment, to the King and his Privy-Council, as by long Experience better able to judge of, and by Secrecy and Expedition, better able to transact some State-Affairs than all the Lords and Commons together.

At present the King and his Privy-Council take Cognizance of few or no Matters that may well be determin'd by the known Laws and ordinary Courts of Justice; but only consult for the publick Good, Honour, Defence, Safety, and Benefit of the Realm, not meddling with Matters that concern Freeholds, but Matters of Complaint, and sudden Emergencies. [Ireland and the Plantations are still very much under the Influence of the Privy-Council.]

A Privy-Counsellor, though but a Gentleman, shall have Precedence of all Knights Baronets, and Younger Sons of all Barons and Viscounts.

The Substance of their Oath is, That they shall, according to their Power and Discretion, truly, justly, and evenly counsel and advise the King in all Matters to be treated in His Majesty's Council; That they shall keep secret the King's Counsel, &c.

By Force of this Oath, and the Custom of the Kingdom of England, a Privy-Counsellor is made without any Patent or Grant, and to continue only during the Life of the King that makes him, nor so long, unless the King pleaseth.

The King, with the Advice of his Privy-Council, doth publish Proclamations binding to the Subject, provided they are not contrary to Statute or Common Law, but in Execution of them.

The Members of this most Honourable Council are such as the King of his free Will and meer Motion shall please to choose, and are commonly Men of the highest Rank, eminent for Estates, Wisdom, Courage, Integrity, &c.

They are all to wait on his Majesty, and at Council-Board to sit in their Order bare-headed, when his Majesty presides.

At all Debates, the lowest delivers his Opinion first, and the King last of all declares his Judgment, and thereby determines the Matter of Debate.

A Council is seldom or never held without the Presence of one of the Secretaries of State; of whose Office and Dignity, much more considerable in England than in other Nations, take here this brief Account.

Secretaries of State.] The King of England had anciently but one Secretary of State, until about the End of Henry the Eighth's Reign, it was thought fit, that weighty and important Office should be discharged by two Persons, both of equal Authority, and both stiled Principal Secretaries of State. In those Days, and some while after, they sat not at Council-Board, but having prepared their Business in a Room adjoining to the Council-Chamber, they came in, and stood on either Hand of the King; and nothing was debated at the Table until the Secretaries had gone through with their Proposals. But Queen Elizabeth seldom coming to Council, that Method was altered, and the Secretaries took their Places as Privy-Counsellors, which Dignity they have retained and enjoyed ever since; and a Council is seldom or never held without the Presence of one of them at the least.

Their Employment being of extraordinary Trust and Multiplicity, renders them most considerable in the Eyes of the King, upon whom they attend every Day, as Occasion requires; and of the Subject also, whose Requests and Desires are for the most Part lodged in their Hands, to be represented to the King, and always to make Dispatches thereupon, according to his Majesty's Answers and Directions.

The Correspondence with all Parts of Great-Britain is, without Distinction, managed by either of the Secretaries, relating to the Church, the Army, the Militia, Grants, Pardons, Dispensations, &c. But as for the Foreign Affairs, all the Nations which have intercourse of Business with Great-Britain, are by them divided into two Provinces, the Northern, and Southern; of which the Northern is usually under the Junior Secretary, and contains Scandinavia, &c. The Southern under the Senior, and contains Flanders, France, &c.

They have this special Honour, that if either of them be a Baron, he taketh Place, and hath the Precedence of all other Persons of the same Degree, tho' otherwise by their Creation tion some of them might have Right to precede him; and a Knight, in like manner, if he hath no other Qualification; but if above the Degree of a Baron, then he takes Place only according to the Seniority of his Creation.

They have their several Lodgings appointed them in all the King's Houses, as well for their own Accommodation, as for their Office, and those that attend upon it. They have also Board-wages.

Their settled Allowance from the King, in Salary and Pension, is 2000 l. Sterling per Annum to each of them.

The Secretaries and Clerks, whom they employ under them, are wholly at their own Choice, and have no Dependence upon any other Power or Person besides themselves.

The Secretaries of State have the Custody of that Seal of the King, which is properly called the Signet; the Use and Application whereof gives Denomination to an Office, constantly attending the Court, called the Signet-Office, wherein here are four Clerks, who wait alternately by Months, and prepare such Things as are to pass the Signet, in order to the Privy-Seal, or Great-Seal.

These have no Fee from the King, but only Diet, which as Pension is 200 l. yearly. Their Office is in White-Hall. They wait by Months, each of them three Months in a Year. One of them always attends the Court wheresoever it removes, and, by Warrant from the King, prepares such Bills or Letters for the King to sign, as not being Matter of Law, are by any Warrants directed to them to prepare. In their Office all Grants either prepared by the King's learned Council at Law, or by themselves, for the King's Hand, when sign'd, are returned, and there transcribed again, and that Transcript is carried to one of the Principal Secretaries of State, and seal'd, and then it is called a Signet, which is directed to the Lord Privy-Seal, and is his Warrant for issuing out a Privy-Seal upon it; yet Privy-Seals for Money do now always begin in the Treasury, from whence the first Warrant issues counter-signed by the Lord-Treasurer: But when the Nature of the Grant requires the passing the Great-Seal, then the Privy-Seal is an Authority to the Lord Chancellor to pass the Great-Seal; as the Signet was to the Lord Privy-Seal, to affix that Seal to the Grant. But in all three Offices, &c. Signet, Privy-Seal, and Great-Seal, the Grant is transcribed. So all which passes from the King hath these several Ways of being considered before perfected.

There are also four Clerks of the Privy-Seal.

More of their Office is to be seen in Stat. 27 of Hen. VIII. worthy to be noted.

More

Moreover, depending on the Secretaries of State, is an ancient Office, called the Paper-Office, the Keeper whereof hath in his Charge all the publick Papers, Writings, Matters of State, and Council; all Letters, Intelligences, Negotiations of the King's Publick Ministers abroad, and generally all the Papers and Dispatches that pass through the Offices of the two Secretaries of State, which are, or ought to be, from Time to Time, transmitted into this Office, and here remain, disposed by way of a Library, within his Majesty's Palace of White-Hall.

CHAP. XI.

Of the PARLIAMENT of ENGLAND, and therein of the Person summoning, the Manner of the Summons, the Persons summoned, their Privileges, the Place and Manner of Sitting, the Passing of Bills in either House, the Passing of Acts of Parliament, of Adjourning, Proroguing, and Dissolving of Parliaments, &c.

BEfore the Conquest, the Great Council of the King consisting only of the Great Men of the Kingdom, was called Magnatum Conventus, or else Prælatorum Procerumque Concilium, and by the Saxons, in their own Tongue, Witten-Gemot, the Council, or Assembly of the Sages, and Micel-Gemot, the Great Assembly. After the Conquest, about the Beginning of King Edward I. some say, in the Time of Hen. I. it was called by the French Word, Parlementum, from Parler, to talk together, still consisting (as diverse great Authors affirm) only of the Great Men of the Nation, until the Reign of Henry III. The Commons also were called to sit in Parliament; for diverse Authors presume to say, the first Writ to be found in Records, sent forth to summon them, bear Date 49 Henry III. above 400 Years ago. Yet some Antiquaries are of Opinion, that long before, nothing of Moment, wherein the Lives or Estates of the common People of England were concerned, ever passed without their common Consent.

None but the King hath Authority to summon a Parliament; in the King's Absence out of the Realm, the Custos Regni, in the King's Name, doth summon a Parliament; and during the King's Minority within the Realm, the Protector Regni doth the same.

No Parliament can begin without the King's Presence, either in Person, or by Representation in Commission.

When the King of England is with his Parliament in Time of Peace, he is then said to be in the Height of his Royal Dignity, as well as when he is at the Head of his Army in Time of War: There is then scarce any thing that the King cannot do; his Power cannot be confined for Causes or Persons within any Bounds.

A Parliament is summon'd in Manner following: Fifty Days at least before the Parliament doth assemble, the King issues out his Writ, Cum Advifamento Consilii sui; and the Warrant is, Per ipsum Regem & Consilium.

The King's Writ (which is a short Letter, or Epistle) is directed and sent to every particular Person of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, commanding the Lords Spiritual in Fide & Dilectione, and the Lords Temporal, per Fidem & Allegiantiam, to appear at a certain Time and Place to treat and give their Advice in some certain important Affairs concerning the Church and State &c.

Other Writs are sent to the Sheriff of each County to summon the People to elect two Knights for each County, two Citizens for each City, and one or two Burgeses for each Borough, according to Statute, Charter, or Custom.

In these Elections anciently all the People had their Votes, and most Votes carried it; but for avoiding of Tumults and Trouble, it was enacted by Henry VI. That none should have any Suffrages in the Election of Knight, of the Shire, but such as were Freeholders, did reside in the County, and had yearly Revenue 40*s.* (which, till the Discovery of the Gold and Silver in America, was more than 20*l.* is now) yet there was then, as now, this Defect or Absurdity; That whereas all Englishmen, who have considerable Estates, ought not to be taxed without their own Consent in Parliament, by themselves, or by their Representative; Copyholders in England, whereof there are some who have 1000*l.* a Year, have no Voice in the Election of Knights of the Shire.

The Persons elected for each County, are to be Milites Nobiles, or at least Esquires, or Gentlemen fit to be made Knights, as it is in the Statute of Henry VI. They ought to be native Englishmen, or at least such as have been Naturalized by Act of Parliament; no Alien, or Denizen, none of the 12 Judges, no Sheriff of a County, no Ecclesiastical Person, may be chosen a Parliament-Man to serve for any County, City, or Borough.

To the Legality of Sitting in either House of Parliament, it is absolutely necessary, that a Man should be of full Age, that is, 21 Years old at least.

All Members of Parliament, both Lords and Commons, that they may attend the publick Service of their Country, are privileged, with their Menial Servants attending on their Persons,

Persons, together with all their necessary Goods brought along with them, from all Attachments and Imprisonments for Debts, Trespasses, Account or Covenant, all the Time that they are on the Way to the Place of Parliament, all the Time of the Session, and all the Time they are on their Way home again, Eundo. Morando, ad propria Redeundo (for so were the old Words); but they are not privileged from Arrest for Treason, Felony, or Breach of the Peace.

The Place of Meeting of this High and Honourable Assembly, is in whatsoever City, Town, or House the King pleaseth; but of later Times it hath usually been held at the King's ancient Palace at Westminster; all the Lords in a fair Room by themselves, and the Commons not far from them in another fair Room, which was heretofore the Chapel of St. Stephen.

The Manner of Sitting in the LORDS HOUSE is thus:

The King, as oft as he comes (which hath usually been only at the Opening of Parliaments, or at the Passing of Bills, or at solemn Debates, as some Kings, and particularly Her late Majesty, have frequently done) is placed at the upper End of the Room, in a Chair of State, having a Cloth of State over his Head, under which, on either Hand, are none but the King's Children.

On the King's Right-hand, is a Seat for the Prince of Wales. On the King's Left-hand is a Seat for the Duke of York.

On the King's Right-Hand, and next the Wall, are placed on a Form, first the King's Vicar-General in Causes Ecclesiastick, in case his Majesty shall, as Henry VIII. did, create any such; and then next to him, on the same Form, the Two Archbishops; below these, on another Form, the Bishops of London, Durham, and Winchester; then all the rest of the Bishops sit, according to the Priority of their Consecration.

On the King's Left-hand, upon Forms are placed the Lord Chancellor, Treasurer, President of the King's Council, and Lord Privy Seal; if they are Barons, above all Dukes, except those of the Royal Family.

On the same Side sit the Dukes, Marquisses, and Earls, according to their Creations.

Upon the first Form across the House, below the Wool-Sacks, sit the Viscounts, and upon the next Form the Barons, all in Order.

The Great-Chamberlain, the Constable, the Marshal, the Lord Admiral, the Great Master, or Lord Steward, the King's Chamberlain, sit above all other of the same Degree of Nobility with themselves, by an Act of Parliament in Rot. Parl. 3 Henry VIII. N. 10. and the chief Secretary, being a Baron, shall sit above all Barons, who have none of the aforementioned Offices; and if he be a Bishop, above all other Bishops not having any of the said Offices.

The rest of the Peers sit according to the Order of their Creation.

Of late the Lord Chancellor, or Keeper, if the King be present, stands behind the Cloth of State, otherwise sits on the first Wool-Sack, thwart the Chair of State, his Great Seal and Mace by him: He is Lord Speaker of the Lords House. Upon other Wool-Sacks sit the Judges, the King's Council at Law, and the Masters of Chancery: These being not Barons, have no Suffrage in Parliament, only sit to give their Advice when it is required. The Reason why these Sages are placed upon Wool-Sacks may probably be, to mind them of the great Importance of Wool and Sheep to this Nation.

The Clerk of the Crown, and Clerk of the Parliament, whereof the former is concerned in all Writs of Parliament, and Pardons in Parliament; the other records all Things done in Parliament, and keepeth the Records of the same, sit on a Form behind a Table. Without the Bar of the Lords House sits the King's first Gentleman-Usher, called the Black-Rod, from a black Staff he carries in his Hand; under whom is a Yeoman-Usher, that waits at the Door within, a Crier without, and a Sergeant at Mace always attending the Lord Chancellor.

When the King is present with the Crown on his Head, none of the Lords are covered.

The Judges stand till the King gives them Leave to sit.

When the King is absent, the Lords at their Entrance do Reverence to the Chair of State, as is, or should be done, by all that enter into the King's Presence-Chamber.

The Judges then may sit, but may not be covered, till the Chancellor, or Keeper, signify to them the Leave of the Lords.

The King's Council, and Masters of Chancery, sit also, but may not be covered at all.

The Commons sit in their House promiscuously, only the Speaker hath a Chair, or Seat, fixed towards the upper End thereof; and the Clerks, with his Assistant, sits near him at the Table, just below the Speaker's Chair. The Members of the House of Commons never had any Robes, as the Lords ever had, except the Speaker and Clerks, who always in the House wear Gowns, as Professors of the Law in Term-time do; and the four Members of the City of London, the first Day of every new Parliament wear Scarlet-Gowns, and sit altogether on the Right-hand of the Chair, next to the Speaker.

The Time of Sitting in Parliament is upon any Day in the Morning; only upon some high Festivals, or Fast-Days, and Sundays, it hath not been usual to assemble, but upon the most urgent Occasions. The Speaker always adjourns the House to Nine of the Clock in the Morning of such Day as the House agrees to adjourn to; though the House seldom meets 'till Twelve.

Upon the Day prefix'd by the King in the Writ of Summons, the King comes in Person; if to Westminster, where Parliaments of late Years have constantly been held, at his Arrival there, twenty-one great Guns on the other Side of the River of Thames are discharged, as they are again at his Majesty's Return from the House of Lords; in the Room next to which, called the Prince's Chamber, the King puts on his Crown and Robes, and from thence is conducted into the House of Lords by the Lord Great-Chamberlain; where being seated with his Crown on his Head, and cloathed in his Royal Robes, he sends for the Commons by the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, who at the Bar of the House makes a Bow, and advancing a few Steps, a Second and a Third, saying, Gentlemen of the House of Commons, the King commands this Honourable House to attend him immediately in the House of Peers; and then retiring backwards, bowing, withdraws; and the Commons forthwith attending his Majesty in the House of Lords, are in the King's Name, by the Lord-Chancellor, or Keeper, commanded to choose them a Speaker. Whereupon they returning to their own House, make Choice of one of their own Members, whom afterwards upon another Day appointed, they present to the King; and if approved of by his Majesty sitting on the Throne, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal being in their Robes of Scarlet, he petitions his Majesty, That the Commons may have, during their Sitting, free Access to his Majesty, Freedom of Speech in their own House, and Freedom from Arrests. After which the King makes his Speech in both Houses, the whole House of Commons being presumed to be at the Bar of the House of Lords.

The Manner of choosing the Speaker is, That any Member of the House, standing up in his Place, and making a short introductory Speech, moves, that such a Member of the House as he then names, may take the Chair; and being seconded in that Motion by some other Member of the House, if no Contest happen, they lead the Person so named from his Seat to the Bar of the House, from whence they conduct him, bowing thrice, up the House to the Chair; where being placed, he stands up, and returns his Thanks to the House for the Honour they have done him, and modestly acknowledges his Inability to perform such a Trust, desires the House would make Choice of some more able Person; which being disapproved, he submits to their Pleasure; and after receiving the Directions of the House, about the usual Requests to be made at his appearing before the King, adjourns to the Day appointed for that Purpose; which being come, the Usher of the Black-Rod, being sent again for the Commons, alters his Stile, and addresses himself to the Speaker: But if a Contest happens about about the Choice of a Speaker, some other Persons being moved for, and seconded as before, it is determined by a Question, as in a Committee of the whole House, by changing Sides, the Clerk of the House of Commons putting the Question.

Before any Affair be meddled with, even before the Choice of a Speaker, all the Members of the House of Commons take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy in the Presence of an Officer appointed by the King, who is usually the Lord Steward of his Majesty's Household. If the Parliament sit at Westminster, the said Oaths are taken in the Room called the Court of Wards; and since the Revolution, they take the New ones appointed by Act of Parliament, the 1st of William and Mary; and after the Choice of a Speaker, do, in the House, at the Table, take the said Oaths again, and declare and subscribe their Opinions against the Doctrine of Transubstantiation, Invocation and Adoration of Saints, and the Sacrifice of the Mass; which Test the Lords also are now obliged to take, before they can sit and debate upon any Affair whatsoever.

Note also, That all the Members are obliged, besides the other Oaths and Tests, to abjure the Pretender in the House, before they can give any Vote therein, except for the Choice of the Speaker.

The Power and Privileges of both Houses of Parliament are diverse and distinct one from another.

The Lords House, not only jointly with the King and the Commons, hath a Power in making and repealing Laws, but also judging in the Arraignment of any Peer of the Realm, Impeachments, putting Men to their Oaths, especially in Matters of Importance, as the Corruption of Judges and Magistrates, in Error, illegal Proceedings in other Courts, in Appeals from Decrees in Chancery.

The Lords that conform not to the Protestant Religion, no longer sit, nor have Suffrage in the Lords House, by Stat. 30 Car. 11.

All the Lords Spiritual and Temporal have their Privilege, that if by reason of Sickness, or other Business, they cannot appear, they make their Proxies to vote in their stead. But at the Beginning of every Parliament, such Lords as would make their Proxies, are obliged to enter them in Person.

The Commons also have the same Power in making and repealing Laws. And for levying of any Money upon the Subject, the Bill begins in the Commons House, because from them doth arise the greater Part of the Montes; neither will they allow the Lords to make any Alteration in a Money-Bill.

The Commons have the Privilege to impeach publick Delinquents, even in the highest Lords of the Kingdom, both Spiritual and Temporal.

The House of Commons is the Grand Inquest of the Realm, summon'd from all Parts to present publick Grievances and Delinquents to the King and Lords, to be redress'd and punish'd by them; and to this Purpose the Lords sit in their Robes on the Bench cover'd, as Judges do in other Judicatures; they swear and examine Witnesses, and at length pass Sentence, whilst the Members of the Commons House stand bare at the Bar of the Lords House (which yet the Commons of late have refus'd to do) produce Witnesses, manage Evidences, &c.

Note, That although every Member of the Commons House be chosen to serve for one particular County, City, or Borough, yet he serves for the whole Kingdom, and his Voice is equal to any other, his Power absolute, to consent or dissent, without ever acquainting those that sent him, or demanding their Assent, as the States General of the United Netherlands are obliged to do in many Cases.

Altho' the Lords of Parliament are to bear their own Charges, because they represent there only themselves; yet all the Commons, both Laity and Clergy, that is, Procuratore Cleri, are to have rationabiles Expensas (as the Words of the Writ are) that is, such Allowance as the King, considering the Prices of all Things, shall judge meet to impose upon the People to pay. In the 17th of Edward II. it was Ten Groats for Knights, and Five Groats for Burgeses; but not long after it was Four Shillings a Day for dubb'd Knights, and Two Shillings for all other; which in those Days, as appear by the Prices of all Things, was a considerable Sum, in Comparison to what it is now.

The Manner of Debates, of Passing of Bills and Acts, is thus:

Any Member of Parliament may move for a Bill to be brought in; which being agreed to by the House, the Person making the Motion, together with some others, who second that Motion, are ordered to prepare and bring in the same; which when ready, some one of those Members so ordered, presents the Bill, reading the Order at the Side-Bar of the House, desiring leave to bring the Bill to the Table; which upon the Question being agreed to, it has a first Reading by the Clerk at the Table; after whom the Speaker taking the Bill in his Hand, reads the Abbreviate or Abstract of the said Bill; which done, after Debate upon the Bill, if any happens, he puts the Question, whether it shall have a second Reading, and sometimes, upon Motion, appoints a Day for it: When the Bill is read a second time, the Question is, Whether it shall be Committed, which is either to a Committee of the whole House, if the Bill be of Importance, or otherwise to a private Committee, any Member at Pleasure naming the Persons to be of that Committee; whose Names being read by the Clerk at the Table, is ordered, That they meet in the Speaker's Chamber, and report their Opinion to the House; who accordingly meeting, choose their Chairman, and either adjourn to some other Time, or then proceed upon the Bill; after which the Chairman first causes a Clerk attending the Committee to read the Bill, then takes the Bill himself, and reads it Paragraph by Paragraph, putting every Clause thereof to the Question, filling up the Blanks, and making Amendments according to the Opinion of the Majority of the Committee, of whom there must be Eight of the Persons named, regularly to proceed, tho' Five may adjourn. When the Committee, have gone through all the Bill, the Chairman, by Directions of the Committee, makes his Report at the Side-bar of the House, reading all the Alterations made by the Committee, and how any of these Amendments have changed the Scope of the Bill, and what Connexion they have therewith, the Clerk having at the Committee writ down what Folio and Line of the Bill those Amendments are to be found; and if any Clauses have been thought fit to be added by the Committee, they are marked alphabetically, and read by the Chairman, and delivered to the Clerk, who reads all the Amendments and Clauses, the Speaker putting the Question, Whether they shall be read a Second Time? and if agreed to, reads them himself; and as many of them as the House agrees to, the Question is put, Whether the Bill so amended shall be ingross'd? that is to say, written fair in Parchment, and read the third Time some other Day. And then the Speaker, holding the Bill in his Hand, puts the Question, whether the Bill should pass? If the major Part be for it, then it is written on the Bill by the Clerk, Soit Baille aux Seigneurs; or if in the House of Lords, there is writ thereon, Soit Baille aux Communes, retaining still in this and some other Things about making Laws, the Custom of our Ancestors, who, after the Norman Conquest, were generally skill'd in the French Tongue. When an ingrossed Bill is read, and any Clauses referred to be added to it, they must be in Parchment engrossed like the Bill, which are then called Riders; and if agreed to, are accordingly added to the Bill.

Petitions are offered after the Manner of Bills, at the Bar of the House, and brought up by the Member who presents them, and are deliver'd at the Table.

All Messages from the Lords, as likewise all Persons appearing at the Bar of the House, are introduced by the Sergeant attending the House, with his Mace upon his Shoulder.

The Mace, while the Speaker is in the Chair, is always upon the Table, except when sent upon any extraordinary Occasion into Westminster-Hall, and Court of Requests, to summon the Members to attend. But when the House resolves itself into a Committee of the whole House, the Mace is laid under the Table, and the Chairman to that Committee takes the Chair where the Clerk of the House usually sits.

Forty Members are requisite to make a House in the House of Commons, and Eight a Committee. The House generally begins with reading some Bill unperfected the Sessions before.

After the Speaker and Members have taken the Oaths, the standing Orders of the House are read, and Grand Committees appointed to sit on usual Days; but of late Years (though they are appointed by every new Parliament) they have not done so, except the Committee of Elections and Privileges, which being no Committee of the whole House, is first called in the Speaker's Chamber, and adjourns into the House, because usually very numerous, every one of the House having a Vote therein, tho' not nam'd of the Committee, of whom there must be eight to empower the Committee to act. When any Member in the House or Committee stands up to speak, he must be uncover'd.

If a Bill be rejected, it cannot be any more propos'd during the same Sessions.

A Bill sent by the Commons up to the Lords, is usually (to shew their Respect) attended with a certain Number of the Members of the House: As they come up to the Lords Bar, the Member that hath the Bill makes three profound Reverences, saying, The Commons having passed an Act, entituled, &c. to which they desire your Lordships Concurrence; delivers it to the Lord Chancellor or Keeper, who for that Purpose comes down to the Bar.

A Bill sent down by the Lords to the Commons, is usually sent by some of the Masters of Chancery, or other Person whose Place is on the Wool-Sacks (and by none of the Members of the House); and they coming up to the Speaker, and bowing thrice, deliver to him the Bill, after one of them hath read the Title, and desired it might be there taken into Consideration. If afterwards it pass the House, then it is written on the Bill, Les Communes ont assentez. All Messages from the Commons to the Lords are introduced by the Black-Rod. All Messengers from the Lords are introduced by the Sergeant, who, with his Mace on his Shoulder, going on their Right-Hand, they with him make three Bows, as they draw near to the Speaker, and then deliver their Message: They do the same as they retreat, without turning their Backs to the Chair. In Messages of great Importance, the Lords make use of one or two of the Judges to go to the House of Commons.

When any one in the Commons House will speak to a Bill, he stands up uncovered, and directs his Speech only to the Speaker; then if what he delivers be confuted by another, yet he is not allowed to answer again the same Day (unless personally reflected on.) Also, if a Bill be debated in the House, no Man may speak to it in one Day above once, unless the whole House be turned into a Committee, and then every Member Member may reply as oft as he or the Chairman judges it expedient.

If any one, in either House, speaks Words of Offence to the King's Majesty, or to the House, he is called to the Bar, where commonly on his Knees he receives a Reprimand from the Speaker; but if the Offence be very great, he is sent to the Tower, and sometimes to other Prisons.

The Speaker is not allowed to persuade or dissuade in passing of a Bill, but only to make a short and plain Narrative; nor vote, except the House be equally divided.

In the Lords House they give their Suffrages, or Votes, beginning at the Puisné, or lowest, Baron, and so the rest Seriatim, every one answering apart, [Consent, or Not content.] And if the Affirmatives and Negatives are equal, semper præsuntur pro Negante, the Speaker being not allowed a Voice, unless he be a Peer of the Realm.

In the House of Commons they vote by Yea's and No's altogether; and if it be doubtful whether is the greater Number, then the House divides; and if the Question be to bring any thing into the House, as a Bill, Petition, &c. then the Ay's go out; but if it be upon any thing the House is once possessed of, the No's go out. Upon all Questions where the House divides, the Speaker appoints four Tellers, two of each Opinion, who, after they have told those within, place themselves in the Passage betwixt the Bar and Door of the House, and tell the others who went out, and who, till then, are not permitted to come in; which being done, the two Tellers that have the Majority, take the Right Hand, and placing themselves within the Bar, all four make their Reverences as they advance three times, and then at the Table deliver the Numbers, saying, The Ay's that went out are so many; the No's that staid in, so many; and vice versâ: Which the Speaker repeats, and declares the Majority.

In a Committee of the whole House, the Way of dividing is changing Sides, the Ay's taking the Right, the No's the Left Hand of the Chair; and then there are but two Tellers.

If a Bill pass in one House, and being sent to the other House, they demur upon it, then a Conference is demanded in the Painted Chamber, where certain deputed Members of each House meet, the Lords sitting covered at a Table, the Commons standing bare, where the Business is debated: If they then agree not, that Business is nulled; but if they agree, then it is at last brought (with all other Bills which have passed in both Houses) to the King, who comes again with his Crown on his Head, and cloathed with his Royal Robes, and being seated in his Chair of State, and all the Lords in their Robes, the Clerk of the Crown reads the Title of each Bill, and as he reads, the Clerk of the Parliament, according to his Instructions from the King, who hath before maturely consider'd each Bill, pronounceth the Royal Assent. If it be a Publick Bill, the Answer is, Le Roy le veut, which gives Life and Birth to that Bill that was before but an Embryo. If a Private Bill, the Answer is, Soit fait comme il est desire.

If it be a Bill which the King likes not, then the Answer is, Le Roy s'avisera, which is taken for an absolute Denial in a more civil way, and that Bill is wholly nulled.

The King, without his Personal Presence, can, by Commission granted to some of his Nobles, give his Royal Assent to any Bill that requires haste.

If it be a Bill for Monies given to his Majesty, then the Answer is, Le Roys remercie ses loyaux Sujets, accepte leur Benevolence, & aussi le veut. [As one Design of this Work is to acquaint Posterity with the present State of Things, it would be imperfect, if they were not informed, that of late such has been the Harmony between the Crown and both Houses of Parliament, that the Court hath not been denied any Supplies of Men or Money, or indeed scarce any other Demand, since the present Illustrious House has been advanced to the Throne: An Observation that cannot be made of any preceding Reigns: By what Arts this has been accomplished, Posterity will understand from other Hands.]

The Bill of the King's General Pardon hath but one Reading in either House, for this Reason, because they must take it as the King will please to give it. When the Bill for the General Pardon is pass'd by the King, the Answer is thus; Les Prelats Seigneurs & Communes en ce Parlement assemblez au nom du tous vos autres Sujets remercient tres humblement votre Majesté & prient Dieu vous donner en sante bonne vie & longe.

All Acts of Parliament before the Reign of Henry VII. were Passed and Enrolled in Latin, or French, now in English only.

The Adjournments are usually made in the Lords House by the 1st Chancellor, or Keeper, in the King's Name, to what other Day the King pleaseth, and also to what other Place, if he think fit to remove them, as sometimes hath been done; and then all things already debated or read, in one or both Houses, continue to the next Meeting in the same State they were in before the Adjournment, and so may be resumed. Note, That this is to be understood only of such Adjournments as are in order to a Recess for some time; for in all other Cases 'tis the undoubted Privilege of each House to adjourn themselves, &c.

In like manner the Parliament is Prorogued: but by a Prorogation there is a Session ended; and then the Bills that were almost ready in both Houses for the Royal Assent, not having it, must, at the Re-assembling of the Parliament, begin a-new.

When the King's Pleasure is to Prorogue or Dissolve the Parliament, his Majesty commonly comes in Person, with his Crown on his Head, sends the Black-Rod for all the House of Commons Commons to come to the Bar of the Lords House; and then the Lord Chancellor, by the special Command of the King, pronounces the Parliament Prorogued or Dissolved.

The King being the Head of the Parliament, if his Death happen'd during the Sitting of the Parliament, is was formerly, ipso facto, Dissolved. But to prevent Tumults and Confusions, it has been of late expressly provided by a solemn Act, That a Parliament Sitting, or in Being, at the Demise of the King, shall continue; and if not sitting, shall meet expressly, for keeping the Peace of the Realm, and preserving the Succession.

Anciently, after every Session of Parliament, the King commanded every Sheriff to proclaim the several Acts, and to cause them to be duly observed; yet without that Proclamation, the Law intended that every one have Notice, by his Representative, of what is transacted in Parliament. Of later Times, since Printing became common, that Custom hath been laid aside.

CHAPTER XII.

Of particular Governments; and first, of the Ecclesiastical, Civil and Military Government of the King's Household.

FOR the Ecclesiastical Government of the King's Court, there is first a Dean of the Chapel-Royal, who is usually some Grave, Learned Prelate, chosen by the King, and who, as Dean, acknowledgeth no Superior but the King; for as the King's Palace is exempt from all inferior Temporal Jurisdiction, so is his Chapel from all Spiritual. It is called Capella Domini, the Domain Chapel; is not within the Jurisdiction or Diocese of any Bishop, but, as a Regal Peculiar, exempt and reserved to the Visitation and immediate Government of the King, who is supreme Ordinary, as it were, over all England.

By the Dean are chosen all other Officers of the Chapel, namely, a Sub-Dean, or Præcentor Capelle; thirty-two Gentlemen of the Chapel, whereof twelve are Priests, and one of them is Confessor to the King's Household, whose Office is to read Prayers every Morning to the Family, to visit the Sick, to examine and prepare Communicants, to inform such as desire Advice in any Case of Conscience, or Point of Religion, &c.

The other twenty Gentlemen, commonly called Clerks of the Chapel, are, with the aforesaid Priest, to perform in the Chapel the Office of Divine Service, in Praying, Singing, &c. One of these being well skilled in Musick, is chosen Master of the Children, whereof there are twelve in Ordinary, to instruct them them in the Rules and Art of Musick, for the Service of the Chapel. Three other of the said Clerks are chosen to be Organists.

There are moreover four Officers, a Serjeant, two Yeomen, and a Groom of the Chapel.

In the King's Chapel, thrice every Day, Prayers are read, and God's Service and Worship performed with great Decency, Order and Devotion, and should be a Pattern to all other Churches and Chapels in England.

The King hath also his private Oratory, where some of his Chaplains in Ordinary are to read Divine Service to his Majesty on Working-Days, Morning and Evening.

The Lord Almoner disposes of the King's Alms, and for that Use receives (besides other Monies allowed by the King) all Deadlands, & Bona Felonum de se, to be that way disposed.

Moreover, the Lord Almoner hath the Privilege to give the King's Dish to whatsoever poor Man he pleases; that is, the first Dish at Dinner, which is set upon the King's Table, or instead thereof 4 d. per Diem. Next he distributes to twenty-four poor Men, nominated by the Parishioners of the Parish adjacent to the King's Palace of Residence, to each of them 4 d. in Money, a Two-penny Loaf, and a Gallon of Beer; or instead thereof, 3 d. in Money, to be equally divided among them every Morning at Seven of the Clock at the Court-Gate; and every poor Man before he receives the Alms, to repeat the Creed and the Lord's-Prayer in the Presence of one of the King's Chaplains, deputed by the Lord Almoner to be his Sub-Almoner, who is also to scatter new coin'd Two-pences in the Towns and Places where the King passeth through in his Progress, to a certain Sum by the Year. Besides, there are many poor Pensioners to the King and Queen below Stairs; that is, such as are put to Pension, either because they are so old that they are unfit for Service, or else the Widows of such of his Majesty's Household Servants that died poor, and were not able to provide for their Wives and Children in their Life-times: Every one of these hath a Competency duly paid them.

Under the Lord High-Almoner there is a Sub-Almoner, a Yeoman, and two Grooms of the Almonry.

Besides all these, the King hath a Clerk of the Closet, who is some Reverend Divine, whose Office is to attend at the King's Right-hand during Divine Service, to resolve all Doubts concerning Spiritual Matters, to wait on his Majesty in his private Oratory or Closet, &c.

Chaplains.] The King hath also 48 Chaplains in Ordinary, who are usually eminent Doctors of Divinity; whereof four every Month wait at Court to preach in the Chapels on Sundays and other Festivals before the King, and in the Morning early on Sundays before the Household, to read Divine Service before the King out of Chapel daily (as afore-mentioned) twice in the King's private Oratory, to give Thanks at the Table in the Clerk of the Cloſet's Abſence, &c.

In Time of Lent, according to ancient laudable Cuſtom, Divine Service and Preaching is performed in a more ſolemn Manner.

Lent-Sermons.] Anciently at Court there were Sermons in Lent only, and that in the Afternoon, in the open Air, and then only preached by Biſhops, Deans, and principal Prebendaries. The Lent-Preachers are appointed by the Lord Chamberlain: On the firſt Wednesday, called Aſh-Wedneſday, in the Morning, begins the Dean of the Chapel to preach; on each Wednesday after, one of his Maſteſty's more eloquent Chap-lains; every Friday the Dean of ſome Cathedral or Collegiate Church: On the laſt Friday, called Good-Friday, the Dean of Weſtminſter is always to preach; on every Sunday in Lent ſome Biſhop preaches; on the laſt Sunday of Lent, called Palm-Sunday, an Archbiſhop; and upon Eaſter-Day, the Lord High-Almoner.

Collar and Offering Days.] Twelve Days in the Year being high and principal Feſtivals, his Maſteſty, after Divine Service, attended with his principal Nobility, adorned with their Collars of the Garter, together with the Heralds, in their rich Coats, in a grave ſolemn Manner, at the Altar, offers a Sum of Gold to God.

All Offerings made at the holy Altar by the King and Queen, belong to the Dean of the Chapel, to be diſtributed amongſt the Poor.

Thoſe twelve Days are Chriſtmas, Eaſter, Whiſunday, and All-Saints, called Household-days, upon which the Byzant, or Gold, to be offered, is delivered to the King by the Lord Steward, or ſome other of the principal Officers: Then New-Years-Day, Twelfth-Day, upon the latter of which, Gold, Frankincenſe and Myrrh, in ſeveral Purſes, are offered by the King: Laſtly, Candlemas, Annunciation, Ascenſion, Trinity-Sunday, St. John Baptiſt, and Michaelmas-Day, when only Gold is offered. Upon Chriſtmas, Eaſter and Whiſunday, his Maſteſty uſually receives the Holy Sacrament, none but two or three of the principal Biſhops, and ſome of the Royal Family communicating with him.

The Gold offered by the King at the Altar, when he receives the Sacrament, and upon high Feſtivals, is ſtill called the Byzant, which anciently was a Piece of Gold, ſuppoſed to be coined by the Emperors of Conſtantinople, which City was formerly called Byzantium. That which was uſed by King James the Firſt, was a Piece of Gold, having on the one Side the Portrait of the King kneeling before an Altar, with four Crowns before him, and circumscribed with this Motto, Quid retribuam
Domino

Domino pro omnibus quæ tribuit mihi? And on the other Side was a Lamb lying by a Lion, with this Motto, Cor contritum & humilitatem non despiciet Deus.

Of the CIVIL Government of the KING's Court.

Lord Steward of the King's Household.

FOR the Civil Government of the King's Court, the chief Officer is Lord-Steward, called also in the Time of Henry the Eighth, The Great Master of the King's Household, after the French Mode; but primo Maria, and ever since, called The Lord-Steward of the King's Household.

The State of the King's Household is committed to him, to be ruled and guided by his Discretion, and all his Commands in Court to be obeyed and observed. And as his Power is great, so is his Dignity, State and Honour. The Steward and Treasurer within the King's House, saith an old Manuscript, represent the State of an Earl.

He hath Authority over all Officers and Servants of the King's House, except those of his Majesty's Chapel, Chamber, and Stable, &c.

Note, That to the Lord-Steward belongs at the Beginning of Parliaments to attend the King's Person, and to minister the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy to all the several Members of the House of Commons, and at the End of Parliaments to adjust the Parliamentary Expences, &c.

The Lord-Steward is a White-Staff Officer, for he in the King's Presence carrieth a White-Staff, and at other Times going abroad, it is carried by a Footman bare-headed. This White-Staff is taken for a Commission: At the Death of the King, over the Hearse made for the King's Body, he breaketh this Staff, and thereby dischargeth all the Officers.

Lord-Chamberlain.] The next Officer is the Lord-Chamberlain, who hath the Oversight of all Officers belonging to the King's Chamber, except the Precinct of the King's Bed-Chamber, which is wholly under the Groom of the Stole; and all above Stairs, who are all sworn by him (or his Warrant to the Gentlemen-Ushers) to the King. He hath also the Oversight of the Officers of the Wardrobe, or of Beds, Tents, Revels, Musick, Comedians, Hunting, Messengers, Trumpets, Drummers, Handicrafts and Artisans retained in the King's Service.

Moreover, he hath the Oversight of the Serjeant at Arms, of all the Physicians, Apothecaries, Surgeons, Barbers, &c. To him also belongeth the Oversight of the Chaplains, though he himself is a Layman.

Master of the Horse.] The Third Great Officer of the King's Court is the Master of the Horse, anciently called Comes Stabuli, Stabuli, or Constable, to whom a higher Employment and Power was then given.

This Great Officer hath now the Ordering and Disposal of all the King's Stables and Races, or Breed of Horses, and had heretofore of all the Posts of England. He hath also the Power of Escuries and Pages; over the Footmen, Grooms, Riders of the Great Horses, Farriers, Smiths, Coachmen, Sadlers, and all other Trades working to the King's Stables; to all whom he (or by his Warrant the Avenier) giveth an Oath to be true and faithful.

He hath the Charge of all Lands and Revenues appointed for the King's Breed of Horses, and for Charge of the stable, and for Litters, Coaches, Sumpter-Horses, &c.

He only hath the Privilege to make use of any Horses, Pages, or Footmen belonging to the King's Stables.

At any solemn Cavalcade, he rides next behind the King, and leads a Led-Horse of State.

The Accompts of the Stables for Horse-Meat, Livery, Wages, and Board-Wages, are brought by the Avenier, being Chief Clerk of the Avery, to be passed and allowed by the Board of Green-Cloth.

Under these three principal Officers of his Majesty's Household are almost all the other Officers and Servants.

First, Under the Lord-Steward, in the Compting-House, are the Treasurer of the Household, Comptroller, Cofferer,

Master of the Household,
Two Clerks of the Green-Cloth,
Two Clerks Comptrollers.

It is called the Compting-House, because the Accompts for all Expences of the King's Household are there taken daily by the Lord-Steward, the Treasurer, Comptroller, the Cofferer, the Master of the Household, the two Clerks of the Green-Cloth, and the two Clerks Comptrollers, who also there make Provision for the Household, and make Payments and Orders for the well governing the Servants of the Household.

In the Compting-House is the Green-Cloth, which is a Court of Justice continually sitting in the King's House, composed of the Persons last mentioned; whereof the three first are usually of the King's Privy-Council. To this Court is committed the Charge and Oversight of the King's Court Royal, for Matters of Justice and Government, with Authority for maintaining the Peace within the Verge, wheresoever the Court shall reside, and the Power of correcting all the Servants therein that shall any way offend.

It is called the Green-Cloth, of a Green-Cloth where they sit, over whom are the Arms of the Compting-House, bearing,
Vert,

Vert, a Key, Or, and a Staff, Argent, Saultier, signifying their Power to reward and correct.

Treasurer of the King's House.] The Treasurer of the King's House, in the Absence of the Lord-Steward, hath Power, with the Comptroller and other Officers of the Board of Green-Cloth, together with the Steward of the Marshallsea, to hear and determine Treasons, Felonies, and other Crimes committed within the Verge, and that by Verdict of the King's Household.

Comptroller.] The Comptroller's Office is to Control the Accompts and Reckonings of the Green-Cloth.

Cofferer.] The Cofferer is also a principal Officer, hath a special Charge and Oversight of other Officers of the House, for their good Demeanor, Entertainment, and Carriage in their Offices, and is to pay the Wages of the King's Servants above and below Stairs, and for Provisions, by Directions and Allowance of the Green-Cloth.

Master of the Household.] The next is the Master of the Household, whose Office is to survey the Accompts of the House.

All Bills of Comptrolment, Parcels and Brievements, are allotted and allowed by the Clerk-Comptrollers, and summ'd up by the Clerks of the Green-Cloth.

The Cofferer, Master of the Household, the two Clerks of the Green-Cloth, and two Clerks-Comptrollers, sit in Judgment with the Lord-Steward, Treasurer and Comptroller, in the Court of Verge.

The Clerks of the Kitchen wait upon and appoint the King's, Queen's, and Household-Diets, every other Month, and wait upon foreign Princes, when his Majesty gives them Entertainment. The chief Clerk keeps all the Records, Ledger-Books, and Debentures for Salaries, &c. and Provisions and Necessaries issuing from the Offices of the Pantry, Buttery, and Cellar; keeps Account of, and makes up the Remains; with several other Duties, which oblige him to constant Waiting.

The second Clerk waits upon the Diet, as abovesaid, and attends the King and Queen in their Progresses, when appointed by the Green-Cloth.

The OFFICERS and SERVANTS in Ordinary above Stairs.

THE Lord Chamberlain, the Vice-Chamberlain, both which are always Privy-Counsellors.

The next are the Gentlemen of the Privy-Chamber, of whom these Things are worthy to be noted; viz.

King Henry the Seventh was the first English Monarch that instituted and established this Society of Gentlemen, limited their their Number to forty-eight, and gave them the Title of Honourable: Which Establishment has successively continued in every King and Queen's Reign to this present Time. The chief End of their Institution, was to wait and attend on the King and Queen at Court, in their Diversions, Progresses, and on all emergent Occasions: Six of these Gentlemen are constantly appointed by the Lord Chamberlain, with a Nobleman, and the Master of the Ceremonies, to accompany all foreign Ambassadors from crown'd Heads in their publick Entries, and to their Audiences. At every Coronation, two of these Gentlemen, in Ducal Robes, personate the Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy. At all publick Solemnities they are appointed their Stations by the Heralds, to go next to the Privy-Counsellors (not Peers); and whenever the King is pleased to go to the Parliament by Water, two of this Society have Place in the same Barge, and likewise kneel upon the second Step of the Throne, where no other Officers are allowed to interpose before them. As a particular Mark of Royal Favour and Trust, these Gentlemen are impowered to execute the King's Verbal Commands, without producing any written Orders; their Persons and Characters being sufficient Authority. For Example, in King Henry the Eighth's Time, Cardinal Wolsey was arrested for High Treason by a Gentleman of the Privy-Chamber without any written Order; the Cardinal obeyed, saying, His Person was a sufficient Warrant, after the said Cardinal had refused to submit to the Arrest by a great Lord, and an Order in Writing.

Gentlemen Cup-Bearers, four.

Gentlemen Carvers, four.

Gentlemen Sewers, four.

These were very ancient Officers of the Crown, and their Places honourable, and for that Reason they precede many other Officers of Note, which now have large Salaries, with considerable Perquisites.

At all Coronations three Earls put in their Claims to officiate in their Places of Cup-Bearer, Carver, and Sewer; there is likewise one of each Office who are Assistants to the Noblemen for that Day, and also have Rank in the Cavalcade, &c.

Gentlemen-Ushers of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Chamber were also four.

They have the Power of commanding all Officers under them in the Privy-Lodgings (the Bed-chamber excepted) and the Honour of leading the Queen in the Absence of the Lord-Chamberlain and Vice-Chamberlain. They also attend in the Closet at the Chapel, where no other Gentleman-Usher waits.

In the Presence-Chamber there are Gentlemen-Ushers daily Waiters in Ordinary, four; of whom the first hath that considerable Office of Black-Red, and in Time of Parliament is to attend attend every Day the Lord's-House, and is also Usher of the most Noble Order of the Garter. In the House of Lords he hath a Seat within the Bar; and when the King will command the House of Commons to attend him in the House of Lords, he always sends the Black-Rod, who is so called from a Black-Staff which he bears in his Hand. To his Custody also are Delinquents committed by the Lords; and he is employed in fitting up the Lord's House, before the sitting of the Parliament, and afterward, for introducing Lords into that House.

The Office of these Gentlemen Ushers is to wait in the Presence-Chamber, and to attend next the King's Person; and after the Lord-Chamberlain, and the Vice-Chamberlain, to order all Affairs, and all Under-Officers above Stairs are to obey them.

Next are Gentlemen-Ushers Quarter-Waiters in Ordinary, in number Eight.

These wait also in the Presence-Chamber, and are to give Directions in the Absence of the Gentlemen-Ushers Daily-Waiters (to whom they are subordinate, and as it were Deputies) to the Grooms and Pages, and other Under-Officers, who are to attend in all Offices next below the said Quarter-Waiters.

Gentlemen of the Bed-Chamber are Eleven; whereof the first is Groom of the Stole, that is (according to the Signification of the Word in Greek, from whence the Latins, and thence the Italian and French derive it) Groom or Servant of the Long-Robe or Vestment; he having the Office and Honour to present and put on his Majesty's first Garment or Shirt every Morning, and to order the Things of the Bed-Chamber. His Salary is 966*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*

The Gentlemen of the Bed-Chamber consist usually of the Prime Nobility of England, whose Office in general is, each one in his Turn, to wait one Week in the King's Bed-Chamber, there to lie by the King on a Pallat-Bed all Night; and in the Absence of the Groom of the Stole, to supply his Place. Moreover, they wait upon the King when he eats in private; for then the Cup-Bearers, Carvers and Sewers do not wait. This High Office, in the Reign of a Queen, as in her late Majesty's, is performed by Ladies, as also that of the Grooms of the Bed-Chamber, who are called Bed-Chamber-Women, and were five in Number.

Pages of the Back-Stairs, Six.

Master of the Great Wardrobe, Deputy and Clerk.

Next is the Master of the Robes; whose Office is to order all his Majesty's Robes; as those of his Coronation, of St George's Feast, and of Parliament; also of all his Majesty's Wearing-Apparel, of his Collar of SS's, George and Garter, be set with Diamonds and Pearls.

The King hath (besides the Great Wardrobe) diverse Standing Wardrobes at White-Hall, Kensington, Windſor, Hampton-Court, the Tower of London, &c. whereof there are diverse Officers.

The Removing Wardrobe, which always attends upon the Person of the King, Queen, and the Children, attends also upon Ambassadors, upon Christenings, Masques, Plays, &c. and is at the Command of the Lord-Chamberlain, who hath the disposing of vacant Places. Here are six Officers;

One Yeoman of the Removing Wardrobe.

Two Grooms of the Wardrobe.

Three Pages of the Wardrobe.

Under the Master of the Robes is

One Clerk of the Robes and Wardrobes .	Keeper of the Wardrobe at White-Hall .
One Yeoman.	Keeper of the Standing Wardrobe at Kensington .
Three Grooms.	Necessary Women.
One Page.	Treasurer of the Chamber.
One Brusher.	Comptroller of the Chamber.
One Sempstrefs.	Auditor of the Chamber.
Body Laundrefs.	Master of the Jewel-House.
Starcher.	Other Officers, Four.

Master of the Ceremonies.] The Office of Master of the Ceremonies was instituted by King James I. for the more honourable Reception of Ambassadors and Strangers of Quality. The Badge of his Office is a Chain of Gold with a Medal, having on the one Side, under the Crown of England, an Emblem of Peace, with King James's Motto, Beati Pacis; and on the other, an Emblem of War, with Dieu & Mon Droit.

Under the said Master of the Ceremonies is an Assistant, or Deputy; which Office is held during the King's Pleasure.

Heralds.] Among his Majesty's Servants in Ordinary, are to be reckoned The Heralds.

[See more concerning these in the College of Heralds, in the Supplement about the City of London.

Groom-Porter.] The Office of Groom-Porter, is to see the King's Lodging furnished with Tables, Chairs, Stools, Firing; to provide Cards, Dice, &c. to decide Disputes arising at Cards, Dice, Bowlings, &c.

Master of the Revels.] Whose Office is to order all Things concerning Comedies and Masques at Court.

The rest of the Menial Servants under the several great Officers of his Majesty's Household, are found in their respective Lists at the End of the Book.

Some

Some of these Officers are not subordinate to any other Officer, but are immediately dependant on the King; as Master of the Great Wardrobe, and the like.

In the Court of King James I. there was many more Officers; and to several Offices there belonged many more Persons, which King Charles I. King Charles II. and King James II. much lessened, and the late King much more.

Upon the King are also attending in his Court, the Lords of the Privy-Council, the Reverend Judges, Masters of Chancery, the Learned College of Civilians, Clerks of the Signer, Clerks of the Council, Keeper of the Paper-Office, or Papers of State, &c.

Of the MILITARY Government of the King's Court.

Of the Gentlemen-Pensioners.

AT Home, within the King's House, it is thought fit, that the King's Person should have a Guard both above and below Stairs.

In the Presence-Chamber therefore wait the Honourable Band of Gentlemen-Pensioners, first instituted by King Henry VII.

Their Office is to attend the King's Person with their Pole-Axes to and from Chapel-Royal, and to receive him in the Presence-Chamber, or coming out of his Privy-Lodging; as also at all Great Solemnities, as Coronations, St. George's Feast, Publick Audiences of Ambassadors, at the King's going to Parliament, and at their Funerals.

They are 40 in Number, and each obliged to keep three double Horses and a Servant, who is likewise to be armed, and so are properly a Troop of Guards, and have accordingly been mustered by their own Officers; but this last Part of the Duty, to which they are sworn, the King doth dispense withal during Pleasure.

They have ever been commanded by a Nobleman, or a Knight of the most Noble Order of the Garter, as their Captain; they have a Lieutenant, a Standard-Bearer, and a Clerk of the Cheque.

A Gentleman Harbinger to provide Lodging for them, and to assist the Clerk of the Cheque in his Absence, as his Deputy.

All the Band and Officers are sworn by the Clerk of the Cheque (except the Captain) for which he hath a Fee of 5 l. 10 s.

The Band wait half at a Time quarterly, but on Christmas-day, Easter-day, Whitsunday, All-Saints, St. George's Feast, the Coronation-days, and on extraordinary Occasions, they are all obliged to give their Attendance, under the Penalty of the Cheque.

They

They have the Honour likewise to carry up the King's Dinner on the Days of his Coronation, and at St. George's Feast; at which Times his Majesty usually confers the Honour of Knighthood on two such Gentlemen of the Band that the Captain doth present.

Their ordinary Arms are gilt Pole-Axes.

Their Arms on Horse-back in Time of War, are Curassiers Arms, with Sword and Pistols. They have not appeared armed, either in this or any other manner in the Army, in the Memory of Man.

Their Standard borne in Time of War, is A Cross, Gules, in a Field, Argent.

Of the YEOMEN of the Guard.

Again, in the first Room above Stairs, called the Guard-Chamber, attend the Yeomen of the Guard of his Majesty's Body; whereof there were wont to be 250 Men of the best Quality under the Gentry, and of larger Stature than ordinary (for every one of them was to be six Foot high). Of later Times they were reduced to 170; but at present there are no more than 100. These wear Scarlet Coats down to the Knee, and Scarlet Breeches, both richly guarded with black Velvet, and rich Badges upon their Coats, before and behind; moreover, black Velvet round broad-crown'd Caps (according to the Mode used in the Reign of Henry VIII.) with Ribbons of the King's Colour: One Half of them formerly bore in their Hands Harquebuzes (but ever since the Reign of King William the Harquebuzes have been disused) and the other Half, Partizans, with large Swords by their Sides. They have Wages and Diet allowed them. Their Office is to wait upon the King in his standing Houses, 36 by Day, and 18 to watch by Night; about the City, to wait upon the King's Person abroad by Water, or Land.

Of the TROOPS of the Household.

THE Guards of Horse, which the Spaniards call Guardas de a Cavallo; the French, Gardes du Corps; the Germans, Leibgardy; and we Life-Guard; that is, the Guards of the King's Body, consist of 724 Horsemen, Officers included, well arm'd and equipp'd: They are divided into four Troops.

To each Troop of Guards there is now added by Establishment a Troop of Grenadiers, consisting of 44 Men, Officers included.

Each of these 4 Troops are divided into 4 Squadrons, or Divisions; Two of which, consisting of 100 Gentlemen, and commanded by one principal commission'd Officer, two Brigadiers, gadiers, and two Sub-Brigadiers, with two Trumpets, mount the Guard one Day in six, and are relieved in their Turns. Their Duty is always, by Parties from the Guard, to attend the Person of the King wheresoever he goes near Home; but if out of Town, he is attended by Detachments out of the four Troops.

Besides this, there is a more strict Duty and Attendance weekly on the King's Person on Foot, wheresoever he walks, from his Rising to his going to Bed; and this is performed by one of the four Captains, who always waits immediately next to the King's own Person, before all others, carrying in his Hand an Ebony Staff, or Truncheon, with a gold Head, engraven with his Majesty's Cypher and Crown: Near him also attends another principal commission'd Officer, with an Ebony Staff, and Silver Head, who is ready to relieve the Captain on Occasions, and at the same Time also two Brigadiers, having likewise Ebony Staves, headed with Ivory, and engraven as the others.

One Division of Grenadiers mounts with a Division of the Troops to which they belong; they go out on small Parties from the Guard, perform Centinel Duty on Foot, and attend the King also on Foot, when he walks Abroad, and always march with great Detachments,

The P A Y of the said Guards of Horse is as followeth, viz.

T H E Captain's Pay of the first Troop of Guards is 1 l. 10 s. per diem.

The other three Captains, their Pay is to each 1 l. per diem.

A Lieutenant's Pay of the Guards is 15 s. per diem.

A Cornet's Pay of the King's Troops is 14 s. per diem.

Of each of the other Troops is 13 s. per diem.

A Guidon's Pay is 12 s. per diem.

A Quarter-Master's Pay is 9 s. per diem.

A Chaplain's Pay is 6 s. 8 d. per diem.

A Surgeon's Pay is 6 s. and his Chest-Horse 2 s. In all 8 s. per diem.

A Brigadier's, or Corporal's Pay of the King's Troop, is 7 s. per diem.

Of each of the other Troops is 6 s. per diem.

A Trumpeter and Kettle-Drummer, each is 5 s. per diem.

A Sub-Corporal, or Sub-Brigadier's Pay is but equal to a Gentleman of the Troop, viz. 4 s. per diem.

The P A Y of the Grenadiers of Horse is as followeth.

A Lieutenant's Pay is 8 s. per diem.

A Serjeant's Pay is 4 s. per diem.

A Corporal's Pay is 3 s. per diem.

A

A Hautboy's and Drummer's Pay, is 2 s. 6 d. per diem.

A Private Soldier's Pay is 2 s. 6 d. per diem.

As to the Precedency of the respective Officers of the King's Guards of Horse, by their Commissions the Captains always command as eldest Colonels of Horse; the Lieutenants, as eldest Lieutenant-Colonels of Horse; the Cornets and Guidons, as eldest Majors of Horse; the Quarter-Masters, as youngest Captains of Horse; the Brigadiers, as eldest Lieutenants of Horse; and amongst themselves, every Officer according to the Date of his Commission when on Detachments, but not when the four Troops march with their Colours; for then the Officer of the eldest Troop commands those of equal Rank with him in the others, tho' their Commissions be of elder Date.

Next immediately after the four Troops of Guards, his Majesty's Regiment of Horse takes Place, and the Colonel of it is to have Precedency after the Captains of the Guards, and before all other Colonels of Horse, whatsoever Change may be of the Colonel; and all the Officers thereof, in their proper Degree, are to take Place according to the Dates of their Commissions.

As to the Foot, the King's own Regiment of Guards takes Place of all other Regiments, and the Colonel thereof is always to precede as the first Colonel. The Coldstream Regiment takes the next Place, and then all other Colonels, according to the Dates of their Commissions. [The first Regiment of Guards consists of three Battalions; the second, or Coldstream Regiment, of two Battalions; besides which there is now a third Regiment of Scots Guards, consisting of two Battalions.]

All other Regiments of Horse or Foot, not of the Guards, taking Place according to their respective Seniorities from the Time they were first raised; and no Regiment loses its Precedency by the Death, or Removal of its Colonel.

Of OFFENCES committed within the Verge of the KING'S COURT.

THE King's Palace-Royal is exempted from all Jurisdiction of any Court, Civil, or Ecclesiastical, but only of the Lord-Steward, and, in his Absence, of the Treasurer and Comptroller of the King's Household, with the Steward of the Marshalsea, who may, by Virtue of their Office, without Commission, hear and determine all Treasons, Misprison of Treasons, Murders, Man-slaughters, Breaches of the Peace, &c. committed within the King's Court, or Palace, or within 200 Foot of the outward Gate. [But there is no Instance of any Trial before these Officers for Treason or Felony in the Memory of Man.]

If any Man presume to strike another within the Palace where the King's Royal Person resideth, and by such a Stroke only draw Blood, his Right-hand shall be struck off, and he committed to perpetual Imprisonment, and fined. By the ancient Laws of England, only Striking in the King's Court, was punished with Death and Loss of Goods.

To make the deeper Impression and Terror in Men's Minds for Striking in the King's Court, it hath been ordered, That the Punishment for Striking should be executed with great Solemnity and Ceremony. In brief thus:

Punishment for Striking in the King's Court.

The Serjeant of the King's Wood-yard brings to the Place of Execution a square Block, a Beetle, Staple and Cords to fasten the Hand thereto; the Yeoman of the Scullery provides a great Fire of Coals by the Block, where the Searing-Irons, brought by the chief Farrier, are to be ready for the chief Surgeon to use; Vinegar and cold Water, brought by the Groom of the Stewery; the chief Officers also of the Cellar and Pantry are to be ready, one with a Cup of red Wine, and the other with a Manchet, to offer the Criminal. The Serjeant of the Towry is to bring Linnen to wind about, and wrap the Arm; the Yeoman of the Poultry a Cock to lay to it; the Yeoman of the Chandlery seared Cloths; the Master-Cook a sharp Dresser-Knife, which at the Place of Execution is to be held upright by the Serjeant of the Larder, till Execution be perform'd by an Officer appointed thereunto. After all, the Criminal shall be imprison'd during Life, and fin'd and ransom'd at the King's Will. [None have been punished in this Manner for many Years for Striking in the Court.]

CH A P. XIII.

Of the CIVIL Government of England in the respective Courts of Judicature: And first, of the Court of Justice call'd the KING'S-BENCH.

FOR the Execution of Laws, after the House of Lords in Parliament, the highest Court in England at Common-Law, is the King's-Bench, so called, because anciently the Sovereign sometimes sat there in Person on a high Bench, and his Judges on a low Bench at his Feet, to whom the Judicature belongs in his Absence, or, perhaps, because this Court determines Pleas between the Crown and the Subject.

In this Court are handled the Pleas of the Crown, all Things that concern the Loss of Life or Member of any Subject, for then the King is concerned, because the Life and Limbs of the Subject belong only to the King. Here are handled all Treasons, Felonies, Breach of Peace, Oppression, Misgovernment, &c. This Court moreover hath Power to examine and correct Errors in Facto, and in Jure, of all the Judges and Justices of England, in their Judgments and Proceedings; and this, not only in Pleas of the Crown, but in all Pleas, real, personal, and mixed, except only in the Exchequer.

In this High-Court sit commonly four grave Reverend Judges, whereof the first is stiled the Lord Chief-Justice of the King's-Bench, [he is also stiled Lord Chief-Justice of England, or, by way of Eminence, the Lord Chief-Justice] and is created not by Patent, but by a short Writ thus: A. B. Militi salutem. Sciatis quod constituimus vos Justiciarum nostrum Capitalem, ad placita coram nobis tenenda, quamdiu te bene gesseris. Teste me ipso apud Westm.

The rest of the Judges of the King's-Bench did formerly hold their Places by Letters Patent in these Words; Rex omnibus ad quos presentes literae pervenerint, salutem. Sciatis quod constituimus dilectum & fidelem A. B. Militem, unum Justiciariorum, ad Placita coram nobis tenenda, durante bene placito nostro. Teste, &c. But since the Revolution, their Tenure is like the former.

These Judges, and all the Officers belonging to this Court, have all Salaries from the King, and the Chief of them have Robes and Liveries out of the Great Wardrobe. [In the Reign of King George I. the Salaries of the Chief-Justices, and Chief-Baron were advanced to 2000 l. each, and those of the Puiſne Judges to 1500 l. each.]

This Court may grant Prohibitions to keep other Courts, both Ecclesiastical and Temporal, within their Bounds and due Jurisdiction.

The Jurisdiction of this Court is general, and extendeth to all England; for the Law presumes that the Sovereign is always there in Person.

None may be Judges in this Court, unless he be a Serjeant of the Degree of the Coif; that is, a Serjeant at Law; who, upon taking this high Degree, is obliged to wear a Lawn-Coat under his Cap always at the Bar.

The Jurisdiction of this Lord Chief-Justice is very great over all England; and even in Parliament-time, the Lords sometimes waving their own Power, have directed him to send his Warrant to seize Persons suspected of capital Crimes.

Secondly, Of the HIGH-COURT of CHANCERY.

NEXT to the King's-Bench in Westminster-Hall, is wisely placed this High-Court, to mitigate the Rigour of the other. It is Curia Cancellaria; because, as some think, the Judge of this

This Court sat anciently intra Cancellor, or Latices, as the East End of our Churches, being separated per Cancellor from the Body of the Church, as peculiarly belonging to the Priest, were thence called Chancels.

This Court is the Officina Justitie, the Womb of all our fundamental Laws, the Fountain of all our Proceedings in Law; the Original of all other Courts. It is as ancient as the Civility of the Nation, though perhaps by another Name.

This Court proceeds either ordinarily, according to the Laws, Statutes and Customs of the Nation, and in Latin granting out Writs Mandatory and Remedial, Writs of Grace; or else according to Equity and Conscience, and by English Bill: So that the Chancery hath two Courts in one; the Equitable Part is by Bills, Answers, and Decrees, to examine Frauds, Combinations, Trust, secret Uses, &c. to moderate the Rigour of the Laws, and rescue Men out of the Hands of their Oppressors; to relieve a Man, especially in three Things, viz. against Cheats, unfortunate Accidents, and Breaches of Trust.

Out of this Court are issued Writs, or Summons, for Parliaments and Convocations, Edicts, Proclamations, Charters, Protections, Safe-Conduits, Writs of Moderata Misericordia, when any Person hath been amerced too high, and for a reasonable Part of Goods for Widows and Orphans, Patents for Sheriffs, Writs of Certiorari, to remove Records and false Judgments in inferior Courts, Writs of Audita Querela, and Scire facias. Here are sealed and enrolled Letters-Patents, Treaties and Leagues with foreign Princes, Deeds between Party and Party, touching their Lands and Estates, or Purchasers taking Recognizances, and making of Extents upon Statutes and Recognizances for Payment of Money, or securing of Contracts, Writs Remedial or Majesterial, Commissions of Appeal, Oyer and Terminer, &c. The Court of Common-Pleas, which are betwixt Subject and Subject, hath its Original and Commission from the Chancery, and cannot hold Pleas without it.

For the Latin Part of this Court, are the 24 Cursitors; and for the English Part, are the 6 Clerks.

The Court of Equity, that proceeds not according to Law, is no Court of Record, and therefore binds only the Person, his Lands or Goods.

[Chancellor.] The Judge of this Court is the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great-Seal of England. He is here the sole Judge; whereas in other Courts there are three or four Judges: But he may, and doth often, in Cases of greater Weight and Difficulty, call some of the other Judges to his Assistance; and therefore it is said, this Office may be discharged by one that is no professed Lawyer, as it was almost always anciently.

Anciently

Anciently the Lord Chancellor had sometimes his Vice-Chancellor, commonly called Keeper of the Great-Seal; but since Queen Elizabeth's Time they hardly differ in any thing but Name.

The Chancellor is said to be Keeper of the King's Conscience, to judge secundum Equum & Bonum, according to Equity and Conscience; he is to moderate the æquidistant the exact Rigour and Letter of the Law, whereunto other Judges are strictly tied.

The Manner of proceeding in this Court, is much like that in the Courts of the Civil-Law, the Actions by Bill or Plaint, the Witnesses examined in private, the Decrees in English or Latin, not in French. No Jury of twelve Men, but all Sentences given by the Judge of the Court.

Masters of Chancery.] The Chancellor, or Lord Keeper, hath twelve Assistants, anciently called Clerici, Clerks, or Magistri Cancellarie, because they were usually in Holy Orders, and Doctors of Laws; for Master and Doctor were anciently the same, as at this Day a Doctor in the Arts is called Magister in Artibus; and sometimes they were called Coadjutores: But now all Masters in Chancery must be Gentlemen at the Bar.

Master of the Rolls.] The first of these is the Master of the Rolls; in Latin Sacrorum Scriniarum Magister, & Rotulorum Custos, sive Præfectus, so called from the Chapel wherein the Rolls are kept: It is a Place of great Dignity, and is in the Gift of the King, either for Life, or during Pleasure; and this Officer hath Jure Officii, the Gift of these considerable Offices of the Six Clerks in Chancery, hath the keeping of the Rolls, hath all the House of the Converted Jews, now called the Rolls, and in the Absence of the Chancellor, hears Causes there, and makes Orders by Virtue of a Commission, with two Masters, and that Jure Officii.

When he sits in the Lords House in Parliament, he sits next to the Lord Chief-Justice of England, upon the Second Wool-Sack.

This Court is always open, whereas all the others are shut but only in Term-Time; so that if any Man be wrongfully imprisoned in the Vacation-Time out of the Term, the Lord-Chancellor may grant his Writ of Habeas Corpus, and do him Justice, according to Law: So likewise may this Court grant Prohibitions in Time of Vacation as well as in Term-Time.

The Salary of the Masters in Chancery is 100 l. to each of them, paid out of the Exchequer quarterly, besides Robe-Money. These Masters do sit at Westminster-Hall, with the Lord Chancellor, or Keeper, three at a time in Term-Time, and two at a time out of Term, when the Lord Keeper sits to hear Causes at his own House. And to these Masters the Lord-Keeper does often refer the further Hearing of many Causes: [Matters of Account are referred to the Masters, and other Things of small Moment, but never the Merits of the Cause.] They have also a publick Office, where one or more of them do constantly attend to take Affidavits.

The House, founded at first for the Converted Jews, was, after their Expulsion out of England, annexed for ever to the Office of Master of the Rolls, where he hath the Custody of all the Charters, Patents, Commissions, Deeds, Recognizances, which being made up in Rolls of Parchment, give Occasion for that Name.

At present there are kept all the Rolls since the Beginning of Richard III. the rest are kept in the Tower of London.

In his Gift are, besides the Six-Clerks-Office, the Offices of the Examiners, three Clerks of the Petty-Bag, and the six Clerks of the Rolls-Chapel, where the Rolls are kept.

Clerk of the Crown.] Next is the Clerk of the Crown. This Office is of high Importance; he is either by himself, or Deputy, continually to attend the Lord-Chancellor, or Lord-Keeper, for special Matters of State, and hath a Place in the Higher House of Parliament: He makes all Writs for Election of Members of Parliament sitting in the Parliament, upon Warrant directed to him upon the Death or Removal of any Member, and also Commissions of Oyer and Terminer, Goal-Delivery, Commissions of Peace, and many other Commissions distributing Justice to the King's Subjects: Which Office has been sometimes executed by a Deputy.

Protonotary of this Court.] This Office is chiefly to expedite Commissions for Embassies. It is executed by a Deputy.

Clerk of the Hamper, or Hanaper, sometime stiled Warden of the Hanaper, whose Office is to receive all Money due for the Seals of Charters, Patents, Commissions and Writs, and to attend the Keeper of the Seal daily in Term-Time, and at all Times of Sealing, with Leather-Bags now (but anciently, probably, with Hampers) wherein are put all sealed Charters, Patents, and the like, and then those Bags are delivered to the Comptroller of the Hamper.

Six Clerks are Officers of great Account, next in Degree to the Twelve Masters in Chancery, whose Office is to inroll Commissions, Pardons, Patents, Warrants, &c. that are passed the Great Seal. They were anciently Clerics, and afterwards forfeited their Places if they did marry, 'till by Act of Parliament, in the Time of Henry VIII. they were allowed to take Wives.

They are also Attorneys for Plaintiffs and Defendants in Causes depending in this Court.

Under the fore-named Six-Clerks, there are Sixty other Clerks, viz. Ten to each of the Six Clerks, and who, with with their Under Clerks, dispatch the Business of that Office.

Examiners in Chancery there are Two. Their Office is to examine Persons on their Oaths, in any Suit on both Sides.

Clerks of the Petty-Bag in Chancery are Three. They are under the Master of the Rolls: Their Office is to make all Patents for Customers, Comptrollers, all Congé d'Eslire's, first Summons of Nobility, Clergy, Knights, Citizens, and Burgessees to Parliament, &c.

The Subpœna Office is to issue out Writs to summon Persons to appear in Chancery.

Clerk of the Patents, or Letters-Patents, under the Great Seal of England.

The Principal Register of the Court of Chancery.

Clerk of the Reports, Keeper of the Old Book, and of one of the Entry-Books.

The Office for Filing all Affidavits in the same Court of Chancery, is an Office granted by Letters-Patent.

Cursitors-Office in the Chancery, is to make out Original Writs: They were anciently called Clerici Brevium de Cursu: Of these there are Twenty-four, whereof each one hath certain Counties and Cities allotted to him, into which they make out such Original Writs as are required. These Clerks are a Corporation of themselves, who execute these Offices by themselves, or by their Deputy.

From this High Court are also issued out Commissions for Charitable Uses throughout England, where there is Occasion to enquire of any Abuses or Frauds in what has been given for the Relief of Aged, Impotent, and Poor People; Maintenance of Sick and Maimed Soldiers or Mariners; Schools of Learning, or Free-Schools, or Scholars in Universities; Repair of Bridges, Ports, Havens, Causeways, Churches, Sea-Banks, or High-ways; Education or Preferment of Orphans; Relief, Stock, or Maintenance of Houses of Correction; Marriage of poor Maids; Supportation, Aid or Help of young Tradesmen, Handicrafts-men, or Persons decayed; Relief or Redemption of Prisoners or Captives.

ALIENATION-OFFICE.

There is also an Office called the Alienation-Office, whereunto all Writs of Covenants and Entry, whereupon Fines are levied, and Recoveries suffered, are carried to have Fines for Alienation set and paid thereupon. This Office is executed by three Commissioners.

In all are counted seventy-two Offices under the Lord Chancellor or Lord-Keeper.

Thirdly,

Thirdly, of the Court of COMMON-PLEAS.

THE next Court for Execution of Laws, is the Court of Common-Pleas, so called, because there are debated the usual Pleas between Subject and Subject. By the Statute of Magna Charta it was ordained, That this Court should not be Ambulatory, but be held at a certain Place; and that hath been ever since in Westminster-Hall.

None but Serjeants at Law may plead in this Court; and so many of them as the King shall appoint, are bound by Oath to assist all that have any Cause depending in that Court.

This Court may grant Prohibitions, as the Court of the King's-Bench doth.

The Chief Judge in this Court is called, The Lord Chief-Justice of the Common-Pleas, or of the Common-Bench: He holdeth his Place by Letters-Patent, quamdiu se bene gesserit; and so do the other Inferior Judges of this Court, whereof there are commonly three.

In this Court all Civil Causes, Real and Personal, are usually tried according to the strict Rules of Law.

Real Actions are pleadable in no other Court, nor Fines levied, or Recoveries suffered; but only at this Court at Westminster, at a Judge's Chamber, at the Assizes, or by special Commission out of Chancery.

The King allows to the Lord Chief-Justice of this Court a Fee, Reward, Robes, and two Tuns of Wine, as is done to the Lord Chief-Justice of the other Bench; also to the other Judges of this Court, and to four Serjeants is allowed Fees, Reward, and Robes to each one.

Then there is an Officer called Custos Brevium, the first Clerk of the Court, whose Office is to receive and keep all Writs returnable in that Court, to receive of the Protonotaries all Records of Nisi Prius, called Posseas. He holdeth his Place by Patent from the King, and hath the Gift of the second Protonotary's Place, and of the Clerk of the Juries.

There are three Protonotaries, a Word compounded of Greek and Latin, and signify the first Notaries. They are Chief Clerks of this Court, and by their Office are to enter and enrol all Declarations, Pleadings (which the Filazers did formerly promiscuously do) Assizes, Judgments, and Actions; and to make out Judicial Writs, &c. for all English Counties except Monmouth. These considerable Offices are in the Hands of three Persons, in whose Offices all the Attorneys of the Court of Common-Pleas do enter their Causes: Each of the said Protonotaries hath a Secondary, whose Office is to draw up the Rules of Court, and to do other Matters relating to the Business of the the Court. These Secondaries are commonly the ancientest and the ablest Clerks or Attorneys of the Court. The Chirographer is an Officer who ingrosseth Fines acknowledged, &c. He holdeth his Place also by Patent.

In this Office there are several Clerks, who have their several Counties allotted them, and for which they are to ingross the Fines levied of Lands in their respective Divisions.

The Register of the Fine-Office, which Office is the only proper Place for searching for Fines; they are not being perfect till they are brought thither and recorded.

A Clerk of the Proclamations.

All these Protonotaries and Chirographer afore-mentioned, sit in the Court, covered with black round Caps, according to the Mode immediately before the Invention of Hats, which was since the Beginning of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth. Moreover, they are all sworn, and have their Offices for Life, as a Free-hold.

There are in this Court Three Officers unsworn, and hold their Places durante bene placito.

1. One Clerk of the Treasury, who hath the Charge of keeping the Records of this Court, and makes out all Records Nisi prius, and diverse other things. This Office is in the Gift of the Lord Chief-Justice of this Court.

2. The Clerk of the Inrollments of Fines and Recoveries; by Statute, under the three Puisné Judges of this Court, and removeable at their Pleasure. Note, That the Inrollment of the Fines and Recoveries, or any Part thereof, by Stat. 23. Elizabeth, Cap. 3. is of good Force and Validity in Law, to all Intents and Purposes, for so much of any of them so inrolled, as the same being extant and remaining, were, or ought by Law to be: The general Neglect whereof in this Kingdom hath occasioned many Law-Suits, and hath proved, in Process of Time, exceeding dangerous to many Mens Estates.

3. The Clerk of the Outlawries, who maketh out the Writs of Capias ut legatum (after the Parties are returned Out-law'd) in the Name of the King's Attorney, whose Deputy he is pro tempore.

There are five Clerks or Officers more.

1. Clerk of the King's Silver, unto whom every Fine or final Agreement upon Sale of Land is brought, after it hath been with the Custos Brevium, and who makes an Entry of what Money is to be paid for the King's Use, executed by a Deputy.

2. Clerk of the Warrants, executed by a Deputy, who executeth all Warrants of Attorney for Plaintiff and Defendant, and inrolleth all Deeds acknowledged before any of the Judges of this Court.

3. Clerk

3. Clerk of the Juries, who makes out the Writs called Habeas Corpus, and Distingas Juratorum, for Appearance of the Jury, either in this Court, or at the Assizes in the Country, by his Deputy.

4. Clerk of the Essoins, or Excuses for lawful Cause of Absence.

5. Clerk of the Superfedeas, which is held by Patent. But before King James the First's Time the Writs of Superfedeas were made by the Exigenter.

In this Court are also Filazers for the several Counties of England, so called from the French, Fill, a Thread, because they file their Writs. These make out all Proceſs upon Original Writs, and do many other things too long to be here set down. Of these there are Fourteen; the last of which is Protonotary, Filazer, and Exigenter of Monmouth, by Patent; the rest are in the Gift of the Lord Chief-Justice of this Court, and hold for Life.

There are also four *Exigenter*s, whose Office is to make all Exigents and Proclamations in all Actions, where Proceſs of Outlawry do lie. This Writ is called an Exigent, because it exacteth the Party; that is, requireth his Appearance to answer the Law, and lies against a Transgressor of the Law, that cannot be found, nor any of his Goods within the Country: So that after Summons by the Sheriff at five several County-Courts, if he appears not, he is Out-law'd.

These are all in the Gift of the Lord Chief-Justice of this Court, and are for Life.

There are also belonging to this Court four Criers and a Porter.

Fourthly, Of the Court of EXCHEQUER.

THE next Court for Execution of Laws, is the Exchequer, so called, as some think from a Chequer-wrought Carpet covering the great Table in that Court (as the Court of Green-Cloth in the King's House is so called from the Green-Carpet) or else from the French Word Estchiquier, a Cheſs Board; because the Accomptants in that Office were wont to use such Boards in their Calculation. Here are tried all Causes which belong to the King's Treasury, or Revenue, as touching Accompts, Disbursements, Customs, and all Fines imposed upon any Man.

In this Court may sit,

The Lord-Treasurer, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Lord Chief-Baron, and three other learned Judges, called Barons of the Exchequer; also one other Cursitor-Baron.

The first of the five is the principal Judge of this Court, and answers the Bar of the Barristers, who direct their Speech to him ; takes Recognizances for the King's Debts, &c. It is an Office of high Honour and Profit : He is stiled Lord Chief-Baron ; is created by Letters-Patent, to hold this Dignity quamdiu se bene gesserit. He alone, without the other Barons, sits at Guild-Hall in the Afternoon in Term-Time, upon Nisi prius in London ; takes Audits, Accompts, Recognizances, Presentations of Offices, and many other Things of Importance. In the Absence of the Lord Chief-Baron, the other three Barons supply his Place according to their Seniority ; but the fifth is said to be the Cursitor of the Court, and administers the Oath to the Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Searchers, Surveyors, &c. of the Custom-House ; but is no Judge.

In the Exchequer are held two Courts, one of Law, another of Equity.

All Judicial Proceedings according to Law, are coram Baronibus ; but the Court of Equity held in the Exchequer-Chamber, is coram Thesaurario, Cancellario, & Baronibus. This Court had its Beginning primo Phil. & Mar.

The Authority of this Court is of Original Jurisdiction, without any Commission.

Note also, That all the other fore-mentioned Courts were not instituted by any Statute or Written Law, but have their Original from the ancient Custom of the Kingdom.

For a long Time after the Conquest there sat in the Exchequer both Spiritual and Temporal Barons of the Realm ; and in latter Times there sat in their Places others that were no Peers of the Realm, yet stiled Barons, because Barons used to sit there.

All the twelve Judges belonging to the High Tribunals sit in Robes and Caps like Doctors.

Officers belonging to the Court of EXCHEQUER.

The King's Remembrancer's Office.

After the Lord-Treasurer, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the Barons of the Exchequer afore-mentioned, the next Officer is the King's Remembrancer ; in whose Office are eight sworn Clerks, whereof two are Secondaries.

In this Office are entered the States of all the Accompts concerning the King's Revenue, for Customs, Excise, Subsidies, and all Aids granted to the King in Parliament, and all other Accompts of what Nature soever, except Sheriffs and Bailiffs Accompts ; and also Accompts for Monies imprested to any Person to perform Service for the King, concerning the King's Revenue, either certain or casual, all Securities, either by Bonds or Recognizances, to the King's Majesty by Accomptants and Officers, for faithful exercising of their Offices, and many of his his Debts are taken here. All Proceedings upon any Statute by Information for Custom, Excises, or any other Penal Law. All Proceedings upon the said Bonds, or Recognizances, or any other Bonds taken in the King's Name, by Officers appointed thereunto, under the Great Seal of England, and transmitted hither for Recovery thereof, are properly in this Office; from whence issueth forth Process, to cause all Accomptants to come in and accompt. In the Court of Exchequer there being a Court of Equiry, all Proceedings touching the same are in this Office, with many other Things concerning the King's Revenue. This Office is in the King's Gift.

The Lord-Treasurer's Remembrancer's Office.

Next is the Lord-Treasurer's Remembrancer; whose Office is to make Process against all Sheriffs, Receivers, Bailiffs, &c. for their Accompts, and many other Things of Moment, as Estate Rules, &c. All Charters and Letters-Patent, whereupon any Rents are reserved to the King, are transcribed and sent into this Office by the Clerk of the Petty-Bag, to the end such Monies as are thereby payable to his Majesty, may be transmitted to the Clerk of the Pipe, and Process made to recover the same by the Comptroller of the Pipe. Out of this Office Process issues to levy the 20 l. per Month due from Papish Recusants, when convicted; and also to seize the Two Thirds of their Lands, when Schedules thereof are made by the Clerk of the Pipe, and transmitted hither. Out of this Office Process is also made to levy the King's Fee-Farm-Rents, &c.

When the Auditors of the Revenue have made Schedules of such Arrears, and transmitted them to the Remembrancer, the States of all Imprest Accompts, and other great Accompts, and all other Accompts whatsoever, are also entered in this Office, as well as in the Office of the King's Remembrancer. In this Office there were heretofore twelve sworn Clerks, whereof the two first were called Secondaries. This is also in the King's Gift.

All Accompts which pass the Remembrancer's-Office, are brought to the Office of the Clerk of the Pipe, and remain there, to the end that if there be any determined Debt due by any Accomptant, or any other Person in any such Accompt, the same may be drawn down into the great Roll of the Pipe, or the Pipes thereof, and by the Comptroller of the Pipe taken into his Roll, verbatim, with the great Roll; and Process may be made by him for the Recovery thereof by a Writ, called the Summons of the Pipe, which is in the nature of a Levare facias.

And if upon Summons of the Pipe, a Nichil be returned by the Sheriff, then a Schedule is made of such Debts as are Nichil'd, and sent to the Treasurer's Remembrancer, who makes a long Writ, and annexes the same to it; which Writ is a Capias Fieri Facias & Extendi Facias.

All Tallies which vouch the Payments contained in such Accompts, are examined and allowed by the chief Secondary in the Pipe, and remain for ever after in this Office.

All Accompts of Sheriffs and Bailiffs are made up by the Clerk of the Pipe, and he gives them, and all the other Accomptants before-mentioned, their Quietus est, in case their Accompts be even.

The Clerk of the Pipe makes Leases of the King's Lands, and extended Lands, when he is warranted so to do by the Lord Treasurer and Chancellor of the Exchequer, or Lords Commissioners of the Treasury. And these Leases are sometimes directed to be made under the Great-Seal, but for the most part pass the Exchequer. He hath under him eight Attorneys, whereof the two first are Secondaries.

Comptroller of the Pipe.] He writeth in his Roll all that is in the great Roll; and nothing entred into the great Roll can be discharged without his Privy. And if Nichils be returned, such Schedules are made to the Treasurer's Remembrancer as before is mentioned.

He writeth out the Summons twice every Year to the High Sheriffs, to levy the Debts charg'd in the great Roll of the Pipe.

Clerk of the Pleas.] In his Office all the Officers of the Exchequer, and other privileged Persons, as Debtors to the King, &c. are to have their Privilege to plead, and be impleaded, as to all Matters at the Common-Law: And the Proceedings are accordingly by Declarations, Pleas, and Trials, as at the Common-Law, because they should not be drawn out of their own Court, where Attendance is required. In this Office there are four sworn Attorneys.

Foreign Opposer.] His Office is to oppose all Sheriffs upon the Schedules of the Green-Wax.

Clerk of the Estreats.] His Office is to receive every Term the Estreats, or Extracts, out of the Office of the Remembrancer of the Lord-Treasurer, and to write them out, to be levied for the King; also to make Schedules for such Sums as are to be discharged.

Auditors of the Imprest.] Audit the great Accompts of the King's Customs, Wardrobe, Mint, First-Fruits and Tenths, Naval and Military Expence, Monies imprested, &c.

Auditors of the Revenue.] are Seven.

These Audit all Accompts of the King's Revenue and Taxes given by Act of Parliament.

There are also several Receivers of the King's Revenue, arising from Lands and Rents, whose Accompts the Auditors do make up yearly.

Remembrancer of the First-Fruits.] takes all Compositions for First-Fruits and Tenths, and makes Process against such as pay not the same.

Auditor

Auditor of the First-Fruits.

Receiver of the Revenue of the First-Fruits. The Bishops were Collectors of the Tenth, and accounted annually for the same; but this is altered by Act of Parliament, and an Officer appointed, with the Title of Collector-General.

Deputy-Chamberlains.] There are also two other considerable Officers, called Deputy-Chamberlains; in whose Office at Westminster are preserved all the Counterfoils of the Tallies (whereof more anon) so exactly ranked by Months and Years, that they may presently be found out, to be joined with their respective Stock or Tally, when thereunto required; which being done, and proved true, they deliver the same, attested for a lawful Tally, to the Clerk of the Pipe, to be allowed in the great Roll: But in case any Corruption hath been used, the same is easily and soon discovered, and the Offender severely punished by Fine and Imprisonment.

Other Officers.] There are moreover diverse other Officers, as Clerk of the Parcels, Clerk of the Nichils, the Marshal, the chief Usher of the Exchequer, whose Office is an Office of Inheritance, four Under-Ushers, and six Messengers, whose Offices are all in the Gift of the Chief-Usher. He is also by Inheritance Proclamator of the Court of Common-Pleas, and hath the Gift of all the Ushers also.

Of the other Part of the EXCHEQUER, called by some the LOWER EXCHEQUER, where the King's Revenue is received and disbursed.

THE principal Officer is the Lord-Treasurer, Supremus Aerarij Anglici Quaestor: Or, Tribunus Aerarius Maximus. There is one Secretary.

Next Officer is the Chancellor of the Exchequer, who is also an Officer of great Account and Authority; he hath a principal Power not only in the Exchequer-Court, but also here in the managing and disposing of the King's Revenue: He hath also the Custody of the Exchequer-Seal. He sits in the Court above all the Barons of the Exchequer, and has a Comptrolment over the Lord-Treasurer's Rolls.

He hath the Gift of the Comptroller of the Pipe, and of the Clerk of the Pleas, also of the Clerk of the Nichils, and of the Seal of the Court.

He is moreover an Under-Treasurer, and hath the Gift of the two Praisers of the Court.

Then there are two Chamberlains of the Exchequer, in whose Custody are many ancient Records, Leagues, and Treaties with foreign Princes, the Standards of Monies, Weights and Measures, those ancient famous Books called Dooms-day-Book (which is in two Volumes) and the Black-Book of the Exchequer, whereof whereof the former is Liber Censualis totius Angliæ, the Tax-Book of all England, made by William the Conqueror, wherein is describ'd all the Lands of England, except the Counties of Cumberland, Westmorland, Northumberland, and the Bishoprick of Durham, which might probably have been entered in a third Volume, now lost, with a true Value, and their Owners Names: It was six Years in making, viz. from the 14th to the 20th Year of that King, and called at first Rotulus Wintonia, but since named Dooms-day-Book, because therein was set down an exact Account not only of all the Cities, Towns, and Villages of England, but the Number of Families, of Men, Soldiers, and Husbandmen, Bondmen, Servants, Cattle; how much Money, what Rent, how much Meadow, Pasture, Wood, Tillage, Common, Marsh, Heath, every one possessed: And when any one was cited, or any Difference arose about those Things, and Taxes, &c. there was no Place for denying or deceiving the King when this Book was opened. This Book is kept under three Locks and Keys, not to be looked into under 6 s. 8 d. and for every Line transcribed is to be paid 4 d.

Next is the Auditor of the Receipts of the Exchequer; whose Office is to file the Bills of the Tellers, whereby they charge themselves with all Money received; and to draw all Orders to be signed by the Lord High-Treasurer, having a Warrant from him first so to do, for issuing forth all Monies by Virtue of Privy-Seals, which are recorded by the Clerk of the Pells, and entred in the Office of the said Auditor, and lodg'd in his Office. He also by Warrant of the Lord Treasurer makes Debentures to the several Persons who have Fees, Annuities, or Pensions by Letters-Patent from the King, out of the Exchequer, and directs them for Payment to the Tellers. He receives every Day the State of the Accompt of each Teller; and also weekly certifies the Whole to the Lord High-Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners, who immediately present the Estimate, or Ballance to the King. He makes half-yearly, at Michaelmas and Lady-day, a Book called a Declaration, which contains a methodical Abstract of all Accompts and Payments made in the preceding half Year, and delivers one of them to the Lord-Treasurer, and another to the Chancellor of the Exchequer. By him are kept the several Registers appointed for paying all Persons in Course, upon several Branches of the King's Revenue. He is Scripter-Talliorum, hath five Clerks to manage the whole Estate of Monies received, disbursed, and remaining.

Next these are four Tellers.

Their Office is to receive all Monies due to the King, and thereupon to throw down a Bill through a Pipe into the Tally-Court, where it is received by the Auditor's Clerk, who there attends to write the Words of the said Bill upon a Tally, and then delivers the same to be entred by the Clerk of the Pells,
or

or his Under-Clerk, who there attends to enter it in his Book; then the Tally is cloven by the two Deputy-Chamberlains, who have their Seals; and while the Senior-Deputy reads one Part, the Junior examines the other Part with the other two Clerks.

Clerk of the Bells.] His Office is to enter the Teller's Bill on a Parchment Skin (in Latin Pellis, whence this Office has its Name) and all Receipts and Payments for the King, for what Cause, or by whomsoever, and is in Nature of a Comptroller; hath four Clerks, whereof one is for the Introitus, and another for the Exitus.

In the Tally-Court sit the Deputies of the two Chamberlains, who cleave the Tallies, and examine each Piece a-part; also the Tally-Cutter attends there.

A Tally in the Exchequer, from the French Verb Tailler, and the Italian Tagliare, to cut, is a very ancient and most certain Way of avoiding all Cozenage in the King's Revenue, the like no where else in Christendom; and is after this Manner.

He that pays, or lends the King any Monies, receives for his Acquittance, or Acknowledgement, a Tally, which is a Stick with Words written on it on both Sides, containing the Acquittance proper to express what the Monies received is for; which being cloven asunder by the Deputy-Chamberlains, one Part thereof, called the Stock, is delivered to the Party that pays the Money, and the other Part, call'd Counter-stock, or Counterfoil, remains with them, who afterwards deliver it over to the other Deputies, to be kept till it be called for, and joined with the Stock; after which they send it by an Officer of their own to the Pipe, to be applied to the Discharge of the Accomptant.

This most ancient Way of striking of Tallies, hath been found by long Experience to be absolutely the best Way that ever was invented; for it is morally impossible so to falsify or counterfeit a Tally, but that upon re-joining it with the Counterfoil, it will be obvious to every Eye, either in the Notches, or in the Cleaving, in the Length, or in the Breadth, in the natural Growth, or in the Shape of the Counterfoil.

Other Officers in the Receipt of the Exchequer, are the Ushers of the Receipt, a Tally-Cutter, and four Messengers of the Receipt. The Usher's Duty is to take Care to secure the Exchequer by Day and by Night, and all the Avenues leading to the same, and to furnish all Necessaries, as Books, Papers, &c.

The Court of the DUTCHY-CHAMBER of Lancaster, at Westminster.

THIS Court takes Cognizance of all Causes that any way concern the Revenue belonging to that Dutchy, which hath been annexed to the Crown ever since Henry the Fourth's Time.

The

The chief Judge of this Court is the Chancellor of the Duchy, who is assisted by the Attorney of the Duchy.

There are diverse other Officers of this Court, as may be seen among the Lists.

All the fore-mentioned Courts of Judicature at Westminster are opened four Times a Year, called the Four Terms; viz.

Terms.] Easter-term, which beginneth always the seventh Day after Easter, and lasteth twenty-seven Days.

Trinity-Term, beginneth the fifth Day after Trinity-Sunday, and lasteth twenty Days.

Michaelmas-Term, began heretofore a little after that Feast, but now, by a late Statute, begins the 23d of October, and lasteth thirty-seven Days.

Lastly, Hilary-Term begins now ten Days after St. Hilary, or the 23d of January, and lasteth twenty-one Days.

Affizes are held twice a Year, namely, after the End of Hilary-Term, and after the End of Trinity-Term; the twelve Judges, two by two, ride several Circuits, and at the principal Town of every County, sit to hear and determine all Causes of lesser Moment, both civil and criminal; a most excellent wise Constitution, begun by King Henry II. Anno 1716, who at first divided England into six Circuits (not the same that are now) and to each Circuit allotted three Judges. Wales also is divided into two Circuits, North and South Wales; for which are assigned in like manner two Serjeants at Law for each Circuit. These Judges give Judgment of the Pleas of the Crown, and all Common-Pleas within those Counties, dispatching ordinarily, in two or three Days all Controversies in a County, that are grown to Issue in the aforementioned Courts at London, between Plaintiffs and Defendants, and that by their Peers, a Jury of twelve Men, ex vicinitate, out of the Neighbourhood whereabout the Business lies; so that twice a Year, in England and Wales, Justice may be said to be rightly and speedily administered, even at our own Doors.

Of the Government of COUNTIES, &c.

HAVING given a brief Account of the Civil Government of all England in general, we shall next describe the particular Government of Counties, Hundreds, Cities, Boroughs and Villages.

Justices of the Peace.] For the Civil Government of all Counties, the King makes Choice of some of the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, Lawyers, Men of Worth and Parts, [Men of very mean Fortunes and Talents have within our Memory been made Justices of the Peace, and the Legislature have the last Sessions of Parliament, thought fit to fix 100 l. per Ann. as a Qualification for a Justice] who have their usual Residence in in the County, so many as his Majesty pleaseth, to keep the Peace of the County; and these by Commission under the Great-Seal, are called Justices of the Peace, at first stiled Wardens of the Peace; and such of them whom the King doth more particularly confide in, or respect, are called Justices of the Quorum, from these Words in the Commission, Quorum A. B. unum esse volumus; that is, some Business of more Importance may not be transacted without the Presence or Concurrence of one of them.

One of the principal Justices of Peace and Quorum, is by the King made Custos Rotulorum, so called, because he hath the Custody of the Rolls, or Records of the Sessions, and is to bring them to each Quarter-Sessions.

The Original of Justices of the Peace, is from the fourth Year of Edward the Third.

Their Office is to call before them, examine, and commit to Prison, all Thieves, Murderers, wandring Rogues, those that hold Conspiracies, Riots, and almost all other Delinquents, that may occasion the Breach of Peace and Quiet to the King's Subjects; to commit all such to Prison, as either cannot, or by Law are not to be bailed; that is, cannot be set at Liberty by Sureties (taken for their Appearance at a Place and Time certain) and to see them brought forth in due Time to Trial. [They are also impow'ed to put many Laws and Statutes in Execution, and act in a Judicial Capacity, as in Cases relating to the Poor; the Preservation of the same; the Repairs of High-ways; the Punishment of Vagrants and other dissolute and disorderly Persons.]

Quarter-Sessions.] Every Quarter, or three Months, the Justices meet alternately at the Shire, and other chief Towns in their respective Counties, which are accordingly appointed by the Custos Rotulorum, and there the Grand Inquest, or Jury of the County, is summoned to appear, who upon Oath are to enquire of all Traitors, Hereticks, Thieves, Murderers, Money-Coiners, Rioters, &c. Those that appear to be guilty are by the said Justices committed to Prison, to be tried at the next Assizes, when the Judges go their Circuits afore-mentioned.

Sheriffs.] For the Execution of Laws in every County, except Cumberland, Westmorland, and Durkam, the King every Michaelmas-Term nominates for each County a Sheriff, so called from the Saxon Scyre-Geresfra, Prapositus, or Praefectus Comitatus, a Governour or Guardian of the County; for the Words of the Patent are, Commissimus tibi custodiam Comitatus nostri de N. and he is properly Quasior Provincia, he that gathereth up and accounteth to the King for the Profits of the Shire that come to the Exchequer, but call'd in our Law Latin Vicecomes.

The Sheriff's Office is to execute the King's Mandates, and all Writs directed to him out of the King's Court, to impanel Juries, Juries, to bring Causes and Criminals to Trial, to see the Sentences both in civil and criminal Affairs executed, to wait on and guard the Itinerant Judges twice a Year, so long as they continue within the County, which at the Assizes is perform'd with great Pomp, Splendor, and Feastings. In order to the better executing of his Office, the Sheriff hath attendant his Under-Sheriff, diverse Clerks, Stewards of Courts, Bailiffs of Hundreds, Constables, Goalers, Serjeants, or Beadles, besides a gallant Train of Servants in rich Liveries, all on Horse-back at the Reception of the Judges.

Before 9 Edward II. he was chosen as Knights of the Shire are; but to avoid Tumults it is now thus:

Every Year, about the Beginning of November, the Judges Itinerant nominate six fit Men of each County; that is, Knights or Esquires of good Estates. [It is very common of late Years to put on rich Yeomen or Farmers.] Out of these the Lord-Chancellor, Treasurer, Privy-Counsellors, and twelve Judges, assemble in the Exchequer-Chamber, and make choice of three, of which the King himself after chooseth one to be Sheriff for that Year only, though heretofore it was for many Years, and sometimes Hereditary; as the Cliffords, who by their Descent from Robert de Vipont, were Sheriffs Hereditary of the County of Westmorland, by Charter from King John, as the Earl of Thanet is at this Day.

Furthermore, the Sheriff's Office is to collect all publick Profits, Customs, Taxes [He does not concern himself with the Land-Tax, or any Parliamentary Taxes] of the County, all Fines, Distresses, and Amerciaments, and to bring them into the King's Exchequer, or Treasury at London, or elsewhere, as the King shall appoint: To suppress Riots, execute Writs, secure Prisoners, distrain for Debts, attend the Judges, see the Execution of Malefactors, protect them from the Insults of By-standers, return Knights for Parliament, &c.

The Sheriff of each County hath a double Function: First, Ministerial, to execute all Processes and Precepts of the Courts of Law, and to make Returns of the same. Secondly, Judicial, whereby he hath Authority to hold two several Courts of distinct Nature, the one called the Sheriff's Turn, which he holdeth in several Places in the County, enquiring of all criminal Offences against the Common-Law, not prohibited by any Statute. [There is no such Court as a Sheriff's Turn held at this Day, or has been for many Years past.] The other, call'd the County-Court, wherein he hears and determines civil Causes of the County under forty Shillings, which anciently was a considerable Sum; so that by the great Fall of Monies now, the Sheriff's Authority in that Part is much diminished.

No Suit begins, and no Process is served, but by him: no Execution of the Law but by him. Lastly, he is the chief Conservator of the Peace in the whole County.

Bailiffs.] Every County being subdivided into Hundreds (so called at first, either for containing an hundred Houses, or an hundred Men bound to find Arms) or Wapentakes, so call'd from touching a Weapon when they swore Allegiance, as the Manner at this Day is in Sweden at their solemn Weddings, for the chief Witnesses to lay all their Hands upon a Lance, or Pike. Every such Wapentake, or Hundred, hath commonly a Bailiff, a very ancient Officer, but now of small Authority.

High-Constable.] Also Officers, called High-Constables, Custodis Pacis, first ordained by the Statute of Winchester, 13 Edw. I. for the Conservation of Peace, and View of Armour: They disperse Warrants and Orders of the Justices of the Peace to each Petty-Constable.

Coroners.] There are also in every County two Officers called Coroners, whose Office is to enquire by a Jury of Neighbours, how, and by whom any Person came by a violent Death, and to enter the same upon Record, which is Matter criminal, and a Plea of the Crown, and thence they are called Crowners, or Coroners.

They are chosen by the Freeholders of the County, by Virtue of a Writ out of the Chancery. They were anciently Men of Estates, Birth, and Honour, and therefore in the Reign of Edward III. a Merchant being chosen a Coroner, was removed, quia communes Mercator fuit; whereas he ought to have been a Gentleman, and no Tradesman.

Clerk of the Market.] Every County also hath an Officer called Clerk of the Market, whose Office is to keep a Standard of all Weights and Measures exactly agreeing with the King's Standard kept in the Exchequer, and to see that none other be used in the same County, to seal all Weights and Measures made exactly by the Standard in his Custody, and to burn such as are otherwise. He hath a Court, and may keep and hold a Plea therein.

Of the CIVIL Government of Cities, Boroughs, or Towns Corporate, and Villages.

Mayor and Aldermen.

EVERY City of England, by their Charters or Privileges, granted by several Kings, is a little Commonwealth apart, governed not as the Cities of France and Spain, by a Nobleman or Gentleman placed there by the King, but wholly by themselves. They choose among themselves their own Governour. In Cities a Mayor is chosen commonly out of Twelve Aldermen. In some other Corporations a Bailiff is chosen out of a certain Number of Burgesses.

Citizens are not taxed but by the Officers of their own Corporation, every Trade having some of their own always of the the Council, to see that nothing be enacted contrary to their Profit.

Every City, by Charter from the King, hath Haute, moyenne, & basse Justice, a Jurisdiction among themselves, to judge in all Matters Criminal and Civil, only with this Restraint, That all Civil Causes may be removed from their Courts to the higher Courts at Westminster: Nor have they any Cognizance of Capital Offences.

The Mayor of the City is the King's Lieutenant, and with the Aldermen and Common-Council (as it were, King, Lords, and Commons in Parliament) can make Laws, called By-Laws, for the Government of the City.

He is for his Time (which is but for one Year) as it were a Judge, to determine Matters, and to mitigate the Rigour of the Law.

Boroughs.] The Government of Boroughs (that is to say such of them as are incorporated, for many of them are not) is much after the same manner. In some there is a Mayor, in others one or two Bailiffs, in others the chief Magistrate goes by other Names, as Aldermen, Portreeve, &c. who have equal Power with a Mayor and Sheriffs; and during their Offices, they are Justices of the Peace within their Liberties, and have there the same Power that other Justices of the Peace have in the same County.

Those Towns that send Burgesses to Parliament are what they strictly call Boroughs, without any Regard to their Incorporation, which is not essential to them; and also there are several Corporations which are not Boroughs, such as Kingston in Surry, Southwold in Suffolk, Deal in Kent, and others.

Villages.] For the better Government of Villages, the Lord of the Soil hath ordinarily Power to hold a Court Baron, so called, because anciently such Lords were called Barons, as they still are in Scotland; or else Court-Baron, i. e. Court of Freeholders; as the Barons of Germany are called Freyherren; so the Barons of the Cinque-Ports in England are but the Freeholders of the Cinque-Ports. And this Court may be held every three Weeks.

Petty-Constables.] Also for the Government of Towns and Parishes, there is another very useful Officer, called a Petty-Constable. This Officer is to keep the Peace in case of Quarrels; to search any House for Robbers, Murderers, or others that have any ways broken the Peace; to raise the Hue and Cry after Robbers fled away; to seize upon them, and keep them in the Stocks, or other Prison, till they can bring them before some Justice of the Peace, to whom the Constables are subservient upon all Occasions, either to bring Criminals before them, or to carry them by their Command to the common Prison.

Every

Every little Village hath almost an Epitome of Monarchical Government of Civil and Ecclesiastical Polity within it self; which, if duly maintained, would render us a very happy People.

C H A P. XIV.

Of the MILITARY Government of England.

OF the Military Power of England, both by Land and Sea, the King hath the sole Supreme Power, Government, Command, and Disposition; and neither one nor both Houses of Parliament have any Right to levy any Forces, or make any War Offensive and Defensive, as they have at large declared in Parliament, Anno 14 Car. II. but by the same Act the King is obliged to repay a Month's Pay formerly advanced, before he can raise the Militia; for which Reason it has ever since been raised by Act of Parliament.

Besides his Majesty's Guards afore-mentioned of Horse, there are two Regiments of Foot-Guards, the first consisting of twenty-eight Companies, of sixty-eight Men in each, Officers included; the Second, called the Coldstream Regiment, consisting of Eighteen Companies of sixty-eight Men in each, Officers included. [And there is of late added a third Regiment of Scotts Foot-Guards, consisting of 18 Companies of seventy Private Men in each Company.]

The first General Officer is the Pay-Master-General of all the Land-Forces, who is also Surveyor of the Guards;

An Auditor of the Muster-Rolls;

A Clerk of the Books, who have several Clerks under them.

The next is the Commissary-General, who has under him a Deputy commissioned by the King.

There are Eight Deputy-Commissaries, who have their Commissions from the Commissary-General; and the several Counties in England and Wales are divided into Eight Circuits, and each Commissary is to take care to muster all such Forces as at any time comes into his Circuit. Immediately after each Muster is taken, the said Deputy-Commissaries make a Return of all their Rolls upon Oath to the Deputy-Commissary-General, who keeps one Roll of each Troop and Company, as a Record in his Office; and another Roll is delivered to the Pay-Master-General upon Oath, and signed by the Commissary who musters them, and signed also by two Commission-Officers of each Troop or Company, and the Mayor or Chief Magistrate where each Troop or Company quarters.

K

These

These have their distinct Circuits in the Country, for mustering the Forces which lie in several Garrisons.

The next is the Secretary of War, who has two chief Clerks, the last of which is Messenger to the Secretary.

The next is the Judge-Advocate.

The Chirurgion-General of all his Majesty's Forces.

Of the Standing MILITIA, or Train'd-Bands.

BESIDE the foremention'd Forces there is a Standing Militia by Land of all England, settled in the King, to be governed, and ordered, and enlarged from time to time as his Majesty shall see Occasion. They are at present computed to be near 200,000 Horse and Foot.

For the Management of these standing Land-Forces, the King himself makes choice of diverse of the principal Peers, and by Commission creates them Lord-Lieutenants of the several Counties of England, with Power to arm, array, and form into Companies, Troops and Regiments, to conduct and employ (upon Occasion of Rebellion or Invasion) the Men so arm'd within the Counties and Places for which the said Lords are commissioned, or in any other County, as the King shall give Order, to give Commissions to Colonels, or other commissioned Officers, to present to the King the Names of the Deputy-Lieutenants, who have, in the Absence of the Lord-Lieutenant, the same Power (and these are to be of the prime Gentry of the County) to charge any Person in the County with Horse, Horse-men, and Arms, or Foot-Soldiers and Arms, within the said County, proportionably to their Estates, on condition, that no Person be charged with a Horse unless he hath 300 Pounds yearly Revenue, or 6000 Pounds personal Estate; nor with a Foot-Soldier, unless he hath 50 Pounds yearly Revenue, or 6000 Pounds personal Estate: Those that have meaner Estates are to join Two or Three together to find a Horse and Horse-man, or a Foot-Soldier.

The fore-mentioned Horse and Foot are to muster once or twice a Year, and each Horse-man, during the Time of the Muster, to be allowed him, from whom he serves, 2 s. a Day, and each Foot-Soldier 12 d. a Day.

For furnishing Ammunition,* and other Necessaries, the Lord-Lieutenant or Deputy-Lieutenant may levy every Year one fourth Part (if they judge it expedient) of each Man's Proportion in the Tax of 70,000 l. a Month, upon the whole Kingdom; and in Case of marching against an Enemy, they have Power to cause every Man, so charged, to allow each Soldier one Month's Pay, which the King is after to repay before they may be charged with another Month's Pay.

These are to be commanded only within the Kingdom, for the Security of the King and Kingdom. [The Militia, except whole those in and about London, are seldom raised or mustered of late Years, and very little depended on.] There is always a large Body of standing Troops kept in Pay by the Government. Those voted for the Service of the Year 1736, are, in Great-Britain, only 17,709 Men, and 633,216 l. 10 s. 1 d. was granted for the maintaining them; besides 82,715 l. for the Office of Ordnance, and 212,885 l. for the Ordinary of the Navy, or Naval Forces.

Subservient in the Standing Militia to the Lord-Lieutenant and Deputy-Lieutenant, are the Justices of the Peace of every County, who, upon all Occasions, according to the Orders of their Superiors, are to send their Warrants to the High-Constable of the Hundred, or Petty-Constable of the Parish, &c.

Beacons.] For the better securing of the Kingdom from Foreign Invasion, besides the Ships of War (whereof more anon) there were, upon certain eminent Places of all Parts of England, high Poles erected, whereon were fastned Pitch-Barrels, to be fired by Night, and a Smoak made by Day, thereby to give Notice, in a few Hours, to the whole Kingdom, of the approaching Invasions. These are called Beacons, from the Saxon Word Beacon, or Beacnian, to beckon, or shew by a Sign.

Of the present MARITIME Power belonging to the Crown of Great-Britain.

THE Kingdom of Great-Britain being on all Sides surrounded by the Sea, there will always be a Necessity of Maritime Forces; and as Neighbours grow potent at Sea, the Kings of this Nation will be necessitated to augment their Maritime Forces proportionably.

To the Crown of Great-Britain belongs the Dominion of all the Narrow Seas round about the whole Island of Great-Britain, and by ancient Right thereof it hath had Possession in all Times. First, the Aborigines, or ancient Britons, were possessed thereof, as Mr. Selden makes appear, and in their Right the Romans held it: Then the Saxons having gotten Possession of England, kept that Dominion, their King Edgar, amongst his Royal Titles, called himself Sovereign of the Narrow Seas.

Afterwards the Normans possessing England, claimed, and quietly possessed the same Dominion; in Testimony whereof the Swedes, Danes, Hans-Towns, Hollanders, Zealanders, &c. were wont to ask Leave to pass the British Seas, and to take Licences to fish therein, and to this Day do strike Sail to all the Ships of War belonging to the King, as oft as they pass by any of them, thereby to express that they acknowledge the Sovereignty of the British Seas to belong to this Nation, according to an Ordinance made at Hastings in Sussex, by John King

King of England, about Four Hundred and Fifty Years ago. [Notwithstanding our boasted Dominion of the Narrow Seas, the Dutch take our Herrings on the very Coast of Britain, of which they make some Millions of Money annually, without so much as asking Leave: Nay, they disperse the Shoals of Fish, and disturb our Fisheries in such a Manner, that we make little or no Advantage of them.]

Henry VIII. in the Fifth Year of his Reign, built a Ship, then accounted the biggest that ever had been seen in England, and named it Henry Grace de Dieu, or the Great Henry; it was a 1000 Tuns.

In the Eighth Year of King James I. was built by the Londoners, a Ship of 1200 Tun, and called The Traders Increase; which being lost in the East-Indies, King James caused another to be built of 1400 Tuns; which being given to Prince Henry, was by him named The Prince.

We have now many brave First and Second Rate Ships; and even our Third Rates are now built so large and strong, that they may engage singly with a First Rate Ship of any other Nation: See the List of the Royal Navy. [Mr. Burchet, Secretary to the Admiralty, in his Preface to his Naval History says, "Well may the English be called Lords of the British Seas, since the Royal Navy of England consists of 7 Men of War of 100 Guns, 13 of 90, 16 of 80, 23 of 70, 19 of 60, 47 of 50 (that is, 125 of the Line of Battle) besides 23 of 40, 9 of 30, and 25 of 20; in all 182".]

The Charges of Building a Ship of the First Rate, together with Guns, Tackle, and Rigging (besides Victualling) doth ordinarily amount to about 60,000*l.* Those of lower Rates proportionably.

That the Reader may have a more perfect Idea of the Prodigious Size of a First Rate British Man of War, let him take the following Account, as we received it from the Gentleman that built the Royal Sovereign; viz.

The Royal Sovereign, built at Woolwich by Mr. Fisher Harding, Master Shipwright of his Majesty's Yard at Deptford, was launched the 25th of July, 1701, and is of the following Dimensions.

The Length of the Taffarel to the Head	210	Feet.
The Guns	110.
The Men, full Compliment	1250.
The Breadth	50	Feet.
The Tuns	2000.
The full Tread	158	Feet.
The Draught of Water	22	Feet.
The Cloaths	10,544	Yards.
The Main-Sail in Length	54	Yards.
Disto in Depth	16	Feet 6 Inches.

The

The Main-Mast in Length,	_____	39 Yards.
The Diameter of Ditto	_____	38 Inches.
The Weight of the Anchor	_____	82 C. 1 Q. 14 lb.
The Cable in Length	_____	200 Yards.
The Diameter of Ditto	_____	22 Inches.

To Man the Navy Royal of Great-Britain requires about Thirty-six Thousand Mariners. [In the late Wars there were actually raised 40,000 Men some Years to Man the Royal Navy, and the First and Second Rates were scarce ever all of them in Commission at once.] The Number of Men voted for the Royal Navy this present Year, are about 18,000 which is not half this Nation could upon Occasion number; whereas, according to a judicious Computation, all the Seamen of France do not amount to above one and twenty-Thousand.

The Lord High-Admiral hath under him many Officers of high and low Condition; some at Sea, others at Land; some of a Military, some of a Civil Capacity; some Judicial, others Ministerial. So that the Dominion and Jurisdiction of the Sea may justly be stiled another Commonwealth, or Kingdom, apart; and the Lord High-Admiral of Great-Britain may fitly be stiled, or at least reputed, as a Vice-Roy of the Maritime Kingdom of Great-Britain.

The Lord High-Admiral of Great-Britain doth, by Virtue of his Place, appoint in diverse Parts of the Kingdom his several Vice-Admirals, with their Judges and Marshals, by Patent under the Great-Seal of the High-Court of Admiralty. These Vice-Admirals and Judges do exercise Jurisdiction in Maritime Affairs within their several Limits; and in case any Person be aggrieved by any Sentence or Interlocutory Decree, that has the Force of a Definitive Sentence, he may appeal to the High Court of Admiralty.

Court of Admiralty.

For transacting of Maritime Affairs, the Lord High-Admiral hath Courts of his own, whereof that at London is the Principal or Supreme, where all Procefs and Proceedings run in his Name, and not in the King's, as it doth in all Common Law Courts. In this Court, usually called the Court of Admiralty, he hath a Lieutenant, called Judge of the Admiralty, who is commonly some learned Doctor of the Civil Law.

The Proceedings in this Court, in all Civil Matters, is according to the Civil Law, because the Sea is without the Limits of the Common Law, but under the Admiral's Jurisdiction; therefore the Civil Law only is made use of.

King Edward the Third, who first erected this Court of Admiralty, as some hold, made at Queenborough, 1375.

very excellent Constitutions concerning Maritime Affairs, and many Statutes and Ordinances have been made by other Princes and People, as at Rome, Pisa, Genoa, Marseilles, Barcellona, and Messina.

The Customs and former Decrees of the English Court of Admiralty are there of Force for deciding of Controversies. Under this Court there is also a Court of Equity for determining Differences between Merchants.

In Criminal Affairs, which is commonly about Piracy, the Proceeding in this Court was by Accusation and Information, according to the Civil Law, by a Man's own Confession, or Eye-witnesses, by which any one was to be proved guilty before he could be condemned; but that being found inconvenient, there were two Statutes made by Henry VIII. that Criminal Affairs should be tried by Witnesses and a Jury, and this by a special Commission of the King to the Lord Admiral, wherein some of the Judges of the Realm are ever Commissioners, and the Trial, according to the Laws of England, directed by those Statutes.

Between the Common Law of England and the Admiralty there seems to be Divisum Imperium; for in the Sea, so far as the Low-water Mark is observed, that is counted Infra Corpus Comitatus adjacentis, and Causes thence arising are determinable by the Common Laws; yet when the Sea is full, the Admiral hath Jurisdiction there also (so long as the Sea flows) over Matters done between the Low-water Mark and the Land, as appears in Sir Henry Constable's Case, 5 Report Coke, p. 107.

For Regulating and Ordering his Majesty's Navies, Ships of War, and Forces by Sea, see those excellent Articles and Orders in Stat. 13. Car. II. cap. 9.

Of the NAVY-OFFICE, where the whole Business concerning the King's NAVY ROYAL is managed.

THE Management of the Navy-Royal under the Lord HIGH-ADMIRAL of Great-Britain, is entrusted with the principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy.

The Principal Officers for South-Britain are Four.

Treasurer.] Whose Office is to receive out of the Exchequer by Warrant from the Lord-Treasurer, or Lords-Commissioners executing that Place, and to pay all Charges of the Navy, by Warrant from the principal Officers of the Navy; for which he formerly had a Salary of 220 l. 13 s. 4 d. per Annum, besides 3 d. per Pound out of all Monies paid by him: but but hath now an honourable Allowance certain from his Majesty in Lieu thereof, viz. 2000 l. per Annum, and 800 l. per Annum more for his Instruments.

Comptroller.] The second is the Comptroller of the Navy, whose Office is to attend and comptrol all Payments of Wages, to know the Market Rates of all Stores belonging to Shipping, to examine and audit all Treasurers, Victuallers, and Store-keepers Accompts, &c. His Salary is 500 l. yearly.

Surveyor.] The third is the Surveyor of the Navy, whose Office is generally to know the State of all Stores, and see the Wants supply'd; to survey the Hulls, Masts and Yards, and estimate the Value of Repairs by Indenture; to charge all Boatswains and Carpenters of his Majesty's Navy with what Stores they received; and at the End of each Voyage, to state and audit their Accompts. His Salary is 500 l. per Annum.]

Clerk of the Acts.] The fourth is Clerk of the Acts, whose Office is to record all Orders, Contracts, Bills, Warrants, and other Businesses transacted by the principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy, at the Salary of 500 l. per Annum. In Time of War there is an Extraordinary Clerk of this kind, by reason of the Multiplicity of Business.

The Commissioners of the Navy.

The First executes that Part of the Comptroller of the Navy's Duty which relates to the comptrolling of the Victuallers Accompts. His Salary is 500 l. per Annum.

The Second executes another Part of the said Comptroller's Duty, relating to the Comptrol of the Accompts of the Store-keepers of the several Yards. His Salary is 500 l. per Annum.

The Third resides at Portsmouth, and has the Care of managing the Navy at that Port. His Salary is 500 l. per Annum.

The Fourth resides at Chatham, and has the same Charge of Affairs in the King's Yard there. His Salary is 500 l. per Annum.

A Fifth resides at Plymouth, and discharges the like Employ there.

There are other Commissioners at large, the Number more or less, according to the Exigences of publick Affairs.

The principal Officers and Commissioners do hold their Offices by Patent under the Great-Seal: And since the great Increase of his Majesty's Navy, have several Clerks under them, with Salaries allowed by the King for the Dispatch of the Business of the Navy, under their respective Managements.

Commissioners for Victualling the Navy.

The Victualling of his Majesty's Navy, hath formerly been undertaken by Contract, but is now managed by Commissioners, who keep their Office on Tower-Hill, within the Parish of St. Botolph Aldgate; and these have their Agents also at Chatham, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and other convenient Ports in Great-Britain and Ireland.

Yards.] There are belonging to his Majesty's Navy six great Yards, viz, Chatham, Deptford, Woolwich, Portsmouth, Shireness and Plymouth, where his Majesty's Royal Ships are laid up in Harbour; which Yards are fitted with several Docks, Wharfs, Lanches, and Graving-Places for the Building, Repairing and Cleaning of his Majesty's Ships; and therein are lodged great Quantities of Timber, Masts, Planks, Anchors, and other Materials. There are also convenient Store-houses in each Yard, in which are laid up vast Quantities of Cables, Rigging, Sails, Blocks, and all other Sorts of Stores needful for his Majesty's Navy-Royal.

The King hath also another Yard at Harwich, which is chiefly made use of in the Times of some great Sea-War; and there are also Officers to take Care of the Store-Houses there.

In the afore-mentioned Yards his Majesty hath diverse great Rope-Yards, as at Woolwich, Chatham, Portsmouth, &c. wherein are made Cables, and all Sorts of Cordage for his said Navy.

All the said Officers, and whole Navy-Office, are governed by the Lord High-Admiral.

All the other Officers, as well those in the several Yards, as those belonging to any of his Majesty's Ships, hold their Places by Warrant from the Lord High-Admiral durante bene placito.

A Bear's Charge of the Navy.

The ordinary Charge of his Majesty's Navy for the Year in Time of Peace, continuing in Harbour, is so well regulated, that it amounts to scarce 130,000 l. besides all Charges of Building of Ships, &c. [But this Charge is much encreased at present, as appears by Page 127.] And besides the setting forth of Fleets, which even at the Time when we had only a War with Algiers, amounted at least to 300,000 l. per Ann. as may be easily computed by the Number of Men at Sea in Pay, which were at fewest supposed to be 6000, and are always reckoned to stand the King in 4 l. per Mensen each Man, including all Charges, as Victuals, Wages, Wear and Tear, &c.

Of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich for disabled Sea-men.

Greenwich Hospital, built upon the South Side of the River Thames, not much farther distant from London-Bridge Eastward, than Chelsea Hospital is Westward, doth as much excel excel the latter in Magnificence, Strength, and Usefulness, as it doth in its Capaciousness, being designed for about 1500 Seamen.

The great Court to the River is one hundred and twenty Yards in Length, and ninety Yards in Breadth, flanked on each Side by a Range of Stone-building, near one hundred Yards in Length, which, for Regularity of Architecture, and Exactness of Workmanship, may vie with any in Europe; that upon the West having been designed as part of a Palace for King Charles the Second. Parallel to these, upon the East and West, are other Ranges of Building of the same Extent, making two Courts of about twenty Yards wide, between these and the fore-mentioned.

The Ends of these Buildings facing the River, form most beautiful Pavilions of Stone-Work of near sixty Yards in Length, on each Side of the great Court, which makes the whole Extent of Building to the North, about two hundred Yards.

The Facades of these Buildings to the River, as well as the Portico's in the Middle of their East and West Fronts, consist of a noble Disposition of Corinthian Architecture, formed upon eight Columns, and as many Pilasters on each Side, of near twelve Yards in Height, crowned with a very rich Entablature, which surrounds the Building; upon which at each Extremity there is raised a well-proportioned Attic and Ballustrade.

The Body of these Fabricks is of Rustick-work of Portland Stone, admirably fixed to the ornamental Parts of the Structure.

Before the Pavilions lies the Stone-wharf to the River, of more than three hundred Yards in Length, in the Middle of which are very handsome Stairs to the Hospital, as well as others at each End, for the Service of the Town.

At the South End of the great Court, upon a small Ascent, is a Piazza, running Southward one hundred and fifty Yards in Length, and forty Yards in Breadth, having on each Side a Collonade with Doric Pillars, one hundred and fifty Yards in Extent, with an Entablature and Ballustrade; making a Communication in the Dry between the Buildings adjoining. These Collonades lead to the Vestibules of the Hall on the West-Side, and of the Chapel on the East-Side, over each of which rises a noble Cupola of about twelve Yards in Diameter, and more than forty Yards in Height.

The Cieling of the great Hall, about thirty-seven Yards long, and five Yards broad, has been very finely painted by our famous Countryman, Sir James Thornhill, in Honour of the Founders, King William and Queen Mary, of Blessed and Immortal Memory, with a vast Variety of Historical Figures, chiefly respecting Navigation; and the Officers Hall, which its laid open to the other by one great Arch, making about sixteen Yards in Length, and twelve in Breadth, is now painted both upon the Cieling and Sides by the same Hand, in Memory of the Benefactions of the late Queen Anne, and King George I. And as these Pieces are very justly esteemed inferior to none in Europe of the like Dimensions, for Correctness of Design and Beauty of Painting, so they produce a constant Income from the Generosity of Persons who go to see the Hospital, which is very charitably applied to the Maintenance and Mathematical Education of the Sons of as many Sailors as can be supported by it.

The Colonnades, before-mentioned, make Returns towards the East and West, as well facing the River to the North, as the Park to the South; so that nothing can be conceived more magnificent in Architecture, than the Prospect this Hospital affords from the River, extending it self two hundred Yards in Front, and in Depth near two hundred and twenty Yards, all of the most beautiful Stone-work. The View through the Piazza is closed by a noble House belonging to the Crown, which by the Royal Favour has hitherto been always the Governour's Habitation, seated at the Foot of the Park, above four hundred Yards distant from the River; but the most agreeable Terminations of the Whole, are the Plantations and rising Ground of the Park it self, which, at the Interval of less than half a Mile, is near as high as the Top of the Cupola.

On the Flanks of this Hospital, to the East and West, are very handsome Dormitories, or Wards, for the Sailors, of more than two hundred Yards Extent from North to South, with proper Entrances from the Town in the Intervals of the Buildings.

Present State
 OF GREAT-BRITAIN.

BOOK III. PART I.

Of the Manners, Customs, Laws, &c. of that Part of Great-Britain call'd ENGLAND.

CHAP. I.

Of Religious Manners, viz. of the CLERGY; their Names, Orders, Privileges, Revenues, Magnificence, &c.

Names.]  HE Clergy were so called, because they are God's Κλῆρος, or Portion; for altho' all Christians may be stiled God's Portion as well as God's Ser- vants, yet among Christians, those Persons whom God hath set apart, and separated from common Use to his Service, to be as it were his Domestick Servants, are more peculiarly the Lord's Portion: And therefore from the first Age of Christianity, the Persons so set apart, have been called Clerici, Clerks, or Clergy.

Orders.] The Clergy of the Church of England are composed of three Orders, Bishops, Priests and Deacons. Bishops in England are made in this manner:

When

When any Bishop's See becomes vacant, the Dean and Chapter of that Cathedral giving Notice thereof to the King, and humbly requesting, that his Majesty will give them Leave to choose another; the King hereupon grants to the Dean his Congé d'Eslire, which in French (wherein it was anciently penn'd) signifies, Leave to elect. Then the Dean summons a Chapter, or Assembly, of the Prebendaries, who are bound to elect the Person recommended by the King's Letters, under Pain of a Pramunire. The Election is then certified to the Party elected, and if he accepts it, it is certified to the King and the Archbishop of the Province; whereupon the King gives his Royal Assent under the Great-Seal of England, which is exhibited to the Archbishop of the Province, with Command to confirm and consecrate him. Hereunto the Archbishop subscribes fiat Confirmatio, and gives Commission under his Archiepiscopal Seal to his Vicar-General, to perform all the Acts required for perfecting the Confirmation of the Elected Bishop.

The Vicar-General then, in the Name of the Archbishop, sends forth a Citation, summoning all Opposers of the said Election, or Person elected, to appear at a certain Time and Place, especially assigned, to make their Objections. This is done by an Officer of the Arches, usually at Bow-Church in Cheapside, London, by Proclamation three times, and then affixing the said Citation to the Church-Door, for all People to read, the said Officer returns an authentick Certificate thereof to the Archbishop and Vicar-General. At the Day and Place assigned for the Appearance of the Opposers, the Vicar-General sits: Then the Proctor for the said Dean and Chapter exhibits the Royal Assent, and the Commission of the Archbishop; which being read and accepted by the Vicar-General, the Proctor exhibits the Proxy from the Dean and Chapter, and then presents the Elected Bishop, and returns the Citation, and desires the Opposers to be publickly called three times: Which being done accordingly, he accuseth their Contumacy; and, for Penalty thereof, desires that the Business may proceed; which the Vicar-General, in a Schedule, by him read and subscribed, doth order. Next the Proctor giving a summary Petition, wherein is deduced the whole Process of Election and Consent, desires a Time to be assigned to prove it; which the Vicar-General admits and decrees. After which the Proctor exhibits the Royal Assent, with the Elected Bishop's Assent, and the Certificate to the Archbishop, and desires a Term presently to be assigned to hear final Sentence; which the Vicar-General decrees. Then the Proctor desires that all Opposers should again be called; which being thrice publickly done, and none appearing, or opposing, they are pronounced Contumacious, and a Decree made to proceed to Sentence, by a schedule read and subscribed by the said Vicar-General. Then the Elect Person takes the Oaths of Supremacy, Simony and Canonical Obedience.

Next, the Judge of the Arches reads and subscribes the Sentence; after which usually there is an Entertainment made for the Officers and others there present.

After the Confirmation, then according to the King's Mandate, is the solemn Consecration of the Elected Bishop; which is done by the Archbishop, with the Assistance of two other Bishops.

Next goes forth a Mandate from the Archbishop to the Archdeacon of his Diocese, to instal the Bishop elected, and confirmed, and consecrated: Which Instalment is almost after the same Manner in all Cathedrals, and is usually thus: Upon any Day, between the Hours of Nine and Eleven, in the Presence of a Publick Notary, the Bishop Elect, or his Proxy, which is most usual, is introduced into the Cathedral-Church by the Archdeacon of Canterbury; by whom, or his Proxy, all the Bishops of that Province are installed: And first he declares his Assent to the King's Supremacy, and swears, That unless he be otherwise dispensed with, he will be Resident according to the Custom of that Cathedral, and observe the Customs of the said Church, and cause others to observe the same. Then the Archdeacon, with the Petty-Canons, and Officers of the Church, accompany the Bishop up to the Choir, and there place him in the Seat prepared for the Bishops, between the Altar and the Right-side of the Choir; and then the Archdeacon pronounces these Words in Latin; Ego, autoritate mihi commissa, induco & inthronizo Reverendum in Christo Patrem Dominum, N. N. Episcopum, & Dominus custodiat suum introitum & exitum ex hoc nunc, & in seculum. Amen.

Then the Sub-Dean and the Petty-Canons sing the Te Deum; mean while the Bishop is again conducted from his own Place to the Dean's Seat, and there, in token of taking real Possession, he stands till Te Deum is ended, together with other Prayers, the Archdeacon reading some Versicles, as, O Lord, save this thy Servant N. our Bishop (the People answering) And send him Health from thy Holy Place, &c. Then the Archdeacon reads a short Collect for the Bishop by Name. After Prayers the Bishop is conducted into the Chapter-House, and there placed on a high Seat. Then the Archdeacon and all the Prebendaries and Officers of the Church come before the Bishop, and acknowledge Canonical Obedience to him. Finally, the Publick Notary is by the Archdeacon required to make an Instrument, declaring the whole Matter of Fact in this Affair.

Then the said Bishop is introduced into the King's Presence, to do his Homage for his Temporalities, or Barony, by kneeling down, and putting his Hands between the Hands of the King, King, sitting in a Chair of State, and by taking of a solemn Oath, To be True and Faithful to his Majesty (which Oath is read to him by one of the Principal Secretaries of State) and that he holds his Temporalities of him.

Lastly, the New Bishop compounds for the First-fruits of his Bishoprick; that is, agrees for his first Year's Profits, to be paid to the Corporation for Augmenting the Benefices of the Poor Clergy within three Years.

The Translation of a Bishop from one Bishoprick to another differs only in this from the Manner of making a Bishop, that there is no Consecration.

The Translation of a Bishop to be Archbishop, differs only in the Commission, which is directed by his Majesty to four or more Bishops to confirm him.

None may by the Canons be admitted a Bishop 'till he is full thirty Years old.

The Ordination of Priests and Deacons is four times a Year; upon the several Sundays in the Ember-Weeks, or the Quatuor Tempora, as the Canonists call them, in which the Church puts up solemn Prayers, with Fasting, to implore a Blessing from God upon the Bishops in the Performance of that great Work. No Ordination can be performed but by a Bishop lawfully consecrated by another Bishop.

None is to be ordained Priest 'till he be twenty-four Years of Age; nor a Deacon, 'till he is at least twenty-three current.

How a Clergyman becomes settled in a LIVING.

Upon the Vacancy of a Church, the Clergyman desiring to succeed, having obtained the Consent of the Patron lawfully and honourably, he must get a Presentation Sign'd and Seal'd by him in this, or some such like Form.

Form of a Presentation to a LIVING.

R Everendo in Christo Patri & Domino, H. Divina Permissione, I. Episcopo ejusque vicario in Spiritualibus generali, A. B. Armiger indubitatus Patronus Ecclesie Parochialis de C. in Comitatu D. Salutem in Domino sempiternam. Ad Ecclesiam de C. Prædictam vestra Dioceseos modo per mortem [if void by the Death of the last Incumbent; or modo per Resignationem, if by Resignation; or, per Cessionem, if by taking a second Living without Qualification; or, per Deprivationem, if by Deprivation] E. F. ultimi incumbentes ibidem jam vacantem, & ad meam donationem pleno jure spectantem; dilectum mihi in Christo, G. H. Clericum in Artibus Magistrum Paternitati vestre presento humiliter supplicans quatenus præfatum, G. H. ad dictam Ecclesiam admittere, eumque Rectorem [if it be a Rector; or Vicarium, if a Vicarage] ejusdem Ecclesie instituere cum suis juribus, & pertinentiis mentis universis, ceteraq; expedire, & peragere qua vestro in hac parte incumbunt Officio pastoralis, dignemini cum favore. In cujus rei testimonium his presentibus sigillum meum apposui, Datum die Annoq; Regni Domini nostri Georgii, Dei Gratia, Magnæ Britannię, Franciæ, & Hiberniæ, Regi, Fidei Defensoris, &c. Annoq; Domini

Which Presentation the Clerk presented must carry to the Bishop of that Diocese in which the Church is, or to his Vicar-General: Or if the Bishoprick be vacant, to the Guardian of the Spiritualities: And he must carry with him, and exhibit, if required, Letters-Testimonial, either from the Master and Fellows of the College where he last resided, or under the Hands and Seals of three, at least, Reverend Divines, who knew him well for three Years last past, and can give a good Account of his Virtue, Uniformity and Learning, in this, or some such like Form.

Form of a TESTIMONIAL.

CUM antiquus & probatus Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ mos sit, ut qui ad literarum studium vitæ probitatem adjunxerint, publico hominum fide dignorum testimonio honestarentur; nos, quorum nomina infra scripta sunt, testamur, perquam eruditum & delectum nobis in Christo, A. B. in Artibus Magistrum per triennium proxime elapsam assiduam Officio suo operam dedisse, vitamque, & mores suos pie & sobrie instituisse; dignumq; judicamus qui ad quilibet munus in Ecclesiâ promoveatur, & quam de eo opinionem concepimus eandem apud omnes libere profiteamur. In cujus rei testimonium sigilla nostra presentibus apposuimus. Dat. die. . . . Anno Dom.

Such a Testimonial as this is always indispensably required before Holy Orders are conferred; and the Bishop demands it even from a Priest, before he admits him to a Benefice.

Note, That if any one living in a certain Diocese, and not in either of the two Universities, go to the Bishop of another Diocese for Orders, he must have Letters Demissory from the Bishop of that Diocese where he last resided, to the other Bishop; and so he ought to have, if he goes for a Living.

Note also, That the Presentation must be tendered to the Bishop within 182 Days after the Living is vacant, else it lapses to the Bishop; and if the Bishop then doth not collate in half a Year more, it lapses to the Archbishop; and if the Archbishop doth not collate in half a Year more, it lapses to the King; and the next Presentation continues so, 'till the King (if the Living be 20*l.* per Annum in the Valuation-Book, or the Lord-Chancellor, if under 20*l.*) presents, be it when it will; for Nullum tempus occurrit Regi. After this, the Person

Person to be admitted is examined; and if he be found duly qualified, the Bishop, or his Surrogate, institutes him in these, or other Words: Instituto te Rectorem Ecclesie Parochialis de & habere Curam Animarum & accipe Curam tuam & meam.

And before he be instituted, he must subscribe to this Declaration following:

I A. B. do declare, That no Foreign Prince, Person, Prelate, State or Potentate, hath, or ought to have, any Jurisdiction, Power, Superiority, Pre-eminence, or Authority, Ecclesiastical or Spiritual, within this Realm: And that I will conform to the Liturgy of the Church of England, as it is now by Law established.

Then a Mandate is issued out, under the Bishop's Seal, to the Archdeacon of the Place, who himself, or by some Clergyman whom he shall appoint, is to induct the Clerk into his Living; which is done by Delivery of the Bell-rope; and then the new instituted Clerk being left alone in the Church, he tolls the Bell; and now he is inducted.

Within two Months after this he must in the said Church, during Divine Service (i. e. after some Part of the Church Service, and before the Whole is finished) read the XXXIX Articles of Religion, and declare aloud his unfeigned Assent and Consent to all that is therein contained, positively, and without any Reserve, one or two substantial Parishioners reading along with him, who may testify he omitted no Part. Likewise, within two Months after his Induction, he must read the Book of Common-Prayer, upon the same Lord's-Day, both Forenoon and Afternoon; that is, the whole Service of the Church appointed for that Day, as it is there appointed; and likewise declare his Assent and Consent to all therein contained in these Words.

I A. B. do declare my unfeigned Assent and Consent to all and every Thing contained and prescribed in, and by the Book, intitled, The Book of Common-Prayer, and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the Use of the Church of England; together with the Psalter, or Psalms of David, Pointed as they are to be Sung or Said in Churches; and the Form and Manner of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons.

After he hath subscribed the Declaration afore-mentioned, he must have a Certificate from the Bishop, or Vicar-General, of his having so done.

So likewise within three Months after his Institution, upon some Lord's Day, during Divine Service, he must publicly and and openly read his Certificate from the Bishop, or Vicar-General, of his Subscription to the said Declaration, and he must at the same Time read the said Declaration itself.

And if he hath failed in any of the aforesaid Things, he hath forfeited his Living.

And whenever any Parson, or Vicar, goes to Law for Dilapidations, Tithes, or any thing belonging to the Church, if the Defendant insist upon it, he must prove the doing of all these Things.

Therefore he must have credible Witnesses when he subscribes before the Bishop.

And two credible Parishioners having read along with him the XXXIX Articles, should indorse upon the Book in which they read, their Attestation; which Book so attested, the Parson is to keep by him safely.

So likewise some intelligent Parishioners must attest under their Hands, that such an One, on such a Day, read the Common Prayer and Declaration as aforesaid; and all these Attestations are to be carefully preserved.

See more in the Acts of Uniformity, printed before the Book of Common-Prayer.

Privileges of the Clergy.

Of Privileges, some belonging to Archbishops, some to Bishops, as they are so, and some belong to them, and the inferior Clergy, as they are Ecclesiasticks, or Church-men.

Clergymens Goods are not to pay Tolls in Fairs and Markets.

No Clergyman may be compelled to undergo any personal Functions, (as to be Sheriff, Constable, Overseer of the Poor, &c.) or Services of the Common-wealth.

All Clergymen are free from the King's Purveyors, the King's Carriages, the King's Post, &c. for which they may demand a Protection from the King, cum Clausula nolumus.

If a Clergyman acknowledges a Statute, his Body shall not be taken by Vertue of any Process thereupon; for the Writ runs, Si Laicus sit, &c.

Clergymen are not obliged to appear at Sheriff's Turns, or Views of Frank-Pledge, there to take their Oath of Allegiance; the ancient Laws presuming, That those whose principal Care and Office should be to teach the People Loyalty and Allegiance to their King, could not themselves want Loyalty.

No Preacher may be disturbed, vexed, or molested, while he is preaching, or officiating.

By Magna Charta, no Clergyman is to be fin'd, or amerced, according to his Spiritual Means, but according to his Temporal Estate, and according to the Crime committed.

The Goods of Clergymen are discharged, by the Common Law of England, from Tolls and Customs (si non exercent Merchandizas de eisdem) of Average, Pontage, Murage, Pavage, for which they have the King's Writ to discharge them.

If a Clergyman have Lands, by the Tenure of which he is subject to be Bailiff, Reeve, or Beadle, and be chosen into any such Office by reason thereof, he hath a Cursory Writ out of the Chancery to discharge himself.

The Clergy being by their Function prohibited to wear a Sword, or any Arms (their Habit being alone their Defence) cannot serve in Person in War; they serve their Country otherwise, and for that Service have always been thought worthy of their Spiritual Profits and Revenues, and of the King's Protection.

A Clergyman is not bound to the Leet, nor to follow the Hue and Cry.

A Clerk in Holy Orders convict of a Crime for which the Benefit of the Clergy is allowable, shall not, upon the producing his Orders, be burnt in the Hand.

A Clerk in Holy Orders, at this Day, shall have his Clergy ad infinitum, from Time to Time; which no Lay man can have above once.

The Sheriff may not intermeddle with the Clergy in respect of their Spiritual Promotions, but return, Quod Clericus est benediciatus in Episcopatu non habet Laicum feodum in Baliva mea. And this Privilege is confirmed to them by Magna Charta. For general Words do not affect them: Therefore if a Robbery be committed, and the Hundred be brought into Trouble for it, it is not understood that the Minister should contribute, though the Words are Gentes demorantes. So they are not to be assessed for Watching and Warding, nor for mending the High-ways, &c.

Revenues of the Clergy.

The first Kings of England had all the Lands of England in Demefn. The second sole Monarch among the Saxon Kings, Ethelwolphus, Anno 855, by the Advice of his Nobles, gave for ever to God and the Church, both the Tithes of all Goods, and the Tenth Part of all the Lands of England, free from all Secular Service, Taxations and Impositions whatsoever. The Charter of Donation is to be seen in Ingulphus and other Authors; which Charter thus ends, Qui augere voluerit nostram Donationem (as many pious Kings and Nobles since have done) augeat Omnipotens Deus dies ejus prosperos; si quis vero mutare vel minuire presumpserit, noscat se ad Tribunal Christi rationem redditurum. He that shall add to our Donation, may the Almighty God encrease his happy Days; but if any one shall presume presume to change or diminish it, let him know, that he must give an Account thereof at the Tribunal of Christ.

This solemn Sanction was afterwards confirmed by diverse Acts in following Reigns, as of Edmund, Edgar, Etheldred, Alfred, and William the Conqueror; so that the Clergy of England (whether they have Jus Divinum or no) have an ancienter Right, by Common Law, to their Tithes, than any Lay-Subject can shew for his Lands in Fee-simple.

William the Conqueror, at his coming into England, found the Bishopricks then in being so richly endowed with Lands, that he erected them all into Baronies, and every Barony then consisted of Thirteen Knights Fees at least.

The Revenues of the Bishopricks are very much impaired since the Reformation; for the Great Men in the beginning of Queen Elizabeth's Reign, forced the Bishops of many Sees to surrender many of their best Manours, and in lieu of them to accept appropriate Tithes, and in some Places no Compensation at all. By this Means some Sees were exceedingly impoverished, as Exeter and Landaff, and others very much hurt.

Whenever Bishops go through Dioceses upon Episcopal Visitations, all the Clergy are obliged to pay them certain Procurations, to enable them to bear that Expence: But then those Procurations are never paid, unless a Bishop visits either by himself or his Proxy.

Tithes and First-Fruits were anciently paid, as is believed, to the several Diocesans, as was continued to the Bishop of Norwich, 'till Henry VIII. deprived him thereof, and the Pope of all the rest: Moreover, all Cathedral Churches were by diverse Kings and Nobles richly furnished with Lands, for the plentiful Maintenance of a Dean, and a certain Number of Prebendaries.

The Revenues of the inferior Clergy in England are generally very small, and insufficient; near a third Part of the best Benefices in England being anciently, by the Pope's Grant, appropriated to Monasteries towards their Maintenance, were, upon the Dissolution of Monasteries, made Lay-Fees. Besides what hath been taken by secret or indirect Means, through corrupt Compositions, Compacts, and Customs in many Parishes, there are also very many large Estates wholly exempt from paying Tithes, as Lands belonging to Monasteries, of which about 190 were dissolved in Henry the VIIIth's Time, of between 200 and 3500 l. per Annum Value a-piece; which, at a Medium of 1500 l. per Annum each, amounts to 285,000 l. per Annum Tithe-free, besides all the lesser Priories, Abbies, and Monasteries.

Such has been the unhappy Condition of the English Clergy, from the Reformation down to these present Times, 'till it pleased the late Queen ANNE, of blessed Memory, to take the same into her Princely Consideration; and having in the first Place remitted all the Arrears of Tenths due from small Livings, not exceeding 30 l. per Annum, to signify to the Commons in Parliament assembled, That to the End a Fund might be settled for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, she would make a Grant of her whole Revenue of First-Fruits and Tenths: [But one Man holding two Livings, besides, perhaps, a Deanary or Prebendary, is very hard on the Clergy in general] Of which see more in Chap. IX. concerning Societies for Advancement of Religion, &c.

During the Vacancy of a See, or when the Bishop is employed by the King in publick Negotiations beyond Sea, the Law provides an Officer in his Place, to whom Presentations may be made, and by whom Institutions, Admissions, &c. may be given; which Officer is called Guardian of the Spiritualities. The Office is sometimes executed by the Archbishop of the Province, or his Vicar-General, or the Dean and Chapter of the vacant See.

Papists.] The Papists are not very numerous. They abound chiefly in Lancashire, Staffordshire and Sussex. In the Trading Towns, if we except London, there are very few, and their Numbers in the Country would be much less, if they were not supported by so many Gentlemen of their Party, who have not yet been brought to renounce the Errors of their Forefathers. They are generally very zealous in their Way, and very intent upon gaining Proselytes; for which Reason it has been thought adviseable to check their Progress by several Penal Laws, some made formerly, others since the Revolution; and yet, though they are not openly and directly tolerated, they enjoy, through the Gentleness of the English Government, greater Freedom than is allowed to any Protestants in any Roman Catholick Countries in Europe, though those Protestants have never been convicted of Practices tending to overthrow the Constitutions under which they have lived, which has been but too often experienced of the Papists amongst ourselves.

The other Dissenters who are tolerated by Law in England, may be reduced into four Classes, Presbyterians, Independents, Anabaptists, (or as they call themselves, Baptists) and Quakers.

Presbyterians and Independents.] How widely soever these formerly differed among themselves, yet there is now very little Difference between them. In the Doctrinal Parts of Christianity they agree with the Church of England, as her Doctrines are set down in the XXXIX Articles. The Differences lie in the outward Administration of Ecclesiastical Government, who shall appoint the Governors of the Church, and what Sub-ordination there shall be or not be between them. The Presbyterians allow of no Sub-ordination in the Persons of their Ministers; but then they teach, that every Minister ought also to be obedient to the Class under which he lives, and that Class to a Synod Provincial, National or Occasional; and and that the Power of Ordination ought to reside in the Class; and that none ought to administer the Sacraments that are not ordain'd by the Imposition of Hands of other Ministers. In the Government of the Church they call in Lay-Elders; and for the taking Care of the Poor, they make use of Deacons. This, which is the Discipline of the Kirk of Scotland, where also a fuller Account shall be given of it, has been very little used since the Restoration of King Charles II. in England.

Anabaptists.] The great constituent Doctrine of these Men, is their entire disallowing of Infant-Baptism; and in the Baptism of Adults, they constantly making use of Dipping. In appointing Pastors, some of them use Imposition of Hands. Some, though not many of them, scruple the Lawfulness of paying Tithes, and some observe the Jewish Sabbath. The Number of these, as distinct from the former, is comparatively very small, most of them being listed under the former Denominations.

Quakers.] These are a distinct Body from all the other Dissenters, disagreeing in Doctrine and Practice from all alike, and teaching, in truth, a distinct Religion from every other Body of the Christians throughout the World. Their Adversaries have of late Years charged them with a Denial of all the Fundamentals of Christianity. They are a distinct Political Body, govern'd with great Regularity by Laws and Rules of their own making: And in their outward Deportment, they study to appear as contrary to the rest of Mankind as they possibly can.

For their Faith, the fairest Account we can take of it will be from an Apology which Robert Barclay, one of their own Body, presented to King Charles II.

In this there is no Mention of a Trinity of Persons in the Godhead; nothing of the Incarnation of Jesus Christ, and of his being actually thereupon God Man, of the Plenary Satisfaction which he gave to the Divine Justice for the Sins of Men by his Death; of his Ascension into Heaven with the same Body with which he appear'd to St. Thomas after his Resurrection; of his constant Intercession at the Right-hand of the Father of all Mankind; nor of the Resurrection of the Body.

These Articles the Quakers have been charg'd with denying, before the Writing of Robert Barclay's Apology, and more vigorously since. In Defence for Themselves they say, That they own the Three that bare Record in Heaven, 1 John v. 7. But the Terms, Person and Trinity they reject, as not spiritual; and they say farther, That the Word Person is too gross to express such an Union. They refuse therefore to subscribe the Nicene and Athanisian Creeds, and they seem to accuse the Doctrines therein contained of Polytheism. As to the Doctrine of the Incarnation, as the Church of England holdeth it, they are not clear.

clear. They keep to no Scripture-Phrases, and own, that the God-head dwelt bodily in Jesus: But whether they mean any more thereby, than that the Light, which they call the Christ within, dwelt in the Man Christ Jesus fully, and was given to him without Measure, is uncertain: For when they have been charg'd with affirming, That there is no other Christ but what is within them, they reply thus: "When we say, there is no other Christ than what is within us, we say true, because Christ, as God, cannot be divided; and the Measure, or Manifestation of the Spirit of Christ in us, is not another, but a Manifestation of the same Christ, which did in Fulness and Bodily dwell in the Man Jesus." They never speak of the Hypostatical Union of the two Natures, Divine and Human, in the Person of Jesus Christ. Some of them have been charg'd with allegorizing away the whole History of the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ at Jerusalem, and of his Resurrection and Ascension; but this their Vindicators deny, and many of them have been very explicit in their Acknowledgment of the Reality of that History; though they utterly deny, "That the outward Person who suffer'd his Body to be crucified by the Jews without the Gates of Jerusalem, is properly the Son of God." It will not be difficult to collect how far they agree with the Church of England in the Doctrine of the full and sufficient Oblation and Satisfaction which Jesus Christ made for the Sins of all Mankind at his Death. As to the Resurrection of the Body, what they positively mean by it, they have never yet explained: Negatively they assert, That the same Natural and Fleishly Body, which was here upon Earth, shall not rise, and in that they are very explicit, and pretend to prove their Assertion from St. Paul's Account of the Resurrection.

A famous Leader of this Sett was one George Fox, a Journeyman Shoe-maker of Manchester, who first preach'd up these Doctrines at Derby, in the Year 1650. He was a very illiterate Man, and so continued to his Dying-day. At first he was followed by several Mechanicks and Women in the North of England, who were accus'd of Blasphemy, and himself was try'd for it at Lancaster, and acquitted. By Degrees they got Southward; and they are now reckon'd to be above 50,000 in Great-Britain. For the first ten Years after their Appearance, many of them in their Meetings were seiz'd with such strange Shakings and Convulsions, that they appear'd to be possess'd; but these Motions have been long disus'd: But from thence they had the Name of Quakers, which they have never taken to themselves, but have assum'd the Title of The People of God; and when they speak one of another, they use the Word Friend. At first they had no such thing as Church-Government, and every Man spake, and acted, and directed, and admonish'd all Things, as he apprehended himself to be directed by the Light within; but as they grew numerous, they found this would not keep them sufficiently together; and so under the Direction of their first Founder, George Fox, they form'd themselves into a regular Body, and observ'd a stated Discipline, in which (though without pretending to any thing like Coercion) they are as united, and understand the State of one another, as well as any Society of Men whatsoever, Civil or Ecclesiastical, in Christendom.

Light

Their Meetings, by which they act as a Society, are of several Sorts, Monthly, Quarterly, Yearly, Second-days Meetings, and Meeting of Sufferings.

Their Monthly and Quarterly Meetings are held in the several Countries in which they live; and according as their Settlements are more numerous and thick, so more or fewer Towns send Deputies to these Assemblies. In their Meetings they take Examinations of the State of every Town in which they dwell; they enquire who stand fast to their Rules and Orders, and who backslide from them; who write against them; who pays Tithes and Church-Wardens Rates; who suffer for Nonpayment of either; and who are marry'd by Priests; and accordingly they censure, or encourage. There they Excommunicate, and there, upon Occasion, they receive into Communion again: And of all this they keep exact Registers in Books provided for that Purpose.

From these Monthly and Quarterly Meetings Appeals lie to their Yearly ones. These Yearly Meetings are always held in London, which is the Centre of Communion of all the Quakers throughout the World: Thither Deputies come from all Parts of Great-Britain, Ireland, Holland, Germany, and the Plantations; in which last they have many numerous Settlements. This Meeting is usually held in White-Hart-Court in Grace-Church-Street, in a commodious Room built on purpose: Thither are transmitted Accounts of whatsoever has been in all Monthly and Quarterly Meetings all the World over: There Directions are given concerning Friends Behaviour, relating to Tithes and Rates, and using Guns in Ships; concerning dispersing of Books: There the publick Accompts are audited, and proper Instruments are given to their respective Deputies, for them to observe at their Return home: They send also a Yearly Epistle to all their Settlements, giving Instructions and Admonitions proper to the Occasion, to be read in the Monthly and Quarterly Meeting of Friends throughout the World.

The Second Day's Meeting is a standing Committee, residing at London, which meets every Monday in the Year; its Members are their principal Teachers residing in, or near the City; their Business is to attend every particular Exigency relating to the Body, which may happen from one Yearly Meeting to another; but more particularly they are to examine, approve, and license all Books printed or reprinted for the Service (as they call it) of the Truth.

The Meeting of Sufferings is one of the ancientest Assemblies they have: Its regular Time of Meeting is every six Weeks; its Business is to receive Complaints out of all Parts of England and Wales, from those who have suffered for Non-payment of Tithes and Rates, and to take Care how to procure them Relief, either by sending them Money, or by soliciting their Causes above, or both. This Meeting has a Fund on purpose to carry on this Affair: Sometimes they receive Directions from the Yearly Meetings, to send down Directions to the Monthly and Quarterly Meetings concerning Friends Books, in which Matter the Quakers are particularly careful and exact. [These People are more indulged than any other Subjects: They are not oblig'd to take the Oaths to the Government; their bare Word or Affirmation is held sufficient; and whereas they used to affirm in the Name of GOD, this was looked upon as too great an Imposition on this pious Generation, and the Word GOD is now left out of it. See the Statutes 7 & 8 W. III. cap. 14. 8 Geo. I. cap. 6.]

CHAP. II.

Of ENGLISH Computation, Numbering, Weights, Measures, Money.

English Computation.

THE English Nation, as most of the other States that withdrew themselves from under the Bishop of Rome's usurp'd Authority before the Year 1582, did, 'till lately, still observe the ancient Account made by Julius Caesar, 43 Years before the Birth of Christ, which is therefore call'd the Old Stile, or Julian Account; the other observ'd at present by most European Nations, is called the New Stile, or Gregorian Account; and is, by reason of the aforesaid 10 Days taken away, with the Bissexile the last Year, now 11 Days before ours, for the Beginning of Months, and for all fixed Festivals; but various for all Moveable Feasts.

Easter, and the other Moveable Feasts* in England, are most certainly thus found: Shrove-Tuesday is always the first Tuesday after the first New Moon after January, and the Sunday following the Quadragesima, and the sixth Sunday after is Easter-day, and the fifth Sunday after Easter is Rogation-Sunday, and the Thursday following, being forty Days after the Resurrection, is Ascension-day; ten Days after which, or fifty Days after Easter, is Pentecost, or Whit-sunday, and the Sunday following is Trinity-Sunday: Which Computation of the Church of England agrees with all the Eastern Christian Churches, but with none of the Western. Yet it cannot be deny'd, but that this Old Computation may sometimes be inconvenient: For the Year beginning the 25th of March, according to the Computation of the Church of England, two Easters may happen in the Year; as in the Year 1667, the first Easter fell out the 25th of April, and the second, the 22d of March following, and not one Easter in the ensuing Twelve Months, as the Author of this Treatise observed formerly in his Proposals to the Parliament, concerning England's Wants.

Advent-Sunday hath a peculiar Rule, and is always the fourth Sunday before Christmas-Day, or the nearest Sunday to St. Andrew's-Day, whether before or after.

The Year in England, according to the Cycles of the Sun and Moon, and according to the Almanacks, begins on the first of January; but the English Church begins the Year from the Day of Christ's Incarnation, on the 25th of March; which is also observ'd in Spain; yet the Portuguese (as in diverse Countries in Africa) begin their Year on the 29th of August; the Venetians on the first of March, according to the Epact; the Grecians on the longest Day, as the old Romans did on the shortest Day; which two last seem to have most Reason, as beginning just at the Periodical Day of the Sun's Return.

The natural Day, consisting of twenty-four Hours, is begun in England, according to the Custom of the Egyptians and ancient Romans at Mid-night, and counted by twelve Hours to Mid-day, and again by twelve Hours to next Mid-night; whereas in Italy, Bohemia, Poland, and some other Countries, their Account is from Sun-setting by twenty-four of the Clock, to the next Sun-setting; and at Noremberg and Wirtemberg in Germany, according to the Old Jewish and Babylonian Account, they begin at the first Hour after Sun-rising to count One of the Clock, and so again at the first Hour after Sun-setting; but Astronomers, accommodating their Calculations to the most noble Time of the Day, begin their Account from Noon to Noon, as do still the Arabians and some others, [The English Mariners also always begin their Day at Noon, in all their Journals at Sea.]

English Numbering.] There was a Time when Names of Numbers amongst all civiliz'd Nations were unknown to them, and probably they then apply'd the Fingers of one, and sometimes of both Hands, to Things whereof they desired to keep Account (as is yet done among the illiterate Indians). And thence it may be that the Numeral Words are but ten in almost all Nations, and in some Nations but five, and then they begin again, as after Decem, Undecim, Duodecim, &c.

Things that are sold by Tale, and not Weight, are thus accounted.

Cod-Fish,

Cod-Fish, Haberdine, Ling, &c. have 124 to the C. Eels 25 to the Strike; 10 Strikes to the Bind. Herrings 120 to the C. 12 Hundred to the Thousand, which makes a Barrel; and 12 Barrels a Last.

Of Furs, Filches, Grays, Jennets, Martins, Minks, Sables, 40 Skins is a Timber; other Skins, five Score to the Hundred.

Of Paper, 24 or 25 Sheets to the Quire; 20 Quire to a Ream; 10 Ream to a Bale.

Of Parchment, twelve Skins make a Dozen, and five Dozen a Roll.

Of Hides, 10 are a Dicker; 20 Dickers a Last. Of Gloves, 10 Pair a Dicker.

Weights and Measures.] By the 27th Chapter of Magna Charta, the Weights and Measures ought to be the same over all England, and those to be according to the King's Standards of Weights and Measures, kept in the Exchequer, by a special Officer of his House, call'd the Clerk, or Comptroller of the Market.

Of Weights, there are two Sorts used at present throughout all England, viz. Troy-Weight and Averdupois. In Troy-Weight, 24 Grains of Wheat make a Penny-Weight Sterling; 20 Penny-Weight make one Ounce; twelve Ounces make a Pound; so there are 480 Grains to the Ounce, and 5760 Grains in the Pound.

By Troy-Weight we weigh Bread, Corn, Gold, Silver, Jewels, and Liquors: The Apothecaries and Goldsmiths have the same Pound, Ounce and Grain; but they differ in their intermediate Divisions.

The Apothecaries reckon 20 Grains [Gr.] make a Scruple [ʒ]; 3 Scruples 1 Dram [ʒ]; 8 Drams 1 Ounce [℥]; 12 Ounces 1 Pound [℔]; so that there is in ℔	ʒ	ʒ	ʒ	Gr.

1	12	96	288	5760
	1	8	24	480
		1	3	60
			1	20

Note, That although the Apothecaries make up their Medicines by Troy-Weight, they buy their Drugs by Averdupois-Weight.

The Goldsmiths reckon 24 Grains make a Penny-Weight, 20 Penny-Weight 1 Ounce, 12 Ounces 1 Pound. So that there is in

1	12	240	5760
		1	24

By Avoirdupois-Weight are all other Things weighed, as Mercury and Grocery-Ware, Metals, Wood, Tallow and the like, which they account thus; 16 Drams make an Ounce, 16 Ounces a Pound, 28 Pounds a Quarter, 4 Quarters a Hundred, 20 Hundred a Ton: So that there is in

Ton.	Hun.	Qr.	Pound.	Ounces.	Drams.
	1	4	112	1792	28672
		1	28	448	7168
			1	16	256
				1	16

The Troy Ounce is more than the Avoirdupois Ounce; for 51 Ounces Troy are equal to 56 Ounces Avoirdupois.

But the Avoirdupois Pound is more than the Troy Pound; for 14 Pounds Avoirdupois are equal to 17 Pounds Troy Weight.

Note, That Bakers, who live in Corporation-Towns, make their Bread by Troy Weight; but they who live not in Corporations, are to make it Avoirdupois Weight; for Freemen are allowed 3 d. in the Bushel more for Profit than those that are not Free.

For Instance, When the current Market-Price of middling Wheat is 5 s. per Bushel, a Freeman-Baker must make a Penny Wheaten Loaf to weigh 11 Ounces Troy-Weight, and three Half-penny White-Loaves the like Weight; but they that are not Free-men, must make it as heavy as when the Market-price is but 4 s. 9 d. per Bushel; and when it is 5 s. per Bushel, they must out-weigh the Freeman's Penny-loaf by ten Drams, and make their Household Penny-loaf a Pound, or sixteen Ounces, Avoirdupois, and fourteen Drams.

Measures.] Measures are either Applicative or Receptive.

The smallest Applicative Measure is a Barley-Corn, whereof three in Length make a Finger's Breadth, or Inch; four Inches make a Hand; three Hands a Foot; one Foot and a half makes a Cubit; two Cubits a Yard; in a Yard are sixteen Nails; one Yard and a Quarter makes an Ell; a Dutch Ell, or Stick, by which Tapestry is measured, is but $\frac{3}{4}$ of a Yard; five Foot make a Geometrical Pace; six Foot a Fathom; sixteen Foot and a half makes a Perch, Pole, or Rod; but there are other customary Perches or Poles, viz. eighteen Feet for Fens and Woodland; land; twenty-one for Forest, Lancashire and Irish Measure, and $18\frac{1}{4}$ Scotch: Forty Perch make a Furlong, eight Furlongs, or 320 Perches, make an English Mile, which, according to the Statute of 11 Hen. VII. ought to be 1760 Yards, 5280 Foot, that is 280 Foot more than the Italian Mile; 60 Miles (more exactly sixty-nine English Miles and a half) make a Degree, and 360 such Degrees, or 24840 Miles, compass the whole Globe of the Earth.

Horses are measured by the Hand, which is 4 Inches.

For measuring of Land in England, forty Perches in Length, and four in Breadth, make an Acre of Land, so called from the German Word Acker, and that from the Latin Word Ager. Thirty Acres ordinary make a Yard-Land, an hundred Acres are accounted an Hide of Land, and six hundred and forty Acres, a Mile square.

Inches.

But in this, and also in some Weights and Measures, the Custom of the Place is otherwise, which must be regarded. In France, about Paris, 12 Inches make a Foot, 22 Foot make a Perch, and 100 Perches make an Arpent.

Of Timber, 43 Foot solid make a Ton, and 53 Foot a Load.

Receptive Measure is two-fold; first, of Liquid, or Moist Things; secondly, of dry Things.

The ordinary smallest receptive Measure is called a Pint; 2 Pints make a Quart, 2 Quarts make a Pottle; 2 Pottles make a Gallon, a Gallon of Beer, or the Measure containing 282 solid Inches, and holds of Rain-water 10 Pounds, 3 Ounces $\frac{210}{1000}$ Avoirdupois; 8 Gallons a Firkin of Ale, 2 such Firkins make a Kilderkin; and 2 Kilderkins, or 32 Gallons, make a Barrel of Ale; and 12 Barrels a Last; 9 Gallons a Firkin of Beer; two such Firkins, or 18 Gallons, make a Kilderkin; two such Kilderkins, or thirty-six Gallons, make a Barrel of Beer; one Barrel and half, or 54 Gallons, makes a Hogshead; 2 Hogsheads make a Pipe or Butt; and 2 Pipes a Tun, consisting of 1728 Pints or Pounds; a Barrel of Butter or Soap is the same with a Barrel of Ale.

The English Wine Measures are smaller than those of Ale and Beer, and hold Proportion as about 4 to 5. So that 4 Gallons of Beer-Measure are almost five Gallons of Wine-Measure, and each Gallon of Wine is 231 Cubical Inches, 8 Pounds, 1 Ounce, and 11 Drams Avoirdupois of Rain-Water. Of these Gallons a Runlet of Wine holds 18; half a Hogshead 31 Gallons and a half; a Tierce of Wine holds 42 Gallons; a Hogshead 63 Gallons; a Puncheon 84 Gallons; a Pipe or Butt holds 126, and a Tun 252 Gallons, or 2016 Pints.

To measure dry Things, as Corn or Grain, there is first the Gallon, which is bigger than the Wine Gallon, and less than the Ale or Beer Gallon, containing $272\frac{1}{2}$ Cubical Inches, and 9 Pounds, 13 Ounces, 12 Drams and a half of Avoirdupois Weight. Two of these Gallons make a Peck, four Pecks a Bushel, four Bushels the Comb or Curnock, two Curnocks make a Quarter, Seam, or Ruff, and ten Quarters a Last, which contains 5120 Pints, and so many Pounds Troy Weight; so that a Garrison of 5000 Men, allowing each but a Pound of Bread per Diem. will consume near a Last, or 80 Bushels every Day; and 250 Men in a Ship will drink a Tun of Beer in two Days, allowing each Man about a Pottle per Diem.

Meal is weighed as Corn, but the common Repute is, that a Gallon of Wheaten Meal weighs 7 Pounds Avoirdupois, and 8 Pounds, 6 Ounces, 4 Penny-weight Troy; so a Bushel 56 Pounds Avoirdupois, and 68 Pounds, 1 Ounce, 12 Penny-weight Troy. All other Grain, and so likewise Salt, Lime, Coals, &c. follow this Measure, which is called Winchesier-Measure. But note, that where Sea-Coal and Salt are measured with this Bushel, Bushel, then they are heaped, or else there is allowed five Striked Pecks to the Bushel, and this is called Water-Measure. 36 Bushels are a Chaldron of Coals; and on Shipboard they allow 21 Chaldrons to the Score.

Money.] At first all Nations bartered and exchanged one Commodity for another; but that being found troublesome, by a kind of Custom, good Liking, or Usage, amongst all Civilized Nations, Silver and Gold, as most portable, pliable, and beautiful, and less subject to Rust, have been, as early as the Days of Abraham, chosen to be the Instruments of Exchange and Estimation of all Things, and were at first paid only by Weight, 'till, in Process of Time, the Way of Coining or Stamping Money was found out.

When Julius Caesar first entered this Island, the Britons used Brass Money, and also Rings of Iron instead of Money. And afterwards diverse of their Kings and Queens coined Money of other Metals, of all which there are several Specimens yet remaining in the Cabinets of the Curious: Not to mention the Roman Money, which by the great Quantities continually found, seems to have been of common Use.

In the Time of King Richard I. Money coined in the East Parts of Germany being for its Purity highly esteemed, some of those Easterlings were sent for over, and employed in our Mint, and from thence our Money was called Easterling, or Sterling Money, as some think (as the first Gold coined in England was by King Edward III. and those Pieces called Florentines, because Florentines were the first Coiners thereof) tho' others say of the Saxon Word Ster, Rule or Standard, from Steoran, to steer, guide, govern; and a third Opinion is, that it is so called from the Stars on the Saxon Pennies. Vid. Chron. Precios. p. 42, and 47.

Silver.] King Edward I. since the Norman Conquest, established a certain Standard for Silver Coin in this Manner: 24 Grains make one Penny Sterling, 20 Penny-weight one Ounce, and 12 Ounces, or 5660 Grains make a Pound Sterling, consisting of 20 s. Of these 12 Ounces, 11 Ounces two Penny-weight of Sterling was to be of fine Silver, and the Weight of 18 d. Sterling in Alloy the Minter added; so that anciently a Pound Sterling was a Pound Troy Weight; whereas now a Pound Sterling is but the third Part of a Pound Troy.

We had no Silver Money in the Saxon Times bigger than a Penny, nor after the Conquest 'till Edward III. who about the Year 1351, coined Grosses, i. e. Groats, or great Pieces, which went for 4 d. a piece, and so the Matter stood 'till the Reign of Henry VII. who in the Year 1504, first coined Silver Pieces of 12 d. Value, which we call Shillings.

The Pound Weight Troy of Silver, since the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, hath been current at 62 s. and the several Silver Coins Coins now current in England, are the Crowns, or 5 s. which is almost the Ounce Troy, the Half-Crowns, Shillings, Six-pence, Four-pence, Three-pence, Two pence, and one Penny.

For the Coinage there was allowed 2 s. in the Pound Troy of Silver; so that the Merchant who brought in the Bullion, received only 60 s. lb each, which made the Ounce to be just 5 s. But by an Act of Parliament, 1665, for Encouragement of Coinage, the Charge of Coinage was defrayed by an Imposition on Brandy, and nothing payable by the Bringer in of the Bullion; so that the Merchant receives 62 s. for every Troy of Bullion.

Of later Time, in Relation to the Necessity of the Poor, and Exchange of great Money, a small Piece of Copper, called a Farthing, or fourth Part of a Penny, hath been permitted to be coined; and so likewise an Half-penny, or Piece of two Farthings; but no Man is enforced to receive them in Pay for Rent or Debt above a Shilling, which can't be affirmed of any other State or Nation in the Christian World; in all which there are several sorts of Copper Money as current with them for any Payment, as the purest Gold or Silver.

The Pound Weight, or twelve Ounces Troy, of Gold, is divided into twenty-four Parts, which are called Carrats: So that each Carrat is Ten-penny Weight Troy, or half an Ounce; and this Carrat is divided into four Parts, which are called Carrat-Grains; so that the Carrat-Grain is 2 d. Weight and an half, or sixty ordinary Grains; and the Carrat-Grain is divided into diverse Parts; the Standard of Crown Gold is twenty-two Carrats of fine Gold, and two Carrats of Alloy in the Pound Weight Troy; the Alloy of some Gold Coins is all Silver, as the Guinea Gold, and some all Copper, which renders the Gold Coins some more white, some more yellow.

In England, at present, the Pound Weight Troy of Gold is cut into forty-four Parts and a half; each Part is to pass for 20 s. and the half Part for 10 s. Yet now by the Scarcity of Gold imported, each of the said Parts is current at 1 l. 1 s. There are also coined some Pieces of 40 s. and some 100 s. which hold proportionably in Weight and Fineness to the 20 s. Piece.

The Standard of Sterling Silver in England is eleven Ounces and 2 d. Weight of fine Silver, and 18 d. Weight of Alloy of Copper out of the Fire, and so proportionably; so that twelve Ounces of pure Silver, without any Alloy, is worth 3 l. 4 s. 6 d. and an Ounce is worth 5 s. 4 d. ob. but with Alloy is worth but 3 l. and the Ounce 5 s.

The Spanish, French and Flemish Gold, is almost of equal Fineness with the English.

The English Silver Money hath less of Alloy than the French or Dutch. The

The Moniers divide the Pound Weight into twelve Ounces Troy.

		Penny-Weight				24 Grains.
		Grain				20 Mites.
		Mite				24 Droites.
		Droite				20 Perits.
		Perit				24 Blanks.

The Proportion of Gold to Silver in England, is as One to Fourteen, and about one Third; that is to say, one Ounce of Gold is worth in Silver fourteen Ounces, and about one Third, or 3 l. 14 s. 2 d. of English Money.

Since the Restoration of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, the Coining and Stamping of Money by Hammers hath been laid aside, and all stamped by a Mill, or Screw; whereby it comes to pass, that our new Coins for Neatness, Gracefulness, and Security from Counterfeiting, surpass all the most excellent Coins, not only of the Romans, but of all the Modern Nations of the World.

But we must not on this Subject forget, that since the late Happy Revolution, the Silver Coin of this Kingdom was so miserably debased by Clipping, that it was a Prejudice to all Trade, and indeed a Scandal to the Nation.

“ It will (says the excellent Author of the Chronical Precisum) be much for the Honour of the late King William’s “ Reign, to have remedied the greatest Abuse of Money that “ was ever known in England, at a Time of the greatest “ Danger and Expence, with very little Grievance of the “ People. But, sure, it is better to prevent a moderate “ Mischief, than to redress a very great one; and perhaps a “ Proclamation of three or four Lines, forbidding any clipped “ Money to be received into the King’s Exchequer in 1690, “ would have prevented the Clipping and Spoiling five “ Millions.

Of Names, Titles of Honour, Privileges, &c.

English Names.

N*omina, quasi Notamina.* Names were first imposed on Men for Distinction Sake; by the Jews at their Circumcision; by the Romans at the ninth Day after their Birth; and by the Christians at their Baptism; of such Signification, for the most part, that might denote the future good Hope, or good Wishes of Parents towards Children.

The

The English Names at Baptism are generally either Saxon and Norman, as Robert, Richard, Henry, William, Edward, Edmond, Edwin, Gilbert, Walter, Leonard, &c. which are all very significative; or else (especially in latter Ages) out of the Old and New Testament, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, John, Thomas, James, &c. or sometimes the Mother's Surname, especially if she has been an Heiress, or of Superior Birth or Quality to her Husband, and rarely two Christian Names, which yet is usual in other Countries, especially in Germany.

Sir-Names.] Names superadded to the Christian Names, the French call sir-names (i. e.) Super Nomina.

The Hebrews, Greeks, and most other Nations, had no Sir-names fixed to their Families, as in these Days, but counted thus: For Example, among the Hebrews, Melchi Ben Addi, Addi Ben Casim, &c. So the Britons, Hugh ap Owen, Owen ap Rhese. So the Irish, Neal mac Con, Con mac Dermoti, &c.

As Christian Names were first given for Distinction of Persons, so Sir-names for Distinction of Families.

About Anno 1000, the French Nation began to take Sir-names with De prefixed of a Place, and Le prefixed for some other Qualifications, as at this Day is their usual Manner. The English also took to themselves Sir-names, but not generally among the common People, 'till after the Reign of Edward the First.

Great Offices of Honour have brought diverse Sir-names, as Edward Fitz-Theobald being long ago made Butler of Ireland, the Duke of Ormond and his Ancestors descending from him, took the Surname of Butler. So John Count Tankerville of Normandy being made Chamberlain to the King of England, about 400 Years ago, his Descendants of Sherborn-Castle in Oxfordshire, lately extinct, and of Prestbury, Maugerbury, and Oddington in Gloucestershire, from whom the Author of this Book was descended, bear still the same Coat of Arms, by the Name of Chamberlayne.

As first, for Sir-Names the English Gentry took the Name of their Birth-place, or Habitation, as Thomas of Aston, or East-Town, John of Sutton, or South-Town, Henry of Wotton, or Wood-Town; and as they altered their Habitation, so they altered their Sir-names. After, when they became Lords of Places, they called themselves Thomas Aston of Aston, John Sutton of Sutton, Henry Wotton of Wotton.

The Saxons Common People (as do the Generality of the Dutch, Germans, Danes, Islanders, and Swedes, to this Day) for Sir-names, added their Father's Name with son at the End thereof, as Thomas Johnson, Robert Richardson, and sometimes their Mother's Name in like Manner, as Bettison, Nelson, and Margetson; they also oft took their Father's Nick-name, or Abbreviation with Addition of s, as Gibs the Nick-name, or Abbreviation of Gilbert, Hobs of Robert. Nicks of Nicholas, Bates.

of Bartholomew, Sams of Samuel, Hodges of Roger, Sanders of Alexander, and thence also Gibson, Hobson, Nickson, Batson, Samson, Hodson, Saunderson, and Hutchenson, &c. Many were also surnamed from their Trade, as Smith, Joiner, Weaver, Walker (that is Fuller in Old English, and Goff, that is Smith in Welch, &c.) or from their Offices, as Porter, Steward, Shepherd, Carter, Spencer (that is, Steward) Cook, Butler, Kemp (that is, in Old English, Soldier) or from the Place of Abode, as Underwood, Underhill; also Atwood, Atwell, Athill, which three last are shrunk into Wood, Wells, Hill; or from their Colour, or Complexion, as Fairfax, that is, Fairlocks; Pigot, that is, Speckled; Blunt, or Blund, that is, Flaxen-hair: So from Birds, as Arundel, that is, Swallow; Corbet, that is, Raven; Wren, Finch, Woodcock, &c. So from Beasts, as Lamb, Fox, Moyle, that is, Mule: From Colours, as, Black, White, Brown, Red, Green; from the Wind, as East, West, North, and South: Sometimes from Saints, as St. John, St. George, St. Leger, St. Amand, Seymour, (i. e. St. Maur) &c.

The Normans, at their first coming into England, brought Surnames for many of their Gentry, with De prefixed, as the French do generally at this Day, and their Christian Names were generally Scandic, they being originally descended from Norway, inhabited by the Progeny of the Old Scandians; and some, for about 200 Years after the Conquest, took for Surnames their Father's Christian Name, with Fitz, or Fils prefix'd, as Robert Fitz-Williams, Henry Fitz-Gerald, which is as much as Williamson, Gerardson, &c.

The Britons, or Welsh, more lately refin'd, did not take Surnames 'till of late Years, and that for the most part, only by leaving out a in ap, as annexing to p their Father's Christian Name; as instead of Evan ap Rice, now Evan Price; so instead of ap Howel, Powel; ap Hugh, Pugh, ap Rogers, Progers, &c.

The most ancient Families, and the best Account for Surnames in England, are either those that are taken from Places in Normandy, and thereabouts in France, and from some other Transmarine Countries, or else from Places in England and Scotland, as Evereux, Chaworth, Nevil, Montagu, Moun, Biron, Bruges, Clifford, Berkley, Anvers, Arcy, Sturton, Morley, Courtney, &c. which anciently had all De prefixed, but of latter Times generally neglected, or made one Word, as Devereux, Danvers, Darcy, &c. unless we should more esteem those whose Ancestors were of great Account here before the Norman Conquest, and their Posterity have still flourished ever since, as Arden, Ashburnham, &c.

Titles of Honour, and Degrees of Nobility.

Name.] THE Nobility of England are called the Peers of England, because they are all Pares Regum, that is, Nobilitate Pares, though gradu impares.

Degrees.

Degrees.] The Degrees of the English Nobility are only five, Duke, Marquis, Earl, Viscount, and Baron.

Duke.] A Duke, in Latin, Dux à ducendo, in High-Dutch, Hertsog, which also signifies the Leader of an Army, Noblemen being anciently either Generals and Leaders of Armies, in Time of War, or Wardens of Marches and Governours of Provinces in Time of Peace, afterwards made so for Term of Life; then held by Lands and Fees, at length Hereditary and Titular.

A Duke is at this Day created by Patent, anciently by Circumference of Sword, Mantle of State, Imposition of a Cap and Coronet of Gold on his Head, and a Verge of Gold put into his Hand.

His Mantle is guarded with four Guards.

His Title is Grace.

His Coronet hath only Leaves without Pearls.

Marquiss.] Marchio, a Marquiss, was first so called from the Government of Marches and Frontier Countries.

A Marquiss is created by Patent; anciently by Circumference of Sword, a Mantle of State, Imposition of a Cap of Honour, with a Coronet, and Delivery of a Charter or Patent.

His Mantle is double Ermin, three Doublings and an half.

His Title is Most Noble.

His Coronet hath Pearls and Strawberry-Leaves intermixed round of equal Height.

Earls.] Earls, anciently called Comites, because they were wont comitari Regem, to wait upon the King for Counsel and Advice. The Germans call them Graves, as Landgrave, Margrave, Palgrave, Rheingrave; the Saxons, Earldormen, unless that Title might be more properly applied to our Dukes; the Danes, Eorlas, and the English, Earls. They had anciently for the Support of their State, the third Penny out of the Sheriff's Court, issuing out of the Pleas of the Shire, whereof they had their Title; but now it is otherwise: For whereas heretofore Comes and Comitates were Correlatives, and there was no Comes, or Earl but had a County or Shire for his Earldom; of latter Years the Number of the Earls encreasing, and no more Counties left, diverse made choice of some eminent Part of a County, as Lindsey, Holland, Cleveland, Craven; some of a lesser Part, as Stafford, a Wapentake in Yorkshire, &c. Others have chosen for their Title some eminent Town, as Marlborough, Exeter, Bridgewater, Bristol, &c. And some of late have taken for their Title the Name of a small Village, their own Seat, or Park, &c. as Godolphin, Bolton, Clarendon, Mulgrave, Danby, Wharton, Cholmondeley.

An Earl is created by Patent.

All the Earls of England are local, or denominated from some Shire, Town, or Place; except three, whereof one is Personal, as the Earl-Marshal of England, who is not only Honorary, norary, as all the rest, but also Officiary. The others are Nominal, viz. Earl Rivers, and Earl Poulet, who take their Denomination from illustrious Families, as the rest do from some noted Place.

An Earl's Mantle hath three Doublings of Ermin.

His Coronet hath the Pearls raised upon Points, and Leaves low between.

[Viscount.] Viccomes, quasi Vice Comitibus gubernaturus Comitatum.

Viscounts are stiled by the King, Consanguinei nostri, Our Cousins; and his Title is Right Honourable.

A Viscount is made by Patent, as an Earl is.

His Mantle hath two Doublings and an half of plain white Fur; his Coronet only pearled with a Row of Pearls, without certain Number, close to the Chaplet.

[Baron.] In the Laws of the Longabards, and of the Normans, this Word was used for Var, as at this Day, Baron, or Varon, in the Spanish Tongue, is used for the same; so that Baron is Vir, κατ' ἰσχυρὸν, Vir Notabilis & Principalis. So the chief Burgeesses of London anciently, and still those of the Cinque-Ports, are called Barons.

Barons in the Beginning of the Reign of Henry III. were not of so much Repute as afterwards, when that King, after that great Rebellion was suppressed, called by Writ unto Parliament only such Great Men as had continued Loyal.

The Earl Palatines, and Earl Marches of England, had anciently also their Barons under them. In Cheshire there are yet such Barons: But as no Bishop but those that hold immediately of the King, are Peers of the Realm (for the Bishop of Sarum and Man holding immediately of the Earl of Derby, is no Peer of England) so no Barons but those that hold immediately of the King, are Peers of the Realm.

Barons are sometimes made by Writ, being thereby called to sit in the higher House of Parliament; but most usually by Patent.

A Baron's Title is Right Honourable.

He hath two Guards, or Doublings, on his Mantle.

His Coronet hath six Pearls upon the Circle, given to that Degree by King Charles II.

All the forementioned Degrees have Title of Lord, from the Saxon Word Hlaford, Dominus.

All the Lords of England, both Spiritual and Temporal, are Feudataries to the King, and in their Creation, and also in their Succession, do swear an Oath of Fealty, and do Homage to the King their Sovereign, and pay certain Duties, as Signs and Symbols of their Subjection to their Prince.

All Honours of England are given by the King, who is the sole Fountain of Honour.

The Laws of England prohibit all Subjects of the Realm to receive any Hereditary Title of Honour, or Dignity, of the Gift of any Foreign Prince, or Emperor, without the Consent of their own Sovereign.

None of these Honours bestowed by the King on a Family can be lost, but by want of Issue Male, nor then neither if the Patent extends to Issue Female, as sometimes it doth, or else by some heinous Crime, and then that Family cannot be restored to their Blood by Parliament.

The Nobility of England have in all Times enjoyed many considerable Privileges.

All the Peers of the Realm being looked on as the King's Hereditary constant Counsellors, their Persons out of Parliament-time are privileged (as others in Parliament-time) from all Arrests, unless for Treasons, Felony, or Breach of Peace, Condemnation in Parliament, or Contempt to the King. No Supplicative can be granted against them; no Capias or Exigent sued out against them for Actions of Debt or Trespas; no Essoin lies against any Peer of the Realm: In Criminal Causes, Treason, or Felony, they cannot be tried by any other Jury, but by a Jury of Peers of the Realm, who are not as other Juries to be put to their Oath, but their Verdict given in upon their Honour sufficeth. In Civil Causes they are not to be impannell'd upon any Jury, nor upon any Inquests de facto, though in a Matter between two Peers. In case any Peer be returned upon any such Jury, there is a special Writ for his Discharge.

They are upon no Case to be bound to their good Behaviour, nor put to swear they will not break the Peace, but only to promise it upon their Honour, which was ever accounted so Sacred, as upon no Terms to be violated. Every Peer of the Realm called to Parliament hath the Privilege in his lawful Absence to constitute a Proxy to vote for him, which none of the Commons may do. The Title of Lord is due to all Barons, and to none other besides Bishops, and some Great Officers of the Kingdom.

Only of Courtesy the Title of Lord is given to all the Sons of Dukes and Marquisses, and to the eldest Sons of Earls, and none under.

All Barons of England are exempted from all Attendance at Sheriff's Tourns, or any Leets, where others are obliged to take the Oath of Allegiance.

A Peer can't be outlawed in any Civil Action, because he can't be arrested by any Capias; and by the same Reason there lies no Attachment against him.

A Peer mute upon his Trial, shall be convict, but not press'd to Death, as a Commoner is; and when under Sentence of Death, 'it has long been customary only to behead them.

For the suppressing of Riots and Routs, the Sheriff may raise the Posse Comitatus, that is, all able Men are to assist him; yet may not the Sheriff command the Person of any Peer of the Realm to attend that Service.

In any Civil Trial where a Peer of the Realm is Plaintiff or Defendant, there must be returned of the Jury at least one Knight, otherwise the Array may be quashed by Challenge.

The Laws of England are so tender of the Honour, Credit, Reputation, and Person of Noblemen, that there is a Statute on purpose to hinder all Offence by false Reports, whereby any Scandal to their Persons may arise, or Debate and Discord between them and the Commons: And because it is to defend not only Lay-Lords, but Bishops, and all Great Officers of the Realm, it is called Scandalum Magnatum.

The Houses of Peers can't, in some Cases, as in Search for prohibited Books, &c. be entered by Officers of Justice without a Warrant under the King's own Hand, and the Hands of Six of his Privy-Council, whereof four to be Peers of the Realm.

No Peer can be assessed towards the Standing Militia, but by six or more of themselves.

The Law allowing any one of the Commonalty, being arraigned for Felony or Treason in favorem vite, to challenge thirty-five of his Jury, without shewing Cause, and others by shewing Cause; yet allows not a Peer of the Realm to challenge any of his Jury, or put any of them to their Oath, the Law presuming, that they being all Peers of the Realm, and judging upon their Honour, cannot be guilty of Falshood, Favour, or Malice.

All Peers of the Realm have a Privilege of qualifying a certain Number of Chaplains, who after a Dispensation from the Archbishop, if to him it seems good, and the same ratified under the Great-Seal of England, may hold Plurality of Benefices within such a Distance, with Cure of Souls. In this Manner every Duke may qualify Six Chaplains, every Marquis and Earl five apiece, every Viscount four, and every Baron three.

In Case of Amercements of the Peers of the Realm upon Non-suits, or other Judgments, a Duke is to be amerced only ten Pounds, and all under, only five Pounds; and this to be done by their Peers, according to Magna Charta; altho' it is often done now by the King's Justices, instead of their Peers; particularly by the Barons of the Exchequer, because formerly there sat no other in that Court but Barons of England; and now the usual Amercement of a Duke is 100 Pounds, and of a Baron, not less than 5 Pounds.

Only it was once indulged by Queen Mary the First, for some eminent Services performed by Henry Ratcliff, Earl of Sussex; that (by Patent) he might at any time be covered in her Presence; but, perhaps, in Imitation of the like Liberty allowed by King Philip, her Husband, and other Kings of Spain, at this Day, to some of the principal Nobility there, called Grandees of Spain.

If an Appeal of Murder, or Felony, be sued by any common Person against a Peer of the Realm, he shall be tried by Commoners, and not by Peers, as was the Case of Fines, Lord Dacres, saith Guillim.

Precedence.] Touching the Places or Precedencies amongst the Nobility of England, it is to be observed, that after the King and Princes of the Blood, viz. the Sons, Grandsons, Brothers, Uncles, or Nephews of the King, and no farther, and after the two Archbishops, Dukes amongst the Nobility have the first Place; then Marquisses, Dukes eldest Sons, Earls, Marquisses eldest Sons, Dukes younger Sons, Viscounts, Earls eldest Sons, Earls younger Sons, Viscounts eldest Sons, Barons eldest Sons, Knights of the Garter, quatenus tales, Privy-Counsellors, Chancellor and Under-Treasurer of the Exchequer, Chancellor of the Dutchy, Lord Chief-Justice of the King's-Bench, Master of the Rolls, Lord Chief-Justice of the Common-Pleas, Lord Chief-Baron of the Exchequer, other Judges and Barons of the Degree of the Coif of the said Courts, Bannerets made under the King's Banner or Standard displayed in an Army Royal in open War, and the King personally present; Viscounts younger Sons, Barons younger Sons, Baronets, Masters in Chancery, Knights Bannerets of a mean Creation, Knights of the Bath, Knights-Bachelors, Colonels, Serjeants at Law, Doctors, Esquires, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Gentlemen, &c.

Moreover observe, that all Nobles of the same Degree take Place according to the Seniority of their Creation.

The Lord Chancellor, the Lord-Treasurer, Lord-President of the King's Council, Lord Privy-Seal; these being Barons, or above, shall in Parliament sit above all Dukes, except the Son, Brother, or Nephew of the King.

The Lord High-Steward of England is not here named, because it was intended that he should not continue beyond the Occasion for which he should be made.

Next hath Place the Lord Great-Chamberlain of England, then the Lord High-Constable, the Earl-Marshal, the Lord High-Admiral, Lord Steward of the King's Household, Lord Chamberlain of the King's Household: These shall sit after the Lord Privy-Seal, above all of their Degree only. And if the King's principal Secretary of State be a Baron, he takes Place of all Barons that are not of the Offices before-mentioned ; but if he be a Viscount, or of higher Degree, he shall take Place only according to his Degree. Also, if the King's Secretary be a Bishop, as anciently was usual, he takes Place next to the Bishop of Winchester, before all other Bishops that have none of the Offices aforesaid.

All Dukes, Marquisses, Earls, Viscounts, and Barons, not having any of the said Offices, shall take Place according to the Seniority of their Creation.

State.] There are certain Marks of State belonging to each Degree among the Nobility, which they may practise or not practise at Pleasure.

Duke.] The first Duke in England, after the Entrance of the Norman Race, was Edward the Black Prince, created Duke of Cornwal in the 11th of Edward III. A Duke may have, in all Places out of the King's Presence, a Cloth of State hanging down within half a Yard of the Ground ; so may his Dutches, and her Train borne up by a Baroness ; and no Earl is to wash with a Duke, without the Duke's Permission.

Marquiss.] Robert de Vere, Earl of Oxford, in the 8th of Richard the Second, was created Marquiss of Dublin ; and was the first Marquiss that any of our Kings created. A Marquiss may have a Cloth of State reaching within a Yard of the Ground, and that in all Places out of the Presence of the King, or a Duke ; and his Marchioness to have her Train borne by a Knight's Wife, out of the Presence of her Superiors, and in their Presence by a Gentlewoman : And no Viscount is to wash with a Marquiss, but at his Pleasure.

Earl.] Earl was the most eminent Dignity in England from William I. till Edward III. when the Black Prince was created Duke of Cornwal : And those which in ancient Times were created Counts, or Earls, were of the Blood Royal ; for which Reason our Monarchs, even to this Day call them, in all publick Writings, our most dear Cousin. They anciently did, and still may, use the Stile of Nos. Hugh Lupus, Son of the Viscount Averanches in Normandy, by his Wife, William the First's Sister, was the first Hereditary Earl of England, created by his Uncle William I. Earl of Chester. An Earl may also have a Cloth of State without Pendants, but only Fringe ; and a Countess may have her Train borne by an Esquire's Wife out of the Presence of her Superiors, and in their Presence by a Gentleman.

Viscount.] Viscount is a Title of Honour never heard of in England till Henry VIth's Days ; for the first Viscount that ever sat in Parliament by that Name, was John Beaumont, who in the 18th of Henry VI. was created Viscount. A Viscount may have a Cover of Essay holden under his Cup while he drinks, but no Essay taken as Dukes, Marquisses and Earls may have, and may have a Travers in his own House ; and a Viscountess may have her Gown borne up by a Woman, out of the Presence of her Superiors, and in their Presence by a Man.

Baron.] Barons include the whole Nobility of England, and were called by Writ of Summons to Parliament: Before they were created by Letters Patents; Richard II. created John Beaumont of Holt-Castle, Baron of Kidderminster, who was the first Baron made by Letters Patents. A Baron may also have the Cover of his Cup holden underneath whilst he drinks; and a Baroneſs may have her Grown borne up by a Man in the Presence of a Viſcounteſs.

All Nephews and Grandſons of a King are born as Arch-Dukes, and have Title of Highneſs; their Caps of State indented.

All Dukes eldeſt Sons are born and have Title of Marquiſſes, and the younger as Lords, with the Addition of their Chriſtian Names, as Lord Thomas, Lord John, &c.

A Marquiſs's eldeſt Son is called Lord of a Place, and by the Courteſy of England, Earl, and is to go as an Earl, but ſhall give Place to an Earl; and the younger Sons Lords; as Lord Thomas, Lord John, &c.

An Earl's eldeſt Son is born as a Viſcount, and ſhall go as a Viſcount, ſo their younger Sons ſhall go before all Baronets: And an Earl's eldeſt Son is called Lord of a Place, and all his Daughters Ladies; but his youngeſt Sons not Lords.

A Viſcount's eldeſt Son is no Lord, nor his Daughters Ladies; and therefore the eldeſt Son and the eldeſt Daughter of the firſt Viſcount of England, is ſaid to be the firſt Gentleman and Gentlewoman without Title in England; yet a Viſcount's eldeſt Son is ſaid to be born as a Baron.

A Nobleman, whether Engliſh or Foreign, who hath his Title of Nobility only from a foreign Monarch or State, though he comes into England by the King's ſafe Conduct, and though the King ſtile him by his Title of Dignity, yet in all our Law-Proceedings no Notice is taken of his Nobility.

Note alſo, That the higheſt and loweſt Degrees of Nobility are univerſally acknowledged; for a Knight, Engliſh, or Foreigner, is a Knight in all Nations. Alſo, if the Emperor, or any Foreign King come into this Realm by ſafe Conduct, as he ought (for a King or Abſolute Prince, though he be in League, may not enter this Land without Licence) in this Caſe he ſhall here ſue, and be uſed by the Name of Emperor, or King, or elſe the Writ ſhall abate. Guillim, p. 17.

Revenue.] The Weight and inſtrinfick Value of a Pound Sterling was anciently Three Pounds of our preſent Money (Vide p. 156.) and it appears from the then Price of all Things, that a Pound Sterling then was equivalent to Nine or Ten Pounds Sterling now (Vide Chron. Preſ.) So that twenty Pounds a Year in Land, which was a Knight's Fee, would be about two hundred now. A Baron was to have thirteen Knights Fees, Fees, and one Third, which amounted to about 267 Pounds, then, or 2670 Pounds now: And an Earl twenty Knight's Fees; a Duke forty; and in case of Decay of their Revenues, that their Honours could not decently be maintained (as the Roman Senators were in such Cases removed from the Senate) so sometimes some English Barons have not been admitted to sit in the higher House of Parliament, though they kept the Name and Title, or Dignity still.

The English Nobility for Valour, Wisdom, Integrity and Honour, hath in all former Ages been equal to any in Christendom.

CHAP. IV.

Of the COMMONS of England, and therein of Baronets, Knights, Esquires, Gentlemen, Yeomen, Citizens, Handicrafts, &c.

THE Law of England, contrary to the Laws and Customs of other Countries, calleth none Noble under a Baron; so that not only all Baronets, all sorts of Knights, all Esquires and Gentlemen, but also the Sons of the Nobility are by our Law reckoned amongst the Commons of England; as in Rome there was a middle Rank, inter Senatores & Plebem namely, the Ordo Equestris, so in other Christian Kingdoms they are stiled Nobiles Minores.

The lower Nobility then of England consists of Baronets, Knights, Esquires, and Gentlemen.

Baronets.] The next Degree to Barons, are Baronets, which is the lowest Degree of Honour that is Hereditary: They are constituted in the room of the ancient Valvasors, between the Barons of England and the Orders of Knights. Now this Honour was first instituted by King James I. Anno 1611. given by Patent to a Man and his Heirs Male of his own Body lawfully begotten; for which each one is obliged to pay into the Exchequer as much as will, for three Years, at 8*d.* per diem, pay 30 Foot Soldiers to serve in the Province of Ulster in Ireland; which Sum amounts to 1095 l. which is now always remitted.

Baronets have Precedence before all Knights, except Knights of the Garter, Knights who are Privy-Counsellors, or Knights Bannerets, made under the King's Banner or Standard displayed in an Army Royal in open War, and the King personally present.

Baronets and their eldest Sons, being of full Age, may claim Knighthood.

Baronets

Baronets have the Privilege to bear in a Canton of their Coat of Arms, or in a whole Escutcheon, the Arms of Ulster, viz. in a Field Argent, a Hand Gules. Also in the King's Armies, to have Place in the Grofs near the King's Standard, with some Particulars for their Funerals.

The whole Number of Baronets in England were not to exceed two Hundred at one and the same Time; but now their Number is without Limitation: Their Qualifications are, That they be of a good Reputation, and descended of a Grandfather, at least by the Father's Side, that bore Arms, and have also a Yearly Revenue of 1000 l. per Annum de claro. They take Place according to the Priority of the Date of their Patents. The Title is Sir, granted to Baronets by a peculiar Clause in their Patent of Creation, tho' they be not dubbed Knights; and their Wives are Ladies.

No Honour is ever to be created between Baronets and Barons.

The first Baronet that was created was Sir Nicholas Bacon of Suffolk, whose Successor is therefore stiled Primus Baronetorum Anglia.

[Knight.] The Word Knight is derived from the German Word Knecht, signifying originally a Lusty Servitor; afterwards commonly used for a Soldier, or Man of War.

A Knight is at this Day expressed in Latin, French, Spanish, Italian, and also in the High and Low Dutch Tongues, by a Word that properly signifies an Horseman, because they were wont to serve on Horseback: Yet our Common-Law stiles them Milites, Soldiers, because they commonly held Lands in Knights Service, to serve the King in his Wars as Soldiers.

The Honour of Knighthood is commonly given for some personal Desert, and therefore dies with the Person deserving, and descends not to his Son.

[Knights of the Garter.] In England there are several Sorts of Knights, whereof the Chiefest are those of the Order of St. George, commonly called, Knights of the Garter.

This Order is esteemed the most Honourable, and most Ancient of any Lay-Order now in Use in Christendom: It began, as appears in the Statutes of this Order, in 1350, 50 Years before the Institution of the French Order of St. Michael by Lewis II. 80 Years before the Order of the Golden Fleece was instituted by Philip the Good of Burgundy; 160 Years before King James V. refined the Order of St. Andrew in Scotland; and 209 Years before the King of Denmark began the Order of the Elephant, and the 23d Year of the Warlike and Puissant King Edward III. who triumphed several Times over France and Scotland: who kept Prisoners at one Time in England King John of France, and King David of Scotland; and who, by his Son Edward the Black Prince, expelled the Rebels of Cassile, and inthroned Don Pedro their lawful King.

King. He that did these Mighty and Glorious Exploits, was the Founder of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

It was since commonly called, The Order of the Garter, because this only Part of the whole Habit of the Order was made Choice of at first to be constantly worn.

The Motto of the Order is, Honi soit qui mal y pense, i. e. Shame be to him who thinks ill of it.

The Reason why this Motto was put in French, was because then the King of England being possessed of a great Part of France, not only our Laws, Pleadings, and Sermons were in French, but that was the ordinary Language in the Court of England.

It appears by ancient Writings, that this Honourable Company is a College, or Corporation, having a great Seal belonging to it, and a little Seal: It consists of the Sovereign, who is always the King of England, and of twenty-five Companions, called Knights of the Garter; of a Dean and twelve Canons, besides Petty-Canons, Vergers, and other inferior Officers, and of twenty-six poor Knights, who have no other Maintenance but the Allowance of this College, which is given them in respect of their Prayers for the Welfare of the Sovereign and Companions, and as a Reward for Military Service.

The Society is entituled to St. George, who hath been accounted (as St. Dennis is of France, St. Andrew of Scotland, St. Patrick of Ireland, St. James of Spain, &c.) the Tutelar Saint Patron of England, and of this Order in particular.

There be also certain Officers belonging to this Office, as the Prelate of the Garter, the Bishop of Winchester, which Office is settled on that Bishoprick: A Chancellor of the Garter, the Bishop of Salisbury, which Office did anciently belong to the Bishop of Salisbury, and was by King Charles II. re-annexed to that See: A Register, Dean of Windsor; which Office belongs to the Deanry: The principal King at Arms, called Garter, whose chief Function is to manage and marshal their Solemnities at their Installation and Feasts; Lastly, the Usher of the Garter, Usher of the Black-Rod.

The College is seated in the Castle of Windsor, with the Chapel of St. George, there erected by Edward III. and the Chapter-House.

The Order of the Garter was wont to be bestowed upon the most excellent and renowned Persons for Honour and Virtue; and with it a blue Garter deck'd with Gold, Pearls, and precious Stones, and a Buckle of Gold to be worn daily on the left Leg; also at high Feasts they are to wear a Surcoat, a Mantle, a high black Velvet Cap, a Collar of SS's, composed of Roses enamelled red, with a Garter enamelled blue, with the usual Motto in Letters of Gold, and between each each of these Garters, a Knot with Tassels of Gold, together with other stately and magnificent Apparel.

They are not to be seen abroad without their Garter upon their left-Leg, upon Pain of paying 6*s.* 8*d.* to the Register; only in taking a Journey, a blue Ribbon under the Boot doth suffice.

On the Left-side of the Breast, upon a Cloak, Coat, or Riding Cassock in all Places of Assembly, when they wear not their Robes, they are to wear that Ornament and Imbellishment now worn, and called the Star, or rather the Sun in its Glory, of Silver Embroidery; and they ordinarily wear the Picture of St. George, enamelled upon Gold, and beset with Diamonds at the End of a blue Ribbon that crosses their Bodies from the left Shoulder.

The greatest Monarchs of Christendom have been enrolled, and have taken it for an Honour to be of this Order.

There have been of this Order, since the Institution, eight Emperors, twenty-seven, or twenty-eight Foreign Kings, besides many Sovereign Princes, &c.

None can be of this most Honourable Order that have been convicted of Heresy, of Treason, or of Cowardise.

Note, That anciently Kings and Princes were placed according to their Creation, but now those only are placed according to their Degrees.

See more of this Noble Order in the Institution, Laws and Ceremonies of the Noble Order of the Garter, written by Elias Ashmole, Esq; Folio.

Knights-Bannerets.] In the next Place are Knights-Bannerets, Equites Vexilliferi, anciently made only in the Field in Time of War; an high Honour, now obsolete, there being at this Time none of this Order in England.

These may bear their Arms with Supporters, and none under this Degree.

Knights of the Bath.] Knights of the Bath, so called of their Bathing, used before they were created. The first of this Sort were made by Henry IV. Anno 1399, who preparing for his Coronation, made forty-six Knights at the Tower that were bathed, though Bathing was used in making Knights-Bachelors long before that Time in France, and probably in England. See Selden's Tit. of Hon. p. 2. c. 5. § 34 and 45. They were afterwards made at the Coronation of a King or Queen, or Coronation of a Prince of Wales, or Duke of the Royal Blood. They wear a Scarlet Ribbon Belt-wise. They were made with much Ceremony, too long to be described here. See at large in Dugdale's Description of Warwickshire.

[This Order was revived by King George I. on the seventeenth of June 1725, when 18 Noblemen, and as many Commoners of the first Rank were Installed Knights of the Order der with great Ceremony at Westminster. [See the List of the Knights of the Bath at the End of this Part.]

Knights-Bachelors.] Other Knights, called Equites Aurati, for the gilt Spurs usually put upon them, and Knights-Bachelors: These were anciently made by girding with the Sword and gilt Spurs; and this Honour was bestowed only upon Sword-men for their Military Service, or upon Children who came of Noble and Puissant Parentage, to encourage them when they grew up to do like their Ancestors.

This was reputed an excellent and glorious Degree, and a noble Reward for courageous Persons: But of late being made more common, and bestowed upon Gown-men, contrary to the Nature of the Thing (as Degrees in the Universities are sometimes bestowed on Sword-men) it is become of much less Reputation in England than it hath been, altho' it be still accounted an honourable Degree both in England and Foreign Countries; yet amongst Gown-men, it is given only to Lawyers and Physicians, and sometimes to Artists, as Painters, Mathematicians, &c.

These are now made with no other Ceremony but Kneeling down, the King, with a drawn Sword, lightly touching them on the Shoulder; after which the King heretofore said in French, Sois Chevalier au Nom de Dieu, and then, Advance Chevalier.

Knights have the Title of Sir, as Sir A. B. Knight, which is very ancient.

When a Knight is to suffer Death for any foul Crime, his Military Girdle is first to be ungirt, his Sword taken away, his Spurs cut off with an Hatchet, his Gauntlet pluck'd off, and his Coat of Arms reversed.

Esquires.] Next among the lower Nobility are Esquires, so called from the French Word Escuiers, Scutigeri, because they were wont to bear before the Prince in War, or before the better Sort of Nobility, a Shield, Lance, or other Weapon, and therefore they are called Armigeri.

Of this Title are first all Viscounts and Barons eldest Sons, and all Viscounts and Barons younger Sons; and by the Common-Law of England, all the Sons of Earls, Marquisses and Dukes are Esquires, and no more. Next are the Esquires of the King's Body, mentioned among the Officers of the King's Court: After these are reckoned the eldest Sons of younger Sons of Barons, and of all Noblemen of higher Degree; then Knights eldest Sons, and their eldest Sons for ever. Next, Esquires created by the King, by putting about their Neck a Collar of SS's, and bestowing on them a Pair of Silver Spurs. Lastly, Diverse that are in superior publick Office for King or State, are reputed Esquires, or equal to Esquires, as Serjeants of the several Offices in the King's Court, and other Officers of Rank and Quality; so Justices of the Peace, Mayors of Towns, Counsellors at Law, Bachelors of Divinity, Law, or Physick; tho' none of them are really so.

In the last Place, among the lower Nobility are accounted the Gentry of England, that have no other Title, but are descended of ancient Families that have always born a Coat of Arms.

This kind of Honour is deriv'd from the Teutonic and Gothic Nations to the rest of Christendom, and was never known in any Country where the Teutonic and Gothic Customs were unknown, as in Asia, Africa and America.

A Gentleman is properly one whose Ancestors have been Freemen, and have ow'd no Obedience to any Man besides their natural Prince; so that in Propriety of Speech no Man is a Gentleman who is not born so: But in England, the King being properly the Fountain of all Honour, he can make a Gentleman by Charter, or by bestowing an honourable Employment upon him.

The Title of Gentleman in England (as of the Cavalier in France, Italy, and Spain) is not dis'dain'd by any Nobleman. All Noblemen are Gentlemen, though all Gentlemen are not Noblemen.

Guillim is of Opinion, that if a Gentleman be bound an Apprentice to a Merchant, or other Trade, he hath not thereby lost his Degree of Gentility.

And therefore the Gentry and Nobility of England have not dis'dain'd so to dispose of their younger Children.

PRIVILEGES to the Lower Nobility.

THE lower Nobility of England have fewer, or less Privileges than those in other Monarchies.

Some few Privileges belong to Knights, quatenus Knights.

Knights are excused from Attendance at Court-Leets. Knights, by Magna Charta, Cap. 21, are so freed, that no Demesne Cart of theirs be taken.

The Son and Brother of a Knight, by Statute-Law, are capacitated to hold more than one Benefice with Cure of Souls.

Some Privileges also belong to Gentlemen.

If a Capias go against A. B. Yeoman, and if the Sheriff take A. B. Gentleman, an Action of false Imprisonment lieth against the Sheriff.

Colonels are Honourable, and by the Law of Arms ought to precede simple Knights; so are all General Officers, as Master of the Artillery, Quarter-Master-General, &c.

All higher Officers in the King's Court, or State, and all Serjeants at Law precede Esquires.

All Batchelors of Divinity, Law, and Physick, all Doctors in Arts, commonly called Masters of Arts, all Barristers in the Inns of Courts, all Captains, and other Military Officers who have the King's Commissions, diverse other Officers in the King's Household, &c. may equal, if not precede, Gentlemen that have none of these Qualifications.

In

In England; Gentry (as in Germany, all Nobility and Arms are held in Gavel-kind, descending to all the Sons alike, only the eldest Son beareth Arms without Difference, which the younger may not.

Of the lower Nobility in England, the Number is so great, that there are reckoned at present above 500 Baronets more than the first intended Number; that is, in all above 700, who are possessed one with another of about 1000 l. a Year in Lands. Of Knights, above 1400, who, one with another, may have about 800 l. in Lands a Year. Of Esquires and Gentlemen above 6000, each one possess'd, one with another, of about 400 l. a Year in Lands, amounting in all to about a third Part of the Yearly Revenue of all England; besides younger Brothers, whose Number may amount to above 16,000 in all England, who have small Estates in Land, but are commonly bred up in Divinity, Law, Physick, Court and Military Employments.

All in England are accounted Gentlemen who maintain themselves without manual Labour, and then well may those (be their Pedigree what it wili) who have 6, 8, and 10,000 l. a Year in Lands, and diverse Merchants who have 100,000 l. or 200,000 l. in Goods and Effects, stile themselves Gentlemen.

Yeomen.] Next to the lower Nobility, and the first Degree of the Commons, or Plebeians, are the Freeholders in England, usually called Yeomen, from the Saxon Gemane, in English, Common. In the King's Court it signifies an Officer which is in a middle Place between a Sergeant and a Groom.

In many Cases, the Law of England hath conceived a better Opinion of the Yeomanry that occupy Lands, than of Tradesmen, Artificers, or Labourers.

Husbandry hath in no Age rendered a Gentleman ignoble, nor incapable of Places of Honour.

Of the Freeholders of England there are more in Number, and Richer than in any Country of the like Extent in Europe; 40 or 50 l. a Year a-piece is very ordinary, 100 l. and 200 l. a Year in some Countries is not rare; sometimes in Kent and the Wild of Sussex, 5 or 600 l. per Annum, and 3 or 4000 l. Stock.

By the Statute of England, certain Immunities are given to Freeholders. Vide Stat. 1 Jac. I. Cap. 27 & alibi.

Besides these Freeholders, which are so called, because they hold Lands and Tenements inheritable by a perpetual Right to them and their Heirs for ever, there are in England a very great Number of Copy-holders, who hold Lands within some Manours, only by Copy of Court-Roll of the said Manour, &c. and have Jus perpetuum & utile Dominium, though not Allodium & directum Dominium, which Freeholders may improperly be said to have, for, properly, none in England but the King hath.

Among

Among the Commons of England, in the next Place are reckoned Tradesmen, among whom Merchants of Foreign Traffick have, for their great Benefit to the Publick, and for their Endowments and generous Living, been of best Repute in England; where, as well as in Italy, to become a Merchant of Foreign Commerce, hath been allowed no Disparagement to a Gentleman born, especially to a younger Brother.

Amongst Tradesmen, in the first Place are Wholesale-men, then Retailers: Lastly, Mechanicks, or Handicrafts-men. These are capable of bearing some Sway or Office in Cities and Towns Corporate.

The lower Members, the Feet of the Body Politick, are the Day-Labourers, who by their large Wages and Cheapness of all Necessaries, enjoy better Dwellings, Diet and Apparel in England, than the Husbandmen or Farmers do in most other Countries. [The Wages of Day-Labourers being but eight or ten Pence a Day, in Counties distant from London, those who have large Families find it very difficult frequently to find them Bread.]

LIBERTIES and PROPERTIES.

As the Clergy and Nobility have certain Privileges peculiar to themselves, so they have Liberties and Properties common to the Commonalty of England.

The Commons of England for Hereditary Fundamental Liberties and Properties, are best, above, and beyond the Subjects of any Monarch or State in the World.

First, No Freeman of England can be imprisoned, or otherwise restrained, without Cause shewn, for which by the Law he ought to be so imprisoned.

Secondly, To him that is imprisoned, may not be denied a Writ of Habeas Corpus, if it be desired, which brings them speedily to their Trial.

Thirdly, If no Cause of Imprisonment be alledged, and the same be returned upon an Habeas Corpus, the Prisoner must be set at Liberty.

Fourthly, No Soldiers can be quartered in the House of any Freeman (unless he be a Victualler, or sell Brandy and other strong Liquors by Retail) in Time of Peace, without his Will, though they pay for their Quarters; nor in Time of War, unless the Enemy be in the Country.

Fifthly, Every Freeman hath such a full and absolute Propriety in his Goods, that no Taxes, Loans, or Benevolences ordinarily and legally can be imposed upon them, without their own Consent, by their Representative in Parliament. Moreover, they have such an absolute Power, that they can dispose of all they have how they please, even from their own Children, and to them in what Inequality they will, without shewing any Cause; which other Nations governed by the Civil Law can't do.

Sixthly, No Freeman can be tried but by his Peers, nor condemned, but by the Laws of the Land, or by an Act of Parliament.

Seventhly, No Freeman may be fined for any Crime, but according to the Merit of the Offence; always salvo sibi conventu suo, in such manner, that he may continue and go on in his Calling.

Briefly, If it be considered only, that they are subject to no Laws but what they make themselves, and pray the King and the Lords to consent unto, their Liberties and Properties must be acknowledged to be far above that of the Subjects of any of our Neighbour-Nations.

CHAP. V.

Of the Women, Children, and Servants in England.

Touching the Women of England, there are diverse things considerable in the English Laws and Customs: Women in England, with all their moveable Goods, so soon as they are married, are wholly in poteſtate Viri, at the Will and Disposition of the Husband.

If any Goods or Chattels be given to a Femme Covert (i. e.) to a married Woman, they all immediately become her Husband's: She can't let, set, sell, give away, or alienate any thing without her Husband's Consent.

Her very necessary Apparel, by the Law, is not hers in Property. If she hath any Tenure at all, it is in Capite, that is, she holds it of, and by her Husband, who is Caput Mulieris.

All the Chattels personal the Wife had at the Marriage, are so much her Husband's, that after his Death they shall not return to his Wife, but go to the Executor, or Administrator of the Husband, as his other Goods and Chattels, except only her Parapherna, or Præter Dotalia, which are her necessary Apparel, which, with the Consent of her Husband, she may devise by Will, not otherwise by our Law, because the Property and Possession even of the Parapherna are in him.

The Wife can make no Contract without her Husband's Consent, and in all Law-Matters, sine viro respondere non potest, can't reply without her Husband.

The Law of England supposes in the Husband the Power over his Wife as over his Child or Servant, and therefore he must answer for his Wife's Fault; if she wrong another by her Tongue, or by Trespas, he must make Satisfaction.

So the Law makes it as high a Crime, and allows the same Punishment to a Woman that shall kill her Husband, as to a Woman

Woman that shall kill her Father or Master; and that is Petit-Treason, to be burnt alive.

The Woman upon Marriage loseth not only the Power over her Person, and her Will, and the Property of her Goods, but her very Name; for ever after she useth her Husband's Sir-name, and her own is wholly laid aside; which is not observed in France and other Countries, where the Wife subscribes her self by her Paternal Name, as if Susannah, the Daughter of R. Clifford, be married to E. Chamberlayne, she either writes her self Susannah Clifford, or else Susannah-Clifford-Chamberlayne.

Notwithstanding all which, their Condition de facto is the best of the World: for such is the good Nature of Englishmen towards their Wives, such is the Tenderness and Respect, giving them the upper most Place at Table and elsewhere, the Right-hand every where, and putting them upon no Drudgery and Hardship; that they are, generally speaking, the most happy Women in the World.

Besides, in some things the Laws of England are above other Nations so favourable to that Sex, as if Women had voted at the making of them.

If a Wife bring forth a Child during her Husband's long Absence, tho' it be for some Years, yet if he lived all the time inter quatuor Maria, within this Island, he must Father that Child; and if that Child be her first-born Son, he shall inherit that Husband's Estate, if intailed, or left without Will.

If a Wife bring forth a Child begotten by a former Husband, or by any other before Marriage, but born after the Marriage with another Man, this latter must own the Child, and that Child shall be his Heir at Law.

The Wife after her Husband's Death, having no Jointure settled before Marriage, may challenge the third Part of his yearly Rents of Land during her Life; and within the City of London, a third Part of all her Husband's Moveables for ever. [This last Clause is altered by the Statue of 2 Georg. 1. Cap. 18. which impowers Freemen to dispose of their personal Estates by Will as they think fit.]

As the Wife doth participate of her Husband's Name, so likewise of his Condition. If he be a Duke, she is a Dutches; if he be a Knight, she is a Lady; if he of an Alien be made a Denison, she is ipso facto so too. If a Freeman marry a Bond-woman, she is also free during the Coverture; whereof also it is said as before, Uxor fulget radiis Mariti.

All Women in England are comprised under Noble or Ignoble.

Noble Women are so three manner of Ways; by Creation, by Descent, and by Marriage.

The King, the Fountain of Honour, may, and often hath created Women to be Baronesses, Countesses, Dutches, and the like.

As by Richard the Second's Creation, Margaret Countess of Norfolk was made Dutches of Norfolk for Life; so Anne Boleyn, afterwards Wife to Henry VIII. was made Marchioness of Pembroke; the Lady Mary Compton, in King James the First's Time, was made Countess of Buckingham for Life; the said King James made the Lady Finch, Viscountess of Maidstone, and afterwards Countess of Winchelsea, to her, and her Heirs Male of her Body, with a special Clause, that such her Heirs Male should have Voice and Place in Parliament, & inter alios Vicecomites & ante Barones, ut Vicecomites Maidstone.

By Descent all those Women are Noble to whom Lands holden by such Dignity do descend as Heirs.

By Marriage all Women are Noble, who take to their Husbands any Baron or Peer of the Realm; but if afterwards they marry to Men not Noble, in the Sense of the Law they lose their former Dignity, and follow the Condition of their latter Husband; for, eodem modo dissolvitur earum Nobilitas, quo constituitur. But Women Noble by Creation, or Descent, or Birth-right, remain Noble, though they marry Husbands under their Degree; for such Nobility is accounted Character indelebilis. Here note, that by the Courtesy of England, a Woman Noble only by Marriage, always retaineth her Nobility; and so the Widow of a Knight, married to an inferior Person, retaineth, by Courtesy, the Title and Name gotten by her former Husband; but if the King's Daughter marry a Duke or an Earl, illa semper dicitur Regalis, as well by Law as Courtesy.

Note also, That any Woman who is Noble by Birth, if she be married to a Baron, takes Place according to the Degree of her Husband, tho' she be a Duke's Daughter: But if she marry to one under those of the higher Nobility, or to a Knight or Gentleman, then, by Courtesy, Place is given according to her Birth, and not her Husband's.

Noble Women, in the Eye of the Law, are Peers of the Realm, and are to be tried by their Peers, and to enjoy most other Privileges, Honour and Respect, as their Husbands; only they can't, in the Opinion of some great Lawyers, maintain an Action upon the Statute de Scandalo Magnatum, the Makers of that Statute meaning only to provide in that Case for the Great Men, and not for the Women, as the Words of that Statute seem to import: Likewise if any of the King's Servants within his Check-Roll, shall conspire the Death of any Noble Woman, this were not Felony, as it is, if the like Conspiracy be against a Nobleman.

None of the Wife's Dignities can come by Marriage to their Husbands, although all their Goods and Chattels do; only the Wife's Dignities with the Lands are to descend to her next Heir: Yet is the Courtesy of England such, that as the Wife or her Dowry hath the third Part of her Husband's Lands during her Life, so the Husband, for the Dignity of his Sex, and for getting his Wife with Child (which must appear by being born alive) shall have all his Wife's Lands for his Dowry (if it may be so called) during his Life: But if a Foreign Lady or Gentlewoman marry an English Man, and she herself be not denized, she is barred all Privileges and Titles due to her Husband, nor can she claim any Dowry by the Laws of England.

The Wife in England is accounted so much one with her Husband, that she can't be produced as Witness for or against her Husband, unless in Criminal Cases, where herself is concerned, as in Assaults, Rapes, &c.

If an English Woman marry a French, Spanish, or other Foreign Duke, though he be made a Denizen, yet she shall not bear his Title and Dignity in legal Proceedings.

The like if she marry an Irish Peer, by reason such an one's Husband is not a Peer in England by Law.

CHILDREN.

THE Condition of Children in England is different from those in our neighbouring Countries.

As Husbands have a more absolute Authority over their Wives and their Estates, so Fathers have a more absolute Authority over their Children. Fathers may give all their Estates untailed from their own Children, and all to any one Child, and none to the rest.

Children, by the Common-Law of England, are, at certain Ages, enabled to perform certain Acts.

A Son at the Age of 14 may choose his Guardian, may consent to Marriage.

At 21 he is said to be at full Age, may then make any Contract, may pass not only Goods, but Lands by Will, and is of Age to sit in either House of Parliament; which in other Countries may not be done 'till the Annus Consistentia, the Age of twenty-five.

A Daughter at 12 is able to consent to Matrimony; and if at that Age she dissent not, she is bound for ever.

At 21 she is enabled to contract or alienate her Lands by Will or otherwise.

The eldest Son commonly inherits all Lands, and to the younger Children are disposed Goods and Chattels, and besides, they are carefully educated in some Profession or Trade. [In some Places, as in Kent, by the Custom of Gavel-kind, the Lands are equally divided among the Sons, and in others the youngest inherits all the Lands by a Custom called Borough-English.]

If there be no Son, the Lands as well as Goods are equally divided among the Daughters; yet in some Manours, as that of Bray in Berkshire, the eldest Daughter succeeds, like the eldest Son, to the whole Inheritance.

Of SERVANTS.

Servants in the Saxon Times were properly Slaves, and very many Instances of their Manumissions are still extant, with the Forms by which their Masters set them free. Now Slavery is entirely taken away, and every Servant, Man or Woman, excepting Apprentices, who are but for a Term of Years, are properly hired Servants. Ordinary Servants are hired commonly for one Year, at the End whereof they might be free, giving Warning three Months before, and may place themselves with other Masters; only it is accounted discourteous and unfriendly to take another Man's Servant before Leave given by his former Master; and unlawful (the Penalty being five Pounds) to take a Servant without Certificate of his Diligence, and of his Faithfulness in his Service to his former. [This Act of 5 Eliz. Cap. 4. here referred to, relates only to Servants in Husbandry, and some few Traders, and that only where the Wages are fixed by the Quarter-Sessions in each County, which is scarce ever done at present. Servants having served the Time they contracted for, are at Liberty to go where they please, and any Man may hire them. They are scarce under any Government, but the Pests of every Family.]

All Servants are subject to be corrected by their Masters, or Mistresses; and Resistance in a Servant is punished with a severe Penalty: But for a Servant to take away the Life of his Master or Mistress, is accounted a Crime next to High-Treason, and called Petit-Treason, and hath a peculiar Capital Punishment.

Foreign Slaves in England there are none since Christianity prevailed. A Foreign Slave brought into England, is upon landing ipso facto, free from Slavery, but not from ordinary Service. [He is not at Liberty to go into the Service of another, nor can he demand Wages like another Servant, but remains his Master's Property, notwithstanding his being brought into England.]

Some Lands in England were holden in Villenage, to do some particular Services to the Lord of the Manour; and such Tenants may be called the Lord's Servants; but this kind of Tenure is in a manner out of use.

C H A P. VI.

Of the LAWS of England.

THE particular Laws now in Use, are the Civil-Law.] Of this Law and the Canon-Law, Use is made in all Ecclesiastical Courts of Bishops, Archdeacons, Vicars-General, Chancellors, and Commissaries. So this Law is made use of in the Court of Admiralty. Moreover, Use is made of the Civil-Law in the Court of the Earl-Marshal. Of this Law much Use is made in Treaties with Foreign Potentates, where many Points are to be determined and concluded, according to the Direction of this most excellent and generally approved Law; and for this Cause Foreign Princes take especial Care to choose such Persons for their Ambassadors as are skilled in the Civil-Law; and this Policy was heretofore duly observed by our English Princes, with very good Success. Lastly, The two Universities of England serve themselves of the Civil-Law; for by their Privileges, no Student is to be sued at Common-Law, but in the Vice-Chancellor's Court, for Debts, Accompts, Injuries, &c.

Canon-Law.] The Canons of many ancient General Councils, of many National and Provincial English Synods, besides diverse Decrees of the Bishop of Rome, and Judgments of ancient Fathers, had been received by the Church of England, and incorporated into the Body of the Canon-Law, by which she always proceeded in the Exercise of her Jurisdiction, and doth still, by Virtue of the Statute 25 Henry VIII, so far as the said Canons and Constitutions are not repugnant to the Holy Scripture, to the King's Prerogative, or the Laws, Statutes, and Customs of this Realm.

Common-Law.] The Common-Law of England is a Compendium of the best and most ancient Saxon Laws, first made by Ethelbert the first Christian King. Venerable Bede says, these Laws were made according to the Example of the Romans ad Snotega Zepeate, with the Thought or Advice of his wise Men, and the King commanded them to be wrote and published in English.

King Alfred indeed is called Magnus Juris Anglicani Conditor, the Great Founder of the English Laws; but not that they were first made in his Reign, for there were Saxon Laws then in Being, which had been made for above three hundred Years before his Reign; but the Meaning was this only, that he being the First sole Monarch after the Heptarchy, collected the Substance of the Laws of all the former Saxon Kings, from King Ethelbert to his Time, who were Kings only of Part of the Land, into one Body, and so formed one entire Codex, or Book of Laws. Now this Codex being made up of such Variety of different Laws, enacted by the several Saxon Kings reigning over distinct Parts of the Kingdom, being now reduced into one Body, and made to extend equally to the whole Nation, it was very proper to call it the Common-Law of England: Which Jus Commune, Jus Publicum, or Common-Law, was soon after called in Saxon the Folc-right, or People's Right; and it is not very unlikely, but that this Collection of Laws, thus made by King Alfred, and set down in one Codex, might be the same with the Dom-bee, or Dome-book, which is referred to in all the subsequent Laws of the Saxon Kings, and was the Book of Laws or Statute-Book that they determined Causes by; for before the King's Reign, that is King Alfred's, I nowhere find any Mention made either of Folc-right or Dome-book; but in the next Reign, you find King Edward the Eldest, commanding all his Judges to give right Dome, right or just Judgment to all the People of England, to the best of their Skill and Understanding, ƳƳahrtan ƳƳe Dom-bee ƳƳand, as it stands in the Dome-Book, or Book of Laws; and further commands, that nothing make them afraid to declare and administer Folc-right, that is, the Common-Law of England, to all his loving Subjects.

These Laws indeed were not much observed in the Reigns of Harold the First and Hardicanute, because they were Usurpers of the Danish Race, and their Reigns very short, both of them not exceeding seven Years. But in the Time of Edward the Confessor, he being of the Saxon Race, all these Laws were again received and restored: And out of those Laws then extant, Edward the Confessor made a Collection, as Alfred did before him, and then ordering those to be observed which were neglected in the short Reigns of Harold and Hardicanute, he may well enough be called the Restorer of the English Laws. And as those Laws were then called the Folc-right, and really were the Common-Law of England, so the present Common-Law is in Substance the same, though it hath undergone diverse Alterations.

The Normans, who invaded the Saxons, did not so much alter the Substance, as the Names of Things: And notwithstanding the pretended Conquest of William I. these Laws of good King Edward were not abolished by him; for when King William published those Laws, he expressly mentions them to be Edward the Confessor's Laws, published them as such, confirms and proclaims them to be the Laws of England, and took an Oath to keep them inviolable, as the holy and pious Kings of England, his Ancestors, had done before him.

From this Original it is that our Common-Law came, and from it, our Common-Law Judges fetch that excellent Usage of determining Causes according to the settled and established Rules of Law, and have acted up to this Rule for above Eight hundred Years together, and, to their great Honour, continue so to do to this very Day.

Besides the Common-Law of England in general, there are, in diverse Parts of England, Customs and Common Usage, which have the Force of Common-Law among those People to whose Property they belong, as Borough-English, a Custom so called, because not in Use out of England, where the youngest Son, or for want of Sons, the youngest Brother is to inherit; being presumed that in Boroughs, or Trading Towns, the eldest Sons might probably have learned their Father's Trade, and that the youngest would always be least able to keep himself. Gavel-kind, of which see Page 15, in Kent, &c.

Statute-Law] Where the Common-Law is silent, there we have excellent Statute-Laws made by the several Kings of England, by and with the Advice and Consent of all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of all the Commons of England, by their Representatives in Parliament, whereunto the English easily submit, as made at their own earnest Desire and Request, and yet too much neglect them.

All Trials of Common and Statute-Law are tried by a Jury of Twelve Men; which is thus: The Sheriff summons Twenty-four Men, Householders, out of the Neighbourhood of that Place where the Matter contested lies; Twelve of whom are chosen to try the Cause. [By the Statute of 3 Georg. II. Cap. 27. the Sheriff is obliged, in Civil Causes, to return a Number of Jurors, not less than 48, and not exceeding 72, whose Names being written in distinct Papers of equal Size, are to be roll'd up and put into a Box or Glass, and when a Cause is to be tried, drawn by an indifferent Person in open Court, till twelve are drawn (not challenged and set aside); and such twelve Persons first drawn, and appearing, are to be the Jury to try the Cause: But this Method of drawing Juries is unhappily restrained to Civil Causes, and not extended to Criminal Proceedings.] The Lawyers on both Sides plead in open Court before the Judges; these Twelve Men standing near, may hear all that is said and produced on either Part, and may ask what Questions they please of the Witnesses. When all the Witnesses are examined, and all Pleadings are over, one of the Judges briefly recapitulates all that has past, putting the Twelve Men in mind of what has been alledged, and defended on either Side, and informing them what Points are according to Law, and what not; after which, this Jury of Twelve

Twelve Men are bid to retire by themselves, an Officer being charged with them, to see that they have neither Meat, Drink, Fire, nor Candle, that they may the sooner conclude their Opinions, which must be all Unanimous. When they are agreed, they come back into Court, and desiring their Foreman (i. e.) the first upon the List, may speak for them; he declares in two or three Words the Opinion of all the Jury, all being of one Mind, or else to be remanded back to their Confinement, and according to their Judgment the Sentence passes finally. Note, the Returns of Verdicts are bound up to Forms, adapted to the Nature of the Cause: As in Criminal Causes, Guilty, or Not Guilty; in Civil Actions, Finding for the Plaintiff, or for the Defendant, &c. This is the uncontrollable Property of every free-born Subject of England, to be tried by his Peers, and that not only in Matters of Claim and Propriety between Subject and Subject, but in all Criminal Cases too at the King's Suit. [A Prisoner may challenge 35 of the Juries peremptorily in High-Treason, and as many more as he can shew just Cause of Challenge against. In Felony, the Prisoner may challenge Twenty peremptorily; the same in Petit-Treason.]

Peculiar and By-Laws.] By the King's Royal Charter, granted to diverse Cities in England, the Magistrates have a Power to make such Laws as may be beneficial for the Citizens, and not repugnant to the Laws of the Land; and these are binding only to the Inhabitants of that Place, unless such Laws are for general Good, or against a general Inconvenience; for then they bind Strangers.

Forest-Laws.] The Forest-Laws are peculiar Laws, different from the Common-Law of England. Forests in England are exceeding ancient, and before the making of Charta de Foresta: Offences committed therein were punished at the Pleasure of the King, in so sharp and grievous a Manner (as still in Germany) that both Nobles and Commons did suffer many horrible Inconveniencies and Oppressions; and even in that Charter were some hard Articles, which the Clemency of gracious Kings have since, by Statute, thought fit to alter per Assisas Forestæ; yet in the Time of Edward the Third, and also at this Day, Voluntas reputabitur pro facto; so that if a Man be taken hunting a Deer, he may be arrested as if he had taken a Deer. The Foresters may take and arrest a Man, if he be taken either at Dog-draw, Stable-stand, Back-bear, or Bloody-band; for in these four a Man is said to be taken in the Manner, tho' three of them may be but Presumptions.

Martial-Law.] Lex Castrensis Anglicana, is that Law which dependeth upon the King's Will and Pleasure, or his Lieutenant, in Time of actual War; for altho' in Time of Peace, the King, for the more equal Temper of Laws towards all his Subjects, makes no Laws but by the Consent of of the Three Estates in Parliament: Yet in Time of War, by reason of great Dangers arising suddenly and unexpectedly upon small Occasions, he useth absolute Power; insomuch as his Word goes for a Law. Martial Law extends only to Soldiers and Mariners, and is not to be practised in Times of Peace, but only in Times of War, and then and there only where the King's Army is on Foot: But this is very much regulated of late by Statute-Law. [By 1 Georg. I. Cap. 9, and subsequent Statutes, every Court-Martial for Trial of Soldiers is to consist of 13 Officers at least, and the President to be a Field-Officer: Every Officer is to take an Oath to go according to Evidence, and the Witnesses are to be sworn; no Sentence of Death to be given unless nine Officers concur therein: Martial Law is sometimes exercised in Time of Peace.]

CH A P. VII.

Of Humours, Manners, Diet, Attire, Recreations, and Buildings.

THE English differ from one another in their Humours as they do in their Birth, Education, and Profession. The Nobility, Gentry and Scholars, as well as most of the Merchants and chief Tradesmen, are extremely well polished in their Behaviour; but the common Sort are rude and even barbarous, as the Effects of popular Tumult shew: [This Character of the English is very unjust; the better Sort of People are not extremely polite, neither are the common People barbarous. It is said of the English, with a great deal of Truth, that they are neither so light and trifling as the French, nor so stiff and haughty as the Spaniard, and that their Humanity and Benevolence is equal to that of any Nation in Europe. As to their being addicted to Riots and Tumults, I question whether they ever deserved that Charge more than their Neighbours; but if they did, the Act of 2 Georg. I. Cap. 19. has perfectly cured them.] For when the Rabble are got together, they commit the greatest Outrages, and render themselves sometimes very formidable even to the Magistrate, who needs great Courage and Virtue to oppose them: And, in Truth, at such Times there is no Way without Blood-shed to quiet them.

The English are a People that are extremely taken with Oratory, and they have the best Sort of it in the greatest Perfection, that of the Pulpit.

[Dancers.] The English, according to their Climate, are of a middle Temper; graceful, and yet easy; chearful, yet well composed.

Their

Their Ingenuity will not allow them to be excellent at the Cheat, but they are subject in that Point rather to take than give; and supposing others to be as open-hearted as themselves, are many times in Treaties over-matched by them whom they over-match'd in Arms and true Valour, in which they have been very eminent in all Ages, and almost in all Lands and Seas too of the whole World.

The English, since the Reformation, are so much given to Literature, that all Sorts are generally the most knowing People in the World: Men and Women, Children and Servants, cannot only read, but write Letters, to the greatest Encrease of Commerce, and the prodigious Advantage and Augmentation of the Post-Office, in Proportion beyond any other Post-Office of Europe. And yet some compute the Revenues of the Post in France, to be four times as great as the Revenues of the English Post, though they are not treble the Number of People. But then this Inequality must arise from the Situation of France, that makes it in Effect the Post-Road of all Europe.

The English have been so much addicted to writing of Books, especially in their own Language, and with so much License or Connivance, that, according to the Observations of a learned Man long ago, there were, during our late Troubles and Confusions, more good, and more bad Books printed and published in the English Tongue, than in all the vulgar Languages in Europe.

For Solidity of Matter, for Elegancy of Stile, the Methods in their Sermons, Comedies, Romances, and also in their Books of Divinity, Philosophy, Physick, History, and all other solid Learning, no Nation hath surpassed, and few equalled them.

The English, especially the Gentry, are so much given to Prodigality, Sports and Pastime, that Estates are oftner spent and sold than in any other Country.

Dict.] The English are generally great Flesh-eaters, although by the Nearness of the Sea on every side, the great Multitude of Rivers, Brooks and Ponds, England abounds with almost all Sorts of excellent Fish, as is before-mentioned.

England abounds in Variety of Drinks above any other Nation in Europe: Besides all Sorts of the best Wines from Spain, Portugal, France, Italy, Germany, Hungary, Greece, there are sold in London above Twenty Sorts of other Drinks, as Brandy, Ratafia, Coffee, Chocolate, Tea, Rum, Punch, Usquebaugh, Mum, Sider, Perry, Mead, Metheglin, Sherbet, Beer, Ale; many Sorts of Ales, very different, as Cock, Stepony, Stithback, Hull, Derby, Northdown, Nottingham, Sandbach, Betony, Scurvy-Grass, Sage-Ale, College-Ale, China-Ale, Bowler's-Ale, &c.

Attire.]

Attire.] For Apparel or Cloathing, the French Mode hath been generally used in England of late Years; in the Time of Queen Elizabeth sometimes the High-Dutch, sometimes the Spanish, and sometimes the Turkish and Morocco Habits were by the English worn in England.

Recreations.] For Variety of Divertisements, Sports and Recreations, no Nation excels the English.

The King hath abroad his Forests, Chafes, and Parks, full of Variety of Game, Red and Fallow Deer, Foxes, Otters, Hawking; his Paddock-Courses, Horse-Races, &c. and at home, Tennis, Billiards, Comedies, Opera's, Masquerades, Balls, Ballats, &c. The Nobility and Gentry have their Parks, Warrens, Decoys, Paddock-Courses, Horse-Races, Hunting, Courting, Fishing, Fowling, Hawking, Setting-Dogs, Tumblers, Lurchers, Duck-hunting, Cock-fighting, Guns for Birding, Low-bells, Bat-fowling, Angling, Nets, Tennis, Bowling, Billiards, Tables, Chess, Draughts, Cards, Dice; Back-Sword, Sword and Dagger, Sword and Gauntlet, Sword and Buckler, Rapier, Quarter-staff, Single Faulchion, Double Faulchion (these mostly practised by those who stile themselves Masters of the Noble Science of Defence) Stage-plays, Masquerades, Balls, Dancing, Singing; all Sorts of Musical Instruments, &c. The Citizens and Peasants have Hand-ball, Foot-ball, Cricket, Skittles, or Nine-Pins, Shovel-board, Stow-ball, Cudgels, Bear-baiting, Bull-baiting, Bow and Arrow, Throwing at Cocks, Cock-fighting, Shuttle-Cock, Quoits, Leaping, Wrestling, Pitching of the Bar, and Ringing of Bells, a Recreation used in no other Country in the World.

Buildings.] Churches throughout all England, and the publick Edifices, are generally of solid Stone covered with Lead; Cathedrals and Collegiate Churches for the most part ample and magnificent; and the Churches in Market-Towns and opulent Villages, spacious and solid enough, beautified with very high Pyramids, or Steeples, or at least with stately high Towers: Houses in the City that were heretofore usually of Wood, are now built with Brick, and covered with Slate, or Tile; the Rooms within wainscoted, or hung with Tapestry, or other convenient Stuff, and all ceiled with Plaster, excellent against the Rage of Fire, against Cold, and to hinder the Passage of all Dust and Noise; of late Years Deal-Wainscot is found to be more convenient, and cheaper than Hangings.

The Houses of the Noble and Rich are abundantly furnished with fine Linnen, China-ware, and Plate; the meanest Mechanicks and Husbandmen want not Silver Spoons, and some Silver Cups in their Houses.

The Windows every where glazed, not made of Paper or Wood, as is usually in Italy or Spain: Chimnies in most Places, Places, no Stoves, although the far more Southern Parts of Germany can hardly subsist in the Winter without them.

CHAP. VIII.

Of VICES and PUNISHMENTS.

Vices. THE English National Vices were anciently Gluttony, and the Effects thereof Lasciviousness; so likewise Pride in Apparel, wherein they were so extravagant, foolish and superfluous, that diverse Statutes before our Reformation in Religion, and Homilies since, have been made against that Excess; and an Englishman was wont to be pictured naked, with a Pair of Taylor's Sheers in his Hand, a Piece of Cloth under his Arm, and Verses annexed, intimating, that he knew not what Fashion of Clothes to have.

Excess of Drinking was anciently more rare in England, as appears by an old Poet:

*Ecce Britannorum mos est laudabilis iste,
Ut bibat arbitrio pocula quisque suo.*

The Danes, in the Time of King Edgar, first brought it in; but it was afterwards banished hence, so that we find no ancient Statute since the Conquest against it; for tho' the Statutes heretofore made against Excess in Apparel and Diet are ancient, yet those against Drunkenness are but of late Date: For, 'till quarto of King James the First, there was no Law to restrain that voluntary Madness.

However, it may be truly affirmed, That at present there is generally less Excess in Drinking, especially about London, since the Use of Coffee, Tea and Chocolate, and less Excess in Diet than heretofore.

Impoisonments, so ordinary in Italy, are so abominable amongst the English, as 21 Henry VIII. it was made High-Treason, though since repealed; after which the Punishment for it was to be put alive into a Chaldron of Water, and there boiled to Death. At present it is only Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Stabbing in England is much more seldom than in Italy, the English being easily to be reconciled, to pardon and remit Offences, not apt to seek Revenge: The true well-bred English have more Inclination to Goodness, which the Greeks call Philanthropia, than any other Nations, the Nobility and Gentry delighting to be gracious and courteous to Strangers, compassionate to the Afflicted, and grateful to Benefactors, when their Purse or Estate, not diverted by other extravagant Expences, will give them Leave to remember them.

Of Punishments, and first ECCLESIASTICAL.

AND First, of those relating to Ecclesiastical Discipline, which when inflicted upon scandalous, notorious and contumacious Offenders, proceeds in this Manner: First, The Party delinquent is admonished; then if he refuses to answer, or otherwise to satisfy the Court, he is excommunicated, or excluded from the Church; or if not from the Church, yet from the Communion of the Lord's Supper, is disabled to be Plaintiff in a Suit of Law, &c.

This Power of Excommunication the Bishop may delegate to any grave Priest with the Chancellor.

Besides the general Censure of the Church, which respects Church-Communion, there is another which touches the Body of the Delinquent, called Publick Penance, when any one is compelled to confess in Publick his Fault, and to bewail it before the whole Congregation in the Church; which is done in this Manner: The Delinquent is to stand in the Church-Porch upon some Sunday, bare-head and bare-foot, in a white Sheer, and a white Rod in his Hand, there bewailing himself, and begging every one that passes by to pray for him; then to enter the Church, falling down and kissing the Ground; then in the Middle of the Church is he, or she, eminently placed in the Sight of all the People, and over-against the Minister, who declares the Foulness of his Crime, odious to God, and scandalous to the Congregation, &c.

Note, That it is ordained by the Canons of the Church of England, that in case the Crime be not notorious and publick, the forenamed Penance may, at the Party's Request, be commuted into a pecuniary Mulct for the Poor of the Parish, or some pious Uses, which is more usually done.

There remains one more Punishment, or Ecclesiastical Censure, which touches the Body, and that is Denial of Christian Burial, which is inflicted not in pœnam mortuorum, but in terrorem viventium, who naturally desire, that after their Death their Bodies may be decently interred. A Christian Burial is wont to be denied by the Church of England to Persons dying Excommunicate, to such as are hanged for Felony, or that wilfully kill themselves, and to Apostates and Hereticks.

To these fore-named Censures and Punishments, both Laity and Clergy are subject: But, besides these, there are Punishments whereunto the Clergy only are liable; as first, Suspensio ab Officio, when a Minister for a Time is declared unfit to execute the Office of a Minister.

Then Suspensio à Beneficio, when a Minister for a Time is deprived of the Profits of his Benefice; and these two Censures are wont to be for smaller Crimes.

Thirdly,

Thirdly, Deprivatio à Beneficio; when for a greater Crime, Minister is wholly and for ever deprived of his Living.

And, Fourthly, Deprivatio ab Officio, when a Minister is wholly and for ever deprived of his Orders; and this is Depositio, or Degradatio, and is commonly for some heinous Crime meriting Death, and is performed by the Bishop in a solemn Manner, pulling off from the Criminal his Vestments and other Ensigns of his Order, and this in the Presence of the Civil Magistrate, to whom he is then delivered to be punished as a Layman for the like Offence.

Secondly, Of Punishments relating to CIVIL Discipline.

BECAUSE the Punishments inflicted for several Crimes are different in most Nations, and those of England much different from those of all other Countries; a brief Account of them may probably not be unacceptable, to Foreigners especially.

All Crimes in England that touch the Life of a Man, are either High-Treason, Petit-Treason, Rape, Buggery, Murder, or Felony.

Although some High-Treasons are much more heinous and odious than others, yet the Punishment by Law is the same for all Sorts (except Clipping and Coining Money) and that is, that the Traitor, laid upon a Hurdle, or Sledge, be drawn to the Gallows. there hanged by the Neck, presently cut down alive, his Entrails to be suddenly pulled out of his Belly, and burnt before the Face of the Criminal; then his Head to be cut off, his Body to be divided into four Parts; and, lastly, that the Head and Body be hung up, or impaled where the King shall command.

Besides all this, he shall forfeit all his Lands and Goods whatsoever; his Wife shall lose her Dowry, his Children their Nobility, and all their Right of Inheriting from him, or any other Ancestors.

For Coining of Money, though adjudged High-Treason, the Punishment having been only Drawing and Hanging before the Statute of 25 Edw. III. it remains so still; but Hoveden saith, that before his Time the Punishment for falsifying Money was Loss of Eyes and Genitals.

Petit-Treason is either when a Servant killeth his Master or Mistress, or a Wife killeth her Husband, or a Clergyman his Prelate, to whom he oweth Obedience; and for this Crime the Punishment is to be drawn, as before, and to be hanged by the Neck 'till he be dead. The Punishment for a Woman convicted of High-Treason, or Petit-Treason, is all one, and that is to be drawn and burnt alive.

For Felonies, or other Capital Crimes, there were anciently several Sorts of Punishments, 'till Henry I. ordained, that the Punishment Punishment for all Felonies should be to be hanged by the Neck 'till they be dead.

But if a Peer of the Realm commit High-Treason, Petit-Treason, or Felony, altho' his Judgment be the same with that of common Persons, yet the King doth usually extend so much Favour to such, as to cause them only to be beheaded with an Ax, upon a Block, lying on the Ground, and not, as in all other Countries, by a Sword, kneeling or standing.

If a Criminal, indicted of Petit-Treason, Felony, or any Capital Crime, refuseth to answer, or put himself upon a legal Trial, then for such standing Mute, and Contumacy, he is presently to undergo that horrible Punishment called Pein forte & dure; that is, to be sent back to the Prison from whence he came, and there laid, in some dark Room, upon the bare Ground, on his Back, all naked except his Privy-Parts, his Arms and Legs drawn with Cords, fastened to the several Quarters of the Room; and then shall be laid upon his Body Iron and Stone, so much as he may bear, or more; the next Day he shall have three Morsels of Barley Bread, without Drink, and the third Day shall have Drink of the Water next to the Prison Door, except it be running Water, without Bread; and this shall be his Diet 'till he die. Which grievous kind of Death some stout Fellows have sometimes chosen; and so not being tried and convicted of their Crimes, their Estates may not be forfeited to the King, but descend to their Children, nor their Blood stained.

But though the Law continues, yet we so abhor Cruelty, that of late they are suffered to be over-charged with Weight laid upon them, that they expire presently.

But in Case of High-Treason, though the Criminal stand mute, yet Judgment shall be given against him as if he had been convicted, and his Estate confiscated.

After Hanging and Beheading, the Criminal's Friends usually interr the Body decently, where they please; only if the Crime be very enormous, as for Murdering and Robbing any Person, then by Order is the Criminal usually hanged by the Neck 'till he be dead, and afterwards hanged in Chains 'till the Body rot; and in some Cases his Right-hand is first cut off, and then he is hanged.

In all such Felonies where the Benefit of the Clergy is allowed (as it is in many) there the Criminal is marked with a hot Iron with an M for Manslaughter, on the Left-hand, or with a T for Thief; and wandering Rogues are to be marked on the Shoulder with an R.

For Petty-Larceny, or small Theft, that is under the Value of 12d. the Punishment anciently was sometimes Loss of an Ear, sometimes Cudgelling; but since Edward III. only by Whipping. But if such Petty-Thief be found by the Jury to have fled for the same, he forfeits all his Goods.

Perjury, by bearing false Witness upon Oath, in a Court of Record, is punished with the Pillory, called Collisfrigium, the Criminal burnt in the Forehead with a P, his Trees growing upon his Ground to be rooted up, and his Goods confiscated.

Forgery, Cheating, Libelling, false Weights and Measures, Forstalling the Market, Offences in Baking and Brewing, are commonly punished with standing on the Pillory, Whipping, and sometimes by nailing one or both Ears to the Pillory, and cutting off, or boring through the Tongue with a hot Iron. But of late we have lett off the Cruelty of cutting off Ears, severe Whipping, Branding on the Forehead, Boring the Tongue, and the like.

The Punishment for Misprision of High-Treason, that is, for neglecting or concealing it, is Forfeiture of the Profits of one's Lands, during Life, and of all Goods, and also Imprisonment for Life.

For Striking in the King's Court, whereby Blood is drawn, the Punishment is, that the Criminal shall have his Right-hand stricken off in a sad and solemn Manner.

For Striking in Westminster-Hall whilst the Courts of Justice are sitting, is Imprisonment during Life, and Forfeiture of all one's Estate.

For one found in a Pramunire, that is, one who incurs the same Punishment which was inflicted on those who transgressed the Statute of 16 Rich. II. cap. 5. commonly called the Statute of Pramunire facias, the Punishment is Forfeiture of all his Estate, to be put out of the King's Protection, and Imprisonment during the King's Pleasure.

The Punishment of Petty-Jurors attainted of giving a Verdict contrary to Evidence, wittingly, is severe: They are condemned to lose the Franchise, or Freedom of the Law, that is, become Infamous, and of no Credit, uncapable of being Witnesses, or of a Jury; their Houses, Lands, and Goods are seized into the King's Hands, their Houses pulled down, their Meadows ploughed up, their Trees rooted up, all their Lands laid waste, and their Bodies imprisoned.

The like Punishment is also for those who shall conspire to indict an Innocent falsely and maliciously of Felony: But indeed there are no late Instances of such Punishment.

Felo de se, that is, one who willingly killeth himself is to be interr'd without Christian Burial, with a Stake driven through the Corps, and to forfeit his Goods.

Drunkards, Vagabonds, prophane Swearers, loose, idle, disorderly Persons, Night-walkers, and the like, are punished by setting their Legs in the Stocks for certain Hours, and by certain pecuniary Mulcts. The Execution of those wholesome Laws against Prophaneness and Immorality, has been promoted with great Zeal, and no less Discretion, by the Societies for the Reformation of Manners.

Scolding Women are to be set in a Trebuchet, commonly called a Cucking-Stool, probably from the French Coquine, and the German Stull, the Queen's Chair, placed over some deep Water, into which they are let down, and plunged under Water thrice to cool their Choler and Heat.

Other Misdemeanours are commonly punished with Imprisonments, or Fines, and sometimes with both.

As for Breaking on the Wheel, and other like torturing Deaths, common in other Christian Countries, the English look upon them as too cruel to be used by the Professors of Christianity.

CHAP. IX.

Of SOCIETIES instituted in England for the Advancement of Religion, whether Incorporated or Voluntary.

IN the former Chapters, the coercive Methods used by the Government to regulate the Manners of the Nation, have been accounted for. There, are besides those, some voluntary ones; a brief Account whereof seems proper to be added in this Place; and that is of the several Societies that have been set up of late Years for the most effectual Promoting of God's Worship, the Reformation of Manners, and the Propagating of Christian Knowledge both in this Nation and in Foreign Parts; which are known by the Names of Religious Societies, The societies for Reformation of Manners, The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, and The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge.

1. The Religious Societies are so called, because the particular End and Design of them is to improve themselves and others in the Knowledge of our most holy Religion, and to animate one another in the serious Practice of it.

They were begun in London, about the Year 1678, by a few serious young Men of the Communion of the Church of England, who, by the Advice and Direction of their Spiritual Guides, agreed to meet together frequently for Religious Conference, and by Prayer and Psalmody to edify one another. The Experience they hereby gained of the Blessedness of Religion, and Value of Souls, soon animated their Endeavours to gain others to join with them; whereby they grew and increased, and New Societies were formed by the Pattern of the Old: So that there are now above Forty distinct Bodies of them within the Compass of the Bills of Mortality, besides diverse others in distant Parts of the Nation.

Those that compose these Societies, are Members of the Church of England, and, in all Matters of Doubt and Difficulty, oblige themselves to consult the established Ministry. They receive the Holy Sacrament at least once a Month, and take all convenient Opportunities of attending the Service of God in Publick; have set up Publick Prayers in many Churches of the City, procured the Administration of the Sacrament every Holy Day, and maintain Lectures upon the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, almost every Lord's Day Evening, in some one or more Churches.

They industriously apply themselves to the relieving poor Families and Orphans, setting Prisoners at Liberty, soliciting Charities for the pious Education of poor Children, visiting and comforting those that are Sick, and in Prison, and reclaiming the Vicious and Dissolute; in promoting Christian Conference, Decency in God's Worship, Family Religion, and the Catechizing of young and ignorant People. They have been instrumental in bringing several Quakers and Enthusiastical Persons to Baptism, and a sober Mind; reconciling several Dissenters to the Communion of the Church of England, and preserving many unsteady and wavering Persons from Papery.

2. Societies for Reformation of Manners, so called from the particular End and Design of them, which is to reform the Manners of the People, by putting in Execution the Laws against Immorality and Prophaneness.

They were begun in London, about the Time of the Revolution, by five or six private Gentlemen of the Communion of the Church of England; and, by the Accession of many virtuous Persons of the too various Denominations of Protestants among us, are now become considerable both for their Number and Interest. Of these,

1. There is a large Body composed of Persons of Eminency in the Law, Members of Parliament, Justices of the Peace, and considerable Citizens of London, who frequently meet to consult of the best Methods for carrying on the Business of Reformation, according to the Established Laws, and to advise and assist others that are already engaged, or willing to join in the same Design. By this Body the necessary Charge of this Design is defrayed, and no Contributions taken of any but their own Members: By their Endeavours several Thousands of Offenders in London and Westminster have been convicted of Swearing, Drunkenness, and Prophanation of the Lord's Day, and punished accordingly.

2. A second Body, consisting of about 50 Persons, Tradesmen and others, have more especially applied themselves to the Suppression of Lewdness, by bringing the Offenders to Legal Punishment, and have actually suppressed above 500 disorderly Houses, and convicted some Thousands of lewd Persons, besides Swearers, Drunkards, and Profaners of the Lord's Day, &c, as appears by their several printed Lists of Offenders.

A third is of Constables, of which Sort of Officers Care is taken to form yearly a new Body in London, who meet to consider of the most effectual Way to discharge their Oaths, to communicate the Difficulties they meet with, and to consult of proper Remedies. These divide themselves in the several Parts of the City, for the more regular Inspection of disorderly Houses, seizing of Drunkards and Swearers in the Streets and Markets, and carrying them before the Magistrates.

A fourth is such as give Informations to the Magistrate of such Breach of the Laws as above-mentioned.

There are eight other regulated and mixed Bodies of House-keepers and Officers in the several Quarters of London, Westminster, and Southwark, who differ in their Constitution from these before-mentioned, but generally agree in the Methods of inspecting the Behaviour of Constables and other Officers, whom they also assist in searching disorderly Houses, seizing Offenders, and giving Informations.

Several Societies of this kind are set up at Bristol, Canterbury, Hull, Nottingham, and other distant Parts of the Kingdom, and of late Years the like Designs have been carried on in Ireland, and in several of his Majesty's Provinces in America.

3. The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. That a Maintenance for an Orthodox Clergy might be secured, and other Provision made for the Propagation of the Gospel in the Plantations, Colonies, and Factories beyond the Seas, the late King, by his Letters Patent, dated June 16, 1701, did incorporate the most Reverend Fathers in God Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and John, Lord Archbishop of York, the Right Reverend Father in God, Henry, the Lord Bishop of London, and several others of the Lords the Bishops, of the Nobility, Gentry and Clergy, to the Number of about Ninety, therein particularly named, by the Name of The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, who by that Name were to plead and be impleaded; to have perpetual Succession, with Privilege to purchase Two Thousand Pounds per Annum Inheritance, and Estates for Lives, or Years, Goods and Chattels of any Value, to have a Common Seal, and to meet yearly on the third Friday in February, to choose a President, Vice-President, and Officers for the Year ensuing, and on the third Friday in every Month, or oftner, if need be, to transact Business, and to depute fit Persons to take Subscriptions, and collect Money contributed for the Purposes aforesaid; and of all Monies received and laid out, to give Account yearly to the Lord-Chancellor, or Keeper, the two Lord Chief-Justices, or any two of them.

This Society ordinarily meets every Month, according to the Direction of the Charter, and hath a standing Committee, to prepare Business for the Monthly Meeting: The former at St. Martin's Library, the latter at St. Paul's Chapter-House.

Of the above-mentioned Society there has been a very full Account given under the Title of An Account of the Foundation of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, with their Proceedings and Success.

4. The Society for promoting Christian Knowledge, whose Original Designs were to propagate Religion in the Plantations, to secure the pious and useful Education of the Poor here at Home, and to reclaim those that err in the Fundamentals of Christianity.

It was begun in London in March 1698, by some Persons of Honour and Quality, who held their stated Meetings for these Purposes, regulating themselves by the Laws of the Land, and Canons of the Church.

In the Year 1701, a Reverend Member of the Society, by his indefatigable Endeavours for promoting that Branch of the Society's Design which concerned the Plantations, procured above eight hundred Pounds among his Acquaintance, as well out of the Society as in it, and transmitted the same to the Plantations, in Libraries, Bibles, Common-Prayer-Books, Catechisms, and other Books proper to cultivate a Sense of Religion among the British Subjects in America: And by his Interest and great Application, secured a tolerable Maintenance for several Ministers to be employed in the Plantations, when by the earnest Solicitations of the same Divine, at the Request of the Society, the late King William was pleased, by Royal Charter, to establish the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, incorporating by Name all the then Members of the Society for Propagating, since called for Promoting Christian Knowledge, with diverse others, of the first Rank for Quality, both in Church and State: thereby discharging this Society from the further Pursuit of this Branch of their Original Design

Upon this Establishment the Society, in their voluntary Capacity of doing good, were so successfully engaged in setting up Charity Schools, and dispersing Religious Books and Catechisms, &c. among the Poor at Home, that they did not think fit to dissolve themselves, but appointing new Officers to supply the Place of those that were taken into the Service of the Corporation-Society, to subsist.

The Religious Societies in and about London, at that time did very much assist the Society in erecting Charity-Schools, by procuring Subscriptions and charitable Collections at the Church-Doors of the several Parishes where such Schools were most wanted; and even in several of the richer Parishes of the City, where there was no Schools, they obtained both Subscriptions and Collections, to be applied towards maintaining Schools in the Out-Parishes, where the Poor were most numerous: And this was done with so great Success, that in the Year 1704, there were erected in London and Westminster, and within ten Miles thereof, 54 Charity-Schools for the Instruction of 1386 Boys, 745 Girls; and the better to dispose the Parents of these Children to send them constantly to School, above half of them were compleatly cloathed.

The Success of this Example in the Metropolis, soon animated many other Parts of the Kingdom to follow it; and the Society inviting to their Correspondence many of the most active, well-disposed Gentlemen that they could hear of in every County, were enabled by them to publish in all Parts of the Kingdom, the great Usefulness of the Institution of Charity-Schools; and, in order to it, presented them, from time to time, with printed Accounts of the Rules of erecting and better governing these Schools, after the Manner practised in London, and also the Sermons preached at the Anniversary Meeting of the Charity-Schools within the Bills of Mortality, by some of the most learned Divines in the Nation, all highly approving the Design: So that in the Compass of about Twenty-two Years past, the Society have given away above Two hundred thousand of these Sermons and Accounts, &c. besides several Hundred Bibles, New Testaments, Common-Prayers, Whole Duties of Man, Expositions of the Church-Catechism, and other good Books, which the Society, or their Correspondents in the Country, have given to the Charity-Schools, and to poor Families, to Prisons, to the Fleet and Army, and British Garrisons abroad. And in Consequence of these Endeavours of the Society, and the united Labours of good Men in all Parts of Great-Britain and Ireland, it has pleased God so far to bless them, that in the Year 1721, there were 1492 Charity-Schools, wherein above Thirty-two thousand poor Children of both Sexes were taught to read, write, and say the Catechism; and if those are taken into the Account that have been educated in these Schools, and disposed of to Services and Apprenticeships during the last Twenty-one Years, it is very probable, that at least One hundred thousand poor Children have had their Education, or are now taught in them: By which prodigious Effect of Charity, it is certain that the Nation is delivered from many Thousands that would have been common Beggars, had they not come through these Schools into the World: And it may well be hoped, if it please God to bless the Instruction given them, that they will be instrumental to lessen the Prevalence of Profaneness, Vice, and Idleness among the lower Sort of People in the next and succeeding Generations.

In 1710, this Society engaged themselves to assist the Protestant Missionaries at Tranquebar, on the Coast of Coromandel, del in the East-Indies, and to promote Charity-Schools at the English Settlements in those Parts; the Success of which may be best learned from a Collection of Letters from the Missionaries and others in India, relating to the Mission, printed by Joseph Downing.

In 1720, this Society published a Proposal for printing the New Testament and Psalter in Arabick, for the Use of the poor Christians of the Eastern Nations, in Palestine, Syria, Mesopotamia, Arabia, and Egypt; which is now printed.

This Society meets weekly at St. Paul's Chapter-House, and now consists of between Four and Five hundred Persons, distinguished by the Names of Residing and Corresponding Members; the former of whom generally residing in London, take that Name, and are annually Contributors to the Expence of Books, &c. But the latter, called Corresponding Members, are exempted from any Contributions but what they please to send in to their common Treasury, in regard of the Expence they are supposed to be at in their respective Countries where they live. But whenever they come to London, they have the Liberty of attending the weekly Meetings of the Society, and to ask their Advice and Assistance in any Difficulty that occurs in promoting their Designs.

5. The Corporation for an Augmentation to poor Livings, was founded about the latter End of the Year 1703. Her late Majesty, of blessed Memory, being then pleased to inform her Parliament, by a Message, of her gracious Intentions of granting her whole Revenue of First-Fruits and Tenth to the Poor Clergy: Whereupon an Act was passed in the Second and Third Year of her Reign, entituled, An Act for the making more effectual her Majesty's gracious Intentions for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant in Perpetuity the Revenues of the First-Fruits and Tenth; and also for enabling any other Person to make Grants for the same Purpose: After which, her Majesty, by Letters-Patent under her Great-Seal, bearing Date the third Day of November, 1704, was pleased to establish a Corporation, by the Name and Title of The Governours of the Bounty of Queen ANNE, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, the greatest and most considerable that ever was known in England, being composed of all the Lords and others of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, for the Time being; all the Lords Lieutenants, and Custos Rotulorum in England; all the Lords the Bishops; all the Deans of Collegiate Churches; all the Judges; the Queen's Serjeants; the Attorney and Solicitor-General; the Advocate-General; the Chancellors and Vice-Chancellors of both the Universities; the Lord-Mayor and Aldermen of London; and all Mayors of Cities for the Time being: And by new Letters-Patent, dated the 5th of March 1713, for preventing venting the Delay and Obstruction of the Business of the said Corporation, her late Majesty was pleased to encrease the Number of the said Governors, by adding all the Officers of the Board of Green-Cloth; all the Queen's Serjeants and Council learned in the Law; and the Four Clerks in Ordinary of the Privy-Council. The first Thing the Governors did, after opening their Commission, was to consider the State of the Revenue of First-Fruits and Tenths, and of the Conditions and Numbers of poor Livings to which the Royal Bounty was to extend, viz. to all under 80 l. per Annum, which, upon Enquiry, appear to be more than 5000 in Number,

These Revenues of the First-Fruits and Tenths (when this Corporation was first established) being for the most part anticipated by diverse Grants for Lives and Years, no Distribution could be made for many Years; but since the Expiration of several of those Grants, there has been a considerable Distribution yearly, whereby about 304 Livings were augmented with the Royal Bounty at 200 l. each before Christmas 1720, and 53 two succeeding Years (whereof about 300 in Number have each received the like Sum from private Contributions); which is very considerable, if it be observed, that by reason of the Grants and Incumbrances before-mentioned, no Augmentations were made before November 1714. But the said Governors will now be enabled to continue their Augmentations yearly, to the Number of 50 or 60 small Livings at least.

Besides these Helps to the Clergy, there is a Society, whose Province is in a more peculiar Manner to assist their Widows and Children; and that is the Society of the Sons of the Clergy, incorporated by King Charles II. July 1, 1678, by the Name of the Governours of the Charity for Relief of the Poor Widows and Children of Clergy-men. Several Hundreds of Widows and Children of the Clergy have yearly received great Relief from this charitable Foundation, the Number of which in the Year 1713, was 449, and the Sums distributed among them, amounted to 1050 l. 11 s. There is a Branch of this Society at Chester, first promoted in the Year 1700, which deserves to be taken Notice of here, as worthy to be imitated in other Places. The Clergy of the Arch-Deaconry of Chester, at the Desire of the Right Reverend Dr. Stratford, then Bishop of Chester, and Dr. Enrwise, then Arch-Deacon, consented to meet at Warrington in that County, for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Clergy-Men. They have ever since continued to meet there on the first Thursday in June annually. They walk in a Body to Church, the Bishop being usually at the Head of them, where they hear divine Service and a Sermon: Thence they return to a House where they dine. After Dinner a Collection is made, every one putting secretly into a Box, prepared for that Purpose, what Money he thinks fit, which generally amounts to about 60 or 701. which by five Stewards is distributed to such Widows and Children of Clergy-men as they think proper Objects of Charity. This Society in Cheshire is now become a Member of the Corporation of the Sons of the Clergy in London, by an Instrument regularly executed, and is made capable of enjoying the same Privileges and Advantages with them.

Till the Reformation, there was no settled Allowance for the Poor in England, the Care of providing for them lay upon the Religious Houses, which were very numerous, and many of them very well endowed. But whether they were such bountiful Dispensers of their Charities, as that the Poor had no Reason to complain of them, may be very justly questioned: This is certain, that the Care of providing for them, was one of the earliest and chiefest Concerns of our first Reformers, after they had attained a tolerable Degree of Settlement.

For in the Year 1551, Dr. Ridley, Bishop of London, having preached upon this Subject before King Edward VI. the King was so moved with the Sermon, that he commanded that good Bishop and Sir Richard Dabbs, then Lord-Mayor of London, and others, to consider how the Necessities of the Poor of that City might be best supplied, and to lay their Schemes before him. These Commissioners accordingly divided the Poor into these four Classes.

1. Orphans and Infants.
2. Sick and Wounded.
3. Idle Persons and Vagabonds.
4. Decayed Householders.

For the three first of these, the King himself made the following Provisions.

To the Orphans and Infants he gave Grey-Friars, now called Christ's-Hospital in London.

For the Sick and Wounded, the Hospitals of St. Thomas and St. Bartholomew were set by.

For Idle Vagabonds, that they might be put to Work, and receive Correction for their Miscarriages, he gave his own Palace of Bridewell, which his Father had rebuilt some Years before for the Reception of the Emperor Charles V. He furnished it also with Goods from the Savoy, and licensed it to purchase Lands in Mortmain, to the Value of 4000 Marks per Annum. That Licence was signed but two Days before that excellent Prince died, who thanked God that his Life was spared long enough to make an End of that good Work.

The poor Householders were supplied by voluntary Contributions, raised and distributed as they saw proper from House to House.

Succeeding Generations have not been wanting to build upon King Edward VI.'s Foundation.

Queen

Queen Elizabeth appointed Overseers for the Poor by Act of Parliament, who are a Sort of Lay-Deacons in every Parish, who are bound to take Care of the Poor, and are empower'd, by the same Authority, to raise Sums of Money sufficient to supply their Wants. See the 43d of the said Queen.

C H A P. X.

Of the City of LONDON.

LONDON] being the Seat of the English Empire, and the chiefest Town of Trade in the World, the largest and most populous, the fairest and most opulent City at this Day in all Europe, perhaps in the whole World, surpassing, as some learned Men have conjectured, even Paris and Rome put together; it will not, I hope, seem impertinent to give a particular Account thereof.

Name and Antiquity.] London, so called, as some conjecture, from Llong-din, or Dinas, the British Word, signifying, in the Saxon Tongue, Shipton, or Town of Ships, was built certainly in the Roman Times, and that very early. For in Nero's Time, when Boadicea rose against Suetonius Paulinus the Roman Lieutenant, Londinum, as Tacitus calls it, was very famous for its Trade and Commerce.

Situation.] In the most excellent Situation of London, the Wisdom of our Ancestors is very conspicuous and admirable: It is seated upon a gentle rising Bank, in a wholesome Soil, mixed with Gravel and Sand, upon the famous and navigable River Thames, at a Place where it is cast into a Crescent, that so each Part of the City might enjoy the Benefit of the River, and yet not be far distant one from the other, about 60 Miles from the Sea, in an excellent Air upon the North-side of the River (for the Villages seated on the South-side are noted to be more unhealthy, in regard of the Vapours drawn upon them by the Sun) defended by gentle Hills from the North and South Winds. It lies in 51 Degrees, 30 Minutes, Northern Latitude.

The Highways leading from all Parts to this noble City, are large, straight, smooth and fair, no Mountains nor Rocks, no Marshes nor Lakes to hinder Carriages and Passengers; so that Corn may easily be brought, and Cattle commodiously driven unto it by Land; and those heavy, though necessary Commodities, Hay and Fuel, are more cheaply conveyed by Water. The City of London is supplied with Coals from Newcastle, which Trade employs many Hundreds of Ships, and Thousands of Seamen, who are reputed the ablest and hardiest Men we have. In a Word, all the Blessings of Land and and Sea, by the Benefit of Shipping, may be said to be here more easily enjoyed than in any City of the World.

Magnitude.] The City of London, with that of Westminster, and the Borough of Southwark (which being contiguous to one another, seem to make indeed but one City, and accordingly shall be so considered when we speak of Buildings, &c.) is of a vast Extention: From Lime-House, measured to the End of Tothil, or Tuttle-Street, from East to West, it is above 7500 Geometrical Paces; that is, above seven English Miles and an half. [The Length of the Town is not more than six Miles: The Royal Exchange stands about the Middle, and it is not more than three Miles from thence either to the East or West End of it, taking in the Winding of the Streets; and if we measure in a direct Line, it is not so much by half a Mile either Way.

The Number of Houses is computed to be about 120,000 at present, and allowing 8 and $\frac{1}{2}$ to a House, this makes the Inhabitants something more than a Million: Those that calculate the Number by the Weekly Bills, make them something less than a Million: If we compute them therefore at a Million of Souls, we come pretty near the Truth.] And from the farther End of Blackman-street in Southwark to the End of St. Leonard Shoreditch, is 2500 Paces, or two Miles and an Half.

In this great City the Streets, Lanes, Alleys, are in Number above 5000, and yet some of them above half a measured Mile in Length: Dwelling-Houses before the late dreadful Fire, were computed only within the Walls above 15,000, and that is now accounted but a seventh Part of the whole City, as may appear by the Weekly Bills of Mortality. The Number of Houses at present may in all Probability be at least 150,000, especially if we include all the new Streets, Lanes, Alleys, Courts, &c. built within twenty or thirty Years last past, on the North and North-West Parts of this vast Town; such as all those about Gray's-Inn, Lamb's-Conduit-Fields, Bloomsbury; all those in the upper Liberties of Westminster; and the most surprizing of all, those about Grosvenor-Square, Hanover-Square, bigger than most of the great Towns in England, and sprung out of the Ground in so short a Time, as is almost sufficient literally to defeat the old Adage, Rome was not built in a Day.

Number of Inhabitants.] That the Reader may the better guess at the Number of Inhabitants, or human Souls, within this great City, he must know, that in one Year there were computed to be eaten in London, when it was less by two Thirds, 67,500 Beefs, ten times as many Sheep, besides abundance of Calves, Lambs, Swine, all Sorts of Poultry, Fowl, Fish, Roots, Milk, &c. Also that every Year, to supply London with Newcastle Coal, there is brought into the River of Thames above 400,000 Chaldrons, and every Chaldron is 36 Bushels.

Again,

Again, the Number of Inhabitants may be guess'd at by the Burials in London, which in ordinary Years, when there is no Pestilence, amount of late to about 25,000 in a Year.

Drinks brewed in London in a Year.] The Total of Strong Beer and Ale 'tis 1,189,481 $\frac{1}{4}$ Barrels. The Total of Small-Beer is 740,846 Barrels.

The lowest Price of strong Beer, or Ale, is 18 s. per Barrel, the highest 2 l. 10 s.

The Small not amended with strong, is usually sold at about 7 or 8 s. a Barrel: If the Customers come to the Brew-Houses, 'tis sold the cheaper; if the Brewers carry it to their Customers, 'tis sold the dearer.

Note, What is brewed by private Persons is not included in the Account above, which, without doubt, is a very considerable Quantity, tho' 'tis difficult to make any near Computation.

The Quantity of Beer or Ale exported, is not very great; but 'tis far exceeded by the Quantities brought to London from Oxford, Lincoln, Nottingham, Derby, Lichfield, Burton, and several other Places in Staffordshire, Yorkshire, Wales, &c.

The Excise only of Beer and Ale for the City of London (tho' it be a very moderate Imposition) was not long ago farmed, or rented of the Crown at far above 120,000 Pounds a Year.

In a Word, the Author of the Map of London, published Anno 1684, reckons in this vast City 1,200,000 Souls; but the more accurate Sir William Petty counts but 115,846 Families, and 695,076 Souls, [The Numbers of Houses and People are vastly encreased since Sir William Petty wrote] which is, as he computes it, more than are in Paris, Rome, and Rouen; more than in Paris and Amsterdam; more than in Amsterdam, Venice, Rome, Dublin, Bristol, and Lyons; as many as in both the Provinces of Holland and West-Friezland.

River of Thames.] The River whereon is seated this great City, for its Breadth, Depth, gentle even Course, extraordinary wholesome Water, and Tides, is more commodious for Navigation than perhaps any other River in the World; the Sea flows gently up this River 70 Miles; that is, almost to Richmond, 8 or 9 Miles above London by Land, and 14 by Water. Boats are drawn about 200 Miles to Oxford, and higher many Miles.

It is High-water at this City as often as the Moon comes to the North-East and South-West Points of Heaven, the one in our Hemisphere, and the other in the other Hemisphere. The highest Tides are about a Land-Flood, the Wind North-West, at the Equinoctial, and the Moon at full: When these four Causes concur, which is very rare, then the Thames swells in some Places over its Banks, and Westminster is a little endamaged in its Cellars, but not in its Chambers and upper Rooms,

Rooms, as the City of Rome is sometimes by the overflowing of the Tyber, and Paris by the Seyne.

This River opening Eastwards towards Germany and France, is much more advantageous for the Trade of those Countries than any other River of England; to say nothing of the Variety of excellent Fish in this River, and above all, of the incomparable Salmon; the fruitful Soil, the pleasant rich Meadows, and innumerable stately Palaces on both Sides thereof: In a Word, the Thames seems to be the very radical Moisture of this City, and in some Sense the natural Heat too; for almost all the Fuel for Firing is brought up this River from Newcastle, Scotland, Kent, Essex, &c. or else down the River, from Surry, Middlesex, Berkshire, &c.

From this River the City, by Water-Engines, is in many Places supplied with excellent wholesome Water, also from almost twenty Conduits of pure Spring-water, and so commodiously placed; that they serve all the chiefest Parts of this City; and moreover, by a New River, brought at a vast Charge, and excellent Skill, by Sir Hugh Middleton, from Anwell and Chadwell, two Springs near Ware in Hertfordshire, from whence, in a turning and winding Course, it runs 60 Miles before it reaches this City: In some Places the Channel is necessarily 20 Foot deep, in other Places it is carried over Valleys more than 20 Foot high, above Ground, in open Troughs: Over this New River are made 80 Bridges, some of Stone, some of Brick, and some of Wood. This great Work was begun in 1608, and finished in five Years; it serves in the highest Places of London the lower Rooms, and in the lower Parts, the highest Rooms: Moreover, this City is so situated, that in all Parts, though on the highest Ground, it is abundantly served with Pump-water, and those Pumps in many Places not six Foot deep in the Ground. [Grosvenor and Hanover Building are supply'd with Water from a fine Reservoir in Hide-Park, to which the Water is brought from the Thames by Cuts made between the Grounds belonging to Chelsea-Water-works, and from thence convey'd in Pipes to the said Reservoir.]

Trade.] The vast Traffick and Commerce whereby this City flourishes, may be guessed at chiefly by the Customs which are paid for all Merchandize imported or exported, which in the Port of London only, without computing the Customs of other Cities, did lately amount to 330,000 Pounds a Year, and those of all England besides, to above three times that Sum, and are now above 1,300,000 l. a Year, at a Medium, in Time of War: And next, by the infinite Number of Ships, which, by their Masts, resemble a Forest, as they lie along the Thames, besides many that are sent forth every Year, to carry and fetch Commodities to and from all Parts of the known World; whereby it comes to pass, that no small Number of Merchants of London for Wealth, for stately Houses within the City for Winter, and without for Summer; for rich Furniture, plentiful Tables, and honourable Living; for great Estates in Money and Land, &c. excel some Princes in diverse of our neighbouring Nations.

Of the GOVERNMENT of The City of London.

THE Government of this City, considering the Greatness and Populousness thereof, is admirable.

Ecclesiastical Government.] The Ecclesiastical Government is by a Bishop, who is subject to the Archbishop of Canterbury: The See of London, since its Foundation by the Saxon Converts, soon after Augustine the Monk's coming hither, has been constantly governed by an uninterrupted Succession of Bishops for above 1100 Years: In which Space there are reckoned 92 Bishops of London. To this Cathedral also belongs a Dean, three Residentiaries, a Treasurer, Chancellor, Precentor, and thirty Prebendaries.

For the Ecclesiastical Government of the several Parishes, there are placed many excellent Divines, that have the Cure of Souls, a Rector or Vicar for every Parish; and these have for a long Time had the most excellent Way of Sermonizing in Christendom; insomuch as diverse Divines of foreign Reformed Churches have come hither on purpose to learn their Manner of Pulpit-Oratory. For maintaining these Ministers, with their Families, there is, in almost every Parish, a Parsonage or Vicarage-House, and in most a competent Allowance in Tithes. But since the great Fire, there is an Allowance settled by Act of Parliament, in those Parishes which were burnt down, upon every Rector or Vicar; by which Act none of them have less settled than 100 l. or more than 200 l. per Annum. And to save Building, Churches being rather too thick before the Fire, by the same Act of Parliament, two Parishes, where the old Churches were burnt, have now but one Church and one Minister between them: So that there are not much above half so many Churches in the City as were formerly.

Civil Government.] The Civil Government is not (as at Paris, Rome, Madrid, Vienna, and other Capital Cities) in some Nobleman, or Lawyer, who is set over the City by the King, as Supreme Governour; or as it was in the Time of the Saxons, when he was called the Portigerefa, that is, Custos or Guardian; and sometimes Provost of London. But after the coming in of the Normans, the chief Magistrate was called Bailivus from the French Word Bailler, Tradere, Committere, that is Commissarius, or one that hath Commission to govern others. There were sometimes two Bailiffs of London, till King Richard the First, Anno 1189, chang'd the Name of Bailiff into Mayor.

Lord-Mayor's Election.] He is usually chosen on Michaelmas-Day by the Livery-Men, or Members of the several Companies within the said City out of the 26 Aldermen, all Persons of great Wealth and Esteem. In which Election the Senior Alderman, that hath not been Mayor, hath usually the Precedence; yet in this Particular the said Electors sometimes take a Liberty.

His Authority.] His Authority reaches not only over this great City, and Part of the Suburbs, but also on the famous River of Thames: Eastward, as far as Yendale or Yenleet, and the Mouth of the River Medway; and Westward, as far as Colney-Ditch, above Stains-Bridge. He hath a Privilege, by Charter, to hunt in Middlesex, Essex, and Surry; and for this Purpose is always maintained a Kennel of Hounds, as aforementioned. He hath Power to punish or correct all that shall annoy the Stream, Banks, or Fish; and for that End he yearly keeps several Courts in the Counties adjacent to the Thames, for Conservation of the River, and Punishment of Offenders; only the Strength and Safety of the River against an Invasion, and securing Merchandizing and Navigation, by Block-Houses, Forts and Castles, is the immediate Care of the King.

Lord-Mayor's Courts of Judicature.] To the Lord-Mayor and City of London belong divers Courts of Judicature of high Importance.

The highest and most ancient Court, is that called the Hustings from the Danish Hus-ding, i. e. Domus Judicii, which preserves the Laws, Rights, Franchises, and Customs of the City.

There is also a Court of Request, or Conscience; so called, because meddling with nothing above 40 s. Value. There the Oath of the Creditor himself is accepted.

The Court of the Lord-Mayor and Aldermen, where also the Recorder and Sheriffs, who are Aldermen, or else usually chosen upon the next Vacancy, sit: Two Courts of the Sheriffs.

The Court of the City Orphans, whereof the Lord-Mayor and Aldermen have the Custody.

The Court of Common-Council, consisting (as the Parliament of Great-Britain) of two Houses; one for the Lord-Mayor and Aldermen, and the other for the Commoners; in which Courts are made all By-laws, which bind all the Citizens of London: For every Man, either by himself, or by his Representative, gives his Assent thereunto; wherein consists the great Happiness of the English Subjects, above all the Subjects of any other Prince in the World, that neither in Laws, nor By-Laws, neither in Taxes, nor Imposts, any Man is bound but by his own Consent.

There

There is another Court of the Chamberlain of the City, to whom belongs the Receipts of the Rents and Revenues of the City; and to his Court belongs the Business of Apprentices, over whom he hath a great Authority.

To the Lord-Mayor also belongs the Courts of Coroner and Escheater; and another Court for the Conservation of the River of Thames.

Lastly, the Court of Goal-Delivery, held usually eight Times a Year at the Old-Baily, both for the City and Middlesex, for the Trial of Criminals, whereof the Lord-Mayor is the Chief Judge.

There are other Courts, called Wardmotes, or the Meeting of Wards, whereof there are 26 in the whole City; in which Court Enquiry is made into all Things that can conduce to the Regulating and Well-governing of the City; also the Court of Halmote, or Assembly of every Guild or Fraternity, for regulating what belongs to each Company in particular.

His State.] His State and Magnificence is remarkable when he appears abroad, which in former Times was mostly on Horse-back, with rich Caparison, himself always in long Robes, sometimes of Scarlet Cloth richly furr'd, and sometimes Purple, and over his Robes a Hood of black Velvet, which, some say, is a Badge of a Baron of the Realm, with a great Chain of Gold about his Neck, or Collar of SS's, with a great rich Jewel pendent thereon, with many Officers, walking before and on all Sides of him; but more especially on the 29th of October, when he goes to Westminster in his Barge, accompanied with all the Aldermen, all his Officers all the several Companies, or Corporations, in their several stately Barges, with their Arms, Colours and Streamers; and having there in the Exchequer-Chamber taken his solemn Oath to be true to the King, returns in like Manner to the Hall of his own Company, or to Guild-Hall (that is, the great Common-Hall of Guilds, or incorporated Fraternities) where is prepared for him and his Brethren a most sumptuous Dinner, to which many of the great Lords and Ladies, all the Judges of the Land, and oftentimes the Lords of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council; also foreign Ambassadors are invited; and our Kings and Queens have often been pleased to honour the Feast with their Presence. This great Magistrate upon the Death of the King is said to be prime Person of England; and therefore when King James I. was invited to come and take the Crown of England, Robert Lee, then Lord-Mayor of London, subscribed in the first Place before all the great Officers of the Crown and all the Nobility.

The Mayor of London, tho' always a Citizen, hath been of such high Repure and Esteem, that in all Writing and Speaking to him, the Title of Lord is prefixed, which is given to none others, but either to Noblemen, to Bishops, Judges, and of later Time, to the Mayor of York, or to some of the highest Officers of the Realm: He is also, for his great Dignity, usually Knighted by the King before the Year of his Mayoralty be expired. The Lord-Mayor, on the Day of the Coronation, claims to be Chief Butler, and to bear the Cup amongst the highest Nobles of the Kingdom, which serve on that Day in their Offices.

His Table is, and also the Table of each Sheriff, such, that it is not only open all the Year to all Comers, Strangers, and others, that are of any considerable Quality, but so well furnished, that it is supposed to be always fit to receive the greatest Subject of England, or of other Potentate: Nay, it is recorded, that a Lord-Mayor of London hath feasted four Kings at once at his Table.

Also for the Grandeur of the Lord-Mayor, there is allowed above 1000 l. a Year for his Sword-bearer's Table in the House of the Lord-Mayor.

His Domestick Attendance is very Honourable: He hath four Officers that wait on him, who are reputed Esquires by their Places; that is,

The Sword-bearer.

The Common-Hunt, who keepeth a good Kennel of Hounds for the Lord-Mayor's Recreation abroad.

The Common-Crier.

The Water-Bailiff.

Sheriffs.] The two Sheriffs of this City are also Sheriffs of the County of Middlesex, and are annually chosen by the Citizens of London from among themselves, in the Guild-Hall, upon Midsummer-Day; a high Privilege, among many others, anciently granted to this City by several Kings and Queens of this Kingdom; but they are not sworn 'till Michaelmas-Eve, and are soon after presented at the Exchequer, to be allowed by the Barons, and sworn: After which they enter upon their Office. If either of the Persons so chosen refuse to hold, he incurs a Penalty or Fine of 400 l. unless he will swear he is not worth 10,000 l. ['Tis lately raised to 15,000 l.]

Aldermen.] The 26 Aldermen preside over the 26 Wards of the City: When any of these die, the Wardmote return two, and the Lord-Mayor and Aldermen choose one out of the most substantial Men of the City: If any so chosen refuse to hold, he is usually fined 500 l.

All the Aldermen that have been Lord-Mayors, and the three eldest Aldermen that have not yet arrived to that honourable Estate, are by their Charter Justices of the Peace of this City.

The Twelve Companies.] The Traders of London are divided into Companies, or Corporations, and are so many Bodies Politick: Of these there are 12, called the chief Companies; and he that is chosen Lord-Mayor, must be free of one of these Companies; which are,

1. Mer-

|------------------------|-----------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Mercers. | 5. Goldsmiths. | 9. Salters. |
| 2. Grocers. | 6. Skinner. | 10. Ironmongers. |
| 3. Drapers. | 7. Merchant-Tailors. | 11. Vintners. |
| 4. Fishmongers. | 8. Haberdashers. | 12. Clothworkers. |

All these 12 Companies have stately Halls.

And if it happen that the Lord-Mayor Elect is of any other Company, he presently removes to one of the Twelve. It hath been the Custom of some of our Kings, to honour some of these Companies, by taking their Freedom thereof; as his late Majesty King William was pleased to be made free of the Drapers Company, one of his Predecessors of the Grocers, &c. Each Company, or Mystery, hath a Master annually chosen from among themselves, and hath other subordinate Governors, called Wardens, or Assistants: These do exactly correspond to the general Government of the City, by a Lord-Mayor and Common-Council, who are selected out of these several Companies; so excellent an Harmony there is in that Government.

There are besides 74 other Companies, or Corporations, all enjoying large Privileges, by Royal Charters granted unto them, and most of them fair Halls to meet in.

Of the Government of the CITY of WESTMINSTER.

THE Government of the City of WESTMINSTER is distinct from that of London, tho' both Cities and their Liberties are contiguous; for they have neither Mayor, Sheriff, nor Aldermen: But instead of a Lord-Mayor, they have an High-Steward, who is usually one of the prime Nobility.

The High-Steward of Westminster is chosen by the Dean and Chapter, and holds this high Office durante vita. The Nature of his Office is not much unlike the Chancellorship of an University.

The Dean and Chapter here are invited with Ecclesiastical and Civil Jurisdiction, as the Vice-Chancellor is in an University; and not only within the City of Westminster, but within the Precincts of St. Martins-le Grand, near Cheapside, London; and in some Towns of Essex, exempted as well from the Jurisdiction of the Bishop of London, as from that of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

The Under-Steward of Westminster is likewise an Officer of great Note, and instead of a Sheriff, he holds this honourable Office durante vita.

The High-Bailiff is an Officer of Honour and Profit, named by the Dean, and confirmed by the High-Steward; he holds likewise for Life.

This City hath two Precincts; in each a Burgeſs is annually choſen out of the wealthieſt Citizens, by the reſt of the Burgeſſes, who repreſent Aldermen.

For Eccleſiaſtical Cauſes, as Probate of Wills, it hath a Royal Jurisdiction, under a Commiſſary; from whom no Appeal muſt be, only to the King, in his High Court of Chancery.

Southwark.] was granted by Letters-Patent of Edward IV. to be counted as one of the Wards of London, by the Name of Bridge-Ward without, and is governed by one of the 26 Aldermen of London. 'Tis vaſtly large, rich, and populous; a great Part of it hath been burnt down ſome Years ſince the great Fire of London; but all thoſe Ruins are now beautifully repaired.

City Trained-Bands.] At the Time of the Happy Reſtauration of King Charles the Second, there were in London and Liberties, ſix Regiments of Trained Bands, and ſix Regiments of Auxiliaries, and one Regiment of Horſe; but in caſe of Need, it is certain, that in London, and within the Liberty, there may in few Days be raiſed 40,000 Men, beſides Southwark. One Regiment of Trained-Bands 1500 Men; the Hamlets of the Tower Two Regiments, in all 3000 Men; then Holbourn Regiment, and Weſtminſter Regiment 2000 each; and in caſe of Neceſſity they can raiſe 20,000 more.

Artillery Company.] Beſides theſe Trained-Bands and Auxiliary Men, there is the Artillery Company, which is a Nurſery of Soldiers, and hath been to above 60 Years. This Company conſiſts of 600 Men. Their Officers are, a Leader, two Lieutenants, two Enſigns, two Serjeants, a Provost-Marſhal three Gentlemen of Arms, &c. They have alſo a Court-Marſhal, conſiſting of a Preſident and 24 Members of the Company. On the ſecond Tueſday in February is a general Rendezvous every Year.

Publick Buildings] in this noble City are very many and magnificent, thoſe moſt eſpecially that are conſecrated to the Worſhip of God: For, beſides the Royal Chapels of White-Hall and St. James's, that ſpacious one of Guild-Hall, and many others, there are 135 Pariſh-Churches, beſides Chapels, and new Churches. To begin with that celebrated Piece of Architecture, the Cathedral Church of St. Paul; it was firſt founded by Segbert, a Saxon King, Anno 610, in a Place, ſaith Mr. Selden, where had ſtood a Temple of Diana. But the Commentator on Antonius's Itinerary, ſuppoſes our Antiquary not to be in Earneſt, when he ſays, London was called Ihan Dien, i. e. The Temple of Diana. Afterwards it was enlarged by Erkenwald, the fourth Biſhop of this See. The greateſt Part was deſtroyed by Fire, 1086, in a general Conflagration of almoſt the whole City, and rebuilt by Maurice.

sius, the 35th Bishop, but not finished 'till 1221. It was 690 Foot long, that is 20 more than St. Peter's in Rome. The Nave, or Body, of the Church, 102 Foot high, 130 broad; its Area 3 Acres and a Half; its Tower in the Middle (for it was built as other Cathedrals, cross-wise) 520 Foot high, besides a Bowl of Copper gilt, 9 Foot in Compass; on which was a Cross 15 Foot and a half high; and on that an Eagle-Cock of Copper gilt, 4 Foot long.

It is now rebuilt with greater Solidity, Magnificence and Splendor, by the late most renowned Architect, Sir Christopher Wren.

The next is that ancient stately Abby-Church of Westminster, founded before the Norman Conquest by the pious King Edward the Confessor, and most richly endowed; afterwards rebuilt from the Ground by King Henry III. with that rare Architecture now seen, wherein are the most magnificent Tombs and Monuments of our Kings and Queens, of our greatest Nobles and famous Worthies of England. To the East End of which is added a Chapel of King Henry VII. which, for the most admirable artificial Work without and within, for a Monument of massy Brass, most curiously wrought, and other Master-pieces of Art, is scarce to be parallel'd in the World.

These are the two Mother-Churches of London and Westminster; but it would be endless to speak particularly of all other Churches of great Remark; as Bow-Church in Cheapside, whose costly Tower, for Solidity, Beauty, and a Ring of Bells, is rivaled by none but St. Brides. The spacious Church of Covent-Garden hath not one Pillar in it besides those magnificent ones of its Portico; the Roof of which being flat and plain, is yet substantially supported by mysterious Workmanship. The Amplitude and Stateliness of diverse other Churches is very wonderful; as Christ's-Church, St. Andrew's-Holbourn, St. Lawrence's, where there are two celebrated Weekly Lectures, St. Michael's Cornhil, St. Margaret's, St. James's, and St. Anne's Westminster; St. Brides, where the Hospital, or Spittal-Sermons in Easter-Week have been commonly held; St. Margaret's Westminster, where the Sermons are on all solemn Occasions preached before the Honourable House of Commons. [There are many of the newly erected Churches, which exceed any other Parish-Churches of London, in the Beauty of their Architecture and Dimensions.]

Palaces and Houses belonging to the CROWN.

NEAR to the Abby-Church of Westminster stood the Royal Palace and usual Place of Residence for the Kings of England, who ordinarily held their Parliament and all their Courts of Judicature in their Dwelling-Houses (as was done at Paris by the Kings of France, in the Ile de Notre Dame, and is at this Day at Madrid by the King of Spain) and many times sat themselves in the said Courts of Judicature, as they do still sometimes in their Court of Parliament. A great Part of this spacious Palace was in the Time of Henry VIII. destroyed by Fire; what remaineth hath been still employed for the Use of the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, for the chief Courts of Judicature, and for the King's Treasury. The Great Hall, where the Great Courts of King's-Bench, Common-Pleas, and Chancery are kept, some say was built by William Rufus; others, by Richard I. or II. which, for all its Dimensions, is not to be equall'd by any Hall in Christendom. It is, including the Walls, just 300 Foot long, and 100 broad; the Height proportionable to its other ample Dimensions, and the Roof of Irish Oak.

Cottonian Library.] This Library was placed by Sir Robert Cotton in his House at Westminster, where it stood in the Room which is thought to have been Edward the Confessor's Oratory, all the while that Cotton-House was in the Possession of that worthy Family, which it was 'till very lately, when Sir John Cotton (Great Grandson of Sir Robert) sold the House to the late Queen, to be a Repository of her Library, along with that which formerly belong'd to his Ancestors. After which Alienation, the Books were removed into a more convenient Room (the former being very damp) and Cotton-House was wholly set a-part for the Use of the King's Library-Keeper, who has there the Royal and the Cotton Libraries immediately under his Eye; of which last Collection, in its Kind the most excellent that is in England, I shall give this short Account. [This Library was lately kept in a House at Westminster, purchased by the Crown of the Lord Ashburnham, where there happening a Fire in the Year 1735, the Books were some of them damaged: It was removed from thence to the new Dormitory belonging to Westminster-School, and is since removed to the old Dormitory, where it is to remain 'till a commodious Room is built assigned for its Reception.]

This noble Library consists wholly of Manuscripts, and as they are now bound up together, are not above a Thousand. The Subject chiefly aimed at by Sir Robert Cotton, was the History of England, whereunto he was naturally inclined, and in which he came to be a great Master; and consequently his Collections lean'd principally that Way; though he seems to have been ready either to buy or receive any other Curiosity which had no Relation to his main Design.

By a continual Pursuit of this Design, he gathered together a most prodigious Collection; nay, it seemed as if Things had fallen out on purpose to enrich his Library. He lived at a Time when there were many noble Books yet remaining in Private Hands, which had been taken from the Monasteries at their Dissolution, and from our Universities and Colleges, &c. at their Visitation. He lived also at a Time when diverse studious and learned Men died, who made it their chief Business to scrape up the snattered Remains of our Monastical Libraries, and either by Legacy or Purchase, he became Master of all which he thought valuable in their Studies. By this Means he saved so many Books, Charters, &c. which had formerly been searched out of Holes and Corners by the famous Josceline, Noel, Allen, Lambard, Bowyer, Elfing, Camden, and very many others: And as his Intent was publicly known, so those who sought after his Favour (as well as his Money) knew no better Way of obtaining it, than by bringing unto him some one or other Piece of Antiquity.

His Collections being (by many considerable Accessions) grown very numerous, were consecrated to Posterity in the Place I mentioned before; he having repaired it, and taken sufficient Precautions against Fire, which has hitherto been the common Destroyer of almost all the celebrated Libraries of former Ages. The Books are not set out for Ostentation, or a pompous Shew, but so put together as to be of greatest Use to the Student: And very many Tracts being bound up in one Cover, the Value of his Books encreased, as he lessened the Number of his Volumes.

I have before said, That his main Design was the History of England; but in Relation to the Whole, his Books may be ranked under these Heads:

I. Histories and Chronicles, written on that Subject Ex professo, together with other shorter Annals, which served as Attendants on larger Pieces.

II. Register-Books of the Monasteries, with their Histories, Annals, Benefaction-Books, and infinite other Matters.

III. Original Charters and Instruments of our Kings, Queens, Bishops, Nobility, &c.

IV. Original Letters of our Kings, Queens, Royal Family, of other Sovereign Princes, other Nobility, eminent Scholars, &c.

V. Original Instructions to Ambassadors, &c. Petitions, Treaties, and Transactions between England and those other Kingdoms and Republicks it had any Concern with.

VI. Originals and Transcripts of our publick Records.

VII. Genealogies and other Treatises and Memoirs relating to all the Business of Heraldry, Church History of England from the Beginning of Christianity here to the Time of King James I. especially about the Time of the Dissolution of Abbies, and the Reformation by King Henry VIII. and Edw. VI.

VIII. Remains of the Learning and Piety of our Saxon Ancestors, in Books as well Saxon as Latin. In Saxon are many Chronicles in England, Laws of the Saxon Kings, Books of Homilies, Pieces of the Holy Scriptures, Prayers, Translations of many Latin Authors, Transcripts of Charters, and many Originals, Glossaries, &c. of all which (and of those in our other English Libraries) a Catalogue hath been published with surprising Accuracy and Diligence, by the ingenious Mr. Humphrey Wanley, whereby we are now apprized of the Treasures of that kind, of which we are still possess'd; as that great Critick of the Northern Languages, the late Dr. Hicks, has taught us in his Thesaurus Linguarum Septentrionalium, to apply them to the best Advantage. In Latin are diverse ancient and curious Manuscripts, such as Books of the Holy Scripture, Prayer-Books, &c. belonging to our Kings, or other eminent Personages, Canons of the Councils, ancient Rituals, Lives and Passions of the Saints, &c.

IX. Diverse excellent Manuscript Histories of other Nations, either in Latin, or in their respective Languages.

X. Other Books, curious in themselves, tho' not appertaining to the History or Affairs in England: Such as the Fragments of the Gospels in Greek, written all with Letters of Gold and Silver, which are thought to be the oldest Pieces of Writing in England. The Book of Genesis in Greek, being reputed to be the oldest and most magnificent Copy in the World. The Samaritan Pentateuch, and many other curious Oriental Authors.

Sir Robert Cotton had also a due Regard to Decency in the Disposition of his Manuscripts; placing the Head of one of the twelve Roman Cæsars over every Sett of Shelves, which gives the Name to that Sett, adding the Heads of Cleopatra and Faustina after Domitian: So that there are fourteen such Setts. Besides the Heads, which seem to be copied from the Antique Statues, it is adorned with Pictures, viz. of Sir Robert Cotton, Sir Thomas and Sir John; Judge Dodderidge, Sir Henry Spelman, Mr. Thomas Allen, John Buchanan, Mr. Camden, Sir William Dugdale, Dr. Thomas James, Mr. William Lambard,

bard, and Mr. John Speed; not to mention the old Altar-Piece, anciently belonging to St. Bartholomew's Hospital, with other ancient, and some choice Pictures in the House.

To make his Library a compleat Magazine of Antiquities, Sir Robert Cotton procured also many of the Roman Lares and Tutelar Gods, Weapons, &c. and a very fine Sett of Coins, Roman, British and Saxon; a Guess at which may be made by a View of Speed's Chronicle, wherein all the Coins and Seals were cut from the Originals, still extant in this small, but noble Library.

As this valuable Library has received much Damage by the late Fire, a new Catalogue has been since printed of all the valuable Manuscripts that now remain there.

Of the Tower of LONDON.

FOR the Security and Defence of this famous City and River, there have been anciently diverse Fortresses; but that called the Tower of London hath been eminent above all others: It is not only a Fort, or Citadel, to defend and command both City and River, but a Royal Palace likewise, where our Kings, with their Courts, have sometimes lodged; a Royal Arsenal, where are Arms and Ammunition for 60,000 Soldiers: The Treasury for the Jewels and Ornaments of the English Crown, the great Mint for coining of Gold and Silver; the great Archive, where are conserved all the ancient Records of the Courts of Westminster, &c. The chief Prison for the safe Custody of great Persons that are Criminals in Matters of State: In the midst of it, the great white Square Tower was built by William the Conqueror.

Within the Tower is one Parochial Church, and a Royal Chapel, called Cesar's Chapel; but it is now out of Use: The Church is call'd S. Petri ad Vincula infra Turrim, exempt from all Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of the Archbishop, and is a Donative bestowed by the King without Institution and Induction.

Constable of the Tower.] The Tower of London, 'till the Beginning of Queen Elizabeth's Reign, was governed by a Constable, and sometimes by a Custos Turris, and, in his Absence, by a Lieutenant, or Deputy: They had the Government of the Tower sometimes during Life, sometimes Durante bene placito, were Privy-Counsellors, and had their Residence in the Royal Palace within the Tower, and sometimes had the Custody of the Armories, Stores, and Victuals.

Lieutenant.] The next Officer in Command is the chief Governor, or Lieutenant of the Tower: He is, by Vertue of his Office, to be in Commission of the Peace for the Counties of Middlesex, Kent, and Surry, and is to act under, and be subordinate to the Constable for the Time being, in all Things touching the Execution of the said Office of Constable; and during his Absence, to do, perform, and execute all all Powers and Authorities, Acts, Matters, and Things whatsoever, relating to the Execution of the Office of Constable, in as ample Manner as if the Constable were personally present. He hath, for the Execution of his Office, a Salary of 200 l. per Annum, with all the Fees and Perquisites which Sir John Robinson, or any other of his Predecessors, ever had. He hath, as appurtenant to his Office, by Grants of diverse of the former Kings of England, the Privileges of taking Unam Lagenam, two Gallons and a Pint, ante malum & retro, before and behind the Mast; and a certain Quantity out of every Boat laden with Lobsters and Oysters, or any other Shell-fish, which passeth by the Tower, and takes Double the Quantity out of every Alien's Boat to what he takes out of the Natives. Every Person of the Quality of a Duke, being sent Prisoner to the Tower, pays 200 l. as his Fee. Every Baron under the Degree of a Duke 100 l. and every Commoner 50 l. He hath also a further Perquisite, the Disposal of the 40 Yeoman-Warders Places as they die off.

Under the Command of the Constable (and, in his Absence, of the Lieutenant) are the Gentleman Porter, the Physician, the 40 Yeoman Warders, and the Gunner of the Tower.

Gentleman-Porter.] The Gentleman-Porter, who holds his Place by Patent, hath Charge of the Gates, to lock up and open; and to deliver the Keys to the Constable, and in his Absence to the Lieutenant every Night, and to receive them of him in the Morning: He commands the Warders that are upon the Day's Wait, and at the Entrance of a Prisoner hath for his Fee Vestimenta Superiora, or else a Composition for the same, which is usually 40 l. for a Peer, and 5 l. a-piece for others.

Note, That the ancient Allowance from the King to a Duke, Prisoner in the Tower, was 12 l. a Week, now but 4 l. the like to a Marquiss; to other Lords anciently 10 l. a Week, now 2 l. 4 s. 5 d. to Knights and Gentlemen heretofore 4 l. a Week, now 13 s. and 4 d. to indigent Prisoners now 10 s. per Week.

Court of Records.] In the Tower is an ancient Court of Record, held every Monday by Prescription, for the Liberty of the Tower, of Debt, Trespass, and other Actions of any Sum greater or lesser, whereof you may read in the 4th of Eliz. Besides the ancient Liberty of the Tower, which adjoins to it, the old Artillery-Garden by Spital-Fields, and the Little-Minores, are within the Tower-Liberty. The Gentleman-Porter of the Tower for the Time being, hath the same Power and Authority in the said Liberty, as Sheriffs within their respective Counties; and he constituteth Bailiffs thereof, to execute all such Process and Warrants as are directed to them by the Stewards of the Court, and hath all Escheats, Deodands, and Goods of all Excons de se.

Warders.

Warders.] The Yeomen-Warders of the Tower are 40 in Number, who are accounted the King's Domestick Servants, and are sworn by the Lord-Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household, or by the Clerk of the Checque: Their Duty is to attend Prisoners of State, and to wait at the Gates: Ten of them are usually upon the Day's Wait, to take an Account of all Persons that come into the Tower, to enter their Names, and the Names of the Persons they go to, in a Book, to be perused by the Constable, or Lieutenant. Two of them are upon the Watch every Night.

The Office and Keeper of the Records in the Tower.] The Office of his Majesty's Records, kept in the Tower of London, is of very venerable Antiquity, and the Keeper and Deputy of the same dignified with special Trust.

This Officer is first recommended by the Master of the Rolls to the King; and if he be found fitly qualified to execute that great Trust, he is admitted and sworn by the said Master, and afterwards confirmed by the King's Letters-Patent.

It was before the taking away the Court of Wards of great Profit, but now not near so considerable.

As the Chapel of the Rolls in Chancery-Lane, and Petty-Bag-Office, do fill with Records out of other Offices, they are transmitted into the Tower, after some Years; for it hath been the Wisdom and Care of former Ages, to send the Records of the several Courts to the Tower, for their Preservation and Safety, not only as a Policy of State, but the particular Interest of all Men having Estates requiring it; there being many Precedents for it remaining in the Records of the Tower, and a particular Form of a Writ, to send the Records in the Chapel of the Rolls to the Tower of London.

The Records of the Tower, amongst other Things, contain the Foundation of Abbies, and other Religious Houses; and the Records in the Rolls contain the Dissolution of those Abbies, and the Donation of the Land, of which many Families are now possess'd; and if those Records were all in one Place, the People might have Access unto them all under one and the same Search and Charge, which would be a great Ease and Benefit to the People, and Safety to the Records of this Nation.

Besides, the Records at the Rolls, being joined to those in the Tower, will make a perfect Continuance of all the ancient Rights of the English Nation, which are now set forth in the Records of the Tower; whereof these following are a few Heads, or Particulars of them.

Contents of some of the Records.

The Leagues of foreign Princes, and the Treaties with them.

All the Achievements of this Nation in France, and other foreign Parts.

The Original of the Laws that have been enacted or recorded, until the Reign of Richard III.

The Establishment of Ireland in Laws and Dominions.

The Dominion of the British Seas, totally excluding both the French and Hollanders to fish therein without Licence from England, proved by Records before the Conquest.

The Interest of the Ile of Man, and the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Sark, and Aldernay; which four last are the remaining Part of the Norman Possession.

The Title of the Realm of France, and how obtained;

And all that the Kings and Princes of this Land have, until that Time, done abroad, or granted, or confirmed unto their Subjects at home or abroad.

Tenures of all the Lands in England, Extents or Surveys of Manours and Lands; Inquisitions post mortem, of infinite Advantage upon Trials of Interest or Descent.

Liberties and Privileges granted to Cities and Towns corporate, or to private Men, at Court-Leets, Waifs, Estrays, Markets, Fairs, Free-Warren, Felons-Goods, or what else could come to the Town, or pass out of it.

Several Writs, Pleadings, and Proceedings as well in Chancery as in all the Courts of Common-Law and Exchequer.

Inspeximus's and Enrolments of Charters and Deeds made and done before the Conquest; Deeds or Contracts between Party and Party; and the just Establishments of all the Offices in the Nation.

The Metes and Bounds of all the Forests in England, with the several respective Rights of the Inhabitants therein to Common of Pasture, &c. Besides many other Privileges and Evidences, which are too long to be here repeated or inserted;

And are therefore in the Petition of the Commons of England in Parliament, Anno 46 Edward III. Numb. 34. said to be the perpetual Evidence of every Man's Right, and the Records of this Nation, without which no Story of the Nation can be written or proved.

These Records are repositied within a certain Place, or Tower, called Wakefield-Tower, adjoining to the Bloody Tower. Near Traitor's Gate there is another Place, called Julius Caesar's Chapel, in the white Tower: The going up to this Chapel is in Cold-Harbour, 84 Steps up, with 6 or 8 great Pillars on each Side; and at the upper End thereof there was a Marble Altar, which was demolished in the Civil War.

There

There are many Cart-Loads of Records lying in this Place, out of which Mr. Prynne, late Keeper of the same, with indefatigable Labour collected and printed many of publick Utility, Anno 1659, 1660, 1662, 1664, in three several Volumes; the second beginning Primo Regis Johannis: For before that Time there was no Rolls, but only Charta Antiqua, or ancient Transcripts, made and done before and since the Conquest, until the Beginning of King John. There follows his Son Henry III. where the first Office, post mortem, begins; then there is Edw. I. II. and III. Rich. II. Henry IV. Henry V. Henry VI. and Edw. IV. and Inquisitions, post mortem, of Richard III. who reigned only three Years: The Rolls of that King are in the Chapel of the Rolls in Chancery-Lane.

[The several Marks on the Press which contain the Records.]

The Rolls of the Tower are variously distinguished, viz. Rotuli Patentium, Chartarum, Parliamentorum, Clausarum, Finium, Scotia, Vasconia, Francia, Hibernia, Wallia, Normannia, Alemannia, Oblata, Liberata, Extracta, Perambulationes, Foresta, Scutag. Rotul. Marechal. Rome, de Treugis, Chart. & Patent. fact. in partibus transmarinis, Patent. de Domibus Judaeorum, protection. de pardonation, de Subsidiis, Viagiis, &c. Stapula, cum multis aliis, which are lately depicted upon the Outside of every Press in the Repository belonging to each King's Reign; and very easily to be brought forth for the Use of the Client by Tables of Orders hanging up in the said Office, and subscribed by the Keeper thereof.

The same is to be kept open, and constantly attended for all Resorters thereto, from the Hours of 7 to 11 of the Clock in the Morning; and from 1 to 5 in the Afternoon, every Day of the Week, except in the Months of December, January and February; and in them from 8 'till 11 in the Morning, and from 1 'till 4 in the Afternoon; except on Holy-Days, publick Fasts, and Thanksgiving-Days, and Times of great Pestilence.

[Office of Ordnance:] Within the Tower is kept the Office of his Majesty's Ordnance, having the Superintendence, Ordering and Disposing as well of the Grand Magazine in the Tower, as at Woolwich, Chatham, Portsmouth, Upnor-Castle, Plymouth, Hull, Berwick and elsewhere; wherein generally, in Times of Peace, there is Powder to the Quantity of about 14 or 15000 Barrels; with Arms for Horse and Foot, Ordnance, Shot, and other Stores proportionable, as well for Sea as Land, lodged in their several Store-houses apart, with great Order and Care, for the better preserving, and more speedy Dispatch in delivering out the same, as the King's Occasion shall shall require ; which may not only defend England, but be formidable to all our Neighbours. It is under the Government in chief of the Master of the Ordnance, who is commonly a Person of great Eminence and Integrity.

The Chief Officers belonging to the Artillery are,

The Master of the Ordnance, The Lieutenant-General, Surveyor,		Clerk of the Ordnance, Keeper of the Stores, Clerk of the Deliveries,
--	--	--

And the Treasurer and Pay-Master, who all hold their Places by Patent under the Great-Seal.

Of the M I N T.

Moreover, in the Tower is kept the Office of the Mint ; although the King hath Power to set up a Mint in any other Place of this Kingdom. The Mint is a Corporation consisting of the Warden, Master, Workers, Moniers, &c. 'Twas so settled by Charter of King Edward III. and confirmed by the several Kings since.

Warden of the Mint.] In this Office are diverse Persons of Quality and Worth, whereof the Principal is called the Warden and Keeper of the Exchange and Mint ; whose Office is to receive the Silver and Gold brought in by the Merchants, Goldsmiths, or others, to pay them for it, and to oversee all the rest. The Fee 400 l. per Annum.

Master and Worker.] Next is the Master and Worker of his Majesty's Money of Gold and Silver, who receives the Bullion from the Warden, causes it to be melted, delivers it to the Moniers ; and when it is minted, receives it again from them. His Allowance formerly was not any Set-Fee, but according to the Pound Weight, as by an Indenture under the Great-Seal appeared. The Fee is now 500 l. per Annum.

Comptroller.] The third Office is the Comptroller, who sees that the Money be all made according to the just Assize ; to oversee the Officers, and comptrol them if the Money be not as it ought to be : His Fee is 300 l. per Annum.

Assay-Master.] The fourth is the Assay-Master, who tries the Bullion, and sees that it be according to the Standard ; whose Fee is 250 l. per Annum.

Auditors.] The fifth are the Auditors, to take the Accompts, and make them up. Their Fee is 20 l. per Annum each.

Surveyor of the Melting.] The sixth is the Surveyor of the Melting, who is to see the Bullion cast out, and not to be altered after it is delivered to the Melter ; which is, after the Assay-Master hath made Trial thereof. The Fee 100 l. per Annum.

These

These Officers and Moniers of the Mint, have always been exempted from all publick Offices by Charter.

St. Katharines,] Near the Tower is St. Katharines, an Hospital, which hath a Royal Jurisdiction for Ecclesiastical Causes, and Probate of Wills: The Master of it has a considerable Revenue, and is usually a Person of Quality: It hath also a Commissary, from whom, if any will appeal, it must be to the King in his Court of Chancery only; who thereupon issueth out a Commission under the Great-Seal, as in Appeals from the Archies, or Prerogatives.

The like Jurisdiction hath the Tower and Liberties, the Rector of the Church being Commissary.

WHITEHALL.

THE next Royal Palace of Note is Whitehall, belonging heretofore to Cardinal Walsey, seated between the Thames and a most delectable and spacious Park, full of great Varieties. This Palace before the Fire happened, and consumed the greatest Part of it, was incredibly large and commodious; but the noblest Room in it, and which escaped the said Fire, is the Great Chamber, called the Banqueting-House, built by the famous Inigo Jones: The like whereof, for Spaciousness, Beauty, Painture and exact Proportion, no Room in Europe can parallel; the Ceiling whereof was all painted by the Hand of the famous Sir Peter-Paul Rubens, which is now converted into a Chapel. This hath been the most constant Place of Residence of the Kings and Queens of England since Henry the VIIIth's Time, 'till the Fire, which happened in the Reign of King William III.

In the Strand are two other Palaces belonging to the Crown.

The Savoy, a vast Building, first erected all of Stone, by Peter Earl of Savoy and Richmond, Uncle to Eleanor, Wife to our King Henry III. who after purchased the same for her Son Edmund, Duke of Lancaster. Here are the Remains of an Ecclesiastical College, or Hospital, now consisting only of a Master, called the Master of the Savoy, which Place is now vacant; four Brothers, who are all to be Clergymen, and four poor Sisters. In this House is an ancient Chapel now used as the Parish-Church of St. Mary Savoy: But the greatest Part of it is turn'd into a Prison for Soldiers that desert, and for a Garrison.

The other is called Somerset-House, built by Edward Duke of Somerset, Uncle to King Edward VI. a beautiful and convenient Building.

Of the Custom-House, Admiralty, and Navy-Office.

NOT far below the famous Bridge of London, is placed the Custom-House, where is received and managed all the Impositions laid on Merchandize imported and exported from this City.

In this Office are employed a great Number of Officers, whereof diverse are of considerable Quality and Ability.

As first, the Commissioners, who have the whole Charge and Management of all his Majesty's Customs (the Petty-Farms excepted) in all the Ports of England; and likewise the Oversight of all Officers thereunto belonging. The present Commissioners are Seven, and are allowed by the King a Salary of 1000 l. each per Annum.

The Commissioners, and several of the chief Officers, hold their Places by Patent from the King; and the other Officers are appointed by Warrant from the Lord High-Treasurer, the Particulars of which we refer you to at the latter End of this Work.

The House where this great Office was formerly kept, being destroyed by the late dreadful Fire, is now rebuilt in a much more magnificent, uniform, and commodious Manner, by King Charles the Second, and cost 10,000 l. the Building.

The Post-House General is a noble Structure, built by the late Sir Robert Viner in Lombard-street, and purchased by King Charles II.

The Admiralty-Office is a large new-built House over against Whitehall.

The Navy-Office, Excise-Office, Pay-Office, Victualling-Office, Registry-Office, that for Sick and Wounded, &c. are of lesser Note than can be particularized in this Breviary.

GUILD-HALL.

IS the Great Court of Judicature for the City of London; a stately Building, richly adorned with Tapestry, Pictures, &c.

Here are kept the Mayor's Court, the Sheriff's Court; and here the Judges sit upon Nisi Prius, &c. Belonging hereto is a fine Chapel for the Use of the Lord-Mayor and Court of Aldermen, unless upon Sundays and great Solemnities, when they go in their Formalities to St. Paul's Church.

Publick

Publick SCHOOLS and COLLEGES.

THE first is Westminster-School.] There are two School-masters of that renowned School and College belonging to the Abby of Westminster: Ten Officers are belonging to the College, and Forty Scholars, commonly called King's Scholars, who being chosen out of the School, and put into the College, are there maintained; and as they are fitted for the University, are elected yearly away, and placed with considerable Allowances in Christ-Church, Oxford, and Trinity-College, Cambridge, which are very different in their Duration, the former being for Life, the latter for a certain Time. To the Church of Westminster belongs likewise a fair publick Library, free for all Strangers in Term-time.

St. PAUL's SCHOOL.

BESIDES, there are in London diverse endowed Schools, which in other Countries would be stiled Colleges; as St. Paul's School, founded 1512, by John Collet, Doctor of Divinity, and Dean of St. Paul's, for 153 Children to be taught there Gratis, for which Purpose he appointed a Master, a Sub-Master, or Usher, and a Chaplain, with large Stipends for ever; committing the Oversight thereof to the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Mercers in London; for his Father, Henry Collet, some time Lord-Mayor of London, was of the Mercers Company. This famous School, situated in Paul's Church-Yard, was burnt down 1666; and is now re-edify'd in a far more magnificent, commodious, and beautiful Manner.

MERCHANT-TAYLORS SCHOOL.

NEXT is that eminent School near Canon-street, built by Sir Tho. White, Alderman and Merchant-Taylor of London, the Noble Founder of St. John Baptist College in Oxon. Here are 300 Scholars taught; 100 gratis; 100 at 2 s. 6 d. a Quarter; and 100 at 5 s. a Quarter.

To this School belongs 37 Fellowships in the said College at Oxon; to which Scholars are from hence yearly elected as Places become vacant. One Side of it stands upon great Stone Pillars, in a large Court paved with Free-Stone. It hath a very fine Library belonging to it, and a large House for the Master, with Apartments for each of the three Ushers.

At Mercers-Chapel in Cheapside is an excellent School, belonging to the most Beneficent and Worshipful Company of Mercers.

Q

Belonging to Christ's-Hospital is another famous Grammar Free-School.

And near St. Martin's Church, in the Liberties of Westminster, is a very good Free-School, and an excellent Publick Library; both of them, in the late Times of Popery, for the Security and Honour of the Protestant Religion, founded by the most Reverend Dr. Tennison, late Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

That at Ratcliff was founded by Nicholas Gibson, Grocer of London, who built there an Alms-House for 14 poor aged People.

Of the COLLEGES in LONDON.

THE Famous City of London may not unfitly be stiled an University: For therein are taught all Liberal Arts and Sciences; not only Divinity, Civil-Law, and Physick, which in other Universities are usual, are read here; but also the Municipal or Common-Law of the Nation is here taught, and Degrees taken therein; which can be said in no other Nation: Moreover, all Sorts of Languages, Geography, Hydrography, the Art of Navigation, the Arts of Fortification, Anatomy, Surgery, Chymistry, Calligraphy, Brachigraphy, or Short-Hand, the Arts of Riding, Fencing, Dancing; Art-Military, Fire-Works, Limning, Painting, Enamelling, Sculpture, Architecture, Heraldry; all Sorts of Musick, Arithmetick, Geometry, Astronomy, Grammar, Rhetorick, Poetry; and any other Thing that may any way contribute to the Accomplishment of an ingenious Nobleman, or Gentleman.

Sion-College, or the College of the London-Clergy.

THIS House, situate in the Parish of St. Alphage within Cripple-gate, has been a Religious House Time out of Mind; sometimes under the Denomination of a Priory, or College, sometimes under that of a Spittal, or Hospital, as at its Dissolution, 31 Henry VIII. it was called Elsyng-Spittal, from William Elsyng, Mercer, who founded it Anno 1329, 3 Edw. III.

'Tis now, and has been since 6 Car. I. a Complication of both: 'Tis a College for the Use of all the London Ministers, Rectors, Vicars, Lecturers, and Curates, canonically instituted and inducted, or that have Licence to preach within the City of London, from the Lord Bishop of that Diocese, who were incorporated by King Charles I. 1631, under the Name of The President and Fellows of Sion-College, within the City of London, at the Prayer of Dr. Thomas White, Vicar of St. Dunstan's in the West, and one of the Residentiaries of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul. 'Tis an Hospital likewise for ten poor Men, and ten poor Women (the former within, the latter without the Gates of the House) whereof four are to be nominated by the City of Bristol, where Dr. White was born; eight by the Merchant-Taylor's Company, six by the Parish of St. Dunstan's in the West, where he was Minister 49 Years, and two by St. Gregory's near St. Paul's, where he lived above 20 Years, unless any of his poor Kindred appear, who are always first to be considered by the Electors, the President, two Deans, and four Assistants, who are annually chosen out of the Rectors and Vicars of London, as Governors of this College and Hospital, subject to the Visitation of the Lord Bishop of London.

And that no Helps might be wanting for promoting these glorious Intentions of the Founder, another London Minister happily supply'd, at 2000 l. Charge, what he either overlook'd, or could not sustain: Mr. John Simpson, Rector of St. Olave's in Hart-street, and one of Dr. White's Executors, built here a stately Library, for the Clergy of the City principally, but not excluding other Students, who have the free Use of it under certain Restrictions, which are printed and hung up in that fair Room, not inferior to many of the best Libraries in either of our two famous Universities.

This Library was at first well stock'd by the generous Munificence of its Founder, and other yearly Benefactors; such were the Right Honourable Sir Paul Bayning, Viscount Sudbury, his Viscountess; Sir Paul Pindar, Sir George Croke, Elizabeth Viscountess Camden, Brion Walton, Lord Bishop of Chester, several Aldermen of London, with most of the Clergy thereof; at length it was so augmented, by the Books belonging to the Cathedral at St. Paul's, which were carried first to Camden-House, and thence brought hither 1647, that soon after, Anno 1656, the then Library-Keeper, Mr. Spencer, published a large Catalogue of them in Quarto, under this Title, Catalogus Universalis Librorum omnium in Bibliotheca Collegij Sionij apud Londinenses, &c.

Besides the Library, there has been built by the Contributions of the Fellows of this College, and what they could procure of well-dispos'd Persons, a Hall well finish'd, a House adjoining to it, call'd the President's Lodgings, with several Chambers design'd for Students, and are generally fill'd with Ministers of the Neighbouring Parishes, who cannot well be better fitted any where, or at more reasonable Rates, 'till their Parsonage Houses return into their own Possession.

Of the Commission for Building Fifty New Churches.

Having been observ'd, That the great Number of Dissenters in and about London and Westminster, did in part proceed from the late prodigious Increase of the Buildings and Inhabitants, without any proportionable Provision being made for the Cure of Souls ; some of the Parish-Churches in the out-Parts of those Cities being not able to contain a third or fourth Part of the Parishioners.

And it being farther certain, that the Growth of Popery is very much owing to the exorbitant Extent and Compaſs of Pariſhes, whereby the Miſſionaries of that Church may keep themſelves concealed from the Knowledge of the Miniſter of the Pariſh, and pervert and ſeduce ſeveral of his Flock, without the leaſt Notice taken thereof: The only proper Expedient which could be thought upon for redreſſing ſuch great Inconveniencies and growing Miſchiefs, was to build as many New Churches as the Neceſſity of the Caſe required ; or at leaſt ſo many as might alleviate the Evils of which we complained, and to make them Parochial, with all the neceſſary Privileges for the regular Adminiſtration of the Worſhip of the Church of England, under the Jurisdiction of the proper Diocesan. And accordingly an Act of Parliament was procured in the Ninth Year of the late Queen, of pious Memory, entitled, An Act for granting to her Maſteſty ſeveral Duties upon Coals, for Building Fifty New Churches in and about the Cities of London and Weſtmiſter, and Suburbs thereof, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned: Whereby it is Enacted, That all ſorts of Coals and Culm, brought into the Port of the City of London, do, from the 14th of May 1716, to the 29th of September next following, pay two Shillings per Chaldron, or Tun; and from and after the 28th of September 1716, to the 28th of September 1724, three Shillings per Chaldron, or Tun: And that the Sums of Money hence collected, be paid into the Exchequer, and appropriated for Building Fifty New Churches of Stone and other proper Materials, with Towers or Steeples to each of them ; and for purchaſing of Sites of Churches and Church-Yards, and Burying-Places in, or near the Cities of London and Weſtmiſter, or the Suburbs thereof; and for making ſuch Chapels, or Churches as were already built, and capable thereof, Pariſh-Churches, and for purchaſing Houſes for the Habitations of the Miniſters of the ſaid Pariſhes. Of theſe Fifty New Churches, One was ordered to be erected in the Pariſh of East-Greenwich in Kent; and Six Thouſand Pounds per Annum moreover appropriated towards the finiſhing Greenwich-Hoſpital, and the Chapel thereunto belonging; and Four Thouſand Pounds per Annum towards the Repairing and Finiſhing the Collegiate Church of St. Peter's Weſtmiſter. And for the better Beginning, Carrying on, and Effecting ſo Religious a Work, it was farther provided by the ſaid Act, That upon the Credit thereof, Money ſhould be borrowed at Six per Cent. Tax-free; and that the Intereſt due before the 14th of May 1716, ſhould be ſatiſfied out of any Monies coming into the Exchequer on the Credit aforeſaid.

Now it is represented in this Act, That all this was in Pursuance of her Majesty's Pious and Gracious Intentions to increase the Number of Churches in, or near the populous Cities of London and Westminster, for the better Instruction of all Persons inhabiting, or who shall inhabit in the several Parishes where the same shall be built, in the true Christian Religion, as it is now profess'd in the Church of England, and established by the Laws of this Realm: And therefore to make her said Intentions effected, she had Power also hereby to nominate and appoint such Persons as she shall think fit, to be Commissioners for the Services therein mentioned. And accordingly a Commission, by the late Queen's Letters-Patent, bearing Date the One and Twentieth Day of September, in the Tenth Year of her Reign, was issued out to the Two Archbishops, Five Bishops, and other eminent Divines, and to several of the Ministers of State, Principal Nobility, Gentry and Citizens, with such Power and Authority to them therein granted, as in the said Act are expressed.

But this Commission expiring on the 24th of December 1711; upon their Representation made to the Queen, under their Hands and Seals, six Days before the said Expiration, That having applied themselves to the Execution of the Powers therein contained, they could not within the Time limited perfect what was by the said Act intended: Hereupon an Act was procured the next Session for enlarging the Time given to the said Commissioners, and for giving them also farther Powers for effecting a Work so much for the Honour of God.

In which Act they are authorized and empowered to purchase Lands, to limit the Bounds of the New Parishes, to raise Money by Loan, at Six per Cent. Tax-free, to enquire of the Right of Patronage, and to contract with the Patrons, and with the Guardians of Infants, to appoint the first Parish-Officers, and, with the Consent of the Bishop, to name a convenient Number of sufficient Inhabitants in each said New Parish, to be the Vestry Men of such New Parish, who shall exercise the like Powers and Authority for Ordering and Regulating the Affairs of the same with those of the present Parish out of which this is taken.

There is also a particular Treasurer, or Treasurers, appointed to issue Money for Buildings and Payments of Officers, and for recompensing such Persons as shall be necessarily employed under them, for their Labour and Pains: Which Treasurer is not of the Number of the Commissioners, but is immediately appointed by the Crown, and is accountable in the Exchequer for the Monies by him received from Time to Time, and must give such sufficient Security as the Lord High-Treasurer shall approve of.

There is to be a Rector of every New Church and Parish to be made and constituted, and a perpetual Succession of Rectors there, to have the Cure of the Souls of the Inhabitants of such New Parish: And the present Morning Preacher of any Chapel made Parochial, if he shall have officiated there for the Space of one Month next before the Consecration thereof, is appointed to be first Rector of such New Church and Parish, without any Admission, Institution, or Induction to the same. And in every other New Church and Parish, the first Rector is to be nominated and appointed by the Crown; and this even before an Agreement and Settlement can be made concerning the Patronage thereof, which is to be examined and approved in the High Court of Chancery. And as well the first Rector, as all the other succeeding Rectors, are to be presented and instituted, and also inducted, as all other Rectors and Vicars are; and are obliged to observe and perform all other Matters, for the Qualifying and Entitling themselves thereto, as other Rectors ought to do.

But then the present Rectors, or Vicars, are not by this Division and Separation of the Parishes deprived of any Tithes, Dues or Profits to them belonging; nor even the Successors of them, 'till such Agreements, or Settlements, for the more effectual dividing any such Parish be made, and take Effect. And it is also provided, that this should not prejudice or alter the Propriety or Interest of any Proprietor, or to any Chapel made Parochial.

And it being farther provided in this Act, that it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, at any time before the 29th of September 1712, to nominate Commissioners to execute the Powers granted by this and the former Act, as her Majesty shall think fit: And that from such Appointment so made, the Powers granted to the Commissioners in the said former Letters-Patent shall determine: Accordingly a Commission by her Majesty's Letters-Patent, bearing Date the 27th of September 1712, was issued out to several of the Lords, the Bishops and others.

Soon after his late Majesty's Accession to the Throne, another Act passed in Parliament, among other Things, to enable his Majesty, by Letters-Patent under the Great Seal of Great-Britain, to appoint such Persons as his Majesty should think fit, to be Commissioners; and that any Five or more of them should have Power to execute all Matters and Things appointed to be done in the afore-recited Acts: And accordingly a Commission by his Majesty's Letters-Patent was issued, bearing Date the second of December 1715, whereby Sixty Lords and others were appointed Commissioners, whose Names the Reader will find among the Lists, &c.

[In pursuance of these and some subsequent Accounts, the following Churches have been built, viz. St. Anne's Lime-house, Christ-

Christ-Church Spittal-fields, St. George's Bloomsbury, St. George's in the East, St. George's Hannover-Square, St. John at Wapping, St. Paul's Shadwell, St. Mary of Stratford, Bow,—the New Church at Deptford,—the New Church in Old-street,—the New Church in the Strand, St. George's Queen-Square Chapel, converted into a Parish-Church, St. Mary Woolnoth in Lombard-street, and St. Giles's in the Fields; of which the two last are old Churches rebuilt.

These new Churches are most of them elegant Buildings, far exceeding other Parish-Churches in their Beauty and Dimensions, and are endow'd to the Amount of about 200 l. per Ann. each Part thereof arising from the Profits of Lands purchased with Money appropriated by Parliament for endowing the said New Churches, and the Residue arising out of the Burial Fees which are now settled on the Church-Wardens, &c. of the respective Parishes, part of them for the Maintenance of the Minister, and the residue for the Use of the several New Parishes.]

Doctors-Commons, or the College of Civilians:

Altho' Degrees in the Civil Law may be taken only in Oxford and Cambridge, and the Theory is best there to be acquir'd, yet the Practice thereof is most of all in London, where a College was long since purchas'd by Dr. Henry Harvey, Dean of the Arches, for the Professors of the Civil Law in this City, and where commonly reside the Judge of the Arches Court of Canterbury, the Judge of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, with diverse other eminent Civilians, who there living (for Diet and Lodging) in a Collegiate Manner, and commoning together, it was known by the Name of Doctors-Commons, and stood near St Paul's, in the Parish of St. Bennet Paul's Wharf; which Buildings being utterly consum'd by the late dreadful Fire, they all resided at Exeter-House in the Strand, until the Year 1672, when they return'd to their former Place, rebuilt in a very splendid and convenient Manner, at the proper Cost and Charges of the said Doctors.

The Terms begin, and the general Arches Court-Days are as follow :

S. Michaelis.		Pasch.
23 Octob.		Quind. Pasch.
Crasino Anim.		2. Sessio.
Martini	12 Nov.	3. Sessio.
Edmundi	21 Nov.	Crasino Ascens.

Pauli.		2. Sessio.
Blasij.	4 Feb.	3. Sessio.
Valentini.		4. Sessio, vel Craftino, D. Johannis.

In every Term there is a By-day, called Dies Extraordinarius, except Easter-Term.

Of PROCTORS.

THE Proctors, or Procurators, belonging to the aforementioned Courts of the Archbishop of Canterbury are 34 in Number: Their Office is to exhibit their Proxies for their Clients, and make themselves Parties for their Clients: to draw up Acts and Pleadings in Causes; to produce the Witnesses, prepare Causes for Sentence, and attend the Advocates with their Proceedings.

These are admitted by the Archbishop's Fiat, introduced by the two Senior Proctors, and are allowed to practise immediately after their Admission: They wear black Robes, and Hoods lined with white Furs, taking the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

As for what relates to the Ecclesiastical Courts kept at Doctors-Commons, see more Chap. IX. of the Second Book.

The High Court of ADMIRALTY of ENGLAND.

FOR the Decision of Maritime Controversies, Trial of Malefactors, and the like, there is a High Court of Admiralty kept here.

There is a Judge thereof, whose Title is Supreme Curia Admiralitatis Anglia locum tenens Judex, sive Presidens: The Writs and Decrees run in the Name of the Lord High-Admiral, or Lords Commissioners executing that Office; and are directed to all Vice-Admirals, Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, Marshals, and others, Officers and Ministers of our Sovereign Lord the King, as well within Liberties as without.

To this Court belongs a Register, and his Deputy, and a Marshal General, who attends the Court, and carries a Silver Oar before the Judge, whereon are the Arms of the King, and the Lord High-Admiral.

The

The Lord High Admiral hath here his Advocate and Proctor, and all other Advocates and Proctors are presented by them, and admitted by the Judge.

This Court is held on the same Day with the Arches, but in the Afternoon; and heretofore at St. Margaret's Hill in Southwark, but now in the same Common-Hall at Doctors-Commons; but the Admiralty Sessions is still held for the Trial of Malefactors, and Crimes committed at Sea, at the ancient Place aforesaid, or at the Old-Baily.

The Places and Offices belonging to this Court are in the Disposal of the Lord High-Admiral.

Of the College of PHYSICIANS in London.

AMongst other excellent Institutions in the City of London, there is a College, or Corporation of Physicians, who by Charters and Acts of Parliament of Henry VIII. and since his Reign, have certain Privileges, whereby no Man, though a Graduate in Physick of Oxford or Cambridge, may, without Licence under the said College-Seal, practise Physick in London, or within seven Miles of the City (nor in any other Part of England, in case he hath not taken any Degree in Oxford and Cambridge) whereby also they can administer an Oath, fine and imprison any Offenders in that, and diverse other Particulars; can make By-Laws, purchase Lands, &c. whereby they have Authority to search all the Shops of Apothecaries in and about London, to see if their Drugs and Compositions are wholesome and well made; whereby they are freed from all troublesome Offices; as to serve upon Juries, to be Constable, to keep Watch and Ward, to bear Arms, to provide Arms or Ammunition, &c. Any Member of that College may practise Surgery, if he please, not only in London, but in any Part of England.

This Society had anciently a College in Knight-Rider-Street, the Gift of Dr. Linacre, Physician to King Henry the VIIIth. Since which a House and Ground was purchased by the Society of Physicians, at the End of Amen-street, whereon the famous Dr. Harvey, 1652, did erect, at his own proper Charge, a magnificent Structure, both for a Library and a publick Hall, for the meeting of the several Members of the Society; endowed the same with his whole Inheritance, which he resigned up while he was yet living and in Health; Part of which he assigned for an Anniversary Oration, to commemorate all their Benefactors, to exhort others to follow their Examples, and to provide a plentiful Dinner for the worthy Company.

Anno

Anno 1666, this goodly Edifice could not escape the Fury of that dreadful Fire; and that Ground being but a Lease, the present Fellows of this College purchased with their own Monies, a fair Piece of Ground in Warwick-lane, whereon they have raised a very magnificent Edifice.

The College has lately built, at their own Charge, a very noble Apartment for the containing an excellent Library of Books, given them partly by the late Marquiss of Dorchester, who was pleased to do the College the Honour to be admitted Fellow among them; and chiefly by that Eminent Professor, Sir Theodore Mayerne, Kt.

Of this College there is a President, four Censors, and twelve Electors, who are all principal Members of the Society, and out of whom one is chosen every Year to preside.

The four Censors of the College have, by their Charters, Authority to survey, correct and govern all Physicians, or others, that shall practise Physick in London, or within seven Miles of the same, to fine, amerce, and imprison any of them, as they shall see Cause.

The Number of Fellows was only Thirty before the Restoration of King Charles II. But that King considering the Increase of London since the first Incorporation of the College by King Henry VIII. thought fit to encrease the Number of Fellows to Forty; and upon the same Account, King James II. taking into Consideration the farther vast Encrease of Buildings of late Years, was pleased in the new Charter to appoint the Number of Fellows to be farther enlarged, so as they shall not exceed Fourscore, reserving to himself the Power of placing, or displacing any Fellows for the future.

Besides the worthy Persons mentioned in the List, there are diverse Physicians that have good Practice in London, although they never had any Licence, which is connived at by the College.

And yet by the Law of England, if one who is no Physician or Surgeon, or not expressly allowed to practise, shall take upon him a Cure, and his Patent die under his Hand, this is Felony in the Person presuming so to do; but the Reputation which the Dispensaries have got, will soon put an End to these and all other unfair Practitioners.

The College having frequently pressed its Members to the Generous and Charitable Cure of their sick poor Neighbours, and the meaner House-keepers and Servants, not only to recommend themselves by this Service to the Publick, but to improve their Knowledge of Diseases, and their Reputation by their Success, made a Subscription to the Number of Forty-two, Anno 1696, to contribute to the necessary Charge thereof, and accomplish the generous Charity to the Sick Poor.

Gresham

Gresham-College, or the College for Liberal Arts and Sciences.

Within the Walls of London is also seated a College built by the aforementioned worthy Person Sir Thomas Gresham, and endowed in Manner following. After he had built the Royal-Exchange, he gave of the Revenue thereof the one Moiety to the Mayor and Commonalty of London, and their Successors; and the other Moiety to the Company of Mercers, in Trust; that the Mayor and Aldermen should find in all Time to come, four able Persons to read within this College Divinity, Geometry, Astronomy, and Musick; and to allow each of them, besides fair Lodgings, 50 l. a Year; and that the Company of Mercers should find three more able Men to read Civil Law, Physick and Rhetorick, and to allow to each one of them, besides fair Lodgings, 50 l. a Year; and that these several Lecturers should read in Term-time, every Day in the Week (except Sundays) at Morning in Latin, and Afternoon the same in English: The Musick Lecture to be read only in English.

In this College, from the Time of their Incorporation, till the Year 1712, when they purchased a House in Crane-Court, Fleet-street, did meet the Fellows of the Royal Society, so much famed throughout the World: Concerning which the Reader may take this brief Account, extracted in part out of that excellent History of the said Society, written by Dr. Thomas Sprat, late Bishop of Rochester, and Dean of Westminster.

First Foundation of the Royal-Society.] The first Assembly which laid the Foundation of this Royal Society, was some Years before the happy Restauration of King Charles II. at Wadham College in Oxford, in the Lodgings of Dr. Wilkins, late Lord Bishop of Chester.

Afterwards, about the Year 1658, many of them living in London, had a Meeting at Gresham-College; at length his Majesty took Notice thereof, and was graciously pleased so far to favour and encourage it, as to grant a large Charter, bearing Date the 22d of April 1663, whereby they were made a Corporation, to consist of a President, of a Council, and of Fellows for promoting the Knowledge of Natural Things, and Useful Arts, by Experiments.

Manner of Electing Fellows.] Their Manner of Electing Fellows is according to the Venetian Way, by Balloting. Each Fellow at his Admission, subscribes this Promise following, That he will endeavour to promote the Good of the Royal Society of London, for the Improvement of Natural Knowledge. After this he may at any Time free himself from this Obligation, gation, only by signifying under his Hand to the President, that he desires to withdraw from the Society.

Yearly Charges and Admittance.] When any one is admitted, he pays to the Treasurer only 40 s. and then 13 s. a Quarter so long as he continues a Member of the Society.

Their Design.] The Design of the Royal Society is, in brief, to make faithful Records of all the Works of Nature, or of Art, which can come within their Reach: So that the present Age and Posterity may be able to put a Mark on the Errors which have been strengthened by long Prescription, to restore Truths that have been neglected; to push on those which are already known to more various Uses; to make the Way more passable to what remains unrevealed, &c.

Experiments made by the Society.] The Royal Society then, since their first Institution, have made a vast Number of Experiments in almost all the Works of Nature; they have made particular Enquiries into very many Things of the Heavens as well as of the Earth, Eclipses, Comets, Meteors, Mines, Plants, Animals, Earthquakes, Fiery Eruptions, Inundations, Lakes, Mountains, Damps, Subterraneous Fires, Tides, Currents and Depths of the Sea, and many other Things: They have composed many excellent short Histories of Nature, of Arts, Manufactures, &c. whereof some are extreme curious: In a Word, the Discoveries and Inventions made, should we say, but by some few Persons of this Society, if well considered, seem to surpass the Works of many foregoing Ages.

Advantages and Profits by it.] They have mightily improved Naval, Civil, and Military Architecture; they have advanced the Art, Conduct, and Security of Navigation; they have not only put this Kingdom upon Planting Woods, Groves, Orchards, Vineyard, Ever-greens, but also Ireland, Scotland, New-England, Virginia, Jamaica and Barbados. All our Plantations begin to feel the Influences of this Society: they have awakened the whole Civilized, Letter'd, and Intelligent World; so that in all Countries they begin to be much more intent upon Experimental Knowledge and Practical Studies, upon New Inventions and Discoveries, which the Authors of them always recommended to this Society, to be examined, approved, or corrected: So that if any of the present English Nation be so blind as not to see the Usefulness of this Society, Posterity will, to their Shame, acknowledge it with Gratitude, as Foreigners already do from all Parts.

To conclude; They have registered Experiments, Histories, Relations, Observations, &c. reduced them into one common Stock, and laid some part of them up in publick Registers, to be nakedly transmitted to the next Generation of Men, and so to all Posterity; hereby laying a solid Ground-work work for a vast Pile of Experiments, to be continually augmented through all future Ages.

Their Library.] Moreover, the Royal Society, for the Advancement of this noble Design, have begun a Library, to consist only of such Authors as may be serviceable to that Design; towards which the late Earl-Marshal of England did bestow on the Society the whole Norfolcian Library, with a free Permission of changing such Books as were not proper for their Work; whereby in a short Time they will be able to shew a compleat Collection of all that hath been published in Ancient and Modern Languages, which either regard the Productions of Nature, or the Effects of all Manual Arts.

The Repository.] The free and bountiful Gift of Daniel Celwal, Esq; wherein are to be seen many Thousands of great Rarities, fetched (some of them) from the farthest Corners of the habitable World, as Beasts, Birds, Fishes, Serpents, Flies, Shells, Feathers, Seeds, Minerals, Earths, some Things petrified, others ossified, Mummies, Gums, &c. diverse of which have been since added by other worthy Members of that Society, and by other ingenious Persons: And, in a short Time, is like to be (if not already) one of the largest and most curious Collections of the Works of Nature in the World.

Their Coat of Arms.] The Coat of Arms granted by his Majesty King Charles to the Royal Society, is an Escutcheon, with Three Lions of England in Chief; intimating, that the Society is Royal; the Crest is an Eagle, and the Supporters Hunting-Hounds, Emblems of the quickest Sight and Smelling, to signify the Sagacity employed in penetrating and searching after the Works of Nature. The Motto, Nullius in verba, to testify their Resolution not to be enslaved by any of the greatest Authority in their Enquiries after Nature.

Time of Election.] Of the Members of the Council, Eleven are to be continued for the next Year, and Ten more to be added to that Number, all to be chosen yearly upon the 30th of November, being the Feast of St. Andrew, in the Morning; after which Election they all dine together.

Of the College of HERALDS.

NOT far from the College of Doctors-Commons stood the College of Heralds, that is, of such as are to be Messengers of War and Peace, that are skilful in Descents, Pedigrees, and Coats of Arms, an ancient House, built by Thomas Standley, Earl of Derby, who marry'd Margaret, Countess of Richmond, Mother of King Henry VII. And the Duke of Norfolk having in lieu thereof exchanged Lands with with the Crown, he procured the same to be bestowed by Queen Mary on the King's Heralds and Pursuivants at Arms for ever, to the end that they and their Successors might dwell together (if they so pleased) and assemble, confer, and agree for the good Government of their Faculty, and that their Records might be there safely preserved, &c. which is now handsomely re-built.

They were made a College, or Corporation, by Charter of King Richard III. and by him had several Privileges granted unto them; as to be free from Subsidies, Tolls, and all troublesome Offices of the Kingdom.

Afterwards another Charter of Privileges was granted unto the said Society by King Edward VI. in the third Year of his Reign.

Of this Collegiate Society are first,

Three stiled, Reges Armorum Anglicorum, King of Arms.

Six Heralds at Arms, and four Pursuivants at Arms.

Kings at Arms.] Amongst the Kings at Arms, the First and Principal is called Garter, instituted by Henry V. whose Office is to attend the Knights of the Garter at their Solemnities, and to marshal the Solemnities at the Funerals of all the higher Nobility of England, to advertise those that are chosen of their new Election, call on them to be installed at Windsor, to cause their Arms to be hung over their Seats there, to carry the Garters to Kings and Princes beyond the Seas; for which Purpose he was wont to be joined in Commission with some principal Peer of the Realm, &c.

Clarencieux.] The next is Clarencieux, so called from the Duke of Clarence, to whom he first belonged; for Lionel, third Son to Edward III. marrying the Daughter and Heir of the Earl of Ulster in Ireland, had with her the Honour of Clare in the Courty of Thummond: Whereupon he was afterwards created Duke of Clarence, or the Territory about Clare; which Dukedom escheating to King Edward IV. by the Death of his Brother George, Duke of Clarence, he made this Herald, who properly belonged to that Duke, a King at Arms, and named him Clarencieux in French, and Clarencius in Latin. His Office is to marshal and dispose of the Funerals of the lower Nobility; as Baronets, Knights, Esquires, and Gentlemen, on the South-side of the Trent, and therefore sometimes called Surroy, or Southroy. [Gloucester, King of Arms, and also Bath, King of Arms, instituted Anno 1726, when the Order of the Knights of the Bath was reviv'd.]

The third King at Arms is Norroy, or Northroy, whose Office is to do the like on all the North-side of the Trent.

The two last are called Provincial Heralds, England being by them divided into two Provinces.

These,

These, by Charter, have Power to visit Noblemens Families, to set down their Pedigrees, to distinguish their Arms, to appoint Men their Arms, or Ensigns, and, with Garter, to direct the Heralds.

Note, That by the Union-Treaty, Lion, King at Arms for Scotland (of whom see more hereafter in the State of Scotland) is the Second King at Arms of Great-Britain, and takes Place immediately after Garter.

Heralds.] The six Heralds, anciently and properly belonging to Dukes, have been sometimes named Dukes at Arms, and are thus called and ranked :

- | | |
|--------------|---------------|
| 1. Somerset, | 4. York, |
| 2. Chester, | 5. Windsor, |
| 3. Richmond, | 6. Lancaster. |

Their Office is to wait at Court, attend publick Solemnities, proclaim War and Peace, &c. thence perhaps named Heralds, from two German Words, Here, Helt, or Held; that is, the Army's Champion, to denounce War, or offer Peace, as the Feciales of the Romans did; and from thence probably Seven Danish Kings, and some Kings of Norway and Sweden, and some of England before the Conquest, have had the Name of Harold or Herald.

Pursuivants.] Of these Heralds, in England, there were anciently many, and so likewise of Pursuivants, whereof at present there are but Four, thus nam'd,

- | | |
|-----------------|------------------|
| 1. Bluemantle, | 3. Rouge-Dragon, |
| 2. Rouge-Croix, | 4. Portcullice, |

from such Badges heretofore worn by them, as 'tis thought,

The Service of these and of the Heralds, and of the whole College, is used in Marshalling and Ordering Coronations, Marriages, Christenings, Funerals, Interviews, Feast of Kings and Princes, Cavalcades, Shews, Jufts, Tournaments, Combats before the Constable and Marshal, &c. Also they take Care of the Coats of Arms, and of the Genealogies of the Nobility and Gentry.

Creation of the Kings at Arms.] Anciently the Kings at Arms were created, and solemnly crowned by the Kings of England themselves; and the Heralds and Pursuivants had their Creation from the King's Hand; but of latter Times, the Earl-Marshal hath had a special Commission for every particular Creation, to do all that was done before by the King.

For the Creating and Crowning of Garter King at Arms, there is first to be provided a Sword and Book, whereon to take take a solemn Oath; then a Gold Crown, a Collar of SS's, a Bowl of Wine, which Bowl was heretofore the Fee of the new-created King; also a Coat of Arms of Velvet, richly embroidered, and a Jewel, or Badge of Gold enamelled in a Gold Chain. His Creation is on this Manner: First, he kneels down before the Earl-Marshal, and laying his Hand on the Book and Sword, another King of Arms reads the Oath, which being taken, and the Book and Sword, next are read the Letters-Patent of his Office; during which the Earl-Marshal pours the Wine on his Head, gives him the Name of Garter; then puts on him the Coat of Arms and Collar of SS's, and the Crown on his Head.

The other two Kings of Arms, Clarencieux and Norroy, are created by Letters-Patent, a Book, a Sword, &c. as Garter, and with almost the same Ceremonies.

Creation of the Heralds.] A Herald at Arms is also created with the like Ceremony, except the Coronet and Jewel, only his Coat of Arms must be Sattin, embroidered and enriched with Gold, and must be brought in with two Heralds, as the Kings of Arms are by two Kings of Arms, and to swear in solemn Manner to be true to the King, to be serviceable to all Christians, to be secret and sober, to be more ready to commend than to blame; to be humble, lowly, &c.

The greatest Part of this College is, since the late dreadful Fire, re-built; and the Library is now kept there, being upon St. Bennet's-Hill, near Doctors-Commons, London; where are some Officers at Arms always attending, to satisfy Comers touching Descents, Pedigrees, Coats of Arms, &c.

All the Members of this College being the King's sworn Servants in Ordinary, the Reader may find a List of their Names among the Officers of the Household.

Inns of Court, or Colleges of Common-Lawyers.

THE Colleges of Municipal, or Common-Law Professors and Students, are fourteen, called still Inns, the old English Word for Houses of Noblemen, or Bishops, or Men of extraordinary Note, and which is of the same Signification with the French Word Hotel.

There are two Inns of Serjeants,
Four Inns of Court,
Eight Inns of Chancery.

Inns of Court.] The Inns of Court were so named, as some think, because the Students therein are to serve the Courts of Judicature; or else, because anciently these Colleges ages received only the Sons of Noblemen, and better Sorts of Gentlemen, as Fortescue affirmeth.

Of these there are Four.

The Two Temples.] Heretofore the Dwelling of the Knights-Templers, and purchased by some Professors of the Common-Law above 300 Years ago: They are called the Inner and Middle Temple, in Relation to Essex-House, which was Part of the House of the Knights-Templers, and called the Outer-Temple, because it is seated without Temple-Bar.

Lincoln's-Inn, and Gray's-Inn.] The two other Inns of Court are Lincoln's-Inn, belonging anciently to the Earls of Lincoln, and Gray's-Inn, formerly belonging to the noble Family of the Grays.

These Societies are no Corporation, nor have any Judicial Power over their Members, but have certain Orders among themselves, which have, by Consent, the Force of Laws; for lighter Offences, they are only excommunicated, or put out of Commons, not to eat with the rest; and for greater Offences, they lose their Chambers, and are expelled the College; and being expelled, they are never received by any of the three other Societies.

There are no Lands or Revenues belonging to these Societies, which being no Corporations, are not enabled to purchase, or have they any thing for defraying the Charges of the House, but what is paid at Admittance, and other Dues for their Chambers. The whole Company of Gentlemen in each Society, may be divided into four Parts, Benchers, Utter-Barristers, Inner-Barristers, and Students.

Benchers.] Benchers are the Seniors, to whom is committed the Government and Ordering of the whole House; and out of these is chosen yearly a Treasurer, who receiveth, disburseth, and accounteth for all Monies belonging to the House.

[There are no Mootings or Readings in the Inns of Court or Chancery at this Day.]

INNS of CHANCERY.

THE Inns of Chancery were probably so named, because there dwelt such Clerks as did chiefly study the forming of Writs, which regularly appertained to the Cursitors that are Officers of Chancery. The first of these is called Ihavie's-Inn, begun in the Reign of Edw. III. and since purchased by the Society of Lincoln's-Inn; then New-Inn, Clement's-Inn, Clifford's-Inn, anciently the House of the Lord Clifford; Staple-Inn, belonging to the Merchants of the Staple; and Lion's-Inn,

R

Inn,

Inn, anciently a common Inn, with the Sign of the Lion, Furnival's-Inn, and Bernard's-Inn.

These were heretofore preparatory Colleges for younger Students, and many were entred here, before they were admitted into the Inns of Court.

Now they are for the most part taken up by Attornies, Solicitors, and Clerks, who have their Chambers apart, and their Diet at a very easy Rate, in a Hall together, where they are obliged to appear in grave long Robes, and black round knit Caps.

Serjeants-Inn.] Lastly, There are two more Colleges called Serjeant's-Inn, where the Common-Law-Student, when he is arrived to the highest Degree, hath his Lodging and Diet; they are called Servientes ad Legem, Serjeants at Law, and are as Doctors in the Civil-Law, only these have heretofore been reputed more noble and honourable; Doctōris enim appellatio est Magisterii. Servientis verō Ministerij.

To arrive to this high Degree, take this brief Account.

Degrees by which they rise.] The young Student in the Common-Law is admitted to be of one of the four Inns of Court, where he is called a Moot-Man; and after about seven Years Study, is chosen an Utter-Barrister; and is then in a Capacity to be made a Serjeant at Law, when his Majesty shall be pleas'd to call him, which is in this Manner:

Serjeants at Law.] When the Number of Serjeants is small, the Lord Chief-Justice of the Common-Pleas, by the Advice and Consent of other the Judges, makes Choice of six or eight, more or less, of the most grave and learned of the Inns of Court, and presents their Names to the Lord-Chancellor, or Lord-Keeper, who sends, by the King's Writ, to each of them, to appear on such a Day before the King, to receive the State and Degree of a Serjeant at Law. At the appointed Time, they being habited in Robes of two Colours, viz. Brown and Blue, come accompanied with the Students of the Inns of Court, and attended by a Train of Servants and Retainers, in certain peculiar Cloth Liveries, to Westminster-Hall; there in Publick they take a solemn Oath, and are cloathed with certain Robes and Coifs, without which they may be seen no more in Publick. After this, they feast the great Persons of the Nation in a very magnificent and princely Manner; give Gold Rings to the Princes of the Blood, Archbishops, Chancellor, Treasurer, to the Value of 40*l.* each Ring; to Earls and Bishops, Rings of 20*s.* to other great Officers, to Barons, &c. Rings of less Value, besides a great Number of Rings to private Friends.

Out of these are chosen all the Judges of the King's Bench and Common-Pleas; whereof every Judge doth always wear the white Linnen Coif, which he had as a principal Badge of a Serjeant, and which he had ever the Privilege to wear at all Times, Times, even in the King's Presence, and while he speaks to the King; though anciently it was not permitted to any Subject to be so much as capp'd in the Presence of the King of England.

A Judge made.] When any of the afore-mentioned Judges are wanting, the King, by the Advice of his Council, makes choice of one of these Serjeants at Law to supply his Place, and constitutes him by Letters-Patent, sealed by the Chancellor, who sitting in the Middle of the rest of the Judges in open Court, by a set Speech, declares to the Serjeant (who upon this Occasion is brought in) the King's Pleasure; and to the People the King's Goodness, in providing the Bench with such able honest Men, as that Justice may be done expeditely and impartially to all his Subjects; and causes the said Letters-Patent to be read; and being departed, the Chief-Justice places the said Serjeant on the Bench junior of all the rest; and having taken his Oath well and truly to serve the King, and all his People in the Office of Justice, to take no Reward, to do equal and speedy Justice to all, &c. he sets himself to the Execution of his Charge.

And now in some Things his former Habit of a Serjeant is altered; his long Robe and Cap, his Hood and Coif are the same; but there is besides, a Cloak put over him, and closed on his right Shoulder, and his Caputium is lined with Minever, or de Minuto vario, diverse small Pieces of white rich Fur: But the Two Lord Chief-Justices, and the Lord Chief-Baron, have their Hood, Sleeves and Collars turned up with Ermin.

Note, That out of the Serjeants afore-mentioned the King by Writ usually calls some to be of his Council at Law, allowing each one Wadage, Feodage, Vesturage, and Legardage: These sit within the Bar in all Courts at Westminster, except in the Court of Common-Pleas, where all sit without the Bar.

HOSPITALS.

Besides the COLLEGES, properly so called, there are in this City many richly endowed Hospitals, Alms-Houses, Work-Houses, and Houses of Correction. The most noted are,

SUTTON's Hospital, or the Charter-House.

A Little without the Walls stands this College, or Collegiate House, called anciently the Chartreuse, now corruptly the Charter-House, it being heretofore a Convent of Carthusian Monks, Monks, in French, des Chartreux. This College, now called Sutton's Hospital, consists of a Master, who is a Governor, a Chaplain, and several other Officers; also a Master and Usher to instruct 40 Scholars, besides 80 decayed Gentlemen, Soldiers and Merchants, who have all a plentiful Maintenance of Diet, Lodging, Cloaths, Physick, &c. and live altogether in a Collegiate Manner, with much Cleanness and Neatness; and the 40 Scholars have not only Necessaries whilst they are here taught, but if they become fit for the Universities, there is also unto each one, out of the yearly Revenues of this College, 20*l.* yearly, and duly paid, for eight Years after they come to the University; and to others, fitter for Trades, there is allowed a considerable Sum of Money to bind them Apprentices. There are moreover all sorts of Officers expedient for such a Society, as Physician, Apothecary, Steward, Cooks, Butlers, &c. who have all competent Salaries. The Revenue, and Princely Foundation, was the sole Gift of Thomas Sutton, Esq; a Lincolnshire Gentleman, and a Protestant; and is supposed to be so great, as cannot be parallel'd by the Charity of any one Subject in Europe, notwithstanding the great Boasts of the Roman Catholics. The House cost him at first 13,000*l.* and the fitting up for this Purpose about 7,000*l.* more; in all 20,000*l.* and was endowed by him with 4,000*l.* per Annum, which is since improved to near 6,000*l.* per Annum. The Founder died the twelfth Day of December, 1611, and this his Foundation hath been ever since entire, and maintained by its own Revenue, without as yet admitting any other Addition of Charity to it: Although by Letters of Licence granted by his late Majesty, in the Seventh Year of his Reign, the Governors are empowered to receive by Will or Deed any farther Addition of Charity, not exceeding four thousand Pounds per Annum, to Mr. Sutton's Revenue. The Governors are in Number sixteen, and all Vacancies supplied by the Election of the remaining Governors.

In the Disposal of the Governors, are the following Benefices.

CHELSEA-COLLEGE, or the Royal Hospital for disabled Soldiers.

THE Royal Hospital at Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex, founded by King Charles the Second, carried on by King James the Second, and now perfected by the late King William and Queen Mary, is seated upon a Piece of Ground whereon a Building formerly stood, which was designed by King James the First for a College of Divines, to defend the Reformation of the Church of England against all Opposers; which Ground did escheat to the King. It is about a Mile from the Suburbs of London, near the famous River of Thames, in a most wholesome Air, upon a rising gravelly Ground, about sixteen Foot higher than the River, from whence it is abundantly furnished with wholesome Water, even to the Top of the Fabrick, by a most ingenious Machine, without the Labour of Horse or Man, lately invented by a Shopkeeper of London.

The main Building is a large Square, whereof one Side is open to the River, which is about one hundred Paces distant, and where is a most commodious and magnificent Landing-Place: Of the other three Sides, the Front-side contains the Chapel and Hall, both very spacious and noble Rooms. The two other Sides, being four Stories high, are divided into Wards or Galleries, two in each Story, containing each twenty-six distinct Apartments for the Foot-Soldiers. At each of the four Corners of this main Building there is a fair Pavilion, in one whereof is the Governor's Lodgings, and the Council-Chamber; the other three being fair Lodgings for several of the Officers of the House, both Civil and Military. In the Middle of this great Court is placed, upon a Marble Pedestal, a most curious brazen Statue of the Founder, King Charles the Second, at the Cost and Charge of Mr. Toby Rustatt.

The Number of ordinary Pensioners is 486, besides the Officers of the House, Matrons, Landrefs, Washer-women, &c.

The Out, or Extraordinary Pensioners, are more numerous, and these upon Occasion do Duty in the several Garrisons, from whence Draughts are made for the Army, &c.

The Pensioners have all Red Coats, lined with Blue, and are provided with all other Cloaths, Linnen and Woollen, plentiful Diet, neat clean Lodging, Washing, Fire, and one Day's Pay in every Week for spending Money.

The Qualification to be admitted of this Society is, That each one must first bring a Certificate from their superior Officer, that he hath been maimed and disabled in the Service.

vice of the Crown; or else that he hath served the Crown twenty Years, which must appear by Muster-Rolls.

For the Government of this Royal Foundation there are appointed proper Officers; a List of which see at the Close of this Work.

They have all fair Lodgings, and suitable Diet in the Hall. Moreover, there are several other Officers, or Servants, as Cooks, Butlers, Bakers, Sexton, Usher, Porters, Women, House-keepers, Matrons, 24, who have all Diet in the Hospital. There are also Barbers, and diverse other Servants, besides Smiths, Carpenters, Joiners, Plummers, Stone-cutters, &c.

To defray the vast Charges of this Royal Hospital, there is a considerable Sum paid yearly out of the Poundage of the Army, besides one Day's Pay of each Officer, and of each common Soldier once every Year, which in Time of War amounted to above 13,000 l.

GREENWICH-HOSPITAL.

NExt to this, Greenwich-Hospital, built upon the River Thames, must hereafter take its Place in this Book, as being not much farther from London-Bridge Eastward than Chelsea is Westward: But if we should consider the Magnificence, Capaciousness, or Usefulness of the Building, it should rather precede the former, as much excelling it on each Account as the Naval Strength of an Island is every way preferable in its Value to the Land-Forces of it. 'Tis built below Bridge, as most proper for its Inhabitants, who are to be all such English Seamen as by Age, Wounds, or other Accidents shall be disabled from further Service at Sea, and for the Widows and Children of such as happen to be slain in Sea-Service: 'Tis to be fitted up for no less than 450 Seamen, if Encouragement be answerable to the Statelines of the Structure, which is truly Royal, a great Part of it being built in King Charles the Second's Time, at 36,000 l. Expence; encouraged much by King William the Third's Commission, and by a new Commission granted by the late Queen Anne; and we hope will be perfected, under the auspicious Influences of our present Gracious Sovereign King George II.

Christ's-Hospital.] Formerly a Monastery of Gray-Friers, dissolv'd by Henry VIII. and converted by his Son Edw. VI. into an Hospital for poor Children, called by some the Blue-Coat-Hospital; all the Boys and Girls being cloathed in Blue-Coats, very warm and decent, and provided with all suitable Necessaries. It hath since been enlarged by diverse considerable Benefactors. A great Part of this Fabrick was burnt down in the great Fire; but is again rebuilt with much Splendor dor and Convenience, by the pious Care and Charity of its Governors, Trustees, and Religious Benefactors. Nevertheless, all would not do, without contracting a great Debt, and anticipating the Revenues of the Hospital, the Effect of which it still feels, and is like so to do, unless administred to by the bountiful Hands, not only of willing, but of able Persons. King Charles the Second founded here a Mathematical School, and liberally endowed it with Maintenance for an exquisite Teacher, where the more adult Lads, about Forty in Number, are taught all Parts of Mathematicks, but especially the Art of Navigation; and afterwards they are every Year, about Ten or Twelve at a time, put Apprentices to Masters of Ships, and so become skilful and brave Commanders. Here were lately above a Thousand poor Children, most of them Orphans, maintained in the House, and out at Nurse, upon the Charge of this Foundation, and six or seven Score put yearly forth to Apprenticeship; the Maidens to good and honest Services. Some of the most pregnant Lads are so good Proficients at the Grammar-School belonging to this Hospital, that they are sent to the University, and become excellent Scholars; and some of those that have been put to Trades, have arrived to the highest Dignities in this City; even the Prætorial Chair hath been filled with one of these. But the stated Revenue not being at all answerable to the necessary yearly Expences, many of the most wealthy Citizens and Merchants are chosen chief Governors, in hopes that they will commiserate those Wants which their own Eyes see. That venerable Alderman, Sir John Moor, Knight, set a noble Example of Munificence to this Hospital, in building a magnificent Writing-School, &c. which cost him (as it is computed) upwards of Four Thousand Pounds.

St. Bartholomew's Hospital] adjoins to the said Christ's-Hospital, and formerly belonged to the same Gray-Friers, founded by Raihere, who was the first Prior of that House, in the Time of Henry the First, enlarged by Henry the Fourth. At the Dissolution of Monasteries, Henry the Eighth left 500 Marks a Year to it, for the Relief of poor People; but it was more largely endowed, for the Use of Sick and Lame Persons only, by Edward the Sixth. This Spittal hath able Physicians and Surgeons, careful Nurses, and good Provision for wounded and sick Soldiers and Seamen, and other diseased Persons, which come from all Parts of the Kingdom hither for Cure; and, through God's Blessing, here is sometimes 2000, or upwards, cured in a Year, and relieved with Monies and other Necessaries at their Departure. This House itself escaped the Fury of the great Fire, but most of the Estate belonging to it was consumed.

St. Thomas's Hospital] in Southwark, is for the same Use, and underwent almost the same Fate in its Revenues, not only in 1666, but in the three great Fires in Southwark, 1676, 1681, 1689. This was originally founded an Hospital by Richard, the Prior of Bermondsey, Anno 1213. It was surrendered by the Master to King Henry VIII. valued at 266*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* per Annum. It was given by the excellent King Edward VI. to the Mayor and Commonalty of London, and appointed to be called the Hospital of St. Thomas the Apostle, and appropriated for the Cure of Poor, Sick, Infirm and Lame Persons. Though this Hospital has several times escaped Burning (particularly, when in 1676 the Fire was extinguished at this House, after the Flames had several times touched it) yet the Buildings were so very old and ruinous, that the Governors thought it necessary to re-build the same, which has been done at the Charge of the said Governors, assisted by the Contributions of other bountiful Benefactors, without lessening the Revenues of the Hospital. It now consists of four Courts, very spacious, ornamental and commodious. In the First are six Wards for Women: In the Second are two Chapels, one for the Use of the Hospital; the other commonly called The Parish-Church of St. Thomas, Southwark. In the same Court are the Houses of the Treasurer, Hospitaler, Steward, Butler and Cook. In the Third Court are seven Wards for Men, with a convenient Shop, Store-Rooms and Laboratory for the Apothecary. In the Fourth Court are two Wards for Women, with a Surgery, hot and cold Baths, &c. Besides these Squares, the Governor, in the Year 1718, erected a spacious Building, in which are Wards, and Beds in them for one Hundred Persons; so that now there is room for above five Hundred People, and there are about four Thousand poor and diseased Persons cured in, and discharged yearly out of this Hospital.

On a convenient Piece of Ground, in the Parish of St. Thomas, Southwark, near adjoining to this House, is now built an Hospital for Incurables, by the extraordinary Charity of Thomas Guy, Esq; in which there is Provision made for about four Hundred Persons.

WALL and GATES.

THE ancient City of London was walled in on all Parts with a strong Stone Wall of Defence, in Height and Thickness proportionable to its Design, which is now for the most part decayed, Dwelling-Houses being now built upon the Foundations of that which is wanting, or upon the Top of that little which remains. Yet most of the Gates of that old Wall still remain; those which were burnt down, as Ludgate and Newgate, are rebuilt with great Solidity and Magnificence; nificence; and those which escaped, as Aldersgate, Cripple-gate, Moor-gate, Aldgate, are kept in good Repair, and all are shut every Night with great Diligence, and a sufficient Watch at Ten o'Clock; none being suffered to go in or out without Examination: In like Manner, at the same Hour, Watches are placed every where about the City, who seize all suspicious Persons, and secure them 'till the next Morning, to be examined by a Justice of the Peace; and if they are found to be Vagabonds, Strumpets, or Night-Walkers, they are sent to a House of Correction. Most of these Gates are of good Architecture, and adorned with Statues of some of our Kings and Queens, as is that likewise called Temple-Bar in Fleet-street, near the Middle-Temple-Gate.

Prisons.] The designed Brevity of this Treatise will not let me give a very particular Account of all the Prisons in and about this City. Two of the aforesaid Gates, viz. Newgate and Ludgate, being strongly built, are Prisons, the first chiefly for heinous Malefactors, as Traitors, Murderers, Felons, and the like, who are tried at the Sessions-house in the Old-Bailley, hard by; and the other only for Debtors, who are Free-men of London. The King's-Bench Prison in Southwark is one of the greatest for Debtors in England. Not far from it is the Marshalsea, a Prison belonging to the Court of the Knight-Marshall of the King's-Court. The Fleet, near Fleet-Market, is a great Prison likewise for Debtors; so are the two Compters, belonging more peculiarly to the City. The New-Prison at White Chapel, the Gate-House at Westminster, and others, would take up too much Room to be described here; but each have their distinct Privileges and Conveniencies, according to the Circumstances of the Debtor, which is the Reason why he so oft removes himself from one to the other by Writs of Habeas Corpus.

London-Bridge.] The next Thing remarkable in the City of London may be the Bridge; which, for admirable Workmanship, for Vastness of Foundation, for all Dimensions, and for solid Houses, and rich Shops built thereon, surpasseth all others in Europe: It has nineteen Arches, founded in a deep broad River, and, some say, on a soft ouzy Ground, 800 Foot in Length, 60 Foot high, and 30 broad; hath a Draw-bridge almost in the Middle, and 20 Foot between each Arch. It was begun by King Henry II. and finished Anno 1209, in the Reign of King John.

The Building of this Bridge of London was an exceeding difficult and costly Piece of Work; and to those that consider the constant great Flux and Reflux at that Place, it seems almost impossible to be done again: The Charge of keeping it in Repair is so great, that it hath been thought fit by our Ancestors to have a large House, a vast Revenue in Lands and Houses, and diverse considerable Officers, &c.

to be set apart for the constant Care and Repair thereof; the Principal whereof are the two Bridge-masters, chosen out of the Body of the Liveries upon Midsummer-Day, after the Sheriffs and Chamberlain.

The Royal Exchange is next to be considered, as the noblest Building of that Use in the World.

The former Burse began to be erected in the Year 1566, just 100 Years before it was burnt; it was built at the Cost and Charges of a noble Merchant, Sir Thomas Gresham, and opened in a solemn Manner, by a Herald and Sound of Trumpet, in the Presence, and by the special Command of Queen Elizabeth, proclaimed and named the Royal Exchange. It was built of Brick, and yet was the most splendid Burse (all Things considered) that was then in Europe: Before the Building whereof, the Burse for Merchants was kept in Lombard-street.

Now it is built within and without of the fore-mentioned excellent Stone, with such curious and admirable Architecture, especially for a Front, high Turret, or Steeple, wherein are an harmonious Chime of twelve Bells, and for Arch-work, it surpasseth all other Burses.

Quantum lenta solent inter viberna cupressi.

It was built quadrangular, with a large Court, wherein the Merchants may assemble, and the greatest Part, in case of Rain, or hot Sun-shine, may be sheltered in Side-Galleries, or Portico's. The whole Fabrick cost 50,000 l. whereof one half was disbursed by the Chamber of London, or Coporation of the City, and the other half by the Company of Mercers; and to re-imburse themselves, there is let to Hire 190 Shops above Stairs, at 20 l. yearly Rent each, and 30 l. Fine, besides the several Shops below, on the East and West Sides, and the huge vaulted Cellars under Ground; so that it is the richest Piece of Ground perhaps in the whole World; for, according to exact Dimensions, the Ground whereupon this goodly Fabrick is erected, is but 171 Foot from North to South, and 203 Foot from East to West; so that it is but very little more than three Quarters of an Acre of Ground, and will produce above 4000 l. yearly Rent. [The Shops in the Galleries about the Exchange most of them stand empty at present, which very much lessens the Revenue; and indeed the City hath not long Time to dispute paying the Salaries left by Sir Thomas Gresham to the Members of Gresham-College.]

In the midst of this great Quadrangle stands that exquisite Statue of his late Majesty King Charles II. erected at the Charge of the Society of Merchant Adventurers of England: 'Tis done with great Beauty and Spirit, in the ancient Roman Habit of their Cæsars, with a Wreath of Lawrel on his Head, standing upon a Pedestal seven Foot high, on three Sides whereof are curiously cut, on three Escutcheons, First, the Arms of England and France quartered: Secondly, of Scotland: Thirdly, of Ireland; each supported by a Cupid; and on the fourth Side is the following Inscription:

*Carolo II. Caesari Britannico, Patria Patri,
Regum Optimo, Clementissimo, Augustissimo,
Generis Humani Deliciis,
Utriusque fortuna Victori,
Pacis Europa Arbitro,
Marii Domino ac Vindici,
Societas Mercatorum Adventur. Anglia,
Qua per CCCC jam prope Annos
Regia benignitate prope floret,
Fidei Intemerata & Gratitude aeterna,
Hoc Testimonium
Venerabunda posuit, Anno salutis Humana M DC LXXXIV.*

The Whole is made of white Marble, somewhat bigger than the Life, and is the Workmanship of the famous Carver and Statuary, Mr. Grinlin Gibbons.

And as before the dreadful Fire there were all around the Quadrangle of this Royal Exchange the Statues of all the Sovereign Princes of this Kingdom since the Norman Conquest; so now, by the Care and Cost of the City-Companies, most of those Niches are again filled with the like curious Statues in Marble or Alabaster, and the rest are daily designed.

Statue at Charing-Cross.] There are other Statues worthy to be taken Notice of, particularly that at Charing-Cross, of King Charles the First on Horseback, bigger than the Life, done in Brass, standing on a high Pedestal of white Marble, curiously adorned with Trophies of War, and all compassed about with Iron Rails: It was done by an admirable Artist, La Seur, who made that magnificent Brazen Monument in King Henry the Seventh's Chapel, for the Duke of Buckingham, that was murdered by Felton.

In the midst of the great Court at White-Hall, is a Noble Statue in Brass of King James the Second, upon a Pedestal of Marble, with this Inscription,

JACOBUS SECUNDUS
DEI GRATIA, ANGLIÆ, SCOTIÆ, FRANCIÆ,
ET HIBERNIÆ REX,
FIDEI DEFENSOR,
1686.

The Monument.] Not far from the Bridge is the fatal Place where the dreadful Fire afore-mentioned first began; near which is now erected (as was ordered by an Act of Parliament immediately after the Fire) a Pillar in perpetual Memory thereof: It is of the Tuscan Order, 202 Foot high from the Superficies of the Ground, and 15 Foot Diameter, all of solid Portland Stone, with a fair Stair-case in the Middle, of black Marble, with an Iron Balcony on the Top (not unlike those two ancient white Marble Pillars at Rome, erected in Honour of the Emperors Trajan and M. Antoninus, those excellent Princes, which were there built above 1500 Years ago, and are still standing entire.) The Pedestal of this our Pillar is also all of Portland Stone, and is 21 Foot square, and 40 Foot high; the Front whereof is curiously adorned with ingenious Emblems in Basso-Relievo, the Work of that admirable Sculptor and Carver in Stone, Mr. Gabriel Cibber, another Praxiteles; and on the Sides thereof are these following incomparable Inscriptions.

On one Side,

Anno Christi MDCLXVI, Die IV Nonas Septembris, hinc in Orientem pedum CCII intervallo (qua est hujusce Columna Altitudo) erupit de mediâ nocte Incendium, quod, vento spirante, hausit etiam longinqua, & partes per omnes populabundum, ferebatur cum impetu & fragore incredibili, XXCIX Tempia, Portas, Pratorium, Aedes publicas, Ptochotrophia, Scholas, Bibliothecas, Insularum magnum Numerum, Domum CCIDCCC CC, vicos CD absumsit, de XXVI Regionibus XV funditus deleuit, alias VIII laceras & semiustas reliquit. Urbis Cadaver ad CDXXXVI jugera hinc ab arce per Tamisis ripam ad Templariorum fanum, illinc ab Euro aquilonali portâ secundum muros ad fossa Fletane caput porrexit: Adversus opes civium & fortunas infestum, erga vitas inocuum: ut per omnia referret supremam illam Mundi Exustionem.

Velox Clades fuit: Exiguum tempus eandem vidit Civitatem florentissimam & nullam.

Tertio die, cum jam plane evicerat humana consilia & subsidia omnia, cœlitus, ut par est credere, iussus, stetit fatalis ignis & quaquaversum elanguit. [Sed Furor Papisticus, qui tam dira pertravit, nondum restinguitur.]

Which last Words were erased at King James's Accession to the Crown, and reinscribed soon after the Revolution.

On the other Side is,

About the Plinth of the lower Predeſtal is this following Inſcription in Engliſh.

This Pillar was ſet up in perpetual Remembrance of the moſt dreadful Burning this Proteſtant City, begun and carried on by the Treachery and Malice of the Popiſh Faction, in the Beginning of September, in the Year of our Lord 1666. In order to the carrying on their horrid Plot for extirpating the Proteſtant Religion and old Engliſh Liberty, and introducing Popery and Slavery.

Note,

Note, That this Inscription was erased by King James upon his Accession to the Crown; but re-inscribed presently after the Happy Revolution, in such deep Characters as are not easily to be blotted out.

Companies Halls.] To speak now particularly of the many noble Structures belonging to, and built at the sole Charges of each Guild, or incorporated Fraternity in this great City, would take up too much Place in this little Book: These are built like the Houses of the Nobility, with gallant Frontispieces, stately Courts, spacious Rooms; the Hall especially, from which the whole is named, is not only ample enough to entertain, at a Time of Feasting, all of the Livery in each Company, be they one, two or three Hundred, but many of them are fit to receive a Crowned Head, with all its Nobles, those of each of the twelve Companies especially; and in some one of these Halls, as that of Merchant-Tailors, the Annual Festivals of the most splendid Societies are celebrated, as of the Artillery-Company, the most Glorious; and the Sons of the Clergy, the most Beneficent that this City can boast of: One of these twelve Palaces (as I may call them) the Lord-Mayor for the Time being usually makes the Place of his Residence, with all his Family, and his Officers; there he usually entertains all Foreign Princes and Ambassadors. The Company of Mercers, besides their Hall, have a sumptuous and spacious Chapel for Divine Service, which every Lord's Day, during the most populous Seasons of the Year, is supplied by select Preachers. To the Drapers-Hall belongs a large and well-kept Garden, with Bowers for Retirement to study, but is open to all People of genteel Appearance: And indeed, each Hall hath some or other particular Excellency.

Fountains.] I come now to consider the publick Fountains and Aqueducts, which are many and sumptuous, affording most excellent and wholesome Waters; to omit those of Crowder's-Well in Jewin-street, that of Tower-Hill, and others of peculiar Virtues as well as general Use, some of the most eminent are these:

Statue of the King in Stocks-Market.] The neatly wrought Conduit in the Market-Place, at the West-End of Lombard-Street, whereupon is placed a large Statue of King Charles the Second on Horseback, trampling upon an Enemy, at the sole Cost and Charges of that worthy Citizen and Alderman of London, Sir Robert Viner, Knight and Baronet. [Tis now taken down, with all Stocks-Market, to make room for erecting a Mansion-House for the Lord-Mayor.]

Fountain in King's-Square.] The Design also of that Fountain in the Middle of King's-Square, in Soho-Fields Buildings, ings, deserves Observation; where, on a high Pedestal, is King Charles's Statue, and at his Feet lie the Representations of the four principal Rivers of England, pouring out their Waters into the Cistern, viz. Thames, Trent, Humber and Severn, with Inscriptions under each.

There is an excellent and plentiful Fountain likewise at Aldgate, with many others of less Note in and about the City. Nor must we pass by without notable Remark,

Fleet Ditch.] The mighty chargeable and beautiful Work, rendering Navigable the Fleet-Brook, or Ditch, from the River Thames to Holbourn-Bridge; the curious Stone-Bridges over it; the many huge Vaults on each side thereof, to treasure up Newcastle Coals for the Use of the Poor. [Is now mostly fill'd up, and turn'd into a Market of great Business.]

Observable likewise are the many fair and commodious Places of publick Sale and Markets: Blackwell-Hall, a Place of Factors for Woollen-Cloth: This is a large sumptuous Building, joining to Guild-Hall, to which Cloth is sent, as to a publick Fair or Market, from all Parts of the Kingdom, and is under the Direction of the Governors of Christ's-Hospital.

Smithfield.] A vast weekly Market on Mondays and Fridays for Horses and all Sorts of live Cattle; where the annual Fair is likewise kept, beginning on St. Bartholomew's Day, and lasting three Days. [It is computed that there are one Thousand Oxen sold every Week in this Market, and a proportionable Number of Sheep.]

Leaden-Hall.] A noble ancient Building, where are great Markets for Hides and Leather, for Flesh, Poultry, Fish and all sorts of Edibles. Queen-Hithe, Bear-Key, great Markets for Grain of all Sorts. All along the Thames Side, on both Sides, are Wholesale-Traders for Timber, Stone, and Coals, all manner of Fuel; the Stocks-Market, Milk-street, Newgate, Clare, Covent-Garden, Bloomsbury, Hungerford, St. James's, Westminster Markets, &c. are Places of Note, commodiously situated and built: [There are some other Markets of late erected near Hanover-Buildings, Spittal-Fields, &c.] There are diverse other Exchanges likewise besides the Royal Exchange, where all Attire for Ladies and Gentlemen are sold; as those stately Buildings called the New-Exchange and Exeter-Exchange, both in the Strand. [The former is entirely pull'd down, and several good Houses for Tradesmen erected in its stead.]

Private Buildings] In this City, and Parts adjacent, of late Years especially, are generally very fair and stately; but within the City, the spacious Houses of Noblemen and Merchants, and many of the sumptuous Taverns, are hidden to Strangers, by reason they are generally built backwards, that so the whole Room towards the Street might be reserved for Tradesmens Shops. If they had been all built towards the Street, as in other Countries, no foreign City would, even in this this Particular surpasses London. Yet if a Stranger should view the several magnificent Piazza's, or open Places, which we call Squares (for which the Cities in Italy are so highly esteem'd) the several streight and spacious Streets, the many curious and uniform Piles of new Buildings and Streets, and the many Palaces of Noblemen, they will find it equal to, if not surpass, most of what they have seen abroad.

The Arms of the City of London.] The Arms of the City of London, are Argent a Cross Gules, with the Sword of St. Paul, not the Dagger of William Walworth, as some have conceited; for this Coat belonged to the City before Walworth slew Wat. Tyler the Rebel, as learned Antiquaries affirm.

Of the KING's Great Wardrobe.

[Its Antiquity.]

THIS Office was usually kept within the City, near PuddleWharf, in an ancient House built by Sir John Beauchamp, Son to Guy de Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and afterwards sold to King Edward the Third.

The Master, or Keeper, of the Great Wardrobe, is an Officer of great Antiquity and Dignity.

High Privileges and Immunities were conferred on him by Henry the Sixth, and confirmed by his Successors. King James the First enlarged the same, and ordained, that this great Office should be an Incorporation, or Body Politick, for ever.

Several Things furnished from thence.] This Office is to make Provisions for Coronations, Marriages and Funerals of the Royal Family; to furnish the Court with Beds, Hangings, Cloths of Estate, Carpets, and other Necessaries; to furnish Houses for Ambassadors, at their first Arrival here; Presents for foreign Princes and Ambassadors; Cloths of Estate, and other Furniture for the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and all his Majesty's Ambassadors abroad; to provide all Robes for foreign Knights of the Garter, Robes for the Knights of the Garter at Home, and Robes and all other Furniture for the Officers of the Garter; Coats for Kings, Heralds, and Pursuivants at Arms; Robes for the Lord-Treasurer, Under-Treasurer and Chancellor of the Exchequer, &c. Livery for the Lord-Chamberlain, Grooms of his Majesty's Privy-Chamber, Officers of his Majesty's Robes, and diverse others his Majesty's Servants; rich Liveries for the two Lords Chief-Justices; all the Barons of the Exchequer; diverse Officers in those Courts; all Liveries for his Majesty's Servants, as Yeomen of the Guard, and Warders of the Tower, Trumpeters, Kettle-Drummers, Drummers and Fifes; the Messengers, and all belonging to the Stables, as Coachmen, Footmen, Littermen, Postilions and Grooms, &c. All Coaches, Chariots, Harnesses, Saddles, Bits, Bridles, &c. for

The King's Watermen, Game-keepers, &c. as also all rich émbroider'd Tilts, and other Furniture for the Barges; Furniture for all Royal Yachts; Furniture for Courts of Arraignment of Peers, and very many other Services.

To defray all the forementioned Charges, ordinarily there was expended formerly above 49,000 l. but now much less, beside all Extraordinaries, as Coronations, Funerals, &c.

The said House, near Puddle-Wharf, was long ago annexed for ever to the Master of this Office; but the Office is kept at present in Great Queen-Street.

The chief Officers under the Master, are a Deputy, and a Clerk of the said Wardrobe.

But those Officers had fair Dwelling Houses, which were also consumed by the Fire.

Belonging to this Office are diverse Tradesmen, Artificers and others, to the Number of at least 60, all sworn Servants to the King.

There are two principal Clerks acting in the Office above.

Of the EXCISE-OFFICE.

THE Office for Receipt of a considerable Branch of the King's Revenue, is the Excise-Office, which is at present under an absolute Management for his Majesty by Commissioners, in Number Nine; who pursuant to several Acts of Parliament, receive the Product of the Excise of Beer, Ale and other Liquors, Malt, Hops, Candles, Soap, Paper, Callicoes, Gold and Silver Wire, Starch, Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, Silver Plate wrought, Coffee, Tea and Chocolate, and distilled Liquors, collected all over England, and pay it into the Exchequer: They have 1000 l. Salary each per Annum, and are obliged by Oath to take no Fee nor Reward but from the King only.

From the aforementioned Commissioners there lies an Appeal to others, called the Commissioners of Appeal, who are Five, and by His Majesty are allowed 200 l. Salary each per Annum.

Of the Office of POST-MASTER General.

THIS Office is now in the Hands of the King, and is executed by

Two Post-Masters-General.

His Majesty keepeth one Grand, or General Office, in the City of London, from whence Letters and Pacquets are dispatch'd, Every Monday to France, Italy, Spain, Flanders, Germany, Sweden, Denmark, Kent, and the Downs.

Every Tuesday to the United Netherlands, Germany, Sweden, Denmark, and to all Parts of England, Scotland, and Ireland.

S

Every

Every Wednesday to Kent only, and the Downs.

Every Thursday to France, Spain, Italy, and all Parts of England and Scotland.

Every Friday to the Spanish and United Netherlands, Germany, Sweden, Denmark, and to Kent and the Downs.

Every Saturday to all Parts of England, Scotland, and Ireland.

The Post goes also every Day to those Places where the Court resides, as also to the usual Stations and Rendezvous of his Majesty's Fleet, as the Downs, Spithead, and to Tower-bridge, during the Season for drinking the Waters, &c.

And the Answers of the said Letters and Pacquets are received in the said Office in due Course, and from thence dispersed and delivered, according to their respective Directions, with all Expedition.

From all Parts of England and Scotland, except Wales, every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. From Wales every Monday and Friday; and from Kent and the Downs every Day.

This said Office is managed by a Deputy, and other Officers, to the Number of 77 Persons, who gives their actual Attendance respectively in the Dispatch of Business.

Upon this grand Office depends 182 Deputy-Post-Masters in England and Scotland, most of which keep regular Offices in their Stages, and Sub-Post-Masters in their Branches: And also in Ireland another General Office for that Kingdom, which is kept in Dublin, consisting of 18 like Officers, and 45 Deputy-Post-Masters.

His Majesty keeps constantly for the Transport of the said Letters and Pacquets in Times of Peace, Between Eng- land and	{	France , 3 Pacquet-Boats.

		Spain , 2 Pacquet-Boats, one in a Fortnight.
		Flanders , 2 Pacquet-Boats.
		Holland , 3 Pacquet Boats.
		Ireland , 3 Pacquet-Boats.

And at Deal, 2 Pacquet-Boats for the Downs.

Not to mention the extraordinary Pacquet-Boats in Time of War with France and Spain, as to Lisbon in Portugal, to the Leeward Islands, &c.

All which Officers, Post-Masters, and Pacquet-Boats, are maintained at his Majesty's own Charge.

And as the Master-piece of all those good Regulations established by the Post-Masters-General, for the better Government of the said Office, they have annex'd, and appropriated the Market-Towns of England so well to the respective Postages, that there is no considerable Market-Town but hath an easy and certain Conveyance, for the Letters thereof to and from the said grand Office, in the due Course of the Mails every Post.

Tho' the Number of Letters missive in England were not at all considerable in our Ancestors Days, yet it is now so prodigiously great (since the meanest People have generally learnt to write) that this Revenue amounts to about 110,000 l. a Year.

Charge.] A Letter containing a whole Sheet of Paper is convey'd 80 Miles for 3 d. and 2 Sheets 6 d. and an Ounce of Letters but 1 s. and above 80 Miles a single Letter is 4 d. a double Letter 8 d. and an Ounce 1 s. 4 d. and that in so short a Time, by Night as well by Day, that every 24 Hours the Post goes 120 Miles; and in five or six Days an Answer to a Letter may be had from a Place 300 Miles distant from the Writer.

Moreover, if any Gentleman desires to ride Post to any principal Town in England, Post-Horses are always in readiness (taking no Horse without the Consent of his Owner) which, in other Kings Reigns, was not duly observed, and only 3 d. is demanded for every English Mile; and for every Stage to the Post-Boy 4 d. for conducting.

Besides this excellent Convenience of conveying Letters and Men on Horse-back, there is of late an admirable Commodiousness both for Men and Women of better Quality to travel from London to almost any Town of England, and to almost all the Villages near this great City; and that is, by Stage-Coaches, wherein one may be transported to any Place, sheltered from foul Weather and foul Ways; and this not only at a low Price, as about a Shilling for every five Miles, but with such Speed, as that the Posts in some foreign Countries make not more Miles in a Day; for the Stage-Coaches, called Flying Coaches, make 50 or 60 Miles in a Day, as from London to Oxford, or Cambridge; sometimes 70, 80, and 100 Miles, as to Southampton, Bury, Cirencester, Norwich, &c.

Of the PENNY-POST.

Moreover, to the great Benefit of this City, and Places adjacent, there is established another Post, called the Penny-post, whereby, for one Penny, any Letter or Parcel not exceeding sixteen Ounces Weight, or ten Pounds Value, is most speedily and safely conveyed to and from all Parts within the Bills of Mortality to most Towns within seven Miles round London, not conveniently served by the General-Post.

The Profits of this as well as of all other lawful Carriage of Letters belonging to his Majesty, are settled on him by Act of Parliament, and managed for him by a Comptroller. And for the better carrying on this useful Design, there are six General Offices kept at a convenient Distance from one another; at all which Officers do constantly attend from Morning until Night every Day, Sundays only excepted.

And a farther Convenience of this Office is, that whatsoever Letters come from all Parts of the World, by the General-Post, directed to Persons in any of those Country Towns to which the Penny-Post does go, they are delivered, by the Messengers thereof, the same Day they come to London; and the Answers, being left at their Receiving-Houses, are by them safely carried every Night to the Office in Lombard street.

Of Coachmen, Carmen, and Watermens Rates.

THE Conveniency of Hackney-Coaches, Carts and Boats in and about London, is very great: But Coachmen, Carmen, and Watermen, being for the most part rude, exacting, and quarrellsome, it may not be amiss to put down here those Rates which they may demand, and beyond which no Body is obliged to pay them.

Rates of COACHMEN, according to an Act of Parliament, 14 Car. II.

From any of the Inns of Court to the Royal Exchange,
 From any of the Inns of Court to the Tower, Bishopsgate-street, Aldgate, or any Places thereabout,

And the like Rates from and to any Places of the like Distance.

By an Act made 8 Anna, it is provided, That no Person shall be obliged to pay above 1 s. for the Use of a Hackney-Coach for any Distance (not particularly set down in the said Act) so as the same do not exceed one Mile and four Furlongs; nor above 1 s. and 6 d. for any Distance being above one Mile and four Furlongs, and not exceeding two Miles.

The same Rates are confirmed by a late Act of Parliament under the Penalty of 40 s. See Stat. 5 & 6 W. and M. Sect. 5. Cap. 16.

Rates of CARMEN, as settled at a General Quarter-Sessions.

Note, That for the foregoing Rates, the Carmen are to help, as much as they can, to load and unload their Carts.

All Merchants, or others, may choose what Cart they please, except such as stand for Wharf-Work, Tackle-Work, Crane-Work, Shop and Merchants Houses, which are to be taken in Turn.

Every licensed Carman is to have a Piece of Brass fixed upon his Cart, with a certain Number, which is registred in Christ's-Hospital. So that if any Carman offend, the Person grieved may repair every Tuesday at 2 o'Clock in the Afternoon to Christ's-Hospital, the Court then sitting, and telling the Number, the Carman's Name will be found out, and be punished.

C H A P. XI.

Of the Two UNIVERSITIES.

University of Oxford.] Oxford, quasi Ousford, Isidis Vadum, the Name of the chief River whereon it is seated. It lies in 51 Degrees 42 Minutes Latitude, and about 22 Degrees Longitude, in a very healthful Country, enjoying all the Benefits of a clear and wholesome Air, at the Meeting of two clear Rivers, which render its Situation so very pleasant, that it has been sometimes called Bellosum, i. e. Bellasis, or Beaulieu.

Chancellor of Oxford.] Over the University, next under the King, is placed the aforementioned Magistrate, called the Chancellor, who is usually one of the highest Prelates, or of the prime Nobility, and nearest in Favour with the Sovereign Prince, elected by the Students themselves in Convocation, to continue durante vita; whose Office is to take Care of the Government of the whole University, to maintain the Liberties and Privileges thereof, to call Assemblies, to hear and determine Controversies, to call Courts, to punish Delinquents, &c.

High-Steward.] The next in Dignity amongst the Officers of the University of Oxford, is the High-Steward, who is nominated by the Chancellor, and approved by the University.

ty, and is also durante vita, whose Office is to assist the Chancellor, and Proctors, upon their Request, in the Execution of their Places; also to hear and determine capital Causes according to the Laws of the Land, and Privileges of the University, so oft as the Chancellor shall require him.

Vice-Chancellor.] The Third is the Vice-Chancellor, who is yearly nominated by the Chancellor, to be elected in Convocation, and 'tis always the Head of some College, and in Holy Orders. His Duty is, in the Chancellor's Absence, to do whatever almost the Chancellor might do if he were present. He gives Licence to Taverns, &c. and receives the Rents due to the University, unless otherwise especially appointed. Moreover, he takes Care that Sermons, Lectures, Disputations, and other Exercises be performed; that Hereticks, Panders, Bawds and Whores, &c. be expelled the University and the Converse with Students; that the Proctors and other Officers and publick Servants of the University duly perform their Duty; that Courts be duly called, and Law-Suits determined without Delay; in a Word, that whatever is for the Honour and Profit of the University, or may conduce to the Advancement of good Literature, may be carefully obtained. The Vice-Chancellor at his Entrance into the Office chooses four Pro-Vice-Chancellors out of the Heads of Colleges, to one of whom he deposes his Power during his Absence.

Proctors.] Fourthly, the two Proctors, chosen every Year out of the several Colleges by Turns. These are Masters of Art, and assist in the Government of the University, more particularly in the Business of the Scholastick Exercises, and taking Degrees; in searching after, and punishing all Violators of Statutes, or Privileges of the University; all Night-Walkers, &c.

They have also the Oversight of Weights and Measures, that so the Students may not be wronged.

Publick Orator.] Next in Order is the Publick Orator, whose Business is to write Letters, according to the Orders of the Convocation, or Congregation; also at the Reception of any Prince, or Great Person, that comes to see the University, to make solemn Speeches, &c.

Keeper of the Records.] There is the Custos Archivum, or Keeper of Records, whose Duty it is, not only to collect and keep the Charters, Privileges and Records, that concern the University, but also to be so conversant with them, as to be always ready to produce them before the chief Officers, and to plead the Rights and Privileges of the said University.

The Register.] Lastly is the Register of the University, whose Office is to register all Transactions and Convocations, Congregations, Delegacies, &c.

Readles.]

Beadles.] Besides the forementioned Officers, there are certain publick Servants of the University, called Beadles, from the Saxon Bydel, which signifies an Attendant upon an Officer of Justice. Of these there are Six, whereof three are called Esquire Beadles, and carry large Maces of Silver gilt and wrought; the other three are stiled Yeomen Beadles, and carry large Silver Maces ungilt and plain.

Their Office is always to wait on the Vice-Chancellor in Publick, doing what belongs to his Place, and at his Command to seize any Delinquent, and carry him to Prison; to summon any one; to publish the Calling of Courts, or Convocations; to conduct Preachers to Church, or Lecturers to School, &c. And without one of these Yeomen Beadles at least the Vice-Chancellor never appears abroad.

The Virger.] Upon more solemn Times and Occasions there is a Seventh, that carries in his Hand a Silver Rod, and is thence called the Virger; who, with all the other six, walk before the Vice-Chancellor, and is ready to observe his Commands, and to wait on Grand Compounders, &c.

Other publick Servants of less Note shall be passed by.

Privileges.] Many, if not all the Kings in England, from King Henry I. having been great Favourers of Learning, and esteemed it their Honour to give or enlarge the Privileges of the University.

The Mayor.] By Charter of Edward III. the Mayor of Oxford is to obey the Orders of the Vice-Chancellor, and to be in Subjection to him.

The Mayor, with the Chief Burgeses in Oxford, and also the High-Sheriff of Oxfordshire, every Year, in a solemn Manner, take an Oath, given by the Vice-Chancellor, to observe and conserve the Rights, Privileges, and Liberties of the University of Oxford.

And every Year, on St. Scholastica's, Day, being the tenth Day of February, a certain Number of the principal Burgeses publicly and solemnly do pay each one a Penny, in Token of their Submission to the Orders and Rights of the University.

The Occasion of which Custom and Offering was a barbarous and bloody Outrage committed by the Citizens in the Reign of Edward III. against the Persons and Goods of several innocent Scholars, which drew a great and just Amercement upon the Criminals: The City pretended they were not able to pay this Fine, without their utter Ruin, and did humbly pray, and at last obtained a Mitigation from the University. An annual Payment of an 100 Marks was then accepted: And this, by the farther Favour of the University, was changed into a small yearly Acknowledgment, viz. That the Mayor, and 62 such Townsmen as had been sworn that Year to preserve the Privileges of the University, should yearly, upon St.

St. Scholastica's Day, repair to St. Mary's Church, and should then and there offer sixty-three Pence, in Memory of that barbarous Murder of sixty-three innocent Scholars in the Reign of King Edward, as aforesaid.

No Victuals to be taken by the King's Purveyors within five Miles of Oxford, unless the King himself comes thither.

King James the First honoured both Universities with the Privileges of sending each two Burgesses to Parliament.

No Student of Oxford may be sued at Common-Law for Debts, Accompts, Contracts, Injuries, &c. but only in the Court of the Vice-Chancellor, who has a Power to determine Causes, to Imprison, as aforesaid; to allot Corporal Punishment, to Excommunicate, to Suspend, and to Banish.

Colleges and Halls.] Anciently in Oxford (as now in Leyden, and many other Universities beyond the Seas) the Students, without any Distinction of Habit, lived in Citizens Houses, and had Meeting-Places to hear Lectures and Disputes: After that there were diverse Houses for Students only, to live together in Society (as now in the Inns of Court, and of Chancery in London) and those Places were called either Inns, from the Saxon, or Hostels, from the French, and at present are named Halls, where every Student lived wholly upon his own Charge, until diverse bountiful Patrons of Learning, in their great Wisdom, thought best to settle for ever, plentiful Revenues in Lands and Houses, to maintain in Diet, Cloaths, and Books, such Students as, by Merit and Worth, should from Time to Time be chosen, and to settle large Salaries for Professors to instruct them, and for a Head to govern them, according to certain Statutes and Ordinances made by the said Patrons, or Founders; and these are called Colleges; whereof the first thus endowed in Europe, were University, Baliol and Merton Colleges in Oxford, and St Peter's in Cambridge, all made Colleges in the 13th Century, although University-College hath been reckoned a Place for Students ever since the Year 872, by the Royal Bounty of our forefaid Saxon King Aifred, and was anciently called Magna Aula Universitatis, as since University-College, where were diverse Professors, and all the Liberal Sciences read.

Of such endowed Colleges there are in Oxford Nineteen; and of Halls (where, with the like Discipline, Students live upon their own Means, only excepting some certain Exhibitions, or annual Pensions annexed to some one or two of them) there are Six. See the List of the said Colleges and Halls, as also of their Founders and Governors, &c. at the End of this Treatise.]

These Colleges have, within their own Walls, Lectures, Disputations, all Professions and Liberal Sciences read and taught; and in some of them Lectures for all Comers, and large Salaries for the Readers; insomuch that they seem to many compleat Universities, and are not inferior to some in our Neighbour Countries.

The whole Number of Students in Oxford, that live upon the Revenues of the Colleges, are about 1000; and of other Students about twice as many.

There were anciently in this University, before the founding of Colleges, 200 Hospitia Studiosorum, Inns, Hostels, or Halls; as Richardus Armachanus writes, there were 30,000 Students; and twenty Miles round Oxford were by the Kings of England set apart for Provision of Victuals for this University.

The Discipline] of these Colleges and Halls is very exact.

First, All that intend to take their first Degree, that of Batchelor of Arts, are to take their Diet and Lodging, and have a Tutor constantly in some College or Hall; then they are to perform all Exercises, to be subject to all Statutes, and to the Head of the House. They are never to be seen abroad out of their Chambers, much less out of their Colleges, without their Caps and Gowns; an excellent Order, and no where observed in foreign Parts but in Salamanca, Alcala de Henares, called in Latin, Complutum, and the rest of the Universities of Spain, and in Conimbra and Evora in Portugal. Their Gowns are all to be black, only the Sons of the higher Nobility are herein indulged, for they may wear rich flowered Silk Gowns, and all Doctors Scarlet Robes.

Degrees.] The Degrees taken in the University are only two, of Batchelor and Master (for so they were anciently called, as well in Divinity, Law, and Physick, as in the Arts) At present the Degrees in those three Professions are called Batchelors and Doctors, only in the Arts, Batchelors and Masters.

The Act.] Every Year at the Act, or Time of compleating the Degree of Master, both in the three Professions and Arts (which is always the Monday after the Seventh of July, there are, unless some extraordinary Occasion hinders, great Solemnities, not only for publick Exercises, but Feastings.

In these three Professions, and in the Arts, there proceed Masters and Doctors yearly about 150; and every Lent about 200 Batchelors of Arts.

Batchelors of Arts, and Masters of Arts.] To take the Degree of Batchelor of Arts is required Four Years, and Three Years more to be Master of Arts, generally speaking.

The Four Terms.] The Year is divided into Four Terms, the First begins the 10th of October, and ends the 17th of December, and is called Michaelmas Term. The Second, called Hilary, or Lent-Term, begins the 14th of January, and ends the Saturday before Palm-Sunday: The Third, called Easter-Term, begins the 10th Day of Easter, and ends the Thursday before Whitsunday: The Fourth is called Trinity-Term, beginning the Wednesday

Wednesday after Trinity-Sunday, and ends after the Act, sooner or later, as the Vice-Chancellor, or Convocation think convenient.

Doctor of Divinity.] To take the Degree of Doctor of Divinity, the Student must necessarily first have taken the Degree of Master of Arts, and then after seven Years more he is capable of being Batchelor of Divinity, and then four Years is requisite before the Degree of Doctor can be compleated.

Doctor of Law.] To take the Degree of Doctor of Law, the more ordinary Way is this: After seven Years standing in the University, and the Performance of all Exercises required, a Person is capable of taking the Degree of Batchelor in that Faculty, and then in five Years more of Doctor in the same.

Or otherwise, in three Years after taking the Degree of Master of Arts, he may take the Degree of Batchelor in Law, and in four Years more of L. L. D. according to the Method and Time limited in taking the Degrees of Batchelor and Doctor in Physick.

Magnificence of Oxford.] The First Publick Library in Oxford was set up in Durham-Hall (where Trinity-College now stands) by Richard of Bury, or Richard Aungerville, who was Lord Treasurer of England and Bishop of Durham in the Time of King Edward III.

About the Year 1367, another Library, built by Thomas Cobham, Bishop of Worcester, upon the old Congregation-House adjoining to St. Mary's Church, began to be furnish'd with Desks and Books, and was mightily encreased by the Bounty of the Founder, King Henry IV. all his Sons, and others of the Nobles Spiritual and Temporal, 'till about the Year 1480, this Library was brought into a new one, which it pleased that most Noble Prince, Humphrey Duke of Gloucester, to erect upon the Divinity School, that he had just before built for the Use of the University, and furnished it with those Manuscripts which he, at any Rates, got out of Foreign Parts (chiefly from Italy) and presented the University with, at two Donations; the Names of which Books, together with his Letters which he sent along with them, are still extant in the Archives of the University. This Library was first opened A. D. 1480, but within 80 Years more was utterly destroy'd by the Commissioners who were appointed by Edward VI. to Visit the University, in order to purge it clean from Popery, to establish Learning in it, and to encourage Learned Men.

This was the State of Things when Sir Thomas Bodley considered the Damage which Learning had sustained, and the great Use that a publick Library would be of to the Students. Sir Thomas had all the Qualities of a Mecenas; he was an excellent Scholar himself, a Lover of Learning in others, and Master of a very plentiful Estate. After mature Deliberation, tion, he desired Leave of the University, to furnish Duke Humphrey's Library once more with Desks, Seats and Books, at his own Costs and Charges; which being gain'd, he acquitted himself in all Points beyond their Expectation. He procur'd Benefactions from very many of the Nobility and Gentry, both in Books and Money; he sent over Men on purpose to buy Books in France, Italy, Spain and Germany; he persuaded his learned Friends to repose their ancient Manuscripts there, as in a Place wherein they would be safe, at least 'till another general Revolution. The Library was open'd on the 8th of November, 1602, the Vice-Chancellor, and the whole University coming thither in their Formalities; and this Day still continues to be the Visitation-Day, when the Cuyators (who are the Vice-Chancellor, the King's Professors of Divinity, Law and Physick, of the Hebrew and Greek Tongues, with the two Proctors) inspect the Library, and call over all the Books.

Nor was his Care for the future State and Preservation of it less than it ought to be: For after the University had built the Publick Schools just by the Library, up two Stories high, he himself, at his own Charge raised a Gallery all round a Story higher, to the Intent that when the New Part of the Library should be filled with Books, they might go on to furnish these Galleries also. Besides this, he made an Agreement with the Stationers Company in London, to give one Copy to the Library of every Book which they should print from thence-forward; which Agreement they observed very well, 'till about the Year 1640. And, lastly, by his Will, he left a considerable Estate to the University in Land and Money, for Salaries to the Officers, for keeping the Fabrick in Repair, and for buying new Books. But this is now fallen miserably short.

Sir Thomas Bodley died January 28, 1612, after he had made fit Statutes for the Government of the Place, and they had been confirmed in Convocation, and he declared by the University to be the Founder of the Library; but with him the Genius of the Place did not seem to fall, since they are now in it more than double or treble the Number of Books that were there at his Death.

The World has had several printed Catalogues of the Books in the Bodleian Library. That of the printed Books published by Dr. Hyde, was in the Year 1674: Since which Time there have come in so many Thousands more, that a new Catalogue was composed by the learned Dr. Hudson, the late Library-keeper. As to the Manuscripts, an Account of them also was published about ten Years ago: Since which Time, the University has bought all the Manuscripts of the deceased Dr. Edward Barnard, with such of his printed Books as were fit for the Library.

Upon the whole, this Library is much larger than that of any University in Europe; nay, it exceeds those of all the Sovereigns in Europe, except the Emperor's and the French King's,

King's, which are both of them older by almost an hundred Years. These, as does the Vatican in Rome, the Medicean at Florence, and Bessarions at Venice, exceed the Bodleian in Greek Manuscripts, which yet out-does them in all Oriental Manuscripts: And as for Printed Books, no Italian Library is so celebrated as the Ambrosian at Milan, though it is much inferior to the Bodleian; as is that likewise at Wolfenbuttel, both in Manuscripts and Printed Books, though we should even allow the Account given of it by Coringius.

Besides the Bodleian Library, there are some others vested in the University, as the Savilian by the Geometry School, and the Ashmolean by the Museum, both which are replenished with Manuscripts proper to their Places.

The studious Scholar has not only the Benefit of the above-mentioned Libraries, but of the Inspection of two large Collections of Coins, one in the Museum, and the other in the Galleries of the Bodleian Library, which is the most considerable, and whereof great Part was given by Archbishop Laud. These Galleries are replenished with the Pictures of the Founders of the Colleges, and of other Learned Men: And here is a great Collection of ancient Inscriptions and Marbles, most of them formerly Part of the Arundelian Collection; the rest given since by Mr. Selden and Sir George Wheeler.

But as if all these Books were not sufficient for the Studious, and, in order to keep the Scholars as much within Doors as possible, the University has encouraged Private Libraries, whereof every College has one, as also some of the Halls. Amongst the rest, those of Magdalen, Corpus Christi, Merton, Baliol, St. John's, and New-College, excel both in Manuscripts and Printed Books: Lincoln, Jesus and University Colleges have lesser Libraries of both Kinds: Christ-Church, Trinity, and Queen's consist mostly of Printed Books: The Case of which last mention'd Library is a stately Fabrick lately erected, and the Inside almost fill'd with Books.

Theatre.] To speak of the curious Architecture, and vast Charge of the New Theatre, the Model whereof was contriv'd by the most ingenious Sir Christopher Wren. at the sole Cost and Charges of the most Reverend Father in God, Gilbert, late Archbishop of Canterbury, for the Use of Scholastick Exercises. To speak of the beautiful solid Stone Buildings, Chapels, Halls, large Revenues, admirable Discipline of several Colleges, excellent Accommodation for young Noblemen and Gentlemen, Helps and Allowances for poor Scholars, &c. would require another Volume; only of the Physick-Garden take this short Account.

Among theseveral noble Structures and great Conveniencies of Learning, wherewith this famous University is adorned, that of the Physick-Garden, commodiously placed by the River Charwell, claims not the least Place; Founded, Built, and the Donation thereof made to the University in the Year 1632, by the munificent Benefaction of Henry D'anvers, Earl of Danby, then living at his House at Cornbury; who purchasing Five Acres of Ground, South of St. Mary Magdalen's College, erected about the Square thereof most stately Walls and Gates; which Walls are 14 Foot high, of the best squared and polish'd Stone, the like not to be elsewhere seen; and one Gate thereof to the Expence of 5 or 600 l. On the Front of which is this Inscription to be seen:

Gloria Dei Optimi Maximi, Honori Caroli Regis, in Usum Academiae & Reipublica 1632. Henricus Comes Danby.

And endow'd the same with an annual Revenue to Perpetuity, for the Maintenance and Keeping of the same, and its great Variety of Plants, whereof it now contains many Thousands for the Use and Honour of the University; serving not only for Ornament and Delight, and the pleasant Walking and Diversions of the Academical Students, and all Strangers and Travellers, but of great Use also; as is easily found among all Persons desirous to improve their Botanical Inclinations and Studies, and for the pleasant Contemplation and Experience of Vegetative Philosophy, for which is here supposed to be as good Convenience as in any Place of Europe (if not the best) as also for the Service of all Medicinal Practitioners, supplying the Physicians, Apothecaries, and who else shall have Occasion for Things of that Nature, with what is right and true, fresh and good, for the Service and Life of Man.

The newly erected Museum in Oxford cannot well be passed over without some brief Account thereof.

The MUSEUM, a large and stately Pile of squared Stone, was built at the Charge of the University, who found such a Building necessary, in order to the promoting and carrying on with greater Ease and Success, several Parts of useful and curious Learning, for which it is excellently well contrived and designed.

It borders upon the West-End of the Theatre, having a very magnificent Portal on that Side, sustained by Pillars of the Corinthian Order, with several curious Frizes, and other artificial Embellishments; the Front, about 60 Foot, is to the Street Northward, where is this Inscription over the Entrance in gilt Characters, Museum Ashmoleanum, Schola Naturalis Historia, Officene Chymica. The first Foundation was laid on the 14th of April, 1679, and was happily finished on the 20th of March, 1683; at which Time a rich and noble Collection of Curiosities was presented to the University by that excellent and publick-spirited Gentleman, Elias Ashmole, Esq; and the same Day there deposited, and afterwards digested, and put into a just Series and Order by the great Care and Diligence of the learned

Robert

Robert Plot, Doctor of Laws, who, at the worthy Donor's Request, was entrusted with the Custody of the Museum.

The University of Oxford has also been lately adorned with very beautiful and magnificent Buildings, among which the Clarendon Printing-House deserves particularly to be taken Notice of, as being a Work far surpassing any thing of that kind in any Part of the World.

This magnificent Structure is situated parallel to the Schools; at the Distance of an hundred Feet from the North Side. On the West is the Theatre, and on the East a Palisade running from one Building to the other; so that these three Buildings, with the Palisade, form a spacious Court, or Quandrangle, which is very handsomely paved.

The Building contains in Length 115 Feet, and in Breadth 61, besides the spacious Portico breaking forward in the North Front, supported by four detached Columns, four Feet in Diameter, of the Doric Order. In the Height of it are two Stories above the Cellars, and a third in the Entablature, which runs round the Building, and which is lighted through the Frize of the Order. On the Tops of the South-East, and West Piedments, are the Tunnels of all the Chimneys, the Smoak of which passes through large hollow Vases, so that there is no Appearance of a Chimney-Stack in all the Building. The Top of it is adorned with the Nine Muses, in very beautiful Figures cast in Lead, of extraordinary Weight, and admirable Proportion.

Calliope stands on the middle Pedestal, over the Portico, and holds in her Right Hand Homer and Virgil, and on her Left Arm a Garland of Bays. On the two other Pedestals on each Side of her are placed Clio and Polyhymnia: The former on the East, holding Thucydides, and the latter a Scrawl in her Hand, on which is written Suadere. On the right Side of the South Piedment stands Euterpe playing on the Pipe; and on the left Terpsichore on the Lute. Urania and Erato are fixed one on the South-East, and the other on the North-East Corner. Urania looks upwards with a Coronet of Stars on her Head, and holds a Globe in one Hand, and a Pair of Compasses in the other: Erato has in one Hand an Harp, and reaches the other down to Cupid, who is placed by her Side. On the North and South-West Corners stand the Figures of Thalia and Melpomene: The first is put in a comick Posture with a majestic Countenance, and holds in her Right Hand a Sword.

The principal Entrance to this Building is under the Portico before-mentioned, to which you ascend by eight Steps, and pass thro' an Iron Gate of admirable Work, opening into a handsome Vault, or Arch, of the Depth of the Building, which leads into the paved Court, and in a direct Line into the Entrance of the Schools.

This

This Vault divides the Building into two equal Parts; that on the East Side is wholly appropriated to the Printing of Bibles and Common-Prayer-Books of all Sorts, and the other to the Printing of Books in the learned Languages; from whence the World is supplied with such curious Editions of all Sorts of Authors, as for Neatness and Exactness are not out-done by any Press in Europe.

The Room on the South Side, next to the Theatre, is reserved to the Delegates, for the Direction of Business, and is curiously wainscoted with the best Flanders-Oak, richly beautified with fluted Pilasters, and other proper Ornaments of the Corinthian Order. Over the Chimney hangs an excellent Picture of Queen Anne, at full Length, done after an Original Painting of Sir Godfrey Kneller's. It was given to this Room by George Clark, Esq; Doctor of Laws, and Fellow of All-Souls-College; to whose Skill in Architecture is owing much of the Beauty of this admirable Building. On the Floor over the Vault, are two Rooms, one of which is an Office for the Letter-Founder, furnished with Furnaces, Punchions, Matrices, Moulds, and all other Materials suited to that ingenious Art; the other with Rolling-Presses for Printing the Oxford-Almanacks, and other Sculptures proper for the Ornament of Books.

The Court is enclosed from each Side of the Portico by a Pallisade of Iron, with large Pedestals at proper Distances and Dispositions.

The first Stone of this Noble Pile was laid on the 6th of February, 1711, being the Birth-Day of her late Majesty of Pious Memory; and on the 9th of July, 1713, the East-Side of the Printing-house was opened by Printing the Proposals for that Magnificent and Curious Bible, which has been since published. A very small Number of this Edition were printed on fine Vellom, one of which, very richly bound, was presented to the late King, another to the Prince, a third to the University, and one of the Imperial Paper to the Princess, by John Basket, Esq; Printer to his Majesty, and to the University.

At the same Time the West-Side was open'd by Printing a Book of Verses spoke in the Theatre at the Publick Act that Year, with this Title; Academia Oxoniensis comitia Philologica in Theatro Sheldoniano Decimo Die Julij, 1713, Celebrata in Honorem Serenissima Regina, Anno Pacifico Oxonij à Typographo Clarendoniano, An. Dom. 1713.

This House was partly built with the Money arising to the University from the Profits of the Copy of Lord Clarendon's History. And tho' the Firmness and Strength of the Building is so great, that Time itself can scarce put an End to its Duration; yet such is the Value of the Book that gave Rise to it, as to be like to our-last it.

Preparations are also making for another magnificent Pile, to be placed between the South-Side of the Schools, and St. Mary's Mary's Church; the late eminent Physician, Dr. John Radcliff, having left a Legacy of Forty Thousand Pounds for erecting a Library there, and 100 l. a Year to buy Books, together with 150 l. per Annum for a Librarian.

At Christ Church,] One of the Squares, call'd Peckwater-Quadrangle, being old and ruinous, was taken down, and is now rebuilt after a most ample and elegant Manner. The Area of this Quadrangle is 144 Foot from East to West, 164 Foot from North to South.

The three Sides, North, East, and West, are conjoined, and are already finish'd, and inhabited; the Height of the first Story, which is Rustick, is the Vasement; the Second upper Stories are contained in the Height of the Ionick Order, the Columns and Pilasters being two Foot six Inches Diameter, with an Entablature and Balustrade.

The South-side, being detach'd from the Ends of the East and West 20 Foot, is designed for the Canons Library, with Corinthian Columns of four Foot and one Inch Diameter, and in Height forty-one Foot. On the lower Part, between the Corinthian Columns is a Doric Arcade, consisting of seven Arches, each eight Foot and four Inches broad, with an Ascent of four Steps from the Area into that Arcade, which is seventeen Foot broad, and of the same Height; to which Height this fourth Side of the Quadrangle is now advanced, and the whole Doric Entablature finished.

The whole Square was designed by the Reverend Dr. Henry Aldrich, late Dean of this Church, and is esteemed a regular and compleat Piece of Architecture by all who have seen it, Natives and Foreigners.

The first and principal Benefactor to this Building was Dr. Anthony Ratcliff, formerly Student, and afterward Canon of this College; who by his last Will and Testament gave for this Use near 3000 l. Sir Edward Hannes, Kt. formerly Student of this House, and Physician to her late Majesty Queen Anne, gave for the same Use a Legacy of 1000 l. The Right Honourable Charles Lord Somerset, Brother to the late Duke of Beaufort, gave a Legacy of 500 l. James Narborough, Esq; Brother to Sir John Narborough, a Legacy of the same Value. The Reverend Dr. South, late Canon of this College, and Prebendary of Westminster, gave also, for the carrying on of this Building, a Legacy of 500 l. besides 100 l. which he had in his Life-time given to this Use, and other Legacies to this College for other pious Purposes.

Besides the Donations which have been mentioned, there have been many other considerable Sums contributed by the Dean and Canons, by several of the Students, and by many of the Nobility and Gentry, Bishops and Clergy, who have had their Education in this House; and even some, who have not

not been Members of it, have been so much taken with the Beauty of this Building, as to forward it by their generous Benefactions. A perfect List of these several Donations will be fairly engrossed in a Book of Vellom, and repositied in the Library, when built, for perpetuating the Memory of the Benefactors.

To ~~All-Souls~~ College, with the Legacy paid by the Executor of General Christopher Codrington, mentioned p. 279, there is added a most magnificent Library.

Against the Entrance, in a Nich, is the Statue of the noble Benefactor, just over the Foundation-Stone. Under the Statue is an Inscription, reciting his Kindness and Generosity to the College, and his other personal Virtues, which he, as it were, forbid to be mentioned on a Monument.

The Library is in Length, within the Walls, two hundred Feet; in Breadth thirty-two Feet and an half; in Height forty Feet. It is lighted with eleven large Windows to the South, and a Window at the East and West End, of seventeen Feet wide each. The whole is a most beautiful Gothic Work, so built in Conformity to the Chapel.

The Benefactor's Body having been pompously buried before in Barbados, was yet according to his Will brought over, and deposited in the College-Chapel on June the 20th. 1616. It was received with great Respect at the College Gates by all the Society, together with the Executor, and the General's nearest Relations; and at laying it into the Vault, a Latin Speech was made by Mr. Cotes, University Orator (at that Time one of the Fellows) which is since printed, with that of Mr. Young, spoken the next Day. On which Day the first Stone of the Library was laid with great Ceremony by the Executor, in the Presence of the same Persons; Mr. Vice-Chancellor, the Lord Bishop of Bristol, and several other eminent Members of the University being invited to the Solemnity by the Warden and Fellows.

On the Black Marble-Stone, lying on the Body, is cut CODRINGTON; and the Inscription on the Foundation-Stone was this,

xj^o Kal. Jul. MDCCXVI jacta sunt Fundamenta
 Bibliotheca Chichleio Codringtoniana
 A Christophoro Codrington Arm. Fundata
 Presentibus
 Wilhelmo Codrington Arm. Hæredæ ex Testamento
 Johanne & Wilhelmo Codrington
 Christophori Consanguineis:
 Unâ tum Bernardo Gardiner Custode,
 Sociisq; Collegij quamplurimis:
 Perorante Eduardo Young, Soc.

This College-Chapel has likewise received a very beautiful Addition lately, being adorned with a magnificent Altar-Piece of Marble, rich Furniture for the Communion-Table, of Crimson-Velvet, trimmed with Gold Lace and Fringe; Books, Candlesticks, &c. the Gift of George Clark, Esq; LL. D. lately one of the Fellows, and one of the Burgesses for the University (who, by Will, left his fine House for the Wardens of All-Souls for ever to reside in;) as likewise with a cloath'd Resurrection-Piece, painted at the East End by the famous Sir James Thornhill, at the Expence of Henry Portman, Esq; and with a very costly Ceiling, given by the Honourable Doddington Greville, Esq; one of the Fellows of the College.

Other Ornamental Additions were made therein, to which the Reverend Mr. Webb, lately Fellow, was a Benefactor, the Society being at the rest of the Charge.

In University-College also, pursuant to the Will of the famous Dr. Radcliffe (who was first entered in that House, and remained there several Years a Member of that Foundation) is now finished another very beautiful Northern Front, down to Logick-Lane, with a Tower in the Middle, of free square Stone, answerable to that before erected; and the Master's old Lodgings being ruinous, new ones are now more commodiously built for him therein, and Chambers for the Doctors, two Physick-Fellows, after their Return from their five Years Travel, all the Provision of Salary and Chambers ceasing absolutely, as to them, at the end of every ten Years; the whole being now called Radcliffe's Place.

Besides the Benefactions to the University, several very liberal ones have been made to particular Colleges; among which the following deserve a Place here.

Colonel Christopher Codrington, late Governor-General of the Leeward-Islands, among other Things in his Will, dated the twenty-second of February, 170 $\frac{2}{3}$, bequeathed as follows:

IMPRIMIS, I give my nearest Kinsman, Lieutenant-Colonel William Codrington, all my Estate in and about Doddington, aforesaid, provided, and upon Condition, that he pay to All-Souls College in Oxford, Ten Thousand Pounds Sterling in Manner following; viz. Two Thousand Pounds within one Year after my Decease, and the Sum of Two Thousand Pounds yearly afterwards, until the Sum of Ten Thousand Pounds be paid.

I do appoint that Six Thousand Pounds thereof be expended in the Building of the Library for the Use of the said College; and that the remaining Four Thousand Pounds be laid out in Books to furnish the same.

Item,

Item, I give and bequeath unto the said College my Library, now in the Custody of Mr. John Caswell in Oxford.

Colonel William Cordrington was appointed Executor of this Will.

Dr. John Radcliffe, in his Will, dated 13 September, 1714, beneath as follows :

I Give and devise my Manour of Linton, and all other my Lands and Hereditaments in Yorkshire, unto my Executors herein afternamed, and their Heirs upon Trust, to pay thereout yearly Six Hundred [So it is in the Original] to two Persons, to be chosen out of the University of Oxon, when they are Masters of Arts, and enter'd on the Physick-Line, by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord-Chancellor, or Keeper of Great-Britain, the Chancellor of the University of Oxon, the Bishop of London, the Bishop of Winchester, the two Principal Secretaries of State, the Lord Chief-Justice of the King's-Bench, and Common-Pleas, and Master of the Rolls, all for the Time being, or by the major Part of them, for the Maintenance of the said two Persons for the Space of ten Years, and no longer; the half of which Time, at least, they are to travel in Parts beyond Sea, for their better Improvement. And in case of their Decease, or after the Expiration of the said ten Years, for the Maintenance of two other Persons to be chosen in like Manner, and for the same Term of Years, and so from Time to Time for ever. And if any Vacancy happen of one, or both, that the Places shall be filled up in the Space of six Months: And the yearly Overplus of the Rents and Profits of my said Yorkshire Estate, I Will to be paid for ever to University-College in Oxon, for the buying of perpetual Advowsons for the Members of the said College.

I give five Thousand Pounds to my Executors, for the Building the Front of University-College in Oxon, down to Logick Lane, answerable to the Front already built; and for the Building the Master's Lodgings therein, and Chambers for my two Travelling Fellows. And Will, that my Executors pay forty Thousand Pounds, in the Term of ten Years, by yearly Payments of four Thousand Pounds; the first Payment thereof to begin, and be made, after the Decease of my two Sisters, for the Building a Library in Oxon, and the purchasing the Houses, the House, [sic Orig.] between St. Mary's and the Schools in Cat-street, where I intend the Library to be built; and when the said Library is built, I give one Hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum for ever to the Library-Keeper thereof, for the Time being; and one Hundred Pounds a Year per Annum [sic Orig.] for ever, for buying Books for the same Library.

And I Will and Desire, if it may be done by Law, my Yorkshire Estate should be convey'd and settled by my Executors on the Master and Fellows of University-College for ever; in Trust for, and for Performance of the Uses and Trusts herein before declared of and concerning the same Estate. And I desire my Executors to Charge and Secure, in the most effectual Manner, the several perpetual Annuities before by me given, on and out of my Buckinghamshire Estate, which it is my Intention not to have sold; and the Overplus of the yearly Rents and Profits thereof I would have employed in other Charitable Uses as aforesaid, and by my Executors, or the Survivors of them, charged and fixed on the said Estate in their Life-time. And I would have charged on my said Buckinghamshire Estate one Hundred Pounds per Annum for ever, to commence thirty Years after my Decease, for the Maintaining and Repairing the said Library when built. And the Library-Keeper I would have to be Master of Arts, and to be chosen by the fore-named most honourable Persons, who are from Time to Time to choose the Physicians. And my Will farther is, That my Executors may, if they see that my Estate will answer, prepare for and begin the Building of the Library sooner. And I Will that my Executors, in case of the Decease of any one or more of them, should join two or more Persons of good Repute with the Survivors of them in their Trust, by such Conveyances as Council learned in the Law shall advise; and so from Time to Time, if need be, that my Will may be the better and more surely performed.

My Living in Hampshire *, as often as it shall be void, and all other Livings that shall be purchased by me out of my Estate, I Will, that in the first Place they may be bestowed on a Member of University-College; and if they should be deficient there, then to a Fellow of Lincoln-College; and after that they have preached two or more laudable Sermons at St. Mary's, the Persons that are to be presented from Time to Time, are to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor, and the two Divinity-Professors, the Master of University-College and the Rector of Lincoln-College for the Time being, or the major Part of them.

The Executors of this Will are,

The Honourable William Bromley, Esq; [Dead]

Sir George Beaumont, Bar.

Thomas Sclater, of Gray's-Inn, Esq; [Dead.] and

Mr. Anthony Keck, in Fleet-street, London, to whose Discretion the Surplusage of this Estate is left to be apply'd to charitable Uses. [Dead.]

Pursuant to the Doctor's Will, two Travelling Fellows are appointed.

The Right Reverend the Lord Crew, late Bishop of Durham, was pleased in a most bountiful Manner to settle on Lincoln College, so as to take Place in his Life-time; viz.

I. His Lordship added Twenty Pounds per Annum to the Headship, and Ten Pounds per Annum to each of the twelve Fellowships, for ever.

II. His Lordship made an Augmentation of Ten Pounds per Annum a-piece for ever to the Curates of four Churches belonging to the said College; viz. All-Saints, and St. Michael in Oxford, Twyford in Buckinghamshire, and Comb in Oxfordshire.

III. His Lordship made up the Bible-Clerk's Place, and Eight Scholarships, belonging to the said College, Ten Pounds per Annum each, for ever, which before were very mean.

All the above mention'd Charities to take Place from Michaelmas, 1717.

IV. His Lordship settled Twenty Pounds per Annum a-piece on Twelve Exhibitioners; which took Place from Lady-day, 1718.

Of CAMBRIDGE.

WHAT hath been said of OXFORD, the like may be said of her Sister CAMBRIDGE, which for Antiquities, gracious Privileges, beautiful Colleges, good Discipline, Number of Students, plentiful Revenues, and all other Things necessary for Advancement of Learning, may challenge Equality with any other University of the Christian World.

The University of Cambridge, in some few Particulars, differs from that of Oxford.

The Chancellor.] The Chancellor of Cambridge is not so durante Vita, but may be elected every three Years, aut manere in eodem Officio durante tacito Consensu Senatus Cantabr. He hath under him a Commissary, who holds a Court of Record of Civil Causes for all priviledg'd Persons and Scholars under the Degree of Master of Arts, where all Causes are tried and determined by the Civil and Statute-Laws, and by the Customs of the University.

They have also a High-Steward, chosen by the Senate, and holding by Patent from the University.

[On the 3d of November, annually, the Vice-Chancellor lays down his Office, and the Proctors take his Place. Then two Persons are nominated by the Heads, and one of them is chosen Vice-Chancellor for the Year ensuing, by the Body of the University, on the 4th of November.]

Here note, That the Halls at Cambridge are endowed and privileged as the Colleges, and differ only in Name.

Proctors.] The two Proctors are chosen every Year, as at Oxford, according to the Cycle of Colleges and Halls.

There are chosen after the same manner, Two, called Taxers, who with the Proctors have Care of Weights and Measures, as Clerks of the Market.

Register.] The Custos Archivorum, or University-Register.

There are also Three Esquire-Beadles, One Yeoman-Beadle, and a Library-Keeper.

Privileges.] This University, for the Encouragement of Students, hath also diverse Privileges, Rights and Liberties, granted by several Kings of England, which every Michaelmas-Day the Mayor of the Town of Cambridge, at the Entrance into his Office, takes a solemn Oath before the Vice-Chancellor, to observe and conserve, according to the Purport of the said Grants.

The Regius Professors of Divinity, Law, and Physick, are obliged to moderate at every Doctor's and Batchelor's Act in their several Faculties, and to determine upon the Questions,

The Exercise required for every Degree.

FIRST, it is required of every one that takes the Degree of Batchelor of Arts, that he be resident in the University twelve Terms, and in his last Year to keep two Philosophy Acts (i. e.) that he defend three Questions in Natural Philosophy, Mathematicks, or Ethicks, and answer the Objections of three several Opponents at two several Times; and that he also oppose three times. After which he is to be examined by the Master and Fellows of his College, who (if they find no Objection against him) give him Leave to seek his Degree in the Schools; where he is to sit three Days, and to be examined by two Masters of Art, who are appointed by the University for that Purpose, and by any other Regent that will take the Trouble upon him; after which he puts up a Petition to the Senate, That he may be admitted to the said Degree; which is read over three times, in the Caput Senatus, once in the Non-Regent-House, and once in the Regent-House; and if the said Petition be allowed of by all, he is admitted to his Degree by the Vice-Chancellor.

No Man can be admitted to the Degree of Master of Arts, 'till three Years after he has taken the Degree of Batchelor of Arts; during which Time he is obliged three several Times to maintain two Philosophical Questions in the publick Schools, and to answer such Objections as shall be urged against him by a Master of Arts: He must likewise keep two Acts in the Batchelor's Schools, and declaim once: When this is done, and three Years expired, he must first have the Consent of the Master and major Part of the Fellows of his College (which is requisite to all Degrees) and then visit every Doctor and Regent that is resident in the University; then put up a Petition to the Senate, which is read at two several Congregations to the Caput Senat. Regents and Non Regents; afterwards (if it be not rejected) he is admitted to the Degree of Master of Arts, which is compleated on the first Tuesday in July.

[All Graces that are to be proposed to the Senate, must first pass the Caput, i. e. must be proposed by the Vice-Chancellor to five Persons, viz. A Doctor of Divinity; A Doctor of Law; A Doctor of Physick; A Master of Arts of the Non-Regents, and a Master of Arts of the Regents. These constitute the Caput, and are appointed annually to consider and determine what Graces are proper to be brought before the Body of the University; and every one of this Caput hath a negative Voice.]

It is required, that a Man be seven Years Master of Arts before he takes the Degree of Batchelor of Divinity: In order to which he is obliged, during that Time, to oppose a Batchelor of Divinity twice, to keep one Divinity-Act, to preach once in Latin, and once in English, before the University; after which he may be admitted to the said Degree.

To the taking of the Degree of Doctor of Divinity, that the Commencer hath been four Years Batchelor of Divinity; that he Oppose twice, and Respond once in the Divinity-School; that he Preach at St. Mary's once in Latin, and once in English. Moreover, he is obliged, under the Penalty of Forty Shillings, to propose a Question in the publick Schools within a Year after he hath taken the said Degree, and to determine upon the same.

But in several Colleges the Gremials are dispensed with from taking their Batchelor of Divinity's Degree; if they keep a Divinity Act when it comes to their Turn, it is sufficient; and as for those that are not Gremials, they need only go out per saltum, &c.

Any one who makes the Civil-Law his chief Study from the Time of his first Admission into the University, may be admitted to the Degree of Batchelor of Law at the End of six Years, provided he keep one Law-Act in the publick Schools, where he is to answer such Objections as the Professor shall urge against his Questions.

A Batchelor of Arts may be admitted to the said Degree in four Years after the taking of his Degree of Batchelor of Arts, if he performs the like Exercise.

After a Man has been five Years Batchelor of Law, or seven Years Master of Arts, he may be Doctor of Law, provided he keep two Law-Acts, and oppose once.

No one can be admitted Batchelor in Physick 'till the 6th Year after his Admission, and he has kept one Physick-Act, responding to the Professor, or some other Doctor, and opposed once: After which, if he keeps two Physick-Acts, and oppose once, he may commence Doctor at the End of five Years. A Master of Arts must stay seven Years, and perform the like Exercise, before he can be admitted to the said Degree. The Reason of which, though not express'd in the Statute, seems to be this; That they who take the Degree of Master of Arts, are not supposed to have apply'd themselves much to the Study of Physick before the taking their said Degree; and therefore it is reasonable they stay longer before the highest Degree in that Faculty than they who have taken a Degree in it before.

The Exercises performed every Term are,

Every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, in Term-Time, or at least within a little after the Beginning of the Term, there are Philosophical Disputations in the Sophisters Schools, from One to Three in the Afternoon.

Every Wednesday and Friday there are publick Disputations in the Batchelor of Arts Schools, upon some Philosophical or Political Questions; and Declamations in the same Place upon Saturdays; all performed by Senior Batchelors, (i. e.) those of the third Year.

Every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, between the Hours of Nine and Eleven in the Morning, are held Philosophical Disputations between a Master and Batchelor of Arts.

Every second Thursday in Term is held a publick Theological Disputation in the Divinity-Schools, from One to Four in the Afternoon, between a Master of Arts, of some considerable Standing, who is Respondent, and three others who oppose him.

The sixth Thursday in every Term, a Batchelor of Law or Master of Arts professing the Civil Law, is obliged to keep a Law-Act, responding to two Opponents.

Publick Disputations in Physick are performed in like Manner the ninth Thursday in every Term.

Note, That besides these Exercises required by Statutes, there are several others performed after the same Manner by those that take Degrees in the several Faculties.

Besides all this, there is Exercise performed every Day in Term-Time, either by the Fellows or the Scholars of every particular College in their respective Colleges.

The Terms.] In Cambridge the Lent-Term begins the 13th of January, and ends the Friday before Palm Sunday: Easter-Term begins the Wednesday after Easter-Week, and ends the the Friday after Commencement-Tuesday, which is always the first Tuesday in July. Michaelmas-Term begins the 10th of October, and ends the 16th of December.

Commencement.] The first Tuesday of July is always Dies Comitiarum, there called the Commencement; wherein the Master of Arts and the Doctors of all Faculties compleat their Degrees respectively, as the Batchelors of Arts do theirs in Lent, beginning on Ash-Wednesday.

As to that Part of Government in this University, whereby there is put a Stop to extravagant Living, the Vice-Chancellor sometimes visits the Taverns and other publick Houses in his own Person; but the Proctors do it very frequently, and have Power not only to punish offending Scholars by pecuniary Mulcts, or carry them to the Talbooth at his Pleasure, but also to fine all such publick Houses as entertain Scholars at unreasonable Hours, that is, after Eight in Winter, or Nine in Summer; by which Time they ought to be all in their respective Colleges.

For at those Times the Gates are lock'd, and the Dean of each College visits every particular Chamber in the same, to see if any Scholars be wanting, that there may be Care taken both for discovering and reforming all Sorts of Disorders.

Cambridge lies 52 Degrees and 20 Minutes Northern Latitude.

Both these Universities are placed two short Days Journey from the Capital City of London, and about the same distance from each other.

[In the University of Cambridge are 16 Colleges and Halls, 16 Masters, 406 Fellowships, about 662 Scholarships, 236 Exhibitions: The whole Number of Masters, Fellows, Scholars, Exhibitioners, and other Students in this University, are about 1500. The most magnificent Buildings here are King's-College Chapel, the New Building in the same College, the Senate-House, and Trinity-Library.

King's College Chapel is the finest Piece of Gothic Architecture now remaining on the Face of the Earth, three hundred and four Feet in Length, seventy-three broad from Outside to Outside, and ninety-one Foot in Height to the Battlements, and yet has not one Pillar in it: It is built of good durable Stone, having twelve large Windows on each side exquisitely painted, and the Carving and Workmanship of the numerous Scalls equalling, if not exceeding, any thing of the Kind. This constitutes one Side of a large Square. The New Building at King's, which runs from the West-End of the Chapel, a little detached from it to the Southward, makes another Side of the Square. This Structure, containing spacious Chambers and Apartments for the Fellows and Students, is built of white hewn Stone, and is two hundred and thirty-six Feet in Length, Length, and forty-six Feet in Breadth, being one of the most regular and beautiful Pieces of Modern Architecture in Europe.

Trinity-Library stands upon Pillars, that form a fine Piazza in the Inner Court of Trinity-College: It is built of hewn Stone, and is one hundred and ninety Feet in Length, and forty Broad; but this is further described hereafter among the Libraries.

The New Senate-House (which with the Schools, the University-Library, and some other Buildings intended to be erected opposite to it, will form a handsome Square) is one hundred and one Feet in Length, and forty-two in Breadth, built with hewn Stone, and adorned with fluted Pillars, Triangular Pediment, and other Ornaments suitable to such an Edifice.

Nor must Clare-Hall be omitted, whose elegant Buildings, beautiful Walks, Visto's, and natural Canal, formed by the River, maketh it one of the most delightful Abodes of the Muses. And as the Structures already mentioned are admired for their Beauty, St. John's-College is no less considerable on account of the Number of Students, and the Strictness of the Discipline observed here, the Groves and Gardens belonging to it, also with its Situation on the River, render it exceeding pleasant.]

Libraries.] After what has been said of the Oxford Libraries, it may not be amiss to say something concerning those in this famous University, so far as is consistent with our intended Brevity. And first of the University-Library.] In which, among other valuable Books, there is a Gregory's Pastoral Care in Saxon, admirably well written, and a large Part of the Septuagint, in very ancient Greek Letters. This Library contains about 14000 Books in all: Amongst these may be reckoned the ancient Monuments of the Church of the Waldenses, or Vaudois, brought by Sir Samuel Moreland from Piedmont, and given here; as also that most ancient Copy of the Four Gospels and the Acts, taken out of the Monastery of St. Irenaeus at Lyons, A. D. 1562, and presented to this University by Theodore Beza, A. D. 1581. This Book is written in Greek and Latin, not long after the Alexandrian Manuscript in his Majesty's Library; and though it differs in some Places from the newer Copies, it is said to agree very well with Irenaeus and other ancient Fathers.

[King George I. added to these a very valuable Collection of Books and Manuscripts, consisting of thirty thousand Volumes and upwards; which he purchased of the Executors of the Right Reverend Dr. More, late Bishop of Ely, for the Sum of Six Thousand Guineas, and made a Present of them to this University. The same King, in the Year 1724, founded a Professorship of Modern History and Languages in this University, and another ther at Oxford, assigning to each of the Professors a Salary of 400*l. per Annum*, either of the said Professors being obliged to maintain two Persons qualified to teach the said Languages; who were to instruct 20 Scholars Gratis, to be nominated by the Crown in each University. Notwithstanding which, there has been very little Progress made in Modern History and Languages; and it is apprehended that as well the Salaries as the Exercises will be discontinued.]

Every College and Hall in Cambridge hath its Library like as in Oxford, and excelling in the same Kinds of Books, Manuscript and Printed. We need not tell over the Names of each College, in order to enumerate their Libraries, though some of them well deserve to be particularly mentioned, viz.

Trinity-College-Library,] which is the most magnificent Building of its Kind in the three Kingdoms, and is daily more and more furnished with Variety of good Books; not to mention the great Number of choice Manuscripts which are here preserved; amongst which, the Codex Holmiensis, containing a great Part of Origen's Works in Greek; the Epistles of St. Paul, supposed to be writ by Venerable Bede; Eadwin's Psalterium Triplex (being the most valuable Latin Psalter in England) ought to be particularly mentioned. But in Bennet-College-Library] there is a most valuable Collection of Manuscripts, and ancient Printed Books, given by Matthew Parker, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the Time of Q. Elizabeth. These Books were collected out of the Remains of the old Abbey-Libraries, and from those belonging to Colleges and Cathedral-Churches, and do chiefly relate to the History of England, as may easily be seen by the continual References which those that write on this Subject do make to it: Not this Collection is destitute of Writings, or most valuable Books in other Faculties; as witness the Four Gospels, and Juventus, both in Capital Letters, Claudius Presbyter in Mattheum, D. Ambrose Hexameron, and Origines in Lucam, both in Lombardick Letters, besides Numbers of other scarce Manuscripts.

St. John's-College-Library] was chiefly founded by Archbishop Williams, Keeper of the Great-Seal of England in King James the First's Time, and a Man of a Noble Spirit. The Case is very large and beautiful, and the Collection, as to Printed Books, the second or third in Cambridge. It has lately received a great Augmentation by the Accession of the Library of Dr. Gunning, late Bishop of Ely, who gave it to that College. And so also Emmanuel-College-Library] has lately received another valuable Collection of curious Books by the Decease of Archbishop Sancroft. And here the Reader may please to observe, that all the Libraries in Oxford are Studying Libraries; and those of Cambridge (except that of King's-College) are Lending Libraries; that is, he that is qualified may borrow out of it any Book he wants.

C H A P. XIII.

Of the rest of his Majesty's Dominions, &c.

Of J E R S E Y and G U E R N S E Y.

THE next, and nearest, are his Majesty's two small Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, lying near the Coast of France, with two lesser, Aldernay and Serke, being the only Remains of the Dukedom of Normandy now in his Majesty's Possession; in both of which the French Tongue is generally retained.

Jersey.] Jersey, the biggest of the two, though not above 40 Miles in Circumference, is a most fertile Soil, producing all Kinds of Grain, and several Sorts of good Fruit, especially Apples, of which they make great Quantities of Syder: 'Tis well stock'd with Cattle, particularly Sheep, furnishing the Inhabitants with great Store of fine Wool, which employs most of the Poor in making Stockings, which in Time of Peace were chiefly sent over into France, their nearest Market. This is one of the prettiest Islands under the Protection of the King of Great-Britain; but for a long and particular Description of it, see Mr. Faller's late admirable Account of this Island.

Civil Government.] For the Civil Government of this Island, the principal Magistrate is the Bailiff, who is of Royal Nomination; and with Twelve Jurors, chosen by the People, administers Justice, and determines all Causes within the same, Treason only excepted. Appeals may be brought before the Council-Board in Matters of Civil Property above the Value of 300 Livres Tournois.

There are here several Seigneuries, or Royal Fiefs, the chief whereof is St. Owen.

Guernsey.] The Island of Guernsey lying about 20 Miles distant from the former, is well defended with Rocks, as that also is, and is not much less in Space, but is somewhat inferior in the Richness of the Soil, which has this rare Quality, that it nourishes no venomous Creature in it. Both of them are furnished with great Variety of Fish. There are Ten Parishes in the Island, the first of which is St. Peter Port, which is a very convenient and safe Harbour for Shipping. Upon the Peer, which is curiously paved, is the usual Walk of the Inhabitants of the Town.

There

There are two Royal Fiefs, or Seigneuries, in this Island, held of the Crown in Fealty and Homage, viz. Anneville, by Madam d'Anneville, Relict of Charles Andros, Esq; late Lieutenant-Bailiff; and Summares by the late Sir Edmond Andros. Since the late Revolution, and in Time of War, there has been generally a Regiment of Foot quartered in the two Islands.

The Civil Government is like that of Fersey, managed by a Bailiff of Royal Nomination, and Twelve Jurors of popular Election: And the Inhabitants have the same Liberty of Appeal to the King and Council.

The End of the FIRST PART.

 DESCRIPTION
SCOTLAND
 In GENERAL.

BOOK I.

CHAP. I.

Its Names, Climate, Dimensions, and Divisions.

[Name.]

THE ancient Monks, who relish'd no Antiquities but what were fabulous, derive the Name Scot from one Scota, Daughter of Pharaoh, King of Egypt, married to Gathelus, Son of Cecrops, King of Athens. It is most probable that Scot and Scythian are derivable from the same Root, from something analagous to the Saxon Scytan, which signifies to shoot, in which Exercise all these Nothern Nations were excellent. This is certain, that the Names of Scot and Scotland were at first only proper to those People who in their own Language call themselves Albanians still; such as the Scoto-Brigantes mention'd by Seneca, and Scoto-deni by Ptolemy, which (by a Corruption usual in MSS. where the Initial Letters Letters of Sentences were left out at first, and never filled up afterwards) is now read Ottodeni, who call'd their Country Albin, which Name is retained to this Day for that Part of Scotland which is called Braid-Albin. These Scots were first planted in Ireland, which from them was called Scotia, Scotland, as Orosius and Claudian acquaint us, and as the Scotish Annals manifest; for there were no Settlements of Scots in Britain antecedent to their Settlements in Ireland, from whence they made frequent IncurSIONS; but they do not seem to have been thoroughly fixed there 'till after the Decay of the Roman Empire, when the Saxons had conquer'd the Southern Part of Britain, which they call'd England. The first Habitations of these Scots were amongst the Picts; but not being able to continue there, they returned home again into Ireland: But they did not stay there very long; for the Saxons having begun with the Britains, and made some Progress in conquering the Southern Parts, were resolved to push on towards the North; and there came a fresh Body of them out of Germany in small Vessels, which they call'd Ceolas, or Keels, over Edinburgh Frith, and possess'd themselves of a good Part of the Low-Lands of Scotland, as far as the Confines of the Picts. These compos'd that Part of the Kingdom of the Northumbrians, which was then called Bernicia; which putting the Picts into apparent Danger, they invited over from Ireland a Colony of the Scots, with whom they had a League for many Ages, to their Assistance; who accordingly came again into Britain, about the Year 503, under the Conduct of Fergus, the Son of Erc, who was the first of his Race that reigned in Scotland, and erected his Kingdom in Dalrieda (the Inhabitants of which Bede calls Dalreudini) which, as Archbishop Usher conjectures, contained Cantire, Knapdale, Lorn, Argyle, and Braid-Albin, with some of the neighbouring Islands. This Country they held a long time very peaceably; 'till differing with the Picts about the Year 850, they conquered all in their Possession on the North of Graham's Dyke; and about the Year 900, got the rest of that Country, and totally subdued the Old Extraprovincial Britains, or Picts, who 'till then were Sovereigns of a good Part of the Island; so that now a great People in Britain, being call'd by the same Name that those were in Ireland, to distinguish the one from the other, these being called Scots, those in Ireland were call'd the Irish Scotch, or Irish, without any Addition: And the Island where they inhabited, being sufficiently known by the ancient Name of Ferne, Erin, or Ireland, its Inhabitants began to lose the Name of Scots, by which they had been called for many Ages; and the Name of Scotland came in Time to be appropriated to the North Part of Britain, and so continued 'till the First of May, 1707; at which Time, according to the Treaty for Uniting England and Scotland, those Names were thenceforwards to be sunk into the common Appellation of Great-Britain.

Climate.] The most Southerly Part of Scotland, about Whithorn, is situate in 54 d. and 54 m. of Latitude; and in Longitude 15 d. 40 m. The Northernmost Part about Dung-Bay-Head, is in 58 d. 32 m. of Latitude, and 17 d. 50 m. of Longitude.

Dimensions.] Scotland, from the Mull of Galloway in the South, to Dungsbay-Head in the East Point of Cathness in the North, is about 250 Miles long; and between Buchaness on the East Sea, and Ardnamurchan Point on the West, is 150 Miles broad; and yet no Part of it is 50 Miles from the Sea.

Division.] During the Roman Times, all below Edinburgh Frith was possess'd by them, and what lay more Northwards, by Extraprovincial Britains, or Picts. The Roman Part was particularly called Velenia, towards the latter End of their Government. The Picts afterwards had the Whole 'till the Saxon Invasion, which was in the Beginning of the sixth Century: Upon the Saxons seizing the East Low-Lands, the Scots were called in, who possess'd Dalrieda; so that then there were three Kingdoms in Scotland, Bernicia, Dalrieda, and that of the Picts. The Saxons kept their Portion 'till they were weaken'd by the Danes, which made them a Prey to the Scots; who by Degrees, partly by War, and partly by Agreement, became Masters of all Scotland. Their great Division was into High-Lands and Low-Lands, and into the Northern and Southern Regions, with respect to the River Tay; besides a great many Islands lying round about the Kingdom. The Number of Parishes in Scotland are 890.

Christianity.] The Inhabitants of North-Britain were converted to the Christian Religion very early, by Britains that were Subjects of the Roman Empire; but what Progress Christianity then made is uncertain. St. Patrick is esteemed to have been the first Bishop of the Scots, rather than Palladius, who died in the first Year of his Mission into Britain, being unable to do any Good upon that then unciviliz'd Nation: St. Patrick was sent by Pope Celestin for that Purpose; and the Conversion that he wrought, as very learned Men suppose, was not from the Pelagian Heresy, but from downright Gentilism. The Church of Rome had not yet impos'd new Articles of Faith upon other Churches; but afterwards, when they came to make great Innovations, which the Britains and Irish refused to submit to, they were shut out of her Communion, and called the Schismatics of Britain and Ireland. However, laying the Schism upon those that were the Cause of it, they held Communion with each other, and kept their Religion the same, in most Points, as it was anciently in the pure Roman Church.

C H A P. II.

A Description of the several SHIRES or COUNTIES of SCOTLAND, alphabetically digested.

Scotland is divided, according to its Temporal Jurisdiction, into 31 Shires, or Counties, and two Stuarties.

1. Shire of Aberdeen.

So call'd from the Chief Burgh in it, contains the Countries of Marre, Fourmanteen, Garioch, Strathbogie, and that Part of Buchan which lies South to the Water of Eugie. It is about 46 Miles long, and 28 broad. Here they find a spotted Sort of Marble and much Slate, and in the Waters are taken an incredible Number of Salmons, to the great Advantage of the Country, besides abundance of Pearls, some very big and of a fine Colour. They have Deer in great Abundance, and Eagles make their Nests upon the Rocks of Pennan. The chief Cities are Old and New Aberdeen, which are about a Mile asunder. New Aberdeen is the Capital, or Head Burgh, of the Sheriffdoms of Aberdeen, where Causes are try'd, and exceeds all the Cities of the North of Scotland in Bigness, Commerce, and Beauty; the Air is wholesome, and the Inhabitants well educated. The Houses are generally four Stories high; and having Orchards behind them, make the City at a Distance appear like a Wood. There is also a Free-School-House, founded by Dr. Dune, having one Master and three Ushers: A Musick-School, an Alms-House, and three Hospitals, founded by several Persons. This Town had formerly a Mint, as appears by Silver Coins stamp'd there, upon the Reverse whereof the Name of this Town was inscribed, which are still preserved in the Closets of the Curious. At the West-End of the City is a little round Hill, where breaks out a Fountain of clear Water; and in the Middle another Spring bubbles up, called the Aberdenian Spaw, coming near the Spaw-water in the Bishoprick of Liege both in Taste and Quality. Besides Aberdeen, Kintor is a Burgh-Royal upon the Don, which gives Title to the Earl of Kintor: And Inverurie, the Title of this Earl's eldest Son, erected into a Burgh-Royal by King Robert Bruce. On the South-side of the Water of Eugie, stands Peterhead, with a Road that will contain 100 Sail of Ships; and at this Place it is High-water when the Moon is directly South. In many Places of this Shire are great Stones placed in a Circle, and one of the greatest in the Middle, towards the South; which seem to have been Places of Worship in the Times of Heathenism. The dropping Cave of Slains is very remarkable, of the petrified Substance whereof they make excellent Lime. Old Aberdeen was the Bishop's Seat, and has a Cathedral Church, commonly called St. Machar's, large and stately, built by several Bishops of this See. The Windows of the Church, wherein is a fine Monument of Bishop Elphinston the Founder, were formerly very remarkable for their painted Glass; and something of their ancient Splendor still remains. In the Steeple, besides other Bells, there are two of an extraordinary Bigness. Marre is an Inland Country, 60 Miles long. Upon the Bank of the Don stands Kildrummy, the ancient Seat of the Earl of Marre. Strathbogie was formerly the Seat of the Earl of Athol, now the chief Residence of the Marquis of Huntly, who by King James VII. was made Duke of Gordon. This Sheriffship is in the King's Gift.

Other Seats in Aberdeenshire.] Inverurie, late Earl of Marischal's; Keith-Hall, Earl of Kintor's; Pitsligo, Lord Pitsligo's; Kairnbulg, Colonel Buchan's; Dalgetry, Earl of Errol's; Aboin, Earl of Aboin's; Muckwall, Lord Frazer's; Pitmedden, Sir Alexander Seton's, Bart. Cragywar, Sir William Forbes's; Foveran, Forbes's Bart. Munimusk, Forbes's, Bart. Castle-Forbes, Lord Forbes's; Crathes, Sir Thomas Burnet of Leys, Bart. Frendraught, Lord Viscount Frendraught's; Philorth, Lord Saltoun's; Fyvie, Earl of Dumferling's; Tyri, Hugh Frasier's, Esq;

2. Shire of Aire,

Derives its Name from Aire, the Head Burgh of the Shire; which is a little Mart, and a well known Port upon a River of the same Name, situate in a sandy Plain, yet has pleasant and fruitful Fields, with Greens, which afford a pleasant Prospect both Winter and Summer. The Country generally produces good Store of Corn and Grass; is very populous, and the Inhabitants are exceeding industrious. Between the Town and the Sea, Cromwell built a Citadel, which was well fortified with a Fosse and a Stone Wall; it was demolish'd at the Restoration, and now only some Houses are standing, and some Angles of the Ramparts. By the King's Patent, Aire is the Sheriff's Seat, and has a Country of 32 Miles Extent under its Jurisdiction. This Country contains the three great Bailleries of Scotland, Carrick, Kyle, and Cunningham. Carrick is a Country fruitful in Pastures, and abundantly furnished with Commodities by Sea and Land. Robert Bruce, the famous King of Scotland, was Earl of Carrick. Kyle is a plentiful Country, and well inhabited. It is divided into King's-Kyle, and Kyle-Stuart: Of the first the Campbells of Loudon were the Heritable Sheriffs; of the other, the Wallaces of Craigie; but both the Sheriffships are now united in the Earl of Loudon. The Earl of Cassilis is Heritable Bailiff of Carrick, and the Earl of Eglinton of Cunningham. Cunningham signifies the King's Habitation; whence we may guess at the Beauty of its Situation. Not far from Ardrassan in this Country, is

Largie,

Larges, imbrued with the Blood of the Norwegians, by King Alexander III. London is situate in Cunningham, and in that District is the Seat of the Earl of London. The Earl of Stairs, and the Wallaces, famous formerly for their Bravery in Defence of their Country's Liberty, have their Seats in Kyle. Upon the Water of Aire there are many pleasant Seats, encompass'd with Woods and Groves, and the River abounds with Salmon and Trout. At the Place where the little River of Kyle falls into the Water of Aire, stands Sundroun, the Seat of the Lord Cathcart. Two Miles North of Aire Town stands Kincaise, which always was, and is, a Place of Retirement for Leprous Persons: A Mile beyond that is Munston-Castle, a pleasant Seat belonging to William Bailie, Esq; About two Miles from hence in the Sea, lies Lady-Isle, where is great Plenty of Rabbits and Fowl, but there are no Inhabitants.

Other Seats in the Shire of Aire.] Cassilis, Earl of Cassilis's; Eglinton, Earl of Eglinton's; Kilburn and Rowallen, Earl of Glasgow's; Leisnoris, the Countess of Dumfries's; Kilburny, Viscount Garnock's; the Cove, Sir Archibald Kennedy's of Collean; Craigy, Sir Thomas Wallace's, Bart. Kilkarren, Sir James Ferguson's, Bart. Auchins, Earl of Dundonald's; Garvan Mains, Sir Thomas Kennedy's; Stair, Earl of Stair's; Bargany, Lord Bargany's; Blairquhan, Sir Adam Whitford's, Bart. Kilmarnock gives the Title of Earl of Kilmarnock to the Family of Boyd, which is an ancient Family in Scotland; Oucheltree, Sir John Cochran's; and Hazelhead, Francis Montgomery, Esq; This Sheriffship is in the King's Gift.

3. Shire of Argyle

Comprehends Argyle, Lorn, Kintyre, Cowal, Knapdale, and the West Isles of Islay, Jura, Mul, Ilcollimkil, Wyss, Tereff, Coll, and Lismore. Here the Dukes of Argyle have Jura Regalia. The Family of the Campbells, of which they are the Head, have great Authority and Interest over this whole Shire. Of old, the Representatives of this Family were Justices-General of Scotland; and as yet retain the Power of Justiciaries of this Shire, and are Heritable Great-Masters of the King's Household. This Country had formerly two Sheriffdoms, Argyle and Tarbat, but now they are united into one, which comprehends Kintyre, Knapdale, Askeodnish, and Cowal, in which is Denoun, formerly the Bishop of Argyle's Seat, Lorn, and others already named. It joins to Perthshire on the East, on the North-East to Loquhaber, on the North-West to the Isles, and on the South to the Irish Sea. It is about Sixscore Miles in Length, and in Breadth Forty Miles. The Sea, in many Places, runs a great way up into the Land, in long Bays, which they call Loughs. The Tract properly called Argyle, lies between Lochfyne, wherein is a great Herring-Fishery and Loch-aw, a fresh Water Loch, 24 Miles long, and one broad. The whole Shire is mountainous, and the Inhabitants, who speak Irish, i. e. the ancient Scotish, live chiefly by Hunting and Fishing. Lorn lies somewhat higher towards the North, a Country producing the best Barley; divided by Loch-Leven, a vast Lake, upon which stands Bergonum, a Castle, wherein the Courts of Justice were anciently kept. Its Stewards in the last Age were the Lords of Lorn, but by a Female Heir it came to the Earl of Argyle, whose eldest Sons, before they were made Dukes, were Viscounts Lorn. Kintyre, the Southermost Division of this Shire, is above 30 Miles long, and 8 or 9 broad; it is a Country very fruitful, and well inhabited both by Low-Landers and High-Landers. Campbelton, a Royal Burgh, is in this Division, where is a safe Harbour for Ships, having an Island in the Mouth of the Bay.

The chiefest Royal Burgh in the whole Shire is Inveraray, the Seat of the Duke of Argyle. It stands in Lorn, and is commended for a very beautiful Place; being adorn'd with a large Castle, and fine Parks, and seated upon Lochfyne, a River as large as the Thames. The Duke of Argyle is Hereditary Sheriff.

Other Seats in Argyleshire.] Lochgaer, Sir James Campbell's of Auchinbreck-Castle; Kilchurn, Earl of Braid-Albin's; the Castle Dunstaff, formerly a Seat of the King's, where many Scotish Kings are bury'd: It now belongs to the Duke of Argyle, and is governed by an Heritable Captain under his Grace.

4. Shire of Bamff.

Is so denominated from Bamff, a Burgh-Royal, seated at the Mouth of Doverne, in the Boyne, where the Sheriff holds his Courts. The adjacent Country is very fertile, and the Salmon-Fishing very advantageous. In Length, from West to East, it is about 32 Miles, and the Breadth about 30. In Balvenie is found the Stone of which Allom is made; and in the Country of Boyne, great Quarries of spotted Marble have been lately discovered. The Country is generally well furnished with Grass and Corn; and comprehends that Part of Buchan which lies North of the River Enzie, with the Countries of Strathdobern, Boyne, Enzie, Strathaven, and Belvenie. Bamff shews the Ruins of an old Castle, near which is the Abby of Deer, which appertained to the Cistercian Monks, and was founded by William Cumin, Earl of Buchan.

Seats in Bamffshire.] Gordon-Castle, Duke of Gordon's; Cullen and Desford, Earl of Finlater's; Indruer, Lord Bamff's; Berkenboyne, Sir Ja. Abercromby's; Forglain, Sir Alexander Ogilvy's; Pittendrich, Lord Oliphant's; Castle-Grant, the Laird of Grant's; Bracco, Duff's.

5. Shire of Berwick.

This Sherifffdom is divided into three Parts, the Merse, Lammermoore, and Lauderdale; it is about 20 Miles in Length, and 14 in Breadth. The Merse, or Merch, is so called from its Situation, it being a March or Border Country between Scotland and England. Formerly this Country lay open to all the Inroads made by both Nations upon one another. Upon the Union of the Crowns, they felt the Blessings of Peace, and by the Union of the Kingdoms, they, with the rest of the Borderers, are secured for ever with the rest of the Island. In this small Tract there are several notable Towns. Lauder, a Royal Burgh and Seat of the Commissariat. Greenlaw, a Burgh of Regality, and chief Burgh of the Shire, belonging to the Earl of Marchmont. Cockburn-Path, a Post-Stage belonging to Sir James Hall of Dunglass. Coldstream-Town, once a Monastery, now belonging to the Earl of Hume and Haddington. Dunee, a Burgh of Barony, the best Market for Cattle in all Scotland. Aymouth, a famous Sea-port Town, and more famous for being the first Title of the Duke of Marlborough. Coldington, once a famous Nunnery, and afterwards a Priory. Hume-Castle and Fast-Castle, are both Seats belonging to the Earls of Hume, who are Hereditary Sheriffs of this County.

Other Seats in Berwickshire.] Lauder-Castle, the Earl of Lauderdale's; Polwarth-Castle, Earl of Marchmont's; Blackader, Sir John Hume's; Mellorston, George Baillie, of Jerviswood; Allenbank, Sir Robert Stuart's; Hirsel, Earl of Hume's.

6. Shire of Buthe, or Bute, or Bwt.

A small Island near the Coast of Argyle, about 10 Miles long and one broad, is so called from Bute, a Religious House founded by one Brendanus; it is a Shrievalty by it self, and has a Sheriff of the Family of the Stuarts, who has under his Jurisdiction the Island of Glosta, or Arran; the Earldom whereof is enjoyed by the Family of the Hamiltons, of which the Duke of Hamilton is now the Head. In the Island of Bute stands the Castle of Rothsay, which gives the Title of Duke to the eldest Son of the King of Scotland, who is born Prince of Scotland, Duke of Rothsay, and High-Steward of Scotland, ever since King Robert III. invested his eldest Son David with that Title, who was the first in Scotland that was honoured with the Stile of Duke. Both these Islands are tolerably fertile, and their Produce is of the same Nature with that of the other Western Islands. Stuart Earl of Bute is the chief Proprietor and Heritable Coroner of that Island; Rosa is his Seat. Callantine has another Seat at Keames, and Stuart of Afcog another. Near Bute are two small Islands, called Great and Little Cumbrays, the Property of the Earl of Glasgow. Arran is bigger than Bute, 24 Miles from South to North, and seven Miles from East to West. It almost all belongs to the Duke of Hamilton, who has a pleasant Summer Seat at Brodict-Castle, and a Forest in the Island, in which are usually about 400 Head of Deer. The People, who speak all Irish, are Protestants, and are still composed of several Tribes or Clans. The most ancient are Mac Lewis (i. e. Sons of Lewis) who own themselves to be of French Parentage. In English they are called Fullerton, and are Lairds of Kirk-Michael, where they reside. There are also several other smaller Islands in the same Bay, under the Jurisdiction of the Sheriff of Bute. By the Act of Union of Scotland and England, Bute is joined with Caithness in sending Representatives to the Parliament of Great-Britain, and the first Turn is adjudg'd to Bute. Stuart, Earl of Bute, is Hereditary Sheriff.

7. Shire of Caithness,

Lies far North, butting upon the Eastern and Northern Sea, full of Creeks and Inlets from the Sea, which runs in many Places far within the Land. Week, a Royal Burgh, is the Residence of the Sheriff, or his Officer. The Inhabitants of this Province, who are but few, subsist chiefly upon Grazing and Raising of Cattle, Oats, and Barley, and Fishing. Girneze, the Seat of the Earl of Caithness, is the principal Seat in the Country. The Earl of Braid-Albin is Hereditary Sheriff.

Other Seats in Caithnessshire.] Thurso-Castle, Earl of Caithness's; Dunrobin, Earl of Sutherland's; Dunbeath, Sir William Sinclair's of May; Skelbo, Lord Duffus's; Murkle, Earl of Caithness's.

8. Shire of Clackmannan,

Is Part of Fife, so called from Clackmannan the Head Burgh; it is bounded to the North by the Orchill-Hills, to the South by the Frith, or Forth, to the East by Part of Perthshire, and to the West by Part of Sterlingshire. It is about 8 Miles in Length, and 6 in Breadth, where broadest. The Country is plain, and Soil fertile: Most of it is fit for Pasture; what is below the Orchill-Hills bears Corn very well. About Alloway and Clackmannan they have great Store of Coal-Pits; the Coal whereof, with their Salt, they export in good Quantities. Bruce of Blackmannan is Hereditary Sheriff of this little Shire.

Seats in Clackmannanshire.] Alloway, late Earl of Marre's, a very beautiful and pleasant Seat; Kennet, Colonel James Bruce's; Menfrie, Ja. Holburn's; Tillibody, Alexander Abercromby's; Tillicutrie, Sir Robert Stuart's, Bart. Lord of the Session; Sanchie, Sir John Shaw's of Greenock; Forth, George Gordon's.

9. Shire of Cromarty,

Is denominated from Cromarty, a Royal Burgh, standing upon the Frith of Cromarty, which is 15 Miles long, and in many Places 2 Miles broad: The Entrance of the Frith is narrow, yet when once in, it is very safe and easy. The Waters of Connel are famous for the Pearls found in them. Earl of Cromarty is Sheriff and Proprietor of great Part of this Country,

Country, and resides at Tarbat. This Shire comprehends Part of Ross, lying upon the South Side of Cromarty Frith; it is in Length 50, and in Breadth 30 Miles. The Straths, or Vallies, upon the Water-sides, are full of Wood, particularly upon the Carron, the Waters of Braan, and near Alserig, are great Woods of Fir, and on the Hills great Store of all Sorts of Game.

Seats in Cromartyshire.] Cromarty Castle, Sir Keneth Mackenzie's; Castle-Leod, New-Tarbat, Castle-Haven, all three the Earl of Cromarty's, whose Residence is at Tarbat, which gives Title to his eldest Son; Craighouse, Hugh Ross's of Kilravock.

10. Shire of Dumbziton, or Dumbarton,

So called from Dunbarton, a Burgh-Royal, and chief Town of the Shire, which comprehends all Lenox, bounded on the South with the River Clyde and its Forth; on the West by Loch-long, and a Water of the same Name, which falleth into it; on the North by the Grantsbain Hills, and on the East by the River Blane, which divides it from Sterlingshire. In Length it is about 24 Miles, and in Breadth about 20; the lower Part is very fertile in Corn; the higher is hilly, moorish, and more fit for Pasture. Here are Loughs both of salt and fresh Water. The greatest of the fresh Water Loughs, is Lough-Loman, 24 Miles in Length, and 8 in Breadth, where broadest, and where narrowest, but 2. It is surrounded with Hills on all Sides, except the South, and is full of Islands, some of which are cultivated and inhabited; the Country is well furnished with Gentlemens Houses: Here is Kilpatrick, a Regality belonging to the Lord Blantyre. The Town of Dumbarton is situated in a Plain on the Bank of the River Levin, near the Place where it comes into Clyde, a little below the Castle, excellently fortified by Nature, and owing little to Art. The Privileges of this Town were procur'd by one of the Countesses of Lenox: The Situation of the Country is very extraordinary, for where the Waters of Clyde and Levin meet, there is a Plain extended the Length of a Mile, at the Foot of the neighbouring Hills: And in the Angle, where the Rivers meet, there rises a Rock with two Tops, the higher of which looks to the West, with a Watch-Tower on the Top of it, having a large Prospect on all Sides: The other being a little one, lies to the East. Betwixt these two Tops are Steps, hewn out of the Rock, in which but one Person can pass at a time to the upper Part of the Castle. To the South it hath a little Descent, which embraces the plain Ground, so enclosed by Art and Nature, that it furnishes Room for several Houses and Gardens. The Harbour is secured by a Fort: The Circumference of the Castle is but small, and yet at the Top is a Lake, and several other Springs: In this Castle his Majesty keeps a Garrison, and the Earl of Hay is the Governor.

The House of Lenox were of a long Time Hereditary Sheriffs of this Shire: When the House was extinct by the Death of
Charles

Charles Duke of Lenox, in 1672, his Estate in Scotland fell to the King by Succession, who gave it to Charles Lenox his Natural Son, whom he created Duke of Lenox.

Seats in Dumbartonshire.] Rose-Neath, Duke of Argyle's; Rose-Due, Calhoun's of Luss; Ardkaple, Mocanlay's. Now the Duke of Montross is Hereditary Sheriff of Lenoxshire. Ard-Castle, Sir Evan Macanley's.

11. The Shire of Dumfreis, with the Stewarty of Annandale.

Dumfreisshire comprehends Annandale and Nidisdale, and takes its Name from Dumfreis the chief Burgh in the Country: It's bounded on the West with Galloway and Kyle; on the East with Solway Frith and the Merches of Scotland and England; on the North with Part of Clidisdale, Tweedale, and Teviotdale; and on the South with the Irish Sea. From West to South 'tis about 50 Miles long, and in Breadth about 34. The Inhabitants are a stout warlike People; and before the Kingdoms were united, they were look'd upon as the Bulwark of the Kingdom. The Soil is generally not so good for Corn as Pasturage; so that they deal mostly in Cows and Sheep, which turn to considerable Profit. Annandale runs in a streight Line from West to East. Lochmaban, a Royal Burgh in it, is situate upon the South-side of the River Annan, in the Middle of the Country; near the Source of which River is Moffat, famous for its Medicinal Well. Annandale is a Stuary within the Sherifffdom of Dumfreis, of which the Marquiss of Annandale is Hereditary Steward. Between Annandale and Eskdale is Wachopdale, much of the same Nature as the former. The most ancient Monument thereabouts is in St. Ruth's Church. Near this Place the People have a Way of making Salt of Sea-Sand, and the Salt is somewhat bitterish, which probably proceeds from the Nitre contain'd in it. Another Branch of Dumfreisshire is Nidisdale, encompass'd with a Ridge of Hills on all Sides; it's divided into the Overward, containing the Parishes in the Presbytery of Penpont; and the Neathward, containing those in the Presbytery of Dumfreis. Here is Drumlanrig, a Seat of the Duke of Queensbury's, which is very magnificent, and adorned with stately Avenues, Gardens, and Terras-Walks. The Streets in Dumfreis are large, and the Church and Castle very stately. The Tide flowing up to the Town, makes a Harbour for the Convenience of Trade; here is also an Exchange for the Merchants. The Duke of Queensbury is Hereditary Sheriff of this Country.

Seats in Annandale.] Wester-Hall, Sir John Johnson's; Leither-Hall, Mr. Robert Johnson's; Lochwood, Marquiss of Annandale's; Closkburn, Sir Thomas Kilpatrick's; Apple-Grith, Farden's; Kelhead, Sir William Douglass's; Springkell, Sir Patrick Maxwell's; Howmains, Sir John Caruther's; Castle-Milk, Sir John Douglas's.

12. Shire of Edinburgh, or Mid-Lothian,

Commonly called Mid-Lothian, is the principal Shire of Scotland; in Length 20 or 21 Miles, in some Places 16 or 17 broad, and in other Places not above 5 or 6. On the East-side it's bounded with East-Lothian, or the Sheriffdom of Haddington, 13 Miles together; on the South-East Side with the Baillery of Lauderdale, for about 4; on the South with the Sheriffdoms of Tweeddale and Selkirk, for about 13 Miles; on the South-West with the Sheriffdom of Lanerick, for 6 or 7 Miles; and on the West, for two Miles, by the said Sheriffdom; on the North-West with West-Lothian, or the Sheriffdom of Linlithgow, for 14 Miles; and on the North with the Frith or Forth, for the Space of 8 Miles. This Tract of Land is abundantly furnish'd with all Necessaries, producing a great deal of Corn of all Sorts, and affording good Pasture for Cattle. It has much Coal and Lime-stone, as also a sort of soft black Marble; and some few Miles from Edinburgh, near the Water of Leith, they have a Copper-Mine. The Sheriffdom is in the King's Gift: And as this Country has at present several considerable Houses, whereof Hawthornden is famous for its Caves hewn out of the Rock, and Roslin for the great stately Chapel, so it produces some Remains of Antiquity; for near the Town of Grawmond, where Salmon and several other Fish are taken, many Stones have been dug up with Roman Inscriptions: Also in the Grounds of Inglisfoun, belonging to Hugh Wallace, were found two Stones, Parts of a Pillar, upon one of which is a Lawrel-Crown, upon the other, the longest of the two, there is on each Side the Roman Securis. The Name of the Empeor is broken off; but by the Progress of the Roman Arms, described by Tacitus, it cannot have been set up before the Time of Julius Agricola, who conquered this Country for Domitian. These Stones are to be seen in Sir Robert Sibbald's Garden at Edinburgh.

Seats in Mid-Lothian.] Holy rood-House, the King's; Dalkeith, Dutcheffs of Buccleugh's; Newbottle, Marquiss of Lothian's; Dalhusy, Earl of Dalhusy's; Roseberry, Earl of Roseberry's; Borthwick, once Lord Borthwick's, now Sir Ja. Dalrymple's; Roseline, Sinclair's, descended from Sinclair, Earl of Orkney; Cranstoun, once Lord Cranstoun's, now John Dalrymple's; Cranstoun Mac-Gill, Viscount Oxenford's; Prestoun-Hall, Mr. Roderick Mackenzie's; Smetum, Sir James Richardson's; Roystoun, Earl of Cromarty's; Barntoun, Earl of Ruthglaes's; Haltoun, Earl of Lauderdale's; Calder, Lord Torpichen's; Arnistoun, Mr. Robert Dundas's, late a Lord of the Session; Pinkie, Marquiss of Tweeddale's; Collington, Sir James Fowles's; Benningeon, Sir Robert Chiesly's; Melvil-Castle, Lord Rois's; Inch, Sir Alexander Gillmore's; Priestfield, Sir James Dick's; Dreden, George Lockhart's of Carnwath; Carlery, bery, Sir Robert Dickson's; Saughton-Hall, Sir James Baird's; Gogar, Sir Andrew Morton's, Bart. Broughton-House, lately Lord Ballenden's, now Sir David Dalrymple's, Bart. Stone-Hill, Sir William Sharp's; Goodtrees, Sir James Stewart's; Gilmerton, Sir William Barr's; Dean, Sir Patrick Nisbet's; Sanchtousel, Sir James Baird's; Granton, Sir William Paterson's, Bart. Cramond, Lord Charles Kerr's; another Cramond, Sir John Inglis's, Bart. Cambo, Mr. Meinzie's; Clifton-Hall, Sir George Wiseheart's, Bart.

13. Shire of Elgin,

Takes its Name from Elgin, a Royal Burgh, where are the Ruins of an ancient Castle, and one of the most stately Churches in Scotland: It comprehends Part of Murray. The Shire of Elgin is bounded upon the North by the Frith, and the River Ness, which separates it from Invernessshire: To the East it's separated from Bamffshire by the River Spey: To the South it hath Badenoch, and to the West, Part of Loquhaber. The whole Country of Murray, of which this Shire is a Part, is above 30 Miles long, and 20 broad. The Air is very wholesome, and the Winter mild. The Low Country has very much Corn, which is soon ripe; but the High Country is fitter for Pasture. Here are many great Woods of Fir, and other Trees, 10 Miles long, with some large Woods of Oak. Elgin gives the Honour of Earl to James Bruce, Earl of Ailsbury. Kinross is very near Elgin, and gives the Title of Baron to the Earls of that Name: Sir James Dunbar of Westfield, is Heritable Sheriff of Elgin.

Seats in Elginshire.] Tornway, a stately old Castle, formerly the Seat of Ranulph Earl of Murray, and now belonging to the Earl of the same Name; Brody, Brody's; Forres-Castle, Dunbar's of Westfield, who is Hereditary Constable of it; Moortown, Sir James Calder's; Gordonstown, Sir ——— Gordon's; Elgin-House, Lord Duffe's; Innes, Sir Henry Innes's; Roths, Earl of Roths's.

13. Shire of Fife,

An excellent Country, wedged in by the Forth and the Tay, shoots out far to the East. It abounds with Corn and Pasture; in some Places with Lead Oar and Coal; the Seas yield great Quantities of Fish, as well Shell-Fish as others. Near the Forth is the Town of Culross, near that is Kincardine; in the same County is Dumferling, once a famous Monastery, built by King Malcolm III. who was there interred. Upon the same Shore stands Dysert. Here also is St. Andrew's, once the See of the Primate and Metropolitan of all Scotland; and here is Cowper, a Royal Burgh, where the Sheriff sitteth to administer Justice; upon which Account this Shire is called sometimes the Shire of Cowper. The Hereditary Sherifdom of this Shire is in the House of Roths, the Heirs-Male of which Family failing in the Person of John Lesley, the late Duke of Roths, his eldest Daughter Margaret, Countess of Roths, being married to

Charles

Charles Hamilton, Earl of Haddington, had John Lord Lesley, Earl of Rothes, who succeeded his Mother to the Earldom of Rothes, and the Privileges thereunto belonging.

Seats in Fife-shire.] Weems, Earl of Weems's; Lesley, Earl of Rothes's; Melvin, Earl of Melvin's; Balgony, Earl of Leven's; Denibirste, Earl of Murray's; Raeth, Lord Raeth's, i. e. Earl of Melvin's Son; Balcarras, Earl of Balcarras's; Kelley, Earl of Kelley's; Anstruther, Sir John Anstruther's of that Ilk; Pitfarrel, Sir Peter Hacket's, Bart. Balcasky, Sir Robert Anstruther's; Cambo, Sir Alexander Areskin's, Lyon King at Arms; Inertail and Lochor, Sir John Malcolm's; Struthers, Earl of Crawford's; Craig-Hall, Sir Thomas Hope's, Bar. Balcolmie, Sir William Hope's, Bar. Falkland, an ancient Seat of the Earl of Fife, now a Stewarry belonging to the Crown, of which the Duke of Athol is Heritable Keeper; Leuchers, Earl of Southesk's.

15. Shire of Fozfar, or Angus.

This Sheriffdom comprehends Angus, bounded on the South with the Ocean, and on the Frith of Tay. Upon the West and North-West, 'tis divided from Perthshire by a Line 27 Miles long; towards the North, the Ridge of Benchinnen Mountains parts it from the Brae of Marre; and to the East it is separated from the Mernes by the River Tarf, and a Line drawn from it to the River North-Eske, which to its Mouth continues to divide this Shire from the Mernes. 'Tis in Length about 28 Miles, and in Breadth about 20. Here are several Quarries of Free-stone, and much Slate, with both which they drive a good Trade. Near the Castle of Inner-Markie are Lead Mines, and they find great Plenty of Iron-Ore near the Wood of Daltogne. The higher Ground, called the Brae, abounds with Red Deer, Fallow Deer, Roebucks and Fowls; and their Salmon Trade turns to a good Account. Near the Tay's Mouth is Dundee, a Town well frequented, driving a good Foreign Trade, well built, and having an Hospital for the Poor. The Constable of this Town, by a peculiar Privilege, was formerly Standard-bearer to the King of Scotland. Brechin is a considerable Market-Town for Salmon, Horses, Oxen and Sheep: It has a stately Bridge over the River South-Eske, and is famous for a memorable Slaughter of the Danes not far from it. In this Country it was that the General of the Danes was kill'd by the valiant Keith, who thereupon was advanced to great Honours by King Malcolm II. who was in Person at that Battle. Upon the General's Grave there was a high Stone erected, still called Canus's Cross; and about 10 Miles distant from this, is a Cross erected over the Sepulchre of some of the Danes that were killed there. Both of these have some Antique Pictures and Letters upon them. Aberbrothock, corruptly Arbroth, is a Royal Burgh, hath an Harbour for Ships, and an Abby endow'd formerly with ample Revenues, consecrated to the Honour of Thomas of Becket, by K. William I. of Scotland, the Founder, Founder, who lies buried there under a stately Monument. The Sheriffdom is in the King's Disposal.

Seats in Forfarshire.] Hetherwick, John Scot's, Esq; Borrowfield, Robert Taylor's, Esq; Fullerton, John Fullerton of Kinaber, Esq; Pitarrow, Sir David Carnergy's; Achter-House, Patrick Lyons, Esq; Lethem, Sir James Wood's of Eoditoun; Montrose, Earl of Middleton's and Rossie, Scot's of Rossie; Glamis, Earl of Strathmore's; Panmure and Brochin, Earl of Panmure's; Kinard, Earl of South-Esk's; Ethie, Earl of North-Esk's; Cariston, Stuart's of Guerntully; Inverchartie, John Ogilvy, Esq; Blacknesh, Sir Alexander Waderbourn, Bart.

16. Shire of Haddington, or Constabulary.

Contains East-Lothian, which like the rest of Lothian, is a very fine Country. The chief Towns are Dunbar, once a Place of great Strength, remarkable of late for the Victory obtained by Cromwell against King Charles II. and the Scots who assisted him, September 3, 1650. Haddington, a Royal Burgh, which gives the Name to this Shire. The Sheriffdom of this Shire is at the King's Disposal, and is now possessed by the Marquiss of Twedale.

Seats in Haddingtonshire.] Tantallan and North-Berwick, Sir Hugh Dalrymple's, Bart. Lord President of the Session; Dirleton, William Nesbet's; Yester, Marquiss of Twedale's; Setoun and Wintoun, Earl of Wintoun's; Keith, formerly Earl Mareschal's, now Mr. Hepbourn's; Salton, i. e. Soulizton, formerly the Seat of the Lord Sowliz, afterwards of Abernethy, Lord of Salton, and now Mr. Fletcher's; Byars, Earl of Hopton's; Fountain-Hall, Sir John Lauder's, Bart. Pencaitland, James Hamilton's; Gilmerton, Sir Francis Kinloch's, Bart. Preston-Grange, William Morrison's; Lochend, George Warrender's; Elphinstoun, late Lord Elphinstoun's, now Lord Primrose's; Laddington, Lord Blainvire's; Dunglass, Sir James Hall's; Orminston, Adam Cockburn's, late Lord Justice Clerk; Stevenson, Sir Robert Sinclair's of Stevinston; Tinningham, Earl of Haddington's; Broxmouth, Duke of Roxburgh's; Newbaith, Sir William Baird's; Whittingham, Viscount Kingson's; Bancrist, Lord Bibanks; Beil, Lord Belhaven's; Gosford, Sir Peter-Halket Wederbourn's, Bart. Belgawn, Sir George Swittie's.

17. Shire of Inverness.

Comprehends a Part of Murray, Loquhaber, Eadinoch, and some other little Countries; 'tis bounded on the South by the Brae of Marr and Athol; on the West by the Western Sea; on the North by Ross, and on the East by Murray-Frith. The Length of Loquhaber from Inverlochie to Inverness, in a streight Line, is 50 Miles. It has Plenty of Iron Ore, great Woods of Fir, with some large ones of Oak. Inverness is the Head Town, where the Sheriff keeps his Court; it is commodiously seated upon Longhness, which renders it convenient for Trade. The Lough is 24 Miles long; the Water thereof is almost always warm, warm, and all the Year long is never so cold as to freeze; nay, in the sharpest Winter, if Cakes of Ice are thrown into it, they will be quickly thaw'd by the Warmth of its Waters. Badenoch, which is Part of this Shire, abounds with Deer, and many other Conveniencies; and Loquhaber is a very pleasant Country, and for Multitude of Fish, both salt and fresh, scarce any Country in Scotland can compare with it.

Badenoch, Loquhaber, and Marre, take up all the Breadth of Scotland between the Deucalidonian Sea and the German Ocean. The Sheriffship is at the King's Disposal.

Seats of Invernesshire.] Ruthven, Duke of Gordon's; Castle of Inverness, the King's; and the Duke of Gordon Heritable Keeper; Lovat, Bewlie, and Castle-Dounie, Lord Lovar's; Citadel of Inverness, Duff's of Drummure; Castle-Stuart, Earl of Murray's; Slate, Sir Donald Macdonald's, Bart.

18. Shire of Kincardin,

So called from the ancient Town of Kincardin, includes the Mernes, a little Province, bounded by the German Ocean on the East; on the South by the River North-Eske; on the West by the Grainsbaine-Hills; and on the North with the River De. It's about 26 Miles in Length, and about 20 Miles broad. The Soil rich, and generally level. The most memorable Place in it is Dunotre, a Castle situated upon an high and inaccessible Rock, fortified with strong Walls and Towers at certain Distances, an ancient Seat of the Noble Family of the Keith's, who in Recompence of their Valour, have been long Hereditary Earl-Marshals of Scotland, now attainted. Upon the Sea-Coasts are several convenient Creeks, and some good Harbours, whereof Stone-bive is one of the best; and for its greater Safety, the Earl-Marshal, who has Salmon-Fishing on the North-side of the Harbour, has raised a Peer of Stone. Where the Water of Cow falls into the Sea, stands Cow. Beneath the Town are the Ruins of a Castle, built, as 'tis said, by Malcolm Kenmore, who made the Town a Free Burgh. On the Lands of Arbuthie and Redeloak are some Trenches to be seen, cast up by the Danes at one of their Invasions made upon those Parts; and round the Hill of Urie is a deep Ditch, where the Scots encamp'd. Dunotre Castle stands upon a Rock, wash'd by the Sea on three Sides, and joined to the Land only by a narrow Neck.

Seats in Kincardinshire.] Castle of Dunotre and Feteresso, late Earl of Marshall's; Arbuthnot, Viscount of Arbuthnot's; Halkertoun, Lord Halkertoun's; Balmain and Fasque, Sir David Ramsay's of Salmain, Bart. Doors, Sir Peter Frazer's, Bart. Elfick, Sir Alexander Sannerman's, Bart. Muthals, Sir Thomas Burnet's, Bart. Glenfarquhar, Sir Alexander Falconer's, Bart. Pittarrow, Sir John Carnegie's, Bart. Barras, Sir David Ogilvie's, Bart. Knox, Colonel Keith's; Balbegno, Middletoun's, Esq; Comistown, Colonel Scot's; Inchmarlack, Dowglass's, Esq;

19. Shire of Kinross,

Is a little Tract of Ground, so called from a Town seated in the Middle of the Shire, not far from a Lough, about four Miles in Length, and as many in Breadth, which abounds with Pikes, Trouts, &c. with all Sorts of Water-Fowl. It has one Island, upon which the Castle stands, and another wherein are to be seen the Ruins of the Priory of Port-Mollock, which belong'd to the Augustinian Monks: 'Tis called St. Serf's Inch, and is said to have anciently been the Residence of some of the Kuldees. Here Mary Queen of Scots was Prisoner. Out of this Lough flows the Water of Lovin. Between the Town of Kinross and the Lough is a pleasant Plain, where Sir William Bruce the Proprietor has built a stately House, which for the Goodness of the Stone, the curious Architecture, the Gardens and Inclosures, together with the pleasant Prospect of the Lough and the Castle, yields to few Seats in Britain. This little Shire was enlarged by Act of Parliament in King *Charles II*d's Time. Sir William Bruce of Kinross, Bart. is Heritable Sheriff of it.

Seats in Kinross Shire.] Kinross, Arnot, and Beneath hill, Sir John Bruce's of Kinross, Bart. and Heritable Sheriff; Burleigh, late Lord Burleigh's; Cleish, Lord Colvil's; Kirknejs, Sir Robert Douglas's; Aldie, Sir Lawrence Mercer's of Aldie.

20. Shire of Lanerk,

So called from the Town of Lanerk, where the Sheriff keeps his Court, contains Clidisdale, bounded on the South with the Stuartry of Annandale; on the West, with the Sherifsdome of Dumfries, properly so called; on the North, with the Shire of Dumbarton; and on the East, with the Shire of Linlithgow. 'Tis in Length about 40 Miles; in Breadth, where broadest, about 24; and where narrowest, 16 Miles. The County abounds with Coals, Peat, and Lime-stone; but what turns to the greatest Profit, are the Lead-Mines belonging to the Earl of Hopton; not far from which (after Rains) the Country People find Pieces of Gold, some of which are of a considerable bigness: This seems to be what Camden calls Crawford-Moor, where they daily dig up Lapis Lazuli, with little or no Trouble. Clydesdale is divided into two Parts; Outward, in which is the Burgh of Lanerick, on the Banks of the Clyde; and Netherward, where, upon the aforesaid River, stands the Palace and Town of Hamilton, a Regality. The latter of these is hilly, and full of Heaths, and fit for Feeding; the former level and fit for Grain. It is water'd with the pleasant River of Clyde, which gives Name to the Dale. It rises on Erick-Hill, and running through the whole Country, glides by many Seats of the Nobility and Gentry, and several considerable Towns, 'till it falls into its own Frith at Dumbarton. The greatest Ornament of these Parts is the Palace of Hamilton, the Court whereof is adorned on all Sides with very noble Buildings, Buildings. It has a magnificent Entrance, a Frontispiece to the East, of excellent Workmanship, and fair large Gardens, well furnish'd with Fruit-Trees and Flowers. The Park, famous for all its tall Oaks, is six or seven Miles in Compass, and has the Brook Aven running through it. Near the Palace is the Church, the Vault whereof is the Burial-place of the Dukes of Hamilton. Upon the North-west Bank of Clyde stands Glasgow; which in respect of Largeness, Building, Trade and Wealth, is the chief City in the Kingdom next to Edinburgh. The Clyde carries small Vessels up the very Town; but New Glasgow, which stands at the Mouth of the River, is a Haven for Vessels of the largest Size. The greatest Part of the City stands on a Plain, and is almost four-square. The Tolbooth stands in the very Middle of it, and is a stately Piece of Building, all of hewn Stone; four principal Streets crossing one another, divide the City, as it were, into four equal Parts. In the upper Part stands the Cathedral Church, commonly called St. Mungo's, consisting indeed of two Churches, one over the other. The Architecture of the Pillars and Towers is said to be very exact and curious. Near the Church stood that which was the Archbishop's Castle, enclosed with a noble Stone-Wall: Nor does this Tract want some Remains of Roman Antiquity; for from Errick-Stone in the one End, to Maul's Mitre in the other, where it borders upon the Shire of Renfrew, there are evident Foot-steps of a Roman Causeway, or Military Way: This in some Parts is visible for several Miles together; and the People have a Tradition, that another Roman Street went from Lanerk to the Roman Camp near Falkirk. In this Country there is also another little Water running through a Dale, called Douglas-Dale, not far from the Town of Lanerick; where there is an ancient Castle, the Seat of the Earls of Douglafs and Angus; the Heir of whom is since Marquiss and Duke of Douglafs. The Duke of Hamilton is Sheriff.

Seas in Lanerkshire.] The Palace of Hamilton, Duke of Hamilton's; Castle of Douglafs, Duke of Dowglafs's; Castle of Crawford, Earl of Selkirk's; Boghall, Earl of Wigtoun's; Castle of Bothwell, Earl of Forfar's; Carmichael and Wester-Hall, Earl of Hyndford's; Bonington, Sir James Carmichael's, Bart. Rose-Hall, Sir James Hamilton's, Bart. Blackwood, Sir George Wier, Bart. Torrence and Glasford, Stewart's of Torrence; Ferm, Sir Archibald Fleming's, Bart. Blantyre, Lord Blantyre's; Carnwath and Conventoun, late Lockhart's of Carnwath, Esq; Lockhart's-Hall, Sir William Lockhart's of Carstairs, Bart. Milntroun and Haicraig, Sir William Gordon's of Dalpholly; Wasthiel, Sir Robert Denholm's; Culterallers, Alexander Menzie's, Esq; Wiston and Cleghorn, Lockhart's, Esq; Culter and Gladstones, Sir William Menzie's of Gladstones; Calderwood, Sir William Maxwell's, Bart. Castletoun and Patrick, Patrick, Sir William Stuart's of Castle-Milk; Coltness, Sir James Stuart's, Bart. Wishaw, William Hamilton's, Esq; Gaven, Hamilton's of Stevenson, Younger; Dalziel, Hamilton's, Esq; Dalserf and Garrin, Archibald Hamilton's, Esq; Orbisoun, Hamilton's, Esq; Jerviswood, George Baillie's, Esq; Blantferm, Hamilton's; Schawfield, Daniel Cambell's, Esq; Woodside, Cambell's, Esq;.

21. Shire of Linlithgow, or Westlothian,

Takes its Name from Linlithgow, the Head Burgh, and has on the North the Forth; is divided from Midlothian towards the South and East by the Rivers Almond and Breichwater: Towards the North-West it meets with Part of Sterlingshire; and to the West with Part of Clydesdale. It is in Length 14 Miles, and in Breadth about Nine. It affords great Plenty of Coal, Lime-stone, and white Salt; and in the Reign of King James VI. a Silver Mine was found there, out of which a great Quantity of Silver was extracted. The Town of Linlithgow is a Royal Burgh well built, and accommodated with Fountains that supply the Inhabitants with Water, and with a stately Town-House for the Meeting of the Gentry and Citizens: But its greatest Ornament is the King's House, which stands upon a rising Ground, that runs almost into the Middle of the Lough, and looks like an Amphitheatre, with something like Terrace Walks, and a Descent from them; but upon the Top, where the Castle stands, it is a Plain. The Court has Apartments like Towers upon the four Corners, and in the midst of it is a stately Fountain, adorned with several curious Statues, the Water whereof rises to a good Height. The Levisstones, Earls of this Place, are Hereditary Keepers of the Castle, Hereditary Bailiffs of the King's Bailiffry, and Hereditary Constables of the King's Castle of Blackness. Near the Palace, upon a Level with it, stands the Church, a curious Building of fine Stone. Torphichen, which lies South of Linlithgow, was once the Residence of the Knights of Malta, but now gives the Title of Lord to the Chief of the Name of Sandilands. Near the Kipps, South from Linlithgow, there is an ancient Altar of great unpolished Stones (commonly called Arthur's Oven, and thought by the Learned to be the Temple of Terminus, built by the Romans) leaning on one another in such a Manner, that they mutually support, and are supported by each other. Near this Altar are several great Stones, set in a Circle; and upon two adjacent Hills are Remains of old Camps, with great Heaps of Stones and ancient Graves. Hereabouts is also Levingston, the ancient Seat of the Lord Levingston, and now of Sir James Cunningham, Bart. Some Miles also to the West of Queen's-Ferry, on the Sea-Coast, is Abercorn-Castle, near which Place, as Bede tells us, the Roman Wall began: One may trace it along toward Cariden, where where a figured Stone is to be seen, and some ancient Medals were found. About a Mile South of Caridden, there is a Village which still keeps the Remains of the Old Wall, and is called from it Wall-Town. From the Name of the artificial Mount cast up there, one would believe it to be the very Place which Bede calls Penwall-Town. The Track of the Wall appears in several Places between this and Kenneil, and from thence to Falkirk; but of this Wall more hereafter. Charles Hope, Earl of Hoptoun, is Hereditary Sheriff of this Shire; which Right he enjoys, as Proprietor of the Barony of Abercorn.

Seats in Linlithgowshire.] Blackness-Castle, the King's; the Earl of Buchan present Governor; Palace of Linlithgow, the King's, and the late Earl of Linlithgow Heritable Keeper; Kinniel, Duke of Hamilton's; Abercorn, now Hoptoun-House, Meidhope, and Nidary, Earl of Hoptoun's; Craigihall, Marquiss of Annandale's; Caridden, Earl of Dalhousie's; Castle of Bridgehouse, Earl of Linlithgow's; Kirkhill, Earl of Buchan's; Newlistown, Earl of Stairs's; Dundass, Dundass's of that Ilk; Binns, Sir Thomas Dalziel's, Bart. Livingston, Sir James Cunningham's, Bart. Dalmeny and Barnbogle, Earl of Roseberry's.

22. Shire of Nairn,

So called from Nairn, a Royal Burgh, situate upon the Coast of Murray Frith, where the Water of Nairn runneth into the Sea. It comprehends the West Part of Murray, where the Air is very wholesome, and the Winter mild. The lower Part of the Country bears much Corn, which is soon ripe, but the high Country is fitter for Pasture. There are many great Woods of Fir, and other Trees in this Country. Sir Hugh Campbel of Caddel is Hereditary Sheriff.

Seats in Nairnshire.] Kirravock and Geddes, Ross's, Esq; Calder, Artherfeer, and Moyness, Sir Hugh Campbel's of Calder, Clava, Ross's, Esq; Penick, or Greenhall, Brodie of that Ilk; Beth, Dumbar's, Esq; Lockloy, Hay's, Esq; Kinstaire, Sutherland's, Esq; Budzet, Mr. William Dallas, Writer to the Signet.

23. Shire of Peebles, or Tweeddale.

To which the Royal Burgh Peebles gives the Name. It is seated in a pleasant Plain on the Side of the Tweed, over which is built a stately Bridge of 5 Arches, and has a fine Church. This Shire is otherwise called Tweeddale, from the River Tweede, which rising at a Place called Tweed's-Cross, runs East the whole Length of the Shire, and for the most Part with a rapid Stream. It is bounded on the East with Etrick Forest, on the South with Part of the Forest of St. Mary Lough and Annandale, on the West with the Overward of Clydesdale, and on the North with Part of Caldermoor, the Head of North-Esk and Mid-Lothian. In Length it is 26 Miles, and where it's broadest does not exceed 16; in which Compass are 17 Parishes that make up a Presbytery, called the Presbytery of Peebles. The Country is generally swelled with Hills, many of which are green and grassy, with pleasant and fertile Valleys between, well water'd and adorned with Gentlemens Houses. Their Grain is generally Oats and Barley; and as for Planting, they make but little Use of it, except about the Houses of the Gentry. There are in it some Remains of Antiquity; the Place call'd Randall's Trenches, seems to have been a Roman Camp; and a Causeway leads from it half a Mile together, to the Town of Lyme. The Earl of March, Brother to the late Duke of Queensbury, is Hereditary Sheriff.

Seats in Peeblesshire.] Nidpath, Earl of March's; Traquair, Earl of Traquair's; Dawick, Cardon, and Paffo, Sir James Nassim's of Dawick, Bart. Blackbarony, now Darnhall, Sir Alexander Murray's, Bart. Burghtoun-House, Sir David Murray's, Bar.

24. Shire of Perth,

So called from Perth (otherwise call'd St. Johnstown) a Royal Burgh, and Head Town of the County, has Badenoch on the North, on the West, Argyleshire, on the South, Clackmannanshire, and to the East, Angus. The Length from East to West is above 52 Miles, and the Breadth about 48. The high Grounds are good Pasture, and the low very fruitful in Corn. This Sherifdom comprehends Athol, Gowry, Menteith, Strathern and Braid-Albin. Athol is fruitful enough; the Places therein are of little Account, but the Earls, to whom it has given a Title, have been very memorable. Strathern, i. e. the Vale along the Erne, seems to have been the Ferne of the Romans (to which they gave the Epithet of Glacialis) for in it are many Roman Camps; one particularly at Ardoch, the Figure and Description whereof may be seen in the Account of the Thule of the Ancients, written by Sir Robert Sibald; besides which there is a Via Militaris, or Roman High-way, towards Perth. Several Roman Medals have also been found there, and of late two Fabula curiously enamelled with a Sepulchral Stone, the Inscriptions whereof is given us in the aforesaid Account of Thule. The Ochil Hills, which run along the South Parts of this Shire, abound with Metals and Minerals; particularly they find good Copper and Lapis Calaminaris, and at Glen-Lion they meet with Lead. Here is great Want of Coal, but their excellent Peat, and the Abundance of Wood, supply that Defect. Cutrofs is seated on a Descent, and its greatest Ornament is the stately House of the Earl of Kilcardin, with the Gardens and Terrace-Walks about it, which has a pleasant Prospect to the very Mouth of the Firth. They have several Seats of the Nobility and Gentry: Drummond-Castle, formerly the Chief Residence of the Earls of Perth, Hereditary Stewards of Strathern, Kilcardin, the Duke of Montrofs's; Dunkeld, a very noble Seat, the Duke of Athol's. This Territory, as also Menteith adjoining, is under the Government of the Barons

Drummond,

Drummond, Hereditary Stuarts of it: Menteith, as they say, has its Name from the River Teith; at Kil-bridge, the Earls of Menteith have their principal Seat; the ancient Earls of of Menteith were of that Ilk, and sometimes of the Family of Cumin, but came into the Family of the Stuarts, in the Person of Robert Earl of Fife and Menteith, first Duke of Albany, after which it fell into the Crown by Forfeiture, and was given to Malisius Grahme, in Exchange for the Earldom of Strathern. Goury is celebrated for its Corn-Fields, and Excellency of its Soil. It lies along the other Side of the Tay, being a more level Country. Braid-Albin is the highest Part of Scotland, and is inhabited by the Successors of the true ancient Scots; they speak Irish, and call themselves Albanach: They are a People of firm and compact Bodies, of great Strength, and swift of Foot; of great Spirits, impatient of Servitude, born as it were for War, not willing to pass by Injuries without receiving Satisfaction. They wear, after the Manner of the Irish, striped Mantles of diverse Colours, called Plaids, with their Hair thick and long; living by Hunting, Fishing, and Fowling. In War their Armour is an Iron Head-piece, and a Coat of Mail; their Arms, a Bow, Barbed Arrows, and a broad Back-Sword: They are divided into Families, which they call Clans; these Clans formerly harassed one another almost perpetually with Civil Wars within themselves; to prevent which, a Law was made in 1581, enacting, That if one of any Clan committed Robbery, or Murder, whoever of that Clan should chance to be apprehended, should repair the Damage, or suffer Death. The Duke of Athol is Sheriff of Perthshire.

Seats in Perthshire.] Castle of Blair in Athol, Dunkeld and Huntingtoun, Duke of Athol's; Arrol, Earl of Northesk's; Castle Lion, Earl of Strathmore's; Drummie, Lord Kinnard's; Enlariog and Taymouth, Earl of Brodalbin's; Castle Drummond and Stob-Hall, Earl of Perth's; Diplin Keiller, and Coupma-lindie, Earl of Kinnoul's; Cardross, Earl of Buchan's; Ballenton, Lord Napier's; Innerpavry, Viscount of Strathallen's; Scoon, Viscount of Stormont's; Nairn and Strathurd, late Lord Nairn's; Duncrub, Lord Rollo's; Alberuchil and Kilbride, Sir James Campbell's of Aberuchil, Bart. Balmanno, Sir John Hepburn's, alias Murray's, Bart. Aridoch, Sir Harry Stirling's, Bart. Ecclesmagirdle and Pottie, Carmichael's of Balmedy; Moncrief, Sir Thomas Moncrief, of that Ilk, Bart. Elquho, Earl of Weem's; Mecklebourne, Sir Laurence Mercer of Aldie; Etlick, Sir Alexander Lindsay's, Bart. Monibaird and Oughtertyre, Sir Patrick Murray's, Bart. Weem, Sir Alexander Menzies of that Ilk; Valleyfield, Sir George Prestun's, Bart. Bamsf, Sir James Ramsey's, Bart. Blair-Hall, Sir Dougal Stuart's.

25. Shire of Renfrew.

Is separated from Dunbartonshire on the West by the River Clyde, which carries up Ships of great Burden ten Miles within the Country: On the East it is joined by Lanerkshire, and on the West and South by the Sheriffdom of Aire. It is in Length 20 Miles, and in Breadth, where broadest, 13; in most Places about 8. That Part which is near the Clyde, is pleasant and fertile, without Mountains, only has some small Risings; but that to the South and South-West, is more hilly, barren and moorish. This Country is full of Nobility and Gentry, who, by frequent Intermarriages, are most of them related to one another. The Conveniency of the Frith and Clyde, the Coast whereof is all along very safe for Ships to ride in, has caused great Improvements in these Parts. At the West End of a fair Bay stands Gswrook Town and Castle, belonging to Sir William Stuart, Bar. where there is a good Road and a Harbour lately fitted up. More inward stands Greenock, a well built Town and a good Harbour in Hewn-Stone, belonging to Sir John Shaw, Bart. one of the most considerable upon all that Coast; the chief Seat is the Herring-Fishing of the West Seas, where the Royal Company of Fishermen have built a House for the Conveniency of Trade. Near this Place is Crawford-Dyke, where good Houses are lately built; and a little more to the South, Newwork, where the Town of Glasgow have built a new Port, and named it Port-Glasgow, with a large Publick-House. Here is the Custom-House for all this Coast, and the Town of Glasgow has obliged the Merchants to load and unload here. Ten Miles up the River from Port-Glasgow, stands Pasley, two Miles from Clyde, formerly a very noble Monastery; the Abby and Church, with fair Gardens and Orchards, and a little Park for Fallow-Deer, are all enclosed with a Stone-Wall about a Mile in Circuit. At this Town there is a large Roman Camp, with a Pratorium at the West-End, on a rising Ground, upon the Descent whereof the Town of Pasley stands. The Pratorium is not large, but has been well fortified with three Fosses and Dykes of Earth, of which so much is still remaining, that a Man on Horseback cannot see over them. It seems to have included all that Ground which the Town stands upon, and may have been a Mile in compass. When one treads upon the Ground of the Pratorium, it gives a Sound as if it were hollow, occasioned probably by some Vaults underneath, such as are at Camelon and Aridoch, two others of their Camps. At Langside also there is an Appearance of an old Camp on the Top of the Hills. Here the Battle was fought between Queen Mary and the Earl of Murray, call'd the Lang-side Fields. In the Lands of New-yards, near Pasley, there is a remarkable Spring which ebbs and flows with the Tide, though it be on a far higher Ground than any Place where the Tide comes. The Water of the River Whitecart, upon which Pasley stands, is commended for for its Largeness, and the Fineness of the Pearls that are frequently found thereabouts, and 3 Miles above. They commonly fish for them in Summer-time, and meet with them in the Bottom of the Water in a Shell-Fish, which is much larger than the ordinary Muscle. Alexander Montgomery, Earl of Eglintown, is Hereditary Sheriff.

Seats in Kentfrewshire.] Castle-Semple, Lord Semple's; Pasley, Cochran and Calwall, Earl of Dundonald's; Hawkhead and Stonly, Lord Ross's; Areskin, the ancient Seat of the Lord Areskin's, now Lord Blantyre's; Finlathoun, Earl of Clencairn's; Blackhall, Ardagowan, and Castle-Mernis, Sir Archibald Stuart's of Blackhall, Bart. Greenock, Sir John Schaw's, Bart. Castle-Croixtown and Inchannon the Duke of Montrose's; Bishoptoun, Wakingshaw of that Ilk; Houstoun, Sir John Houstoun's of that Ilk, Bart. Southbar belongs to George Maxwell, an immediate Cadet of the Family of Niddisdale; Catchcart, Sir William Semple's, Bart. Overpollock, Sir Robert Pollock's of that Ilk; Neiberpollock, Sir John Maxwell's, Bart. Kelley, Sir John Maxwell's of Pollock.

26. Shire of Ross.

Is the only County in Scotland, which preserving its Name, reaches from Sea to Sea; where it bears upon the Western Ocean. Tis woody, mountainous, and abounding with Deer of all Sorts, and Wild-Fowl: On the other Side it's adorned with Corn-Fields and Pastures, and the People are much more civil. Fortrose, Tayn, from which the Shire has sometimes been denominated, and Dungwall, are in this Shire. Tayn stands upon a Frith of the same Name, near 20 Miles long, and is convenient for Shipping. This Country has not been long erected into a Sheriffdom, and the Sheriffs are nominated by his Majesty.

Seats in Ross-shire.] Brahan, Daunting-Island, and Chaney of Ross, Earl of Seaforth's; Coul, Kinelland and Inverlaol, Sir John Mackenzie's, Bart. Findron and Pittinauablie, Sir Kennet Mackenzie's of Scatwel, Bart. Rosekeen and Inverbroke, Sir William Gordon's of Dalsfoly, Bart. Foulis, Sir Robert Monro's, Bart. Tulloch and Dalnie, Sir Donald Bain's; Kinkel and Garlock, Sir Kenneth Mackenzie's, Bart. Dachmaluak, Mackenzie's, Esq.

27. Shire of Roxburgh.

Roxburgh, sometimes call'd Marchidon, or Marchemont, which also gives the Title to the Marchemont Herald, from its being seated in the Marches, was anciently a Royal Burgh, containing several Parishes and Schools, as appears from the Cartuary of Kelsae; but by reason of the Wars between the two Nations, the Castle was razed, the Town ruin'd, and its Royalty transmitted to Jedburgh, the chief Royal Burgh of the Shire. The adjacent Territory is the Sheriffdom of the Family of the Douglasses. The Shire contains Triviotdale, Liddisdale, Eskdale, and Eusdale, and is in Length from Ridding- burn on the East, to Ananandale on the West, about 30 Miles; and in Breadth, from the Border to the Blue-Cairn in Lauder-moor, about 14 or 15. Its Soil is good, proper either for Grass or Corn, and water'd with several Rivulets that run into Tiviot and Tweed. The Lower Grounds abound with Corn, especially Oats, little inferior to any Shire in Scotland for the Goodness of the Grain; great Quantities whereof are carried into England. The High Grounds are furnished with excellent Grass, produce great Store of Cattle of all Kinds, and of the best Breed in Scotland, both for Largeness and Goodness. Here are great Remains of Roman Antiquities, such as Footsteps of their Encampments; and a Military Way runs from Hounam to Tweed, call'd The Roman Causey; and by the Vulgar, The rugged Causey. The most eminent Mountains in it are Cockeraw, from which runs a Tract of Hills Westward, dividing Scotland from England, which are only passable in some Places. Roxburghshire contains the Regalities of Jedburgh-Forest, belonging to the Duke of Douglafs; of Haw-wick, belonging to the Duke of Buccleugh; and Melross, once a very famous Monastery belonging to the Earl of Haddington. Several ancient Families of Gentlemen, and of considerable Estates, inhabit this Country. The Sheriffdom is in the Family of the Douglasses, Archibald Douglass, Esq; of Cavers, who is usually called Sheriff of Tiviotdale, is Hereditary Sheriff. In this Shire are three Presbyteries, Jedburgh, Kelso, and Melross. After Tiviotdale follows Liddisdale, where is a high Prospect of an ancient Hermitage, now a very strong Castle belonging to the Hepburns. Esksdale and Eusdale, which are also reckoned Part of Roxburghshire, have little in them worthy of Observation.

Seats in Roxburghshire.] The Floras and Friers and Holy-dane, the Duke of Roxburgh's; Branxolin, Duke of Buccleugh's; Craling, Lord Cranston's; Fernherst, Lord Jedburgh's; Lintumlie, Duke of Douglafs's; Cavers, Douglafs's, Esq; who is Heritable Sheriff of the Shire. Stitchel, Sir John Pringle, Bart. Marlesfield, Sir William Bennet's of Grubbet, Bart. Kiadel, Sir Walter Ruddel's of that Ilk, Bart. Ancram, Sir John Scot's, Bart. Stob, Sir Gilbert Eliot's of Stobs, Bart. Minto, Sir Gilbert Eliot's, Bart. a Lord of the Sessions; Newton, Sir James Don's, Bart. Long-Newton, Sir Patrick Scot's, Bart. Ruthersford, Sir Alexander Don's, Bart. Gala, Sir James Scot's, Bart.

18. Shire of Selkirk,

Is otherwise call'd the Sheriffdom of the Forest of Futrick, because it was formerly almost wholly covered with Woods, which were once well stocked with Red and Fallow Deer, but now are in a great measure destroyed. It is properly Part of Teviotdale; on the North it is partly bounded by Tweeddale, and partly by the Regality of Stow in Midlothian; on the East and South by the rest of the Teviotdale, and partly by Annandale.
Thg

The Figure of this Shire is very near a Square, whose Side is about 16 Miles long. The Inhabitants have generally strong Bodies, are sober, frugal in their Diet, and maintain themselves by raising and feeding of Cattle, in which they have a good Trade with England for their Wool, Sheep and Cows: Murray of Philiphaugh, Esq; is Hereditary Sheriff.

Seats in Seikerkshire.] Hangingshaw, Murray's of Philiphaugh, Esq; Headshaw, Sir Gilbert Elliot's of Minto, a Lord of the Sessions; Newark, the Duke of Buccleugh's.

29. Shire of Stirling, or Stribeling.

Otherwise called Stirlingshire, is encompass'd to the West with Dumbartonshire, to the East with Linlithgowshire, to the South with Clidisdale, and the North with the Forth, and the River of Forth: Where it is longest, it is about 20 Miles, and where broadest, 12 Miles over. The South Part is high, hilly, somewhat moorish, and fit for Pasture; but that Part which lies upon the Forth is very fertile, and abounds with Coal. Sterling is a Royal Burgh, where the Courts are kept. At the Head of the Town stands a well fortified Castle belonging to the Crown, of which the late Earl of Marre was Heritable Governor. Not far from the Church are the Houses of the Duke of Argyle, and the late Earl of Marre, which are large and noble Buildings. Kilfyth is a Burgh of Barony. Falkirk, famous for a Battle between the English and Scots in the Year 1298, is another Burgh of Barony, well built, upon a rising Ground, much beautified with Buildings by the first Earl of Calender, Brother to the Earl of Linlithgow, whose Name is Levingstone. Elphinstone, anciently called Earthberg; but since Elphinston and East-Lothian passed from this Family, it has been called by the Name of Elphinstone, and been the Residence of the Lord of that Name, adorned with a large Wood of Firs, &c. with several other Seats. Near Sterling stands the Abby of Cambuskenneth, which belonged formerly to the Augustine Monks, and was founded by King David I. Emanuel was a Nunnery of the Cistercian Order, founded by Malcolm IV. and stands upon Evan Water. The Heir of Levingstone, now Earl of Linlithgow and Calender, is Hereditary Sheriff of this Shire.

Other Seats in Stirlingshire.] Stirling-Castle, the King's, whereof John Earl of Roths is Governor; Calender, late Earl of Linlithgow's; Elphinstoun, Lord Elphinstoun's; Mugdock and Buchannen, Duke of Montrose's; Gurgennock, Sir James Campbell's of Arkinlask, Bart. Glero, Sir Mungo Sterling's, Bart. Bannockburn, Sir Hugh Paterson's, Bart. Karse, Sir Alexander Hope's, Bart. Stennis, Sir William Bruce's, Bart. Torwoodhead and Lethem, Lord Forrester's; Abbacy of Cambuskenneth, Sir John Aresken of Alba; Woodside, Sir Harry Rollo's; Colliam and Kilfyth, the late Viscount of Kilfyth's.

30. The Shire of Sutherland, which takes in Strathnabern also,

Is one of the most Northerly Shires of Scotland, much fitter for Pasture than Corn: It abounds with Hills of White Marble, but it is of little Use to the Inhabitants, and less to others, for want of Convenience of Exportation. The Gordons, Earls of Sutherland, got this Country erected into a Sheriffdom in 1633, to be Heritable to their own Family, who have likewise Justiciary and Admiralty Jurisdiction. Most of the Heritors of this Shire hold of the Earls. The Earls, for some Time past, have re-assum'd their ancient Name of Sutherland. This Shire is 55 Miles long from East to West, and 22 Miles broad from North to South. Dunrobin is the chief Seat of the Earl of Sutherland, and Dornock in this Country is a Royal Burgh, sometime the See of the Bishop of Cairness.

Seats in Sutherlandshire.] Castle of Dunrobin and Hermisdale, Earl of Sutherland's; Uppart, Sir William Gordon's of Dalsfolly, Bart. Clyne, Sutherland's, Esq; Skelbo, the late Lord Duffus's; Skibo, Gray's, Esq; Pulcroffie, Murray's, Esq; Embo, Sir John Gordon's of Embo, Bart. Evillock, Sutherland's, Esq; Durness and Toungal, the Lord Rae's.

31. Shire of Wigtoun.

So called from Wigtoun, the chief Burgh in the Country, where the Courts for the Administration of Justice are held, and which gives Title to the Flemmings, Earls of Wigtoun; comprehends the West Part of Galloway. Galloway is a hilly Country, fitter for breeding Cattle than bearing Corn. The Inhabitants follow Fishing, as well in the Sea, as in the Rivers and Loughs, that lie every where under the Hills; in which, about September, they catch an incredible Number of excellent Eels, by which they are no less Gainers than by their little Horses, which for the Compactness of their Bodies, and Hardiness in enduring Labour, are frequently bought up in England. Galloway had anciently its own Princes and Lords, but now is an Earldom in the Family of the Stuarts. Sir — Agnew, of Lochnaw, is Hereditary Sheriff of the Shire of Wigtoun.

Seats in Wigtounshire.] Castle Kennedy and Corserough, Earl of Stairs's; Martin and Monteith, Sir Alexander Maxwell's of Monteith, Bart. Glassartoun and Clay, the Earl of Galloway's; Garthland, Mac Dougal's, Esq; Mocrum, Sir James Dumbar's, Bart. Sorbie, Col. Stuart's; Park, Sir Charles Hay's, Bart.

Besides these 31 Sheriffdoms, which sent Members to Parliament under that Denomination, there are two Stuartries that differ from the Shires only by the Title of the chief Officer, who in the one is called Sheriff, in the other Stuart: These are Kircudbright and Orkney.

1. Kircudbright.

This Stuartry takes its Name from Kircudbright, a Port-Town and good Harbour in Galloway, situate upon the River Dee; a Town which lies as conveniently for Trade as any one upon that Coast. The Earls of Nithisdale are Heritable Sheriffs of this Stuartry.

Seats in Kircudbright.] Castle of Charles, Earl of Galloway's; Castle of Tarreagles, Earl of Nithisdale's; Castle of Kenmure, Viscount of Kenmure's; Orchardtoun, Sir George Maxwell's, Bart.

2. Orkney.

Contains the Isles of Orkney and Schetland. These Islands were long subject to the Kings of Norway. The last Session of the Scotish Parliament restored the present Earl of Morton to the Crown Rents, formerly enjoy'd by his Ancestors, but still redeemable by the Crown for the Sum of ; and during his Possession, he is obliged to pay yearly to his Majesty's Treasury 500 l. Sterling. The Earl of Moreton names the Stuart of Orkney and Schetland; the King has only the Bishop's Rents in those Isles.

Seats in Orkney and Schetland.] The Castle of Kirkwal, Palace of Brisay, and the Castle of Nautland, the Earl of Moreton's; Burray and Cara, Sir James Stewart's of Burray, Bart. Egleshaw, Sir Alexander Douglass's; Gairsey, Sir William Craigie's.

These Shires and Stuartries which are here ranged Alphabetically, were called over in the Rolls of Parliament before the Union, in the following Orders :

By the Articles of the Union this Number was retrench'd, and now the Shires and Stuartries return 30 Members, i.e. every Shire or Stuartry one Member a-piece, except Bute and Caithness, which return one, and Bute is to choose first; Nairn and Cromarty one, Nairn having the first Turn; Clackmannan and Kinross one, Clackmannan choosing first.

The Burghs also which send 16 Members to the British Parliament, are now divided into the following Classes: Edinburgh, one; Kirkwall, Week, Dornock, Dingwall and Tayne, one; Fortrose, Inverness, Nairn and Forreſs, one; Elgin, Cullen, Bamſſ, Inverury, and Kintore, one; Aberdeen, Inverberry, Montroſe, Aberbrothick, and Breichen, one; Forſar, Perth, Dundee, Coupar, and St. Andrew's, one; Crail, Kelrenny, Anſruther Eaſter, Anſruther Weſter, and Pittenweem, one; Dyſert, Kirkaldy, Kinghorn, and Burnt-Iſland, one; Innervething, Dumferling, Queensferry, Culroſs, and Sterling, one; Glaſgow, Renfrew, Rutherglen, and Dumbarton, one; Haddington, Dunbarr, North Berwick, Lauder, and Jedburgh, one; Selkirk, Peebles, Linlithgow, and Lanerk, one; Dumfriſ, Sanquhar, Annan, Lochmaban, and Kircudbright, one; Wigtoun, New Galloway, Stranrayer, and Whitehern, one; Aire, Irwin, Rothſay, Campletoun, and Inverary, one.

The Western Iſles of Scotland.

Theſe Iſlands (called by the Ancients Hebrides; or Æbuda) which are very many, and ſeveral very large and well inhabited, have been known to the World little more than by Name, 'till very lately. Mr. Martin obſerves, that before him they never had been deſcrib'd by any Man that was a Native of the Country, or had been in all of them. But his Care and Pains has remov'd that Defect, and we now by his Means know as much of them as of any other Part of his Maſteſty's Dominions. From him therefore I ſhall borrow what I have to ſay of them, and ſhall keep to his Method in the naming of them, beginning firſt with thoſe that lie moſt Notherly, and ſo coming down to the South.

I. Lewis, by the Iſlanders called The Long Iſland, is 100 Miles long from N. to S. and from 3 to 14 broad from E. to W. It belongs to the Shire of Roſs, and was once in the Dioceſe of the Iſles. It does not all go by one Name. The Northern Part, which keeps the Name of Lewis, is but 36 Miles long, and 10, in ſome Places 12, Miles broad; it reaches from the North of Bowlinghead to the South of Haſſineſs; the Soil generally ſandy, and fruitful in Barley, Oats and Rye; it bears alſo Flax and Hemp: With their Oats diſtilled the Natives make Uſquebaugh, which by frequent Diſtillations becomes exceſſively ſtrong. There are many convenient Harbours in the Iſland, which abound with Cod, Ling, Herring, and a great Variety of Oyſters, Cockles, Muſcles, Limpets, and other ſorts of Shell-Fiſh. Whales they have in great Numbers, and of ſeveral Sorts; the leſſer they eat, and find them tolerably wholeſome. They have Cows, Horſes, Sheep, Goats, and Hogs; their Beef is ſmall, but very tender. Deer are plentiful in the Chace of Oſervaul, which is 15 Miles round. The freſh-water Lakes with which the Iſland abounds, afford Trouts, Eels, and Salmons; every Lake has a River.

River of its own which runs from thence into the Sea, which in Summer-time are stored with Salmon. The Southern Part is named Harries, which for Soil and Commodities is much the same with Lewis. The Shore on the West-side of the Island is stored with great Variety of curious Shells finely streak'd with beautiful Colours. The Ground in Bernera, a small Island belonging to Harries, is so kindly, that when manured with Sea-weed, which is the great Manure of those Islands, Barley will yield 20, sometimes 30 Fold Increase. Lewis belongs to the Earl of Seaforth, and Harries to the Laird of Macleod. There are great Numbers of small Islands which depend upon Lewis and Harries, which adjoin to them severally.

II. North-Vist, about 9 Miles long from North to South, and 30 Miles in Circumference. The West-side is arable, and exceedingly fruitful, especially in Barley: It produces also Plenty of black Cattle and Sheep. It has an excellent Harbour called Lochmaddy, in which incredible Quantities of Herrings have been taken within the last 50 Years. Four hundred Sail of Ships have been loaded with Herrings in one Season. In King Charles the First's Time, a Magazine for Fishing was here begun and erected, but the Civil Wars put an End to that Design. Other Fish and Fowl are here much the same with those of the other North-Western Islands. It has several small Islands that belong to it. The Proprietor is Sir Daniel Mac Donald of Slate. The Inhabitants of Lewis, Harries, and North-Vistia are all Protestants.

III. Borera, a small Island very near North-Vista, is possess'd by Mr. John Mac Lean.

IV. Benbecula, 2 Miles South of North-Vist, is nearly round, 3 Miles in Diameter, and about 10 in Circumference. Soil and Produce the same as North-Vist. Proprietor Randal Mac Donald. Inhabitants all Papists.

V. South-Vist, 2 Miles South of Benbecula; 21 Miles long, and 3, in some Places 4, Miles broad. Soil fruitful, and produces Barley, Rye and Oats plentifully. Lakes full of Trouts and Eels. Inhabitants healthy: One Man lately lived 130 Years, and retained his Understanding. The Irish Tongue is here spoken in great Perfection. Alan Mac Donald of Moydart, descended from Mac Donald, once King of these Islands, is Proprietor. He, and most of the Inhabitants are Papists.

VI. Barry, 2 Leagues and an half South-West of South-Vist, 5 Miles long, 3 broad; in all Respects like the Islands which lie North of it. This, with several smaller Islands which lie near it, belong to Mac Neil, who pretends to be the 34th of that Name by lineal Descent. He holds his Lands in Vassalage of Sir Donald Mac Donald of Slate, to whom he pays 40 l. Scots per Annum, and a Hawk, if desired. He and his Tenants are all Papists; they pay great Reverence to St. Earr, who is, as they suppose, suppose, their Tutelar Saint. All those Islands lie in a Row Southwards one of the other, from Lewis down to Barry.

VII. Between Harries and Ross lies Sky, the second for Bigness of all the Western Islands. It is 40 Miles long, and in some Places 30, in others 20 Miles broad, and near 100 Miles in Circumference. It belongs to the Shire of Inverness, from which in the South it is not above 3 Leagues distant, and at the Ferry not a Mile broad: It is navigable by the largest Ships of War; the Current there is so violent, that no Vessel is able to sail against it, though the Wind prove never so fair, so that the Tide must always be observed. The Way of Ferrying Cows in the narrow Ferry, called the Kyle, where the said Tide is so rapid, is thus: They tie a With about the Cow's lower Jaw, and so bind 5 of them together; after which, a Man in the End of a Boat holds the With that ties the foremost, and so rows over, carrying in the Space of a few Hours, at low Water, 3 or 400 Cows. The Soil is fruitful enough in the flat Grounds, and produces those Species of Corn and Cattle plentifully, which are to be found in the other Western Islands. Herring, Cod, and Ling are common upon their Coasts, and the Herring in great Abundance; they have many and convenient Harbours for the taking of them. The Country is populous, the People handsome, and very healthy. It is divided into 3 Parts, possess'd by 3 different Proprietors. Sir Donald Mac Donald, Bart. first of his Name, either in the Isles or Continent, descended from Summersed, Thane of Argyle, whose Son Donald stiled himself King of the Isles, possesses the Southern Part, which is called Slate, with a good Part of the Northern: The Strath belongs to Mac Kinnon, Head of an ancient Tribe. The North-West is possess'd by Mac Leod, Head also of another ancient Family, who derives from Leod, the Black Prince of Man. Almost all the Inhabitants of Sky are Protestants; none of them possess any Land.

VIII. and IX. Bute and Arran both belonging to the Shire of Bute, have been mentioned already.

X. Isleay is a large Rock, S. W. of Arran 6 Leagues, belonging to the Earl of Casseles, who receives, by the Produce of Hogs, Fowl, Down and Fish, about 100 Marks Scots yearly from this small Spot of Ground.

XI. Gigay lies West of Cantire, 4 Miles long, one broad; belongs to the Shire of Argyle. Soil good for Pasture and Arrable. Mac Neils are Proprietors; Inhabitants Protestants: Near it is Caray, a little Island about a Mile round, belonging to Mac Alister of Lergy in Cantire, of the Tribe of Mac Donald.

XII. To the N. W. of Cantire lies Jura, 24 Miles long, and 6 or 7 Miles broad, belonging to the Duke of Argyle, and is Part of the Shire of Argyle. The Ground is fruitful, and lies high, especially towards the Middle, where two very high Mountains, called The Paps of Jura, are noted Sea-Marks for for a very great Way. This is esteemed the wholesomest Spot of Ground belonging to the Isle of Great-Britain. From March to September the Air is perfectly pure. No Epidemical Diseases are ever known here; Gouts, Agues, Consumptions, Palsies, Lethargies, Rickets, Coughs, are very rarely heard of; and Madness has never been observed in this Island. When Mr. Martin was there, no Woman had dy'd in Child-bed among them for 35 Years. It is no Wonder then that they live to a very great Age. Gillour Mac Crain (who died about 58 Years ago) kept 180 Christmasses in his own House: A Woman in Scorba, a small Island just by, lived 140 Years; and to live 90 or 100 Years, was not rare. The Inhabitants, who speak Irish, and wear the Plaid and Bonnet with the other Islanders, are Protestants.

XIII. About a Mile S. W. of Jura lies Isla, or Ila, now remarkable for giving the Title of Earl to Lord Archibald Campbell, Brother to the Duke of Argyle: From S. to N. it is 24 Miles long, and from E. to W. 18. In the Center of this Island is Loch Finlagan, in which lies Finlagan Island, formerly the Residence of the Mac Donalds, Kings of the Isles, the Ruins of whose Houses are still visible. This Island belongs to Gilbert Campbell of Calder, Esquire. The Country is indifferently fruitful; it lies lower than Jura, and consequently wetter and more unwholesome. The Inhabitants are Protestants.

XIV, XV. Two Leagues N. of Ila lies Oronsay, which is separated from Collonsay only by Tide of Flood. Oronsay is about 4 Miles in Circumference; Soil dry and sandy, yet fruitful in Corn and Grass. It has a Church, Chapel and Monastery; built, as it is said, by Columba. Proprietor, Mac Duff. Collonsay is from E. to W. 4 Miles long, and above a Mile over; Soil not so fruitful as Oronsay; Cattle small; Inhabitants Protestants. Proprietor, Duke of Argyle.

XVI. West of Loquhabar lies Mull, 24 Miles long from East to West, and about that Breadth from North to South. It belongs to the Shire of Argyle. The Mac Leans were formerly Proprietors of the greatest Part of the Island, and upon the Forfeiture of Sir John Mac Lean, the Duke of Argyle got it for a Debt owing him by that Family. The Soil is generally fruitful, fit for Pasture and Corn. Inhabitants Protestants.

XVII. Jona, an Isle renowned for being the Habitation of S. Columba, that great Apostle of the Northern Picts, is a small Island about 2 Miles long, and one Mile over, lying to the West of Mull. The Irish call it J. Columbin, i. e. the Island of Columba the Monk. Here is St. Mary's Church, formerly the Cathedral of the Bishop of the Isles, a very beautiful, though not a very large Building. St. Columba planted here a Monastery and a Nunnery, which continued 'till the Reformation, formation. This Island was anciently the Burying-place of the Kings of Scotland, Norway and Ireland, and of all the Heads of Tribes in the Isles and Continent.

XVIII. Eight Leagues to the West of Jona, lies Tyre-ty, an Island about 5 Miles long from S. E. to N. W. The Soil is extraordinary fruitful, but lying low, the People are not very healthy. Inhabitants Protestants; and, as Part of Mac Lean's Estate, it now belongs to the Duke of Argyle.

XIX. Coll lies half a League E. N. E. of Tyre-ty. It is 10 Miles long, and 3 broad. They have a Notion here, that Tyre-ty breeds more Women than Men, and Coll more Men than Women; that so these two Islands may people one another without the Assistance of their Neighbours. Mac Lean of Coll is Proprietor. Inhabitants Protestants.

XX. Rum lies 4 Leagues South of Sky. It is 5 Miles long from S. to N. and 3 from S. to W. Country fruitful, especially in Fish and Fowl. Mac Lean of Coll is Proprietor. Inhabitants Protestants.

XXI. South-West of Rum lies Mac, a small Island, 4 Miles about, which has nothing particular different from its Neighbours.

XXII. Half a Mile from Rum lies Canny, 2 Miles long, from South to North, and a Mile from East to West. In the North End of this Island there is a Hill that disorders the Needle to that Degree, that when Mr. Martin laid the Compass on a stony Ground near it, he found, that after the Needle had turned round swiftly several times, at last it settled due East. Alan Mac Donald is Proprietor. Inhabitants Papists

XXIII. Egg lies South of Sky 4 Leagues, 3 Miles long, $1\frac{1}{2}$ Mile broad, and about 9 Miles round. Soil indifferent good for Pasture and Tillage. Inhabitants Papists, and bigotted in their Way. Proprietors Alan Mac Donald of Moydart, and Alan Mac Donald of Moron.

XXIV. The remotest of all the N. W. Islands of Scotland is St. Kilda, or Hirt. It is faced all round with a steep Rock, except a Bay at South-East, which is not a Harbour fit for a Vessel, so that there is no landing but in a Calm, and that by climbing. The Soil is not unfruitful, especially of Barley, which is the largest in the Western Isles. There are about 27 Families in the Island, who live chiefly upon Fish and Fowl, and the Eggs of their Sea-Fowl, of which they have incredible Quantities. The Inhabitants, who are Protestants, are a very sincere kind of People, separated from the World, of which they know little, and see less; truly religious, and every Way what we may imagine the Inhabitants of the old World to have been before the Arts of Luxury got footing amongst Mankind. They pay a small Homage to the Mac Leods, a Cadet of which Family comes sometimes to receive his Tribute, which is paid in Down, Wool, Butter, Cheese, Cows, Horses, Horses, Fowl, Oil and Barley. Money they have none, nor do they know the Use of it.

The Number of the People in these Islands are computed at 48,000. The natural Ports which they abound with, and the great, and indeed the almost incredible Quantity of Herring, Cod and Ling, with which their Coast swarm, together with the Fertility of the Soil of most of them, and the Industry and natural Sagacity of the Inhabitants, are great Encouragements to set up a Fishery among them. The blessed Union which the late Queen's Reign produced, will, without doubt, be felt among those innocent and diligent People in a short Time; and since they only want to be set at work, we ought not to think so ill of the present Generation, as to imagine that they will neglect to do it. One wonderful Qualification that some of these Islanders are possess'd of, ought not to be over-looked: It is too well attested to be called in question, though if it were not so, no Man without Folly could believe it; that is, the Second Sight. It is a Faculty of seeing absent Persons and Things to come, represented to their Imaginations as if they were actually visible and present. Thus if a Man is to die, his Image shall appear in its natural and distinct Shape in a Shroud to one that perhaps never saw his Face, and some Time after the Man whose Image so appears shall die. This Quality of Second Sightedness is not Hereditary, the Person who has it cannot exert it at Pleasure, nor can he communicate it to another, but it comes of it self, and exercises it self wholly against the Will; and often, especially in young Seers, to the great Trouble and Consternation of those whom it possesses. Observation teaches you to judge of those Visions; and they are scarce ever known to fail.

The Islands of Orkney, or the Orcades.

THIS Collection of Islands in our Tongue is called the Isles of Orkney, and by the Latins, both ancient and modern, Orcades. They lie in Longitude 22d. 11m. Latitude 59d. 2m. The longest Day is 18 Hours, and some odd Minutes: The Winters, as in most small Islands, and indeed always near the Sea, are generally more subject to Rain than Snow: The Frost and Snow does not continue long, but the Wind is very boisterous; and it rains sometimes not by Drops, but by Spouts of Water, as if the whole Clouds fell at once.

[Hightland-Frith], which divides the Southermost Islands from Caithness, is in Breadth about 12 Miles. The Islands of Orkney are 26 in Number, which are inhabited; viz. South Ronaldsay, Swinna, Hoy and Waes, Burra, Lanholm, Flota, Faira, Cava, Gramsey, Pōmona, or Mainland, Coppinsey, Shapinsey,

Shapinsoye, Damsæg, Inballo-Stronsa, Papa-Stronsa, Sanda, North Ronalska, Eda Roufa, Wyre, Gairfa, Eglesha, North Faira, Westra, Papa Westra; the rest of the Islands are called Holms (Holm in the old Norwegian signifying an Island) and are only for Pasture; all of them being separated one from another by some narrow Straights. The People in these Islands are generally Civil, Sagacious, Circumspect, Piously inclined, and given to Hospitality. The Women in these Islands are very handsome, and bring forth Children at a very great Age. One Margery Bimbister, in the Parish of Evie, was, in the Year 1683, brought to Bed of a Male Child in the 63d Year of her Age. By reason of the Temperance of their Diet, and Wholsomeness of the Air, the People usually live very long. Their Diseases are the Scurvy, Agues, Consumptions, &c. All speak English after the Scots Way, with as good an Accent as any in the Kingdom; only some of the common People speak a Language among themselves, which they call Norns, i. e. Norrœna, or the Norwegian Tongue, which they learnt from their first Planters the Norwegians, who peopled these Islands about the Time that they made their other Settlements in Great-Britain and Ireland; that is, the old Danish Tongue, which is still spoken in great Perfection in Iseland, and was spoken by the Danes that invaded Britain in the 9th, 10th, and 11th Centuries. Their Corn-Land is every where enclosed, and without these Enclosures, their Sheep and Swine, and most of their Cattle go loose, without a Herdsman to keep them. The only remarkable Town in all this County is Kirkwall, a Royal Borough long possess'd by the Norwegians: It is built upon a pleasant Oyfe, or Inlet of the Sea, near the Middle of the main Land. Its Streets are narrow: It is about a Mile in Length, having a very safe Harbour and Road for Ships. Here is the Seat of Justice: The Steward, Sheriff, and Commissary, do all keep their several Courts in this Place. Here is a publick School for the teaching of Grammar, endowed with a competent Salary; and at the North-End of the Town is a Fort built by the English during Cromwell's Usurpation, ditch'd about with a Breast-work, and other Fortifications; on which they have some Cannon planted for the Defence of the Harbour. This Town had been erected into a free Borough in the Time of the Norwegians: And, Anno 1486, King James the Third gave them a Charter of Privileges, which was confirmed by King Charles the Second, Anno 1662, and by the Parliament at Edinburgh 1670. The Cathedral Church dedicated to St. Magnus, a Danish Saint, stands in Kirkwall; it was founded by Rolland, Earl of Orkney; but it has been enlarged by some of the pious Bishops of that See. It is a beautiful and stately Structure, longer than that of Giles's at Edinburgh. The Steeple is very high, and has a Set of as tunable nable Bells as any Cathedral of the Kingdom. Besides a Cathedral, there are 31 Churches more in this Country, and above 100 ancient Chapels. The Christian Faith was greatly promoted in this Country about the Beginning of the 5th Century, Eugenius II. being then King of Scotland, at which Time Palladius was sent by Pope Celestin to convert that Kingdom.

The first Planters and Possessors of this Country were the Picts, as the Generality of our Historians affirm, who call Orkney, Antiquum Pictorum Regnum: And these Verses of the Poet Claudian,

*Maduerunt Saxone Fuso
Orcades; incaluit Pictorum Sanguine Thule;*

do evidently shew, that the Picts at that Time were the Possessors and Inhabitants of these Northern Islands.

This Country was anciently govern'd by Kings, after the Manner of the Picts, and other Nations; but by the Injury of Time, and Carelessness of Writers, only two of them are mention'd: One was Belus King of Orkney, whom Holinghead calls Bladus, and Boethius, Balus. The other King of Orkney was called Ganus; he reigned in the Time of Caractacus, King of the Britons. These Islands continued, in all probability, under the Government of their own Princes 'till the utter Subversion of that Kingdom, A. D. 839, when Kenneth II. that Martial King of Scots, subdued these Isles, and added them to his other Dominions. But in the Year 1099, the Norwegians possessed themselves of this Country, and held it 164 Years; and then King Magnus of Norway sold it all again to King Alexander of Scotland, for 4000 Marks Sterling, and 100 Marks a Year. Orkney being thus recover'd from the Danes and Norwegians, it continued ever after annexed to the Crown of Scotland, King Alexander giving the Property of it to a Nobleman, surnamed Speir, Earl of Caithness, whose Son, Magnus Speir, Earl of Caithness, Orkney and Scherland, was in great Repute in the Days of King Robert Bruce: but he dying without Heirs Male, his Daughter Elizabeth Speir succeeding him in the Estate, was marry'd to Sir William Sinclair, who was succeeded by his Son Robert Sinclair, who being forefaulted for Non-compearance to the Parliament, the Earldom of Orkney and Lordship of Scherland was again annexed to the Crown, and so continued 'till the Reign of Queen Mary, who conferred it upon James Hepburne, Earl of Bothwell; and in order to make him her Husband, created him Duke of Orkney; but he dying as basely as he lived, after ten Years Imprisonment in Denmark, the Lord Robert Stuart, Natural Son of King James V. was made Earl of Orkney, in August 1581; and he being beheaded, and his Son hanged,

hanged, Orkney had several Governors 'till the Year 1647, at which Time William Douglas, Earl of Moreton, procured a Wadset, or Mortgage of this Country from King Charles I. To him succeeded his Son Robert Douglas, Earl of Moreton, Anno 1649, who was succeeded by his Son Robert, from whom Orkney and Schetland being redeemed, 1669, were all re-annexed to the Crown, except the Bishop's Interest. But the said Country, by the Union-Parliament, was dissolved from the Crown, and her late Majesty thereupon granted the same to the then Earl of Moreton, for Payment of the yearly Sum of 500*l.* and appointed him Stewart and Justicier within the Bounds thereof. Under the Stewarts are some Judges of his Creation and Appointment, called Bailiffs: In every Parish and Isle there is one. Their Office is to oversee the Manners of the Inhabitants; to hold Courts, and to determine in Civil Matters, to the Value of 10*l.* Scots (16*s.* 8*d.* English); but if the Matter be above, it is referred to the Stewart, or his Deputy. Under and subservient to those Bailiffs, are six or seven of the most honest and intelligent Persons within the Parish, call'd Lawrightmen. These, in their respective Bounds, have the Oversight of the People, in manner of Constables, and they inform the Bailiffs of such Enormities as occasionally happen, which the Bailiffs punish according to the Importance and Circumstances of the Fault; and if it be above his Limits, or the Extent of his Power, he sends the Delinquent to the Seat of Justice, which is held by the Stewart, or his Deputy. These Lawrightmen have a Privilege inherent to their Office, by the Custom of the Country, which is not usual elsewhere; which is, if there be any Suspicion of Theft, they take some of their Neighbours with them, during the Silence of the Night, and make Search for the Theft, which is call'd Ransacking, from Ransaka, which is to make Enquiry, in the ancient Danish: They search every House they come to, and if the Theft be found, they seize him upon whom it is found, and bring him to the Seat of Justice.

The Isles of Schetland.

THE Isles of Schetland being Part of the Stewartry of Orkney, are governed either by the Stewart or his Deputy. They are placed by Ptolemy in the 63d Degree from the Equinoctial, between Scotland and Norway. The nearest Part of the Isles of Schetland, is about 80 Miles from Orkney, and the Sea between them is very turbulent and stormy. Those that are properly called Isles, are in Number about 46, with 10 Holmes and 30 Rocks; all which are ranked under the general Name of Schetland, though each of them has its particular Name. About 26 of them only are inhabited; others, though large enough, are only made use of to feed Cattle. Many of the Gentry of the Country have come from Scotland and settled here ; but the common People, that are Natives, are descended from the Norwegians, and speak a corrupt Dialect of the Norwegian Tongue. They are generally hearty, commonly living to five, six, or sevenscore Years of Age. There are many Obelisks still standing, and many old Fabricks, which are said to have been built by the Picts: They are in the Fashion of Pyramids, with a winding Pair of Stairs within the Top. Under them they had Cells all vaulted over, and from the Top of them they made a Sign by Fire, when they apprehended any imminent Danger. The Ground is clean, and the Soil naturally inclines to a sandy Clay. The Produce of the Country is chiefly Fish, Butter, Oil, Wool, Feathers, Beef, Tallow, Hides, Stuff, Stockings, Woollen Gloves and Garters. There has been at one Time in Brassay-Sound, 1500 Sail of Hollanders employ'd about that profitable Fishery which they make about the Scotch Islands. After Fara, an Island lying in the Midway between Orkney and Schetland, the first Island that appears is called Mainland, as being the largest: It is about 60 Miles in Length, and 16 or 18 where broadest. In Schetland they have one Presbytery, which assembles at Scalloway.

The THULE of the Ancients, as described by Sir Robert Sibbald.

Though the Ancients were at Variance about the particular Situation of Thule, yet they all agreed, that it was somewhere towards the North: Many make it to be one of the British Islands; and as Conradus Celtes said long ago, it was encompass'd with the Isles of Orkney, so I have also taken the Liberty to subjoin it to them. Bochart observes, that Thule in the Syriac, or Chaldee, which is a Dialect of the Phœnicians, signifies Darknes: And the Ancients had a mighty Notion of the Darknes of the Regions farthest North. That the Phœnicians sailed far beyond the Mediterranean is indisputable. It is probable, therefore, that when they came to Coasts where Fogs were thick, and Nights were long, they might call them by one general Name, Thule: Which Name the Greeks, and from them the Romans, not understanding, apply'd to some Island in the most Northerly Part of Britain. That the Roman Thule must be placed there, will appear evidently from what follows. What Cæsar observ'd of the Ancient Britons, that they painted their Bodies blue, and fought in hooked Chariots, Silius Italicus ascribes of the Inhabitants of Thule; and it is plain the Poet could speak only of those whom the Romans fought with in his Time.

*Carules haud aliter cum dimicat incola Thules

Pliny was of the same Opinion, for he treats of Thule in the same Chapter with the British Isles; and Tacitus, in his Life of Agricola, says, that when the Roman Navy sailed about Britain, despecta est & Thule; they saw Thule as they sailed by the Orcades.

Sir Robert Sibbald thinks that Ireland was the first of the British Isles that was called Thule, as being the first remarkable Island that the Carthaginians met with in their Course from Cadin, steering to the North, and also because Statius calls it Hesperia (or Western) Thule. But if Ireland was called so, that is not the Thule which is mentioned by the Roman Writers; for the Romans never carried their Arms into Ireland; and therefore what they say must refer to some British Northern Isle, which they invaded under Agricola, and which was then possess'd by the Picts; whom Statius the Poet, who was contemporary with Domitian, calls Caledonians. Claudian does yet more particularly give the Name of Thule to the North Part of Britain, when he speaks of the great Exploits done there by Theodosius, Father of Theodosius the Emperor, and Grandfather of Arcadius and Honorius, whom he makes to conquer the Scots, and the Inhabitants of Thule, in a cold frosty Country, and the Moors in a scorching one; where, by placing the Moors and Britons as the remotest People then known in their several Parts, he clearly demonstrates, that Thule must be somewhere near the North Parts of the Isle of Britain, then inhabited by the Picts and Scots.

Claudian's Words are these:

*Ille Caledoniis posuit qui castra pruinis
Maduerunt Saxone fuso
Orcades, incaluit PICTORUM SANGUINE THULE, Scotorum cumulos flevit Glacialis Jerne.*

In Caledonian Frosts his Tents he pitch'd,
When Orkney Isles he dy'd with Saxon Gore;
Then THULE with the Pictish Blood grew hot, Icy Strathern bemoan'd huge Heaps of Scots.

Jerne here is Strathern, i. e. the Valley of Ern; and had its Name from Ireland, or Erin, from whence these Scots came. Juvenal also calls it by the same Name, when he says, Arma quod ultra Litora Juverne promovimus, in which he alludes to Agricola's Conquests; as he does also to that great General's Care to instruct the Britons in the Roman Arts, in this Verse, De conducendo loquitur jam Rhetore Thule:
Y 4 Which

Which last Verse demonstrates that Thule belong'd to Britain, and tho' it was far North, whence it is called Ultima, yet it could not be beyond that Island, because the Romans never carried their Arms any farther. Ferne therefore lying upon the West-Coast, Thule seems to be upon the Eastern, and is most probably what is now called East-Koss, Sutherland and Caithness; for there the Picts, or as Silius Italicus calls them, the blue Inhabitants of Thule, were anciently settled when the Southern Countries became Part of the Roman Province. Before that Time the Britons were all Picts, that is, were all painted, and the Brigantes were blue in Seneca's Time. We are sure Thule lies far North, Theodosius was there; and as he killed the Scots in Ferne, so he killed the Picts in Thule. Now Claudian's Ferne is not Ireland, because we have no Account that the Romans ever carried their Arms into Ireland, nor were any Roman Antiquities ever found there. Besides, the thick Woods in Caithness would appear very dark to Navigators, and so might well deserve the Name of Thule; though we rather think that the Phœnician Thule was Ireland, which was anciently very woody, and consequently very foggy; and that the Romans afterwards applied that Name, which they did not thoroughly understand, to the Pictish Coasts, meaning thereby only an Island, or rather Peninsula, that was very far North, as the first Thule was described to be. The Ancient Norwegians, who sailed round Britain, and were Lords of the North and West Isles for some Time, called of the Western Islands Ilar, or Thile, but which of them we know not. Of this Snorro Sturlison, the Islandish Historian of Norway, who lived 500 Years ago, is a certain Evidence. For in his Account of Magnus Olafson, King of Norway's Expedition in the Year 1095, towards the British Isles, he says, That King Magnus went with a mighty Fleet westward to the Isles of Orkney, which he conquered, and placed a Viceroy over them. Then he went to the Southern Isles, i. e. the Hebrides, which lie S. W. of Orkney, where he wasted and burned, and forced the Inhabitants to fly, some into Scotland, and some into Ireland: That he particularly landed in Jona, where he suffered no Man to hurt the People or the Church; and from thence went to the Island Thile, and from thence to Satires Mulls, plundering both the Scotch and Irish Coasts all along as he went. This shews what Opinion the Ancient Danes had of the Situation of Thule: And that one of the Western Islands was so called, is unquestionable. But Part of Norway is also called Thulemark. Were there not therefore anciently more Regions towards the North, than one called by that Name? It is most probable there were. And one may safely affirm, that Juvenal, Statius, and Claudian, went no farther than the North-British Coasts for their Thule, wheresoever they placed it.

The ROMAN WALL in SCOTLAND.

The first Occasion of building the Roman Wall, which now goes by the Name of Grahme's-Dyke, was given by Julius Agricola, to exclude the Scotish Highlanders; for the Wall being built upon that Isthmus, or Neck of Land, betwixt the River Forth and Clyde, which is not above 16 Miles over, the Enemy was by this means removed as it were into another Island: But here we must not imagine that this Wall was built by Agricola, since it is affirmed by no Historian. He contented himself only with placing Garrisons at convenient Distances, that his Forces might easily draw together upon the first Apprehension of Danger. The Garrisons probably settled by him (for those upon the Wall must necessarily have been settled by others) were, 1. Coria Damniorum, which the Neighbours at this Day call Camelon; where the Remains of the Fortification are yet to be seen, and a Roman Military Way begins there, and runs to the South. Here also they discover old Vaults, and meet with Roman Coins. The second seems to have been about six Miles distant to the North-west, where the Town of Sterling now stands; for besides that the Narrowness of the River Forth, which has now a Bridge over it in this Place, required a Garrison there; there is upon a Rock an ancient Inscription, intimating, that a Legion once kept Garrison there. The third Garrison was placed about eight Miles N. E. from the Second, where Roman Medals have been found, and not far from it runs a Roman Military Way. The fourth seems to be that which Bede calls Guidi, now called Kirkintilloch, situate upon the Wall, where are still to be seen the Ruins of great Fortifications, and near it several Inscriptions have been found. The fifth was where the Town of Paisly is now seated. The sixth was the most remote to the West, called at this Day Dumbarton, conveniently situated in a Point, where the Leven runneth into the Clyde; but if this Conveniency was not a sufficient Testimony, the Inscriptions that are found in the Neighbourhood, would put it beyond all dispute. The placing these Garrisons was probably the Occasion of building the Wall afterward along this Tract; but in building they took the directest Line, which must be the Cause why some of the Garrisons are at a Distance from it. It seems also to have been built at several Times, and by different Persons, as the Situation of the Ground required for repelling the Enemy, and covering the Provincial Britons against their Invasions. The Wall first began where the River Forth was narrow, and so was carried along the Neck of Land between the Frith of Clyde and Forth, but afterwards was carried farther East. The Penvahel, or Penueltuin, where
Bede

Bede says it began, is at this Day called Walltoun, where there is an artificial Mount dik'd about; but the Manner of the Wall is best understood by Mr. Pont's Description in Dr. Gibson's (now Bishop of London) Translation of Cambden's Britannia, p. 959. First, there appears a Ditch of 12 Foot wide before the Wall, towards the Enemy's Country; the Wall itself is ten Foot thick, but it is not known how high it was at first; there is a paved Way at the Foot of the Wall, five Foot broad, Watch-Towers within Call of one another, where Centinels kept Watch Day and Night, a Court of Guard to lodge a sufficient Number of Soldiers against all sudden Alarms, and a Void within for the Soldiers Lodgings. Besides these, there are along the Wall great and noble Forts, strongly intrench'd, and though within the Wall, able to receive a whole Army together. The Forts which remained in Mr. Pont's Time, who traced them all, were these, one at Langtoun, a Mile East of Falkirk; one just at Rouintree Burnhead; one at Wester-Gowden, about St. Helen's Chapel; one at the Croyhill; a very great one at the Top of the Banhill; one at Atchindevy; one at Kirkintilloch, or Kaerpen-colloch; one at East-Calder; one at Hilltoun-Calder; one at Balmudy; one at Simerstone, and over Kilvin River, and Carestoun; one at Atermynie; one at Balcastle, over-against Banhill; one at Kaellybe, over-against Croy-hill; one at the Roch-hill, over-against the West-Wood; a large one at Bankyir, over-against Castle-Cairy; one at Dumbase. In the Ruins of that at Bankyir was found a large Iron Shovel, or some Instrument resembling it, so weighty, that it could hardly be lifted by one Man. At the same Fort also were discovered several Sepulchres cover'd with large rough Stones; and at Dun-Chroe-Chyr, by Mony-Abroch, were formerly large Buildings. The Length of the Wall was 36 Scotch Miles, beginning between Queen's-Ferry and Abercorn; it rang'd along West by the Grange and Kineil, to Innereving, so on to Falkirk, from whence it proceeded directly to the Forest of Cumernald; next it ran to the great Fort at the Banhill, where have been found several Stones, some with Pictures engraven upon them, and with Inscriptions. From whence it went to the Peel of Kirkintilloch, the greatest Fort of all, and so Westward to Dumbarton, with a great Ditch upon the North-side of the Wall all along. It had also many square Fortifications in Form of Roman Camps.

C H A P. III.

Of its Air, Soil, and Commodities.

Air.] 'T Was not without Reason, that Caesar said of Britain in general, Coelum Gallico temperatius; for even in the most Northern Parts of the Island, the Air is generally serene, seldom clouded by Mists, or Fogs, more mild and temperate than in the Continent under the same Climate, by reason of the warm Vapours from the Sea upon all Sides; and for the same Reason, the continual Breezes of the Wind cause the Heats in Summer to be no ways scorching. The constant Winds purify the Air, and keep it always in Motion; so that it is seldom known, that an Epidemical Distemper rages in the Country.

Soil.] The Country is for the most part hilly and mountainous, there being but few Plains, and they of no great Extent; and those they have are generally by the Sea-side, from whence the Ground rises sensibly, the farther in the Country the higher; so that the greatest Hills are in the Middle of the Kingdom. The Quality of the Soil, compared with that of England, is, take it all together, not so good. 'Tis commonly more fit for Pasture than Corn, and for that Purpose is very well watered. Where the Surface is leanest, there are found Metals and Minerals, and considerable Quantities of Lead are yearly exported: There is also Plenty of other good Ores if the Inhabitants would be persuaded to take Pains to work them. In a great Part of the Inland-Country, especially where it lies upon some of the Friths, the Soil is very good, and there grow all the Sorts of Grain that are to be found in the South Parts of Britain. In the Low Grounds they have Store of Pease and Beans, which for the Strength of their Nourishment are much used by the Labouring People. In the Skirts of the Country, which are not so fit for Grain, there grow great Woods of Timber to a vast Bigness, especially Fir-Trees, which thrive best in rocky and mountainous Countries. Springs of Medicinal Waters are common enough; no Country is better provided with Fish, which would turn to a good Account, if their Fisheries were managed to the best Advantage: Besides Shoals of smaller Whales, the Porpus and the Meer Swine are frequently seen upon their Coasts: And the great Whales of the Baleen, or Whalebone Kind, and those of the Sperma Ceti Kind, are cast now and then upon several Parts of the Shore.

The Hills, especially upon the Skirts of the Country, breed abundance of Cows, which not only afford Store of Butter and Cheese for the Use of the Inhabitants, but considerable Profit, Profit, by vending their Hides and Tallow, and by the great Numbers that are sold into England. The Size of their Cows and Sheep, as in all cold Regions, is but small, but the Flesh of both is exceeding delicious, and very nourishing. The Highlands breed great Flocks of Goats, with Store of Deer, and abundance of Rabbits.

Commodities.] It abounds with all Necessaries of Life; and in respect of solid wholesome Food, stands in need of no Assistance from its Neighbours. There is very great Plenty of Cows, Oxen, Sheep, Goats, Conies, and, in the North, of Red and Fallow-Deer; of Wild and Tame Fowl, such as Partridges, Sea-Plovers, Pewets, Woodcocks, Dotterels, Snipes, Plovers, Quails, Larks, Herons, &c. of Hens, Ducks, Geese, Turkeys, Pigeons, &c.

For Fish, no Country exceeds it for extraordinary Plenty of Salmon, besides Trouts, Carps, Pikes, Eels, and other River-Fish; Herrings they have in such abundance, that the Dutch drive a considerable Trade in foreign Parts with the Herrings they take in the Northern Seas, Oysters, Cockles, Lobsters, Cod, Ling, Scates, Turbots, Mackrels, and Whittings, with other Sorts of excellent Sea-Fish, they have in great Abundance.

Beer and Ale in Scotland is very good, and the Scotch are not ignorant of the Art of Distilling Brandy and Usquebaugh to great Perfection.

Gardens for the Use of the Kirchin are not wanting; Orchards for Fruit are common, and for the most part the Pears are better than the Apples; yet here they have the Rennet and the Golden Pippen in great Perfection; and the Houses of the Nobility and Gentry are adorned with Flower Gardens and Wall-Fruit better than one would expect to find so far North. For all those Fruits which can be ripen'd in the Summer Months, such as Melons, Figs, Apricocks, and Peaches, are produced in their Gardens, with their true and natural Flavour and Taste.

The Woods, which are very large, some of them above ten Miles long, do not only abound with Timber-Trees, especially Oaks, Firs, and Birch, but also with great Variety of Physical Herbs and Plants.

For Cloathing, Scotland knows no want of very fine Wool, of which they make very good Stuffs and Broad-Cloth for the better Sort, and Freezes for the Country People, to defend them in their Work from the Cold. Besides, of their Wool, and by their Dexterity in Knitting, they make the finest Worsted-Stockings in the World; some of them exceeding those of Jersey and Guernsey, which they sell for a greater Price than Silk. Some are sold at 30 s. a Pair.

There

There is also great Plenty of Hemp and Flax ; their Linen Cloth is inferior to few for its Goodness, and the Manufactory of it, by Exportation into other Countries, is very beneficial to the Inhabitants.

Leather dress'd in Scotland is good ; though it is not so nicely dressed as in several Places in England : It is thinner than ours, by reason of the hard Feeding of their Cattle, yet it is strong and durable ; but not very plentiful, because not so generally worn in Breeches, Doublets and Aprons, Boots and Shoes, among the common People ; and besides, they find it turns to as good, and much quicker Account, to sell their Hides raw to the English.

For Building they want no Timber, though it is not so much used in this Country as in others for that Purpose ; because they have great Variety of excellent Stones, such as Sand-Stone, Marble, Alabaster and Slate, with abundance of Chalk and Lime-stone.

For Firing, they have Sea-Coal, or Pit-Coal, and the last in great Perfection almost every where, at a very small Price ; and where that is wanting, there is in some Places Wood, and in others great Plenty of Turf and Peat.

For Shipping, which has been too long neglected, the Woods and Forests of Scotland yield very good Oaks, fit for Beams, Plank, or Knee-Timber ; Firs fit for Masts and Yards ; and the Ground affords Hemp for Cordage.

The Scotch Horses are generally small, but so well made, that they are very fit for Labour, or Travelling ; there are also some of a large Breed in the Hands of the Nobility and Gentry. They have also Dogs of all Sorts and Sizes, and for all Uses.

Besides great Quantities of Lead, Iron, Brass, and Copper Ore, and Lapis Calaminaris, which is the chief Ingredient in making Brass, there are several rich Silver Mines in Scotland ; so that in respect of them only, Scotland is said to be richer under Ground than above : Nay, James Atkinson, Assay-Master of the Mint at Edinburgh, in the Reign of James VI. assures us, that Natural or Native Gold was to be found in several Places in this Country ; as one Mine on Crawford Moor and Friar Moor in Clydesdale ; two on Robburt Moor and Mannock Moor in Niddisdale ; three on Glangabar Water in Inderland, in the Forest of Attirie, and in many other Combes, or Valleys. It is commonly found, says he, after great Rains, link'd fast to the Sappare-Stone, just as Lead-Oar and White-Spar grow sometimes together. This is certain, that one Cornelius, a German, who in that Time was by Patent created Superior of the Gold Mines of the King of Scots, discovered Gold Mines at Crawford John, and in 30 Days Time brought into the King's Mint at Edinburgh, 80 Pounds Troy Weight of Natural Gold, which was worth 4500*l.* Sterling.

Besides

Besides Grain, and other Commodities already mentioned, the Merchants export Marble, Alabaster, Linnen and Woollen Cloth, Freezes, Plaids, Plaiding-Stuffs, Stockings, Malt, Hops, Meal, Hides, Rabbets, and Hare-Skins, Fish, Eggs, Oaker, Coals, and Salt. To conclude ; though some Countries may pride themselves in being richer, their Seas being better navigated, and their Lands more fertile, yet Scotland wants nothing that is necessary for the Life of Man, and what should put Life into future Endeavours. The Country is capable of great Improvements, and having many safe and convenient Ports and Havens, if encouraged, it cannot long want a profitable Trade by Sea ; which concurring with a prudent and industrious Management of the Inland Trade and Manufactories, cannot fail of making that Part of Great-Britain much richer, and, consequently, much more considerable than it is at present, or indeed than ever it was.

C H A P. IV.

Of its Inhabitants, their Number, Language, and Character.

Inhabitants.] During the Roman Empire, the North-Eastern Part of Scotland, which was free, was inhabited chiefly by the Picts, who in all Probability were Britons, that still retained the Custom of painting their Bodies. I say chiefly, because it is most probable, that the Scots came thither very early out of Ireland, especially into the West Highlands, though perhaps, not in great Numbers. Afterwards came in the Saxons, and then the Danes, who were long Masters of the Orcades, which have been claimed by the Kings of Denmark, as Part of the Kingdom of Norway, 'till very lately ; so that the present Inhabitants of Scotland are a Mixture of Picts, i. e. ancient Britons, of Scots, i. e. ancient Irish ; of Saxons, and of Danes ; of Romans, 'tis probable, there may be some few, but so blended with other Nations, that 'tis impossible, either by Names, or any other Mark, to distinguish any Families at this Day, and ascertain their Descent from the Roman Stock.

Their Number.] Though Scotland be without Comparison more barren than any Parts of England, yet for want of Trade, and those other Encouragements which naturally bring People together, and keep them together when once they are gathered, it is certain that it's much thinner of People than otherwise it need be, or than England is. A Million and half of People is the most that has been reckoned ; though if the Fishing

Fishing Trade and Husbandry were encouraged as far as they might, it would maintain above double their Number.

Their Language.] The Inhabitants of the Southern Provinces speak English, vary'd only in Pronunciation: Their Language approaches indeed nearer to the Dane-Saxon in many of its peculiar Words, than any other Dialect of the English Tongue, and for that Reason, those Writings which are true Scotish, such as Gawen Douglas's Translation of Virgil's Aeneis; The Cherry and the Sloe, a Poem so called, and others, are very useful to those that are curious in searching out the Originals of our own Language. The Highlanders speak a sort of Irish, which they call Albanach, and which they have both from the ancient Scots, who came out of Ireland, and from the Picts, who were originally Britons. For the British, which is now preserved in Wales, and the Irish, were both different Dialects of the ancient Celtic; from which, and from the ancient Gothic, almost all the Languages of the Northern and the North-Western Nations of Europe are derived. In the Orcades the Old Norwegian Tongue, spoken still in tolerable Purity in Island, is preserved. Their Court-Rolls, Records, and Proceedings in Law, have been written for several Ages in Latin, of which the Scotish Lawyers are, generally speaking, great Masters. Sir John Skene assigns the Reasons of their Laws being written in Latin to their having been drawn up by the Roman Clergy, who always endeavoured to keep the People in Ignorance, which is one of the great Pillars of the Pope's Authority; though the truer Reason seems to be, because the Civil-Law, which was always the Common-Law of Scotland, was written in that Language. There are also in the Scotish Tongue more French Words than in the English, which has been occasioned by the long and frequent Intercourses which the Scots have had with France.

Character.] The Air being very serene, and the Climate temperate in Scotland, the Natives partake accordingly of both. They have clear Understandings, are sagacious, quick at finding out their Interest, and diligent in pursuing it. Abroad in foreign Countries, whither Necessity or Curiosity often drives them, they are industrious, frugal, and very dextrous in accommodating themselves to the Manners of the People with whom they live. The Gentlemen are well bred, and as generally learned as in any other Country in Europe. The Women of Condition are handsome, fruitful, and modest, and very careful in that which is their great Business, viz. managing their Families, and educating their Children. The People are generally religious, and very zealous in adhering to that Sect which they profess. They are very temperate in eating and drinking, even in Countries where Luxury and Excess in both is too much practis'd: Zealous Lovers of their Country, though very willing to settle abroad when they have any nity of doing so : Fearless of Danger, and patient to endure the Hardships and Fatigues of War. In a Word, they are a People who have always been tenacious of their Liberty, and whom no Threatning, nor any Prospect of Advantage could make to yield to Conquerors, though more rich and powerful than themselves.

The Scots, especially the Islanders, are generally longer lived than in the more Southern Parts of the World ; a Man being scarce thought old at 80 ; several living to above 100, in their Islands to 140, and at that Age able to gain their Bread by their Labour : All which is ascribed to their Temperance and frugal Way of Living, being utter Strangers to the Luxury of wealthier Nations ; but of late excessive Drinking prevails in some Places ; and the main Ambition of some Country Gentlemen is, to be reckoned Good Fellows.

Names.] In the South Parts of Scotland, where the Inhabitants are descended chiefly from the Saxons and Danes, their Names agree with those of England, both Christian and Surnames. Christian Names common, are, James, John, Thomas, Alexander, David, William, Robert, Charles, Colin usual among the Campbels ; Norman and Gilbert derived from the Danes, Archibald, &c. Surnames among the Lowlanders are either local, as Douglas, Campbel, Hamilton, Smith, Maxwell, Dalrymple, Spotswood, Lesly, Lindeſay, Murray, Leith, &c. or derived from their Parents, as Davidſon, Ferguſon, Henderſon ; Youngſon, Adamſon, Anderſon, Paterſon, i. e. Patrickſon, Johnſon (which in Scotland is usually written Johnſton, as if it were local) &c. or from Offices or Trades, as Stuart, Fletcher, Clerk, Bailly, Falconer, Juſtice, &c. Saxon and Danish Names they have ſeveral, Sibbald (i. e. ſo bald, the bold courageous Man) Etrick, which gives Title to the Earl of Dumfries's eldeſt Son, from Heydreck, a famous Hero of the North ; Clegie, which ſtill ſignifies Wiſe in Danish, Graham, Daniſh ; Gram Dempſter, i. e. Judge ; Cunningham, or Kunningham, which in Danish is the King's Helmet. Bruce, Daniſh ; Bruſe, Bolloc, Daniſh ; Hroklang, Grerr, Logy (Loge Norwegian, Flame) &c. The Highlanders, who are the old Scots and Picts blended together, keep their old Scotiſh Names pretty entire, as Malcolm, Duncan, Donald, Murdoc, Kennedy, &c. and thoſe that begin with Mac, i. e. Son, are numerous ; as Mac Kenzy, Mack Kay, Mac Leod, Mac Lean, Mac Pherson, Mac Cleland, Mac Gill, Mac Dougal, Mac Guffoc, &c. Where Mac Kenzie is the Son of Kennedy, or Kennet ; Mac Leod is the Son of the People, for that Leod ſignifies in Saxon, Mac Pherson, the Son of a Prieſt ; Mac Guffoc, the Son of Guffoc ; Mac Gill, the Son of Gilbert. How far an Enquiry into the Etymology of the Surnames of the Inhabitants of Great-Britain may go to determine the Nation from whence every Family ſprung, is a Subject well worth the Pains of a ſkilful and judicious Antiquary.

tiquary. This is certain, it can never be done well without a competent Knowledge of the Celtick and Gothick Languages, and of the several Dialects which have been form'd in these Northern and North-Western Parts of the World, from these two great Originals.

C H A P. V.

Of the Religion of Scotland.

THE Christian Religion was, without all Controversy, preached very early in Scotland; but how soon we do not certainly know. Tertullian says, Christianity was preached in the British Islands in Places where the Romans never came; whether he meant Ireland, or the North of Scotland, is uncertain. King Donald the First, who is said to have begun his Reign in the Year 199, is also said to have desired Preachers from P. Victor, who went into Scotland, and planted Christianity in that Country. These Preachers are said to have lived in Purity, without any Episcopal Government; nor is any Bishop said to have come into Scotland before Palladius, who was sent by Pope Celestine to convert the Scots, in the Year 431. [But this does not prove that Presbytery or Calvinism was the Religion of Scotland originally, any more than that it was originally the Religion of all the English Plantations in America, whither no Bishops have been yet sent, and yet they are most of them, and have been from the first Plantation, under Episcopal Government, subject in Spirituals to the Bishop of London, and their Priests episcopally ordained, as those no doubt were who first planted Christianity in Scotland; because all the Churches of Christendom were then governed by Bishops.]

This however is certain, that from the Fifth and Sixth Century, down to the Sixteenth, the Government of the Church of Scotland has been by Bishops; and that it, was alter'd in Queen Mary's Time, and since, every Body knows; but perhaps the Steps by which that Alteration was effected, may not be so generally known. The Nature of my Design will not let me run out far into Particulars; but a short Account of what was done in Scotland, relating to Religion, from the Year 1562, to the Re-establishment of Episcopacy in that Kingdom, by King James VI. in 1603, will make what I shall hereafter say concerning the Kirk of Scotland better understood.

In the Reformation of England, under King Edward VI. the Bishops generally joined, and that was attended with a perfect Acquiescence in their Government, the Lawfulness of which was never questioned all that Reign. Whether some Ceremonies and Vestments should be retained, was debated; but Hooper, Bishop of Gloucester, who scrupled the Use of the Episcopal Robes, at last complied. The Exiles in Queen Mary's Time resumed those Debates at Frankfort and Geneva, in which last Place was the famous John Knox, who joined with those that opposed the Use of Ceremonies. Queen Mary dying, her Sister, Queen Elizabeth, continued Episcopacy, and the Ceremonies now retained in our Church; soon after the Scottish Reformation follow'd; in which Knox was the chief Agent. By his Persuasion the Ceremonies were by general Consent laid aside, and in the Confession of Faith, which he offer'd to be confirmed in Parliament, 1567, Chap. xxi. is this Clause; That as Ceremonies are but Temporal, so may and ought they to be changed, when they rather foster Superstition, than edify the Kirk using the same. And by the Sixth Act of that Parliament it is enacted, That the Ministers of the Blessed Evangelist of Jesus Christ, whom God of his Mercy hath now raised up amongst us, or hereafter shall raise, agreeing with them that now live in the Administration of the Sacraments, and the People of this Realm professing Jesus Christ, &c. according to the Confession of the Faith, are declared to be the only true and holy Kirk of this Realm. So far the Act of Parliament.

[Every Body knows, that at the Reformation Presbytery or Calvinism was introduced into Scotland by open Rebellion.]

The Bishops in that Parliament generally adhering to Popery, and refusing to sign the Confession of Faith, were laid aside, but in their stead Superintendants were appointed in some Districts, differing both in Number and Bounds from the Bishops and their Dioceses. Other Persons also having Commissions from the Kirk, executed particular Parts of the Ministerial Function committed to them. From these Commissioners Appeals lay to Provincial Synods, or National or General Assemblies, as appears by Act VIIth of that Parliament. Two Bishops turned Protestants, and they were continued in their Bishopricks and Dignity; namely, Bothwell, Bishop of Orkney, and Gordon, Bishop of Galloway. Bothwell afterwards was deposed for marrying the Queen to the Earl of Bothwell, but was restored again, and being an eminent Lawyer, continued long a Lord of the Session, and is marked in the Rolls of Parliament as a Bishop; Gordon soon fell off to Queen Mary, and probably relapsed to Popery. Of the Abbots, some turned Protestants, the Abbacies of others were given to Laymen in Commendam, and they, under the Name of Commendators, sat in Parliament, and made up the first State of the Clergy, and had the Administration of their Titles and Temporal Baronies. The Scots Church at this Time owned the Church of England for their Brethren, and Pastors and Guides of Christ's Flock, as appears by a Letter from the General Assembly of Scotland to the English Bishops, dated December 27th, 1556. It is subscribed thus; The Superintendants, Ministers, and Commissioners within the Realm of Scotland; to their Brethren the Bishops and Pastors of England, who have renounced the Roman Antichrist, and do profess with them the Lord Jesus in Sincerity, with the Increase of the Holy Spirit.

During this Time, the Queen, who was a Papist, and her Popish Servants, hindered the Ratification of the Acts for Reformation, and the Great Men that had Grants of the Church-Lands were unwilling that the Ministers Maintenance should be settled; and this increased Divisions in the Kingdom. A Book of Discipline was drawn up, and signed by many of the Nobility, which was never ratified in Parliament. The Ministers however sat still, out of Fear of bringing in Popery again; and keeping well with the Body of the Nobility, Gentry, and People, waited for more favourable Times, which Times soon happened. For the Murder of King Henry; the Acquittal of the Earl of Bothwell upon the not proving of the Libel; the denying to the Earl of Lenox, the murdered King's Father, a competent Time to make good his Accusation; Bothwell's hasty Divorce from his own Lady, and yet more hasty Marriage with the Queen, and his inducing the Nobility to subscribe Bonds, declaring their Approbation of that Marriage, put every thing into a Flame; the Queen was forced to quit her Army, and leave Bothwell to shift for himself; and soon after she resigned her Crown to her Son, and the Nobility and Great Men engaged themselves under a Bond to Crown the Child, and to stand by him. This was done in 1567, and Papists as well as Protestants signed the Bond. This Association did not indeed long continue in its full Strength; for before the Meeting of the Parliament in December 1567, some fell off, and after the Queen's Escape from Loch-levin, many eminent Men of both Religions joined to her. In this Time the Assembly met, and pass'd several Acts relating to the Church, Universities, Colleges, Schools, and Patrimony of the Church, to which they assigned the Thirds of great Benefices, and some small ones: These Thirds were ill paid in many Places, and absolutely denied to be collected in others. At last a Sort of a Form of Policy was settled for the Government of twelve Persons, half Laity, and half Clergy, which Form approached nearly to the Episcopal Government. Hamilton, the Popish Archbishop of St. Andrews, dying by the Hand of Justice, Mr. John Dundas was nominated in his Place; Mr. Robert Boyd was made Archbishop of Glasgow, Mr. James Paton Bishop of Dunkeld, and Mr. Andrew Graham Bishop of Dunblane. This was done in Pursuance of the Conclusions that were made in the Assembly that was held at Perth, August, 1572. Some of the old Superintendants remained within the Bounds first assigned them, and the chief Power remained in the General Assembly, who deposed and restored Ministers as they saw good, as appears by their deposing and restoring Bishop Bothwell, vel. This Power of deposing Ministers was neither granted to Superintendants, nor to the newly nominated Bishops.

The Earl of Moreton, the next Regent, had been Chancellor of Scotland during the three former Regencies, and some time under Queen Mary; he was acceptable to Queen Elizabeth, which facilitated his being chosen. But the Church, which expected to have its Maintenance increased under his Government, mis'd its aim, and was deprived of the Thirds of the Benefices that it had formerly enjoy'd, and was forced to depend upon the Court for all it received. This made the Ministers join with the Queen's Friends, and others that env'y'd the Regent's Greatness; and the Assembly, in the Year 1575, restrained and lessened the Power which was given to the Bishops in the Year 1571. Boyd, Archbishop of Glasgow, and some other Bishops and Superintendants, were present in that Assembly. The Bishops were commanded to betake themselves to particular Cures, and Paton, Bishop of Dunkeld, was depriv'd for Misdemeanors. Upon the Death of Archbishop Dundas, the Regent nominated Mr. Patrick Adamson to succeed him in the See of St. Andrew; but he being elected without the Consent of the Assembly, was prohibited to exercise any Part of his Jurisdiction, 'till he should be authoriz'd thereunto. The Nobility also uniting against the Earl of Moreton, he laid down, and the King took upon him the Government.

In 1578, the Assembly presented to the Parliament a Draught of Ecclesiastical Polity, for setting up an exact Pattern of Presbyterian Government. It was referred to a Committee, and was not agreed to in all its Articles, but was generally put in Execution by the Authority of the Assembly. In 1580, the Lord Aubigné, a Papist, Cousin-German to the King's Father, came out of France into Scotland, where the King soon created him first Earl, then Duke of Lenox. This disgusted the Kirk exceedingly. The King also in Council suspended several Ecclesiastical Censures and Excommunications; many Priests also and Jesuits, and others who were relapsed to Popery, flock'd into the Kingdom. Lenox indeed publicly renounced Popery, but the Suspicions concerning his Religion still continued; especially after some Dispensations from Rome had been intercepted, giving a Liberty to Papists to swear and subscribe the Confession of Faith to be drawn up, in which all the Corruptions of the Church of Rome in Faith and Rites were particularly abjured, with a Declaration, that that Declaration was made without any mental Reservation or Equivocation whatsoever. This was sworn to by the King, the Council, and the Court; and this is the Declaration which was afterwards renewed in the Year 1683, by the Name of the NATIONAL COVENANT. The next Year, the Great Men contrived to cut off the Earl of Moreton, upon an Accusation of being Act and Part in the Murder of King Henry (King James VI's Father)

Father) leaving the Church to secure themselves in an Assembly at Dundee, where the Office of a Bishop, as it was then used, was condemned, and the Bishops commanded to desist from the Exercise of their Episcopal Functions, 'till they were re-admitted by the Assembly, upon Pain of Excommunication. In the Parliament of 1584, the King's Declaration concerning the Treasonableness of the Surprize at Ruthven was ratified, his Authority over all Persons in all Causes confirmed, and the declining the Judgment of his Majesty and Council declared to be Treason. This is said to be the first time in which the King's Supremacy was enacted by the Parliament in Scotland. But all these Measures were overturned by the Pacification which was made in the Year 1585; and in 1588, several Noblemen and others were forefaulted for their being concerned in the Spanish Invasion. In 1592, Presbytery was fully settled and established by Act of Parliament. In that Act it was declared, That the Kirk might lawfully hold and keep general Assemblies, once a Year at least, provided that either the King's Majesty, or a Commissioner by him appointed, were present at every Assembly, and that before it was dissolved, they nominated and appointed Time and Place where the next General Assembly should be kept and held, as it used to be in former Times. In the same Act was a Clause rescinding the Act of 1584, which granted Commissions to Bishops and other Judges to proceed in Ecclesiastical Causes, ordaining all Presentations to be directed to the particular Presbyteries, and requiring that all Matters and Causes Ecclesiastical within their Bounds, be tried according to the Discipline of the Kirk.

All this while, the Patrimony of the Church was quite ruined; for in 1578, the Temporalities of Benefices were annexed to the Crown; which at first pleased the Church, because they thought the Church-Lands were safest in the King's Hands; but they were soon granted away, and even a great Part of the Tythes, which were thought a sufficient Maintenance for the Clergy, were lessened by long Leases for small Reservations. They had indeed some Relief by an Act in 1592, by which it was forbidden to erect Kirk-Lands and Tythes into Temporal Lordships; and the Act which fixed the Stipends of the Ministers was confirmed.

In 1603, King James VI. succeeded to the Crown of England, vacant by Queen Elizabeth's Death. Being then free from the Influence [What is here called Influence, ought to be termed Force, for the King was in a manner Prisoner to the Kirk 'till he ascended the Throne of England; and was compelled to pass all the Acts mentioned for the Establishment of their Kirk] of the Kirk, resolved to introduce Episcopacy into Scotland again; and accordingly he nominated Bishops into every

See, and by his Commissioners to the General Assembly, he procur'd their Meetings to be continued beyond the Year, from July 1604, to July 1605; and then the Commissioners of the Church were order'd to desert the Diet, and make no Indiction of another Assembly, 'till the King should be acquainted with it. Accordingly, the King's Commissioner having intimated his Pleasure to the Assembly, a few met in the Year 1605, at Aberdeen, and they by Warrant from the Privy-Council were discharged by the King's Commissioner for meeting in an Assembly, and he commanded the Assembly to be dissolv'd. But those that were met, chose Mr. John Forbes first for their Moderator, and then continued the Assembly to September following. Upon this these Ministers were denounced Rebels, and cited to appear before the Privy-Council, who imprison'd them. But they persisted in what they had done, and declin'd the King's Authority as incompetent in that Matter, appealing to a General Assembly as the only proper Judges. [Whether an English Convocation that should have acted at this rate, wou'd not have been stiled Rebels!] Hereupon they were try'd for Treason upon the Statute of 1584, which establish'd the King's Supremacy in Causes Ecclesiastical. They defended themselves upon the Statute of 1592, which gives the Kirk a Right of keeping General Assemblies. Six of the Ministers were found guilty of Treason, and their Sentence of Death was turn'd into Banishment. In the Parliament held 1606, the Temporalities of the Bishops were restor'd, and the King's Supremacy again asserted. The General Assembly which met that Year, appointed constant Moderators in every Presbytery, and Bishops for the Time being, to moderate in Synods of the Dioceses, only accountable to the General Assemblies.

The Establishment of the Church by constant Moderators, which was made by this General Assembly, having a great Resemblance to the first Settlement of Superintendants at the Beginning of the Reformation, might have proved a lasting Settlement, if the Ministers had not entertained a Suspicion, that this was only a Cover to introduce such Diocesan Episcopacy as was in Use in the Church England, which indeed was shortly after done. For as yet, though King James VI. had fill'd up the Sees, the Bishops had no Consecration, nor indeed Ordination from any other Bishops; and the Discipline of 1592 was still on Foot.

In 1600, a General Assembly met at Glasgow, in which Archbishop Spotswood was elected to preside: There the King's Prerogative in Calling of General Assemblies was acknowledged, Synods were order'd to be kept half yearly, and the Archbishops or Bishops of the Dioceses were directed to preside in them; the Jurisdiction of the Church was wholly committed to their Care; and Ministers at their Admission were commanded manded to swear Obedience to their Ordinaries. This Assembly was ratified in Parliament, 1612; and the Act of Parliament in 1592 rescinded, so far as it was inconsistent with this new Act. Archbishop Spotswood, and the Bishops of Brechen and Galloway were call'd to Court after the Assembly was up, to be consecrated in England, there not being a sufficient Number of Bishops in Scotland to do that Business Canonically, so that upon their Return they might Consecrate the rest. To shun the Question of Primacy, a Commission was directed to the Bishops of London, Ely, and Bath and Wells, who Consecrated them in the Chapel at London-House, on the Twenty-first of October, 1610. The same Year a High Commission was appointed in Matters Ecclesiastical; one Article of whose Instruction was, That Ordination of Ministers should only be by Bishops, assisted by two or three Presbyters; and another, That General Assemblies should always be call'd by the King, who should be supplicated for that Purpose, and that no Ministers should be present but those that were elected by the rest, and that they, the Bishops, Deans, and Archdeacons, should in all Time coming constitute the General Assemblies. In 1614, Archbishop Spotswood prosecuted one Ogilvy a Jesuit, who was executed for his Treasonable Positions, and indeed that Archbishop was always zealous against Papists. In 1615, upon Archbishop Cladstone's Death, he was translated to St. Andrew's.

King James began now to be earnest with the Primate to establish a Liturgy, and a Book of Canons for the Church of Scotland, by his Royal Authority and the High Commission. He desired likewise, that these five Articles might be pass'd into a Law. I. That the Lord's-Supper should be received Kneeling. II. That Sick Persons might receive it at Home. III. That Baptism might be administered, in Case of Necessity, in private Houses. IV. That Christmas-Day, Good-Friday, Easter-Day, Ascension-Day, and Whitsunday, should be religiously observed. V. That Children, well instructed in the Principles of Christianity, should be Confirm'd by the Bishop. And in 1617, he call'd a Parliament at Edinburgh, where these and other Matters, Civil and Ecclesiastical, were to be settled. Among the Articles, the King got this to pass, That whatsoever Conclusion was taken by his Majesty, with Advice of the Archbishops and Bishops, and a competent Number of the Ministers, in Matters of external Policy, the same should have the Power and Strength of an Ecclesiastical Law. Being confident, after that, of Success, they called an Assembly in 1618, at Perth, in which those five Articles were pass'd, which from that Assembly were afterwards called the Five Articles of Perth. They did not pass however very easily; for several Ministers complained, that many of their Number were kept back by Banishment and Confinement, and that many Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Ministers, were admitted without legal Commissions, and some gained by an Augmentation of their Stipends, and others frightened by the Menaces of the Court.

These Articles, thus passed, were published in all Churches, and authorized by the Privy Council; many Ministers and Congregations refusing to comply, were called before the High Commission, and being enjoined Obedience, declined that Court, as not legally constituted by any Act of Assembly, or Parliament; whereupon several were confined, suspended, and deprived. In Edinburgh the Ministers being changed, Obedience was pretty generally given: But few Citizens, except those that were in publick Places, would comply with the Kneeling at the Communion; for which several of them were banished the City, and confined to certain Places. These Men alledged in their Vindication, that those Articles had been condemned by former Assemblies, that had been ratified in Parliament.

In 1621, the Assembly of Perth had its proper Ratification in Parliament, but not without Complaints of undue Practices, and particularly, that Popish Lords voted by Proxy, who could neither Sit, nor Vote in Person.

In 1625, K. James VI. died. He was succeeded by his Son K. Charles I. who surrendered all the Tythes in his Hands to the Church, and was said to design a Revocation of all Erections of Kirk-Lands into Lay-Baronies, with an Intention of bestowing them upon Churchmen, that they, as Abbots and Priors, might Vote in Parliament. This displeased the Peers and Barons, who had Interest in those Lands and Tythes, exceedingly, and put them upon countenancing the disaffected Ministers, and others, who did not like the Ecclesiastical Government: [This was really the Occasion of the Rebellion in Scotland, in the Reign of King Charles I.] This appeared visibly in 1633, when the King held a Parliament himself: For when he urged, that the Ratification of his Royal Prerogative, and his Right of appointing the Apparel of Churchmen, might pass by the same Vote, some eminent Members agreed to the Clause of the Prerogative, but dissented to that of Churchmen's Apparel, as being apprehensive that it would bring on the English Surplice. This moved the King so much, that he called for the Rolls of the Members, and said, he would mark the Votes of those that should dissent from his Prerogative. The Vote being then competently stated, 26 considerable Members dissented, who afterwards were very forward in the following unhappy Wars.

This is a short, and a faithful Account of the Government of the Church of Scotland 'till the Year 1638, when King Charles I. labour'd to introduce the English Liturgy in Scotland, but without Success. The Opposition made to that Attempt, tempt, ended in the Abolition of Episcopacy, and the Re-establishment of Presbytery [by Rebellion] as it was settled in 1592. So it continued 'till 1662, when King Charles II. restored Episcopacy. The Methods by which the Church and State were managed in Scotland, in his and his Brother's Reigns, unfortunately tended to encrease the Alienations of the People against that Government, or rather against the Men who had exercised it among them. The Presbyterians therefore, in 1689, laid hold of that Opportunity, and prevailed upon King William and Queen Mary to establish their Church-Government once more by Law; which Establishment still continues.

CHAP. VI.

Of TRADE.

I Have already shew'd in several Counties of Scotland what Plenty there are of Commodities fit for Exportation, as Corn, Cattle, Hides, Wool, Hemp, Flax, Linnen, Worsted Stuffs, Timber, Tin, Lead, Copper, Allum, Hops, Fish, Salt, &c. besides other Commodities that the Inland Parts afford in great Plenty, and would turn to great Account, if improved to the best Advantage: But their Fishing is the Branch of Trade which may be carried on with more Ease and Profit in their own Seas, than can be done by any Foreign Nation whatsoever; by reason of the Conveniency and Plenty of their Loughs and Harbours, which are stored with almost infinite Numbers of Fish: They lie very conveniently for a Trade with Denmark, Sweden, Hamburgh, Holland, Ireland and France; Spain, which is the best Market in the World for Fish, as the Hollanders experience, is not above 10 Days Sailing from them with a favourable Wind. Many of the Natives of Scotland have not yet arrived to a sufficient Skill in Agriculture; for which Cause many Tracts of rich Land lie neglected, or at least but meanly improved, to what they might be; and this is the more to be regretted, because there are many Parcels of rich Ground both in Scotland and the Islands, which, if cultivated, would maintain treble the Number of the present Inhabitants, and encrease and preserve their Cattle; many of which, through the Scarcity of Hay and Straw, die in the Winter and Spring for want of Fodder.

It has been long observed, that the Islands of Scotland, especially the Western, lie more conveniently for carrying on, and bringing the Fishing Trade to Perfection, than any other Parts of Europe.

K. Charles I.

K. Charles I. first began the Experiment, as I mentioned before, in Conjunction with a Company of Merchants; but that Design miscarry'd by the Civil War, which unhappily broke out at that Time. The next Attempt was made by K. Charles II. who also joined with some Merchants, and this succeeded well for a Time. Mr. Martin assures us, from such as saw the Fish that were catch'd by that Company, that they were reputed the best in Europe of their Kind, and accordingly fetch'd a greater Price; but this Design was ruined thus. The King having Occasion for Money, was advis'd to withdraw that which was employed in the Fishery; at which the Merchants being displeased, and disagreeing likewise among themselves, they also withdrew their Money, and that Design has never been renewed since that Time.

But the Revival of this Undertaking will, in all Probability, be one of the Blessings which this Island will reap by the late happy Union. What can't English Money, and Scotish Industry effect!

The settling a Fishery in those Parts, will raise a Nursery of stout and able Seamen in a very short Time, to serve the Government on all Occasions. A new Colony need not be planted there, for the Inhabitants of the Western Isles are reckon'd to be about 50,000; many of whom have no Employment, and are generally dextrous at the Oar, and only want to be furnished with proper Materials for the Fishing Trade, which would encourage the setting up other Manufactories. The Commodiousness and Safety of the numerous Bays and Harbours in those Isles, seem as if Nature had designed them for promoting Trade. They have such abundance of Turf and Peat for Fuel, as would furnish Salt-Pans with Fire all the Year round. The Coast of each Island affords many thousand Loads of Sea-ware, which, if preserved, might be successfully used for making Glass, and likewise Kelp for Soap. Several of the Islands afford great Quantities of fine Clay; which, if improved, might turn to good Account in making Earthen-Ware of all Sorts. Cod and Ling, as well as lesser Fish, are to be had on the Coasts of the lesser as well as the greater Islands; and what has been said of the Western Isles, may be said likewise of the Isles of Orkney and Sche:land.

OF

BOOK II.
GOVERNMENT.

CHAP. I.

Of the Government of SCOTLAND in general.

Monarchy being the most ancient Government in the World, and most agreeable to the People of Scotland, it has continued under that Form ever since it became a distinct Kingdom from South-Britain. It has enjoyed the same Advantages which have distinguished the English Monarchy, that it has never been enslaved to the Will and Pleasure of Arbitrary Tyrannical Sovereigns. It was Hereditary, the Crown descending from the Father to the the Son, and to his Heirs ; and for want of Sons, to the eldest Daughter and her Heirs ; for want of Daughters, to the Brother and his Heirs ; and for Want or Incapacity of a Brother, to the Sister and her Heirs. When the next Heir was under Age, or incapable of Government, the next of the Line was made King, who enjoyed the Crown during his Life, but it did not go to his Sons, but to the Heirs of the former King, provided they were of Age, and capable of the Administration. In those Days Superstition had not blinded Men's Eyes, or divested them of Reason so far as to think that there was any thing Divine or Sacred in any Race of Mankind which was ex traduce, and propagated from Father to Son in the ordinary Way of Generation. Whatever was Sacred in Kings, the ancient Scots asserted it belonged to his Office, and that being derived from the People, they never dreamt it came from Heaven, as After-Ages did, being deluded by Romish Priest-craft, whereby every Civil Institution, nay, even Lands, Persons, and whatever the Priest pleased, was made Sacred ; and these Artifices the Church of Rome borrowed from the Egyptians and Eastern Countries, which were ever prone to Idolatry, and fertile in Flattery, as we see from the sacred and profane Writers. The Salique Law, or Custom of France, Turkey, and other barbarous Countries, have no Force here. It was also an Independent Monarchy, owning no Subjection to the Pope, or to any other Potentate in the World ; nor did the Subjects pay Allegiance to any Prince but their own Native Sovereign.

It is true indeed, the Original of Government in Scotland, is a Point that has been much debated by some of their own Historians, who to this Day represent it very differently ; some are so indulgent to the People's Claim of Right, that 'tis no Wonder to see their Followers carry it very high on that Side, and derive it expressly from the People ; who when they were under a necessary Constraint by reason of Wars, transferred their Power to Fergus, Son of Eric, and created him their first King : But on the other Hand, such Conclusions were drawn from those Principles, as were prejudicial to the Right of Princes in general, as well as the Monarchy of Scotland in particular ; and this occasioned a severe Act of Parliament against the Slanderers of the King, his Progenitors, and the Estates of the Kingdom, in the Reign of King James VI. The Terror of this Statute, seconded by the Arguments of great and learned Men, prevailed for some Time ; but within half an Age, the Republicans, or rather the Opposers of the Power which the Kings of Scotland had formerly claimed, were as rife as ever, and their Libels against the Monarchy as numerous ; but they were so effectually opposed by Arguments from Antiquity, Law, and the Reasons alledged against them, that they have almost totally disappeared in the the present Age, the Men of which have universally condemn'd such Opinions, and now by joining with the English in settling the Succession upon the next Protestant Heir, have declared, that they are resolved to maintain that Succession, under which they have been so long, and so prosperously govern'd.

CHAP. II.

Of the KING of Scotland ; and therein, of his Name, Title, Person, Office, Supremacy, and Sovereignty, Power, and Prerogative, Dominions, Strength, Patrimony, Arms, and Respect.

Name.] THE Name of King is contracted from Coning, or Cyning, an ancient Saxon Word, derived from Knowledge or Ability to do Business, which is the noblest Part of Government ; the Surname of the Scottish Kings for 300 Years was Stuart, upon the Account of an Office given to Walter, Father of Robert II. King of Scotland, from whom the Kings and Queens of that Race are descended. He was Grand Seneschal, or High-Steward, or Stewart, of Scotland, which (as other great Offices) became from a Personal Title to be used as a Surname of the Kings of Scotland, and of many illustrious Families descended from them.

Title.] The Scots Kings generally took the same Title as the English : King Edgar of England stiled himself Basileus, and so did King Edgar of Scotland. King John of England changed the Singular Number into the Plural in all publick Instruments ; and soon after King Alexander II. of Scotland did the same. The common Compellation of the Scottish Kings, was Dominus Rex, and sometimes Illustrissimus Dominus Ligeus, and about King James the Third's Time, Metuendissimus. In speaking to them they were called Grace, Highness, and at last Majesty : But their Titles have varied in some Reigns ; for King William I. had the Title of Defender of the Church given him by the then reigning Pope ; as that of Protector of the Christian Faith was afterwards conferred on King James IV. and there was no continued one peculiar to them except that of, By the Grace of God, King of Scotland, England, France and Ireland ; which, 'till abrogated by the late Union of the Two Crowns, would otherwise have endured to Perpetuity. The King's only Testimony of any thing done in his Presence, is of as high a Nature and Credibility as any Record, and in all his Writs and other Dispatches of that Kind, he uses no other Witness but himself,

As to what relates to the Person, Office, Sovereignty, Power, or Privilege, Arms, &c. of the King, the late Happy Union of the Two Kingdoms has render'd them one and the same almost in England and Scotland; and therefore we beg Leave, for Brevity, to refer the Reader to what has been said upon the same Subject in the Account of England.

Dominions.] The ancient Dominions of the Kings of Scotland, consider'd as an Independant Country divided from England, extended over all that Tract of Land which reaches from the River Tweed to Carhoon, as has been already described; encompass'd on the West by the Irish Sea, on the North by the Deucaledonian, on the East by the German Ocean; together with all the Islands that encompass it to the West and to the North, which are of a considerable Extent, and would be of vast Advantage to the Inhabitants of Great-Britain, if they were improved as far as they are capable of Improvement.

Strength.] The great Power and Strength of Scotland may be seen by the Wars which for so many successive Ages they waged with the Romans, Saxons, Danes, and English; but tho' all the Subjects of Scotland be obliged to assist the Monarch in his Wars, yet a greater Enlargement of Power was added to that Foundation by Two Acts of Parliament. The Kingdom of Scotland offering the King to raise an Army of 20,000 Foot, and 2,000 Horse, and to furnish them with 40 Days Provisions, to march into any Part of Scotland, England and Ireland, or to be employed in any other Service: And these Forces, by another Act, were obliged to pay Obedience to all such Orders as should be given them by his Majesty's Privy-Council. And as they were thus strong by Land, their Naval Strength would soon have equalled it, were there a suitable Fund adapted to that Service, since they have all the necessary Materials for Shipping growing in their own Country, and Men and Provisions in great Plenty.

Patrimony.] The King's ancient Revenue consisted chiefly in Crown Lands, which could not be alienated but by Act of Parliament, and in the Wards and Marriages of those that held any thing of the Crown; but of late Years most of the former have been given away, and most of the Tenures of the latter changed, tho' there has been no general Law for taking away the Wards. The Revenues at this Day are raised and estimated as follows:

The Excise of Ale and Beer is 2 d. Sterling	} 50,000 00 00	l. s. d.

Arms.] The Ensigns Armorial of Anne, late Queen of Scotland, before the Union, were, Or, a Lion Rampant, Gules, Armed and Langued, Azure, with a double Tressure, Flowered and Counterflowered with Flowers-de-Lys of the Second, encircled with the Order of Scotland, the same being composed of Rue and Thistles, having the Image of St. Andrew with his Cross on his Breast; above the Shield a Helmet, answerable to his present Majesty's High Quality and Jurisdiction, with a Mantle, Or, doubled, Ermine, adorned with an Imperial Crown, beautified with Crosses Patée and Flowers-de-Lys, surmounted on the Top, for his Majesty's Crest, with a Lion Sejeant, full-faced, Gules, Crowned, Or, holding in his Dexter Paw a naked Sword Proper, and in the Sinister a Scepter, both erected Pale-ways, supported by two Unicorns, Argent, Crown'd with Imperial, and Gorged with open Crowns, to the last Chains affixed, passing between their Fore-Legs, and reflexed over their Backs, Or: He on the Dexter, embracing and bearing up a Banner of Cloth of Gold, charged with the Royal Arms of Scotland; and he on the Sinister, another Banner, Azure, charged with St. Andrew's Cross, Argent, both standing on a Compartment placed underneath, from which issue two Thistles, one towards each Side of the Escutcheon, and for his Majesty's Motto, in a Scroll above all, In Defence; and under, in the Table of the Compartment, Nemo me impune lacessit.

The Royal Badges and Ordinary Symbols of the Kingdom of Scotland are,

A Thistle of Gold Crowned.

The White Cross of St. Andrew in a Blue Field, the Standard bearing.

As to the Succession to the Crown of Scotland, Name, Title, Genealogy, &c. of the present Sovereign, Account of the Princes of the Blood, &c. the Reader is desired to consult the State of England upon the said several Heads.

C H A P. III.

Of the Government of the Church of Scotland.

THE Government of the Church of Scotland is Presbyterian, i. e. Kirk-Sessions, Bresbyteries, Provincial Synods, and General Assemblies. These Ecclesiastical Judicatures are composed of Deacons, Ruling Elders, and Ministers, who are all reputed as Ecclesiasticks in that Church.

[Deacons.] A Deacon is a Man of good Character for Manners and Understanding, who having a Competency in the World, is chosen by the Kirk-Session in every Parish, approved by the Congregation, and set apart by the Minister solemnly before the Congregation, after a Sermon and Prayer for the Occasion, for his Office, which is during Life, unless he misbehaves himself in the Performance of his Duty.

His Business is to collect the Offerings for the Poor at the Church Doors, when there is a Sermon, which is the only publick Way in Scotland of providing for the Poor: To enquire into the Necessities of the Parishioners, to visit and take an Account of the Condition of poor sick People: To acquaint the Kirk-Session with their Case; and to distribute to them as the Kirk-Session shall appoint; to assist at the Communion; to attend the Minister and Elders in the Visitation and Examination of his particular District: In Kirk-Sessions he has no Vote, only may give his Advice, if asked, except in Matters relating to the Poor: Nor has he any Stipend from the Parish.

[Ruling Elders.] A Ruling Elder should be a Man of a spotless Character, and of the principal Quality and Interest in his Parish. But no Persons of Quality ever sit in any Ecclesiastical Judicatories, unless they be Ruling Elders, their Quality otherwise giving them no Title to a Vote in those Courts.

He is chosen out of the Parish by the Kirk-Session. The Congregation approves of their Choice, after a Scrutiny first made into his Life and Manners: The Minister ordains him before the Congregation, after Sermon and Prayer on purpose: His Office is for Life, in Case of no Misdemeanor on his Part.

His Business is to assist the Minister in Overseeing and Correcting the Manners of the People: To attend him in Visiting and Catechising his own District in the Parish: In praying with the Sick: In private Admonitions, and at the Communion-Table

Table: He is a Member of the Kirk-Sessions, in which he has a Vote in all Business, and may be chosen to assist in any other Church Judicatories, and in all Matters of Government and Discipline, has an equal Vote with the Minister.

Ministers, or Preaching-Presbyters.] Their Office includes the Offices of Deacons and Ruling Elders. Besides, they only can Preach, Administer the Sacraments, Catechise, Pronounce Church-Censures, Ordain Deacons and Ruling Elders, assist at the Imposition of Hands upon other Ministers, and moderate or preside in all Ecclesiastical Judicatories.

Besides the Minister's Qualifications of Life and Manners, of which severe Scrutinies are always made, he ought to be competently Learned in the Scriptures, the Learned Languages, and all Sorts of Divinity. The Presbytery always tries him before he can be licensed to preach, in order to obtain a Call to be a Minister of any Parish; and usually in Scotland, all their Ministers have had Academick Education, and have commenced Masters in Arts.

None are ordained 'till they have obtained a Call to a particular Flock, which when obtained, they cannot desert without the Authority of a Presbytery, or some superior Judicatory.

Pluralities, Curacies, and Non-Residencies, are not practised in Scotland: To be guilty of the last, merits Deposition.

When a Parish wants a Minister, the Heretors and Elders, and in Royal Burghs the Magistrates, and Kirk-Session, and Heretors, choose a Probationer, i. e. one licensed by a Presbytery formerly to preach, or an ordained Minister, whom they please, to be their Pastor. Him they propose to the Presbytery, desiring them to appoint one of their Number to preach and preside among them: When the Call is to be signed in a publick Meeting, the Person to be called is then named to the Congregation, who approve, or disapprove, with giving Reasons, of which the Presbytery is the Final Judge.

If the Call be agreed to by the Congregation, the Minister present attests it by his Subscription in their Presence, and then reports it to the Presbytery, who acquaint the Person concerned with it as soon as possible. If the Call is accepted, and the Person not ordained, he again undergoes the same Trial which he did when he was made Probationer. If in the Trial he satisfies the Presbytery, they then issue out an Edict, i. e. an Order; that all who can object aught against this Nominee, should appear before the Presbytery, there to make good their Allegations.

If the Objections are of weight, or even doubtful, the Ordination is suspended, 'till a more perfect Trial, otherwise they proceed to Ordination.

Upon the Ordination-Day, a Fast is strictly kept to implore God's Blessing upon the Work they are about : The Moderator preaches upon the Nature and Dignity of the Ministerial Office, then examines the Person to be ordained, of his Faith and Assent to the Doctrine and Discipline of the Kirk, of the Motives of his coming into the Ministry, and whether by any indirect Means he has obtained that Call; of his Resolution to do his Duty faithfully in that Station, and to obey the several Judicatories of the Church in the Lord. Upon his answering to the Moderator's Satisfaction, the Parishioners are called upon to ratify their Choice by lifting up of their Hands. When that is done, the Moderator goes from the Pulpit into the Middle of the Church, and there he and the other Ministers then present, lay their Hands upon the Head of the Person that is to be ordained, and so ordain him Minister of the Gospel, and Pastor of that Congregation. The Ordination being over, the Elders, Heritors, and chief Parishioners, take their Minister by the Hand. If the Nominee had been ordained before, he is only recommended to the People with a suitable Sermon and Prayers by the Moderator, and the People take him by the Hand.

A Parish is bound to nominate in six Months after a Vacancy, otherwise the Presbytery fills the Place jure devoluto; but that Privilege does not hold in Royal Burghs.

The Stipend for Ministers, at the very lowest, should, by Act of Parliament, be 8 Chalders of Victual, or 800 Merks Scots; and the Stipend of the Ministers of Edinburgh was, 'till of late, 2500 Merks; but now it is enacted by the Town-Council of that City, that none, who shall hereafter become Minister there, shall have more than 2000 Merks, or 111 l. 2 s. 2 d. Sterling.

A Minister that enters upon his Charge before Whitsunday, has on that Day a Right to the whole Year's Stipend. If he enters between Whitsunday and Michaelmas, he has half, and his Predecessor, if translated, or deposed, has the other Half. But if his Predecessor serves 'till after Michaelmas, he hath the whole of that Year's Stipend.

The Widow, Children, and nearest Kin to the Defunct have a Right by Act of Parliament to an Annate, i. e. half a Year's Stipend over and above what was due for his Incumbency. So ex. gr. if he dies between Whitsunday and Michaelmas, half is due for Incumbency, and half for Annate. If after Michaelmas, there is a whole Year's Stipend for Incumbency, and half the next Year's Stipend for Annate; the Annate is equally divided between Widow and Children, and in default of both it goes to the nearest Kin. It is liable to pay no Debts, and cannot be devised by the Incumbent's Will or Assignment.

Kirk-Sessions.] In Scotland there are 890 Parishes, whereof 31 are Collegiate Churches, i. e. where the Cure is served served by more than one Minister. Every Parish is divided according to their Extent, into particular Districts, each of which has its own Elders and Deacons to oversee it. A Consistory of Ministers, Elders and Deacons, is called a Kirk-Session. This Consistory meets once a Week at least, to consider the Affairs of the Parish as a Religious Society. This is the lowest Ecclesiastical Judicatory in Scotland, and its Jurisdiction goes not beyond its own Parish. The Minister is always Moderator, but without a Negative; can call a Kirk-Session when he pleases, and, if at Home, is always bound to attend: If absent, the Elders and Deacons may meet about the Affairs of the Poor without him, and can give also Testimonials to any Parishioner that would remove; but Matters of Scandal they cannot meddle with; in that Case they must send to the Presbytery, to send them a Minister to hold a Kirk-Session during such Absence of their own Minister.

The Kirk-Session can judge in Matters of lesser Scandal; greater, such as Adultery, &c. are left to the Presbytery: They can suspend from the Lord's Supper for a Time: Their Consent in the Call of a Minister and Precentor (i. e. Parish Clerk) is necessary: They provide all Necessaries for the Communion: They regulate all Particulars relating to publick Worship, and give Notice of all Catechisings and Parochial Visitations. They have a Treasurer, who is chosen out of the Deacons, to keep and distribute the Poor's Money, which Distribution they direct. They keep two Registers, one of Births and Marriages, the other of their own Proceedings, which they must lay before the Presbytery. Appeals lie from them in all Cases to their own Presbytery, whom they are to contradict in nothing.

Presbyteries.] Scotland is divided into 69 Presbyteries, each of which consists of a Number not less than from 12 to 24 contiguous Parishes.

The Ministers of these Parishes, with one Ruling Elder chosen half Yearly out of every Kirk-Session, compose a Presbytery.

They meet in the head Town, from whence the Presbytery is denominated, as often as they please, and choose their Moderator, who must be a Minister, half Yearly; he is only their Prolocutor, and if he is absent, they choose another Moderator pro tempore. When immediate Business falls out within the Time of the Adjournment, the Moderator can summon a Presbytery to meet in the intermediate Time, as they call it, pro re nata. The adjacent Presbyteries usually send Correspondents to each other, who, upon producing their Commissions, have a Vote in the Presbyteries to which they are sent. By this Means they can ask Advice of each other in difficult Cases, and they can give an Account of their own Determinations in parallel ones.

In ordinary Meetings there is always a Presbyterial Exercise upon a Text of Scripture appointed for that Purpose, performed in the Church by one or two Ministers, whose Names and Texts, with the Presbyteries Approbation, is recorded, if their Performance be approved. The Members Names that meet are registred, and the Absenters marked, in order to be examined concerning the Reason of their Absence.

Presbyteries have no Jurisdiction beyond their own Bounds. They determine all Appeals from Kirk-Sessions, but can try nothing at the first Instance, which is cognizable before a Kirk-Session. They compose all Differences between Ministers and People, for which End they hold Presbyterial Visitations in every Parish, where they examine the Register of the Kirk-Sessions, and proceed accordingly to Censure, or Commend, as they find Cause.

They enquire into Repairs of Churches, and see that Glebes and Manfes suffer no Dilapidations: They appoint Schools in all Parishes, and see that the Funds settled by Act of Parliament for that Purpose be not misemployed: And the School-Masters are subject to their Censure and Examination.

They only can inflict the greater Excommunication, i. e. absolute Prohibition of the Communion of the Lord's Supper: They license Probationers, interpose in all Calls and Ordinations of Ministers to different Parishes, suspend and depose them, and, in short, determine Ecclesiastical Matters of all Sorts within their Bounds, but so as not to contravene any Act of Parliament. There lies an Appeal from the Presbyteries in all Cases to Provincial Synods. Before they inflict privy Censures they observe a Fast. In these privy Censures every Minister withdraws by Turns, and the Moderator enquires of the rest concerning his Conduct; and according to the Report, they are called in and commended and encouraged, or censured. All Ecclesiastical Judicatories begin, adjourn, and dissolve themselves by Prayer.

Provincial Synods. These Synods are composed of several adjacent Presbyteries, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, or 8. There are 15 of them in the Kingdom.

The Members that constitute this Synod, are the same with those of the subordinate Presbyteries, viz. the Ministers and a Ruling Elder out of every Parish.

This Synod meets twice a Year, at the principal Town of its Bounds, and is opened by a Sermon preached by the preceding Moderator, whose Name and Text is registred. They choose a Moderator every ordinary Session, who is their Prolocutor without a Negative. They send to and receive Correspondents from the neighbouring Synods, as the several Presbyteries did before between one another, upon whom in every thing they are a Check, Appeals lying to them from Presbyteries, Presbyteries in all Cases whatsoever. If the Plurality of the Presbytery desire it, the Moderator can call an Intermediate Session pro re nata. Presbyteries are subject to the privy Censures of the Synods, as Ministers are to the privy Censures of Presbyteries. At every ordinary Session a Diet is appointed; i. e. one certain Time, in which these privy Censures are performed. All the Acts of the Synods are subject to the Review of General Assemblies; for which Reason they keep exact Registers of all their Proceedings.

General Assemblies.] The General Assembly is the Dernier Resort of the Church of Scotland; to which Appeals lie from every Provincial Synod, and from which no Appeal lies to any Superior Court.

It consists of Commissioners from Presbyteries, Royal Burghs, and Universities. A Presbytery, consisting of under 12 Ministers, sends two Ministers and one Ruling Elder. If it contains between 12 and 18 Ministers, it sends three, and one Ruling Elder. If it contains between 18 and 24 Ministers, it sends four Ministers, and two Ruling Elders. But if the Presbytery has 24 Ministers, it sends five Ministers and two Ruling Elders. Every Royal Burgh sends one Ruling Elder, and Edinburgh two, whose Election must be attested by the respective Kirk-Session of their own Burghs. Every University sends one Commissioner, usually a Minister of their own Body. The Commissioners are chosen yearly, six Weeks before the Meeting of the Assembly. The Ruling Elders are usually of the first Quality of the Country.

This Assembly meets once a Year, and for the most part at Edinburgh. The Sovereign, or his Commissioner, is always present, but gives no Vote. Upon the Day appointed, the preceding Moderator makes a Sermon before the King's Commissioner and the Members. Sermon ended, they go to the Assembly-House, where the Commissioner being upon the Throne, they proceed to choose a Moderator. The Election is managed thus: The last Moderator nominates two or three Ministers, to whom the Assembly adds whom they please. The Nominees are said be upon the List. Every Man upon the List gives his Vote and withdraws: Then the Assembly votes, and he that has the Majority is chosen, and takes the Chair at the Foot of the Throne.

The Moderator being chose, the Commissioner produces his Commission, empowering him to sit there, with his Majesty's Letter to the Assembly; both which are read by the Clerk, all the Members standing. The Commissioner then makes a Speech, which is answer'd by the Moderator; and then Committees are appointed. This closes the first Day. Next Day is set apart for Prayers; the Commissioner certainly attends that Day. The Moderator nominates 8 or 9 successively to pray; after which the Assembly adjourns. Next Day they fall to Business. The Moderator has no Negative; he only sums up the Debates, and puts the Question. The first Business is always to answer the King's Letters; which is done by a Committee, whose Draught is read and examined, and alter'd, if Need be, and then approved finally by the House. Then the Moderator signs it in their Presence, and delivers it to the Commissioner, who sends it away to his Majesty. Though the Business is usually done by Committees, yet any Member may propose what he pleases in the Assembly. When a Motion is made, or any Business is brought in by a Committee, the Moderator names two or three of the most eminent Members to speak to it; after whom any Member may speak that pleases. When the Debate is over, it is put to the Vote, and carried, Agree, or Disagree, by the Majority.

Matters of great Weight, that bind the whole Church, are first brought in by way of Overtures, and then debated in the House; after which, if approved, they are transmitted to every Presbytery in Scotland, who return their Answers by their Commissioners to the next Assembly, who, according as they find them approved by the Presbyteries, pass them into Acts of Assembly, or reject them.

Once every Assembly a Dyet is appointed, to inspect the Acts of the Provincial Synods, as they had before inspected the Proceedings of the Presbyteries. Before they arise, they nominate a Standing Commission of Ministers and Ruling Elders, chosen out of every Synod to attend the Affairs of the Church till the next Assembly meets. Of these, 21 is a Quorum, of whom 15 must be Ministers. The Moderator of the Assemblies moderates in the Commission, if present. They are obliged to sit the first Week of every Quarter all Parliament-time, [but now there are no Parliaments,] and as often else as they shall think fit. They have the Power of an Assembly in all Matters referred to them from it; regularly they can act in nothing but what is recommended from the Assembly, but then that Recommendation often includes a General Clause, empowering them to act in every thing that may be for the Good of the Church. They are accountable to the next General Assembly, and therefore keep a Register of their Proceedings.

When the Assembly are to rise, the Moderator tells them, that it is Time to dissolve themselves, and appoint another Assembly in the Name of their Master, the Lord Jesus Christ: Then he speaks to the Commissioner in the Name of the Assembly, who returns an Answer, and then dissolves them in the King's Name, and fixes Time and Place of the New Assembly, which is always to be within a Year and a Day after the Dissolution of the Old one. The Moderator then prays, and the Assembly sings a Psalm, after which the Moderator blesses them, and they arise.

Parochial Examinations and Catechising. Before every Communion the Minister visits and examines every Family in his Parish, once at least; of this, the Lord's-Day preceding. Notice is given, that every District may know when he intends to visit them. He is accompany'd with the Ruling Elder and Deacon of the particular District, and carries a Register-Book with him, in which the Names of all the examinable Persons are entered. When he comes into any Family, he asks what Addition or Diminution there is since he was there last: If any Addition, he desires the New-comer to produce his Testimonial of Life and Manners from the last Place of his Abode, without which, by several Assembly-Acts, no Man can be admitted as a Member of any Congregation. Upon producing such a Certificate, his Name is registered: Upon failing, he is commanded to procure one, else he can be no Member of that Kirk. To live six Weeks in a Parish makes a Man a Parishioner, after which, if he leaves it, he must get a Certificate of his good Behaviour, signed by the Minister, or Kirk-Session Clerk, in the Name, and with the Consent of the Kirk-Session. If the New-comer only removes from another Family in the Parish, his Name is transferred in the Register (or, as they call it, the Examination-Book) to its proper Place. Then he marks the Children, and enters them in his Examination-Book, if they are of a fit Age. He then exhorts every one to a strict Observance of their respective Duties, and particularly to Family Prayer, Reading the Scriptures, and Singing of Psalms. To omit Family Prayer is esteemed very scandalous; and the Omission of it is often punished with Excommunication. At Parting the Minister usually prays with every Family.

Visitation being over, the Minister gives Notice when he will examine the Persons marked in his Book. Every District comes to Church by themselves at the Time appointed, and the Minister, accompany'd with the Elder and Deacon of that District, examines them in order as they stand in the Examination-Book. He examines them out of the Shorter Catechism, and if the Person answers, he catechises upon these Questions, and instructs them in what is difficult. He marks also at every one's Name how they Answer. Adults, who have been often examined, are not catechised, when they are found to be sufficiently knowing; this Exercise being chiefly intended for Children and ignorant Persons.

Preaching and Publick Worship.] Every Lord's-Day there is Publick Worship twice in every Parish-Church in Scotland, the Method of which is this:

In the Morning, about 10 o'Clock, the Congregation meets, and when the Minister is come, a Psalm is sung, which is read and tuned by the Precentor; after which, the Minister prays, and then reads a Chapter or two out of the Bible, which he expounds for about half an Hour; this is called Lecturing; then another Psalm is sung, and then another Prayer; after which Sermon begins, which ended, there is another Prayer, and another Psalm, and then all is concluded with the Minister's Blessing. Service is usually done by a Quarter after Twelve.

In the Afternoon they meet about Two: The Order is the same as in the Morning, only there is no Lecturing. The Afternoon Sermon ought to be about some Question in the Shorter Catechism.

In most of the Royal Burghs and Towns there is once a Week a Week-day Sermon besides: In Villages only once a Fortnight, and in some Places only in Summer-time. They use no Instrumental Musick, nor have they any Forms of Prayer: But in the Directory the Lord's Prayer is recommended to be used, and general Rules are there set down for Prayer, Preaching, Singing, and Administration of the Sacraments.

Baptism.] This Sacrament is Administred by none but the Minister, who does it by sprinkling only, not Immersion; whether it be administred at Church or at Home, there is always a Sermon before it. The Father, if he lies under no publick Scandal, and in his Absence, some reputable Neighbours presents the Infant to the Minister, who asks the Parent, if he desires the Child shall be received into the visible Church, and receive the Signs and Seals of the Covenant of Grace by Baptism? Upon his answering Yea, the Minister discourses concerning the Nature of Baptism, commands the Parent and the Congregation to stick to their Baptifmal Vows, bids the Parent educate his Child in the Fear, Nurture and Admonition of the Lord, and adhere to the Protestant Religion as contained in the Scriptures, the Confession of Faith, and the Shorter and Larger Catechism. This being promised by the Parent or Presenter, the Minister craves a Blessing upon the Ordinance, and sprinkles a little Water on the Child's Face, in the Name of the Father, the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Lord's Supper.] Some Time before the Lord's-Supper is administred, the Congregation is to have Notice of it from the Pulpit. The Week before, the Kirk-Session meets, and draws up a List of all the Communicants in the Parish, according to the Minister's Examination-Book, and the Testimony of the Elders and Deacons. According to this List, Tickets are given out to the Elders to give to the Communicants, if required: The Minister and Elders give Tickets also to Strangers who bring sufficient Testimonials; and none are ever allowed to communicate without such Tickets, which are produced at the Table. Those that never received, are instructed by the Minister, severally and by themselves, in the Nature of the Sacraments, and taught what is the proper Preparation thereunto.

The Communion is always celebrated upon the Lord's Day: The Wednesday or Thursday before there is a solemn Fast, and on the Saturday there are two preparatory Sermons. On

On Sunday Morning, after Singing and Prayer as usual, the Minister of the Parish preaches a suitable Sermon; and when the ordinary Worship is ended, he, in the Name of Jesus Christ, forbids the Unworthy to approach, and invites the Penitent to come and receive the Sacrament. Then he goes into the Body of the Church, where one or two Tables, according to its Wideness, are placed, reaching from one End to the other, covered with a white Linnen Cloth, and Seats on both Sides for the Communicants. The Minister places himself at the Middle or End of the Table, on which the Elements are plac'd. After a short Discourse, he reads the Institution, and blesses the Elements. Then he breaks the Bread, and distributes it and the Wine to those that are next him, who transmit them to their Neighbours; the Elders and Deacons attending to serve, and to see that Things are done decently and in Order. Whilst these receive, the Ministers discourse concerning the Nature of this Sacrament. When the first Company has received, they withdraw, and others take their Places; and whilst the Companies are sitting, a Psalm is sung, and so they continue 'till all have communicated. The Minister then returns to the Pulpit, and discourses concerning the particular Cases of Communicants; and with Thanksgiving and singing of Psalms the Morning Service is concluded. Then the Congregation are dismissed for an Hour, and so meet again, when they have the usual Afternoon-Worship; and on Monday about Nine o'Clock in the Morning, there is publick Worship and two Sermons, which close the whole.

On these Occasions the Parish-Minister is assisted by two or three of his Neighbours, and seldom preaches oftener than the Morning of the Sacrament-Day. There are no private Communions allowed in Scotland.

Holy-days.] No Holy-days are observed in Scotland besides the Lord's-day, which is observed with great Exactness. Fasts and Thanksgivings they likewise observe; in the appointing of which, though they attribute a Power to the Church, yet they generally have the Sanction of his Majesty's Privy-Council, that they may be the more religiously kept.

Marriages.] Marriage is solemnized by the Minister. None can marry that are nearer than Cousin-Germans; and prohibited Degrees in Blood, hold also in Affinity. Banns are always asked three several Lord's-days in Churches where both Parties live, before Marriage can be contracted; and the Minister that marries any Persons, ought to have sufficient Proof that Banns have been already proclaimed.

The Form of Matrimony is not unlike that used in the Church of England. The Minister first prays, then discourses upon the Institution, Use and Ends of Marriage, and the Duty either Party owes to other; after that he asks the Congregation if they have aught to object, and charges the Persons to be be married, to declare before the Great God, if they know of any legal Impediment why they should not be lawfully married. If no Impediment be acknowledged, the Minister commands them to join Hands, the Man saying, I A, do take thee B, to be my married Wife; and I do, in the Presence of God, and before these his People, promise to be a Loving and Faithful Husband unto thee, until God shall separate us by Death. And the Woman saying, I A, do take thee B, to be my married Husband; and I do, in the Presence of God, and before these his People, promise to be a Loving, Faithful and Obedient Wife unto thee, until God shall separate us by Death. Then the Minister pronounces them to be Man and Wife, and concludes all with a Prayer.

Probationer.] No Man can lawfully Preach in Scotland, unless he be licensed by a Presbytery so to do: And such Licence they rarely give to a Student in Divinity, unless he has first been admitted to Trials.

When a Student in Divinity brings a Certificate from a Professor in an University, of his having performed his Exercises to Approbation, and of his Manners, he is immediately tried by the Presbytery. Otherwise, if he has not studied at an University, they appoint a Committee to try him before they try him by themselves.

The Trials of Probationers are Private before a Presbytery, and Publick before a Congregation, the Presbytery being present. The private Trials are a Homily or two, and an Exegesis, i. e. a Theological Subject is given in to the Presbytery in Theses, and the Probationer answers any Objection which any Minister in the Presbytery makes against those Theses. They examine in the Languages, and in Ecclesiastical History, and they put what Extempore Questions to him they please. The publick Trials are a Popular Sermon, and an Exercise and Addition, i. e. a Text is handled half an Hour logically and critically, and for half an Hour more practically. If in all these he approves himself to the Satisfaction of the Presbytery, he signs the Confession of Faith, and owns the Presbyterian Government to be the only Government of the Church within Scotland, and promises Obedience to the Judicatories of the Kirk; after which the Presbytery give him a Licence to preach.

Tho' a Probationer may immediately after his Licence accept a Call to be a Minister of a Parish, yet it is usual to stay a Year before he is Ordained, and in the mean Time he can only preach and pray; but has no publick Maintenance, nor can he administer any Sacrament.

Protestant Dissenters.] They are chiefly the Episcopalians. The rest for Numbers and Interest are very inconsiderable. These are either Lay or Ecclesiastical. Lay Episcopalians enjoy also the same civil Privileges with the establish'd Church: They

They are under no Restrictions, are obliged to no Tests; but are employed in all Places of Trust, either Civil or Military, only taking the Oaths to the Government.

Episcopal Ministers, since the abolishing Episcopal Government in Scotland, were for some Time past liable to several Penal Laws, and were frequently disturbed and interrupted in their Religious Assemblies, and their Ministers prosecuted for reading the English Service in their Congregations, and for administering the Sacraments according to the Form and Manner prescribed in the Liturgy of the Church of England; which the Parliament of Great-Britain taking into their serious Consideration, to prevent such Disorders, and preserve the publick Peace, in the tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Enacted, That for the Time to come, it shall be free and lawful for all those of the Episcopal Communion, in that Part Great-Britain called Scotland, to meet and assemble for the Exercise of Divine Worship, to be performed after their Manner, by Pastors ordained by a Protestant Bishop, and to use in their Congregations the Liturgy of the Church of England, without any Let, Hindrance, or Disturbance from any Person whatsoever, in any Town or Place, except Parish-Churches, within the Extent and Jurisdiction of that Part of Great-Britain called Scotland; and also to baptize Children, and solemnize Marriages, under certain Restrictions, Limitations and Qualifications, in the said Act mentioned, and required. Vide the Act.

Method of Discipline.] The Discipline of the Church is regulated by two Assembly Acts; one dated April 4, 1705; in which it is Enacted, That in Cases of gross Scandal, where the Persons guilty appear oftner than once before the Congregation, the Kirk-Session shall declare to them, that they are unworthy of the Communion, or command them, penitent or not, to appear in Publick, to be rebuked for their Sin, according to St. Paul's Command, 1 Tim. v. 20. After such Rebuke, the Ministers and Elders shall instruct them in the Heinousness of their Sins; and when they are satisfied that these Offenders are truly penitent, shall admit them to a publick Profession of their Repentance, in order to Absolution. If they continue impenitent, the Kirk-Session shall consult its own Presbytery, who, if they see Cause, shall command the Sentence of lesser Excommunication to be denounced against them before the Congregation, which shall continue 'till the Sessions are satisfied of their Amendment. And this Sentence is to be intimated the Lord's-Day next before the Administration of the Sacrament.

The other Assembly-Act bears Date April 18, 1717. In that the whole Form of Process, with relation to Scandals, Censures, and Absolutions, is set down.

Nothing

Nothing shall be esteemed scandalous, but what is accounted so by the Word of God, or by some Act of universal Custom of the Church of Scotland agreeable thereunto. If a Scandal is not notified in five Years, it shall not be revived so as to form a Process there anent, unless it becomes again flagrant; but in such Cases the Consciences of the Offenders ought to be dealt with in private, to bring them to a Sense of their Sin and Duty.

All Church Judicatories have Power to convene, examine and censure every Person within their own Bounds, in all Ecclesiastical Causes cognizable before every such Judicatory.

Persons living without the Bounds of any Judicatory, shall not, for Order-sake, be cited by them, but they shall desire the Judicatory, under whom such Persons live, to cause him to appear before the Judicatory, before whom the Cause is to be examined.

Ministers are not subject to their own Kirk-Sessions, but to the Superior Judicatories of the Church.

When Scandals arise, the Minister ought first to be consulted, that so private Admonition may be used according to St. Matthew, xviii. 15. in order to gain the Offender, and so prevent the spreading of the Scandal, by which he may be hardened, and Religion dishonoured.

In Causes where Persons or Parties are concerned, the Court must first give them a legal and timely Citation in Writing, setting forth the Causes, either at the Instance of the Complainant, or by Order of the Court. If the Person resides in the Parish, 48 Hours Notice is sufficient, and then the Officer must certify his proper Execution of the Summons, by calling the Party at his Door. This the Presbyteries and the Superior Judicatories are very carefully to observe.

No Man is to be declared contumacious till he has been three times cited, either personally, or at his Dwelling-house, if the Cause be tried at the first Instance. But if it be in the Case of a Reference or Appeal, where the Person had actually appeared already before an inferior Court, a Citation apud Acta to appear before his Superior, is sufficient if it be minuted; and if instructed, infers Contumacy if not obeyed.

Though in these Cases a Man may forthwith be denounced contumacious upon his Non-appearance, and not producing any Relevant (i. e. sufficient Excuse) yet the Court is advised to examine and try the Cause, either by Witnesses upon Oath, or otherwise, before they pronounce the Person cited contumacious.

If the Party appear, the Moderator is to acquaint him with the Cause, and to give him, if desired, a Note of the Cause, and the Witnesses that are to be made use of.

In Processes, where there is no formal Complainant, there is no need of Accusers or Informers, but the Party cited is peremptorily to answer the Questions put to him by the Court; but then if he be acquitted, the Court, whether he require it or not, ought to censure the Informers for Calumny or Impudence.

When Witnesses are to be examined, the Defender ought to have a List of their Names some Time before his Appearance, or then at least. They ought also to have timely Notice, that they may appear and give their Evidence. Upon their Refusal to appear after three Summons, they may be proceeded against as contumacious, and Application may be made to the Civil Magistrate to oblige them to appear.

Before the Witnesses can be judicially examined, the Party accused is to be called, and the Relevancy of the Libel (i. e. what he can object in his own Vindication) discussed. If the Court thinks the Objections to be relevant, the Witnesses are to be cast. An Informer may be Witness where he does not formally complain for his own Interest, or where there are no pregnant Presumptions of Malice in the Accusation.

Witnesses, even where there is no relevant Objection, must purge themselves of Malice, Bribe, good Deed done or to be done, and partial Counsel.

Witnesses are to be sworn and examined before the Moderator, and the Person accused; and if he appears, the Person may desire to have the Witnesses cross-examined, when they have given in all their Evidence.

Before the Proof is made, the Person accused may offer Grounds of Exculpation, i. e. may bring Witnesses to clear his Innocence, which, if he insists upon, must be allowed. If the Exculpation be fully proved, ex. gr. if the Libel be special as to Time and Place, and he can evidently prove himself to have been elsewhere at that Time, he must be acquitted. But after Depositions are once taken, there is no room for Exculpation.

Witnesses must subscribe all their Depositions either at Length, if they can write; and if they cannot, the Moderator subscribes for them.

Depositions being taken, the Parties withdraw, and the Matter is calmly debated by the Presbytery alone by themselves.

Fugitives, whilst Process is depending, must first be cited to appear from the Pulpits of their proper Parishes, then from the Pulpits in every Parish in the Presbytery: If they do not at last appear, they are to be declared Fugitives from Church Discipline, and that Declaration must be intimated in all the Bounds of the Presbytery; and Process is to stop 'till Notice can be got of those Persons.

In Cases of Drunkenness, Disobedience to Parents, Sabbath-breaking, Swearing, Cursing, Scolding, Fighting, Lying, Cheating, of Stealing, the Persons Guilty are ordinarily admonished in Private only, for the first Offence.
or

For the second Offence they ought to be judicially rebuked by the Session, and on Promise of Amendment, there they are to stop. If no Amendment follows, the Kirk-Session ought to proceed to the Sentence of Lesser Excommunication, under which the censured Persons are to lie 'till Amendment appears.

If the guilty Person lying under this Sentence neglects to take it off, and still relapses into the Vices for which he is censured, it may be constructed to be such a Degree of Contumacy as may merit the greater Excommunication, which may accordingly be inflicted or not, as shall be judged convenient.

In Cases of Uncleannefs, where there is no Child, the Kirk-Session ought to be very cautious how they admit a publick Process without good Warrant, unless the Scandal be very flagrant.

If a marry'd Woman, whose Husband has been known to have been absent longer than Women go with Child, be with Child, it may give Ground for the Kirk Session to proceed against her; but then, in such Case, they ought to act prudently, and to enquire into her former and present Fame.

If an unmarried Woman be with Child, the Kirk-Session ought to proceed against her; and if she will not declare the Father, they may pronounce her Contumacious. If she does declare the Father, the Session may deal with him privately, if they judge it for Edification, to bring him to an Acknowledgment of his Crime.

When the delated Father, i. e. the Man whom the Woman chargeth, appears, he is examin'd, and if he denies, is confronted with the Woman, and treated with Meekness privately, to bring him to confess: If he persists, the Presumptions are carefully weigh'd; and if he cannot clear himself, the Court are to exhort him to be publicly rebuk'd therefore. If he will not submit to that, it is advised that a Narrative of the Case be laid before the Congregation, and that Process should stop without proceeding to higher Excommunication. But if he requires it, he may purge himself by Oath, of his not having any carnal Knowledge with the Woman who accuses him; and this Oath the Presbytery may admit, if they shall judge it to be for Edification and removing of the Scandal. But the Presbytery are advised to act with great Caution in this Matter, and never to press any Man to take such an Oath, and never to accept it, but when Presumptions create such Jealousy, that nothing less than the Man's Oath of Purgation shall remove the Scandal, and even then, the Session is never to give this Oath, but by Advice of the Presbytery.

This

This Oath may be taken before either the Kirk-Sessions, the Presbytery, or the Congregation, as the Presbytery shall determine : And if it be taken before the Session of Presbytery, the Congregation must be publickly acquainted with it, that so the Person accused may be declared free from the alledged Scandal.

When this is done, the Woman is to be press'd to declare the true Father ; and if she will name no Body else, she is to be censured according to the Quality of her Offence, without naming the Person whom she before delated.

If a Woman with Child declares she knows not the Father, but was forced in a lonely Place, her former Behaviour must be examined, and if her Character has been clear, she may, by the Consent of the Presbytery, clear herself as if she were upon Oath ; if she owns she was not forced, but knows not whether the Man was married, or unmarried, she shall be censured as in Case of Adultery.

If a Person voluntarily confesses Uncleaness, where there is no Child, the Session must proceed warily, and examine the Presumptions carefully, and enquire whether any By-End might not move the Person to make that Confession. And if there appear no Grounds for the Confession, the Person confessing is to be censured for defaming himself, and slandering his Neighbour ; and the Civil Magistrate is further to be desired to proceed against him according to Law.

When the Persons concerned in an Accusation of Uncleaness live in different Parishes, Censures are to be pass'd where the Woman lives, or where the Scandal is notorious.

If the Scandal is committed where neither Party resides, as at a Fair, or Market, Process is to go out where the Persons abide, unless that be at a great Distance, and the Scandal be greatest in the Place where it was committed.

The Session where the Scandal is committed, are to acquaint the Session where the Parties reside of the Process, and they are obliged to require the Parties to appear before that Session where that Scandal is to be tried.

If the Censure of Lesser Excommunication be inflicted upon a Man, in a foreign Session, where he does not live, it is enough that upon Notice, which must always be given, the Censure be intimated in his own Parish.

If a Man be absolved in a foreign Session, he must bring a Testimonial of his Absolution, and cause it to be intimated in the Congregation where he lives, if the Scandal has been also flagrant there : Otherwise Intimation to the Session will be sufficient.

All Persons that think themselves injured by a Sentence of a Kirk-Session, may appeal to the Presbytery of the Bounds : But this must be done when Sentence is pass'd ; the Appellant must must give in his Appeal with his Reasons to the Clerk of the Session, and within ten Days to the Presbytery: If at the Time of Hearing, the Appellant fails, the Appeal ipso facto becomes Null, and the Appellant is to be proceeded against as contumacious by the Kirk-Session.

If the Matter of the Appeal be of such a Nature as would in Course of Discipline have come to the Presbytery before it could have been finally determined, they may, to save themselves Time, fall immediately upon the Merits of the Cause, without concerning themselves whether the Appeal be rightly made or not.

But if it is a Cause determinable by a Kirk-Session, and they have proceeded regularly, the Presbytery ought not to accept of the Appeal.

If the Presbytery refuse the Appeal, and find that the Appellant was too blame to make his Appeal, they are to inflict some Censure upon him as a Punishment for making that unnecessary Appeal, and to send him back to the Kirk-Session, that he may abide by what they do, or have done already.

If they accept the Appeal, and in the Course of the Process find the Appellant censurable, let the Censure of the Original Scandal be what it will, yet he ought to be Censured for Appealing, either before the Kirk-Session, or the Congregation he belongs to, that so Presbyteries may not be burthened with Appeals.

But if the Presbytery find that the Kirk-Session have wronged the Appellant, either by encreasing the Scandal, or censuring without Cause, they are to acquit the Appellant, and to take Care that his Innocence be cleared in the Place where he has been injured. But this is to be done with great Prudence, that so whilst they clear the Innocent, they may not weaken the Authority of the Kirk-Session with their Congregation, if they can help it.

Upon such an Emergency, the Presbytery may give the Kirk-Session Instructions, and private Admonitions, and may visit their Session Register.

The same Method is to be used in Appeals from Presbyteries to Synods, and from Synods to Assemblies.

An Appeal being made, the Execution of the Sentence appealed from, is to stop 'till the Matter be discussed by the Court appealed to, or 'till they throw it out.

Cases of Incest, Adultery, Relapse in Fornication, Murder, Atheism, Idolatry, Witchcraft, Charming, Heresy, or Error publickly vented, Schism, and some others, though they properly begin at the Kirk-Session, yet are not determined there. But the Kirk-Session, if they find Ground for a Process, persuade the accused Person to satisfy the Church by Confession, which when done, they send an Extract of what they have done to the Presbytery.

If

If there be no Confession, the Kirk-Session are not to examine into the Merits of the Cause 'till the Presbytery commands it. When by the Presbytery's Order they examine the Matter, their Examinations are to be laid before the Presbytery, who then may inflict what Censure they please.

If the Persons accused acknowledge their Faults, and express Sorrow for their Offence before the Presbytery, they are then to determine the Censure, and to appoint Time and Place in which they are to profess their Repentance, which ought to be where the Process began; that Scandal there given may be removed: Or else they may remit them to the Session, to receive Orders from them.

Scandals ought to be removed in the Congregations where they have been most flagrant. But tho' the Kirk-Session may be apply'd to for a Relaxation, yet no Absolution ought in these Cases to be granted, but by Advice and Order of the Presbytery.

Processes against Ministers begin always before their Presbyteries, and never before the Kirk-Session of their own Parishes.

Presbyteries are carefully to consider how Complaints arise against Ministers, and they ought not to receive any Informations, unless either the Informer engages under his Hand to make the Libel good, on Pain of being censured otherwise as a Slanderer, or the publick Cry be so great, that they are obliged to begin the Process without any particular Accuser.

When a Process is to be begun, the Presbytery are first to consider the Libel, and the Witnesses who are to prove it; then they must cite the Person accused, either personally, or at his Dwelling-House; and they are to allow him ten Days at least to justify himself. When the Day of Trial comes, if he appears, they are to read the Libel to him, and he is exhorted to give in his Answer, which the Presbytery is to discuss. If they find Cause to insist, they are to admonish him to glorify God by an ingenuous Confession. If he confesses, and the Matter be gross, and such as ought to be censured in another Man, let him appear never so penitent, the Presbytery are instantly to deprive him, and to appoint him a Time in which he is publickly to profess his Repentance before his own Congregation.

But if he absents, he is to be cited again by his own Church when the Congregation is met, and then if he continues contumacious, and makes no relevant Excuse, he is to be holden as confess'd, and to be deposed and censured instantly with the Lesser Excommunication. And if still he appears not, the Judiciary may proceed to Greater Excommunication, if they see Cause.

If he appears, and denies the Fact, the Presbytery are to examine the Witnesses, and to hear what he can object against their Depositions. He may hear the Examination, and cross interrogate, but with Modesty: The Reputation of the Witnesses ought also to be enquired into; and then if the Judicatory thinks the Scandal is sufficiently proved, they are to proceed to Deprivation, as above.

If the Accusation relate to Practices destructive of the Peace and Unity of the Church, or to false Doctrine, the Presbytery are diligently to enquire into the Understanding and Knowledge of the Witnesses: If the Errors be not gross, and not pertinaciously adhered to, they ought mildly to endeavour to reclaim without cutting off, and if the Matter will admit of Delay, they may advise with their Synod, or the General Assembly.

When Complaints are made for many small Things, such as Acts of Negligence, and the like put together, the Presbytery are to visit that Parish presbyterially, and there enquire whether any of these Things were committed before their last Visitation; and if they were, whether Information was then made of them; and if no Information was then made, why it was made now? But if the Offences were committed since the last Visitation, then the Presbytery is to enquire whether the Minister has been acquainted with them, and whether he has given Offence that Way, since he knew Offence had been taken. They should enquire also, whether any neighbour Ministers had been prudently and privately informed of these Offences before they came to be so many and so publick, and they are to judge accordingly.

If upon Trial it be found that these Offences have proceeded from Infirmary, or Passion, they are with all possible Circumspection to endeavour to satisfy and reclaim both Minister and People, and do away the Offence.

When a Minister is deposed, the Sentence ought to be intimated in the Congregation, and the Church declared vacant; and they ought to put another Minister into it forthwith, it being almost impossible that he should do any good there for the future. Nor is he again to be restored to the Exercise of his Ministry, 'till he has given full and long Proofs of the Sincerity of his Repentance.

The last Sentence which the Church inflicts upon the most obstinate Offenders, is the Greater Excommunication: That is, the Expulsion of the Offender from the Communion of the Faithful, a debarring him from all the Privileges of Church Membership, and, in the Words of the Apostle, a Delivery of him over to Satan.

This Sentence is ordinarily executed upon none but those that obstinately continue in manifest Contumacy, unless where the the Scandal is notorious and horrible, and that to shew the Church's Abhorrence of such Wickedness.

In ordinary Cases the Lesser Excommunication only is inflicted; and then before the Kirk-Session executes it, they lay a full Account of the Cause in Writing before the Presbytery, that they may be thoroughly apprised of the whole Matter. If the Presbytery finds that the Kirk-Session has proceeded regularly, and that the Lesser Excommunication is not sufficient, they cite the scandalous Person by their own Officer. If he appears, and denies the Accusation, they examine Witnesses, as in other Cases. If he appears not, and contemns the Citation, they order him to be cited three times, and after that, another Time out of the Pulpit; and Intimation is made that the Judicatory will proceed and enquire into the Cause, even though the Delinquent be absent.

When this is done, the Minister of the Parish where the scandalous Person lives, does by the Presbytery's Order acquaint the Congregation with the Steps which the Kirk-Session and the Presbytery have taken in that Affair, and with the Offenders Contumacy; and (if present) the Minister admonishes him to repent and submit to the Church-Discipline, threatening him otherwise with Excommunication. This Admonition is to be repeated three times, and the Presbytery are to meet between every Admonition. If he still continues obstinate, the Presbytery commands publick Prayers to be put up for him three several Sabbath-Days, the Presbytery also meeting between each publick Prayer, both to shew their Tenderness towards their relapsed Brother, and to strike a Terror of this dreadful Sentence into the People.

If then after all this the Offender continues still impenitent, the Presbytery passes Sentence, and commands the Minister to publish it upon some Sunday which they shall name. When the Day comes, the Minister either in a Sermon on Purpose, or after Sermon, acquaints the People with the whole Process, and desires them to join with him in Prayer, that God would bless his own Ordinance for their Edification, and for the reclaiming the obstinate Sinner. He then, with great Gravity and Authority, pronounces the Censure in the Name and by the Power of our Lord and Master Jesus Christ. But if any Time before the Sentence passes, the Offender expresses Signs of Repentance, the Minister may delay to pronounce Sentence, and lay this Matter before the Presbytery, who may proceed farther as they shall see Cause.

Sentence being passed, the People are exhorted not to hold unnecessary Communication with this Man, though Excommunication dissolves no civil or natural Rights, nor does it exempt from the Duties belonging to them.

If when all this is done, it be found ineffectual for the Purposes thereby intended, the Civil Magistrate ought to be desired to use his coercive Power to suppress all such Offences, and to vindicate the Discipline of the Church from Contempt.

The End of Church-Censures being the Repentance of the Sinner, if he shews real Signs of godly Sorrow; and if, upon Application to the Presbytery first made, they give a Warrant for his Absolution, he is to be brought before the Congregation, and there confess his Sin, and express his Sorrow for it. This is to be repeated as often as the Presbytery and Kirk-Session shall judge convenient. When the Congregation is thus satisfied of his Repentance, the Minister is, in a Prayer with the Congregation, to desire our Lord Jesus Christ, who has instituted the Ordinance of Excommunication, i. e. of Binding and Loosing the Sins of Men upon Earth, with a Promise of ratifying above the rightful Sentence that shall be passed here below, to accept of this Man's Repentance, to forgive his former Disobedience, and to assist him with his Spirit, that he may never again relapse into the like Offences. And then Prayer being ended, he pronounces the Sentence of Absolution, by which he wholly takes off the former Sentence, and receives him into the Communion of the Church, and the free Use of all the Ordinances of Christ. Sentence being passed, the Minister exhorts him as a Brother to Perseverance in his godly Resolution, the Elders embrace him, and the Congregation thence-forward communicate with him as a Member of their own Body; and where-ever the Sentence of Excommunication had been published, the Sentence of Absolution is also expressly intimated.

In all Matters of Church-Discipline there never is one Penny of Fee or Reward required or taken: Citations, Examinations, Censures and Absolutions, are never expensive in the least to the Delinquent, nor have any Members of any Ecclesiastical Judicatory in Scotland any manner of Gain thereby: Nor is there any civil Penalty incurred by being censured by the Church, all the severe Laws against excommunicated Persons, formerly in Force, having been repealed since the happy Revolution.

Burials] The Church of Scotland uses neither Funeral Sermons, or any publick Prayers at the Burial of their Dead.

C H A P. IV.

Of the Civil Government of Scotland, and first of the Great Officers of State, and the Crown, as they stood before, and since, the late Happy Union.

THE Ancient Kingdom of Scotland being governed by Kings, upon the Death, Abdication, or Incapacity of any of them, there was always an extraordinary Meeting of the Three Estates, called a Convention, who appointed Governours during the Inter Regnum, and proclaimed the next King: They had no Power to make Laws, but only to lay Impositions upon the Subjects for some Exigencies. A King being once thus proclaimed, by virtue of his Office inherent in the Crown, though he wanted the Ceremony or Solemnity of Coronation, named all the greater or lesser Officers of State, appointed the Judges of all Sovereign and Inferior Courts and Jurisdictions; and granted Commissions to the Officers of the Crown, and of the Army; to the Lion-Herald, the Governours of Forts, and all other inferior Officers, Civil and Military.

The Officers of State before the late Union were in Number Eight; whereof Four were called the Great, and Four the Lesser Officers of State.

The Four Great Officers of State were,	The Four Lesser Officers of State were,
The Lord High-Chancellor.	The Lord Register.
The Lord High-Treasurer.	The Lord Advocate.
The Lord Privy-Seal.	The Lord Treasurer Depute.
The Lord Secretary.	The Lord Justice-Clerk.

The last Three did often contend for the Precedency, but they were so ranked in the Rolls of Parliament.

All these Officers of State were appointed by the King, by Commissions under the Great-Seal; and even since the Union, the Lord Privy-Seal, Lord Register, Lord Advocate, and Lord Justice-Clerk do continue; and in the Scottish Records are sometimes called Officers of the Crown. But there were Officers of the Crown, such as the High-Chamberlain, Constable, Admiral, and Marshal, who were not Officers of State, and had no Interest to Sit and Vote in any Publick Meetings by virtue of their Office.

Of old, the Comptroller and Master of Requests were reckoned amongst the Officers of State, but of late Times the Office of the first was joined with the Thesaurer, as that of the last with the Secretary.

Lord-Chancellor.] The first Officer of State was the Lord High-Chancellor, who by vertue of his Office was President of all Courts whereof he was a Member, except the Exchequer, when the Thesaurer was present.

This Office was a Place of great Trust and Honour, for the Chancellor took Place next to the Princes of the Blood: He was Keeper of the Great-Seal of the Kingdom, upon which was engraven the King's Image on Horse-back, and on the Reverse the Royal Arms. He had always attending him two Gentlemen, who rode in the Coach with him, and walked bare-headed before him that bore the Badges of his Office. The first Attendant who walked next him, carry'd a large Crimson Velvet Purse, having the Royal Arms in very rich Embroidery of Gold and Silver, and from thence was called the Purse-bearer. The Second, who carry'd a large massy Silver Mace, finely gilded, and from thence was called Mace-Bearer. And both these had considerable Allowances for their Fees. The Chancellor had the Power of Calling and Adjourning the Dyet of Privy-Council, and in the Interval of an Adjournment, if Occasion required, could convene the Privy-Council. Sometimes this Office was granted during Life, sometimes only during Pleasure.

The Great-Seal, whereof the Lord-Chancellor was Keeper, being only appended to such Writs as were dispatched and register'd at the Chancellery, it may not be improper to give a short View thereof.

Of old the Dues of this Office belonged to the Chancellor, and the Director of Chancellery was his Clerk, but now the Director is appointed by the King, and has his Commission under the Great Seal, and a Right to the Profits of the Office. The Director and his Deputies cause to be writ and register'd all Charters, Patents of Dignities, Gifts of Offices, Remissions, Legitimations, Birth-Brieves, Presentations, Commissions for Brieves, Retours, Precepts thereon, and all other Writs of whatsoever Nature and Quality, the same which by Law, Custom, or Warrant of the King, are appointed to pass the Great-Seal, or Testimonial thereof, commonly called the Quarter-Seal. The Director has the Custody of this Quarter-Seal, and appends it to such Writs which pass under it.

In all Writs extended in the Chancellery, the Director and his Deputies do observe a certain Formula, which they keep in Record by them, and is called the Order of the Chancellery.

Lord-Thesaurer.] The Second Officer of State was the Lord High-Thesaurer, Comptroller, Collector, and Receiver General, which was an Officer of great Honour and Profit. He took Place of all the Nobility, and, as the Badge of his Office, carry'd a White Rod in his Hand, and had a Mace carry'd before him, and was President of the Exchequer, though the Chancellor were present.

Lord

Lord Privy-Seal.] The third Officer of State was the Lord Privy-Seal: He is rank'd before the Nobility, next and immediately after the President of the Privy Council: He has the Custody of the Privy-Seal, which is appended to all Charters that pass the Great-Seal; for the Precept that passes the Privy-Seal is the Warrant for the Great-Seal. The Privy-Seal is also appended to Seal-Writings which pass no other Seals, such as Gifts of Escheat, Ward, Non-Entry, Marriages, and of several Offices.

As the Director of the Chancery writes and extends all Writs that pass under the Great-Seal, so there is also one Commissioned by the King, to be Writer and Clerk to the Privy-Seal, who writes and registers all Writs that pass that Seal. Of old, they were not registered 'till after sealing, but now they are registered before sealing.

Lord Secretary.] The Fourth Officer of State was the Lord Secretary, who took Place of all of his Rank; that is, if he was Duke, of all Dukes; if Marquis, of all Marquisses, and so forth; and whatever his Quality were, he took Place of the four lesser Officers of State.

Lord Register.] The Fifth Officer of State was the Lord Register, who is Clerk to the Parliament, Convention, Treasury, Exchequer and Session, and Keeper of all the Publick Records, Registers and Rolls. He hath Power to constitute Deputies in all these Offices; and likewise has the Power of appointing Clerks for Registration of Seisines and Admissions of Notars. All which being Lucrative Offices, he receives large Compositions when any Vacancy falls; for albeit, he has only his own Office during the King's Pleasure, yet he has Power to grant Deputations during Life.

All the Clerks of Scotland are appointed to transmit the Registers of their respective Courts to this Register, and the Notars their Prothocols. All the Registers are kept in two lower Rooms in the Parliament-House, where the Register keeps some under him, daily attending; and the Records are so orderly disposed, that, upon Demand, the Liedges can have a View of any Writs which the Law requires necessarily to be register'd, or which Parties for the Security have thought fit to record; and may also have Extracts, which is of unexpressible Advantage to the Liedges for Security of their Estates.

Lord Advocate.] The Sixth Officer of State was the Lord Advocate; he is always a Person chosen by the King, most eminent for Eloquence and Knowledge of the Laws; for to him belongs the giving the King and his Ministers Advice in making and executing Laws. He is to defend the King's Right and Interest in all Publick Meetings by Law and Reason. He is the Pursuer of all Capital Crimes before the Justiciary, and likewise concurs in all Pursuits before Sovereign Courts for Breaches of the Peace; and also in all Matters Civil, wherein the King or his Donator has Interest: But he intends no Processes of Treason, except by Warrant of Privy-Council. As this Charge is of great Weight and Burden, so none have been advanced thereto but Persons of singular Endowments, and who are in great Esteem. The Lord Advocate is sometimes also an ordinary Lord of the Session; and there he only pleads in the King's Causes: But when he is not Judge, he has Liberty to plead in all Causes, and has a Seat appointed for him within the Bar. In former Times when the Lords advised with close Doors, the Lord Advocate was called to be present when he was not employed in the Cause; And he pleads covered, whereas all other Advocates plead uncovered.

The King also nominates an eminent Lawyer or two for his Solicitors, who take Care of the dispatching and transmitting of the King or Council's Orders through the Kingdom; and are assistant to the Advocate in the King's Concerns, and Processes, and Affairs, in Absence of the Advocate.

Lord Thesaurer Depute.] The Seventh Officer of State was the Lord Thesaurer Depute, whose Commission ran in the same Terms with that given to the Thesaurer Principal, or the Commissioners of Thesaury: His Office was chiefly to be a Check upon them; and in Absence of the Thesaurer and Lord-Chancellor, he claim'd to be President of the Exchequer.

Lord Justice-Clerk.] The Eighth Officer of State was the Lord Justice-Clerk; he is the Second Person in the Justice-Court, being next to the Justice-General, but now he is one of the Officers of State, though the Justice-General be none.

The Officers of the Crown, besides those of State, before the Union, were,

President. THE Lord President of the Council took Place next to the Chancellor, and had a Pension: Under whom were Collector-General, Director of the Chancery, an ancient and honourable Office, and had the Emolument belonging to it, and the Director of the Rolls.

Chamberlain.] The Lord High-Chamberlain, Camerarius Domini Regis, was in all the old Writers placed as Witness before all the other Officers, next to the Chancellor: This Office of Chamberlainry was possessed heritably of late by the Dukes of Lenox; and the Badge was a Golden Key.

Steward.] The Lord High-Steward of Scotland, Seneschallus Domini Regis, was a very ancient Officer, and in the old Charters placed before the Constable and Marshal; and it appears that he was also Steward of the King's Household, and performed all the Offices thereunto belonging, as well as to the other: For some Ages the Prince of Scotland was Seneschallus natus Scotia, born Steward of Scotland.

Constable.] The Lord High-Constable took Place as an Officer of the Crown, but according to his Creation in the Degrees of Nobility. This Office has been but in few Families: The Mowils enjoyed it under King David I. and his Grand-Children, King Malcolm and King William. From them it came by Descent to the Lords of Galloway; and from them in the same manner to John Baliol. By King Robert Bruce it was bestowed upon Sir Gilbert Hay of Errol, whose Hereditary Successor was Charles Earl of Errol, High-Constable of Scotland at the Time of the Union. Its Badge was a naked Sword. Sir George Mackenzie thinks, that the Reason why the Offices of Constable and Marshal have not risen in their Precedency with other Officers, is because of late the Scottish Armies have been commanded by other Officers, and there was little Use of the Constable or Marshal.

Marshal.] The Lord Marshal took no Place by vertue of his Office, but according to his Precedency in the Degrees of Nobility; the Reason whereof was, because of old, Offices did not prefer those who possess'd them, but they took Place according to their Creation; whereas now the Privy-Seal precedes all Dukes, and the Secretary took Place before all of his own Rank; but the Constable and Marshal being now the only Two Officers of the Crown that were Heritable in Scotland, continue to possess them as they did formerly. The Office of Lord-Marshal was always in the Family of Keith, and the Ax was the Badge of his Office.

These Two last Officers before the Union exercised their Jurisdiction, and kept their Guards in Edinburgh and the Parliament-House, in the Time of the Meeting of the General States of Parliament or Convention, and were attended by

The Heritable Usher,
The Crown-Bearer,
The Sceptre-Bearer,
The Purse-Bearer,
The Sword-Bearer,

of Parliament.

In our first Edition of the State of Great-Britain, we treated largely of the Scottish Parliament, Convention of States, Privy-Council, &c. all which being extinguished by the Treaty of Union, or subsequent Acts of the British Parliament, we shall take no further Notice of them.

C H A P. V.

Of Particular Governments, and first of the Ecclesiastical, Civil, and Military Government of the King's Household in Scotland.

And first of the Ecclesiastical Government of his Majesty's Court, &c.

THE first Ecclesiastical Officer of the King's Household, is the Almoner;] Who takes Care of the King's Poor, to catechise and instruct them. The Number of which is according to the Years of the King's Age. And as their Badge they wear a Blue Gown, which is given them yearly on his Majesty's Birth-day, with as many Pence as his Majesty has lived Years. And on his Birth-day the Almoner distributes Money also among the Common Poor.

Chaplains.] The Chaplains are named out of the Established Clergy. They are Two of them, who are to wait by Turns when the King is in Scotland.

Of the Civil Government of the King's Court.

Lord-Steward of the King's Household.] The Lord's Steward of the King's Household was the same Officer, who was otherwise called, Lord High-Steward of Scotland: His was a Heritable Office belonging of Right to the King's Eldest Son, the Prince of Scotland, under whom were anciently placed the Panetarius, who commanded over all the Bakers, and the Buttelarius, who commanded over all the Keepers of Taverns, and other Officers of that Nature.

Lord-Chamberlain.] This seems to be an Office of great Trust, as appears by the Iter Camerarij, in the old Laws of Scotland, published by Shene, in the Book which passes under the Name of Regiam Majestatem. This Officer was to take Care that the Magistrates of Burghs did rightly manage and administer their common Good. Few of late Times have enjoyed this Office, for the Duke of Monmouth had the last Commission of this Nature.

Master of the Horse.] This Office has been sunk ever since James VI. translated the Seat of his Empire from Edinburgh to London.

Comptroller.] Is the same with Treasurer of the Household in England: He was an Officer of State, 'till the Order of Parliament restraining restraining the Number to Eight besides the Chancellor, whereof the Master of Requests was one, now confounded with the Secretary; and so the Treasurer is now come into the Place of the Comptroller.

Master of the Household.] This is a Place of great Dignity in Scotland, and by Inheritance belongs to the Duke of Argyle; and as a Badge of his Office he carries a Batton covered with Crimson Velvet, powder'd with Gold Thistles, adorn'd with Imperial Crowns. This Office appears to be the same with the Dapifer or Seneschallus, who was Dominus Domi Regis, and afterwards was called Seneschallus Scotia. And after the Seneschallus came to the Crown, these Officers were called Magistri Hospitii Regis.

King's Tisler.] This Office is equivalent to that of Master of the Ceremonies of England, for he was anciently the Introducer of Ambassadors to the Kings of Scotland; he also attended the King or his High-Commissioner, and by virtue of his Office rid in the solemn Cavalcade to Parliament: 'Tis an old Office, and belongs Heritably to the Family of the Cockburns of Langton.

Herald's Office.] The first Constitution of this Office was certainly design'd to reward, with Coat-Armour, and proper Badges of Honour, such as had done great Service to their Prince and Country, the King at Arms being the competent Judge of the Bearer's Merit. The Title of King at Arms is Lion, so called from the Royal Bearing of Scotland. He holds his Office by Patent under the Great-Seal; and there are considerable Fees belonging to it: He attended formerly on the Parliament, assisted on Coronations, and still walks or rides in Processions and Cavalcades: He is at all solemn Proclamations, and wears on those Occasions a rich Coat of Arms, and sometimes a long Crimson Robe; and at Coronations he wore a Crown gilt: He has a rich Foot-Mantle, and suitable Horse-Ornaments at Cavalcades, and Battoon Semés of Thistles: He is Principal Herald of the Order of St. Andrew, or the Thistle, and wears the Order in Gold about his Neck, hanging down on his Breast: He has Power to give, and difference Arms; he admits all the Heralds, Pursuivants and Messengers at Arms; and of old admitted both Macers and Trumpets: He holds two solemn Head Courts in the Year, on the 6th of May, and the 6th of November, when all Messengers are obliged to appear before him, and at other Times as often as he has Occasion to call one: He has one or more Deputies, who ordinarily sit with him; the Heralds also sit and vote; but though the Pursuivants sit, they have no Vote: He has a Clerk, Eischal and Officer; and all Magistrates are obliged to concur with him, and afford Prisons for punishing Offenders: He attests all Genealogies under his Hand and Seal, which bear Faith Abroad as well as at Home: He and the other Heralds and Pursuivants, according to their respective Stations, denounce War, and proclaim Peace, command the Subjects to lay down their Arms, make Citations in Actions of Treason, and do all Things proper to the Office of an Herald here, or in any other Kingdom; and besides, Lion and his Brethren enjoy many other Privileges, Honours, Dignities and Immunities.

There are Six Heralds, Albany, Rothsay, Snadoun, Marchmont, Yla, and Rofs.

There are also Six Pursuivants, Unicorn, Kintyre, Bute, Dingwell, Ormond, and Carrick.

The Heralds and Pursuivants take Place according to their Patents.

There are also Six Trumpets, who are called The King's Ordinary Trumpets, who are obliged to attend upon the Orders of the Heralds-Office.

Lion King at Arms is invested and crown'd in a most solemn Manner, as will appear by the Order, which is hereto subjoined, that was observed at the Coronation of Sir Alexander Arskine of Combo, Kt. and Bart. then Lion King at Arms, which was performed by King James VII. then Duke of York, as representing his Brother King Charles II.

To Lion, and his Brethren Heralds, belongs the publishing the King's Proclamations.

If the Proclamation be very solemn, such as of Peace, or War, or Indemnity, the Lion, Heralds, and Pursuivants begin their Procession from the Door of the Council-Chamber, and walk to the Market-Cross, the Trumpets sounding before them, and walking Two by Two, the Youngest always first, and Lion last, with the Clerks of the Council.

If it be an ordinary Thing, only the Heralds and Pursuivants go from Lion's Office, and return in the same Manner.

When they are come to the Cross, the Trumpets give three Sounds, and they pulling off their Hats, Lion himself, in extraordinary Causes, and in ordinary ones the eldest Herald, makes Proclamation of what is privately read by the Clerk of the Council, who stands before the Proclaimer; and then the Trumpets sound, and they return as they came.

After the same Manner also are published the Acts of Parliament, and Conventions.

When the Sovereign is to be proclaimed, the Privy-Council, in a Body, usher'd in by Lion, with the Heralds and Pursuivants, and the Magistrates of Edinburgh in their Formalities, go to the Cross, and assist at the Proclamation, there being a Theatre erected below the Cross for the Magistrates, and such of the Nobility as cannot get Room on the Cross; nay, sometimes the whole Convention of Estates or Parliaments have gone in a Body from the Parliament-House, to grace that Solemnity.

Some-

Sometimes also the Chancellor hath proclaimed, and the Register read, Lion and his Brethren standing by.

Ordinarily the Proclamation begins and ends with, God save the King.

When War is proclaimed, it is done on the Cross, at the Castle-Gate, and Peer and Shore of Leith.

The Ordering and Marshalling of Funeral Solemnities belonged also formerly to the Kings at Arms.

The Reversing of Arms after Sentence of Forfeiture, belongs also to the King at Arms, and is thus performed.

When the Sentence of Forfeiture is pronounced against any Man in Parliament, the great Doors are cast open, Lion, Heralds, and Pursuivants preceded by the Trumpets in their Formalities, come in and advance with Sound of Trumpet, 'till they be within the inner Bar, when the Heralds and Pursuivants stand at the End of the Table, and the Trumpeters on a Bench hard by the Bar, and the King at Arms advances to the Throne, and stepping up, stands a Degree below the Chancellor until the Sentence be read, and then, after Sound of Trumpet, he or his Deputy holding in his Hand One Escutcheon of the Arms of the fore-faulted Person (every one of the Heralds and Pursuivants holding the like) say thus, Conform to this Sentence of his Majesty's High Commissioner, and States of Parliament now pronounced against A. B. finding him guilty of the Crime Treason, fore-faulting him in Life and Fortune, and ordering his Arms to be reversed and torn in Manner therein contained: I, his Majesty's Lion King at Arms, assisted by my Brethren the Herald and Pursuivants, do in his Majesty's Name, and by his Authority, openly reverse, tear, and trample under Foot [at which Words they first reverse, and then tear and throw away the Arms] these Armorial Ensigns of the said A. B. and intimate the same to be Cancelled, Delate, and Rased forth of the Books and publick Registers of Arms; and declare the said A. B. as being a Traitor, and Disloyal, and the Descendants of his Body to be henceforth unable and unworthy to bear any Coat-Armour, or any Mark or Token of Honour for ever. From thence they go to the Cross and do the same.

If the Sentence be pronounced by the Lords of the Justiciary, a like Form is used.

If the Person be of ordinary Quality, the Heralds and Pursuivants do it; if he be a Peer, Lion or his Deputy is present.

Last of all, some Escutcheons of the Arms reversed are affixed on the Cross, with the fore-faulted Person's Name, and the Word of a Traitor; and if any such Person have their Arms Registered in the Lion's Books, they are rased out.

C H A P. VI.

Of the Civil Government of Scotland in the respective Courts of Judicature.

THE Privy-Council of Scotland was sometimes said to be the Spring of the Government, seeing all Parliaments and Conventions of Estates were called by their Advice; and the Writs issuing under the Great Seal for summoning Parliaments were directed to them, and the Members elected were returned by them: But now the Union of the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland being happily effected, the whole Island is thereby subjected to one Sovereignty, and represented by one Parliament. The Privy-Council of Scotland was abolished Anno Sexto Anna Regina, in the Act of Parliament of Great-Britain, entituled, An Act for rendering the Union of the Two Kingdoms more compleat: Wherein it was enacted, That from and after the first Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eight, the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors shall have but one Privy-Council in or for the Kingdom of Great-Britain, to be sworn to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors as Sovereigns of Great-Britain; and such Privy-Council shall have the same Powers and Authorities as the Privy-Council of England lawfully had, used, and exercised at the Time of the Union, and and none others. Which Act has also lodged the Powers of Summoning and Returning Members of Parliament in other Hands.

The Courts of Judicature.

The College of Justice.] This Court, which was instituted by King James V. Anno 1532. is one of the most Noble, Decent, and Orderly Courts in Europe, both upon Account of its first Foundation, and of the later Constitution made by the said King James V. who by its newer Foundation created it a College of Justice, after the Form of the Supreme Sovereign Court of Parliament of Paris, and gave it great Privileges, Emoluments, and Immunities. Before this second Erection, it was called in Scotland the King's Council, and the Lords were called Lords of Council and Session, which Title they still carry, being at first no more than a Committee of Parliament, and ambulatory by Circuits; it is supposed that it had even then a cumulative and distributive Jurisdiction centered in in one, which made it both Civil and Criminal: This Court now consists of one constant President, and 14 other Members. The Lord High-Chancellor presides here when present, but speaks little unless he is bred a Lawyer: The King names several other extraordinary Lords, who sit, but are not obliged to Attendance, because they have no Salaries, but votes among the rest. The Court sits from the First of November to the last of February; and from the First of June to the Last of July, all inclusive; and the same is ordained by Act of Parliament for all the other Judicatories in Scotland, which sit at the same Time, without Regard to the Christmas Vacation. [See the late Statutes relating to this Vacation at the end of this Tract.] In Time of Session they sit from Nine o'Clock to Twelve in the Forenoon, every Day in the Week but Sunday and Monday: Sometimes they sit in the Afternoon, to end concluded Causes, or to hear such long Debates as the Forenoon was too short to hear, which gives a great Dispatch to Causes that come before them. The Lords, both Ordinary and Extraordinary, when in the Inner House, sit on a semicircular Bench in their Robes; to hear Petitions and Processes resumed by the Clerks: The Advocates debate their Clients Causes before them. Here are six principal Clerks, who minute the Heads of great and weighty Causes and Debates, and write the Deliverance of Bills, Interlocutory and Definitive Sentences by the Lords in the Inner House, who alone makes Decrees, and determine all Business in that Court, there being no Appeal from it to any other Court, but by Applications to themselves before Extract, Reduction or Suspension in common Form; which in the second Instance comes always before themselves, and must be upon other new Grounds than was formerly represented. Nine of the Lords make a Quorum in the Inner House, otherwise they can't vote in any Case, except in particular Cases referred to one or more of the whole Lords; and one of the Members (the President being always excepted) is weekly appointed Judge in the Outer House, for discussing of ordinary Actions, who sits upon a Bench, where the six Under-Clerks are sitting before him, who minute likewise in their Course, as they do in the Inner House, all Debates or Writs, Signatures or Sentences of ordinary Causes decided by the Ordinary, who meddles with no extraordinary Case, except where it is remitted to him by all the Lords to be discussed in the Outer House for Dispatch. There is a Roll of ordinary Actions, such as Summons, simple Reduction, Improbation, Recognition, &c. Advocations and Suspensions in another Roll, for the Outer House, when these are called, Terms granted, Acts extracted, which when called here, are either Sentences pronounced by the Ordinary in the Outer House, and so decreed, or else the Parties crave a Representation of one Point Point or more to the whole Lords, and the Ordinary is to make a Report of their Interloquitor, which he reports in the Outer-House the next Day ordinarily, or at the Side Bar the next Week; but most of the Causes of the Outer-House, especially of Consequence, come to the Inner-House, by making an Avi-sandum to all the Lords, and is inrolled in Course by Warrant in the Inner-House Roll of ordinary Actions; which in its Course comes again to be called in the Inner-House before the whole Lords; and after debating, there is either a Decision, or the Cause is concluded. Where there is any Probation led or inrolled de novo, in the Roll of concluded Causes in the Inner-House, it is advised by the Lords (in some special Cases, in which they are allowed to remove all but the Parties and their Prosecutors) with close Doors; and where there is any Difficulty after, the President resumes the whole, causes a Debate; and the Lords call the Parties and their Proctors; to hear if they have any thing further to say; and commonly they have nothing material further to add. Then the Lords order them to remove, and upon serious Deliberation they debate and vote, and call in the Parties and their Advocates, and by the Mouth of their President declare their Sentence definitive, which is a Decreet to be extracted, as all other Decrees are, by the Clerks, conform to the Minutes and Warrants of the Process. If there be more Sheets than one in the Decreet, the principal Clerk side-signs the joining of every two Sheets, and the Lord-Register subscribes the last Sheet of the Decreet, which contains the whole Libel, as it is in the Summons, the Executions, Debates, and Interloquitors of the Outer and Inner-House, and the Lords Sentence.

Observe, That none may presume to speak after the Lords begin to advise, unless by them desired, under the Pain of Imprisonment. That the Lords may have Time to read Informations, Petitions, and the Leiges be eased of the Trouble of going with them to their Lodgings, every Lord has a Box standing upon a Table in the Waiting-Room in the Inner-House from Two to Four o'Clock in the Afternoon; wherein all who have Papers to offer, may put them by a Slit in the Cover. Each of the principal Clerks have also a Box, and Parties must put their Bills or Answers, or Informations of Causes to be reported, in the Clerk of the Process's Box, when they are put in the Lords Boxes, except such Bills as pass of Course, or relate to Acts of Decrees ready to be extracted. Clerks are not to receive or present reclaiming Bills against Interloquitors in praesentia, unless offered within six Days of the pronouncing, nor more than three Bills from the same Party against one Interloquitor.

Note also, That the Lords of Session are now authorized by Act of Parliament, it judge in all Causes formerly belonging to to the Cognizance of the Commission, viz. the planting Churches, modifying and augmenting Ministers Stipends, Valuation and Sale of Tythes, Erection of new Churches, uniting and disemembring Parishes, &c. and meet for that End weekly in Time of Session upon Wednesday at 3 o'Clock in the Afternoon, and sit so long as they think fit, judging Causes conform to the Order of a Roll. The Dyets of this Court are peremptory, and Causes are advised with close Doors.

This is a Vidimus of the Procedure of the Lords of Session; but of all the Courts of this Kingdom, their Decrets and Procedure are most formal: So that the Lords by their Constitution are obliged to do nothing but upon the greatest Deliberation in the World. Upon these Decrets the Parties raise Horning (i. e. Out-Law) and other Diligence (i. e. issue out Writs of Arrest) under the King's Signet, for Payment of the Debt, or securing the Debtor's Estate for Payment of it. In a Word, the Method of doing Business in the Session is more desirable and safe to Parties interested, than the Form of Process in any Court of Europe: For the Rolls bring in all Causes in their due Order, without Partiality or Respect of Persons. Causes of the greatest Consequence are at first advised by the whole Lords in the Inner-House; other Causes are called of course before an Ordinary in the Outer-House, who decides the Controversy, if clear, without farther Trouble or Expence; and, in Case of Difficulty, takes some little Time to advise it himself, or to advise with the whole Lords upon it. When he agrees to make an Avissandum with the Matter to the whole Lords, he acquaints the Parties what Day he will report it, that they may the Night before put Informations thereanent in the Lords Boxes. If the Ordinary be clear to pronounce an Interloquitor to the Dissatisfaction of either Party, he who thinks himself lesed, may either get Redress by putting a Written Representation in his Box, and procuring a new Calling of the Cause at the Side Bar, to clear any Mistake. And if the Ordinary do, notwithstanding, adhere to his former Opinion, the Party may require the Answer of the rest of the Lords upon the Point; and, if refused by the Ordinary, may complain to the Lords, and get their Answer upon a Bill; and if that displease, has the Benefit to reclaim against it once again; which is a sufficient Security against the Danger of a rash Sentence; as the Restriction of the Number of Bills is a Curb to Litigiousness, and the informing the Lords, by putting Papers into their Boxes, affords them Time to consider the Case maturely; besides that, it easeth both Parties of the Trouble of going to their Lodgings, and prevents Sollicitations, which is farther provided against by an Act of Sederunt, which the Lords promise upon Honour to observe.

This Court is said to have distributive Jurisdiction only, but no competent Judicature for Life or Limb, &c. but for Faults competent to themselves, too tedious to insert here, which is only designed for a general View. This Court makes Acts of Sederunt equivalent to Laws and Acts of Parliament; and are of Force till they are recalled by Parliament, which is seldom or never done; because the Lords of Session in Parliament, before the Union, were the proper Interpreters of Acts of Parliament, who had a Bench in Parliament, where they sat not as Judges, but to give their Opinions to the Parliament in intricate Matters, when required. The Lords of Session make their own Collectors, and other Servants of the House, except the four ordinary Macers, who serve them in Time of Session, and have their Commissions from the King, with yearly Pensions, besides their ordinary Dues from Parties. The Lords appoint certain of their Number weekly, to sit upon all Bills of Suspensions, &c. and for examining Witnesses by Turns.

The ancient Way of Appealing (then called Falsing of Doom) from the Justice Court to the High Court of Parliament, was in this Manner: The Appellant was obliged to protest, That the Doom given was Evil, False, Rotten, and Stinkande in the Self, &c. and this he was to do, or bestier his Toes quher his Heil stude; i. e. stand with his Toes where his Heel stood.

The Justice Court.] This Court came in Place of that of the Justice Eyre, or Justice General, which was last in the Person of the Earl of Argyle, who transacted for it with King Charles I. and was made Justice General of all the Islands; which raising great Debates betwixt him and some Hereditary Sheriffs there, the Jurisdiction was taken away by Parliament in 1672, and was erected into a Justice or Criminal Court, consisting of a Justice General, alterable at the King's Pleasure; Justice Clerk, and five other Judges, who are Lords of the Session. This Court commonly sits upon Mondays, and sometimes goes Circuits into the Country. The Ordinary Clerk of this Court has his Commission from the Justice Clerk. They have four Ordinary Macers, and a Doomster (or Judge) appointed by the Lords of the Session. The Clerk raises a Libel or Indictment upon a Bill passed by any of the Lords of that Court, at the Instance of the Pursuer against the Defender, i. e. the Criminal, who is committed to Prison immediately after Citation. When the Party, Witnesses, and Great Assize (or Jury of 45 Men) are cited, the Day of Appearance being come, 15 of the Greatest Assize are chosen to be the Assize upon the Pannal (or Prisoner at the Bar) the Assize sits with the Judges to hear the Libel read, Witnesses examined, and the Debates on both Sides, which is verbatim written in the Adjournal Books. The King's Advocate pleads for the Pursuer; being the King's Cause, and other Advocates for the Pannal. The Debates being closed, they either find the Libel or Indictment non Relevant; in which Case they desert the Dyer, and assail or absolve the Party accused; or if Relevant, then the Affize or Jury of 15 is removed into a closer Room, none being present with them, where they choose their own Chancellor and Clerk, and consider the Libel, Depositions, and Debates; and bring in their Verdict of the Pannal sealed, Guilty, or Not Guilty: If Not Guilty, the Lords absolve; if Guilty, they condemn, and declare their Sentence of Condemnation, and command the Punishment to be put in Execution against the Pannal, by a Mace, and the Mouth of the Doomster. Then the Pannal is carried to Prison, till the Sentence be put in Execution.

This is the Form of proceeding against a Commoner; but if the Offender be a Peer, the Method of proceeding against him is directed in an Act of Parliament, Anno sexto Anna Regina, Entituled, An Act to make further Provision for electing and summoning sixteen Peers of Scotland to sit in the House of Peers in the Parliament of Great-Britain: and for trying Peers for Offences committed in Scotland, &c. in these Words, viz. [For the more effectual Trial of any Peer of Great-Britain, that hath committed, or shall commit any High-Treason, Petty-Treason, Misprision of Treason, Murder, or other Felonies in Scotland, Commission or Commissions may issue under the Great-Seal of Great-Britain, to be directed to such Person and Persons as shall be therein named, constituting them, and such a Number of them as shall be therein mentioned, Justices of the King, his Heirs and Successors, to enquire by the Oaths of good and lawful Men of such County and Counties of Scotland as shall be named therein, of all Treasons, Murders, and other Felonies committed in such County by a Peer or Peers of Great-Britain; which Inquisition shall be taken and made in the same Manner as Indictments found and taken before Justices of Oyer and Terminer, of any Court of England, and shall be of the same Effect, and proceeded upon in the same Manner as any Inquisition found before Justices of Oyer and Terminer in England, whereby any Peer is indicted for any such Offence; and such Justices shall issue Mandates or Precepts to the Sheriffs of the respective Counties of Scotland, to return to them at such a Day and Place as they shall appoint, such and so many good and lawful Men of the same County as may be sufficient to enquire of the Offences aforesaid; and twelve or more of them so returned, being sworn, shall be sufficient to make such Inquiry, and find any Indictments, &c.] All the Lords of the Justice-Court have Pensions.

The Exchequer.] The Court of Exchequer in Scotland is established by an Act of the Parliament of Great-Britain, Anno sexto Anna Regina, Entituled, An Act for Settling and Establishing a Court of Exchequer in the North Part of Great-Britain, called Scotland, pursuant to a Clause or Proviso for that Purpose in the 19th Article of the Act for a Union of the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland. This Court has the same Power, Authority, Privilege and Jurisdiction over the Revenue of Scotland, land, as the Court of Exchequer of England has over the Revenues there; and all Matters and Things competent to the Court of Exchequer of England relating thereto, is likewise competent to the Exchequer of Scotland. The Judges are likewise invested with the Power of passing Signatures, Gifts, and Tutories, and to revise and compound them in the same Manner as was done by the Lord High-Treasurer, Commissioners of the Treasury, and Court of Exchequer in Scotland before the Union, and to receive Resignations in his Majesty's Name in the Exchequer at the Time of the Union, and to appoint Officers, as was in Use to be done before. All Serjeants at Law, Barristers at Law of five Years standing in any of the four Inns of Court of England, or such Persons as shall be Advocates in the College of Justice in Scotland for five Years, are qualified to be made Barons of this Court. Their Commissions are Quamdiu se bene gesserint.

The Court of Admiralty:] Is as ancient as in most other Kingdoms of Europe: And the Office of Lord High-Admiral of Scotland has been usually intrusted with Persons of the greatest Quality in the Nation.

But concerning the Antiquity and Method of Proceedings of this Court, there are unhappily very small Accounts remaining: For the Records of the Court being carried up to London by the Usurper Cromwell, after the Restoration of King Charles the Second, when they were sent back again to Edinburgh, the Ship (in which they, with other ancient Writings were lodged) perished in the Voyage; so that though the Scotish Lawyers mention in their Books very ancient Records of the Admiralty Court, yet there are none now extant older than 1511; when Adam Hepbourn, Earl of Bothwell, was created Lord High-Admiral of Scotland: He was succeeded by Francis Earl of Bothwell; and there are two Books extant of Records in his Time, one from 1547 to 1559; and the other from 1559. to 1561, in which the whole Transactions of the Admiralty, and the Sentences both Civil and Criminal pronounced during those Years are contained.

In the Year 1603, Lodowick Duke of Lenox, Cousin to King James VI. was created Heritable Lord High-Admiral of Scotland, which Office continued in his Family till the Death of Charles Duke of Lenox, who died in the Year 1672. That Heritable Office devolved thereby to King Charles II. as his next Heir, who conveyed it to Charles Duke of Lenox, his Natural Son, Heritable as before, with a Reservation of a Term for Life to James Duke of York; which he retained 'till the Revolution. In 1693, William Duke of Hamilton was made Lord High-Admiral of Scotland, including the Isles of Orkney and Scheland; and after his Death, the Admiralty was managed by Commissioners, 'till King James VIIth's Death. Upon which Charles Duke of Lenox was qualified as Lord High-Admiral of Scotland;

Scotland; and upon his Resignation of his heritable Offices into her Majesty's Hands, David Earl of Weems was made Lord High-Admiral of Scotland, with an Exemption of the Isles of Orkney and Scheland, in which Post he continued till the Union.

The Court of Admiralty in Scotland is by a particular Act of Parliament (Act 16. Parl. 3 Car. 11.) declared to be a supreme Court, in all Causes competent to its own Jurisdiction; and the Lord High-Admiral is declared to be the King's Lieutenant and Justice-General upon the Seas, and in all Ports, Harbours, and Creeks of the same, and upon fresh Waters and navigable Rivers, below the first Bridge, or within Flood-mark. So that nothing competent to his Jurisdiction can be meddled with in the first Instance, but by the Lord High-Admiral, and the Judges of his Court. Sentences passed in all inferior Courts of Admiralty, may be brought again before his Court, but no Advococation lies from it to the Lords of the Session, or any other Judicatory, unless in Cases not Maritime. No Suspension, or other Stop to the Decrees of the Admiralty can be passed, except by the whole Lords in prasentia, in Time of Session, and by three Lords met together for that End in Vacation Time. And if they find that this Suspension was unjustly procured, they may give Damages to the Persons aggrieved, over and above the Expence of their Plea before the Lords of the Session. The Admiralty Court may also review their own Acts, wherein they are controulable by no other Court, and in this Power they are vested by that Act of Parliament in the Admiralty Court of Scotland, by the XIXth Article of the Union, only subject to such Regulations and Alterations as the Parliament of Great-Britain shall think fit.

The Causes competent to the Admiralty Court of Scotland, are these among others: Revealing the King's Secret over Sea in Time of War; Causes relating to Pirates and their Abettors, Out-traders and Refettors; fortifying the King's Enemies, and harming his Friends; breaking of the Admiral's Arrestments and Attachments, and resisting his Precepts; seizing prohibited and uncustomed Goods imported or exported; punishing Forefallers, Reegraters, and Dearthers of Corn, Fish and Drink; Fire-wood carried over Sea; pleading before another Court in Matters belonging to their Jurisdiction; determining in other Courts thereupon; procuring Passes and Certificates in Maritime Causes, other than from the Admiral; exporting beyond Sea, Traitors, Rebels, Rogues, and Fugitives from Justice; hiring and freighting foreign Ships, when their own would have done; throwing Sand or Ballast into Harbours or Channels, whereby they may be choaked; Shipwrights or Boat-makers extorting upon the Subjects; taking away of Buoys, or cutting of Cables; using false Weights and Measures at Sea; committing Murder within the Jurisdiction of the Court; not appearing at the Musters in Time of War, which the Admiral has Power of appointing at Pleasure, at which all Inhabitants within a Mile of the Coast are obliged to appear, under what Penalties he thinks fit. Punishments of Offences committed within his Jurisdiction by Mariners, the Amercements of which fall to him; as do also Wafts, Strays, and Deodands, and Wrecks, besides his Share of lawful Prizes, Lagon, Flozson, and Jetson, and all Royal Fishes. In short, all Maritime Causes are triable only before this Judge (for the Admiral never judges in Person) who is therefore stiled Judex Supremus Curia Admiralitatis Scotia.

Causes are tried in that Court by the Civil Law (which is properly in such Cases the Common Law of Scotland) in which also they are assisted, for deciding of particular Cases, by the Laws of Oleron, Wisby, and the Hanse Towns, and the later Constitutions of Amsterdam and other Towns of Holland.

Alexander Boyne of Logie is Secretary to the Earl of Wegms, Lord Vice-Admiral and Agent for the Trade of Scotland; but many Noblemen and Gentlemen are constituted Admirals-Depute of several Places in the Country by his Lordship, and are frequently changed at his Pleasure; and generally the Magistrates of Sea-Coast Towns are appointed Deputy-Admirals within their own Precincts; and such English Men of War as come up the Frith, for guarding and securing the Coasts, receive their Orders from the Lord Provost of Edinburgh.

The Judge's Salary is 100*l*. Sterling a Year by Act of Parliament; and for every Decree which he pronounces, whether Condemnator or Absolutor, he has a Fee, as the Lords of Session and Justiciary anciently had, before their Salaries were ascertained upon appropriated Funds. The Judge also has Fees for all Passes and Safe-conducts granted to Ships, and a Gold Penny for every new Ship, or new Master of a Ship within Scotland. The Clerks have the Dues of all Summons of Precepts, and of all Extracts of Decrees, Acts of Sentences that are passed in that Court.

Attendant upon the above-mentioned Courts, especially on the Lords of the Session, is the College of Advocates; of which take the following Account.

Of the College or Faculty of Advocates.

[Faculty of Advocates.] Immediately after the Institution of the Session, a certain Number of Persons, of the best Reputation, Knowledge and Experience, were appointed to plead in all Actions before that Court, who were called General Procurators of the Council or Advocates. Their Number was at first but ten; and when any were wanting, the Number was to be supplied by Advice of the Lords of Session: But in Process of Time.

Time, Business increasing, the Number of Advocates increased likewise; so that now their Number is 180. Of these 140 constantly attend the House; many of the rest are Gentlemen of good Estates, who entered into that Body with no other View than the Honour of being Members of it. The whole Society goes commonly under the Name of The Faculty of Advocates. They meet every Year the first Tuesday in January, at which Time they choose their annual Officers, namely, the Dean, Treasurer, Clerks, Private and Publick Examinators, and a Curator of their Library.

The Dean's Office is to preside in all their Meetings; and upon any extraordinary Occasion, when the Faculty cannot be convened, he assumes to himself a certain Number of the most intelligent and experienced of the Faculty as a Council, to look after the Interests and Concerns of the Society. Tho' his Office is annual, yet the same Person is usually elected again, and is rarely changed.

The Treasurer has the Custody and Management of their Stock, which ariseth from the Dues paid by such as are admitted into the Society, and he is frequently continued for several Years.

The Clerks are two of their own Number, who attend their Meetings by Turns, and take Minutes of their Proceedings, and give out Extracts of the Orders of the Faculty under their Hand; they are not frequently changed.

The Manner of Admission into this Society, is by a Trial in the Civil Law, and sometimes, tho' rarely, by a Trial in the Scots Law. The Person desiring to be admitted, having upon a Petition obtained from the Lords a Recommendation, or Remit to the Dean of the Faculty, he giveth a Remit to the private Examinators, who are chosen annually, and sworn to be faithful in their Office. They are nine in Number, and after their Election they divide the Body of the Civil Law into nine Parts, each taking one; and having appointed a Dyer for Examination, where seven at least must be present, they all of them examine the Candidate; and thereafter the Question being put, Qualify, Yea, or No, they give their Opinion by Balloting; upon which the Candidate is either admitted, by signing his Petition, or remitted to his Studies. After the private Trial, the Candidates being recommended by the private Examinators, the Dean assigns him a Title of the Civil Law for the Subject of his Theses. And having obtained a Dyer, i. e. a set Day for his publick Trial, he distributes his Theses among the Advocates eight Days before; and on the Day appointed, the Faculty being met to the Number of 25, (which is a Quorum in all their Meetings, except in the extraordinary Disposal of Money, and then the said Quorum is enlarged to 45): Three at least of the 15 publick Examinators, chosen annually for that End, dispute against the Candidate's Theses, and afterwards the Fac- cultry give their Opinion by Balloting as in the private Trial; and if he is found qualified, the Dean is desired to assign him a Law, for the Subject of his Speech before the Lords. For which End, having a Day allowed him, he appears in the Inner Session-House, and is allowed to stand in one of the Lord's Places covered while he makes his Harangue; after which he is admitted by taking of the Oaths to the Government, and one to be faithful in his Office.

For the Use of the Society, the Faculty has a very valuable Library of Books, first founded about the Year 1680. It was at first intended for a Library of Books in the Civil Law chiefly: But that End being in a great Measure obtained by a very large Collection made of that Kind, they began to furnish their Library with Books of all Kinds of Literature, and of late have made a considerable Collection of MSS. relating chiefly to the History of the Island; and have purchased a curious Collection of Greek, Roman, Saxon and Scottish Medals, which the ingenious Mr. James Sutherland had with great Labour collected, together with several Pieces of Roman Antiquities, and a very noble Collection of Books relating to both: All which are deposited in their Library, which is kept under the Outer Session-House.

The Charge of this Library is committed to one or more, and at present to three of their Number, who have a Deputy, that gives constant Attendance in the Library at certain Hours.

Besides the Keepers, there are three Curators of the Library, one of which goes off yearly, and his Place is supplied at the yearly Meeting. Their Office is to inspect the State of the Library from Time to Time, and to give Directions for purchasing such Books as they judge proper, and to review and approve the Accounts of them when bought.

The Faculty of Advocates enjoy a great many valuable Privileges in common with the rest of the College of Justice; but have, by the late Treaty of Union, this special Privilege, that hereafter none shall be named by his Majesty or his Royal Successors to be Ordinary Lords of Session, but such who have been Advocates or principal Clerks of Session for the Space of five Years, or who have been Writers to the Signet for the Space of ten Years, having two Years before their Nomination to be a Lord, undergone a private and publick Trial on the Civil Law before the Faculty of Advocates, and have by them been found qualified for the said Office. By a late Act of the said Faculty, Mr. William Forbes, one of the Advocates, being authorized by the Lords of the Session, is to write the Decisions of every Session during the succeeding Vacation, under the Title of the Journal of the Session, &c. for which he has a Salary from the Faculty; and the said Journal is to be lodged in the Faculty's Library, for the Use of the Lawyers before another Session begins.

The Court of CHANCERY.

The Court of Chancery, with the Proceeding therein, is supposed to be one of the English Customs which were brought Home by King James I. who lived in an easy and honourable Confinement there for some Years in the Beginning of his Reign; so that we are not to expect any Records of that of a more ancient Date than the said Period; yet some Authors affirm, that there was a Chancery before James I. but own that it was much improved and enlarged by him after his Return from England.

Writers to the SIGNET.

There is at present about one Hundred ordinary Writers to the Signet, who only can subscribe all Writs that ordinarily pass the Signet: Of which Number about Thirty are Commissioners to the Society, appointed by the Lords Secretaries, for managing the Affairs of the Society, and for judging and trying of the Abuses and Misdemeanors of the Members thereof, and punishing Delinquents according to the Degrees of their Offence, even to the Depriving them of their Office as Writers to the Signet. Of the aforesaid Number of Commissioners, five, with one of the Keepers, are a Quorum; and they are appointed by the Secretaries of State at their Pleasure. In-entrant Writers to the Signet obtain first a Commission from the Secretaries, and then apply by Bill to the Keepers and Commissioners, representing after what Manner they have qualified themselves for being Writers to the Signet, and craved to be tried. Upon which a Committee is appointed to examine them, who make a Report to the Keepers and Commissioners; and if they be found qualified, they are admitted, and have an Act of Admission delivered to them: They take an Oath de Fidei, and sign the Rules and Constitution of the Society, which they are bound punctually to observe.

Of the Government of COUNTIES.

Sheriffs and Stewards.] In every County or Shire in Scotland, anciently the chief Magistrare was the Sheriff, who was the ordinary Judge in all Causes Civil and Criminal within his Jurisdiction, subject only to the Jusiciary, before the Institution of the College of Justice; he is still ordinary Judge in lesser Causes, but the greater ones are reserved to the Jusiciary by Statute. The Sentences which the Sheriffs give, may be reduced or suspended by the Lords of the Session, who can also call before them any Processes depending before a Sheriff. Questions concerning Marches, and Controversies arising thereanent between Neighbours, are cognizable properly before fore him. All Breves and Precepts out of the Chancery are directed to him for infeofing Heirs in Lands held by their Predecessors : And there are several small Dues belonging to the Crown, which they are obliged to pay into the Exchequer. Most Sheriffdoms were anciently Heritable, and many are so still. The Office was never Annual ; sometimes for Life ; usually, when not Heritable, only durante bene placito of the Sovereign. Some Jurisdictions are called Stuarts, and the Stuart has the same Power in them as the Sheriff has in his Shire. Two of these Stuarts, Kircudbright and Orkney, send Members to Parliament. In Kyle, some Part of the Propriety of the Great Stuart of Scotland, who was always the King's Eldest Son, was erected into a Stuarty by itself. The Stuarty of Anandale was the Property of Bruce ; and Mac Duff's Estate in Fife, is called the Stuarty of Fife.

Courts of Regality.] Besides these Courts there are other Courts of Regality, where, by Vertue of a Royal Jurisdiction invested in the Lord of the Regality, they have many Immunities and Privileges. These anciently belonged to the Ecclesiasticks, and were appropriated to such Lands as they were possessed of in Property and Superiority : But of late many great Men have those Regalities granted to them. But these Burghs of Regalities being no Estate, nor having the Power of Pit and Gallows, they only try Causes arising in their own Liberties.

Here are also Baron-Courts ; every Baron that holds a Barony of the King, has such a Court, in which lesser Causes are tried, and they can fine and distrain ; anciently they could judge Causes of Life and Death, but now they have lost that Power : However, they are admitted by some learned Men of the Law to be Courts of Record.

Commissaries.] Here are likewise Courts, called the Commissariat, answerable to those of the English Diocesan Chancellors, the highest of which is kept at Edinburgh ; wherein, before four Judges, Actions are pleaded concerning Matters relating to Wills and Testaments ; the Right of Patronage to Ecclesiastical Benefices, Tithes, Divorees, and Ecclesiastical Causes of that Nature ; but in almost all other Parts of the Kingdom there sits but one Judge on these Causes.

The Commissaries in these Courts were formerly nominated by the Archbishop of St. Andrew's.

In criminal Causes the King's Chief-Justice holds his Courts generally at Edinburgh ; which Office was formerly executed by the Earls of Argyle, once Hereditary Justice-General of all Scotland (the Isles of Orkney and Scheland excepted) ; but now the criminal Jurisdiction of the Duke of that Name does only extend to his own Lands. In the said Court the Defendant is likewise permitted, even in Case of High-Treason, to retain an Advocate to plead for him.

Moreover, in Criminal Matters, Justices are sometimes appointed by the King's Commission, for deciding this or that particular Cause.

Justices of the Peace.] These have been of a long standing in Scotland, but under several Regulations, the last rendered the Commission of the Peace wholly ineffectual, viz. That they were not to take Cognizance of Riots till 15 Days after the Fact. This Act of Parliament was procured by the Great Men, in Favour of themselves, who had most of the Sheriffs Courts and Regalities in their own Hands, and thereby kept the Commons in a constant Dependence on them. The only Check they had upon them, were the Parliament and Council; but the Seat of these being transferred by the Union, the Parliament of Great-Britain has restored the fifteen Days to the Justices of Peace, that the Heritable Offices may not be arbitrary and without Controul; and that the Commons may have some Share in the Policy and Publick Government, as they have in South-Britain.

Coroners.] The Coroners Inquests are very ancient, their Office being largely prescribed in the Laws attributed to King Malcolm II. where all Matters are said to be cognizable by them which are Breaches of the King's Peace; and they are required to have Clerks to register Depositions and Matters of Fact, as well as Verdicts of Jurors: But at present this Office is in Desuetude, except in some particular Places, where the Coroners present all Malefactors, and take them to and from Prison.

Of the Government of Royal Boroughs, Free Incorporations, and Villages.

Royal Boroughs,] Are Corporations made so for the Advantage of Trade, by Charters granted by several Kings of Scotland at several Times, which Corporations have a Privilege of sending Commissioners to represent them in Parliament.

These Boroughs have all their particular Privileges by themselves; and in general, they have all of them within their respective Bounds, sole Power of Trade and Merchandize, exclusive of all others: They can keep Courts, have the Jurisdiction of Sheriffs, and can make By-Laws for the Government of their Borough, and the Regulation of their Trade: Actions also between Burgesses are ordinarily decided by their proper Magistrates.

The Guild is a Society of Merchants who are Freemen of a Borough: Every Royal Borough has a Dean of Guild, who is next Magistrate to the Bailiffs; he judges Controversies between Merchants concerning Trade, Disputes between Inhabitants concerning Buildings, Lights, Water-Courses, and other Nuisances; calls Courts at which all the Brethren of the Guild are bound bound to give Attendance, manages the common Stock of the Guild, and amercers and collects all Fines.

The Royal Boroughs are not only several distinct Corporations, but they are also one entire Body, govern'd by, and accountable to one general Court. This Court was anciently called the Court of four Boroughs, and was yearly held to treat and determine concerning Matters relating to the common Advantage of all the Burghs. The Four Boroughs which composed this Court, were Edinburgh, Stirling, Roxburgh and Berwick; but when the two last were fallen into the Hands of the English, Lithgow and Lanerk were put into their Places, but with a Saving for Roxburgh and Berwick, whensoever they should be recovered to their ancient Allegiance.

But this Court not being sufficient to answer the Necessities of the Royal Boroughs in general, in King *James III*d's Time, Ann. Dom. 1487, all the Boroughs were impowered to send Commissioners to a Yearly Convention of their own, which was then appointed to meet at Innerskeithing, wherein they were to consult concerning Matters belonging to the common Welfare of all the Boroughs: But there are no Records of these Conventions older than 1552, when a Convention of Boroughs sat at Edinburgh. These Meetings made Acts for the Good of their Body, which were as binding as Acts of Parliament, upon all and every of the Burghs which they did concern.

By the old Borough Laws no Man could be sent a Commissioner to Parliament, or to any Convention or Meeting of Boroughs, except he were a Merchant or Trafficker, free of, and residing in the Borough which he was to represent. But in 1699 the Boroughs made an Act to capacitate the same Man to be their Commissioner in Parliament, and in the Convention of Boroughs (which he could not regularly be before) and likewise to capacitate any Man having Heritage or Interest in any Burgh, or who might lose or win in the Concerns of that Borough, to be chosen as a Commissioner to represent it.

The Power of the Convention of Boroughs is very great. All Cases of Trade and Government within any Borough are there decidable: Differences between Burgh and Burgh are there determined: They can Unlaw any Burgh, or Burges, that shall disobey them: They determine the Elections of Magistrates and Councils: They fine Delinquents, and those that are disobedient to their Decrees: They judge Misdemeanors of their Conservators and Factors abroad: They appoint Commissioners to visit the Burghs, and to make Reports to the Convention, that they may determine what is proper. In 1691 there was a General Visitation of all the Royal Burghs in Scotland, and the Commissioners were ordered to enquire into the State of each Burgh, as to their real and casual Rents and Revenues; their Trade and Shipping, and the Constitution of their Prisons and publick publick Works; their Harbours and Bulwarks, the Condition of their Houses, and the Management of their common Stock: And this Commission was faithfully executed, by which Means the Convention was fully appriz'd of all that concerned the Boroughs in general, and every Borough in particular.

They have made Laws relating to Shipping, to Masters and Owners of Ships, to Mariners and Merchants, by whom they were freighted; to Manufactures, such as Plaiding, Linnen, Yarn, &c. To the Curing and Packing of Fish, Salmons, Herrings, &c. To the Importing and Exporting several Commodities.

The Trade between Scotland and the Netherlands is subject to their Regulation: They fix the Stapleport, which was formerly at Dort, and is now at Camphere. Their Conservator is indeed nominated by the Crown, but then the Convention regulates his Powers, approves his Deputies, and appoints his Salary; so that in Truth the whole Staple Trade is subjected to their Management. They have also an Agent, and two Clerks.

Last of all, they have sent, upon Occasion, Commissioners from the whole Body into France, England, Denmark, and Poland, to negotiate Matters relating to their Body, to complain of Grievances, and the like; and this too they have done within these few Years. The Convention of Boroughs generally sits at Edinburgh, and they never remove from thence unless it has been agreed in Convention, and another Place appointed on Purpose. It is usually summoned by the Provost of Edinburgh, who issues out his Letters for that Purpose, and who upon any Emergency may summon a Convention pro re nata.

Town-Council.] The Town-Council meet once or twice a Week, to consider and deliberate about the Affairs of their Incorporation, and have their several distinct Courts for administering Justice in different Affairs; but their Magistrates, by their Fundamental Rights, continue in their Offices but one Year; tho' sometimes by Court Favour, and the private Interest of some Citizens, they continue longer. But all these inferior Judges and Magistrates, tho' they have their own Laws and Customs to rule by, yet all their Decisions and Determinations center in the Common, Civil, and Municipal Law, by which the Sovereign Judicatures proceed, which gives a Check to any Irregularities that those may at any Time commit in their respective Jurisdictions.

BOOK III.
Of Manners, Customs, Laws, &c.

CHAP. I.

Of Religious Manners, viz. of the CLERGY, their Names, Orders, Privileges, Revenues: Also of Dissenters from the Establish'd Church.

Name.]

FROM the Beginning of Christianity the Ministers of GOD in his Church have been call'd the Clergy, from the Greek Word κληρος, a Lot, as being more peculiarly God's Inheritance; for so that Greek Word metaphorically signify'd. From thence came the Word Clerk, which has since been taken into other Professions; for which Reason, Churchmen in Scotland have been usually called Ministers of God's Holy Word and Sacrament.

As long as Episcopacy continued in Scotland, all the Parish Priests received Orders from Bishops only, who were assisted by Presbyters. Now since the Establishment of Presbyterian Church Government, that is not required, but instead of Episcopal Ordination, they receive Ordination by solemn Prayer and Imposition of Hands from the Presbytery.

How a Clergyman becomes settled in a Living.

The Crown, the Nobility, and Gentry, by the ancient Laws and Constitutions of Scotland, had the Right of presenting Ministers to Livings in their Gift, to the Bishop of the Dioceses for Institution and Induction; but upon the Abolition of Episcopacy, Lay-Patronages were taken away by Act of Parliament; and in Case of a Vacancy in any Church, the Right of Presentation was settled in the Heritors of the said Parish (being Protestants) and the Ruling Elders: But that Method being found prejudicial to the Rights of Lay-Patrons in disposing thereof, and for other Reasons assigned, the Parliament of Great-Britain, in the 10th Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Enacted; That from and after the first Day of May, 1712, it shall and may be lawful for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and for every other Person or Persons who have Right to any Patronage or Patronages of any Church or Churches whatsoever (who have not made and subscribed a formal Renunciation thereof under their Hands) to present a qualified Minister or Ministers to any Church or Churches; whereof they are Patrons, which shall at any Time after the said first Day of May happen to be vacant; and the Presbytery of the respective Bounds shall, and is obliged to receive and admit the Minister so presented accordingly, any Thing in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Oath of Allegiance.

I A. B. do sincerely Promise and Swear, that I will be Faithful, and bear true Allegiance to his Majesty King GEORGE. So help me God.

The Assurance.

I A. B. do in the Sincerity of my Heart Assert, Acknowledge and Declare, That his Majesty King George is the only lawful and undoubted Sovereign of this Realm, as well de Jure, that is, of Right, King, as de Facto, that is, in the Possession and Exercise of the Government: And therefore do sincerely and faithfully promise and engage, age, that I will with Heart and Hand, Life and Goods, maintain and defend his Majesty's Title and Government against the Pretended Prince of Wales, and his Adherents, and all other Enemies, who either by open or secret Attempts shall disturb or disquiet his Majesty in the Possession or Exercise thereof.

Privileges of the Clergy.] The Privileges of the Scotch Clergy since the Reformation, are as considerable as in any other Protestant Kingdom or State, in relation both to their Persons and Estates; for the Law has provided, that such as shall be found guilty of Assaulting the Lives of Ministers, or robbing their Houses, or actually attempting the same, shall be punished by Death, and Escheat of Moveables. And that this Law may be the better executed, five Hundred Marks Reward is allowed to the Discoverer, and three Hundred Marks to the Apprehender of the aforesaid Criminals, to be paid out of his Majesty's Treasury. And for their better Accommodation, they are provided with convenient Manfes (i. e. Parsonage-Houses); and where they are not fitting, the Heritors of the Parish shall build compleat Manfes for them, not exceeding 1000*l.* nor under 500 Marks Value.

Revenues of the Clergy.] At the first Plantation of Christianity, People were so liberal in their Donations to the Church, that in a few Ages afterwards it grew very rich; but it was so impoverished by the Romish Clergy in latter Days, by letting long Leases, and corrupt Compositions, and frequent Alienations of their Rights, that had not K. James VI. took some Care in recovering and restoring some small Part of her former vast Revenues, this Church had been the poorest in the World. However, the Ecclesiastical Revenues are not so contemptible as many would render them, if one considers the Plenty of the Country in which they live; and that the Law has provided against Piuralities; and that every Parish-Church, and such Bounds as shall be found to be a sufficient and competent Parish, shall have their own Pastor, with a sufficient and reasonable Stipend, according to the State and Ability of the Place; and be exempted from paying Teynds (i. e. tithes). And as a farther Addition to their Maintenance, every Minister has Fewel, Foggage, Faill, and Divots allow'd them (except Ministers in Burghs that have no Right to Glebes) with Grass for one Horse and two Cows to be design'd; and if there be no Kirk-Land near the Manse, or the same be arrable, then the Heritors pay the Minister twenty Pounds yearly for their Grass. And when the Right of Teynds was settled upon the Lay-Patrons, Care was taken by the Government, that the Teynds should be burdened with the Minister's Stipend, and with a proportionable Augmentation for the future, as the Rents of Lands encreased. In the Provision made for the Parochial Clergy in Scotland, one Thing is very commendable, which is, that throughout the whole Country there are scarce ny Benefices worth less than 50*l.* sterling per Annum, which in that Country is a good Maintenance. And this Equality in the Divisions, at least the bringing of the smaller Benefices to that Value, is chiefly owing to the Care and Piety of King Charles I.

CHAP. II.

Of the Scottish Computation, Numbering, Weight, Measures, Money.

Scottish Computation.] THE Scots use the same Computations of Years, and Months, and Days, as the English in their Vulgar Account, beginning and ending their Portions of Time alike with them.

Weights and Measures.] The Goldsmiths of Edinburgh divide their Ounces into 16 Drops, and their Drops into 36 Grains, 27 of their Grains making the English Penny-Weight.

The Stone-weight is 16 Pounds, and the Pound 16 Ounces Troy; the Pint 3 Pounds and 7 Ounces Troy of clear Water of the River Leith; and the Firlot of Linlithgow, which is the Standard, contains Thirty One Pints Stirling Jug, for the measuring of Wheat, Rye, Meal, Beans, white Salt, Malt, Beer, and Oats; and 'twas ordered by Parliament, that these Standards be kept, two Firlots of Linlithgow, the Stone-weight at Lanark, the Ell at Edinburgh, and the Pint at Stirling, and that these be the universal respective Measures. The Applicative Measures are the scotch Ell, containing 37 Inches, and the Foot measures 12 of these Inches; the Standard whereof is also kept at Edinburgh, and all Glasiers, Masons, and other Workmen, work by it. But since the Union, all Weights and Measures are alike throughout the whole united Kingdoms; namely, those which are now establish'd in England; but then the Burghs in Scotland, to whom the keeping of the Standards of Weights and Measures formerly in use there, did of special Right belong, keep the Standards which have been sent down to them from the Standards kept in the Exchequer at Westminster.

Money.] The Wealth of Scotland anciently consisted in their Stocks of Cattle, and not of Money; though it is not to be doubted that these Parts of Great-Britain have all along maintained their Commerce in the same Methods and Fashion with those that are more Southern. So that the Value of Money, and the Prices of Goods, were at a Par among the several Nations which anciently inhabited this Island. Of this we have an early Instance in the Laws of King Malcolm II. wherein a Col- pindach, or young Heifer, was valued at Thirty Pence; the very same Price that was set on an Ox in some of our Saxon Laws, which are supposed to be enacted about the same Time. When Gold was first coined in Scotland is very uncertain: However, the Proportion betwixt Gold and Silver, has been usually One to Twelve; so that when the Ounce of Gold was three Pounds, the Ounce of Silver went at Five Shillings, &c. James the 11d. raised the Price first of Silver to 8*s.* an Ounce, and Gold to 4*l.* 19*s.* Afterwards he mounted the Ounce of Silver to 12*s.* and the Gold he advanced to 6*l.* and James IV. kept both at the last-mentioned Value. There are no remaining Acts of Council concerning Coinage in King James Vth's Time, tho' great Alterations were made in that Reign. The Dowglas Groats of 10*d.* fine, and Babies of 3*d.* fine, were then brought into Use, as were likewise the Bonnet Pieces of Gold. In Queen Mary's Time, the Ounce of Silver rose to 30*s.* and the coin'd Placks of only 2*d.* fine, at 14*l.* 16*s.* the Ounce. There is in the Bishop of Carlisle's Scotish Historical Library, a very curious Account of the several Gold and Silver Pieces of Money, which have from Time to Time been coined in Scotland: But all the current Money of that Country being, by the Articles of the Union, called in, and ordered to be reduced to the English Standard, that so there may not be different Species of Money current in Great-Britain, there is the less need to be particular in specifying of them: Those that are curious in those Matters, may recur to that excellent Book, where they will find abundance of Satisfaction.

As to what relates to the Nobility of Scotland, and their different Degrees, their Privilege, Precedence, &c. see the same in England.

C H A P. III.

Of the Commons of Scotland, and therein of Knights of the Thistle, of Bannerets, Baronets, Knights, Lairds, Scholars, Gentlemen, Landed-Men, Citizens, Burghers, &c.

Order of the Thistle.] AMONG the Nobles of a lower Degree, are Knights, who were formerly made here with greater Solemnity than any where else in Europe, by taking an Oath, and being proclaimed publicly by the Herald, of whom the most Honourable are the Knights of the Thistle.

The Noble Order of Knights of the Thistle was, as we are told, first erected by King Achaius, but growing into Desuetude by Length of Time, was reviv'd by King James VII. But his Misfortunes preventing the Completion of that Matter, it was restor'd by the late Queen Anne. The Collar of the Order is compos'd of Thistles, interwoven and linked with Sprigs of Leaves of Rue all of Gold, having thereunto pendant on a Blue Rundle, the Image of St. Andrew, his Vesture of Cloth of Gold, with the white Cross of his Martyrdom on his Breast, and in a Circle intervening, the Figure beautify'd with Pearls: The Inscription is, Nemo me impunè lacesset, tho' some think it should be Nemo me impunè lacescit, in the present Tense, as all other Motto's are; but tho' the present Time makes more the Nature of the Thing, yet the Future is more Threatning, and expresses more of Courage: And this Thistle is chosen not for its Nature, but for its Aptness to express this Effect of Courage.

The ordinary and common Badge worn by the Knights of this Noble Order, is a Green Ribbon, whereat hangs a Thistle of Gold, crown'd with an Imperial Crown, within a Circle also of Gold, bearing the aforesaid Motto, Nemo me impunè lacesset.

Upon the Feast of St. Andrew, being the 30th Day of November, the Knights solemnly meet in the Cathedral Church of the Town of St. Andrew, to celebrate their Feast: During the Solemnity they are richly Apparel'd; and being formerly all Lords of Parliament, they wear their Parliament Robes, having fixed on their left Shoulders in Azure Rundle, on which is embroidered St. Andrew's Cross, Argent, environed in the Centre with a Crown, beautify'd with Flower-de-Lys, Or.

Bannerets.] Knights and Bannerets are created under the Royal Standard, in the King's Army, and in the Field of Battle, the King himself being present, and that Honour to continue during the Banneret's Life only: They have Precedency before all of the same Order, whose Parents are of a posterior Date. King Charles I. did by his Letters Patents ordain that the Wives of these Knights, and their Heirs Male should have the Precedency as well after as before the Deaths of their Husbands, if they should happen to survive, before the Wives of all those of whom the Knights Baronets, and their Heirs Male had the Precedency, and even before the Wives of Knights Baronets.

Baronet.] The Order of Baronet in Scotland was first erected for advancing the Plantation of Nova Scotia in America, and for settling a Colony there, to which the Aid of these Knights was appropriated: This Order was designed by King James VI. before his Death, but was not actually founded 'till the Time of King Charles I. (A. D. 1625.) who disposed to each of these Knights a certain Portion of Land in Nova Scotia; and for their further Encouragement, did constitute and ordain that Heri-table State and Stile of Baronet, to be enjoy'd by every of these Gentlemen who did hazard their Lives for the Good and Encrease of that Plantation, and their Heirs Male for ever, with Priority and Precedency before all Knights called Equites Aurati, all lesser Barons, commonly called Lairds, and before all other Gentlemen (except Sir W. Alexander, his Majesty's Lieutenant of Nova Scotia, and his Heirs, their Wives and Children) and that to the Christian Name of these Knights should be added the Title Sir A. B. Baronet; and his Sons Wives should enjoy the Title and Appellation of Lady, Madam and Dame respectively, according to the usual Phrase in Speaking and Writing: The King promising that the Number of Baronets in Scotland should not exceed the Number of 150, and that he would not create any other Dignity or Order superior to that of Baronet. Further to adorn this Order, they were allow'd to wear and carry about their Necks, in all Times coming, an Orange Tawny Silk Ribbon, whereon was to hang pendant, in a Scutcheon, Argent, a Saltire, Azure, and thereon an Inescutcheon of the Arms of Scotland, with an Imperial Crown above the Scutcheon, and incircled with this Motto, Pax Mentis Honeſta Gloria. All which Grants are registred in the Books of Lion King of Arms and the Heralds, there to remain ad futuram rei memoriam. But after the selling of Nova Scotia to the French, this Order became an honourable Title in Scotland, conferred at the King's Pleasure without Limitation of Number.

Knights Batchelors, Equites Aurati, succeed in the next Place of Honour; next to them their Lairds, or Landed Gentlemen, though a Laird in Effect is but the Corruption of the Word Lord.

Among such as profess Sciences, the Rank is this; 1. Such as profess Theology. 2. Such as profess Canon Law. 3. The Civil Law. 4. Philosophy. 5. Medicine. 6. Rhetorick. 7. Poesy. 8. History. 9. Grammar. 10. Logick. 11. Arithmetick. 12. Geometry. 13. Musick. 14. Astronomy. And among these, such as are Doctors precede those that are not; and among Doctors the Priority goes by Age.

In Towns, those who inhabit Cities are preferr'd to such as inhabit Burghs; and generally those in the Metropolitan, or Capital City, are preferr'd to all the rest. And those who have born Magistracy are ever preferr'd to all others: And so far is this Precedency observ'd, that a younger Alderman, or Bailiff, takes not Precedency from his Senior because he is Knighted. This holds not only among Aldermen, but even among all Knights in the Country; the Burgesses of a Town give Place to those that have been Magistrates in that Town, as to publick Meetings relating to the Town; though it's doubted whether such a Knight is obliged to give Place to an Alderman or Bailiff in a neutral Place. But it is determin'd in the Herald's Office of England, that all such as have been Mayors of London, London, that is to say, Provosts in Scotland, ought to take Place of all Knights Batchelors every where, because they have been the King's Lieutenants.

The Members of Courts take Place according to the Precedency of the Courts where they serve.

In Families likewise, the Chief of the Family takes Place of any Gentleman of the Family; and though it is generally believed that Gentlemen have no Precedency among one another, yet Reason and Discretion allow, that a Gentleman of three Generations ought to give Place to a Gentleman of ten, if there is not a great Disparity between their Fortunes; and that for the same Reason, that a Gentleman of three Generations claims Precedency from an ordinary Land-man, who has but newly acquired his Lands.

CH A P. IV.

Of the Women, Children, and Servants in Scotland.

THE Women in Scotland have as great Privileges as in any other Nation. I shall begin with their Precedency. Women before their Marriage have Precedency by their Father's Title; but there is this Difference betwixt them and the Male Children, that the same Precedency is due to all the Daughters that is due to the Eldest, though it is not so among Sons.

During Marriage, the Wife regularly participates of the Condition of her Husband by the Civil Law and Law of Nations; for since she is to be Sharer in his Misfortunes, the Law thought it just that she should participate of his Advantages. In France the Wives of those who have Dignity by their Office, enjoy the same Precedency with their Husbands, together with a Communication of their Title; and therefore they say, Madam la Chanceliere, Madam la Presidente; but it is not so in Scotland, where Offices are believed to be bestowed on Husbands upon a personal Account, which is not communicable to their Wives; and yet in some temporary Dignities, such as that of Knights Batchelors, the Wife participates of the Husband's Title and Precedency, though this proceeded originally rather from Courtesy than Law: For by the Heralds Records of old, a Knight's Wife enjoyed only his Honours during the Spousals, and were not in Law to be called Dame Alice, or Dame Catherine, &c. when once the Marriage was dissolved.

By the Law of Scotland also, if a Woman have Precedency by her Birth or Descent, she still retains the same, tho' she marry a Person of inferior Dignity; but it is observable, that if the Daughter of a Nobleman marry another Nobleman, she loses the Precedency due to her Birth, tho' she does not lose it by marrying a Gentleman; the Reason whereof is, because by marrying a Nobleman she receives a Feudal Dignity, which suppresses the first.

If a mean Woman marries a Nobleman who has been degraded by Forfeiture or otherwise, she still retains the Privilege due to her by her Husband, for Crimes are only personal.

The Ladies of the Queen's Privy-Chamber, tho' the Queen is dead, in the Time of Mourning, take their Place as if the Queen was living, 'till the Funerals are ended; and the Queen's Women of the Bed-chamber at the Funeral, go before Countesses Women, without Prejudice to the Countesses Women thereafter.

The Wives and Daughters of all Dukes, Marquisses, and Earls, &c. take Place in this Order.

The Wives of Dukes of the Blood Royal.	The Wives of the eldest Sons of Barons.
The Wives of other Dukes.	The Daughters of Barons.
The Wives of the Eldest Sons of Dukes of the Blood Royal.	The Wives of Knight Bannerets.
The Daughters of the Dukes of the Blood Royal.	The Wives of the younger Sons of Lords.
The Wives of Marquisses.	The Wives of Knight Baronets.
The Wives of the eldest Sons of Dukes.	The Wives of the eldest Sons of Bannerets.
The Daughters of Dukes.	The Daughters of Bannerets.
Countesses.	The Wives of Knight Bachelors.
The Wives of the eldest Sons of Marquisses.	The Wives of the eldest Sons of Baronets.
The Daughters of Marquisses.	The Daughters of Knight Baronets.
The Wives of the younger Sons of Dukes.	The Wives of the eldest Sons of Knight Bachelors.
The Wives of the eldest Sons of Earls.	The Daughters of Knight Bachelors.
Daughters of Earls.	The Queen's Maids of Honour.
The Wives of Viscounts.	The Wives of Lairds.
The Wives of the younger Sons of Marquisses.	The Daughters of Lairds.
The Wives of Barons that are called Lords.	The Wives of Gentlemen.
The Wives of the eldest Sons of Viscounts.	The Daughters of Gentlemen.
The Daughters of Viscounts.	The Wives of Citizens.
The Wives of the younger Sons of Earls.	The Wives of Burghesses.

Servants]

Servants.] Servants are distinguished into a two-fold Capacity in Scotland: The first are such as hold Lands of their Lords in perpetual Vassalage, and so they and their Posterity are in this Manner Servants to the Lords for ever, in Tilling and Husbanding their Lands, and returning the Profits of them to the Proprietor, and with such Allowance for their Maintenance as their Lords are pleased to allow them. The other are hired Servants of both Sexes, under certain annual Wages, and for a Time agreed upon, who are not to leave their Service at their own Pleasure; for, if only hired from Martinmas to Whitsuntide, they may be detained by their Masters, or compelled by a Justice of the Peace to stay with them for the same Hire, from Whitsunday to Martinmas, unless the Servant can verify to the Justice of the Peace, or Constable of the Bounds, that he is hired to another Master: And a Justice of the Peace may compel a Servant running away, to return to his Master, or punish him.

C H A P. V.

Of the Laws of Scotland.

BEfore the Reign of King Malcolm, who for his great Head was called Canmore, and was contemporary with K. William I. of England, the Scots had no Sorts of written Laws: The King gave Judgment from some little Mount where he could be most conveniently heard and seen by the Parties concerned; which for that Reason was commonly known by the Name of the Mute-hill; and all emergent Controversies of an inferior Nature, and in Common-Pleas, were ended by a Jury of Seven, Nine, Eleven, or Thirteen, or, as was most usual, Fifteen honest Men in the Neighbourhood. These were the ordinary Judges of Law and Fact, and the Majority of their Votes was always acquiesced in, as a definitive and final Sentence.

The first authentick Body of Laws of the Kingdom of Scotland, if even that may be justly esteemed so, is the Regiam Majestatem, so called from the two initial Words of the Book, or as it is commonly called, The Majesty; the Compiler whereof declares, that King David I. put him upon making that Collection, and that it was taken out of a vast Number of old Law Books, as a Manual of the most common Practice of the then Courts of Judicature, a great Part of which is borrowed from the Civil Law.

Civil Law.] The Civil Law, strictly so called, is the Rule of all Proceedings in Scotland, where the Statute Law is defective: Upon the Civil Law the solemn Judgments in Law Cases have been collected, which are called Prattiques, a Word of the same Import with that of Reports in England. There is a greater Harmony betwixt the Laws of England and Scotland than one would imagine: For the Acts of Sederunt are the same with the Rules of Court in England: The Scotish Proclamations revive obsolete Statutes, and so do the English: The Scotish Letters of Advocacion are all one with the Prohibitions in England: Both Nations agree in their Practice in the secret Examination of married Women, in passing of Fines; and the Jus Relictæ, i. e. the Scotish Terces, and the English Thirds are the same. The Scotish Wadsets and Reversions, answer to the English Mortgages and Defeazances; their Pounding of Goods after Letters of Horning, differs not from the English Executions upon an Outlawry: Nor does the King's Remission in Scotland free from Affything, any more than his Pardon in England forecloses an Appeal.

Municipal Law.] The Municipal Law consists either of Acts of Parliament, or of the Custom and Practices of the College of Justice, which in Cases not otherwise adjudged, have the Forces of Acts of Parliaments; and when neither of these contradicts, the Civil Law is of Force; which in truth is the Common Law of Scotland.

Forest Laws.] Forest Laws were designed for the good Government of the King's Forests, Parks, Woods, and Chases; to prevent Pasturing in Forests by such as have no Right to it, or without Licence from the Comptrollers or Keepers, who if they suffer it, are to forfeit that Office, and the Offender's Chatelets to be escheated to the King, also to punish Fellers of the King's Woods, Slayers of Deer or Wild Fowl therein, with Bow, Gun, Dog, Hawk, or other Engine, or those that shoot with any Gun therein, or in the Night, within a Mile thereof, or slay any Deer straying in Time of Storm, under the Penalty of having all their Goods escheated; to prevent Hunting or Hawking within six Miles of the King's Woods, Parks, Chases, and Palaces, under the Penalty of 100 l. half to the King, and half to the Delator (i. e. Informer); which Penalties the Keepers of Forests, and others having Right thereto by their Infeoffments, have Power to inflict upon Transgressors, after Trial and Conviction by an Inquest.

Registers.] The Law of Scotland is easy and regular, by reason of publick Registers, of which there are two Sorts, for recording Conveyances of the Lands and Possessions of private Subjects; whereof one is General, and fixed at Edinburgh, for the Use of the whole Kingdom, the other is more particular in the several Shires, Stewartries and Regalities; they were first established by Act of Parliament in the Reign of K. James II. since

Since which Time they are the best Repositories of Records relating to Civil Rights of the Subjects; which are so full, that Titles are much more easily understood, than can be done without them; for by this Means Men are not cheated in purchasing and conveying Estates; which may appear by the following Instances.

No Man can have a Right to any Estate, but by his being Seized of it, and that must be Registered within sixty Days, otherwise it is of no Effect; by which means all secret Conveyances are cut off; for if no Seizing be passed upon them, or if they be not entered in the Register, which every one is at Liberty to search, the Conveyance is of no Force.

Secondly, All Bonds have a Clause in them for inserting them in the publick Registers; and they being registred, without any further Action, by a Charge of six Days the Debtor must make Payment, otherwise Writs, called Letters of Horning, Caption and Poinding, are given out; by the first of which the Party is under Outlawry and Rebellion, and forfeits to the King his Personal Estate; and if he continue a Year under it, the Life Rent of his Real Estate, in which the Creditor is preferred for his Interest, and the rest goes into the Exchequer. By the Letters of Caption the Debtor is seized and put into Prison, nor is his House a Place of Security, but may be searched for him. By the Letters of Poinding, the Debtor's Goods may be distrained wherever they can be found.

A third Instance is, that any Creditor may serve a Writ on his Debtors, called Letters of Inhibition, which hinders him from making any Disposition of his Goods or Estate, 'till the Creditor is satisfied, and all is Null and to no Effect that he doth afterwards, if these Letters be returned Registered within Twenty-one Days after they are served, otherwise they are of no Force. In short, all Reversions, Regresses, Bands and Writs for making the same, Assignations thereto, Discharges thereof, Renunciation of Woodsets, Grants of Redemption, and all Instruments of Seizing are to be registred to the General Registry, to be appointed by the Clerk Register at Edinburgh, or in particular Registers for that Purpose, within threescore Days after Date of them; and Extracts out of the said Register make Faith in all Cases, except in the Case of Improbation: And if any of the said Writs shall not be Registrated, they are Null in Prejudice of a third Party; but not against the Maker thereof and his Heirs. This Registration is annexed to the Clerk Register's Office, and is to be made by him or his Deputies within 48 Hours after the Receipts of the Writs, under Pain of Deprivation of the Clerk of his Place and Office of Notary; who are also to deliver back the Writs, marked with the Day, Month, Year and Leaf of the Registration, for which he is to receive Twenty-six Shillings and Eight Pence for his Fee, and then they are delivered to the Clerk Register, to be Patent, and Extracts tracts thereof given to the Proprietors: Which Law now extends to all Lands in Burghs and their Liberties, and the Town-Clerks are to keep a several Book for their Registrations, depending only on the Magistrates, and not the Clerk-Register. All Letters of Horning, Inhibitions, Interdictions, Seisins and Reversions, are all to be registred; the first within 15 Days, the second and third within 40 Days, and the two last within 60 Days, or else they are Null and of no Effect. All Charters and other Writs passing the Great-Seal and Privy-Seal, must be registred by the Writers thereto, in the Registers thereof, and no Keeper must append the Seal to any Writ, before he receives a Certificate that the Instruments are registred.

[A short View of the Acts of Parliament of Great-Britain that have made any Alteration in the Laws of Scotland, from the Union of the two Kingdoms, Anno 1707.]

Union of the two Kingdoms.] By 5 A. R. cap. . it was enacted, That the Kingdoms of England and Scotland should be united into one Kingdom, by the Name of Great-Britain; the said Union to commence on the 1st of May, 1707.

Land-Tax.] 1 Geo. cap. 31. An Act for raising by a Land-Tax in England, 1,993,157 l. 5 s. 9 d. and in Scotland, 47,950 l. 1 s. 2 d.

Attainder of the Scottish Lords.] 1 Geo. cap. 32. An Act to attain, John Earl of Mar, William Murrey, Esq; called Marquis of Tullibardine, James, Earl of Linlithgow, and James Drummond, Esq; called Lord Drummond.

Highlanders Disarmed.] 1 Geo. cap. 54. An Act for more effectually securing the Peace of the Highlands.—By this Act the Highlanders were disarmed—but the Act was not to extend to Noblemen or Commoners having the yearly Income of 400 l. Scots, or who are otherwise qualified to vote at Elections of Parliament-Men.

Vassals Are obliged to personal Attendance.] After the first of August, 1717, the annual Value of the Services, called Personal Attendance, Hosting, Hunting, Watching and Warding, shall be paid in Money annually, and in such Services be required in Kind.

Equivalent.] 5 Geo. 1. cap. 20. An Act for settling certain yearly Funds, payable out of the Revenues of Scotland, to satisfy publick Debts in Scotland, and other Uses mentioned in the Treaty of Union, and to discharge the Equivalents claimed on behalf of Scotland, and for obviating future Disputes concerning it: The Sum of 10,000 l. to be one yearly Fund, 2000 l. to be another yearly Fund for the Purposes of this Act, to continue for ever, subject however to Redemption.

Civil List of Scotland.] The said Funds to be payable out of the Excise and Customs of Scotland, the Charges of the Civil List there being first paid.

If the Produce of the Excise, &c. shall be deficient, to be made good out of the Revenues of Scotland.

Proprietors of Debts Incorporated.] The King empowered to Incorporate the Proprietors of 248,550 l. 9 s. 0 d. $\frac{1}{2}$ on whom the abovesaid Annuities are settled, when of it: The said Sum to be the Joint-Stock of the Company, and every one to have a Share in the Annuity in proportion to his Debt.

Fisheries and Manufacturies.] The annual Sum of 2000 l. to be applied to the Encouragement of the Fishery and other other Manufacturies in Scotland, the said Annuities to be in lieu of all Equivalents claim'd by Scotland.

Oaths.] 5 Geo. 1. cap. 29. An Act for making more effectual the Laws appointing the Oaths for the Security of the Government, to be taken by Ministers and Preachers in Churches and Meeting-Houses in Scotland.

Highways.] 5 Geo. cap. 30. An Act for making the Laws more effectual for repairing High-ways, Bridges and Ferries in Scotland.

Justices of Peace.] The Justices of Peace and Commissioners of the Supply in every County, are hereby empowered to order the High-ways to be repaired in the same Manner as in England.

Woollen Manufacturies.] 6 Geo. cap. 13. An Act for regulating the Woollen Manufacturies in Scotland.

Aberdeen Records.] 8 Geo. cap. 28. An Act for supplying the Records burnt at Aberdeen.

Linnen Manufacturies.] 13 Geo. cap. 26. An Act for regulating the Linnen Manufacturies in Scotland.

Fisheries and Manufacturies.] 13 Geo. 1. cap. 26. An Act for encouraging the Fisheries and other Manufacturies and Improvements in Scotland.

This Act recites that the annual Sum of 2000 l. had not then been applied to the Improvement of the Fisheries and Manufacturies in Scotland, as former Acts required.

And

And grants that her Majesty be impowered to settle a Plan for the Improvement of the said Fisheries and Manufacturies, and to appoint Trustees for putting the same in Execution.

Rabal Stores.] 2 Geo. II. cap. 32. An Act to encourage the Importation of Masts, Yards and Bowsprits from Scotland.

Corporal Punishments.] 3 Geo. II. cap. 32. An Act for enabling the Judges of the Court of Session in Scotland to adjourn the said Court, and to limit the Time for the Execution of Sentences, importing Corporal Punishments in that Kingdom.

Christmas Vacation.] The Judges of the Court of Session are hereby impowered to adjourn their Sessions between the 15th of December and the 15th of January, for any space of Time not exceeding ten Days; so that they may still have a Yule Vacance, or Christmas Vacation, if their Judges see fit.

Corporal Punishments.] Further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Magistrates and Courts of Judicature, to put in Execution any Sentence importing Corporal Punishment, less than Death or Dismembring, in any Part of Scotland, South of the Frith, within eight Days after it is pronounced; and to the Northward of the Frith, within ten Days after it is pronounced.

Judges may respite Execution.] And the Judges of the Court of Justiciary, or any of them, are authorized, upon Application to them, to delay Execution, if they think proper, for thirty Days, to the end Application may be made for Relief against any hard or unjust Sentence.]

C H A P. VI.

Of the Diet, Attire, Recreations, and Buildings of the Scots.

Diet.] THE Diet of the Scots is agreeable to their Estates and Qualities: No People eat better, or have greater Varieties of Flesh, Fish, wild and tame Fowl, than the Scots Nobility and Gentry in their own Country, where they can furnish their Tables with Ten Dishes cheaper than the English can provide Three of the same Kinds; and of their Wines, the French themselves did not before the Union drink better, and at very easy Rates. The Tradesmen, Farmers and Common People, are not such excessive Devourers of Flesh as Men of the same Rank are in England: Milk-meats and Oatmeal several Ways prepared, and Cale and Roots dressed in several Manners, is the constant Diet of the poor People (for Roast-meat is seldom had but on Gaudy-days) and with this kind of Food they enjoy a better State of Health, than their more Southern Neighbours, who fare higher.

Roast-

Attire.] Anciently, all Degrees of Men and Women were determined in Scotland by the Sumptuary Laws of the Kingdom. None might wear Silk or costly Furring, except Knights and Barons of Two Hundred Marks yearly, and their eldest Sons, without License from the King, nor no other Persons wear Broidery, Pearls or Bullion; and by a special Act of Parliament, made in the Reign of King James II. no Women are allowed to come to Kirk or Mercat with their Faces Mussel'd, under Pain of the Escheat of the Coutchy. The solemn Apparel, or Manner of Arrayments for Members of Parliament, for Speakers, for Magistrates of Burghs, Lords of Session, and other inferior Judges, were appointed by the King. And all Kirk-men, (i. e. Ministers) were ordered to wear Black; and by the Act of Trade, in the Reign of K. Charles II. Men and Women were prohibited from wearing any Cloaths trimmed with Gold and Silver Buttons, Laces, Embroidery, Fringes, or Filigrane, Silks or Stuffs wherein was either Silver or Gold-Thread, upon Pain of Forfeiting the Cloaths and Five hundred Marks of Fine, toties quoties: Which has been carefully observed, and at present nothing is worn but decent plain Cloth or Stuff by Men of the best Quality of this Country, except Military Officers, that are privileged in Time of Service to wear Laced Liveries, and out of Service, 'till they have worn them out. The meaner Sort in the Lowlands are habited like the English, except their Bonnets and Plaids, which they wear different from the Highlanders, who are constant in their Cloathing in Plaids, which are only one Piece of 7 or 8 Yards long, with which they cover their whole Bodies from Neck to Knee, excepting the Right Arm, which they manage to artificially, as to supply the Defect of Drawers and Breeches; they cover their Heads with Thrum Caps, Blue, Grey, or Sad Colour, as the Buyer pleases.

Recreations.] Not to mention Hunting, Hawking, Setting, Horse-racing, Fishing, Fowling, Coursing, Bowling, and such Manly Sports, proper only to the Nobility, Gentry, and their Attendants, the Sports called Foot-Ball playing, and Golf, were the usual Recreations of the Common People, to which they were so addicted, that there was no less than three Acts of Parliament in so many several Reigns to discharge the Use of them, under the Penalty of 50 Shillings to the Lord of the Land, or to the Sheriff in his Neglect; which being of no Advantage to the Publick, the Wisdom of the State Enacted, That Wheaping Shawing should succeed in the stead of them, and be kept four Times a Year in every Shire, and so likewise in the Boroughs; all Men being sufficiently Harnessed and Armed, and Butts (or, as they call them, Bow-Marks) set up for Shooting in every Parish, with the Use of Guns and Fire-Arms; that so the King's Lieges might be ready and fit for War upon eight Days Warning. This was designed to instruct the Standing Militia of the Kingdom.

Buildings. J. If we may judge of the Stateliness, Grandeur, and beauty of the Publick Buildings in Scotland by their present Ruins, we must needs conclude that they were Magnificent Structures. Most of the Cathedral and Collegiate Churches were, and those that remain are, of Free-stone, with which this Country abounds; and so were the Abbies, Convents, and Monasteries, which the Rabble, in the Beginning of the Reformation, razed from the very Foundation, and converted the Stones and other useful Materials to the building of Houses and Cities, which in many Places are covered with Slate. The Houses of the Nobility and Gentry are also built with Free-stone, and well-furnished, agreeable to their Qualities.

CHAP. VII.

Of Punishments in Scotland.

AMong the Crimes that in the Laws of Scotland are called Capital, High-Treason is the first: And for the Punishment of that and other Capital Crimes, there is a late Act of the Parliament of Great-Britain, Anno septimo ANNE REGINE, entitled, An Act for improving the Union of the Two Kingdoms; which statutes and appoints the Method and Manner of Proceedings in the Trial of such Criminals. Now, High-Treason consists in Conspiring, Plotting, Contriving and Intending the Death and Destruction of the King or Queen, or any bodily Harm tending thereto, or any Restraint upon their Persons; or to Deprive, Depose, or to Suspend them from the Stile, Honour, or Kingly Name, of this, or any other his Majesty's Dominions; or to Suspend him from the Exercise of his Government; or to levy War, or to take up Arms against him, or any Commissionate by him; or to entice Strangers, or others, to invade any of his Dominions; and by Writing, Printing, or other malicious and advised Speaking, express or declare such other Treasonable Intentions: And the Offenders are punished as Traitors, with Death, Loss of Honour to their Posterities, and their whole Estates forfeited to the Crown. They are put to Death in the same Manner as in England, by Drawing, Hanging, Quartering of Men, and Burning of Women: But Noblemen are generally Beheaded, not with an Ax, as in England, or a Sword, as in Holland; but by an Instrument called a Maiden; which is a broad Piece of Iron about a Foot Square, very sharp on the lower Part, and loaded above with such a Weight of Lead, that is scarce to be lifted. At the Time of Execution it is pulled up to the Top of a narrow Wooden Frame, about 10 Foot high, and as broad as the Engine, with Mouldings on each Side for the Maiden to slide in: About four Foot from the Ground, a Convenience is made for the Prisoner to lay his Neck, with a kind of a Bar so fastened as to keep him from stirring: Upon a Sign given, the Maiden is let loose, and in a Moment separates the Head from the Body. The Scots have a Tradition, that the first Inventor of this Machine was the first that suffered by it.

Noblemen

Bringing in of any kind of Poison into the Realm, thro' which Man or Woman may take any bodily Harm, for any Manner of Use, is also Treason; and so is declining the King's Authority, or impugning the Authority and Dignity of the States in Parliament: Accusing another calumniously of Treason, is Treason; and if the Person accused be acquit, the Accuser must suffer as a Traitor. Murder and Slaughter of a Person under the Trust, Credit, Assurance, and Power of the Slayer, is also Treason, and punishable as such. [These Offences are not Treason at this Day, as appears by an Act made since the Union.]

Robbers upon the High-way, Breakers of Houses, Re-setters of Thieves, or Intercommuners with them to that Effect, and Prayers of Black Mail, are guilty of Felony, and punishable with Confiscation of Goods and Death: But Stealers of Wood, Breakers of Hedges, Dykes, Fences, and Stealers of Fruit, Honey, or Fish out of Ponds or Lochs, are punished with Pains Pecunial, not exceeding Forty Pounds Scots. And if Children under Age commit any of these Things, their Fathers or Masters are to pay 13 s. 4 d. or one Mark Scots, for every single Offence; or else deliver them to the Judge to be whipped. But such as sell the Goods of Thieves of Clans, that dare not come to Market in the Lowlands themselves, are punished with Banishment and Escheat of Moveables, Half to the King, and the other Half to the Apprehender.

Forgers of Instruments, False-Witnesses, or Men guilty of Subornation, and their Accomplices, are punished by piercing their Tongues, Forfeiture of Goods and Chattels, and Infamy: And further at the Judge's Discretion.

But it is to be observed, although the Lords of Session punish these Crimes ad Arbitrium, yet the Justices punish them with Death.

Extortioners, or Takers, or Makers of Bargains, for greater Interest and Profit for the Loan of Money, than at the Rate of Ten Pounds, or Five Bols Victual per Cent. for the Year, in case that be the present legal Interest, forfeit the Principal Money, and all their Moveables. The Party is to pay it; and for the Usury, if he reveal it, is discharged of the Debt; and if another reveal it, he has a Right to the Sum; and the Receiver or Contractor for the said Usury, shall use the Principal.

Forestallers of Markets, or Regraters, that buy any Merchandize or Victual by Land or Water, before it is presented in the Market, or in the Market before lawful Time of Day, are punished by Imprisonment, and a Fine of Forty Pounds Scots for the first Fault; for the second, an Hundred Marks; and for the third, Loss of Moveables.

All Judges and Officers, whom it concerns, upon any bodily Hurt done, or Slaughter committed, upon Complaint, are diligently to enquire, if the Deed was done on Forethought, Felony, or through Chaud Mella, i. e. upon a Rencounter in a Passion; if upon the former, the Trespasser is incontinently imprisoned, and his Life and Goods at the King's Will; but if the Fact is found to be done thro' Chaud Mella, upon Trial he is acquitted.

Forefaulture of Persons convicted for Lese Majestie, or Treasons of any kind, are punished by the King's seizing all Lands holden of himself, and their Lives are at the King's Will.

Confession extorted from suspected Criminals in Scotland, is by an Instrument called the Boor, made of 4 Pieces of narrow Boards nailed together, of a competent Length for the Leg; in which they put the Leg of the Party, which they wedge tight on all Sides, as Occasion requires, according to the Notoriety of the supposed Crime. Something also they have like it for the Thumb, which they call the Thumbkins, for less suspected Offences. [Torture is abolished since the Union, by an Act of Parliament.]

C H A P. VIII.

Of Societies instituted in Scotland, for the Advancement of Religion, whether incorporated or voluntary.

THE late Queen's Majesty understanding the charitable Inclinations of many of her Subjects, for raising a voluntary Contribution towards the further promoting Christian Knowledge, and the Increase of Piety and Virtue within Scotland, especially in the Highlands, Islands, and remote Corners thereof, where Error, Idolatry, Superstition, and Ignorance do mostly abound; did, first, by her Royal Proclamation, dated August 18, 1709, approve and recommend the aforesaid charitable Design; and afterwards granted her Letters Patent for incorporating the Subscribers and Contributors to this Pious Design into a Body Politick, by the Name of The Society in Scotland for propagating Christian Knowledge; granting them full Power to receive Subscriptions, Mortifications, Donations, Legacies, Sums of Money, Lands, Goods and Gear, and therewith to erect and maintain Schools to teach to read, especially the Holy Scriptures, and other good and pious Books; and also to teach Writing, Arithmetick, and such like Degrees of Knowledge in the Highlands, Islands, and remote Corners of Scotland; appointing them a general Meeting Quarterly at Edinburgh, in the Town-Hall, the first Thursday of January, March, June, and November, Yearly, and oftner when and where the Society shall think meet: Nine of their Number to be a Quorum, with Power, by Plurality of Voices, to elect a President, a Treasurer, a Secretary or Clerk, and other Officers; all which are obliged to take an Oath de fidei Administrationis Officij; with several other Rights, Privileges and Immunities for the better and more orderly carrying on this Good Design.

These Letters Patent bear Date the 25th of May, 1709. And to do Justice to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, it must be observed, that they passed an Act to encourage the Design of Charity Schools in April this very Year 1709; and Subscriptions were then begun to be made: And there appeared a good Prospect of Success; for by the Patent which they now have received, the Design was really begun, and 2000 l. Sterling was subscribed to it: And the Dutches of Hamilton, to her great Honour, settled some of these Schools in the Isle of Arran. For altho' every Parish in Scotland is obliged to maintain one School-Master, yet it is but in some Places that the School-Masters are obliged to teach the Poor gratis. So that notwithstanding that Legal Provision, Charity-Schools are found to be highly necessary in Scotland, as well as in England and Foreign Countries. Two noble Examples are come to Knowledge, which ought not to be omitted, viz. that to CARLAVROCK, near DUMFRIES in Dumfriesshire, a private Gentleman gave last Year 1000 l. towards erecting a Charity-School for all the Poor Children in the Town and Neighbourhood, the same being much infested with Papists. And James Fraser, Esq; has lately done the same. The General Assembly having interested themselves in this Glorious Undertaking, by publishing their Act and Recommendation for furthering the Design of Propagating Christian Knowledge, an Instrument for a Subscription has been drawn up, and Printed Copies thereof sent to all the Presbyteries, to the End that the Ministers may propose this good Work to those within their Bounds, and deal with piously disposed Persons, for obtaining their Concurrence, getting Subscriptions, &c.

C H A P. IX.

Of SCHOOLS, and other Benefactions for Studies in Scotland.

Schools.] IN every Parish there is a School set up by Act of Parliament, as hath been already mentioned, whose Master has a Salary from the Publick, and the Scholars allow them some small Matter Quarterly. In Country Schools they teach Writing and Arithmetick, and Reading English, and in some Latin. In the Royal Burghs they teach Latin and Greek, and have tolerable Salaries; besides that each Scholar gives 2 s. 6r 2 s. 6 d. a Quarter; and in these Schools they teach nothing else, having English and Writing-Schools besides in all Places where they have Grammar-Schools. In Country Parishes the School-master is usually Precentor and Kirk-Session-Clerk, which brings him in some Advantage; for he receives 1 s. and sometimes 1 s. 8 d. for asking of Banns of Marriage; 6 d. for Registring a Child that is Christned; and 3 d. for a Certificate for any Person that removes out of the Parish. All School-Masters are obliged to take the Oath of Allegiance, to subscribe the Confession of Faith, and must submit to a Trial from the Presbytery of the Bounds.

Bursars.] For a continual Supply of Ministers in the Kirk of Scotland, it was ordained by the General Assembly sitting at Edinburgh, A. D. 1645. That a Number of pious Youths, of good Expectations and approved Abilities, should be chosen, and sent Bursars, or Exhibitioners, to the Universities, by the several Presbyteries of Scotland, every Presbytery consisting of 12 Kirks, being required to send and maintain one Bursar yearly at the University; and where the Presbyteries are fewer in Number, they are to join with other Presbyteries to make up the Number: And the Overplus of the Number to be ordered and disposed by the Presbyteries and Synods; and their Books to bear Record thereof. These Bursars are to be allowed for their Maintenance 100 l. Scots per Annum at least, which is to be taken out of the Kirk Penalties; and the said Maintenance to be collected by the Moderator of every Presbytery, by equal divided Portions; the one half to be brought in at the Winter Synod, and given to the Bursars, and the other half at the Summer Synod, to be sent unto them. The Time of the Bursars Continuance at the University is not to exceed four Years; if before that Time any of these Bursars should be removed by Death, or be called to a particular Charge, another is to succeed in his Room. All Bursars of Theology are obliged to bring sufficient Testimonies from the Universities where they are bred, of their Proficiency and good Behaviour, and be also ready to give a Proof of their Labours at the several Synods, if it shall be required: And if they are found deficient, their Exhibitions are taken away, and given to others.

Besides Bursars from Presbyteries, there are also others maintained by Noblemen and Gentlemen, Ministers and others who have left great Sums of Money for that End; the Interest whereof is applied to maintain poor Students: And by a Gift of King William III. diverse Students have considerable Allowances to study beyond Seas; which Gift is charged upon the Revenues of the late Bishops.

In the Year 1578. the Town of Edinburgh founded their high School, by Warrant and Encouragement from the Royal Bounty of King James VI. whence it took the Name of the King's School: It has a Master, four Ushers, a Writing-Master and a Janitor; all which are provided with fixed competent Salaries, except the Writing-Master, whose Benefit is casual. It hath a publick Library, erected by the Authority of the Town-Council, Anno 1658, principally consisting of Latin and Greek Classick Authors.

CHAP. X.

Of the City of Edinburgh.

Edinburgh.] E Edinburgh is the Metropolis of Scotland, formerly the Royal Seat, and far surpasseth all other Cities of North Britain in the Stateliness of its Churches, the Beauty and Neatness of its publick and private Buildings, the Largeness of its Circumference, and in the Number and Wealth of its Inhabitants. Very many of the Houses are parted into diverse Tenements, and they very often have as many Landlords as Stories, having no Dependance upon one another, saying that they are built upon one and the same Foundation.

Name and Antiquity.] By the most ancient Inhabitants it was called Dun Eden; by the Latins, Edinodunum; and by their Saxon Ancestors, Edinburgh; all which signify a Town upon a Hill, or rather the City of the Edeni, built upon a Hill. The Edeni were those whom Ptolemy called Ottodeni; which Word, as some learned Men think, was mistaken for Scotodeni; the two first Letters Sc. being through Haste of the Copiers omitted.

Ptolemy calls this Place Castrum alatum, the winged Castle, not from the Greek Way of Building mentioned by Vitruvius, but from the very Nature of the Place; for, besides the Lake on both Sides, there are two Hills near the Rock on which the Castle stands, which something resembles Wings, as may be easily perceived, if one goes to the City from the South-East by the Sea-side; for then those Rocks appear like Wings stretched forth, and the Rock on which the Castle stands, like the Head of a Bird with a Tuft. This seems to be the true Reason of the Name.

Situation.] The Hill on which the City stands, hath upon the North-side a standing Pool, commonly called the North-Loch; upon the South-side there was formerly another standing Pool, called the South-Loch, as appears by some Leaves of Houses in St. Ninian's-Row, which were let with the Privilege of a Boat annexed. These two Lochs or Lakes bounded the City upon those two Sides, as the North-Loch does at present on the North; but the South-Loch was drained above 100 Years ago, and upon its Banks are built two several Ranges of Houses, between which is a Street called the Cow-gate, built upon the Ground which was once covered with Water. A great Part of the City stands upon an Ascent; and it is very probable, that the Castle was the Cause of building the City; for first the Neighbours having built a few Houses near the Castle, others followed their Example, that they might be defended by it from the Insults of their Enemies.

This City is inclosed with something, which seems to have been an old Roman Wall on every Side except the North, where it is secured by the Loch. It has six Gates, two to the East, two to the South, one to the West, and another lately built to the North. One of the Gates to the East is called the Neiberbow, which was magnificently rebuilt in 1616, and adorned with Towers on both Sides, and is the chief Gate of the City. The other Gate to the East is called the Cow-Gate, from which there's an Entry into the Neiber-street, which runs the Length of the whole City, and is some times called the Cow-Gate-street. The Eastermost of the Gates to the South is called the Porter-Row-Port, from the Suburbs called the Porter-Row. The Westermost of these is called the Society-Port, properly the Brewers-Port. In that Place is a great Square Court, with Buildings round about it, to the very Walls of the City. The West-Gate at the other End of the City lying beneath the Castle, affords an Entrance from the Suburb of the same Name. The North-Gate, which was last made, at the lower End of the North-Loch, is twofold, the Inner and Outer Port, through which there is an Entry into the City from the Suburb, called the Mutteri-Hill. There are two Streets extending the Length of the whole Town. The chief Street, which is called the High-Street, is one of the broadest Streets in Europe; from it run many Lanes or Winds, as the Scots call them, on both Sides. The Nether or Lower-Street has also many Winds running to the South.

In the very Middle of the City is a Cathedral Church, called St. Giles's; so large, that it is divided into three Places for preaching, every one of which is appropriated to a distinct Parish. It is built of hewn Stone, beautified with Pillars and Arches of the same. In the Middle it forms a perfect Cross, by four Parts of this Church meeting together, which support a stately high Tower, with a Top of curious Workmanship, representing an Imperial Crown. Besides this Cathedral Church, there are in the City,

The South Church, called the Grey Friars Church, which stands in the Middle of the common Burying Place. Many Tombs and Monuments surround the Church, and among which, that of Sir George Mackenzie appears like a Mausoleum.

There is also a Church of square hewn Stone with a Tower, built Anno 1641, which is called the Trone-Church.

The Collegiate Church of the Sacred Trinity was built by Mary of Guelders, King James II's Queen, where also she lies interred.

The Lady Yster's Church was built by the Lady Yster, who also left a Sum of Money for maintaining a good able Man to preach and perform Divine Service therein.

Besides these Churches, there are two Chapels in the City, St. Mary Magdalen's in the Cow-Gate, and St. Mary's in Nedries-Wind.

There is another Chapel of the same Name at the Foot of the Canon-Gate; as likewise several Meeting-Houses lately built both in the City and Suburbs.

Within these 20 Years has been built a very beautiful Church about the Middle of the Canon-Gate, on the North-Side, and a considerable Piece of Ground inclosed for a Church-yard, by a Legacy left by Sir Thomas Moodie of Sach-ton-Hall for that Purpose.

Near the Cathedral Church is the Parliament-House, where the Estates of the Kingdom formerly sat. It stands in a great Court, wherein is a handsome Figure of King Charles II. on Horseback: The Court is a-bounded on the North by the Church

Church itself: The West-side is inclosed by the Council-House, where the Town-Council assembles: The South is bounded by the Session-House, where the Judges and Lords of Session sit; in the upper Part of this Building are the Privy-Council and Exchequer-Chambers. The rest of the South and East-side of this Court is inclosed with the upper and lower Exchange, and with a Row of very stately Buildings.

About 40 Years ago, the Magistrates of Edinburgh, at a vast Expence, brought one of the best Springs in Scotland into the City by Leaden Pipes, from a Hill above three Miles distant from it; and have erected very stately Fountains in the Middle of the High-Street, to serve the Town with Water.

Bank of Scotland.] At the Foot of a Close, on the North Side of the Land-Market, is the Bank of Scotland, which was erected by Act of Parliament, 1695. Their chief Business and Design is to make Payments, and lend Money at an easy Interest. The Office is managed by a Governour, a Deputy-Governour, and 24 Directors; whereof 12 are ordinary, and 12 extraordinary. The whole Managers meet only once a Quarter, the 12 ordinary Directors meet the first Tuesday in every Month; which Meetings are termed The Court of Directors. The ordinary Directors are subdivided into 4 Classes or Sub-Committees, who attend by Turns Weekly every ordinary Day, except Saturday: The Directors perform all Matters of Moment by Balloting. The principal Officers of the Bank are, 1. A Treasurer, who has convenient Lodgings in the Office, under whom are three Tellers. 2. A Secretary. 3. An Accountant. The annual Elections are in March; and the first Court of General Directors is holden the first Thursday in April.

Air.] The great Breadth of the High-Street, and the many Lanes which lie on each Side of it, from North to South, and which send up the Air as it were in Pipes into the High-Street, and the Nearness of the two Hills, called Neil's Craigs, on the North, Sarisbury Craigs on the South, do all contribute to the Town's being very airy; which conduces not a little to the Wholesomeness of it; insomuch, that it was never heard that the Plague raged in Edinburgh, except it was brought thither by infected Merchandizes: Which Purity of the Air is daily increased by bringing in the Water above-mentioned, which, as it has been ordered by a wise Act of Council, cleanses the City from Nastiness. Without the Walls of the City are the Suburbs, among which, that which lies from the Nether-bow to the Abby, called the Canon-Gate, has the Pre-eminence; it is adorned with goodly Buildings and fine Gardens. On the South Side is a very fine House belonging to the Earl of Murray, with very pleasant Gardens adjoining to it. At the lower End of this Suburb is the Abby of Holy-Rood.

Good-House, founded by King David I. for the Monks of the Order of St. Augustin, which was formerly consumed by Fire, all but the Church, in which several of the Scotish Kings and Queens are interred.

On the North-Side of the City, in a pleasant Valley, is the Physick-Garden, of which the ingenious and learned Botanist Mr. James Sutherland was Overseer, who was placed there by the excellent Founder Sir Andrew Balfour; and who, by his indefatigable Industry, has brought together so many Plants, that it was in 30 Years time one of the best stocked Gardens in Europe.

Magnitude.] The Number of Inhabitants increasing in Edinburgh from what they were of Old, the City is now stretched forth to the very Foot of the Ascent to the East; so that the City and Suburbs of the Canon-Gate, and the King's Palace, is in Length an entire Scotch Mile: In Breadth, including the Suburbs, half a Scotch Mile, and in Circumference three Mile.

Frith, Firth, or Forth,] Above the Mouth of the River Tyne, upon the Doubling of the Shore, is a noble Arm of the Sea, well furnished with Islands; and by the Influx of many Rivers, and the Sea-Tides, is dilated to a great Breadth. Ptolemy calls it Boderia; Tacitus, Bodotria; the Scots, the Forth or Frith; the English, Edinborough Frith.

Publick Buildings.] Besides the Cathedral and the other Churches, Chapels and Hospitals, with the Parliament-House already described, and the Colleges, which will be accounted for when we come to the Univerlity, there is a strong Castle, called by the Scots the Maiden-Castle, because the Daughters of the Pictish Kings were said to have been taught here the Use of their Needles. It is situate at the Head of the Town, on the West, where the Hill rises into a large Top. It is properly a Citadel, for it both hangs over and commands the Town. The Rock on which it is situated, is, upon the South, West and North, inaccessible. The Entrance into the Castle is from the Town. The chief Defence on this Side, is the round Battery; at the Foot whereof is a designed Outwork, which is yet scarce brought to a Condition of Defence; but will add very much to the Strength of it when finished. In the Castle also is a Royal Palace, built of Square Stone, where the Regalia of the Kingdom are kept. An Account whereof, I presume, will not displease the Reader, though it occasion some small Digression.

The Imperial Crown of Scotland is of pure Gold, enriched with many precious Stones, Diamonds, Pearls, and curious Enamellings: Its Parts and Specifick Form are these: Primo, It's composed of a large broad Curl or Fillet, which goes round the Head, adorned with Twenty-two large precious Stones,

Stones, viz. Topazes, Amethysts, Garnets, Emeraulds, Rubies, and Hyacinths, in Collets of Gold of various Forms, and with curious Enamellings: And betwixt each of these Collets of Stones, are interposed great Oriental Pearls, one of which is wanting. 2. Above the great Circle there is another small one formed with Twenty Points, adorned with the like Number of Diamonds and Sapphires alternately; and the Points are topped with as many great Pearls, after which Form are the Coronets of our Lords Barons. 3. The upper Circle is relative, or heightened with ten Crosses Florée, each being adorned in the Centre with a great Diamond betwixt four great Pearls placed in Cross, ten, one and one: But some of the Pearls are wanting; and the Number extent upon the upper Part of the Crown, besides what are in the under Circle, and in the Cross Patée, are Fifty-one; and these Crosses Florée are interchanged with other ten high Fleurs de Lys, alternative with the aforesaid great Pearls below, which top the Points of the second small Circle. Nota, This is said to be the ancient Form of the Crown of Scotland since the League made betwixt Achais King of Scots, and Charles the Great of France: The Specifick Form of this Crown differing from other imperial Crowns, in that it is heightened with Crosses Florée alternatively with Fleurs de Lys, and that of England with Crosses Patée alternatively with Fleurs de Lys. The Crown of Scotland, since King James VI. went to England, has been ignorantly represented by Herald-Painters, Engravers, and other Tradesmen, after the Form of the Crown of England, with Crosses Patée; whereas there is not one but that which tops the Mond, but all Crosses Florée, such as we see in our old Coins, and those which top our old Churches. These Crowns were not anciently arched or close. Charles the Eighth of France is said to be the first in France who took a close Crown, as appears by his Medals coined in the Year 1495, being designed Imperator Orientis. Edward the Fifth of England, in the Year 1483, carried a close Crown, as is observed by Selden: And the Scotch Crown is arched thus: 4. From the upper Circle proceed four Arches, adorned with Enamelled Figures, which meet and close at the Top, surmounted with a Mond of Gold, or Celestial Globe, Enamelled Blue Semée, Or, powdered with Stars, Crossed and Enamelled with a large Cross Patée, adorned in the Extremities with a great Pearl; (such a Cross tops the Church of Holy Rood-House) and cantoned with other four in the Angles. In the Centre of the Cross Patée, there is a Square Amethyst, which points the Fore-part of the Crown; and behind, or on the other Side, is a great Pearl, and below it, on the Foot of the Palar Part of the Cross, are these Characters, J. R. 5. By which it seems that King

King James V. was the first that closed the Crown with Arches, and topped it with a Mond or Cross Patée. But it is evident, Primo, that the Money and Medals coined in the Reigns of King James III. and IV. have a close Crown; and it is no less clear, that the Arches of the Crown were not put there from the Beginning, or at the making of the Crown; because, Primo, they are tacked by Tacks of Gold to the ancient Crown. 2. The Workmanship of the Arch is not so good, and there is a small Distinction in Fineness betwixt the first and last; the latter being of superfine Gold, and the other not so exactly to that Standard; Trial thereof has been made. 3. The Tire or Bonnet of the Crown was of Purple Velvet; but in the Year 1685, it got a Cape of Crimson Velvet, adorned as before, with four Plates of Gold richly wrought and enamelled, and on each of them a great Pearl half an Inch in Diameter, which appears between the four Arches, and the Bonnet is turned up with Ermine; upon the lowest Circle of the Crown, immediately above the Ermine, there are eight small Holes, disposed two and two together on the four Quarters of the Crown, in the middle Space betwixt the Arches, to which they have laced or tied Diamonds or precious Stones. The Crown is nine Inches broad in Diameter, being Twenty-seven Inches about; and in Height, from under the Circle to the Top of the Cross Patée, six Inches and a half: It always stands on a square Cushion of Crimson Velvet, adorned with Fringes, and four Tassels of Gold Thread hanging down at each Corner.

The Sceptre: The Stalk or Stem of the Sceptre being Silver double over Gilt, is two Foot in Length, of Hexagon Form, with three Buttons or Knots answering thereto: Betwixt the first Button and the second is the Handle, of Hexagon Form, furling in the Middle, and plain: Betwixt the second Button and the third there are three Sides engraven; on that under the Virgin Mary, one of the Statues that are on the Top of the Stalk, is the Letter J; upon the second Side, under St. James, is the Letter R; and on the third, under St. Andrew, is the Figure 5. The Side betwixt J and R, is engraven with fourteen Fleurs de Lys, and on the Side betwixt the Figure 5 and the Letter J, are ten Thistles continued from one Stem from the third Button to the Capital. The three Sides under the Statues are plain, and on the other three are antique Engravings, viz. Sacramental Cups, antique Medusa's Heads, and Rullion Foliages. Upon the Top of the Stalk is an antique Capital of Leaves embossed; upon the Abacus whereof arises round the prolonged Stem, surrounded with three Statues. First, that of the Blessed Virgin, crowned with an open Crown, holding in her Right Arm O U R B L E S S E D S A V I O U R, and in her left Hand a Mond ensigned with a Cross. Next to her, on her Right Hand, stands the Statue of St. Andrew in an Apostolical Garment, and on his Head a Bonnet, like a Scot's Bonnet, holding in his Right Hand a Cross, or Saltire, a Part whereof is broke off; and in his Left, elevate, a Book open, on the Blessed Virgin's Left Hand. On St. Andrew's Right Hand stands another Statue, seeming to represent St. James, with the like Apostolical Garment, and a hanging Neck superadded thereto, and upon his Head a little Hat like to the Roman Pileum: In his Right Hand, half elevate, a Book open; and in his Left, a Pastoral Staff, the Head is broke off; and above each Statue, being two Inches and an half, excepting the Virgin, which is little less, the finishing of a Gothick Niche. Betwixt each Statue arises in a Rullion, in Form of a Dolphin, very distinct, in Length four Inches, Foliage along the Body, their Heads upward, and affronted inward; and the Turning of their Tails ending in a Rose or Cinque-Foil outward. Above these Rullions, and Statues stands another Hexagon Button, or Knot, with Oak Leaves under every Corner, and above it a Chrystal Globe of two Inches and a quarter Diameter; within three Bars jointed above, where it is surmounted with six Rullions: And here again with an Oval Globe topped with an Oriental Pearl, half an Inch Diameter, the whole Sceptre in Length is Thirty-four Inches.

The Sword is in Length five Foot; the Handle and Pommel are of Silver over gilt, in length sixteen Inches: The Pommel is round, and somewhat flat on the two Sides; on the Middle of each there is of Embossed Work a Garland, and in the Centre there have been two enamelled Plates, which are broke off. The Traverse or Cross of the Sword being of Silver over gilt, is in Length seventeen Inches and a Half: Its Form is like two Dolphins, the Heads joining, and their Tails end into Acorns: The shell is hanging downward; the Point of the Sword formed like an Escalop flourished, or rather like a great Oak Leaf. On the Blade of the Sword are indented with Gold these Letters, Julius II. P. The Scabbard is of Crimson Velvet, covered with Silver, gilded and wrought in Philagrain Work into Branches of the Oak-tree Leaves and Acorns; on the Scabbard are placed four round Plates of Silver over gilt, two of them near to the Crampet are enamelled with Blue, and thereon in Golden Character, Julius II. Pont. Max. P. C. At the Mouth of the Scabbard, opposite to the Neck, is a large square Plate of Silver enamelled, Purple, into a Cartouch, Azure, an Oak-tree eradicated and fructed, Or. And above the Cartouch the Papal Ensign, viz. Two Keys in Saltire Adosce, their Bowls formed like Roses, or Cinque-foils, tied with Trappings and Tassels hanging down at each Side of the Cartouch. Above the Keys is the Papal Tiara, environed with three Crowns, with two Labels turned up, adorned with Crosses. Pope Julius II. who gave this Sword to King James IV. had for his Armorial Figures, an Oak-tree fruited; which is the Reason the Sword is adorned with such Figures, a Hill, a Star; which Figures I find not on any Part of the Sword; if they have been on the two enamelled Plates, which are lost off from the Pommel; I know not: But it is certain this Pope had such Figures, as appears by these Verses made by Volturne, a famous Italian Poet; as the same are mentioned by Hermanus Hermes, a German Writer, who gives us these Lines found in the Monastery.

Keys

*Quercus, Mons, stella, formant tua Stemmata Princeps
Hisque tribus trinum stat Diadema tuum.
Tuta Navis Petri, mediis non flectitur Undis,
Mons teget à vento, Stellaque monstrat iter.*

This Account was copied from the Principal Inventory.

This Castle is the chief Magazine for the Arms and Ammunition of the Nation; and has a most pleasant Prospect into the neighbouring Fields and the Forth, from whence it is saluted by such Ships of War as come to Anchor in Leith Road; and perhaps the Romans could not have found a better Place for a Fortification. The Governours of this Fortrefs, since the Restoration of King Charles II. were the Earl of Middleton, the Dukes of Lauderdale; Queensbury; and Gordon. After the Accession of K. William and Q. Mary to the Throne of Scotland, the Earl of Leven was chief Commander of Edinburgh-Castle, which Government was continued to him by her late Majesty.

The Royal Palace, which stands where Holy-Rood Abby formerly stood, has its Name from thence: It has four Courts; the outer Court, which is as big as all the rest, has four principal Entries, besides several Inlets into the adjacent Gardens, three of which are on the West, and the other on the East-Side. The Entry of the Palace is adorned with noble Pillars of Stone, and a fine Cupola made like a Crown above it. The Fore-part of the Palace is terminated by four high Towers, two of which toward the North were erected by King James V. and the rest by King Charles II. The Fabrick of the inner Court is very stately, with Pillars round it, all of Stone. From these Piazzas there are Passages to the several Apartments, which are truly Royal and Magnificent: But above all, the Long Gallery is remarkable, being adorned with the Pictures of all the Kings of Scotland, from Fergus II. downwards. The Palace on all Hands is bounded with lovely Gardens. On the South Side lies the King's Park, which is stored with great Variety of Medicinal Plants. Here is also an admirable Fountain, which, through Conduits, serves the whole House.

Long

Of the Government of the City of Edinburgh.

The Ecclesiastical Government of Edinburgh is according to the Presbyterian Discipline, as has been already discoursed in the Chapter of Church-Government. They assemble orderly in the Church, and Notice is taken of all that are absent, and if, without lawful Cause; upon Proof, are punishable as Prophaners of the Sabbath. No Sports or Recreations, not so much as walking in the Fields, is tolerated on that Day. Burials at Edinburgh, and generally through the Kingdom, are performed without any Ceremony of Words, only the Bodies are decently attended to the Grave by all that please to go; of which they have Notice by the ringing of a Hand-bell through the Street by the Crier, who says, All Brethren and Sisters, I let you to wot, that there is a Brother—or Sister—departed at the Pleasure of Almighty God, &c. and then gives Notice when he or she is to be interred. This is all the invitation. And when the dead Corpse is silently laid in the Grave, the Funeral Rites are ended, and the Company retire every one to their several Habitations.

Civil Government.] The Government of Edinburgh is in general much the same with that of most of the other Royal Burghs, of which it is the chiefest, though in most Burghs there are some Variation from the Government of the rest. The Magistrates and Council of the good Town of Edinburgh, as it is peculiarly called, are a Provost, four Bailiffs, a Dean of Guild, a Treasurer, six Deacons of Crafts, and two Craftsmen. This Council governs the Town, and no others are allowed to be present with them, except in extraordinary Cases, in which the fourteen Deacons of Crafts may be convened. Some of these extraordinary Cases, are Elections of Magistrates, who are all annual; and usually chosen about Michaelmas, setting of Fines, or any other Manner of Tacks, giving of Benefices, or other Offices of Burgh, building of publick Works, and disposing of the common Stock above such a Sum.

The Powers and Privileges of the City of Edinburgh are very considerable; but what they anciently were, is not distinctly known, most of the ancient Charters of that City being lost through the Calamities of the Times. In general, it is certain, that their Privileges and Rights were at least as extensive as the Privileges and Rights of any other Royal Burgh in the Kingdom. Edinburgh was one of the four Burghs that assisted the Chamberlain in the falsing of Dooms; and when Berwick and Roxburgh were in the Hands of the English, King David III. in the Parliament of Perth, 1384, joined Linlithgow and Lanerk to Edinburgh and Sterling, in the room of Berwick and Roxburgh; and in King James the II.'s Time, the good Town of Edinburgh obtained a Charter, by which the Court of the four Burghs, which gave Rise to the Convention of the Burghs, should always in Time coming be held at Edinburgh, as the Convention of Burghs has been usually held since.

The Magistracy of Edinburgh have the entire Jurisdiction of Sheriffs within the City, and without the City, from Inchbucklinbrae East, to Cramond-Water West, and as far to the South as the Mid-water of the Forth reaches towards the North. The Provost is principal Sheriff, the Bailiffs are jointly and severally his Deputies. All Escheats of Persons guilty of Crimes that have been convened before them as Sheriffs, fall to them, as also the Escheats of all who have been put to the Horn within their Bounds; as also the Escheats of their own Inhabitants, convicted of any Crime before any other Judge of the Kingdom. They are Justices of the Peace, and Coroners also within their own Bounds, and have Rights of Admiralty over the Coasts of their own Sheriffdom.

The Lord Provost of Edinburgh, as he is always stiled, calls the Convention of Burghs by his own Missives: And in the Intervals of Conventions, if there is a Fear of any Infraction of the Privileges of the Burgh, the Magistracy of Edinburgh have a Right to take Notice of it, and to prevent any Encroachments upon their Privileges, which may pass by private Grants surreptitiously obtained from the Sovereign.

The Power of gathering and regulating the Militia of the Town, lies within itself, and they are exempt from quartering of any Soldiers, except what belongs to themselves, without their own Leave, upon any occasion. The Towns of Leith and Newhaven are under their Jurisdiction: And as to their Power, whatsoever is necessary for the Conservation of the Peace, or Preservation and Encouragement of Trade, is lodged in the Hands of the Lord Provost and the Council of the City.

When K. Henry VI. of England was in Exile in Scotland, in Edward IV.'s Time, he stay'd long in Edinburgh, where he was very kindly entertained; in Consideration whereof, he gave them a Grant, the Original of which is still extant among the Records of that City, empowering the Merchants of that City to trade and traffick within the Kingdom of England, and to pay no other Duties for Importing or Exporting any Commodities than what the Citizens of the City of London would be obliged to pay in such Cases; and granting to them the same Franchises and Privileges which the Citizens of London do any where enjoy throughout that whole Kingdom.

The Lord Provost is Right Honourable by his Office, and the Council take the Title of Honourable.

Of the Royal College of Physicians in Edinburgh.

That Edinburgh might want no Accommodation for Men of Letters, King Charles II. erected a College of Physicians in Edinburgh, giving them, by Patent under the Great Seal, an ample Jurisdiction within this City and the Liberties thereof, commanding the Courts of Justice to assist them in the Execution of their Orders. They have the sole Faculty of professing Physick. They hold Conferences once a Month for the Improvement of Medicine, and they have begun to erect a Library.

This College consists of a President, two Censors, a Secretary, and the ordinary Society of Fellows, who upon St. Andrew's Day, if it fall on a Thursday, or if not, the first Thursday after, elect seven Counsellors, who choose the President and the other Officers for the ensuing Year. By their Charter the President and Censors have Power to convene before them all Persons that presume to practise Physick within the City of Edinburgh, or the Liberties thereof, without the Licence of the College, and to fine them in five Pounds Sterling. They are also impowered to visit Apothecaries Shops, and examine themselves; with several other Rights and Privileges.

Of the College of Heralds.

The principal Officer in the Scotish Court of Honour, is Lion King at Arms, who has six Heralds, six Pursuivants, and a great Number of Messengers at Arms under him. He is obliged to hold two peremptory Courts in the Year at Edinburgh, on the 6th of May, and 6th of November, and to call Officers of Arms and their Cautioners before him upon Complaint; and if found culpable upon Trial, to deprive and fine them and their Cautioners. Lion and his Brethren the Heralds have Power to visit the Arms of Noblemen and Gentlemen, and to distinguish them with Differences, and to register them in their Books, as also to inhibit such as bear Arms, as by the Law of Arms ought not to bear them, under the Pain of Escheating the Thing to the King whereon the Arms are found, and 100 l. Scots to Lion and his Brethren, or of Imprisonment during Lion's Pleasure. And, by Advice of the Lords of the Session, all Magistrates, as required, shall concur with Lion to execute the Statutes in his Favour, under the Pain of Rebellion, with Certification that Letters may be directed against them simpliciter. Lion for matriculating the Arms of Noblemen, is to have 20 Marks, of Knights and Barons 10 Marks, and of all others that have a Right to bear Arms, 5 Marks. Lion and his Brethren are also the Judges of the Malversation of Messengers, whose Business is to execute Summons and Letters of Diligence for Civil Debt, Real or Personal. The last Step of Personal Diligence is called a Caption, which is a Warrant to seize the Debtor's Person: In the Execution whereof, he toucheth the Party to be taken with his Rod or Wand, which is one of the Badges of his Office. They are called Messengers at Arms, from the Impress of the King's Arms on their Blazon, which is a Piece of Brass or Silver fixed upon the Messenger's Breast, to discover his Warrant and Authority when he discharges the Duty of his Office: And the resisting him therein, is a Crime, in the Law of Scotland, called Desorcement.

Hospitals.

Heriot's Hospital.] Heriot's Hospital is a publick School, founded by George Heriot, Jeweller to King James VI descended from the Family of Trebourn; who after he had lost 2 Sons by Shipwreck going from Scotland to London, and dying without Issue, Feb. 15, 1624, left in Legacy to this Hospital, Two Hundred Thousand Pounds Scots Money, that Youth might be maintained therein, and instructed in Arts and Sciences 'till they were of mature Age, and left the City of Edinburgh his Executors. It is properly a Nursery for Boys, in which the Citizens Children, who are poor, are brought up under the Tutelage of a Governour; who, according to the Constitution of the Founder, is to live single. If the Boys prove Scholars, they are sent to the College, and have an Exhibition of 7 l. Sterling per Annum; and if put to Trades, have 11 l. Sterling to bind them Apprentices, and furnish them with Necessaries. They have likewise a Chaplain to instruct them in the Grounds of Learning, 'till they are fitted for the publick Schools and Colleges. The Fabrick of this Hospital is very stately, and the Statue of the Founder is erected upon the Inner Frontispiece. Round about the House are very pleasant Gardens, adorned with large Walks and delightful Greens.

St. Thomas's.] Near the Collegiate Church of the Sacred Trinity is St. Thomas's Hospital, in which the poorer Sort of Inhabitants, both Men and Women, are liberally maintained, and have their own proper Chaplain.

There

There was a Maiden-Hospital, founded and liberally endowed here in the Year 1702, for the Relief and Education of young Girls, by some of the Merchant Company, who were much encouraged thereto by Mary Erskin, Relict of James Haire, Druggist in Edinburgh; who not only purchased convenient Lodgings, with pleasant large Yards, and other Accommodations for the Hospital, but also left them a considerable Sum of Money. The Work has been considerably advanced by Mortification and Donations from other Persons, both in the Town and Country; and out of a virtuous Emulation, the Tradesmen or Artificers of Edinburgh have instantly founded and endowed another Maiden-Hospital.

House of Correction.

Over-against the Collegiate Church of the Sacred Trinity is the House of Correction, commonly called Paul's Work, in which there are diverse Manufactories of Linnen, Wool, and Silk; where dissolute Persons are forced to earn their Living by their Labour.

The Basse.

The Basse is a little Island within the Forth, about a Mile distant from the Shore. The Prospects of it, as represented in Slezer's Theatrum Scotiae, will sufficiently shew the Difficulty of Access to it. Upon the Top of this Island is a Spring, which furnishes the Garrison with Water, and there is also Pasturage for 20 or 30 Sheep. 'Tis also famous for the great Flocks of Fowls, which resort thither in the Months of May and June, the Surface of it being almost covered with Nests, Eggs, and young Birds. The most delicious among these different Sorts, are the Soland Geese and Kestie Waike. There is only one Island more in the West of Scotland, called Ailsay, where these Geese do breed; and from these two Places the Country is furnished with them during the Months of July and August. This Island of the Basse was an ancient Possession of the Family of Lauder, and in the Reign of King Charles II. it was bought of them, and annexed to the Crown.

This Garrison is commanded and kept by an Ensign, a Serjeant, a Corporal, and Soldiers; whose Pay is as follows.

			l.	s.	d.
The Ensign's per Diem, is	_____	_____	00	4	0
The Serjeant,	_____	_____	00	2	0
The Corporal,	_____	_____	00	1	4

The Soldiers are taken out of his Majesty's Regiment of Guards, and paid with them, with an Allowance of 2 d. Sterling to each of them, which makes their Pay 9 d. per diem.

The Town Company of Edinburgh is at present commanded by Two Captain-Lieutenants, lately chosen, who have each 4 s. Sterling per Diem for their Pay.

Here it may not be amiss just to mention some of the Castles of Scotland: The Three chiefest of which, are Edinburgh, Dumbarton, and Sterling Castles.

The most considerable after these Three, are

Island Donnard Castle, standing on a Rock, which is a Peninsula on the West-side of Kintail in the Shire of Ross; it has a Garrison of the King's Forces.

Inverness Castle stands on a Hill in the Town and Shire of Inverness. The Duke of Gordon is Heritable Keeper of it, and there is a Garrison in it.

The Castle of Blackness in the Shire of Galloway has a Garrison.

The Castle of Dunstaffage on the West-Coast of Lorn. The Duke of Argyle is Heritable Keeper of it.

All these above belong to his Majesty.

The Castle of Glengary in the Shire of Inverness, has a Garrison, and it is the Property of Alexander Mac-Donald of Glengary.

The Castle of Duart, possessed by the Duke of Argyle, and in that Shire has a Garrison.

Castle Tyrom in Moydort, on the West-Coast over-against Mull-Isle, has a Garrison, and is the Property of Alexander Mac-Donald of Moydort.

The Mount-Fort in Scalloway, is a large Rock about 12 Paces above the Ground. It is capacious for Mustering a Regiment of Men. There are some Houses within it. There are 38 Iron Guns on the Wall, and it commands Bressa-Sound in Schetland.

Universities of Scotland.

The Universities in Scotland are 4. St. Andrew's, Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh. In describing these Universities, I shall premise some few particular Things concerning the Foundation of every University by itself, and then I shall give an Account of the Discipline and Method of Study used in the University of Edinburgh, which will be sufficient to give the English Reader a full View of all the rest.

The University of St. Andrew's.

Was founded by Bishop Henry Wardlaw, A. D. 1412, and endowed with very ample Privileges. The Archbishops of St. Andrew's were formerly Chancellors of that University; but now it is governed by a Rector, who is yearly chosen, and has the same Authority with the Vice-Chancellors of Oxford and Cambridge, and, by the Statutes of the University, ought to be one of the Principals of the Colleges. A Professor of Mathematicks was lately added to this University. It has 3 Colleges, St. Salvator's, St. Leonard's, and St. Mary's College. St. Salvator's, commonly called the Old College, was founded by James Kennedy, Archbishop of St. Andrew's, who built the Edifice, together with a Church, wherein he has a curious Monument. He furnished it with costly Ornaments, and endowed it with a sufficient Revenue for the Maintenance of a Provost, Masters and Professors. At the first Foundation it was endowed with a Doctor, a Bachelor, and a Licentiate in Divinity; Four Professors of Philosophy, and Eight Poor Scholars, called Bursars, who are here instructed Gratis. Dr. Skene, late Principal of this College, repaired and augmented it, and also founded a Library, which is now well furnished with Books.

St. Leonard's College was founded by John Hepburn, Prior of St. Andrew's, A. D. 1524, who endowed it with a Maintenance for a Principal or Warden, who is always to be a Doctor of Divinity, 4 Professors of Philosophy, called Regents, and 8 Poor Scholars. Sir John Scot added a Professor of Philology with a liberal Maintenance, and augmented the Library with the Gift of several considerable Volumes; which was since increased by the munificent Collection of Books left to it by Sir John Wedderburn.

St. Mary's, or New College, was founded by James Beaton, Archbishop of St. Andrew's, A. D. 1536, and endowed with a Maintenance for two Professors, who are to be Doctors of Divinity: One, stiled Principal Professor of Theology; the other, only Professor of Theology. To these was lately added a Professor of Mathematicks; for the Improvement of which Science, the first Professor, Mr. James Grezory, procured an Observatory to be erected in the College-Garden, furnished with many Mathematical Instruments. No Philosophy is taught in this College.

The

The University of Glasgow.

Was founded by Archbishop Turnbull, and by Pope Nicholas V. endowed with the Privileges of a University after the Manner of Bononia. It had originally considerable Revenues for the Maintenance of a Rector, a Dean of Faculty, a Principal or Warden to teach Divinity, and 3 Professors to teach Philosophy. The Privileges of this University were confirmed by King James II, III, IV, and V. and by Queen Mary; and yet it was almost deserted, if King James VI. in his Minority had not granted it a new Charter, bestowed the Tythes of the Church of Gaven upon it, and countenanced it by Acts of Royal Bounty and Munificence, A. D. 1577. But that was not all, for in the Year 1617, he established 12 Persons in the College, viz. a Principal, 3 Professors of Philosophy, called Regents, 4 Bursars, an Oeconomus, or a Provider, a Principal Servant, a Janitor, and a Cook. K. Charles ratified all its ancient Privileges, and gave Money to repair the Fabrick. The like did K. Charles II. at the Request of the Estates of Parliament. The Archbishops of Glasgow were formerly perpetual Chancellors of this University; but now it is governed by a Rector, who is the chief Magistrate of the Place under the King, and is annually elected. The College is separated from the rest of the Town by an exceeding high Wall, the Precincts whereof are enlarged and adorned by the Care and prudent Administration of the then Principal, Dr. Fall, lately Precentor of York. The College is one uniform Square well built; has a little Chapel, several Schools, a Common Hall, a well digested Library, and behind the College a large Garden surrounded with a high Wall.

The University of Aberdeen.

In the Reign of K. Alexander II. A. D. 1213, here was a Studium Generale in Collegio Canonorum, with 3 Professors, Doctors of Divinity, and of the Canon and Civil Laws, and many learned Men flourished therein.

K. James IV. and William Elphinston, Bishop of Aberdeen, procured from Pope Alexander VI. the Privilege of an University in Aberdeen, A. D. 1494, which is endowed with as ample Privileges as any University in Christendom, and the Foundation is conformable to that of the Universities of Paris and Bononia, and not of Oxford and Cambridge, because there were Wars at that Time between England and Scotland.

The

The Bishops of Aberdeen were formerly perpetual Chancellors of this University; had Power to visit in their own Persons, and reform Abuses; and even when they were not Doctors of Divinity themselves, had Authority to confer that Degree on others. The Office of Vice-Chancellor was then lodged in the Official or Commissary of Aberdeen; but now it is governed by a Rector annually chosen, who, with the Assistance of his four Assessors, takes Cognizance of Abuses, &c. in that University.

In this University are 2 Colleges, one in Old Aberdeen, founded by Bishop William Elphinston, A. D. 1500, which is called The King's College, from K. James IV. who assumed the Patronage of it. It is seated on the South-side of the Town, and for Neatness and Stateliness far exceeds the rest of the Houses; one Side is covered with Slate, and the other with Lead. This College has a Principal, a Professor of Divinity, a Professor of Civil Law, a Professor of Physick, a Sub-Principal, who is also a Professor of Philosophy, three other Professors of Philosophy, and a Professor of Languages.

In New Aberdeen is a College, called the Marschalian Academy, founded by George Keith, Earl-Marschal of Scotland, A. D. 1693. which the City of Aberdeen has very much adorned with several additional Buildings, besides adding a Primary Professor, called The Principal. It has four Professors of Philosophy, one of Divinity, and one of Mathematicks. Here is also a famous Library, founded by the Citizens; supplied with Books by the Benefactions of several learned Men, and well furnished with Mathematical Instruments. This College with that in the Old Town makes one University, called The University of King Charles II.

The University of Edinburgh.

Was founded by King James VI. A. D. 1580. who endowed it with as ample Privileges as any University in Europe. The Magistrates of Edinburgh are Curators, and the Provost is Chancellor. The Buildings are rather convenient than fine; they have a Common-Hall, Schools for every Profession, two Libraries, a Printing-House, and a good many Chambers, in which the Students may lie if they please. The Students do not eat in common, and at Edinburgh they have no distinct Habit, as they have in other Universities of Scotland, where the Students wear Red Gowns. No Test or Subscription is offered to a Student at his Admission, but every Man is free to come that will.

In this University are taught Divinity, Philosophy, Mathematicks, Ecclesiastical History, the Eastern Languages, Oratory, Humanity, Roman History, and Greek; for all which there is a Professor, and a Principal that oversees them all, and presides among them when they meet as a Faculty. Every one of their Professors, and all Officers in the University, swear to acknowledge the Government as now established, Civil and Ecclesiastical; they subscribe to the Confession of Faith, and declare their Conformity to the Kirk-Government, and that they never will, directly or indirectly, endeavour the Subversion of the same.

From June 20, to October 20, is a Vacation of all Professions but Humanity; and from August 1, to October 1, for that too. All the Professors are paid by their Pupils, except those of Divinity and Ecclesiastical History, who for that Reason have larger Salaries than the rest.

The Principal confers all Degrees; reads a Lecture in Divinity in the Common-Hall once a Week, at which Students and Professors constantly attend. He presides at Examinations and Trials of Students; and takes an Account of their Behaviour; in short, it is his Business to oversee all the Members of the University: He has no Money from the Scholars, but has a Salary from the City, and good Lodgings within the University.

The Students in Divinity are divided into 4 or 5 Classes, according to their Number. They meet once a Week, to confer about their Studies, and to give each other an Account of what they have read, and what Observations they have made upon their Reading. The Professor attends every Day in the Week but Saturday. On Mondays the Exercises are in English, which are a Homily, or Practical Discourse, a Presbyterial Exercise, or an Exercise and Addition, i. e. when one Student handles the Text critically, solves its Doubts, and Paraphrases it at last; after which another Student opens its Doctrines, and confirms them with proper Reasons: These Exercises are to last but half an Hour a-piece; and last of all a Lecture, in which a Portion of Scripture is paraphrastically and practically explained. On Tuesday either the Professor reads a Latin Lecture in Divinity, or else they have a Collatio Dogmatical; the Manner of which is this: On the Tuesday preceding, the Professor gives the Students a Question, upon which they are to answer the Questions that shall be proposed; which they do thus: The Professor begins with stating the Question historically, and then desires any one Student to give an Account of the various Opinions about it; asks another which is the right Side of the Question? speaks to a Third to prove it; and commands a Fourth to defend it against his his Objections; after which the Professor determines upon the Whole. This is all done in Larm. Wednesday is appointed for Students newly entered, who are examined upon some little System which is put into their Hands; such as the Confession of Faith, Marcij Medulli, Paraus upon Urfan's Catechisms, and the like. Thursday is set apart for Divinity Disputations. They are opened by a Position, which they call an Exegesis, in which the Question is fully and clearly stated by the Respondent, who is then opposed by two or three other Students in their Turns; during which Time the Professor moderates, and solves the Difficulties which the Respondent cannot overcome. On Friday a Question in Church History is debated, or else there is a Scriptural Conference, in which Questions of Sense or History, or any other Difficulties observed in a Chapter of the Bible, proposed the Friday preceding by the Professor, are answered by the Students, as the Professor shall propose them; all which Difficulties the Professor is obliged to clear fully after the Students have given their Judgments.

In Philosophy there are four Regents or Professors; they teach Philosophy and Greek. Every Regent has his Class, which Classes are divided according to the Years that the Students have been entered in the University. The Students now do every Year change the Regent as well as their School; for one of the four Professors of Philosophy is established constant Professor of Greek, under whose Tuition the Students continue the first Year. The second Year they learn Logick and Metaphysics from another Professor; and the third Year they come under the Inspection of a third Professor, who teaches Natural Philosophy. The fourth Regent has no fixed Class, but reads publick Lectures of Mathematicks, Moral Philosophy, and Natural Religion, to all that please to come and hear him. This is the New Scheme of teaching in the College of Edinburgh; but the Philosophy Professors in the other Colleges are not yet moulded into this Fashion: But at St. Andrew's and Glasgow they have already a fixed and constant Professor of Greek. The first Year the Students, who are called Basans, are taught only Greek. The next Year they change the School, but not their Regent; they are then called the Semi-Class. That Year they learn Logick, and every Day read some Greek. The Professor, as he is now called, illustrates some printed System of Logick, and makes them dispute upon a Logical Question. This Year every Student is obliged to recite an Oration publickly before his Professor. The third Year, without changing their Professor, they remove into another School, where, under the Name of Batchelors, they study Metaphysics and Ethicks. The Metaphysics which are read to them are usually De Vrie's, or Le Clerc's. In Ethicks, besides some short Ac-Count of the Passions and Virtues thereunto belonging, they read Pufendorf de Officio Hominis & Civis, and Grotius de Jure Belli & Pacis, and they have frequent Disputations upon Questions arising in these Sciences. The fourth Year, retaining still the same Professor, they are taught Natural Philosophy. Le Clerc's Physicks is the Book chiefly received; then also they read Greek: This is the last Year, after which they go out Masters of Arts; and for that Reason this is called the Magistrand Class. Every Student at his Entrance gives his Regent a Premium, which is not settled, only never less than a Guinea is given any Body; and this is his Tuition Money for one whole Year.

About the 10th of December, every Year, there are Publick Examinations of all the Classes. The Semi-Class is examined first. They are examined by the Principal and every Professor but their own, in the Studies proper to every Class. This is performed in the Common-Hall.

Every Saturday the Students of the Magistrand Class repeat Orations publickly in the Common-Hall before the Principal and Professors. The Magistrand and Bachelor Classes dispute also upon some Philosophical Questions, in which Disputations the Magistrands oppose those Theses which the Bachelors defend. The Bachelor Regent moderates; the Bachelors after that make Speeches, and oppose Questions, which the Students of the Semi-Class defend.

The four Professors call their Classes together twice every Day in the Week, and three Days thrice. The Hours are from Seven to Nine, and from Ten to Eleven in the Mornings; and from Two to Three in the Afternoons. Every Sunday after Evening-Sermon the Students are all convened and instructed in some System of Divinity.

After Four Years Study, the Students expect to take the Degree of Master of Arts, which they call Laureation. Before that, they are particularly examined, and if approved, they take the Title of Candidates; at which Time they take an Oath to be true to the Protestant Religion, and the University of Edinburgh; and when they are registred Masters of Arts, they pay 6 s. 8 d. a-piece to the Library.

Upon the Day of Laureation the Magistrates of the City, and any other Gentlemen that please, attend the Principal and the Members of the University in the Common-Hall, where the Candidates appear with their Professor, clothed with Black Gowns like his: The Ceremony is opened by the Professor, with a short Prayer, and a Discourse suitable to the Occasion; after which Theses, which were printed and dispersed some Days before, upon any Part of Philosophy, are opposed by the Principal Professors, and whoever else please, and defended by the Candidates, under the Presidency of their Professor. Then some of the Candidates make Speeches in Latin, Greek, and Hebrew, and demonstrate some Physical Phænomena, or some Mathematical Propositions. This being done, the Principal makes a Latin Speech upon the Occasion, and proceeds to Graduation, which is performed upon a Carpet spread upon the Floor, on which the Candidates kneel before the Principal, who prays, and by virtue of the Authority and Power given to him by King James VI. declares them Masters of Arts; and in Testimony thereof puts a Cap upon their Heads; which Ceremony, Mutatis Mutandis, is observed in other Degrees.

The Mathematick Professor reads twice a Week in the Common-Hall, and convenes his Scholars once a Day. He begins his Lectures about Nov. 1. and ends about May-Day. He is gratified by his Scholars in the same manner as the ordinary Regents.

The Professor of Ecclesiastical History reads thrice a Week, once in the Common-Hall, and twice in his own School. His Salary is 100 l. per Annum.

The Professor of Humanity, Roman History, and Oratory, teaches from October 1. to August 1. is paid by his Scholars, as the Professors of Philosophy are, and convenes them at the same Times. Students usually stay two Years in this Class before they learn Greek.

The Professor of the Eastern Languages reads once a Week in the Common-Hall, and convenes his Scholars every Day.

There is a new Profession erected in the University of Edinburgh, for the Law of Nature and Nations: The Salary is 150 l. Sterling per annum.

Any Member of the University may study in the Library Gratis, and may, for paying a Crown, have Leave to borrow any Book out of it.

Every Monday Morning, from Seven to Nine, the Professor explains the Confession of Faith, or some short System of Divinity to his Class. During the Sessions of the University (i. e. in Term-time, as we call it in England) the great Bell rings at Nine at Night, and by Ten the Gates are shut, after which none can have Access.

N. B. Whereas this Office having suffered many Impositions and Abuse by Money said to be sent by this Conveyance; in order to prevent which, N O T I C E is given in this Advertisement, that unless any Parcel or Parcels of Money be brought to one of the Six Offices abovemention'd, and there seen and entered by a proper Officer, the Office will in no wise make good any such Parcel of Money if it should happen to miscarry by any Accident whatsoever.

As to other Parcels, it is desired that the real Value may be mentioned at the bottom of the Direction.

Note, To the Places mark'd No 1 Letters and Parcels are convey'd once a Day, No 2, twice a Day, No 3, three times a Day.

And considering several of the e Places are remote, it is desired that you put in your Letters and Parcels before Six of the Clock over Night at the Receiving Houses, from whence they will be collected and brought into the proper Offices; otherwise divers of the Country-Messengers going on their Walks by Six of the Clock next Morning, they may lose a Day's time in the Delivery: But for those Places that are nearer, Letters are collected and delivered two or three times a Day, as above specified.

All General Post-Letters, both Foreign and Domestick, directed to the Places abovemention'd, not being Post-Towns, are convey'd from the aforesaid Offices every Day at Twelve of the Clock; and Answers being put into the Receiving-Houses in the Country-Towns, will next Night be safely convey'd to the General Post-Office, an Officer being appointed for that Purpose.

And one more, which is not filled up.

William Corbet, Esq; Pay-master to the Treasurer of the Navy, is Secretary to this Board, and allow'd 100 l. per Annum, his Clerk 40 l. per Annum.

There is a Council once a Week for the Government of the House, constituted by the Lords of the Admiralty, where are present the Officers of the Hospital, to assist in all Complaints, and to punish those that have behaved themselves in a disorderly Manner, and broke through the Rules of the Hospital.

The Matron is to take care of the Mens Linnen, to see it mended, and deliver it to the Landryman once a Week to be washed; to see the Nurses clean the Wards. Eight of the Nurses are called Infirmary-Nurses, who are to tend the sick and disabled Seamen.

The Diet for the Sick Men is Eggs, Butter, Sugar, Currants, Rice, Oatmeal, Tripe, Milk, Mutton, Veal, Bread, and Beer.

The Pensioners are all cloathed in Blue, and are allowed Linnen, Stockings, Shoes, and Twelve-pence per Week for Necessaries; out of which Number of Pensioners, there are 36 Boatswains, which are distinguished by having Gold Lace upon their Cloaths, and broad Gold-Lace upon their Hats; they are allowed 2 s. 6 d. per Man a Week; their Business is to take Care of the Wards, and to see that the Men do their Duty; and if they see any Misdemeanors, to complain to the Lieutenant-Governor, in order to be brought to Council, and likewise to command the Watch upon their Guard. There are 72 Boatswains Mates, which have a narrow Edging upon their Hats, to be known from the private Pensioners, and have 1 s. 6 d. per Man a Week; they are appointed to assist the Boatswains.

The Diet and Allowance for a Man per Diem, is thus: Sunday they have one Pound of Mutton, Beef, or Pork, one Pound of Bread, a Quarter of a Pound of Cheese, and two Quarts of Beer: Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday the same. Wednesday they have Pease-Porridge, one Ounce of Butter, half a Pound of Cheese, one Pound of Bread, two Quarts of Beer. Friday the same.

There are 100 Boys, the Sons of disabled Seamen, who are maintained with the Money arising by shewing the Hospital and Painting in the Hall, &c. They wear blue Clothes as the Pensioners, and have the same Allowance as the Boys at Christ-Church Hospital: They are taken in between eleven and thirteen Years of Age, and not continued longer than three Years; and go out to Captains of Men of War, and Masters of Merchant-Men. This Charity was established by the Lord Aylmer.

The Manner of their going to Chapel upon a Holy-Day.

First, Mr. Wesson, Teacher of the Mathematicks, walks before, the Boys follow two and two after him with the Mathematical Instruments in their Hands. In the next place, the Porter with his Staff walks before the Lieutenant-Governor, Captain and Chaplains; then follow the Boatswains, and Boatswains Mates, with the Colours and Halberts; after them the Drums beating, then the Pensioners two and two.

The Manner of their Dining on a Holy-Day.

They have upon those Days double Allowance of Meat, and two Quarts of Ale. When they are at Dinner, the Lieutenant-Governor, with the Captain and other Officers of the House, go in and drink the King's Health (Musick playing while they are at Dinner); when they drink, the Drums beat, and the Men give three Huzza's; so likewise the same at the Healths of the Prince and Princesses, and all the Royal Family, the Lords of the Admiralty, and the Governors.

The Boys have Roast-Beef and Ale.

Note, That no Papist is allowed the Charity of the Hospital.

The Officers of St. Bartholomew's Hospital.

THE ancient Hospital of St. Bartholomew, situate nigh West-Smithfield, London, was founded by Raybere, in the Reign of King Henry I. Anno Dom. 1102.

After the Dissolution of Abbies and Monasteries, refounded by King Henry VIII. Anno Dom. 1564.

In which Hospital, with two others, one at Kingsland, and the other call'd the Lock in Southwark, being both under the Charge of St. Bartholomew's Hospital, there are about 400 Patients, Men and Women, daily relieved with Lodging, Diet, Physick, Surgery, and all other Ministrations useful and necessary for restoring sick and wounded Seamen, Soldiers and others, to their Health and Limbs. The said Hospital is governed by a President, Treasurer, and several Governors, out of which annually Committees are elected for the good ordering of the Affairs of that House, viz.

Auditors of the General Accompt.

Auditors of the Renter-Accompt.

Viewers of the Revenues belonging to the said Hospital.

Overseers of the Goods and Utenfils of the said Hospital.

Almoners to buy Provisions and Necessaries for the Patients.

The Treasurer, Almoners, and divers Governors, meet twice a Week within the said Hospital, to see that good Rule and Government be kept in that House, and to discharge such poor diseased Persons as are cured, and admit others in their room.

The President [Vacant.]

Robert Westley, Esq; Alderman, Treasurer.

The Reverend Mr. John Banfon, M. A. Vicar and Hospitalier.

Doctor Richard Tyson, } Physicians.

Doctor Pierce Dod, }

Mr. William Northey, Apothecary.

Mr. John Freke, }

A COPY of the ROYAL CHARTER, establishing an Hospital for the Maintenance and Education of Exposed and Deserted Young Children.

GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of God, and so forth, to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting.

Whereas Our Trusty and Well-beloved Subject Thomas Coram, Gentleman, in behalf of great Numbers of helpless Infants daily exposed to Destruction, has by his Petition humbly represented unto Us, that many Persons of Quality and Distinction, as well as others of both Sexes (being sensible of the frequent Murders committed on poor miserable Infants by their Parents to hide their Shame, and the inhuman Custom of exposing new-born Children to perish in the Streets, or training them up in Idleness, Beggary and Theft) have, by Instruments in Writing, declared their Intentions to contribute liberally towards the erecting an Hospital, after the Example of other Christian Countries, and for supporting the same for the Reception, Maintenance and proper Education of such helpless Infants, as soon as We should be graciously pleased to grant Our Royal Letters Patent for that good Purpose: That several Legacies having been

been bequeathed for the same to be paid by Executors, when any such Hospital shall be properly established here; the Petitioner therefore hath humbly prayed Us, That We would be graciously pleased to grant Our Royal Charter for incorporating such Persons as We shall think fit for receiving and disposing of Charities for erecting and supporting an Hospital for the Reception, Maintenance, and proper Education of such exposed and cast-off Children as may be brought to it under such Rules and Regulations, as to Us may seem meet.

We, taking the Premises into Our Royal Consideration, and being desirous to promote so good and laudable an Establishment, are graciously pleased to gratify the Petitioner in his Request.

Know Ye therefore, That We, of Our especial Grace, certain Knowledge, and mere Motion, have willed, ordained, constituted and appointed, and by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, Do Will, Ordain, Constitute, Declare and Grant. That

Our Right Trusty, and Right entirely-beloved Cousins,

Charles Duke of Richmond, &c. &c. &c.

And the said Thomas Coram, the Petitioner; and such others, as shall, from time to time be elected in the Manner herein after directed, They and their Successors be, and shall for ever hereafter be, by Virtue of these Presents, one Body Politick and Corporate, in Deed and in Name, by the Name of The Governors and Guardians of the Hospital for the Maintenance and Education of Exposed and Deserted Young Children; and them and their Successors, by the same Name, We do by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, constitute and declare to be one Body Politick and Corporate in Deed and in Law; and by the same Name they and their Successors shall and may have perpetual Succession; and that they and their Successors, by that Name, shall and may for ever hereafter be Persons able and capable in the Law, and may have Power, notwithstanding the Statute of Mortmain, to purchase, have, take, receive, and enjoy, to them, and their Successors, Manors, Messuages, Lands, Rents, Tenements, Annuities and Hereditaments, of whatsoever Nature or Kind, in Fee and Perpetuity, or for Terms of Life or Years, not exceeding the yearly Value of Four thousand Pounds beyond Reprizes, so far as they are not restrained by Law; and all Manner of Goods, Chattels and Things whatsoever, of what Nature or Value soever, for the better Support and Maintenance of such poor, deserted Children, as shall be received into the said Hospital, in the Manner herein after mentioned; and also to sell, grant, demise, exchange and dispose of any of the same Manors, Messuages, Lands and Tenements, whereof and wherein they shall have any Estate of Inheritance, or for Life, Lives or Years as aforesaid; and that by the

the Name aforesaid they shall and may be able to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer, and be answered unto, defend and be defended, in all Courts and Pleas whatsoever of Us, Our Heirs and Successors, in all Actions, Plaints, Matters and Demands whatsoever, and to act and do in all Matters and Things relating to the said Corporation, in as ample Manner and Form as any other our liege Subjects, being Persons able and capable in the Law, or any other Body Politick or Corporate in this Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, lawfully may or can act or do; and that the said Corporation for ever hereafter shall and may have and use a Common Seal for the Causes and Businesses of them and their Successors; and that it shall and may be lawful for them and their Successors to change, break, alter and make new the said Seal from time to time as they shall think fit.

And, for the better Execution of the Purposes aforesaid, We do Declare and Grant, That the said Corporation, and their Successors for ever, shall have one President, six Vice-Presidents, and one Treasurer; and that his Grace John Duke of Bedford be the first President, &c.

And Our Will and Pleasure is, That the said President, Vice-Presidents and Treasurer, and the rest of the Members of the said Corporation also above-named, or as many of them the said President, Vice-Presidents and Members as conveniently can, may, within forty Days next after the Date of this Our Grant, meet together at such Time and Place as the said President shall appoint by Summons, or other Notice, which he is by these Presents impowered and required timely to issue for that Purpose to the said Members, or such of them as live within the Cities of London or Westminster, or the Borough of Southwark, or within two Miles thereof; where they, or the major Part of them then present, may choose by Ballot One or more Secretaries, and such other inferiour Officers and Servants as shall be thought convenient and useful for the Purposes of the said Corporation, and to serve in the said Offices respectively, until the second Wednesday in the Month of May, 1740, and until others shall be elected in their respective rooms, unless they shall sooner die, or be removed; and at such Meetings one or more Committee or Committees shall be chosen out of the Members of the said Corporation, to consist of such Number and Persons as to the said General Court shall seem proper; which Committee or Committees shall continue until the said Second Wednesday in the Month of May in the said Year One thousand seven hundred and forty, and shall have Power to direct, manage and transact all the Business, Affairs, Estate and Effects of the said Corporation, and take in, receive, maintain and employ such poor, deserted Children, according to such Rules and Directions as shall be made and established from time to time by General Courts ; to which said General Courts We do by these Presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, give and grant full Power and Authority to make and establish such Rules and Directions for the Reception, Maintenance and Employment of such poor deserted Children, as they, or the major Part of them, shall think meet, fit and convenient, from time to time ; and for that Purpose such Committee or Committees may erect or purchase such fitting Place to be an Hospital for the Reception of such Children.

And Our further Will is, That on every Second Wednesday in the Month of May yearly, there shall and may be a General Meeting of the Governors and Guardians of the said Corporation in the said Hospital, or at some other convenient Place, until the said Hospital be made ready to receive them, for the electing by Ballot all succeeding Presidents, Vice-Presidents, Treasurers and Committees out of the Members of the said Corporation, by Majority of Votes of all the Members then personally present, to continue in their respective Offices until the Second Wednesday in the said Month of May following, and until others shall be chosen in their respective rooms ; and that all succeeding Secretaries, and other inferior Officers and Servants, be annually appointed, or oftner if needful, by the major Part of the Governors and Guardians for the Time being then present at their General Meeting ; and in case of an Equality of Votes, the President, or in case of his Death or Absence, the Vice-President first named in the List of Vice-Presidents then present, to have a double or casting Voice, and at such Salaries as they shall think reasonable.

We Will moreover, That there shall be every Year four stated General Meetings of the Governors and Guardians of the said Corporation, to be held on the first Wednesday after Lady-Day, Midsummer, Michaelmas, and Christmas Days respectively ; at which Meetings, and no other, the said Corporation, or the major Part of the Members thereof then present, shall and may execute Leases for Years, and make By-Laws for the Well-government of the said Corporation ; which By-Laws, not being repugnant to the Laws and Statutes of this Our Realm, shall and may be effectually observed and kept.

Provided nevertheless, and Our Will is, That no such By-Laws so to be made by this Corporation shall be binding, until the same shall be confirmed by some succeeding General Meeting ; and that the same Method be observed in the Altering and Repealing any such By-Laws, after they shall have been so confirmed : And the Members to be present at such Quarterly Meetings, or the major Part of them then present, are hereby empowered, from time to time, to remove and displace any Officer, ficers or Servants belonging to the said Hospital for Misdemeanors at their Will and Pleasure, and to put others into their rooms from time to time : And We do hereby also empower the Committee for the time being, or any five or more of them, on any just Cause, to suspend, remove and displace any inferior Officers and Servants, and to put others in their rooms, until the next General or Quarterly Court or Meeting.

Provided, That no Act in any Quarterly or other General Meeting be valid, unless thirteen or more Members be present, and the major Part of such as shall be present be consenting thereto.

We Will moreover, That the said Corporation, and their Successors, or the major Part of such of them as shall be present at any Yearly or Quarterly Court, or other General Meeting, which the President has by these Presents Power to summon at any other times, as there shall be Occasion, may, from time to time, by Ballot, elect and choose such fit and able Persons to be Governors and Guardians as they shall think most likely to encourage and promote the Charitable Designs of the said Corporation ; which Governors and Guardians so elected, shall, from and after such Election, be adjudged and deemed Members of the said Corporation, and as such shall be summoned and admitted to vote and act by virtue of these Presents as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if their Names respectively were particularly inserted to be Members thereof in and by this Our Charter.

And We Will moreover, That the said Corporation, and their Successors, shall have Power to authorize and appoint such Persons at they shall think fit to take Subscriptions, and to ask of all or any of Our good Subjects, and gather and collect such Monies as shall, by any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, Companies, or other Societies, be contributed and given for the Purposes aforesaid ; and may revoke and make void such Authorities and Appointments, as often as they may see Cause so to do.

And Our further Will and Pleasure is, That the said Corporation shall and may cause fair and just Accounts in Writing to be kept of all Receipts, Payments and Doings by them, their Officers, and Agents respectively, in relation to the Premises, which shall be liable to the View and Inspection of any Subscriber or Subscribers, Benefactor or Benefactors, upon Occasion ; which said Accounts shall, on the Twentieth Day of December in every Year, or within Fourteen Days after, be examined, audited, adjusted and subscribed by the Members present at such Meeting, or the major Part of them.

We Will moreover, That all Persons, who shall subscribe and pay to the said Corporation to the Amount of Twenty Pounds Pounds or more, or of Forty Shillings or more annually, shall have free liberty to inspect the said Hospital, and inform themselves of the State thereof, and of the Manner of Nursing, Dieting, Managing, Instructing and Employing the Children therein.

And further Our Will, That in all General Courts the President, or, in case of his Death or Absence, the Vice-President first named in the List of Vice-Presidents then present, be the Chairman of the said Court, and to have a casting Voice in case of an Equality of Votes.

And lastly Our Will and Pleasure is, That these Our Letters Patent, or the Inrollment or Exemplification thereof, shall be good, firm, valid and effectual in the Law, according to Our Royal Intentions herein before declared; and shall be taken, construed and adjudged, in all Our Courts and elsewhere, in the most favourable and beneficial Sense, and for the best Advantage of the said Corporation and their Successors; any Omission, Imperfection, Defect, Matter, Cause or Thing whatsoever to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding, without Fine or Fee, great or small, to be for the same in any Manner rendered, done or paid to Us in Our Hanaper, or elsewhere, to Our Use.

In Witness whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent.

Witness Ourselves at Westminster, the Seventeenth Day of October, in the Thirteenth Year of Our Reign.

By Writ of Privy Seal,

His MAJESTY's Honourable Band of Gentlemen-Pensioners.

But the original Institution, Nature, Design, and Quality, of this Honourable Band, cannot be more justly represented, than in the following Letter from Lord George Hunsden, to King James, before he came into England, upon the Death of Queen Elizabeth.

Most Mighty and most Gracious Liege and Sovereign,

" Among many other Honours and Duties which I do owe " unto the Memory of my late deceased Sovereign,
" this is not the least; that it pleased Her Majesty, upon the " Decease of my Lord and Father, and who also enjoyed the " same

" same honourable Office, to grace me with the Captain-ship
 " of Her Band of Gentlemen Pensioners; which Place and Dig" nity I have, to this present, enjoy'd: For the further Con" tinuance whereof, I humbly desire to understand your Ma" jesty's Direction, and withal do think it a Matter agreeable " to my Duty and Allegiance, plainly and truly to inform " your Majesty, of the Institution, Nature, Quality, and Ser" vice of this honourable Band. They are, in all, Fifty Gen" tlemen, besides my self, Lieutenant, Standard-Bearer, Clerk " of the Checque, and Gentleman Harbinger, chosen out of " the best and antientest Families of England, and some of them
 " Sons to Earls, Barons, Knights, and Esquires, Men there-
 " unto especially recommended for their Worthiness and Suf" ficiency, without any Stain, or Taint, of Dishonour, or " Disparagement in Blood. Her Majesty, and other Princes,
 " her Predecessors, have found great Use of their Service, as " well in the Guard and Defence of their Royal Persons, as " also in sundry other important Employments, as well Civil
 " as Military, at Home and Abroad; insomuch as it hath " served them always, as a Nursery, to breed up Deputies of " Ireland, Ambassadors into Foreign Parts, Counsellors of " State, Captains of the Guard, Governors of Places, and " Commanders in the Wars, both by Land and Sea: Withal,
 " I cannot omit to signify to your Majesty their Alacrity and " Affection wherewith upon the Decease of her Highness they " did embrace your Majesty's Title and Cause; insomuch,
 " that upon my Motion, they did most willingly offer them" selves to a strong and settled Combination, by solemn Oath
 " and Vow, to defend and prosecute your Majesty's lawful " Right and Title, by themselves, their Friends, Allies, and " Followers, (being no contemptible Portion of this Kingdom)
 " to the last Drop of their Blood, against all Impugners what" soever; with which humble and dutiful Desires of theirs to " serve your Majesty, I thought it my Part and Duty to ac-
 " quaint you, and withal humbly desire to know your Ma" jesty's Pleasure and Resolution as concerning them. I have " caused them to remain all about the Court, with their Hor" ses, Armour, and Men, to attend the Body of our late Royal
 " Mistress; and being generally all desirous to wait upon your " Majesty at your Entry into this Kingdom, as those that " would be loth to be second to any in all obsequious and ser" viceable Duties to your Majesty, wherein I humbly desire
 " your Majesty's further Direction,

And even desire Almighty God, &c.

The Rules and Orders made by several Kings of England, in relation to the Duties and Government of the Band of Gentlemen-Pensioners, containing in Substance, that,

THE Band of Pensioners have the Honour to bear the King's Royal Banner, to be his nearest Guard and principal Military Care of his Household, and is to consist of the Sons of Noblemen and Gentlemen, chosen out of the best and ancientest Families of the Realm, Men thereunto especially recommended for their Worthiness and Sufficiency, without any Stain or Taint of Dishonour or Disparagement in Blood; and it has serv'd as a Nursery, in which has been bred up Deputies of Ireland, Ambassadors into Foreign Parts, Counsellors of State, Captains of the Guard, Governors of Places, and particularly Commanders in the Wars.

Every Gentleman Pensioner, at his Admission into the Band, takes an Oath, by which he binds himself,

1. To be a true and faithful Subject and Servant to the King.
2. Truly and diligently to give his Attendance in the Quality of one of his Majesty's Gentlemen-Pensioners.
3. Not to be retained to any Person whatsoever, by Livery, Badge, Promise, or otherwise, but to the King only.
4. To disclose Treason, or any other thing that he shall know of, that may be hurtful to the King.
5. Whenever requir'd, to be provided with three double Horses, and Harness for himself and Servants, to serve the King in Time of Need, or otherwise, at the King's Pleasure, at the Commandment of the Captain, Lieutenant, or Standard-Bearer of the Band.
6. Truly and diligently to keep all and every such Articles, Rules and Ordinances, that are or shall be set forth by the King, for the Government of the Band.
7. To be obedient to the Captain and other Officers of the Band, and at all Times to observe and keep their Commandments in whatever concerns the King's Service.
8. Not to disclose any Secret they shall be intrusted with by the King, their Captain, or other Officers.
9. Diligently to give their Attendance upon the King in such wise as they shall be commanded by their Captain or other Officers.
10. Not to depart from Court, without Leave.
11. To make their Muster in such Harness, and other Habili-biliments of War, and upon such Horses, as shall be their own proper Goods.

12. Not to Muster with any other Man's Servants in lieu of his own, but with such only as shall be retain'd with himself to serve the King.

The Articles, Rules, and Ordinances, made by King Henry VIII. King Charles I. King Charles II. and King James II. contain,

I. That the Band of Pensioners are the King's nearest Guard, and are to have daily Access into his Presence-Chamber.

II. That none be admitted into the Band but the Sons of Noblemen, Gentlemen of Blood, and of the best Families of the Kingdom; or Persons, who by their Valour and good Conduct in the Wars have distinguish'd themselves as Commission Officers in the Army, and who shall, for the Term of six Months at least, have served at their own proper Costs, as Gentlemen at Arms, or Pensioners Extraordinary in the Band.

III. That none that is or shall be a Servant, or retained to any Person or Persons whaetver, by Oath, Badge, Promise, or otherwise, but to the King, shall be of the Band.

IV. That the Gentlemen-Pensioners in Ordinary, and the Gentlemen at Arms, or Pensioners Extraordinary of the Band shall be advanc'd to be Commission-Officers in the Army, preferably to all other Persons whatsoever.

V. That such of the Gentlemen as shall not be dispensed with, shall be in the King's Presence-Chamber every Holiday, by Nine o'Clock, in the Forenoon, and every other Day by Ten o'Clock, with their Axes ready, to know what shall be commanded them.

VI. In the King's Progress, or other Remove, or when he rides, the Gentlemen shall keep such Places as shall be appointed for them.

VII. They shall at all times be obedient to their Officers, and shall perform all such Services, as well in the King's Chamber, as in all other Places where it shall be the King's Pleasure to be served by them.

VIII. If any Gentleman-Pensioner in Ordinary fail in his Attendance, he shall be Checqued for the first Default, with the loss of three Days Wages; for the second Default with the loss of six Days Wages; and for the third Default, with the loss of fifteen Days Wages.

IX. Every Gentleman-Pensioner in Ordinary shall have his Axe borne after him, by a sufficient Man, to the Place where he ought of Duty to bear it himself, under the King's Displeasure, and Penalty of the Checque.

X. Every Gentleman-Pensioner in Ordinary shall, whenever he is requir'd, upon fourteen Days Notice to be given him by the Captain, or other commanding Officer of the Band, sufficiently furnish and provide himself with three great Horses, proper Arms and Furniture for himself and two Servants; and every Gentleman at Arms, or Pensioner Extraordinary, shall furnish and provide himself with one great Horse, with proper Arms and Furniture, to serve the King wherever he shall be commanded, under the Penalty of forfeiting ten Days Wages for the first Default, a Month's Wages for the second Default; and for the third Default, to be clearly expulsed and put out of the Place of a Gentleman-Pensioner.

XI. The Captain and other Officers of the Band are always to foresee, that there shall not be absent at any one Time above half the Band, and that the other half be at all times in such readiness, that when Warning shall be given them by their Officers, they do repair to the Court, and give such Attendance as shall be requir'd of them.

XII. The whole Band are to attend at the four principal Feasts of the Year, viz. Christmas, Easter, Whitsuntide and All-Holland, St. George's Feast, and the Anniversary of the King's Coronation, under Penalty of the Checque.

XIII. The accustom'd Oath is to be taken by every Gentleman-Pensioner at his Admission into the Band.

XIV. The Habits and Arms of the Gentlemen shall be such as the King or the Captain shall appoint.

XV. The Band is to be Muster'd, Trained and Exercised in Military Discipline, every Quarter, or Monthly, or as often as the Captain, Lieutenant, or Standard-Bearer shall think it necessary.

Originally the Gentlemen-Pensioners had but 50 l. a Year Salary, and a Table was allowed them at Court; but in the time of King James, their Table was taken away, and in lieu thereof they had daily Board-Wages allowed them, amounting to 50 l. a Year, which made their Salaries 100 l. a Year, as is at present.

There was formerly an Officer, call'd Master of Arms, belonging to the Band, whose Duty was to instruct the young Nobility and Gentry, who serv'd as Gentlemen at Arms, and as Pensioners in the Band, in Military Exercises; and it is thought the said Office will be again set on foot, and that the Band will be made a Nursery for Breeding up Officers to the Army, as it was heretofore.

An Account of the University of Glasgow.

THE University of Glasgow was erected by a Bull of Pope Nicholas V. dated 7th Calendas Januarii, A.D. 1451, at the Desire of King James II. of Scotland; Dr. William Turnbull, Bishop of Glasgow, supplying the whole Charges of the Foundation. By the Pope's said Bull, he and his Successors in the Bishoprick of Glasgow, were constituted Chancellors of the University, with all the same Powers enjoy'd by the Rectors dicti Cancellarij of the University of Bononia. And there was erected, "Studium generale in Theologia, Jure Canonico & Civili Artibus, atque quavis alia licita Facultate." And all Powers, Privileges, Exemptions, and Immunities which had at any Time been granted by the Holy See to the University of Bononia, are granted to the University of Glasgow.

The said most Reverend Prelate likewise procured a Charter, under the Great-Seal of Scotland, of most ample Privileges to this University, from King James II. dated at Sterling, 21 April, 1453. The Bishop also, with Consent of the Dean and Chapter gave the University another Charter of Privileges, under their Seal, 1 Dec. 1453. All which Charters were confirmed by Charters from succeeding Kings and Archbishops.

The University was at first composed of the Clergy of the Cathedral, and the neighbouring Country; among whom were Mr. Patrick Lath, then Chancellor of the Diocese, afterwards Chancellor of Scotland, and Mr. David Cadzow, or Kago, Præcentor of the Cathedral, who was the first Rector, and afterwards a great Benefactor to the University. Mr. William Elphinston was first Dean of the Faculty of Arts, then Rector of this University, and at last Bishop of Aberdeen, and Founder of that University. The Abbot of Kilwinning, and some of his Monks, with those of the Abbey of Melrofs, were Members of this University at its first Foundation. In the Year 1457, we find matriculated into the University, "Andreas Stuart, Subdecanus Glasguensis Frater Serenissimi Regis Scotorum, Jacobi Secundi."

There is in the Records of this University still extant the original Rector's Book, in Vellum, containing a regular Journal of all Proceedings in the University-Congregations, from the Foundation to very near the Time of the Reformation, with the original Subscriptions of the Members.

At the Reformation, 1560, when all Revenues of the Church and Religious Houses were seized, and the Popish Clergy turned out, the Members of this University fled to France or Flanders, the Buildings were neglected, and the greatest Part of the Salaries of Masters and Scholars were taken ken away. Queen Mary, by her Letters to the Lords of Council and Session, dated 13 July 1563, granted again, "for the Maintenance of Scholars (called Bursars here) certain Lands and Annuities formerly belonging to the Pre-dicant Friars at Glasgow, together with their Church and "Dwellings." Some few Years after, they also obtained a Grant of all the Lands, Houses, Annuities,, &c. which had formerly belonged to any Chapels, Alterages, Prebendaries in any Churches or Monasteries founded in Glasgow.

King James VI. of Scotland, by his Charter dated at Dalkeith, the 13th of July 1577, confirming the former Donations, granted to the College erected in the University, the Tythes of the Parish of Govan, for maintaining the Principal, Regents, Bursars, or Scholars, and Servants: This Charter was ratified in his next Parliament. Also, the said King, with Advice and Consent of Parliament, by an Act dated the 28th of June 1617, grants to the said College, the whole Tythes of the Parishes of Renfrew and Kilbride, reserving Stipends to the Ministers.

By several other generous Donations the Funds of this College were augmented: The Rev. Mr. Zacharias Boyd gave above 1600 l. Sterling before the Civil-Wars; by which, and some other Funds, were purchased the Tithes of three other Parishes. William, late Earl of Dundonald, gave Lands worth about 60 l. Sterling per Annum, for maintenance of Bursars in Philosophy and Theology. The late Anne, Dutches of Hamilton, gave 1000 l. Sterling, for maintenance of three Students of Theology. This Fund is now augmented, by careful Management, near to 1500 l. Capital.

The late King William, of glorious Memory, gave to the College a Grant of 300 l. Sterling per Annum, out of the Rents of the Archbishoprick, for several Purposes about the College, and among others, 70 l. Sterling per Annum, for maintaining four Students in Theology. The late Queen Anne, upon Representation made to her, That the Scotch Parliament, before the Union, had resolved to give some Augmentation to the Scotch Universities and Colleges, gave a Grant of 210 l. Sterling per Annum to each of them during her Life. This has been continued by King George I. and his present Majesty. King George I. also gave a very handsome Fund for a Professorship of Ecclesiastical History.

Before the Revolution, Mr. John Snell devised to Baliol College in Oxford, certain Lands for maintenance of Scotch Students: These Lands now maintain four Scholars at 40 l. per Annum each for eleven Years: And upon the Death of his Daughter, two other Scholarships will be added. These Scholars are limited to be of Scotch Parents, born in Scotland, and to have studied two Years in Glasgow; reserving to this College the Right of nominating them to the Master and Fellows of Baliol. The

Book III. OF GREAT-BRITAIN. II

The late Rev. Dr. Daniel Williams devised, for the maintenance of Students in Theology, certain Lands to this College, the Value of which is not yet fully ascertained.

His Grace the Duke of Chandos gave 500 l. Sterling to this University, which is employed towards building a Library, which is a very beautiful Structure.

John Orr, of Barrowfield, Esq; the present Rector, gave 500 l. Sterling for a Fund; the Interest of which is yearly to be added to the former Fund, for buying Books. The late Principal, the Rev. Mr. John Sterling, left 165 l. Sterling to the same Purpose.

The University-Officers are the Chancellor, who is elected for Life. The Power of the Chancellor is chiefly in conferring Academical Honours.

The Rector, who is elected annually in Comitii, where all the matriculated Members have Votes, his Power is near to that of the Vice-Chancellor in Oxford, being the chief Magistrate in the University.

The Dean of the Faculty, who is elected annually by the University Meeting, or the Senatus Academicus, composed of the Rector and all the Regents and Professors. His Business is to preside in all Affairs of Literature, and publick Examinations. The Chancellor has also the Power, in his Absence, to nominate a Vice-Chancellor.

The Professors are thirteen, and, by a late Statute, take Place according to the Seniority of their Admission, except the Principal and the Second Professor of Theology, who are always ranked first.

There are besides, upon the Foundation, and upon Funds since added, a Library-Keeper, a Bedellus, about 30 Bursaries of one sort or other, and a Janitor, beside inferior Servants.

In this University there is only one College. The Professors are all elected by the Faculty, or Senatus Academicus, except the Principal, and those of Ecclesiastical History and Anatomy.

The Buildings of this College are much better than those of any College in Scotland: They consist of three Squares, two old ones, and one lately built, but not yet finished. The old Buildings in Queen Mary's, or King James VI's Days, have probably been separated from the Town by a high Wall; but now the College fronts the principal old Street of Glasgow. The old Front to the Street, which is a very stately Edifice, three Stories high, and about 130 Feet in length, was built in the Year 1653, together with the greatest Part of the Outer-Square or Court, and the South-side of the Inner-Square or Court; but the other Sides of the Inner-Court are much older. The latest built Part of these three Sides is above an Hundred Years old, of hewn Stone, all three Stories high, and more decent than most Buildings of that Time. The Outer-Court

Court is about 85 Feet in breadth, and 50 in depth, in the Area within the Buildings. The Inner old Court is about 85 Feet in breadth, and near 100 Feet in depth, within the Buildings. To the Front is added Streetwards on the South-side, the Principal's House, large and convenient. To the North-side is built the New Court, not yet finished, in which there are at present six very large and convenient Houses for the Professors. The Area of this Court, within the Buildings, is about 65 Feet in breadth, and about 180 in depth, retiring further back from the Street than the Depth of both the old Courts. There is lately built, but not quite finished, the Duke of Chandos's Library, on the S. E. Corner of the old Square, quite separated from all the other Buildings, and fronting to the Gardens; it is 60 Feet long, 38 wide, and 33 Feet high to the Cornice. The whole Fabrick of the three Courts stands upon an Area of 270 Feet towards the Street, and as much in Depth. Behind the Buildings is a spacious Garden, of near nine English Acres, inclosed with a Wall of hewn Stone, about eight Foot high, and laid out into very beautiful Walks, adorned with Hedges: Adjacent to this is a decent Phyfick-Garden. In the Buildings are nine large Houses for the Professors; a University-Hall, very spacious, and well finished; a Common-Hall; two Libraries, and six convenient Schools or Chambers for teaching, with about 40 large Chambers for Lodgings to the Students, a Printing-House, and publick Kitchen. The Tower or Steeple standing between the two old Courts, is tolerably beautiful and stately, being about 80 Feet high of Stone-Work, beside the Roof or Spire.

The Library is a pretty large Collection of Books, about nine thousand Volumes.

In this College there is a curious Collection of Stones with Roman Inscriptions, found in the Roman Wall near Glasgow, most of which are printed in some late Collections of the British Antiquities.

The Course of teaching is this: Each Professor is confined in his Teaching to one Business or Science; and all Students in any Science are taught by its proper Professor: So that each Scholar often attends two or three Lectures of different Professors during the same Session.

The Session or Term begins the 10th Day of October, and continues, without Interruption, to the Middle of June, and then one long Vacation of near four Months. During the whole Session of eight Months, there are scarce 12 Holidays.

When a Scholar enters, he is supposed to have read only the ordinary Latin School-Books, and the Greek Grammar, and the Gospels. He enters under the immediate Care of the Professor of Humanity, and is taught three Hours each Day in Horace, Juvenal, Livy, Cicero, &c. and during the first Year he ordinarily attends to the Greek Lessons an Hour at least each Day.

The second Year he enters the Greek Class, called Bajan, from the French, Bas-gens (this having formerly been the youngest Class.) Here they are taught two Hours every Day in Homer, Theocritus, Euripides, Sophoclis, Demosthenes, Aristotle's Poeticks, Longinus, &c. and continue one Hour each Day to attend the Professor of Latin.

The third Year they read two Hours each Day Logicks, Metaphysicks, and Pneumaticks, with the Professor of these Branches of Philosophy; and this Year begin the Study of Geometry, being taught an Hour each Day by the Professor of Mathematicks, and many attend also the Greek Lectures.

The fourth Year they are taught two Hours each Day by the Professor of Moral Philosophy, who reads either in Greek or Latin some ancient or modern Book of Etbicks or Politicks; and this Year the Scholars continue to attend the Lessons of Geometry, and perhaps attend a Lecture of Humanity.

The fifth Year they are taught two Hours at least by the Professor of Natural Philosophy, as that Science is improved by Sir Isaac Newton, and attend two Hours in the Week a Course of Experiments. Some continue to attend Lessons of Mathematicks, or the Lessons of the Law of Nature and Nations, or of Greek, or Latin. At the End of this Year, those who desire and are qualified, are admitted to the Degree of Arts, called here that of Master, which here requires only four Years standing, as the Bachelors Degree in Oxford. And all who have studied well the Latin Tongue at School, and have got the Rudiments of the Greek, are admitted to enter as of the Bajan Class; nay, many enter the Logick Class.

During the three Years of Philosophy, the Scholars have frequent Exercises in Declaiming and Disputing, both in the several Classes, and in the Common-Hall: And, about the 10th of December, there is a publick Examination of all the Under Graduates, which continues a Fortnight or three Weeks, three Days each Week at least.

After this Standing in the College, Scholars attend, as they are inclin'd for the Business of their Lives, either the Lessons of Divinity an Hour each Day, and along with them study Hebrew and other Oriental Languages, or Ecclesiastical History, with the several Professors, who teach each an Hour every Day; or study Law or Physick under the several Professors, who are obliged at least to teach four Hours in the Week such Scholars as apply to them.

The Scotch Clergy, since the Establishment of Presbytery, have not applied to the Scotch Universities for Degrees in Divinity: But before the Revolution the same Degrees were conferred in Divinity as are now in Oxford and Cambridge: And the Scotch Colleges confer these Degrees on Divines of other other Countries, who apply for them, having studied in Scotland, but not upon less Standing than in Oxford.

Degrees in Physick and Law are frequently conferred here as in other Universities.

The Scholars in Glasgow all wear red Gowns while they are Under-Graduates; and the Professors wear black Gowns, like those of Doctors of Civil Law.

An Account of the University and King's College of Aberdeen.

It is certain, that the Canons of the Cathedral Church of Aberdeen publickly taught and professed not only Theology and the Canon-Law, but also Grammar, Philosophy and the other Liberal Arts, during some Centuries after A.D. 1125, in the Reign Reign of David the first King of Scots; yet the first Erection of the University of Alberdeen, by publick Authority, was not before A. D. 1494. At which Time James VI. King of Scots procured from Pope Alexander VI. a Bull, dated 4 Id. Feb. of the 'foresaid Year, erecting in the City of Old Aberdeen an University [Universitas Studii generalis] wherein Theology, the Canon and Civil Laws, Medicine, Philosophy, and all other Liberal Arts and Sciences should be publickly taught and professed; allowing both Professors and Students in ample Form, all the Privileges, Liberties, Immunities, and Exemptions enjoy'd by any University whatsoever, particularly the Universities of Paris and Bononia: All which Privileges the King himself confirmed by his Royal Authority, allowing this University all the Powers and Liberties which the most Christian French Kings had conferred on the University of Paris, or his Royal Progenitors King James I. and II. On the Universities of St. Andrew's and Glasgow.

The renowned Bishop Elphinston established Doctors and Professors in the several Faculties, Masters and Students to the Number, at first, of six and thirty, which he afterwards enlarged to two and forty. These Persons founded, were 1. Four Doctors; the first, Doctor of Theology, who is Principal of the whole College; the second, Doctor of Canon-Law; the third, of Civil-Law, and the fourth, of Medicine. 2. Eight Masters of Arts, of which, the first was Sub-Principal; the second, Humanity Professor; the other six, Students of Theology, out of which were chosen the Regents, who, together with the Sub-Principal, were to teach Philosophy, and the Arts. 3. Three Batchelors, Students of the Laws, two of the Civil-Law, and one of the Canon. 4. Thirteen Students of Philosophy and Arts. 5. Eight Prebendary-Priests [Sacerdotes Præbendarii] the first whereof was Cantor; the second, Sacrist; the other six were called Capellani Chori; one of which was Organist. 6. Six Singing Boys [sex Pueruli Choreales] who were to be put with the 'foresaid Priests at Divine Service, at all Hours, in the College-Chapel.

For the Accommodation of all those founded Members, the said Bishop Elphinston, mostly on his own Charges, built a stately College, consisting of an entire Court, containing an handsome Chapel richly furnished, a lofty Steeple with a noble Cupola in Form of an Imperial Crown, supported with arched Pillars rising cross-wise from the Battlement, and a Set of fine large Bells; also large publick Halls, and convenient Apartments for the Principal, Sub-Principal, Regents, Students of Theology and Philosophy, to whom only he assigned Lodgings within the Gates of the College. To the other Masters, viz. the Canonist, Civilest, Mediciner and Grammarian, with their Students, he caused to be built without the College, but within the Precinct of the University, separate Manſes, with Gardens, and other Conveniencies, where the ſaid Profeſſors where to have all their Leſſons, and, together with their Students, to live collegiately. He appointed alſo Chambers for the eight Prebendary-Chaplains, and ſix Singing-Boys, without the College. He aſſigned alſo to each of theſe founded Members, out of the Revenues giſted or procured by the King and himſelf, ſeveral diſtinct Salaries, ſufficient at that Time, conſidering the Value of Money then, though now ſmall and inconfiderable.

But a full Hiſtory of all thoſe founded Members, their Offices, Manſions and Proviſions, as alſo of the whole ancient Foundation and Conſtitution of this Univerſity (digefſed by the conſummate Biſhop Elphinton, &c. publiſhed by Biſhop Gavin Dunbar) compared with the new Foundation, made about the Time of the Reformation, together with an Account of all the learned Men, in the ſeveral Profeſſions, who have flouriſhed there, and of all thoſe Gentlemen educated there, who have diſtinguiſhed themſelves in the Commonwealth of Letters, or have been advanced to eminent Offices in Church or State, likewise of all the Benefactors ancient and modern, is expected from one of the Profeſſors of the ſaid Univerſity, who hath, with great Labour, theſe ſeveral Years by-gone, compiled an Account of all thoſe Particulars from original Rights, Kings Charters, Chartularies, Records, and other authentick Papers, yet extant in the Charter-Cheſt and Library of King's-College. Beſides ſeveral obvious Uſes of ſuch a Performance, 'tis humbly conceived, that it might contribute much to ſet in Light that Branch of Scotiſh Hiſtory, viz. The ancient Conſtitution of their Univerſities, which was almoſt buried in Oblivion about the Time of the Reformation, and yet continues ſo; the Univerſities of St. Andrew and Glaſgow having at that Time, or afterwards, loſt the greateſt Part of their original Papers, whereas the Univerſity of Aberdeen has theirs entire.

His Maſteſty's Marſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen was founded the 2d of April, 1593, by George Earl Marſchal; which Foundation was confirmed by the King and Parliament the 2d of July thereafter, as likewise by King Charles II. and his Parliament, Anno 1661. By both which Acts of Parliament the Earl Marſchal's Foundation-Charter of the ſaid College is ratified and confirmed, and all the Freedoms, Liberties, and Jurisdiction, that to any Free College within this Realm by Law and Practice is known to appertain, are by the Authority of King and Parliament conferr'd and diſpon'd to the ſaid College: So that it is a diſtinct Univerſity from the other College, in the neighbouring Village, commonly called the King's College, or old College of Aberdeen. Both Colleges were united, and called the Caroline Univerſity by King Charles I. who in the laſt Parliament held by him him in Scotland, declared them one University, under that Name, and bestowed on them the Revenues of the Bishoprick of Aberdeen; but all this was revers'd at the Restoration of King Charles II.

At first the Marischal Colledge consisted of a Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, four Assessors to the Rector, the Principal, and three Regents, for teaching the Languages and Philosophy, six Bursars, one Oeconomus, or Butler, and a Cook. The Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, and Assessors, are Annual Magistrates of the University, chosen by the Students, with Concurrence of the Principal and other Masters. The Dean of Faculty only is chosen by the Rector, Principal, Masters, and Ministers of Aberdeen, called Parson of St. Nicholas. The Election of these Magistrates is on the 1st of March yearly.

Besides these extrinseck Members, the College now consists of a Principal, a Professor of Divinity, a Professor of Medicine, Mathematicks, three Professors of Philosophy, one of Greek, and a Professor of Oriental Languages, which Professor was lately founded by the late Rev. Mr. Gilbert Ramsay, Minister of the Gospel in Barbados, who likewise provided 15 l. per Annum to each of four Bursars in Philosophy, and 25 l. per Annum to each of two Bursars in Divinity, in the said University, a Library-Keeper, a Porter, and a Servant under him.

There are a great many other Bursars in his Majesty's Marischal College: The most considerable were founded by Irving of Drum, Esq; Turnerhall, and the late Bishop of Salisbury, Dr. Gilbert Burnet, and Mr. William Lorimer.

The Earl Marischal, Founder of the said College, bestowed for the Maintenance of the Principal, three Regents, &c. several Lands, with the Gray-Frier Convent, &c. which had been given to him by the Provost, Baillies, Council and Community of Aberdeen, to be annex'd to the College, as the Acts of Parliament, above-mentioned, more fully bear. But Earl Marischal's Donation out of his own Lands, to the six Bursars, did not take place.

The Principal Professors of Medicine, Philosophy, and Greek, are now presented to the respective Offices by his Majesty, since the Forfeiture of the Earl Marischal.

The Magistrates and Town-Council, as Patrons, present the Professor of Divinity; which Office was first founded by one Mr. Pat. Copland.

The Library of this College, as well as a Salary for a Keeper, was first founded by Mr. Thomas Reid, Secretary to King James VI. for the Latin Tongue.

The Buildings consist of two Courts, the old adjacent to the Gray-Friers Church, and where the Schools for Teaching are, is made up of low Buildings, and in very bad Repair, being very old, and the Society having but a pitiful Fund either to repair or keep them in Repair. The new Buildings, which were begun and carried on by Contributions and Gifts from the Community of Aberdeen, Noblemen and Gentlemen who had been educated at the College, are not, for want of Money, yet fully finished. The House is upwards of one Hundred and Twenty Foot long, with a Plat-form at one End, designed for an Observatory: It consists of a Common School, or Hall, in which publick Prayers are said, Examinations, Orations, and Commencements are held: A large Hall, for Meetings of the University, in which are several good Pictures of the Benefactors and Professors: In the third Floor is the Library, in which are a good many valuable Manuscripts, and best Editions of Greek and Latin Authors: The rest of the Building is made up of the Chambers for the Students.

There is a Room well furnished with Instruments, &c. where are read publick Lectures for Natural and Experimental Philosophy, and Experiments performed.

The Principal and Professors wear black Cloth Gowns. The Students use red Gowns.

On publick Occasions, the Sacrist, or First Beadle, carries a large Silver Mace gilt before the Members of the University.

The Principal and Professors, besides what they have by the first Foundation, have out of the Exchequer 105 l. Sterling divided amongst them yearly: But yet their Salaries are very mean and trifling.

The Session of the College is only for six Months.

The Arms or Seal of the University bears Quarterly the paternal Coat of the noble Family of Marischal, the first Founder, and the Arms of the Town of Aberdeen, with a Laurel surrounding the Shield, with a Sun for the Crest, and the Motto LUCERO.

Note 1. The Professions of Canon-Law, Civil-Law, and Medicine, which had been laid aside about the Time of the Reformation, were restored by Patrick Forbes, Bishop of Aberdeen, and Chancellor of the University, about Anno 1630. as also the Office of the Cantor, or Profession of Musick, about the same Time.

2. The Profession of Oriental Languages was instituted by the Chancellor and Masters of the University, Anno 1624, and endowed by King William, Anno 1698, with a Fund of 66 l. 13 s. 4 d.

3. The Profession of Mathematicks was instituted by the Chancellor and Masters of their University, Anno 1703, and endowed by the Scotish Parliament, Anno 1706, with a Fund of 50 l. for the Space of 25 Years. The learned Dr. Thomas Bower (who died at London, November 1, 1723.) was the first Professor.

An Account of the University of Edinburgh.

The University of Edinburgh was founded by King James VI. A. D. 1582. This Erection was thereafter ratified in several Parliaments, and last of all by the Union Act, 1706. The Royal Founder endowed his own University with as ample Privileges as any other in his Dominions enjoyed. The Magistrates and Town-Council of Edinburgh are perpetual Curators, and the Lord Provost of the City for the Time is Chancellor of the University.

At the first Institution, the Faculty consisted of a Principal, who was also Professor of Divinity, and four Professors of Philosophy, to whom soon after was added a Professor of Humanity and Rhetorick; and these five were commonly called Regents.

As the Reputation of the University, and Number of the Students increased, several new Professions were instituted and endowed, partly by the Royal Bounty, and partly by the Curators of the University, assisted therein by the liberal Donations and Mortifications of many of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Citizens, who either had their Education in the University, or were zealous to promote Learning there. Out of these Benefactions likewise Funds were allotted for many Scho.

Scholarships or Bursaries, and a publick Library was founded, and, by degrees, well furnished with useful and curious Books.

The College-Buildings are rather convenient than magnificent. The Principal and Ordinary Professor of Divinity have each a commodious Dwelling, disjoined from the other Building, and surrounded with Gardens. There are besides an University-Hall, which serves also as a Museum or Repository; a Common-Hall; Schools for every Profession; a spacious Publick Library; two other Libraries, one Theological, the other Physiologick, a Printing-House, and a good many Chambers in which Students may lodge if they please: But in this University the Students are not confined to lodge within the College, to eat at a Common Table, or to wear any distinguishing Habit, and no Test is required of them 'till they are to take Degrees, when they engage to adhere to the Protestant Religion, to honour the University, and promote useful Learning.

The Principal is always First Professor of Divinity: By his Office he presides in the Meetings of the Faculties, or Senatus Academicus, confers all Degrees in the Presence and by the Appointment of the Faculties, appoints the publick Exercises, visits the Classes, and takes an Account of the Behaviour of the Students.

The Professors of Divinity, Ecclesiastick History, and Oriental Languages, are obliged by the Constitution to teach publickly in the University, and to instruct all Students, who attend their Schools, in their several Professions, without any Premium.

The Ordinary Professor of Divinity attends in the publick School five Days of the Week, reads Lectures of Divinity, explains some System, appoints Exercises to the Students, proposes Questions, and solves Difficulties.

The Regius Professor of Divinity has for his particular Province Church History, on which he has publick Discourses during the Session.

The Professor of Oriental Languages is employed in instructing the Students of Divinity in the Hebrew, Syriack, &c.

Of the five Regents there are three Professors of Philosophy, a Professor of Greek, and a Professor of Humanity.

The Humanity is the first or lowest Class, in which a Choice of the best Roman Authors is explained and illustrated, and the Youth exercised in Writing, Latin and English.

In the Bajan, or Greek Class, the Youth are taught the Principles of that Language, and brought to explain Greek Authors, and to make Versions from the Latin into Greek. Such as have already some Knowledge of the Language are attended by the Professor at other Hours, and assisted in reading the best Greek Orators, Historians, Poets, Philosophers and Physicians.

The

The Course of Philosophy is divided amongst the three Professors, each adhering to that Branch to which he has been named, while the Students annually rise from one Professor and School to another.

One of these Professors has for his proper Business in the University, the teaching of Logick and Metaphysicks, which employs the first Year of Philosophical Studies.

To the Share of another Professor falls the teaching Pneumatics and Ethicks; he also reads Lectures of Political Philosophy, and Natural Religion.

The third teaches the Principles of Natural Philosophy, and a Course of Mechanical, Statical, Hydrostatical, and Optical Experiments; for which purpose the University is provided with a very good Apparatus of Machines and Instruments.

The Session-Time, or Term, for these Classes, and generally for the other Professions, commences the 10th of October, and ends about the middle of June, in which Time there are very few and short Interruptions: The Meetings are every Day of the Week, for three Days thrice, and in the rest twice; but at the Beginning, and towards the Ending of the Session, the Afternoon Meetings are discontinued.

The Professor of Mathematicks usually teaches three Classes, and sometimes four, according to the Number of Years that his Scholars apply themselves to that Study. Besides that, one or two of these Classes are sometimes subdivided, by reason of the Number of Scholars, or other Circumstances.

There are three Professors of Law in this University; one of the Law of Nature and Nations; one of the Civil and Canon-Law; the third of the Municipal or Common-Law. The first of these Professors were established and liberally endowed by the late Queen Anne, and is in the Gift of the Crown; the other two, as also a Profession of Universal History, and Roman Antiquities, were settled and endowed by Act of Parliament, by which 'tis appointed, That upon a vacancy in any of these Professions, the Faculty of Advocates shall nominate two Persons whom they judge qualified for the Office, and the Town-Council of Edinburgh is to choose one of these for the Professorship. These Professors regularly begin their private Lessons about the beginning of November.

There is a Professor of Anatomy, and four Professors of Physick in the University, who concert among themselves the most proper Order and Method of teaching the Science, and yearly teach a complete Course of Physick in all its Branches, beginning about the middle of October.

During the Session, or Term-Time, the Principal has some Latin Discourses in the Common-Hall, where all the Professors and Students are convened; afterwards the Professors in their Turn harangue in Publick every Wednesday 'till May, when when the publick Examinations and Disputations begin. Towards the End of the Sessions is the usual Time for taking Degrees in Arts. Upon Application the Principal summons a Meeting of the Faculties, to whom the Promoter reports the Names and Standing of the Candidates: Examinators are appointed to make Trials of their Qualifications, and to report at next Meeting. If the Candidates are approved, they have it in their Option to be admitted in a publick and solemn Manner, or in any private Way: If the first is chosen, some one or more of the Candidates must publish a Dissertation or Thesis on some Subject in Philosophy. Upon the Day appointed, all the Professors and Students are convened in the Common-Hall, and all the Magistrates of the City, and Persons of Note and Learning are invited to be present. After publick Prayers and Speeches by some of the Candidates, the Disputation begins. Some of the Candidates, or others present, are at liberty to propose Objections against the Thesis, which are answered by one of the Defendants: The Promoter moderates in the Dispute, and determines upon Questions. After this, the Opinion of the Professors being ask'd, the Principal proceeds to the Solemnity of admitting the Candidates to the Degree of Master of Arts. But this publick Solemnity is of late rarely chosen: So if the Examinators find the Candidates qualified, the Faculty acquiesce in their Report, and the Principal confers the Degree in their Presence.

The Degree of Doctor of Divinity or *Law*s is scarce ever sought for by Scots Divines or Lawyers: But when Persons of other Countries apply to this University, it has been often conferred, if the Persons applying were of known Abilities, an established Character, and sufficient Understanding, after being admitted Master of Arts. But as the Privileges of a Doctor of Physick are of more Importance to the Publick, and that Degree is often solicited, this University is in a particular Manner cautious on whom it is bestowed: Therefore no Person can obtain the Degree of Doctor of Physick, unless he previously apply to one of the Professors of Physick, who is Promoter for the Time; who enquires into the Time and Manner of his Studies: If he is satisfied therewith, he presents him to a Meeting of the Faculties, to make known his Request to be admitted upon Trials: The Faculty generally grant the Request, and remit the Candidate to the Professors of Physick, who appoint him such Examinations and Exercises as they think necessary: If these Trials satisfy the Professors of the Person's Sufficiency, they make their Report accordingly to the Meeting of the Faculties, by whose Appointment the Candidate is required to publish a Dissertation on some Subject relating to Medicine; and upon a Day appointed he is to answer the Objections and Arguments that shall be proposed against it by at least two of the Professors of Medicine, in a Meeting of the Faculties. Which being done, and Opinions ask'd, if there is no Objection, the Candidate takes and subscribes an Oath, and is admitted to the Degree of Doctor of Medicine.

After the Revolution several Attempts were made by the Royal College of Physicians at Edinburgh, for raising a Stock to erect an Infirmary, or Hospital, for Sick Poor; all which did misgive until the Year 1725, when the Proprietors of the Fishery-Company resolved upon a Dissolution and a Division of their remaining Stock. At which time the Gentlemen of the Royal College of Physicians, with the Concurrence of several other charitable and well-disposed Gentlemen, particularly of the Corporation of Chirurgeon-Apothecaries in Edinburgh, set about the procuring Subscriptions from the Proprietors of the Fishery-Company, assigning their Shares in the Dividend of that Stock, for establishing the design'd Infirmary. And at the same time many others, not of the Fishery-Company, did subscribe for certain Donations, all to be paid as soon as a certain Sum was sign'd for to begin the good Work. About February, 1728, the Capital first proposed, and some more being subscribed for, it was recommended to twelve Gentlemen to carry on the Subscriptions further, and call in the Money subscribed for.

The Gentlemen who concern'd themselves in this good and charitable Work, observing that the Money subscribed was gradually coming in, did digest some Rules for the Management of the Hospital; of which no other Account is needful to be given at present, but that the Management is committed to twenty Persons annually elected; viz. The Lord-Provost of Edinburgh for the Time, and in his Absence the Dean of Gild: the Deacon-Conveener of the Crafts of Edinburgh for the Time; the President, and in his absence the Vice-President of the College of Physicians for the Time; and four other Members of that College, whereof two out the Professors sors of Medicine in the University of Edinburgh, when such are at the Time; the Professor of Anatomy in the said University at the Time; and two of the Surgeons of Edinburgh, or three Surgeons, if there is no Professor of Anatomy; one of the Senators of the College of Justice; one of the Faculty of Advocates; one of the Society of Writers to the Signet; one of the Ministers of the Gospel in Edinburgh; and six others who have been Donors to the Hospital; and a House with Necessaries, suitable to the small Beginning, being provided, publick Advertisement was made, that the Hospital would be opened in August 1729, to take in Patients.

This Hospital has been kept up for six Years; the Patients are under the Inspection of the Royal College of Physicians, who attend by Rotation; and six of the Chirurgeon-Apothecaries, who attend monthly by Turns, and furnish the needful Medicines gratis. Relief has been given to many sick Poor, under great variety of Distempers, and several extraordinary Chirurgical Operations have been, with good Success, perform'd in it; of all which a distinct Register is kept. This has given so great Satisfaction to Persons of all Ranks, in whose Way it has fallen to hear or enquire about it, that Donations are continued for encreasing the Fund: And the Stock being now considerably augmented, and his Majesty having, been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Charter, confirming this charitable Establishment, which passed the Great-Seal of Scotland in October thereafter, the Managers of the Hospital do not doubt but that Donations will so encrease, that they will be in a Condition to build a proper House for the sick Poor who shall apply to them.
